New Year Ends War in Kashmir As India, Pakistan Order Truce

U. N. Plebiscite to Settle Which Dominion It Will Belong To; Meanwhile Two Zones Will Be Set Up, With Separate Interim Governments

Cease-Fire Ordered By India And Pakistan

New Delhi, India, Jan. 1 (AP) — Hindu India and Moslem Pakistan tonight called an immediate cease-fire in their fourteen months' shooting feud in the neighboring princely state of Kashmir.

The sister dominions, whose existence as free and sovereign nations is not much longer than the Kashmir conflict, announced a truce agreement calling for an end of fighting one minute before midnight (1.29 P.M., Eastern Standard Time) as a New Year's harbinger of peace.

They said they agreed that the major issue — whether Kashmir shall belong to India or Pakistan—would be settled by a United Nations-supervised plebiscite.

Kashmir Predominately Moslem

Recent dispatches from Pakistan said both countries had agreed to withdraw their armed forces from the field there, and to divide the state into two zones, each having its own interim government.

Sheikh Mohammed Abdullah, a Mohammedan who is close to the predominantly Hindu Indian Government, would head the interim government in the Indian-occupied sector, these dispatches said. Leaders of the so-called Azad (free) Kashmir Government, who had worked closely with Pakistan, would administer the Pakistan-occupied zone.

A United Nations administrator would be designated over both zones, according to this information, to establish machinery for a fair test of the people's will in a plebiscite.

Kashmir is predominantly Moslem in population, perhaps as high as 80 per cent at one time.

These points were not mentioned in the terse official announcements by the two governments.

Kill Indiscriminately

Both dominions, after a recent conference in New Delhi, announced they had settled many other economic and political differences amicably and would meet again in Karachi, the Pakistan capital, in early January to settle more disputes.

The fighting in Kashmir (more properly known as Jammu and Kashmir), burst into the open October 27, 1947, when India started an airlift of troops into the princely state, which had been invaded by half-savage Mohammedan tribesmen. India charged that they came from Pakistan with the help of the Pakistan Government, and Pakistan denied it.

Pakistan finally admitted last summer that its troops had been operating in Kashmir since June.

There was no question that tribesmen had invaded the state from somewhere, killing indiscriminately, including some white residents and tourists.

Maharajah's Fate Uncertain

India acted after Kashmir's Hindu Maharajah, Sir Hari Singh, had acceded the state to the Indian Union at an emergency conference. Pakistan contended most of the people wanted to accede to Pakistan or become a free and independent country, and that the Maharajah ran to India's arms because of his religion. He replied he went to India for help because the invaders came from Pakistan, and Pakistan knew it.

What happens to the Maharajah under the terms of truce and plebiscite has not yet been made clear.

He once banned Jawaharlal Nehru, India's Prime Minister, from the state, and there was shooting when Nehru defied the order, although no casulties were reported.

The Kasmir dispute became so hot that India carried it to the United Nations last summer. A United Nations commission visited both dominions in an effort to settle the fight. The negotiations broke down, and last November the dominions threatened each other with actual war.

A Triumph For Lozano

Pakistan has contended no fair plebiscite could be held while Indian troops remained even for maintenance of order. India then had about 100,000 troops in Kashmir, and Pakistan had an estimated 30,000 regular, plus about 40,000 irregulars who were fighting under joint command with the Pakistan troops.

The announcements indicated final settlement was a triumph for the peace-making of Dr. Alfredo Lozano, of Colombia, a member of the Kashmir commission who refused to concede that the dispute defied settlement.

Kashmir Cease-Fire Slated

New Delhi, India, Jan. 1 (AP)—A cease-fire was ordered in Kashmir tonight. A Government official said both India and Pakistan had agreed to the cease-fire and truce provided in a United Nations resolution.

The official said an agreement was reached also on principles of a Kashmir plebiscite to decide whether the princely state, largely Moslem, should affiliate permanently with Hindu-majority India or Moslem Pakistan. Such voting would be carried out under United Nations supervision.

Britain Torn Three Ways By Conflicts Of Interests

London, Jan. 1 (AP)—John Bull walked a diplomatic tightrope in 1948 with conflicting loyalties pulling him three ways.

Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and his advisers sought to balance Britain's obligations to the Commonwealth, to members of the west European family and to a rich and powerful United States. They succeeded—in part—but their country is still on the tightrope.

The year began with the British and French leading a project to form a union of West European nations. A pact was concluded and signed in Brussels in February. The project, blessed by most of the commonwealth governments, made Britain a continental power. It commits her automatically to go to the aid of her French, Dutch, Belgian and Luxembourg partners if they are attacked.

First Dilemma Arises

It ended, though, with the obligations implied by that alliance clashing with other specific British commitments.

Here was the first British dilemma:

Britain has traditional ties with countries of the commonwealth such as Australia and South Africa.

These dominions are entirely independent, but they have a king, and it is the British king.

Could King George, in behalf of Britain, declare war on a nation attacking Luxembourg, and at the same time maintain neutrality on behalf of distant Australia if Australia chose to stay neutral? Australia and other dominions, naturally, have a far less direct interest in the safety of Luxembourg than does Britain.

British diplomats resolved the conflict. They persuaded the dominions to pledge their moral and material backing to the western alliance. Their line: the only possible aggressor would be a Communist state. Communism is considered the main threat to the dominions' own security.

Dilemma No. 2:

Britain had a moral and material war debt to the United States. The United States wants a better crack at trade and investment in commonwealth countries. But the British and the dominions had had things pretty much their own way in intercommonwealth trade. They liked it that way.

The compromise: The British scaled down many of the intercommonwealth trade privileges when America insisted.

Clashes In Alliance

The British convinced the dominions it would be better to sacrifice some of the benefits of the empire than to lose United States good will.

Britain did some tightrope walking even within the western alliance. There were conflicts of interest, for instance, in her relations with France. The two countries mapped out programs for the rebuilding of their war-shattered economies. The programs simply did not fit into each other.

For example, France is a great producer of luxury goods. Her recovery depends largely on her ability to sell them abroad.

Austere Britain wants to spend little or no money on luxuries. Negotiations to resolve this conflict are still going on.

Another example:

France wants a parliament of Europe, at least of anti-Communist Europe. She thinks that is the only real way to achieve solid unity. Unity is deemed necessary economically and politically to ward off communism.

The British Labor Government doesn't want a parliament of Europe now. The Government thinks it would be just another talking shop.

It says the dominions agree a parliament would be meaningless and premature, and that real European unity will be forged only after economic unity is achieved through the American-sponsored European Recovery Program. Britain and France, with their Brussels partners, are trying to work out a compromise.

There have been difficulties with the United States and some dominions like Australia, too, over Britain's relations with her Brussels partners.

Both the United States and Australia have condemned roundly Holland's war against the Indonesian republic. Britain, however, has not been unsympathetic with the Netherlands. She indicated this when the United Nations Security Council debated the issue.

Fear Threat To Pact

But some British officials are fearful Dutch policy in Indonesia may sway a section of congressional opinion against the project for a North Atlantic security pact. Negotiations for this pact are in their final phase in Washington. The alliance would link the United States and Canada in a military relationship with the Brussels union partners.

Its conclusion has been the main objective of Britain's postwar foreign policy, since it would place Anglo-American relations on a better formal diplomatic basis than at any time since Britain's one-time American colonies proclaimed their independence 172 years ago.

Before 1948, according to Foreign Office officials, the Labor Governmetn wanted at all costs to avoid the impression and the charge that it was ganging up with other countries against Russia. The Government decided frankly to face the fact that it had to work as closely as possible with its best friends.

Arms Standardized

It came into the open with what had long remained an official secret—that Britain and the United States had agreed to standardize their arms and army equipment to fixed American sizes and patterns. This agreement formed the practical basis for what is expected eventually to become the North Atlantic pact.

All the same, although comforted by the display of anti-Communist solidarity in 1948, the British expect 1949 to be another year of international tension.

Privately they see no hope of saving China for the West. They anticipate a consequent period of heightened insecurity in their own possessions throughout the Far East.

They think the Communists will intensify their activities in Burma, Indonesia, Indo-China and Malaya.

To an extent, British diplomats declare, these Communist gains will be offset by virtual Western control of Europe's industrial cradle, which is West Germany and West Europe generally.

They think a period of acute instability still awaits France, Italy, Greece—but they say they are pretty sure Communist influences there will be beaten down.

They are less hopeful of the strategically vital and oil-rich Middle East, where they expect unrest and uncertainty to continue.

Solid Slav Front Is Urged by Tito

LONDON, Jan. 1 (AP) — Marshal Tito, feuding with the Russian led Cominform, called today for a solid front within Yugoslavia.

"The main point is that we preserve our internal unity, and we will certainly preserve it," he told Yogoslavs in a message broadcast from Belgrade.

Without naming any nations of the Slav bloc which have turned against him, Tito condemned the slogan "the aim justifies the means."

"Great things can never be built by foul means and in a dishonest way," said Tito.

He urged the people to disprove "the insults thrown at us," asked the Yugoslav Communist Party to strengthen its ranks and forecast that the party would lead Yugoslavia's workers, youth, intelligentsia and farmers to "new victories" in 1949.

Claims Against Austria Renewed by Yugoslavia

LONDON, Jan. 1 (AP).—Yugoslavia renewed today demands for territory and reparations from Austria. The issue wrecked the last four-power attempt to draft a treaty for Austria, which was part of Germany during the war.

In a broadcast from Belgrade, the Yugoslav Communist newspaper "Borba" said renewed negotiations—due to begin at London Feb. 7—cannot produce a "truly democratic peace" unless the demands are granted.

Yugoslavia has insisted on substantial money damages and the largely-Slovene province of Carinthia. Russia backed Yugoslavia but the United States, Great Britain and France were opposed. Since the last meeting, last spring, Russia and Premier Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia have had serious differences. The Kremlin-ruled Cominform has accused Tito of being unfriendly to Russia and leaving the Communist party line.

POLICE TROOPS PUT AT 42,000

May Reach 100,000 In East Germany During 1949

Berlin, Jan. 1 (AP)—The Communist police-army in eastern Germany has a strength of 42,000 troops and may reach 100,000 during 1949, Western Allied intelligence experts said today.

They cautioned against "hysterical overestimates" of the present or future fighting worth of this force under modern conditions of warfare.

It is organized on military, not police lines. But its chief mission may only be to enforce the Communist will in case of civil disorders. Its first assignment apparently will be to patrol the zonal frontier.

A big question mark hangs over what would happen if at an unpredictable future date all foreign occupation troops were withdrawn and Germany reconstituted as a political unit.

Known As "Peoples Army"

In that event, the eastern police-army theoretically might be prepared to "liberate" western Garmany.

But Allied experts pointed out that Western powers obviously would make every effort to assure that 46,000,000 Germans west of the Elbe would not be left defenseless prey for a small Communist minority from the east.

The measure of how little the Allies credit the combat potential of the Communist police-army can be seen in the continued refusal of western military governors to permit Germans to centralize control of police forces in their occupation zones.

The police-army already is commonly known in eastern Germany as the "peoples army."

Virtually all its troops are Wehrmacht prisoners who underwent Communist indoctrination in Russian camps.

Provincial Training Schools

In direct command is former Lieut. Gen. Vincenz Mueller, who survived Stalingrad and became a reliable Communist convert although thousands of his brother officers have proved untrustworthy from the Soviet viewpoint.

Mueller's public title is police chief of staff for the Russian zone.

The Soviet Army has made available pistols, Mauser rifles, machine-guns, mortars, anti-tank rockets and light armored cars to Mueller's force.

Three police-army training camps are in operation at Biesenthal, Eiche and Niedersachsenhausen, all near Berlin. Provincial training schools include those at Zerbst and Kyritz.

Lectures On Capitalism

The largest individual formation in the police-army at present is the battalion, known by the old Nazi elite guard name, "Standart." It is made up of three or more companies averaging 110 men each. The companies include nine rifles and three submachine guns, with the remainder carrying pistols.

All recruits for the police-army undergo what Communists hope is foolproof schooling before they return to Germany from Russia.

Their knowledge of current conditions in their homeland is derived only from Communist publications. Eastern Germany is described to them as a paradise for "little people" in contrast to famine and oppression in the west.

Prison camp courses include lectures on Marx-Lenin-Stalinism, the evils of capitalism, and the goals of "peoples democracy."

German Communists meet all returning trains of prisoners at Frankfurt-on-Oder, the Polish-German frontier point, handing out food and clothing together with another shot of ideology.

Those marked out for the police-army go to a reception center at Fuerstenwalde, about 20 miles east of Berlin, where induction takes place. Afterwards, short home leaves are granted, but recruits are sternly warned against discussing politics with "reactionary" neighbors.

About 1,000 are reported stationed inside Berlin, but the majority are at scattered posts in the Russian zone.

Anti-Communist Germans insist that the morale of the ordinary trooper in the police-army is low, his devotion to communism a shaky pretense, and his willingness to desert limited only by fear of severe punishment.

Allied intelligence experts are inclined to agree that large-scale desertions might occur in a crisis.

Persistent rumors that the Soviets are now allowing the police-army to train with Russian T-34 tanks lack substantiation.

Plans Drawn For Expansion

There is no reliable evidence, either, that the police-army has been supplied with field artillery.

Plans are drawn for the possible expansion of the force during this year to 100,000. Germany after World War I was limited to a Reichswehr of 100,000 men. It became the nucleus of Hitler's military juggernaut.

Russia has responded typically to recent disclosures about the police-army. Denying all such activity in their zone, the Soviets charge that Britain has concentrated 45,000 German troops in lower Saxony, and Americans are forming a German legion.

Power Shortage Threatens Ruhr

DUSSELDORF, Germany, Jan. 1 (AP).—Economic recovery in Germany's Ruhr is being threatened by a serious electrical power shortage.

The British military government officials today conceded that the power problem was the most acute facing this once-mighty German industrial area.

Although recent figures on power production showed the output is greater than in pre-war times, it still is not sufficient for peak load demands.

One problem is plant maintenance. During the war demands on facilities were enormous, resulting in a general running down of equipment.

Spain Seeks Air Pacts With U. S. and Britain

MADRID, Jan. 1 (AP).—Foreign Minister Alberto Martin Artajo said today Spain soon will negotiate new air agreements with the United States and Great Britain. He said Spain will insist on economic concessions in return for transit and landing rights for American and British planes.

He said the Western democracies are moving toward friendship with Franco Spain, although "Spain has made no concessions." He predicted the United Nations will take favorable action on Spain's application for membership during the next General Assembly meeting, in April. The statements were in a long interview published in the newspaper "A. B. C."

In the same edition there was published a statement in which former Foreign Minister Ramon Serrano Suner, Chief of State Francisco Franco's brother-in-law, said Spain this year should expect "resolute aid or collaboration from the wealthy countries, for whom the situation in Spain in present-day Europe is a comfort."

Czech Output Up 10% Over Prewar

Prague, Jan. 1 (AP)—Communist President Klement Gottwald said in a New Year broadcast today the Czechoslovak production is ten per cent above the prewar level.

He predicted strengthening of socialism during the year. He said this will be guaranteed under protection of Russia, which "proved its words by its deeds."

Front-Line Greeks Get Holiday Treat

Athens, Jan. 1 (AP)—Extra rations of food, wine and cognac were issued to Greek Soldiers at all front-line positions today. The soldiers also were presented candy, food and clothing contributed by American and Greek benevolent societies and private concerns.

Special precautions were taken against New Year's Day guerrilla attacks.

2 Recalled American Envoys Quit Bucharest

Bucharest, Romania, Jan. 1 (AP)—Two American diplomats whose recall was asked by the Romanian Government last November left Bucharest by train tonight.

They are Col. John R. Lovell, military attaché at the United States legation here, and Henry P. Leverich, veteran foreign service officer and counselor of the Bucharest legation.

In requesting their recall, along with that of two British diplomats, the Romanian Government declared the men had conspired with "spies and saboteurs."

The United States called this ridiculous and retaliated by asking Romania to recall two of its envoys assigned to Washington.

Hungarian Seeks Catholic Accord

Budapest, Hungary, Jan. 1 (AP)—President Arpad Szakasits said today Hungary is determined to reach an agreement with the Catholic church despite the arrest of its primate, Josef Cardinal Mindszenty.

[The Vatican has excommunicated all Catholics who had any connection with the arrest. The 1941 census listed 65.7 per cent of the Hungarians as Catholics.]

"The case of Mindszenty clearly shows the consequences of democracy forced to use its fists," the President said during a New Year visit of members of the (Communist-dominated) Government. Szakasits also received a group described as Catholic representatives and headed by Bela Witz, who was called the dean of Budapest.

The Cardinal was arrested on charges of suspicion of plotting against the Government, spying, treason and black-market money dealings.

The purported church delegation stressed the need of an understanding between the church and state.

Moscow Paper Quotes Views Of Cited U.S. Writer

JAN 1949

Moscow, Jan. 1 (AP)—The Literary Gazette published today what it said was a communication from Albert Maltz. Maltz is one of the Hollywood script writers cited for contempt by the House of Representatives for refusing to tell the Committee on Un-American Activities whether he was a Communist.

The letter quoted Maltz as saying "we are fighting not only for ourselves but also for all democrats of America. . . . Now in the fortieth year of my life, having been ordered before the commission for undermining anti-American activities, I do not intend to retreat from my own convictions.

"Too often it happens that the most sacred thing in life is forced to be sacrificed on the bloody, foul, smelly altar of a greedy, power-loving knot of people whose motto is profits, markets, oil—for whom war is the highest blessing."

Egyptian Ships Fight Israel's Off Tel Aviv

Tel Aviv, Palestine, Jan. 1 (AP)—A running naval battle was fought at New Year's dawn between Egyptian and Jewish warships off Tel Aviv, Israel announced today.

The battle, which was said here to have been inconclusive, was fought after the city was awakened at 2 A.M. by heavy naval fire and the buzz of planes. Officials said two Egyptian corvettes pumped shells at the blacked-out city for half an hour without causing any casualties or doing any damage.

Correspondents neither saw nor heard of any shells falling in the city.

Jewish Ship Flight Reported

[An Egyptian War Ministry communiqué issued in Cairo said the naval battle between two Egyptian and three Israeli ships, lasted for several hours. It said the Jewish vessels fled after being directly hit.

[The communiqué reported an "exchange of fire continued along the whole southern Palestinian front" and added that three Jewish planes were shot down by Egyptian anti-aircraft guns. Three other Israeli planes were hit and "were probably unable to return to their bases," the communiqué said. It said Egyptian planes strafed Israeli armor and inflicted heavy losses.]

An Israel spokesman immediately threatened that if the Egyptians attacked Tel Aviv once more, either by sea or air, the Israeli navy or air force, or both, would retaliate against Cairo, the Egyptian capital.

Distant Gun Flashes Noted

"In the present phase of fighting we have avoided attacks on areas of Egypt outside the battle zone," the spokesman said.

"But if after this action last night the Egyptians again attack Tel Aviv we shall take appropriate action in Egypt—on Cairo in particular."

He said he meant specifically that the Israeli navy or air force would retaliate directly against Cairo.

The Egyptian ships apparently were five or six miles off Tel Aviv when the city was awakened by the gunfire and air-raid sirens. Most people, some of whom still were holding parties in their homes, assumed at first that an air raid was in progress.

But observers could see the distant gun flashes. Then the roar of airplane motors was heard, presumably from Israeli planes.

Shore Batteries Return Fire

The Israeli announcement said the fire was "returned from Israeli shore batteries and after a short while the enemy vessels steamed off."

Later it was announced that the Egyptian ships were spotted by planes and pursued by Israeli corvettes in a running battle. The announcement said the raiders escaped southward.

Israel Warns Egypt

Tel Aviv, Israel, Jan. 1 (AP)—Israel warned Egypt tonight that if Tel Aviv is bombed from the air or shelled from the sea again, Cairo would be attacked in retaliation.

The warning came after an Israeli spokesmen said two enemy vessels approached the Tel Aviv coast shortly after midnight but were driven off by shore fire.

An official spokesman voiced the warning, charging that the two vessels were Egyptian corvettes which had pumped shells at Tel Aviv for half an hour from a point five or six miles off the coast.

The Israeli announcement said corvettes of its Navy fought a running battle with the attackers, but the combat was "inconclusive" and the enemy ships escaped southward.

The announcement said Israeli planes spotted the enemy craft and led Israeli corvettes to them.

Possibly Egyptian

The thunder of heavy naval fire, mingled with the wail of air-raid sirens, provided a noisy, unscheduled advent of the New Year.

The gunfire lasted almost a half hour. Reports found no trace of shells hitting Tel Aviv. The gunfire flashes could be seen offshore, however. The sound of plane engines could be heard and it was presumed Israeli aircraft took part in the defense. There was no mention of Jewish ships taking part.

500 Jews Are Stranded By Steamer Breakdown

SUDA BAY, Crete, Jan. (AP).—Fresh water, fruit and fish helped brighten an otherwise dreary New Year's Day for 500 Jews stranded on board the Panamanian vessel Tamba by a mechanical breakdown.

They were bound for Israel. The majority of those on board, gathered from all parts of Europe and assembled in Marseille, were reported to be volunteers for the Israel Army.

The 2,500-ton ship developed engine trouble earlier in the week off the coast of Greece and drifted four days before being taken in tow by the Dutch salvage tug Humbert sixty miles from the North African coast.

Rumors circulated on board the vessel that sabotage to engines and boilers caused the trouble. Ship officers did not comment.

CHINESE URGED TO WIN PEACE

JAN 1949

Premier Calls On People To Support 'Offensive'

Nanking, China, Sunday, Jan. 2 (AP)—Premier Sun Fo in a radio address early today urged the Chinese people to "give their organized support to the peace effort, so the Communists will realize what the people desire and will cease military action in the interests of their countrymen."

Sun told soldiers at the front they must not be distracted by the Government's announcement that it desires peace, but must "redouble their efforts in order to win peace."

Sun's statement, transmitted over the central broadcasting facilities, was seen in this Red-threatened Chinese capital as an effort to gain public support for the Government's current "peace offensive."

No 'One-Sided Affair'

"I shall devote my highest effort to bringing about peace for the welfare of the people," Sun declared, "but peace cannot easily be achieved by the effort of a few persons. The attainment of this common aim depends on the unified exertions of you all.

"Peace is not a one-sided affair."

Sun spoke in moderate terms, never once mentioning "bandits" or "rebels," the terms by which Government speakers usually refer to the Communists.

Sun's speech came after Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek had told his perlexed Government leaders at a New Year's Day meeting. "I have the strength to fight—therefore I dare talk about peace."

Addresses Conference

Chiang spoke at a meeting of Kuomintang (Government party) leaders in his office as the nation tried to puzzle out whether his contradictory New Year's statement of Friday night meant peace or continued civil war with the Communists.

The consensus was that only action—not words—would provide the clue. The war, however, remained at a standstill.

[The Communists, who in effect strongly rejected Chiang's peace gesture even as it was being offered, rebroadcast a long attack on him and his Government, calling them "a pack of professional traitors," "gangsters," and "stooges of American imperialism."]

Sets Up Conditions

Chiang's written statement offered to discuss peace with the Communists, and even hinted at his own retirement if required, but set up conditions which the high-riding Reds evidently will not accept.

These conditions included preservation of the Government constitution, maintenance of "the democratic form of government," the "entity" of the armed forces and the people's "free mode of living" and the living standard. Otherwise, the statement said, it will be war to the finish, with Chiang predicting that he yet would win.

Kuomintang leaders who attended the later meeting in the presidential office said Chiang told them that "just because I expressed hope for peace does not mean we have no strength to fight."

Notes "Wrong Psychology"

They said he wagged a finger at them for emphasis. They quoted him as saying:

"I want each of you to understand this point. The Communists will play on this to emphasize that we are suing for peace because we cannot fight on.

"That is wrong psychology. We must not be deceived by Communist propaganda—our military and economic strength are still greater than theirs.

"I am 100 per cent sure we can fight on and win. Our strength is in our spirit and ideals, and I believe that with this we can turn the tide of victory no matter how small our territory or our forces."

Most observers—both foreign and Chinese—thought this sounded like a routine 'pep talk."

They said Chiang's written statement might have been a real prelude to attempts at negotiations and probably was as strong as any Chinese leader would dare write. ["Face" apparently was the factor these observers were considering.]

Chiang Says He Can Triumph

Nanking, Jan. 1 (AP)—President Chiang Kai-shek, told leaders of the Kuomintang (government) party at a New Year's Day meeting in the President's office that "just because I expressed hope for peace does not mean that we have no strength to fight."

"I have the strength to fight—therefore I dare talk about peace" Chiang declared.

He continued:

"I want each of you (Kuomintang leaders) to understand this point. The Communists will play on this—that we are suing for peace because we cannot fight on.

Forces Still Strong

"This is a wrong psychology. We must not be deceived by Communist propaganda. Our military strength still is greater than theirs.

"I am 100 per cent sure that we can fight on and win. Our strength is in our spirit and ideals and I believe that with this we can turn the tide of victory, no matter how small our territory or our forces."

The President appeared in the best of spirits as he accompanied other Governmental leaders on the periodical visit to the tomb of Sun Yat Sen.

Lull On Battle Fronts

There was nothing in his appearance to indicate that he was a beaten leader who might within hours or days be forced to abdicate his leadership of the nation.

The Cabinet met to discuss the civil war crisis in the light of Chiang Kai-shek's statement that the Communists can have peace on his terms.

The old year—a black one for Chiang—slipped into history with a lull on all battlefronts but with feverish political maneuvering.

There were indications the issue of peace or war might be settled within three days.

Consider Resignation

There also were indications in Peiping that North China, where peace sentiment runs strong, might turn up with a separate Red agreement.

The Cabinet was said to be debating one sentence in Chiang's New Year's Day statement to determine whether it meant he was ready to resign the presidency as a peace gesture.

In the Chinese text is read: "Whether I stay or go makes no difference."

The weaker English translation handed out to the press read: "I am not concerned with my own position."

Meaning In Doubt

Some Chinese who read the text said they believed Chiang for the first time had indicated he was finished as China's leader after 21 weary years. Other observers said they could read nothing like that into his words.

Chiang's statement said the Government was ready to discuss with the Communists the means to end the civil war "if they are really sincerely desirous of peace."

But in the next breath, he spoke of Communist "armed rebellion"—the Reds insist they are waging a war of "liberation"—and said if it continued "we have no alternative but a fight to the finish."

Java Phase Of Indies War Has Ended, Dutch Announce

Batavia, Java, Jan. 1 (AP)—Dutch spokesmen announced today that part of the Indonesian war—the Java phase—is over.

The cleanup in Sumatra is scheduled to follow.

Dutch firing in Java was reported to have ceased without fanfare at the end of the old year, as the Netherlands promised the Security Council in Paris Wednesday. The Dutch did not proclaim the cease-fire order, saying this was not considered necessary.

To Continue Hunting Rebels

Further military action was threatened by Dutch Lieut. Gen. Simon Spoor against any rebellious elements.

"Though the opponent has been beaten in a military sense," Spoor told his troops on a New Year's speech, "the duty now evolves on you to complete the result by eliminating rebellious elements until peace and security have been obtained.

The opponent is the Indonesian Republic, which once claimed about a third of the territory of Indonesia (the Netherlands East Indies.) Dutch troops have captured all of its major cities and economically important areas in the campaign launched December 19.

End In Sumatra By Monday

The Dutch announcement to the Security Council said hostilities would cease in Sumatra a day or two after the end in Java, that is by Monday.

L. J. M. Beel, high representative of the Netherlands kingdom in Indonesia, said in a radio broadcast that 1948 had been a year of constructive work in the islands, "but unfortunately it also has been a year of unrest and fighting."

"I regret the fact it proved impossible to restore unity by means of negotiations," he said. "The Government decided upon this action (invasion) in the firm conviction that it was acting in the interest of the country and the people after having made sure no other solution was possible."

He urged that all "accept the new situation and set your hands to the plow in order to build together a new Indonesia."

Welshman Faces Trial In Arms Smuggling

JAN

Singapore, Jan. 1 (AP)—The Dutch high court today called Carlton A. Hire, Welsh ship broker, to face trial January 7 at Tanjoengpinang, Indonesia, on arms smuggling charges.

Hire is accused specifically of importing arms into Indonesia without authority and inducing three Americans to import arms illegally into Indonesian territorial waters. They are Albert W. Onstott, of Yuba City, Cal.; Connie W. Seigrist, of Gore, Okla., and William B. Hallam, Portland, Ore., who have been tried and now await judgment, expected next week.

Disguised Police Aboard

Testimony in their trial alleged that Hire contracted with them to fly 40 cases of submachine guns from Manila to a trans-shipping point off Airabu Island, Indonesia. Witnesses said some disguised British and Dutch police were aboard one of two boats Hire rented to pick up the guns and arrested the four men at the scene last September 14.

The defense contends the weapons were intended for Malayan planters, who wanted them for protection against Chinese insurgents. The prosecution alleges the guns were intended for Indonesian insurgents. The British police withdrew from the case after the arrests.

Hire's lawyer, S. H. D. Elias, said his 35-year-old client would ask for postponement when the trial is called. He said Hire, whose home is in Cardiff, Wales, has been held in jail in Tanjoengpinang since his arrest.

Australian Prospector Reports Uranium Find

Adelaide, Jan. 1 (AP)—A South Australia Government prospector has reported finding uranium in the Peake and Denison ranges of South Australia. Government ministers will not comment on the find, but published reports said samples are believed to have been encouraging.

An area of 2,600 square miles surrounding the locality of the find has been reserved for exclusive prospecting by Government men. It it the fourth such reserve established in South Australia.

Truman Grants South Korea Full Recognition By U.S.

JAN 1949

Washington, Jan. 1 (AP)—In his first official act of 1949, President Truman today granted full recognition to the American-supported Government in southern Korea as the regime which ought to rule all that divided land.

Mr. Truman's move followed close on a Russian cold-war maneuver which came with the end of 1948. Moscow radio reported yesterday that all Soviet troops had been pulled out of northern Korea on Christmas.

The White House announcement gave new assurance of American backing for the administration of Dr. Syngman Rhee. But it held out no promise of peace, unity and good will in the nation which the Japanese occupied for 40 years and which Russia and the United States have wrangled over since the end of the war.

U.S. Troops To Stay

Political conditions in Korea make it almost inevitable that at some time—possibly soon—there should be major open clashes between the southern and northern Korean forces. Therefore, formal recognition of the Rhee regime does not mean, according to officials here, that all American troops soon will be withdrawn.

Dr. Rhee, as president of the new republic, has asked that American forces remain until southern Korea has a police force able to deal with any Communist threat from the north. The United States has agreed.

Regime Upheld By U.N.

Northern Korea now is ruled by a Russian-sponsored government which has its capital at Pyongyang. The Communist regime has announced that this is provisional headquarters and that Seoul eventually will be the capital. It claims the right to rule the whole land.

Rhee already has his capital at Seoul. He takes the view that northern Korea should be brought into his administration. On that, he has the backing not only of the United States but also of the United Nations.

On December 12, the United Nations Assembly—over Russian opposition amounting to a filibuster—voted overwhelmingly that "the Government of the Republic of Korea is a lawful Government based on free elections observed by (a United Nations) commission."

Korean Communists and the Russian military command had declined even to let the United Nations commission into the northern zone.

After Rhee's Government was created under United Nations controls about six months ago, the United States on August 12 gave it limited recognition. Washington declared full recognition should await a declaration by the General Assembly.

Mission Raised To Embassy

The White House statement today cited the August 12 action here and December 12 General Assembly declaration at Paris and then said "the United States has decided to extend full recognition to the Government of the Republic of Korea." It also said the United States mission in Korea will be given embassy rank.

Southern Korea has a population of 21,000,000, compared to 9,000,000 presently estimated in the Communist north. American officials estimate 2,000,000 have fled from north to south in the last three years.

Northern Korea has been recognized as a danger to the south because, officials here contend, the Russians trained a Communist police force numbering thousands of men (perhaps 50,000 to 150,000) while in the south much smaller police units were set up. This is the reason that about 30,000 American troops are remaining in southern Korea, at Rhee's request, to help create a Korean force which can defend itself.

U.S. Recognizes Korea Regime

Washington, Jan. 1 (AP)—The United States announced today it will extend full recognition to the Government of the Korean Republic and raise the American mission there to embassy rank.

A White House announcement also said the United States, in conformity with a resolution passed December 12 by the General Assembly of the United Nations, will try to afford every assistance to the United Nations Commission on Korea in its efforts to help the Korean people achieve the goal "of a free and united Korea."

The recognition will, in effect, formalize the relationship which exists now between the United States and the Korean Government under Syngman Rhee.

Differences Cited

It emphasizes, too, American and Russian differences in that part of the world.

The United States and Russia have been at odds over Korea since the Soviets refused to go along with a United Nations Commission setup to supervise elections in all Korea.

The Southern and most populous part of the peninsula co-operated with American occupation authorities and created a republican form of government under Syngman Rhee.

In the north—occupied by Soviet troops—the Russians set up their own regime. Moscow announced last fall that Soviet troops would be withdrawn by the first of the year. Radio Moscow reported a few days ago that this withdrawal had been accomplished.

Strengthens Regime

Formal American recognition adds strength to the Syngman Rhee Government, since it means that Washington recognizes this group as the lawful as well as the factual governing body.

United States officials have emphasized, however, that American troops will not be withdrawn completely from southern Korea until they have trained a Korean armed force strong enough to deal with any Communist threat from the north.

TEXT OF ANNOUNCEMENT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1 (AP)—Following is the text of the White House announcement that the United States will recognize the Government of the Republic of Korea:

On Dec. 12, 1948, the United Nations General Assembly adopted a resolution approving the conclusions of the report of the United Nations Temporary Commission on Korea and declaring in part "that there has been established a lawful Government (the Government of the Republic of Korea), having effective control and jurisdiction over that part of Korea where the temporary commission was able to observe and consult and in which the great majority of the people of all Korea reside; that this Government is based on elections which were a valid expression of the free will of the electorate of that part of Korea and which were observed by the temporary commission; and that this is the only such Government in Korea."

The resolution of Dec. 12 concluded with the recommendation that member states and other nations take the foregoing facts into consideration in establishing their relations with the Government of Korea.

In the light of this action by the General Assembly, and taking into account the facts set forth in the statement by this Government on Aug. 12, 1948 concerning the Korean Government, the United States has decided to extend full recognition to the Government of the Republic of Korea.

Incidental to this step it is anticipated that, by agreement with that Government, the mission of the United States Special Representative in Korea will in the near future be raised to embassy rank.

In conformity with the General Assembly resolution of Dec. 12, the United States Government will endeavor to afford every assistance and facility to the new United Nations Commission on Korea established thereunder in its efforts to help the Korean people and their lawful Government to achieve the goal of a free and united Korea.

A-Bomb Spies Called Active Since 1942

JAN 1949

Reds Used Science And Money of U. S., Committee Asserts

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1 (AP).—The House Un-American Activities Committee said today it had found out "plenty" about the operation of Communist espionage rings in the atomic energy program.

It made that general statement in a report entitled "100 Things You Should Know About Communism and Government"—fifth and last of a series of question-and-answer pamphlets on Communism.

OPERATING SINCE 1942

Communist espionage rings, the committee said, have been operating at least since 1942, using American science and money to inform the Soviet Government of Russia how to make the atom bomb.

How well the spies succeeded, the committee said, "only the Russians and their spies know."

QUOTES GENERAL GROVES

The committee quoted Gen. Leslie R. Groves, former head of the Manhattan atom bomb project, as having told it last Sept. 10:

"I have no hesitancy in saying that there was continued and persistent and well-organized espionage against the United States, and particularly against the atom bomb project, by a foreign Power with which we were not at war, and its misguided and traitorous domestic sympathizers, or perhaps stooges would be a better word."

U. S. UNDER ATTACK

"Our Government is under attack," the committee said. "The enemy is Communism. If Communism were to win, there would be no United States Constitution, courts, President, or Congress. The American Republic would be wiped out, and in its place there would be a system with which freedom cannot live."

The pamphlet then went on to outline the aims and practices of Communists in their plans to obtain control of the entire world.

Communist invasion of the United States Government, the committee said, reached "the fatal official turning point" when the U. S. recognized the Soviet government diplomatically in November, 1933.

At that time, the committee said, "it was obvious to the world that Communism was at the point of real collapse," but "it was saved by U. S. recognition" and Communists, fellow travelers and front agents "promptly flooded Washington and began to worm their way into the Government of the United States."

The "main inflow" of Communists and their sympathizers, the committee said, "was through the Public Works Agency, Works Progress Administration, Agricultural Adjustment Administration, and National Recovery Administration, during the years 1933-36. Within a few years, Communist lawyers, accountants, executives, and scientists were solidly entrenched in Washington in various Government departments."

Some time in the 1930s, the committee said, the Communists "planted secret operatives high in the U. S. executive branch and began to place around them a corps of skilled agents."

For the last 15 years, the committee said, Communists have been "hiding their key men in our Army, Navy, diplomatic corps, Treasury, and other control points of government."

The committee added that nobody knew whether there were "3 or 3000" Communists in the U. S. Government today.

New Chief Says Cut Spy Probe Membership

Washington, Jan. 1 (AP)—The man slated to head the House Un-American Activities Committee thinks it should be trimmed in size, and that its members should have no other committee assignments.

But Representative John S. Wood, of Georgia, who gave up the chairmanship two years ago when Republicans took control of, the House, said today he is against a proposal to replace the group with a joint congressional investigation committee. "No joint committee ever has worked," he said.

Would Lift Other Duties

The Georgian left the House Foreign Affairs Committee when he became top Democrat on the Un-American Activities group, and he said he thinks all members of the spy-hunting committee should be shorn of other committee duties "because they frequently conflict."

But he said he was not referring to a suggestion by some House Democrats that Representative Rankin, of Mississippi be dropped from the Un-American Activities Committee because he is due to head the Veterans' Affairs group.

Rankin reportedly aroused the ire of Administration leaders for his part in the committee's criticism of the Government over the communism issue, while the group was controlled by Republicans.

"5 Plenty; 3 Even Better"

But whether members duplicate assignments or not, Wood said, the Un-American Activities Committee, which now numbers nine lawmakers, should be cut to five.

"Three would be even better," he said. "The way it is now you have an awful time getting members together for a meeting and if a few of them make some decision the others complain and right away you have dissension."

Several committee members have indicated on occasion that they disagreed with action taken when they are not present. Two Republican members have suggested that, among other things, the committee try in the future for greater unanimity before taking any action.

Deplores Delay On Condon

Apparently referring to the committee's activities in the Eightieth Congress, Wood said that if he becomes chairman the group will push all unfinished investigations—including the question of the loyalty of Dr. Edward U. Condon, head of the Bureau of Standards.

An Un-American Activities subcommittee accused Condon last spring of being one of the weakest links in the nation's atomic energy security chain, a charge which Condon vigorously denied.

"Dr. Condon should have had a hearing before this," Wood said. "He should have one as quickly as possible now—if he still wants it."

VINSON LISTS ARMS NEEDS

Georgian Calls For 70-Group Air Force, Missile Research

Washington, Jan. 1 (AP)—Legislation formally authorizing a 70-group Air Force and an 837,000-man Army was proposed today by Representative Vinson (D., Ga.), who will head the House Armed Services Committee in the new Congress.

A sheaf of five bills which he proposes to introduce at Monday's opening session also will push research in guided missiles, Vinson said.

"All the bills may not meet with the approval of the Pentagon," he said, "but I think Congress probably will approve them."

Other Bills Included

The other Vinson bills would:

Require the Navy to get specific approval from Congress before building any vessels of more than 45,000 tons.

Extend the present income tax exemptions for service personnel until next July 1.

Make the 20 per cent luxury tax apply to perfumes, jewelry and furs sold at post exchanges and ships' stores.

Additional Groups Provided

The Air Force bill specifically would authorize 70 air groups, plus 22 separate squadrons and 61 reserve groups. The present authority for a 70-group Air Force exists only in an appropriation bill passed last year giving the Air Force the money to build up to that strength.

The Air Force would have a total strength of 502,000 men, not including aviation cadets, reserves on active duty for training, officer candidates, and one-year volunteers for training.

The Air Force would be allowed 24,000 aircraft, or 225,000 airframe tons of aircraft, whichever it chose. It would be allowed to buy 5,200 new planes a year.

Guided Missiles Added

It would have authority to buy guided missiles without reducing the number of planes allowed, and would be ordered by law "to intensify and participate in research and development programs."

The Army would have a permanent authorized strength of 837,000 men, making up twelve regular divisions, five regimental combat teams, and supporting combat and service units. The Army bill would allow a reserve of 27 National Guard divisions and 21 National Guard regimental combat teams, with 25 organized reserve corps divisions.

Like Authority Given

The Army would be allowed to buy equipment for six divisions each year.

It would have the same authority as the Air Force, to buy and use guided missiles, and would have permanent power to do research and development work.

Vinson said these two bills would do for the Army and Air Force what was done several years ago for the Navy.

Up to this time, the manpower strength of the Army and Air Force, and the size of research programs, have been left up to the House and Senate Appropriations committees.

Permission Necessary

The bill limiting the size of warships would clip the Navy's wings so far as getting any more giant carriers is concerned, Vinson said. It now is building a 65,000-ton supercarrier which will not be able to pass through the Panama Canal. The giant carrier newer was specifically authorized by Congress, Vinson said, other than by an appropriation bill which gave the Navy money to build it.

"As a practical matter," Vinson explained, "this bill will mean that the Navy will have to come to us for permission to build anything that cannot use the canal. We aren't ever going to build any more battleships, so this will apply only to carriers."

EX-GENERAL ASSAILS ARMY FOR ATTITUDE

Regular Service Officers Accused Of Spreading 'Defeatist Talk'

JAN 1949

Washington, Jan. 1 (AP)—A former National Guard general bitterly condemning Regular Army treatment of the Guard, said today War Department officers spread "defeatist talk" in training camps during the months preceding Pearl Harbor.

Maj. Gen. James E. Edmonds, former commander of the 23d National Guard Cavalry Division and wartime commander at Camp Lee, Va., made the charge in the current issue of the publication The National Guardsman. Edmonds's home is Milford, Ohio. The Army had no comment.

Slander Is Charged

He accused the Regular Army and the War Department of starting in 1941 a campaign of "deprecation and slander against the Guard as a whole, and most Guard higher commanders especially." Then, discussing what he called "defeatism spread from Washington," Edmonds wrote:

"That Summer of 1941, while Roosevelt was stretching 'neutrality' until the strings of it sang, in an effort to help Britain—wails and whispers of defeatism, as for the Western Allies, came from the purlieus of the War Department.

"Uniform wearers, on supposed official missions, wondered and talked in training camps, telling . . . that the British were dumb incompetents if not cowards and were sure to lose Egypt, the Near East and India to the Nazi-Fascists; later that Hitler's armies just couldn't be stopped by the Russians—ergo, that it was 'forever too late' for us to try to turn the tide.

"Too Close To Washington"

"I was in command then of Camp Lee, Va. We were close—too close to Washington. We had a succession of those defeatist visitors.

"The grim thought forced itself on me that moral sabotage might be coming from hidden sources in the Capital; that all the time-killing obstructions, changes and reorganizations were serving too plainly to prevent us from being ready to enter the war before the Hitler-Mussolini alliance had driven through to European victory. The defeatist talk was too neat a fit to be accidental.

"That is a terrible thought to put on paper, even now.

"But especially now, in the light of revelations in the Autumn of 1948, I think I may be pardoned."

Edmonds asserted an anti-Guard effort of the Regular Army "clique" is continuing.

Edmonds blamed the late Lieut. Gen. Lesley J. McNair and Lieut. Gen. Ben Lear, now at Memphis, Tenn., for a part in the alleged campaign against the Guard. However, Edmonds's article did not accuse them of any part in the "defeatist talk."

"In Guard commands, McNair, Lear, and their aides began (in 1941) to snap and snarl at the busy, hitherto eager men," he stated. "Guard officers were discredited and belittled in the sight or hearing of subordinates every basic principle of morale maintenance and proper indoctrination, was violated by those regulars in those months."

ONE PHYSICAL STANDARD FOR 3 SERVICES UP

Munitions Board Committee Is 'Working Toward' Personnel Yardstick

JAN 1949

Washington, Jan. 1 (AP)—A single physical standard for all members of the Army, Navy and Air Force—a matter of lively argument among the three services—is being considered by a Munitions Board committee.

The land, air and sea arms have been ordered to share recruiting facilities on a nation-wide basis, Lieut. Gen. Leroy Lutes, deputy chairman of the facilities and service committee, announced today.

Doctors, space, transportation and housing for recruits will be shared, he said. In response to questions, he also disclosed that the committee is "working toward" a single physical yardstick for personnel.

Saved $34,500,000

The committee, acting under speed-up orders from James Forrestal, Secretary of Defense, claims to have saved $34,500,000 to date by co-ordination among the military services.

Some $19,500,000 of the savings is expected to continue yearly; the remaining $15,000,000 is a one-time savings, and General Lutes believed a similar $15,000,000 might be saved next year by further unification steps.

The different standards used in picking men for duty in the three services have been the subject of considerable contention among military personnel experts.

Different Scores Cited

When the peacetime draft law was passed, Congress stipulated that the Army must take recruits who scored 70 or better on the intelligence test.

Protesting, the Army said the national average is 100, and the restriction on the Army left the Air Force and Navy free to set higher standards and get better men. Equivalent "passing marks" for the Navy and Air Force are 87 and 90, respectively.

The Army wanted one physical and mental standard. Secretary Forrestal turned this down, however, reasoning it would hurt the Air Force and Navy more than it would help the Army.

Allocation Not Necessary

The services did agree on one standard for inductees, but this was cold comfort to the Army, which is the only service which needs inductees to make up its lag in recruiting.

The Army wanted a proportionate allocation of recruits to the three services on a basis of 50 per cent to it, 30 per cent to the Navy and 20 per cent to the Air Force.

Forrestal ruled that allocation was not necessary unless the nation had to mobilize for war, in which case he favored suspending voluntary enlistments and getting all military manpower through the draft.

MEANWHILE, NO NEW REPORTS OF LAND ACTION CAME FROM THE BATTLE FRONTS. ACTION IN THE NEGEV, WHERE EGYPTIANS AND JEWS HAVE BEEN FIGHTING SINCE DEC. 21, WAS OF SMALL SCOPE.

LAST NIGHT THERE WAS WIDESPREAD GUNFIRE ALONG THE IRAQI FRONT IN CENTRAL PALESTINE, ESPECIALLY IN THE TULKAR AREA WHERE BOTH SIDES ARE TENSE. IT DIED DOWN AT DAWN.

PEIPING,SUNDAY,JAN.2-(AP)-NEWSPAPERS IN PEIPING TODAY DECIDED CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S NEW YEAR MESSAGE OPENED THE DOOR TO PEACE IN THE CIVIL WAR, AND THEY HEARTILY ENDORSED THE IDEA.

EVERY NEWSPAPER CARRIED THE FULL TEXT OF THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE, WHICH SAID HE WAS READY TO DISCUSS PEACE WITH THE COMMUNISTS IF IT COULD BE ARRANGED ON FAIR TERMS. HE SAID THE ALTERNATIVE WAS MORE WAR.

THE HUA PEI JIH PAO, A NEWSPAPER FAVORING THE GOVERNMENT SIDE, SAID CHIANG IS HOPING THE COMMUNISTS WILL HALT THEIR "REBELLION" AT ONCE.

THE PRIVATELY-OWNED HSIN SHENG PAO SAID "PEACE IS THE MAIN CONCERN OF THE PEOPLE....PEACE TALKS NOW LOOK POSSIBLE."

THE INDEPENDENT SHIH CHIEH JIH PAO SAID PEACE "IS THE UNANIMOUS DESIRE OF THE PEOPLE." IT ADDED THAT THE REDS CANNOT IGNORE THIS DESIRE.

IT SHOULD BE REMEMBERED THAT THE INDEPENDENCE OF EXPRESSION OF CHINESE NEWSPAPERS IS LIMITED. MANY NEWSPAPERS HAVE BEEN CLOSED BECAUSE THEIR NEWS REFLECTED SOME VIEWS UNFAVORABLE TO THE GOVERNMENT.

(IN SHANGHAI, THE REACTION TO CHIANG'S SPEECH APPEARED TO BE ONE OF INDIFFERENCE.

(BOTH CHINESE AND FOREIGNERS FELT IT WAS NOT SUFFICIENTLY CONCILIATORY TO BREAK THE GROUND FOR PEACE TALKS WITH THE REDS, WHO ARE IN A POSITION TO MAKE THEIR OWN TERMS.)

NORTH CHINA STILL AWAITED A CONCILIATORY SPEECH FROM GEN.FU TSO-YI, COMMANDER IN THE NORTH.

RESPONSIBLE SOURCES SAID THE SPEECH STILL WAS VERY MUCH IN THE WIND BUT IT PROBABLY WOULD BE DELAYED FOR A FEW DAYS.

IT APPEARED GENERAL FU'S ADVISERS HAD TALKED HIM INTO WAITING AWHILE BEFORE MAKING ANY PUBLIC OVERTURE TO THE COMMUNISTS.

THEY BELIEVE HE SHOULD FIRST EXAMINE THE REACTION TO CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S NEW YEAR MESSAGE--WHICH GAVE NO CLEAR CLUE TO WAR OR PEACE--NOT ONLY IN CHINA BUT IN RED TERRITORY AND IN THE UNITED STATES.

REGARDLESS OF CHIANG'S MESSAGE, THE BELIEF PERSISTS IN PEIPING THAT PEACE WILL COME TO NORTH CHINA BEFORE THE CHINESE NEW YEAR, WHICH BEGINS JAN.29.

MOOSA SAID THE SENTIMENT FOR PEACE WAS STRONG IN THE NORTH. AN OPEN MOVE TOWARD A COMPROMISE AFFECTING THE NORTH WAS EXPECTED WITHIN 24 HOURS.

THE TALK IN PEIPING WAS THAT THE MOVE WOULD TAKE THE FORM OF A STATEMENT BY GEN. FU TSO-YI, COMMANDER IN NORTH CHINA, EXPRESSING A DESIRE FOR A PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT.

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON, JAN 1-(AP)-THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE SAID TODAY IT HAS FOUND OUT "PLENTY" ABOUT THE OPERATION OF COMMUNIST ESPIONAGE RINGS IN THE ATOMIC ENERGY PROGRAM.

IT MADE THAT GENERAL STATEMENT IN A REPORT ENTITLED "100 THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT COMMUNISM AND GOVERNMENT"--FIFTH AND LAST OF A SERIES OF QUESTION AND ANSWER PAMPHLETS ON COMMUNISM.

COMMUNIST ESPIONAGE RINGS, THE COMMITTEE SAID, HAVE BEEN OPERATING AT LEAST SINCE 1942, USING AMERICAN SCIENCE AND MONEY TO INFORM THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT OF RUSSIA HOW TO MAKE THE ATOM BOMB.

HOW WELL THE SPIES SUCCEEDED, THE COMMITTEE SAID, "ONLY THE RUSSIANS AND THEIR SPIES KNOW."

THE COMMITTEE QUOTED GEN. LESLIE R. GROVES, FORMER HEAD OF THE MANHATTAN ATOM BOMB PROJECT, AS HAVING TOLD IT LAST SEPTEMBER 10:

"I HAVE NO HESITANCY IN SAYING THAT THERE WAS CONTINUED AND PERSISTENT AND WELL-ORGANIZED ESPIONAGE AGAINST THE UNITED STATES, AND PARTICULARLY AGAINST THE ATOM BOMB PROJECT, BY A FOREIGN POWER WITH WHICH WE WERE NOT AT WAR, AND ITS MISGUIDED AND TRAITOROUS DOMESTIC SYMPATHIZERS, OR PERHAPS STOOGES WOULD BE A BETTER WORD."

"OUR GOVERNMENT IS UNDER ATTACK," THE COMMITTEE SAID. "THE ENEMY IS COMMUNISM. IF COMMUNISM WERE TO WIN, THERE WOULD BE NO UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION, COURTS, PRESIDENT, OR CONGRESS. THE AMERICAN REPUBLICAN WOULD BE WIPED OUT, AND IN ITS PLACE THERE WOULD BE A SYSTEM WITH WHICH FREEDOM CANNOT LIVE."

THE PAMPHLET THEN WENT ON TO OUTLINE THE AIMS AND PRACTICES OF COMMUNISTS IN THEIR PLANS TO OBTAIN CONTROL OF THE ENTIRE WORLD.

COMMUNISM INVASION OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT, THE COMMITTEE SAID, REACHED "THE FATAL OFFICIAL TURNING POINT" WHEN THE U.S. RECOGNIZED THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT DIPLOMATICALLY IN NOVEMBER, 1933.

AT THAT TIME, THE COMMITTEE SAID, "IT WAS OBVIOUS TO THE WORLD THAT COMMUNISM WAS AT THE POINT OF REAL COLLAPSE," BUT "IT WAS SAVED BY U.S. RECOGNITION" AND COMMUNISTS, FELLOW TRAVELERS AND FRONT AGENTS "PROMPTLY FLOODED WASHINGTON AND BEGAN TO WORM THEIR WAY INTO THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES."

JAN 1949

A106WX

THE "MAIN INFLOW" OF COMMUNISTS AND SYMPATHIZERS, THE COMMITTEE

SAID, "WAS THROUGH THE PUBLIC WORKS AGENCY, WORKS PROGRESS ADMINISTRATION, AGRICULTURAL ADJUSTMENT ADMINISTRATION, AND NATIONAL RECOVERY ADMINISTRATION, DURING THE YEARS 1933-36. WITHIN A FEW YEARS, COMMUNIST LAWYERS, ACCOUNTANTS, EXECUTIVES, AND SCIENTISTS WERE SOLIDLY ENTRENCHED IN WASHINGTON IN VARIOUS GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENTS."

SOMETIME IN THE 1930S, THE COMMITTEE SAID, THE COMMUNISTS "PLANTED SECRET OPERATIVES HIGH IN THE U.S. EXECUTIVE BRANCH AND BEGAN TO PLACE AROUND THEM A CORPS OF SKILLED AGENTS."

FOR THE LAST FIFTEEN YEARS, THE COMMITTEE SAID, COMMUNISTS HAVE BEEN "HIDING THEIR KEY MEN IN OUR ARMY, NAVY, DIPLOMATIC CORPS, TREASURY, AND OTHER CONTROL POINTS OF GOVERNMENT."

THE COMMITTEE ADDED THAT NOBODY KNOWS WHETHER THERE ARE "3 OR 3,000" COMMUNISTS IN THE U.S. GOVERNMENT TODAY.

19 NATIONS TO REQUIRE $4,347,000,000 U.S. AID FOR NEXT FISCAL YEAR

Europe's Needs Estimated At 528 Million Less; Recovery Report Says Hardships Will Last, Expects Increased Production

JAN 1949

Paris, Monday, Jan. 3 (AP)—The nineteen governments participating in the European Recovery Program said today they would need $4,347,000,000 of American aid in the fiscal year July 1, 1949, to June 30, 1950. This is $528,000,000 less than the current fiscal year.

The requests are included in a report published today by the Organization for European Economic Co-Operation (OEEC). The report will be used by United States officials in asking Congress for additional funds.

Continued shortages, hard work and living standards below prewar levels for most of their people confront the nineteen governments, despite anticipated American aid.

Economies Contrasted

The report emphasized vast differences in their economies. Switzerland, Sweden and Belgium, for instance, were undamaged by the war, but need help to revive their European trade. Belgium and Luxembourg have recovered almost completely and have high living standards, but need United States dollars to buy things available only in the United States. Greece is torn by civil war. Italy has almost 1,800,000 unemployed while labor shortages plague other participating countries.

Yet, when their story is distilled into a 200-page report there is good news, too—if they get enough dollars from the American Congress.

About 5 per cent more bread is expected to be available next year, meat consumption should rise 8 per cent, and fats about 9 per cent. That means more work from better-fed persons.

Less Per Person

More bread and tobacco will be available than before the war, but population has increased ten per cent, so there is less per person. The meat and fat supplies will be smaller than prewar.

The report predicted 5½ per cent more coal would be available than this year, with consumption 1½ per cent above prewar.

A 4,000,000-kilowatt increase in electrical production is planned, but there still won't be enough electricity, even in 1952, the report said. Crude-oil refining capacity will rise 32 per cent, but the extra 6,600,000 tons will be only a start toward self-sufficiency.

Crude-steel production is scheduled to rise 9½ per cent, but Europe is falling short of its 1948-49 target and may need to boost 1949-50 production fourteen per cent to compensate, the report said.

Textile Output To Rise

Textile productions is programmed to bounce above prewar levels for the first time. Much of the increase will be in synthetic production, but wool and cotton outputs also are scheduled to rise. Cotton fabrication would remain below prewar.

The European aid countries look for a dollar saving by expanding their own shipping capacity. Their 1948-49 shipping bill is $160,000,000. They want to cut it to $90,000,000 in 1949-50.

They hope for a 25 per cent boost in dollar exports of all commodities, with total exports 18 per cent above this fiscal year. They count on the United States and Canada to buy $1,283,000,000 of their goods.

This looks good on paper, but there are these other factors:

While bread output goes up 5 per cent, production of bread grain will rise only 3 per cent, despite wider acreage planted and more fertilizing. No one expects a harvest as good as 1948, one of the best in history because of fine weather.

Dollar Shortage To Continue

Since food consumes about a third of Europe's dollar resources, western Europe will continue dollar short until she comes closer to feeding herself.

Money shortages still plague European trade. An example: Prosperous Belgium may have plenty of steel to sell but Greece, a poor country, can't buy for lack of Belgian money. A system of intra-European payments—actually gifts by the richer countries to the poorer—may continue.

The shortage of flat-steel products will remain acute, despite planned higher steel production. This means continued imports from the United States, where flat steel also is in great demand.

The schedule calls for imports from the Western Hemisphere to rise from $7,100,000,000 in 1948-49 to $7,216,000,000 in 1949-50. In other words, Europe's needs for hard currency still are rising, and half of the needs must come from United States aid if they are met at all.

The preliminary estimates place their dollar deficit in 1952 at $1,500,000,000, but the OEEC secretariat says these figures are too optimistic and the total may be $2,500,000,000. That is the year aid is scheduled to end.

The answer, as the planners figure it—Europe still will need help when the program expires.

Bertrand Russell Sees Trend Toward Disaster

London, Jan. 2 (AP) — Bertrand Russell, British philosopher, warned tonight present world tendencies toward centralization of government may lead to disaster.

"There has never in past history been any large state that controlled its citizens as completely as they are controlled in the Soviet Republic, or even in modern England," he said in a lecture on "authority and the Individual" over the British Broadcasting Company.

"It may be," Russell continued, "that the present tendencies toward centralization are too strong to be resisted until they have led to disaster, and that, as happened in the Fifth Century, the whole system must break down, with all the inevitable results of anarchy and poverty, before human beings can again acquire that degree of personal freedom without which life loses its saver."

Cardinal Griffin Protests

London, Jan. 2 (AP)—Bernard Cardinal Griffin, Catholic Archbishop of Westminster, today described the arrest of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty in Hungary as "another example of the struggle between Christians of eastern Europe and the powers of darkness."

"He takes his place," the Cardinal said in Westminster Cathedral, "with Archbishop Stepinac (imprisoned head of the Roman Catholic Church in Yugoslavia) and many bishops throughout eastern Europe who have been murdered or cast into prison because they are Roman Catholic bishops who have dared to proclaim God's rights and have tried to save their countries from paganism.

By Nazis And Communists

"Cardinal Mindszenty has now the distinction of having been imprisoned both by Nazis and Communists. Of the two there is little difference in ideology or practice, with the exception that the Communists appear to be more ruthless."

Praising Cardinal Mindszenty as a true patriot, Cardinal Griffin said, "We deplore and condemn the action taken by the Communist Government in Hungary."

Dutch Delegate Off For N.Y.

Amsterdam, Jan. 2 (AP)—The Dutch delegate to the United Nations, Dr. J. H. Van Royen, left today by plane for New York to represent the Netherlands in the Security Council debate on Indonesia.

Dr. Van Royen said he expected the Indonesian problem would be the first item to be discussed when the council meets January 6 in Lake Success, N.Y.

Only 23 Stalingrad Captives Won By Russia, German Says

JAN 1949

Berlin, Jan. 2 (AP)—Six years ago Field Marshal Friedrich von Paulus, of Germany surrendered the remnants of an army of 330,000 men to the Russians at Stalingrad.

For six years the Soviets tried to convert approximately 2,500 captured officers to communism so they could return to Germany and carry out the will of Moscow.

They converted exactly 23, according to Maj. Gen. Walter Schreiber, former German surgeon general, one of the 12,000. On its face, it is the first authentic report United States Army intelligence officers have received of this phase of Russian activity.

The Americans call his story "interesting." They examine carefully anything a German tells them about the Russians. Schreiber escaped from the Soviet zone of Berlin, and volunteered the information after surrendering to the Americans.

Won Adherents At Start

This is his story:

Among the captive officers the Russians created a "Free Germany Committee" dedicated to rid Germany of Hitler, and from a German state "along the lines of the western democracies."

It won many adherents at the start. Lecture classes made "frequent mention" of President Roosevelt and Winston Churchill, to impress the Germans with Allied solidarity.

"Pupils" who asked about communism were told it was too soon for them to talk of political ideology.

Prisoners who were Communists before Hitler banned their party were ignored and many of them segregated from the others. Then gradually German Communists who fled to Russia after Hitler seized power were introduced to the indoctrination classes.

Moscow's Aims Praised

Wilhelm Pieck, Walter Ulbright, Erich Weinert and Frieda Rubiner addressed the officers. (Pieck and Ulbright now are cochairmen of the Communist-dominated Social Unity party in eastern Germany.) Their lectures praised Moscow's peaceful aims and communism.

The "Free Germany Committee" was formed with Weinert as president, and Gen. Walter von Seydlitz vice president. Paulus did not join until 1944, but from the start Russian propagandists called it the "Paulus committee."

In the committee's name, radio appeals were beamed to Germany, and leaflets and newspapers dropped behind German lines urged the troops to quit the war and develop a democratic Germany.

More Prisoners Came

The Russians promised to reestablish the eastern German border as it was in 1939 when the war started. The committee was gaining strength until more German prisoners came to the camp, and shed a little light on what the Russians really were doing. Each new batch brought tales of the rape of German women, the murder of civilians, and forced evacuation of noncombatants to Russia.

The Germans became bitter and lost interest in the "Free German Committee" as an empty promise.

Russian interest also waned. The Russians installed 40 German former Communist civilians in posts in eastern Germany, and this just about broke up the "Paulus committee."

There was left a core of about 40 German officers led by Lieut. Gen. Vincenz Mueller, whom Schreiber calls a "fanatic Communist."

Finally the Russians felt 41 officers—the first batch—might be trusted to repatriation in 1948, but a series of lectures and interrogations cut the number to 24, including Schreiber, who feigned conversion.

Some were assigned to the Russian zone police force. Schreiber became chief of sanitation—and promptly fled to the American zone and surrendered.

YANK, GERMAN GIRL ARE KILLED BY FUMES

JAN 1949

BERLIN, Jan. 2 — (AP) United States officials announced today an American military government civilian employe and a German girl were found dead yesterday in the American's gas-filled apartment.

Officials said the couple was discovered when a German janitor entered the flat to check the reason for the leaking gas.

Criminal investigation division officers declined to identify the victims pending notification of the American's relatives.

YUGOSLAV GROUP CREATED

Residents of Bulgaria Form an Opposition Front to Tito

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Jan. 2 (AP)—The newspaper Novini reported today the creation of a "People's Front of Yugoslavs in Bulgaria."

The newspaper said the group consisted of Yugoslavs living in Bulgaria and political emigrants to "brotherly Bulgaria" escaping "the terror of Rankovitch" (Lieut. Gen. Alexander Rankovitch, Vice Premier of Yugoslavia).

Announced objectives of the group are to inform Yugoslav residents regularly and exactly about conditions in their country, educate them in "true democracy, patriotism, and international solidarity," and to fight narrow nationalism.

The organization also will seek friendship between the two peoples and urge a federation of South Slav states, Novini said.

PRAVDA PITIES US AMERICANS

We're Reduced To Horsemeat Diet, Russ Paper Intimates

Moscow, Jan. 2 (AP)—The Communist newspaper Pravda said today that continuing declines have occurred in the living standard of American workers.

"Nourishment of the workers continues to worsen," Pravda said. "Thus the American press informs that in Chicago, that center of the meat industry, trade in horsemeat is increasing."

Pravda's editorial, by V. Cheprakov, repeated Soviet predictions of an economic crisis in the United States and the entire capitalist world.

How Different Under Stalin

It said the "immense successes of the postwar development of the economy of the Soviet Union, attained under the leadership of the party of Lenin and Stalin," raised the possibility of a re-establishment of the full value of the Soviet ruble.

The Soviet Union devalued the ruble in December, 1947, abandoned food rationing and ordered all consumer goods brought under unified price control. The steps were taken in a program to combat inflation. Soviet newspapers have claimed that the purchasing power of Russian workers has risen as a result of the moves.

"Chaos" Under Capitalism

In contrast to the situation in the Soviet Union, Pravda said, "workers in the capitalistic world more and more get tangled up in the claws of implacable economic conditions." The editorial continued:

"In all capitalist countries there continues a systematic decline in the purchasing power of money. Chaos with which government organs are unable to deal increases.

"The system of capitalism, having lived out its time, visibly demonstrates its bankruptcy; its inability to give the working masses humane conditions of life."

"Mass Firing Of Workers" In U.S.

Pravda said in the United States there has been a fall in the volume of retail trade, a reduction in orders for industry and a growing number of bankruptcies among small and medium-sized firms.

"Mass firing of workers in heavy industry has begun," Pravda continued. "Unemployment in light industry is growing, particularly in the shoe industry.

"The American press no longer can hide the fact that overproduction is a serious problem, and a threatening symptom is also the beginning of a falling price in grain purchased by monopolies from farmers."

Anniversary Jubilee Noted In Soviet Paper

Moscow, Jan. 2 (AP)—Pravda devoted considerable space today to the celebration in Minsk of the White Russian Republic's thirtieth anniversary.

N. M. Shvernik, the president of the Soviet Union, headed a Moscow delegation and spoke at a jubilee meeting. Pravda said he emphasized the rapid economic and social development of White Russia during the 30 years of Soviet power there.

BURMA TO DISPATCH INDIES EXPEDITION, EX-PREMIER STATES

Ba Maw Gives Details of Plans to Aid Republic—Cabinet to Meet on India Parley

JAN 1949

ANTI-DUTCH ACTION HAILED

Batavia Says Sumatran Drive Is Almost Complete, Fight on Java Officially Over

By The Associated Press.

RANGOON, Burma, Jan. 2 — Former Premier Ba Maw said today that a Burmese expeditionary force would leave soon for Indonesia to take up arms against the Dutch.

Ba Maw, who spent three years in Japan during the war, said that the brigade, made up of volunteers, would include battle-tried Burmese who fought against the Japanese in 1945 and former members of the Indian National Army [which fought for the Japanese] with front line experience.

He said that 100 Burmese women would support the force as nurses and first aid workers.

There was no immediate comment from the Burmese Government concerning Ba Maw's announcement.

The Cabinet was called to meet soon, however, to nominate a delegate to the Asian conference on the Indonesian situation called by Indian Prime Minister Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru. A Government spokesman said that Burma welcomed the idea of considering joint action against the Dutch.

"We Asiatics must combine to end aggressive imperialism," he said.

DUTCH LIMIT TASK IN JAVA

Troops Told To Curb Disorder; Grip On Sumatra Tightened

JAN 1949

Batavia, Java, Monday, Jan. 3 (AP). Lieut. Gen. Simon Spoor, commander in chief of the Dutch Army in Indonesia, told his troops in Java today their task now is limited to "operations against roaming groups or individuals trying to cause disorder."

Informed sources in Batavia expected a similar order of the day to be issued to Netherlands forces in Sumatra as soon as the Dutch capture Benkoelen. That southwest Sumatra port is the last major center which the Dutch have not yet announced as having been captured from the Indonesian Republic.

Netherlands troops nearly completed yesterday the successful occupation of all the key regions of Sumatra. The major points in Java already are in Dutch hands.

All Hostilities At End

Spoor told his troops New Year's Eve that "all military actions on Java had come to an end and consequently all hostilities."

A Dutch informant said Netherlands troops were advancing toward Benkoelen, 230 miles southeast of Padang. The republicans are not putting up much opposition, the informant added.

Republican units were forced, from Pakanbaroe, on the east coast of Sumatra, a Dutch communiqué said. The bulletin said the Netherlands Army had lost 66 soldiers killed and 172 wounded since it launched its action against the republic on December 19.

No Cease-Fire Order

Netherlands informants said the initial phase of the occupation of Java had ended. Dutch authorities, however, have issued no formal cease-fire proclamation in either Java or Sumatra.

Meanwhile, it was learned Dutch authorities still refused to let 43 United Nations military observers visit areas in the two islands taken from the republic.

A source close to the United Nations good offices committee said the committee wrote the Dutch Friday asking when the military observers would be permitted to travel through former Republican territory to prepare a first-hand report for the Security Council.

The Dutch replied they still did not know when such permission could be granted, the informant said.

Other U.N. Group Inactive

The other United Nations-sponsored group in Batavia—the six-nation consular commission—remained inactive over the week end. Commission members reportedly are waiting for clarification from either the good offices committee or the Security Council on exactly what they are expected to do.

Dutch political successes were achieved in two Netherlands—sponsored East Indian states where the premiers had resigned at the start of hostilities.

In East Indonesia, Premier Anak Agung Gde Agung had agreed to form a new cabinet. Informed observers in Batavia expressed the opinion that his earlier resignation apparently was based on the fear that his position might be affected adversely if the Dutch military action was not completely successful.

In West Java state, a new cabinet was being formed by a non-partisan Indonesian. It will replace the Government headed by a pro-republican.

Sympathy In Philippines

MANILA, Monday, Jan. 3 (AP)—News of a proposed Southeast Asia political bloc to deal with Dutch moves in Indonesia brought expressions of sympathy today from Philippine Congressional leaders.

Senator Salipada K. Pendatun, leading advocate of Pan-Malayan Union, said that such a bloc would draw Southeast Asian nations closer together and provide common protection.

He suggested that the conference be held in Manila, and that the Dutch be invited to participate.

Senate President Jose Avelino, explaining that he was commenting unofficially, said that the Philippines should join such a bloc "as a matter of principle."

The Manila Times editorilized: "It would seem that by organizing themselves into a Southeast Asia bloc, the nations of Southeast Asia would only be following the example already given in the Middle East and in the Western Hemisphere south of the Rio Grande."

There was no comment by President Elpidio Quirino. Observers expressed the belief that he would go slow on any action that might be outside the United Nations.

King Abdullah In Palestine

Ramallah, Palestine, Jan. 2 (AP)—A cheering crowd hailed King Abdullah of Trans-Jordan today as the unproclaimed King of Arab Palestine.

Abdullah, declaring that Arab safety lies in union, told the crowd that Arabs would awaken soon to understand that "the dangers they recently faced are due to their separation" into individual states.

Fears Jealousies Near Home

Asking Allah to "loan us his soul and lead the people on the right path," Abdullah said he did not fear foreigners would break up Arab unity, but he did fear "jealousies nearer home."

This was a thrust at those opposing his desire to mount the throne of a united Trans-Jordan and Arab Palestine.

And partly his words were for the benefit of envoys from Yemen, headed by the Crown Prince, Seif Islam Mohammed, who came to Ahman as an intermediary opposing unification under Abdullah. The Yemenites are accompanying him on a three-day royal tour of central Palestine to sample the views of Palestinians.

Princes Weep At Pleas

The two Yemenite princes of the blood, Seif Islam Mohammed and Abdullah's second son, Prince Yehia, wept at Ramallah listening to speeches demanding an end of Palestine subjugation and renewed war against the Jews. A succession of speakers also called on Abdullah to proclaim himself king of Palestine. (Delegations from 40 Palestine communities made similar demands at a conference here recently.)

EGYPTIAN PIRACY CHARGED BY BRITON

JAN 1949

Israel-Bound Freighter Fired On By Two Warships

Haifa, Palestine, Jan. 2 (AP)—The master of the British freighter Richard Borchard reported on arriving here today that he was fired on at sea yesterday by two Egyptian warships. He said he scared off a boarding party through a ruse.

In Tel Aviv, an Israeli army spokesman was asked if the action meant the Egyptian Navy is blockading Israel's shores. The spokesman said he was not prepared to say, but conceded it was the first time a ship bound for Israel had been subjected to such treatment.

Israeli naval sources surmised that the two vessels which stopped the 1,923-ton Borchard were the same corvette and minesweeper which tried to bombard Tel Aviv early New Year's Day. They said that if the attempt to search the Borchard does herald an Egyptian blockade, the Israeli Navy will take action. They didn't say what that meant.

Captain Narrates Incident

The Borchard's captain told reporters here:

"I didn't reply to the Egyptian's signal at the beginning as they wouldn't identify themselves and didn't hoist any flag. I ignored them until they opened fire on my unarmed ship."

[At Malta, British naval authorities said the Borchard radioed that she had been intercepted by "an unidentified vessel flying the Israeli flag." They said they assumed the flying of the Israeli flag was intended as a ruse.]

Six men then boarded the Borchard, the captain said, while Egyptian warships circled around as guards."

Protested As Piracy

"I strongly protested against this piracy as the warships following us definitely refused to show their national flag or identify themselves."

He said he frightened the boarding party off by "threatening them that I had signaled British ships before they boarded."

The boarders left, but not until they forced the captain to produce the ship's papers and to fill in a questionnaire.

...ATE PEACE HINTED IN PEIPING

North China Command Seen Negotiating Settlement with Reds

PEIPING, Jan. 2. — (AP) A broad hint that the nationalist North China command is negotiating a political settlement with the Chinese communists was dropped tonight by a municipal official.

The official, who asked that he not be named, told the Associated Press that there was only enough government-owned flour in this ancient metropolis for another three weeks.

Asked what would happen after that, the official said:

"There is no need to worry—we'll have a political settlement before then."

Meanwhile, six Chinese correspondents of the Ta Kung Pao newspaper chain were permitted freedom after having been under house arrest for two days. Interested parties had interceded with Gen. Fu Tso-yi, the North China commander.

There was no explanation of why they were confined.

The situation around communist-encircled Peiping remained quiet, except for a minor clash on the southwestern suburbs this morning.

Fu's headquarters reported that half of the 300 reds involved in the skirmish were killed.

Political Feinting In China War

Nanking, China, Jan. 2 (AP)—The Chinese Government apparently was struggling today to prevent its North China command from making a separate peace with the Communists.

Undercover political maneuvers were in progress on both sides of the three-year-old civil war.

Fighting was almost nonexistent, as it has been for nearly two weeks.

It was learned reliably that Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek had sent a new order to his northern commander, Gen. Fu Tso-yi, to come to Nanking for consultation.

Fu Ignores Chiang's Invitation

Strong rumors from Peiping have had Fu seeking an independent settlement with the Communists who are beseiging him.

Invited to Nanking last week, he did not come, on grounds of bad flying weather. Later he was reported sending a representative, but no one showed up.

Some other regional leaders, notably those from the Far West and Northwest, also have not arrived, but are still expected.

Spencer Moosa, AP correspondent in Peiping, reported there were strong indications that Nanking was trying everything possible to prevent a localized peace in the north. He said that even Chiang's New Year's statement suggesting a general settlement was partly aimed at holding Peiping in line.

Much Going On Behind Scenes

Nevertheless, Moosa reported, much still was going on behind the scenes in the north; expectations of a quick deal had merely been postponed from two or three days to two or three weeks.

Reliable reports from Hong Kong said Marshal Li Chi-shen had left his refuge in that British colony and headed secretely for Communist territory in the north.

Li, onetime chief of staff to Chiang, is a violent opponent of the Generalissimo, and has said he would be glad to head a coalition government. However, the non-Communist Li has insisted that such a coalition include all Chinese elements.

Li And The Communists

Nanking official quarters immediately said his move to Red territory "definitely identifies him as a Communist and removes the last claim he might have to being a loyal Chinese Liberal.

Other sources speculated that the Communists might have invited Li north to keep him from negotiating with the Government, or that he might have gone on his own initiative so as to be in on any northern surrender.

Another anti-Government but non-Communist leader also was reported to have gone to Communist territory from Hong Kong. He was Chang Lan, chairman of the Government-outlawed democratic league.

No Middle Course Visible

It was apparent that something was cooking on both sides of the war, but it seemed to most Nanking onlookers that no middle course was visible.

The choice appeared to be still between outright surrender—unacceptable to the Government—or the fight to the bitter end which Chiang has described as the alternative to a compromise.

The Government army organ, Peace Daily, said editorially that it was "dangerous thinking" to believe Chiang had opened the door to peace.

"The peace door was originally closed by the Communists and it must be opened by them," the paper stated.

WAR BOMBER BACK IN JAPAN

This Time Doolittle Flyer Is Missionary To Ex-Foes

Tokyo, Jan. 2 (AP)—A stocky young American clergyman today began trying to convert to Christianity some of the Japanese he tried to kill as a member of the Doolittle bombing mission almost seven years ago.

The Rev. Jacob Deshazer, of Madras, Ore., preached his first serman in Japan, then stood at the entrance of the church and shook hands with the Japanese.

Hopes For "Wonderful Time"

"I am very glad to be with you this morning," Deshazer said in opening his sermon, which was translated into Japanese by the Rev. Kaneo Oda. "I am looking forward to a wonderful time with you."

Approximately 180 persons, including a few American soldiers, attended the services in the Free Methodist Church, a small, white building in a Tokyo surburb.

The curly haired young missionary, who spent a few seconds over Tokyo in the Doolittle raid and 40 months as a prisoner of war, said "I expect to stay longer this time."

Plane Crashed In China

The medium bomber on which Deshazer was bombadier crashed in China after the Tokyo raid. Captured by the Japanese, he originally was sentenced to death, but was spared by Emperor Hirohito.

The clergyman became converted while studying the Bible in a Nanking jail, studied for missionary work at Seattle and decided to return to Japan as a missionary.

TRUCE HALTS FIGHTING IN INDIA'S KASHMIR

NEW DELHI, India, Jan. 2—(AP) The defense ministry said today fighting has stopped in the princely state of Kashmir under yesterday's truce agreement between India and Pakistan.

Armed force of the sister dominions had been blazing at each other in the neighboring state for 14 months. The two governments announced a cease-fire agreement effective at midnight Saturday, as part of their program of improving relations, which have been on the verge of war repeatedly.

The dominions agreed to settle the issue of ownership of the state through a plebiscite under United Nations supervision. Kashmir adjoins the northern borders of both countries. Its population is mainly Moslem, but its Hindu maharaja acceded the state to India in October, 1947.

The spokesman said that recently Indian troops in Kashmir have engaged only in defensive operations and relief and rehabilitation work among Hindu and Moslem refugees who returned to their homes after the fighting simmered down.

BUENOS AIRES, Jan. 2 (AP)—The United Nations International Refugee Organization will open offices here tomorrow to handle the needs of 16,000 displaced persons who will receive entry to Argentina.

FORRESTAL'S OUSTER URGED

Farm Official Says Secretary Seeks Warmaking Powers

Washington, Jan. 2 (AP)—Ouster of James Forrestal, Secretary of Defense, was demanded today by James G. Patton, president of the National Farmers Union. He said Forrestal has asked for war-making powers.

Patton's statement urged that Forrestal be replaced by "a civilian with a civilian heart and mind." He suggested Frank P. Graham, president of the University of North Carolina, or Ellis Arnall, former governor of Georgia.

A spokesman for Forrestal said the Secretary would make no comment on Patton's proposal.

The military budget ought to be cut in half and the savings used to increase output of things needed in the civilian economy, Patton said. His attack was prompted by Forrestal's first annual report—"It should be his last."

Quotes From Report

Patton said that Forrestal had placed at the top of his legislative program for Congress proposals "which would deliver into the hands of the military for the first time in this country's history the power to make war."

Patton cited paragraphs asking legislation by which the United States could provide military assistance to other countries, as well as advisory military missions.

The report discloses, Patton said, that Forrestal "regards the United States as practically already at war . . . and that he wants to be able to strike out wherever and whenever he desires to use the military power . . ."

Would Oppose Military Pact

He added that Forrestal "takes it for granted" that the United States already is in a military alliance with western Europe — a proposal that is under study at this time.

Patton said that such an alliance could only be made by Congress and "would fly in the face of historic American traditions."

The Forrestal report was described as "paving the way for the military to break through President Truman's ceiling on military budgets."

Patton suggested that military spending be limited to what is being spent under the Marshall Plan for reconstruction, diverting the rest of the military budget to serving the needs of the people.

Mindszenty Case In Senate

Washington, Jan. 2 (AP)—Senator Wagner (D., N.Y.), today urged the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to investigate the "unjust imprisonment of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty by Hungary's Communist-controlled Government.

In a letter to Senator Connally (D., Texas), Wagner also urged the committee to inquire into the fate of Archbishop Alojzije Stepinac of Yugoslavia. He described both men as martyrs to religious freedom.

Connally will become chairman of the Senate committee in the new Congress tomorrow.

Archbishop O'Boyle Comments

As Wagner's letter was made public, Catholic Archbishop Patrick O'Boyle from the pulpit of St. Matthew's Cathedral here condemned the "sacrilegious action of the Hungarian Government in the outrages offered to the cardinal." He also called Stepinac a "heroic priest" who "pursues martyrdom in the silences of some unknown prison."

Mindszenty recently was arrested on charges of suspicion of plotting against the Hungarian Government, spying, treason and black-market money dealings.

Stepinac's Imprisonment

Stepinac, head of the Catholic Church in Yugoslavia, was arrested there in September, 1946. A month later he was convicted of sympathizing with the Nazis. He was sentenced to sixteen years imprisonment at hard labor and his property was confiscated.

Archbishop O'Boyle told his congregation that the imprisonment of Mindszenty "crystallizes behind the Iron Curtain the conflict between Godless tyranny and man's spiritual nature."

WAR BRIDE-TO-BE DIES AFTER ARRIVAL IN U. S.

WAUKEGAN, Ill., Jan. 2.—(AP) A young German woman, who came to the United States Friday to wed a former American soldier, died in a hospital here today.

She was Miss Irma Anna Schaf, 21, Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Schaf of Murrhardt, Germany. The death certificate attributed her death to diabetes.

Miss Schaf and Frederick Freeman, 26, a former private, first class, with the 349th Field Artillery, were to have been married next Friday. The couple met while Freeman was stationed in Germany.

Miss Schaf came to the United States by plane Friday.

The young bride-to-be was met at the airport by Freeman and his mother, Mrs. Benjamin Drake, and driven to their home.

Saturday Miss Schaf complained of being ill. Later she fell into a deep sleep and could not be aroused. Removed to a hospital, she died today.

"At a press conference [in London] a Foreign Office spokesman simply described the Palestine situation as 'confused' and declined to comment beyond confirming the Franks-Lovett talk on this subject.

"Higher British officials, however, are saying the United States fails to realize the danger of Britain's possible involvement in a full-scale war.

"In Capacity Of Ally"

"Britain is believed to have drawn the American Government's attention to Article 7 of the 1936 Anglo-Egyptian treaty providing that if either party becomes engaged in a war the other party shall immediately come to its aid in the capacity of an ally. . . .

"Egyptian troops are still holding Gaza and the road and railway leading to Gaza. The Egyptian garrison at Faluja is surrounded by Israeli soldiers. If the Faluja garrison fails and Egyptian troops are again routed it is believed the Egyptian Government may demand prompt British military intervention.

"Besides the danger of being implicated by Egypt, Britain is worried about becoming involved by Trans-Jordan or possibly by Iraq, with both of which Britain is bound in military alliances.

Subject Of Other Talks

"'Nobody is going to make another treaty with Britain if the British default on existing obligations,' says authorities in London," the dispatch continued.

The story stated that the "possibility of Britain's embroilment in a Middle Eastern war is also the topic of current talks between the British Foreign Office and the United States Embassy in London."

Chicago, Jan. 2 (AP)—The Chicago Sun-Times said today that the British Ambassador in Washington, Sir Oliver Franks, is "understood to have notified the United States of growing danger that Britain may become involved in a war at the side of the Arab nations against the Jews."

In a dispatch from its London correspondent, Frederick Kuh, the paper said "this is stated at least to have been the clear inference of the Ambassador's message" in a conversation Friday with Robert Lovett, Acting Secretary of State.

It was learned in Washington that Lovett and Franks had conferred at the request of the Ambassador. But both United States and British officials in the capital said they were bound by agreement not to discuss the nature of the conversation.

Conversation Is Confirmed

The Kuh dispatch said:

"The mounting successes of the Israeli Army are causing the British Labor Government intense anxiety. British authorities are drawing attention to the 'common strategic interest of the United States and Britain in the Middle East because of the Soviet Union'.

SAN JUAN, PUERTO RICO, JAN 2-(AP)-LUIS MUNOZ MARIN TOOK THE OATH OF OFFICE TODAY AS THE FIRST ELECTED GOVERNOR OF PUERTO RICO.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN, IN A MESSAGE READ DURING THE CEREMONIES, DESCRIBED MUNOZ MARIN'S INAUGURATION AS "A FURTHER IMPORTANT STEP ALONG THE ROAD TO COMPLETE SELF GOVERNMENT WHICH IS THE IDEAL AND GOAL OF AMERICAN POLICY TOWARD ALL OUR TERRITORIAL AREAS."

CHIEF JUSTICE ANGEL DE JESUS OF THE PUERTO RICAN SUPREME COURT, ADMINISTERED THE OATH. MUNOZ MARIN SUCCEEDED GOV. JESUS T. PINERO, A PRESIDENTIAL APPOINTEE.

LONG A DOMINANT POLITICAL FIGURE HERE, MUNOZ MARIN WAS ELECTED BY THE ISLAND'S VOTERS LAST NOV.2. HE WAS THE CANDIDATE OF THE POPULAR DEMOCRATIC PARTY, WHICH HAS PLEDGED ITSELF TO ASK THE U.S. CONGRESS TO GIVE PUERTO RICANS THE OPPORTUNITY TO DECIDE THEIR OWN POLITICAL STATUS WHEN THE ISLAND'S ECONOMY BECOMES SELF SUSTAINING. THE DEFEATED CANDIDATES WERE MARTIN TRAVIESO OF THE STATEHOOD PARTY AND FRANCISCO M. SUSONI OF INDEPENDENCE PARTY.

IN HIS INAUGURAL SPEECH THE NEW GOVERNOR CALLED FOR A GREAT PRODUCTIVE EFFORT AND EXPRESSED CONFIDENCE IN THE ABILITY OF THE PUERTO RICAN PEOPLE TO SOLVE THEIR PROBLEMS.

"THERE ARE TWO TRUTHS I SEEM TO SEE CLEARLY," MUNOZ MARIN SAID. "ONE IS THAT COLONIALISM IS OBSOLETE AND IS DISAPPEARING WITH RELATIVE SPEED FROM THE FACE OF THE EARTH. THE OTHER IS THAT A NARROW NATIONALISTIC SPIRIT IS OBSOLESCENT AND IS DISAPPEARING WITH DANGEROUS SLOWNESS.

"THE CONDITIONS OF MODERN LIFE MADE COLONIALISM UNDESIRABLE. IN WHAT COLONY IN WHAT PART OF THE WORLD IN WHAT TIME HAS THERE BEEN AN ACT LIKE THIS? NO GREATER TRIBUTE CAN BE PAID TO THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES AND PARTICULARLY TO THE PRESIDENT AND CONGRESS THAN TO RECOGNIZE THE UNPRECEDENTED NATURE OF THEIR ACTION."

THE ELECTION LAST FALL WAS HELD UNDER PROVISIONS OF LEGISLATION APPROVED BY CONGRESS IN 1947 AND SIGNED BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN. HERETOFORE AMERICAN PRESIDENTS HAD APPOINTED THE GOVERNORS OF THE ISLAND SINCE SPAIN CEDED THE TERRITORY TO THE UNITED STATES IN 1898.

MORE THAN 120,000 PERSONS WITNESSED THE INAUGURATION. SIX THOUSAND TROOPS PARTICIPATED. AUTHORITIES DESCRIBED THE TURN-OUT AS THE LARGEST ON RECORD IN THE ISLAND.

HOUSE DEMOCRATS VOTED 176 TO 48 YESTERDAY TO TRIM THE POWER OF THE KEY RULES COMMITTEE. THAT COMMITTEE DECIDES WHEN LEGISLATION SHOULD GO TO THE FLOOR AFTER APPROVAL BY OTHER HOUSE COMMITTEES.

AT PRESENT, IT IS DIFFICULT TO GET A BILL OUT OF THE RULES UNIT FOR A VOTE IF THE COMMITTEE MEMBERS DECIDE THEY WANT TO BOTTLE IT UP. THE CHANGE VOTED BY A MAJORITY OF THE DEMOCRATS WOULD MAKE IT EASIER TO GET BILLS BEFORE THE HOUSE.

BUT YESTERDAY'S VOTE MADE IT CLEAR THE RULE CAN'T BE CHANGED UNLESS THE DEMOCRATS GET HELP FROM THE REPUBLICANS, OR UNLESS SOME DEMOCRATS CHANGE THEIR MINDS.

A SIMPLE MAJORITY OF 218 VOTES IS REQUIRED TO REVIVE THE RULE. IF THE 48 DEMOCRATS WHO OPPOSE THE CHANGE CONTINUE TO LINE UP AGAINST IT, AND IF THE 171 HOUSE REPUBLICANS STAND TOGETHER AGAINST IT, THE TOTAL OF 219 VOTES WOULD BEAT THE PROPOSAL.

LOOKING AT IT ANOTHER WAY, EVEN IF ALL OF THE 38 DEMOCRATS WHO WERE ABSENT YESTERDAY SHOULD GO ALONG WITH THEIR 176 COLLEAGUES WHO FAVORED THE CHANGE, THE PROPONENTS WOULD HAVE ONLY 214 VOTES, FOUR SHORT OF A MAJORITY.

ADMINISTRATION LEADERS SAID THAT UNDER PARTY CAUCUS RULES, ALL THE HOUSE DEMOCRATS ARE BOUND TO GO ALONG WITH THE MAJORITY ON THE RULE CHANGE, EXCEPT IN THE CASE OF MEMBERS WHO TOOK A CAMPAIGN STAND AGAINST REVISING THE RULE.

BUT REPRESENTATIVE HOWARD SMITH OF VIRGINIA, A RULES COMMITTEE MEMBER WHO IS OPPOSED TO THE CHANGE, SAID HE AND SOME OF HIS COLLEAGUES DON'T AGREE WITH THAT INTERPRETATION. SMITH SAID HE WILL FIGHT THE PROPOSAL IN THE HOUSE.

THE DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS PICKED REPRESENTATIVE SAM RAYBURN OF TEXAS TO BE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE, A POST HE HELD BEFORE THE REPUBLICANS TOOK CONTROL TWO YEARS AGO. AND REPRESENTATIVE JOHN W.MCCORMACK OF MASSACHUSETTS WILL BE MAJORITY FLOOR LEADER AGAIN.

AMERICAN WITHDRAWAL ORDERED AS DEAL WITH COMMUNISTS IS DECIDED

3,000 To Be Put Aboard Ships To Await Orders—Report First Official Announcement Nanking Seeks To End War

Tsingtao, China, Tuesday, Jan. 4 (AP)—The United States Marines announced today they were withdrawing from China "since the Chinese Government has decided to negotiate for a peace settlement with the Reds."

It was the first official announcement that the hard-pressed Chinese Government is suing for peace with the dominant Chinese Communists—although China has been rife with rumors of peace for nearly two weeks.

The announcement said some 3,000 marines would be put aboard naval vessels in Tsingtao harbor to await further orders for movement—expected prior to Jan. 25.

The announcement said headquarters of Vice-Admiral Oscar C. Badger will remain here.

Nearly 5,000 in China

Nearly 5,000 marines are in China. The leatherneck force was augmented Nov. 29 by arrival of 1,250 from Guam. On Dec. 16 700 marines of the 9th Regiment were sent from Tsingtao to Shanghai to protect American lives and interests.

The marines at Shanghai were not put ashore, however. They are remaining aboard the transport Bayfield on the waterfront except for shore patrol and liberty leaves.

Marine authorities in Tsingtao notified Shantung University officials that the leathernecks are vacating the school campus, which had been used for barracks since Japan's surrender in 1945.

The reason officially given for the surprise move was that "since the Chinese Government has now decided to negotiate for a peace settlement with the Reds and there is good prospect for peace being restored, the presence of Marines is no longer needed."

Nevertheless, the announcement touched off wild rumors in Tsingtao—which is the North China anchorage for the United States Western Pacific fleet.

One rumor—totally unconfirmed—was to the effect that the Communists were concentrating on Tsingtao's perimeter for a large-scale attack and that the Marines were avoiding any possibility of involvement.

Hold Rest Of Peninsula

The Communists hold all of the Shantung peninsula except the area around Tsingtao.

The announcement said headquarters of Vice Admiral Oscar C. Badger will remain here.

Chinese Peace Talk Brought Into Open

Nanking, Jan. 3 (AP)—Peace talk, sweeping all China like wildfire, was brought into the open tonight at a dinner given by Gen. Chang Chih-chung, Cabinet member, for several hundred educators and public officials.

While the Nanking officials feasted, some Nationalist generals in North China were believed by many sources to be trying to effect a separate peace agreement with the Communists besieging Peiping and Tientsin.

Associates of General Chang, minister without portfolio, said the dinner was "in celebration of his efforts toward peace."

Doesn't Discuss Politics

Chang declined to discuss politics, but urged his guests to "forget this situation and enjoy the food and drink."

Another speaker at the dinner, Prof. Nit Sung-yuan, of Nanking University, said: "We are all here because we want peace."

Seated with Chang was Shao Li-tze, former Ambassador to Moscow, who has been linked with Chang in the group which is urging immediate peace in China.

Significantly present at the dinner were a number of Nationalist Army officers, including the Government's military spokesman, Gen. Teng Wen-yi; high officials of the Government's Central News Agency and a government spokesman, Shen Chang-huan.

Early's Settlement Hints

Spencer Moosa, Associated Press correspondent in Peiping, said that a municipal official there had hinted strongly of an early settlement of the civil war in that region.

The official said there was only a three-week supply of Government-owned flour. Moosa asked: And then what?

"There is no need to worry," said the official, "we'll have a political settlement before that."

[The official, who didn't want to be named, might have let a cat out of the bag. At any rate, the mere fact that Moosa was permitted to file the quotation would appear to lend credence to it.]

Shanghai City Council Asks For Peace

Shanghai, Jan. 3 (AP)—The Shanghai City Council today went over the National Government's head and asked the Chinese Communists for a cease-fire order and the beginning of peace talks.

The appeal was sent in a radio message to the Communist capital at Yenan for relay to all Red leaders.

The text of the message as approved by the City Council on Sunday evening and announced today said:

"On behalf of the 6,000,000 people of Shanghai, Communist leaders are asked to order an immediate cease-fire and leave everything to discussions between your representatives and those of the Government."

"Mister" Used For First Time

The message was addressed to "Mister" Mao Tse-tung, No. 1 Chinese Communist. Use of the formal "mister" was the first time an official body in Nationalist China had addressed the Chinese Communists by anything other than "bandit" since the war started.

The Shanghai Council asked that the message be relayed to other Communist leaders, Chou En-lai, Chu Teh and General Chen Yi.

"If you gentlemen really aim at liberation of the people," the message said, in part, "your first step should be to relieve their sufferings."

The message suggested that "the people be the final judges in case peace talks degenerate into another dispute."

Others Urged To Join

In separate messages to other city and provincial governments in China, the Shanghai Council warned that the next few days might be crucial and a chance for peace might vanish. They urged the others to join in the Shanghai appeal.

The message added:

"Whether the life of the nation is to be saved or ruined, whether the people will continue suffering or enjoy peace is now up to you. . . . The aged and weak are on the brink of starvation . . . The country has ben turned into an inferno. We people have suffered from war. Do you gentlemen have the heart to continue to see us suffering?"

The message was signed by Pan Kung-chan and other members of the City Council.

[No mention was made of Mayor K. C. Wu, American-educated Mayor appointed by President Chiang Kai-shek.]

300 Professors Offer 9-Point Peace Plan

Shanghai, Tuesday, Jan. 4 (AP)—Withdrawal of the United States Marines from Tsingtao was announced today coincident with a rising clamor for peace in China's civil war.

Coinciding with the news from Tsingtao was an announcement in Shanghai that 300 university professors here and in Nanking have submitted to the Government a nine-point peace program.

The program calls for:

1. A ceasefire order.
2. Foreign mediation.
3. Nationalization of armies.
4. Freedom of speech and of press.
5. An "independent" foreign policy.
6. End of corruption among officials.
7. A planned economy.
8. A practical land policy aiming at "eventual nationalization of land.
9. A "guaranteed minimum living standard.

Shanghai Peace Plea

The Shanghai City Council openly radioed a peace plea direct to the Communists Monday—going over the head of President Chiang Kai-shek's unsettled Central Government in Nanking.

In Nanking itself, Gen. Chang Chih-chung, a leading Cabinet member, gave a remarkable "peace" dinner for several hundred public officials and educators.

The Chiang Government itself was silent. The Nanking garrison clapped a secret military censorship on outgoing news dispatches.

Appeal To Yenan

The battlefields, on which the Communists have been winning, lay virtually idle, as they have for two weeks.

The Shanghai City Council, most powerful municipal body in China, directed its radio appeal to Yenan, the Communist capital in Shensi province. It was addressed to Mao Tse-tung, Communist chairman; Chou En-lai, No. 2 Chinese Communist; Gen. Chu Teh, Communist commander in chief, and Gen. Chen Yi, field commander whose forces are threatening Nanking.

Mayor Not Mentioned

Separate messages to other city and provincial councils urged that they indorse the Shanghai appeal, saying the next few days were crucial and the chance for peace might vanish.

"On behalf of the 6,000,000 people of Shanghai," the Communists were asked to "order an immediate cease-fire and leave everything to discussions between your representatives and those of the Government."

"If you gentlemen really aim at liberation of the people," it continued, "your first step should be to relieve their sufferings."

It proposed that "the people be the final judges in case peace talks degenerate into another dispute."

The message was signed by Pan Kung-chan, a council leader, and other councilmen. (K. C. Wu, Mayor of Shanghai, was not mentioned in this dispatch. He is on the Communists' blacklist of "war criminals.")

Milks Reports Deletions

From Nanking, Harold K. Milks, Associated Press correspnodent, reported that delays and deletions from press dispatches filed by foreign correspondents indicated the garrison had begun secret censorship.

He said garrison officials insisted they were "merely studying the question of censorship," but officials of the Communications Ministry and Government radio monopoly confirmed that censors already had taken charge.

Milks was able, however, to send to Shanghai a report on the huge dinner party given by Gen. Chang Chih-chung.

Those attending included Shao Li-tze, former Ambassador to Moscow and head of the former People's Political Council; Gen. Teng Wen-yi, Government military spokesman, and Shen Chang-huan, Government Information Minister and spokesman.

Peiping Attack Plan Discounted

Peiping, Tuesday, Jan. 4 (AP)—Purported plans for a Chinese Communist attack on this besieged capital were reported today by arrivals from suburbs behind the Communist lines—but nobody seemed to believe it.

The Communists apparently do not want to destroy the ancient city by turning it into a battleground.

Peiping has been encircled by the Communists for more than two weeks. Except for capture of the airfield 7 miles to the south and surrounding communities, there has been no determined attempt to take the city by assault.

Civilian administrators in Peiping and Tientsin—the North China provincial council—decided Monday to bring the peace moves into the open.

The council voted to send a message to the Communists urging a compromise in the civil war. Another message is to be sent to President Chiang Kai-shek indorsing his New Year's statement for peace.

Israel Reported Facing Loss Of U.S. Recognition

JAN 1949

London, Jan. 3 (AP)—A responsible source said today the United States has warned Israel that American diplomatic recognition of the Jewish state may be withdrawn if she attacks neighboring Arab states.

He aid the Israeli Government already ha replied to the American warning. But, he added, he could give no details of what the reply contains. It presumably reached Washington today.

Not Identified

The source refused to be identified by nationality.

A United States Embassy spokesman would not comment officially on the report.

In Washington, the State Department refused to confirm or deny the report.

The informant said the American move came after Britain told the United States there is danger that the British will enter the Palestine war on the side of the Arabs to help protect Arab territory from Jewish incursions. Britain is bound by treaties to Egypt and Trans-Jordan.

The Jews, just before Christmas, launched an offensive against Egyptian positions in various parts of the Negeb desert of southern Palestine. In the United Nations Security Council a British representative declared a Jewish force had entered Egypt in the course of the fighting.

Called British Maneuver

An Israeli Government spokesman in Tel Aviv said today Britain appeared to be maneuvering her "boycott" of Israel into actual war on the side of the Arabs. This spokesman said reports showed Britain was bringing heavy pressure on the United States to "help save the Egyptians from the results of the folly of their own aggression."

With the reports of Britain's grave view of the situation in the background, Sir Oliver Franks, the British Ambassador at Washington, scheduled a meeting with President Truman today and then canceled it. The White House said no new appointment was made.

It was learned there, however, that Franks conferred with Acting Secretary of State Lovett at the Briton's request. Both American and British officials in Washington said they were bound by agreement not to discuss the nature of the conversations.

British Press Lauds Eisenhower Book

London, Jan. 3 (AP)—The British press heaped generous praise on General Eisenhower's "Crusade in Europe"—his account of the war—on its publication in book form here today.

Six weeks ago, while it was appearing serially, a reviewer in Lord Kemsley's Sunday Times considered the book a blow to international friendship. He said it emphasized differences of views on the Allied conduct of the war and belittled British efforts.

Earlier Review Mentioned

Reviews today in the Manchester Guardian and the London Times mentioned that earlier, acrimonous review.

"For every British reader wounded a thousand others will be strengthened in their admiration of the author," said the Guardian. "If this book is a blow to international friendship, let us have a long bombardment."

The Times, in a column-long editorial, mentioned that, due to an "unfortunate misunderstanding," the Sunday Times review had been attributed to the Times. The two papers have no connection.

Calls It Story Of Accord

The Times went on: "The true story of 'Crusade in Europe' is the story of an astonishing accord between the nations with lasting lessons for the conduct of world affairs today and tomorrow. . . . The record of Allied victory is founded on a fair understanding of the value of British resistance in the earlier years of the war, and of the effects of that resistance upon later campaigns. There is never a hint at any place of depreciation of the British contribution to victory."

The Daily Telegraph also had words of praise. "General Eisenhower's book is in the great tradition. It is a work worthy of the man."

RUSSIANS DISPUTE NOTE ON PRISONERS

Most Repatriated, They Assert as Three Powers Demand Count of Those Held

JAN 1949

By The Associated Press

LONDON, Jan. 3 — The Soviet news agency Tass said tonight an "overwhelming majority" of German prisoners of war had been repatriated from the Soviet Union.

"The repatriation of the remainder is proceeding according to the plan adopted by the Soviet Government and is to be completed during 1949," said a Tass dispatch broadcast from Moscow.

The statement came as Washington, London and Paris announced they had delivered notes to the Foreign Office in Moscow demanding that Russia say how many Germans were still held in the Soviet Union as prisoners of war.

The Tass dispatch gave no figures. Tass charged that Soviet citizens "are being kept by all sorts of methods in camps in the American, British and French occupation zones of Germany and Austria."

The Soviet news agency said the four-power agreement for release of war prisoners was subject to a plan of repatriation to be drawn up by the Allied Control Council in Germany. The Council has not functioned for several months as a four-power body because of East-West differences.

Tass added:

"The Control Council did not draw up such a plan, however, because the French and British Governments, supported by the Government of the United States, refused to include in the repatriations a considerable number of German prisoners of war whom they retain to date in their territories, ostensibly working for hire in industrial establishments and agriculture."

Social Democratic Party sources in Germany reported on Dec. 25 that at least 200,000 to 300,000 German captives remained in Russia, on the basis of figures furnished to the Foreign Ministers Council by the Soviet.

These sources pointed out, however, that just before the end of the war Russia claimed to have 3,180,000 German prisoners and that nowhere near that many had been returned.

Strict Neutrality Role Called Need For India

London, Jan. 3 (AP)—Sarat Chandra Bose, Indian political leader, said today India should insist on strict neutrality in a third world war "which is already in the offing."

Chandra Bose is head of the new Socialist Republican party. He told a news conference India "should not line up either with the Anglo-American bloc or the Soviet bloc," although his party supports the Communists in China.

His brother, Subhas Chandra Bose, led the Indian National Army which fought on the Japanese side during World War II.

U. S. COMMANDER TELLS STAFF TO SHUN SOVIETS

BERLIN, Jan. 3 — (AP) Col. Frank L. Howley, American commandant in Berlin, advised his staff in a New Year's talk today not to have any social connections with the Russians as long as the Soviet blockade of the city exists.

Howley said contact with the Russians should be limited to "purely business matters," a procedure followed by the Soviets.

The U. S. Army officers said thre had been practically nn social fraternization with the Russians and advised that such contact was considered "bad taste and poor judgment" as long as the blockade is maintained.

Denied Right To Visit Ruhr, Soviets Complain

Berlin, Jan. 3 (AP)—The Soviet press complained tonight it was being denied the right to visit the Ruhr for journalistic purposes.

The last time the Russians allowed Western newsmen to tour their zone was in April, 1947.

The Soviet-licensed ADN news agency said several Russian newsmen asked the British Military Government for permission to tour the Ruhr and had been rejected. A British spokesman here said he did not know anything about Soviet requests of this nature, and was unaware of any refusal.

Jimmy Ybarbo Starts Return To U.S. Today

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 3 (AP)—Six-year-old Jimmy Ybarbo will start back to the United States tomorrow to live with his aunt. His mother, Mrs. Wilma Ybarbo, of Malden, Mass., is under sentence of twenty years in prison for killing her husband, Sergt. John Ybarbo. She is appealing the sentence.

Jimmy will live with Mrs. Ybarbo's sister, Mrs. Ruth Hunt, South Dartmouth, Mass. "She will give him a good home," Mrs. Ybarbo said in a letter to army officials asking for his transportation.

Since the September 20 shooting of Sergeant Ybarbo—which Jimmy slept through—the child has lived with friends of the Ybarbos in Fritzlar, Germany. Occasionally he has visited his mother, who is temporarily confined in a room of the United States Army dispensary in Bad Wildungen.

Sailor Bares Wedding To German Girl

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 3 (AP). James McEvoy disclosed today that he is already married to the German girl for whom he wants to give up his American citizenship.

The Oakland (Cal.) sailor told a United States Army public information officer that they were married eighteen months ago and have a 5-month-old child.

He wants to stay in Germany to support them and insists he will renounce his homeland if necessary to do so.

The little, bespectacled sailor, 49 years old, was scheduled to talk to the United States consul in Bremerhaven today to try to clear up his situation.

McEvoy was jailed Christmas Day on charges of illegally entering Germany by abandoning his ship, the S.S. General Darby, when it docked in Bremerhaven.

Vatican Spurns Offer For Hungarian Parley

JAN 1949

Vatican City, Jan. 3 (AP)—The Vatican radio said last night the Holy See has rejected a Hungarian offer to negotiate a settlement of church-state differences in Hungary.

The broadcast said:

"The Hungarian Government has made known to the Holy See that independently of the personal case of the prince primate of Hungary (the arrest on December 26 of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty), Hungary maintains a desire to find an accord with the Catholic Church and the Holy See.

"The Holy See replied:

" 'Firstly—it is impossible to see how a serious desire for an accord with the Holy See can be conciliated with the treatment inflicted upon a cardinal archbishop primate, treatment that offends the Holy See.

Liberty Of Schools

" 'Secondly—That the Holy See, as is known, wishes everywhere the rights of the church and conscience to be safeguarded; that is, not alone liberty of religion but also liberty of pulpit and propaganda, liberty for all Catholic institutions and especially of Christian education for the young.' "

The Holy See already has excommunicated those connected with Cardinal Mindszenty's arrest. One of the Cardinal's chief differences with the Communist-bossed Government in Budapest was over church schools. He fought tooth and nail against state seizure of Catholic schools, but Parliament finally accomplished the seizure last year. Hungary's population is approximately 65 per cent Catholic.

Mindszenty, 56, stands accused of plotting against the Government, spying, treason and black-market dealings. There has been no official announcement as to when he is to go to trial, but unofficial sources have said it would be some time in February.

HUNGARY BID IS REJECTED

JAN 1949

Vatican Refuses Negotiations Apart From Cardinal's Case

Vatican City, Jan. 3 (AP)—The Vatican has rejected a Hungarian Government offer to negotiate a settlement of differences independent of the case of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty.

The Vatican radio announced the rejection last night. It said the Holy See found the Government's offer inconsistent with the arrest of the Hungarian Primate. The church contends Cardinal Mindszenty is the victim of political persecution, and has excommunicated all Catholics responsible for his arrest.

Cardinal Mindszenty, an outspoken foe of many of the policies of Hungary's Communist-led Government, was arrested December 26 on charges of spying, treason, plotting to restore the Hapsburg dynasty to Hungary's throne, and black-market dealings in foreign currency.

Treatment Offensive

The Vatican broadcast said:

"The Hungarian Government has made known to the Holy See that independently of the personal case of the Prince Primate of Hungary, Hungary maintains a desire to find an accord with the Catholic Church and the Holy See.

"The Holy See replied:

" 'Firstly—it is impossible to see how a serious desire for an accord with the Holy See can be conciliated with the treatment inflicted upon a Cardinal Archbishop Primate, treatment that offends the Holy See.

" 'Secondly—that the Holy See, as is known, wishes everywhere the rights of the Church and conscience to be safeguarded; that is, not alone liberyt of religion but also liberty of pulpit and propaganda; liberty for all Catholic institutions, and especially of Christian education for the young.' "

Opposed School Seizure

Cardinal Mindszenty had fought a strong but losing battle against Hungary's seizure of Catholic schools. This was a major cause of discord between him and the Government.

He has been in a Budapest jail since his arrest, and the Government has not announced when he will be tried. Unofficial sources said his case would be heard by a people's court some time in February.

Hungary's population is about 65 per cent Catholic.

Nanking Recognizes Korea

NANKING, Jan. 3 (AP)—The Chinese Foreign Office announced tonight official recognition of the Republic of Korea and said an embassy would replace its present diplomatic mission in Seoul. This follows similar action by the United States on Jan. 1.

Netherlands Ouster From U.N. Is Urged

Tokyo, Jan. 3 (AP)—Approximately 650,000 Orientals other than Japanese joined the Indonesian Association today in condemning Dutch action in the Netherlands East Indies.

In a resolution sent to the United Nations in Paris, the association asked that the Netherlands be expelled from the United Nations and that the Dutch be ordered to withdraw their troops from Indonesia.

Associations of Viet Naman, Filipinos, Indians, Siamese, Chinese and Koreans in Japan indorsed the Indonesian group's resolutions.

73 Jap Firms Freed From Restrictions

Tokyo, Jan. 3 (AP)—Another 73 Japanese industrial concerns formerly owned or controlled by the Zaibatsu (family combines) have been released from restrictions imposed by the anti-trust and cartels division of General MacArthur's headquarters.

Approximately 1,100 Japanese firms in which the Zaibatsu held ten per cent or more of the stock were placed on the original list. Revision of the restrictions and the releases made public today have lifted approximately 300 from the list.

MANILA, Jan. 3 (AP)—The Philippines Department of Foreign Affairs today endorsed the proposal of Premier Nehru of India for a conference of Southeast Asia countries on Indonesian problems.

Java Guerrillas Stab At Dutch Positions

HARRIS JACKSON

JAN 1949

Batavia, Java, Jan. 3 (AP)—Indonesian guerrillas are stabbing repeatedly at Dutch positions on the island of Java, the fugitive underground Republican radio said today.

The Dutch have issued what they describe as a cease-fire order on Java, although it authorizes Netherlands soldiers to continue "operations against roaming groups or individuals trying to cause disorder."

Two Dutch Planes Downed

The Dutch said there are "no regular Republican troops under a responsible commander" in Java, but the Republican radio, monitored here, gave this picture of harassing tactics against the conquering Netherlanders:

1. Republicans attacked Ponorogo, Sukohardjo, Wonogiri, Soekaboemi, Garoet and the Bantam Harbor area, all on East Java.

2. Two Dutch planes were shot down in Central Sumatra.

3. An automobile bridge outside Soerakarta, Java, was blown up by Republicans while seven Dutch Army trucks were crossing it.

4. Guerrillas attacked a Dutch military convoy west of Cheribon.

The Dutch themselves reported a guerrilla attack on a rubber estate near Buitenzorg, 20 miles from Batavia. Dutch sources said five Europeans and eleven Indonesians threw back an attack by 500 guerrillas, killing five.

U.N. Ordered Cease-Fire

The Dutch commander, Lieut. Gen. Simon Spoor, issued an order of the day which is referred to as a cease-fire.

Netherlands Government representatives then sent a letter to the United Nations Good Offices Committee and the Consular Truce Commission, saying a cease-fire order had been issued for Java late yesterday.

The letter also contained "provision of facilities for carrying out the Security Council's resolutions." The Security Council ordered a cease-fire Christmas Eve.

INDONESIANS REPORT RAIDS

Announce Series Of Guerrilla Attacks In East Java

HARRIS JACKSON

Batavia, Java, Jan. 3 (AP)—Indonesian Republican guerrillas were said today to have launched a series of harassing attacks against the Dutch in east Java areas adjacent to Batavia.

The fugitive underground Republican radio said raids of this type are increasing. The broadcast referred particularly to operations against Dutch military convoys.

The Dutch themselves reported a guerrilla attack on a rubber plantation near Buitenzorg, 22 miles south of Batavia. According to the Dutch account, 500 Republicans launched the raid but were thrown back by five Europeans and eleven Indonesians. Five of the guerrillas were killed. Another estate in the same area was attacked later.

Rail City Attacked

The Republican broadcast told of a guerrilla strike on the rail city of Soekaboemi, 21 miles southeast of Buitenzorg. Other Republican units were said to have struck at Garoet, 50 miles southwest of Cheribon, and the Bantam harbor area in extreme eastern Java. Attacks also were reported on the east Java towns of Ponorogo, Sukohardjo and Wonogiri.

Operations against Dutch military convoys, the Republican radio said, were conducted west of Cheribon and in the Soerakarta area of central Java. In the latter region a highway bridge was blown up by guerrillas while seven Dutch army trucks were crossing it. Two Dutch planes were shot down in central Sumatra, the broadcast said.

Sumatra Order Expected

Guerrilla raids have been expected by the Dutch. Lieut. Gen. Simon Spoor, the Netherlands commander, has issued an order of the day which the Dutch refer to as a cease-fire order on Java. The order authorizes Dutch soldiers to continue "operations against roaming groups on individuals trying to cause disorder."

Informed sources here said Spoor is expected to issue a similar order to Netherlands forces on Sumatra when the Dutch capture Benkoelen, the last major city on that island still in Republican hands. The Dutch have occupied all the important cities of Java.

The Dutch army announced new gains in its drive on Benkoelen, 230 miles southeast of Padang. The communiqué said Republican units had been cleared from Loeboeklinggau, 50 miles east, and Pageralam, 65 miles southeast of Benkoelen.

Letter To U.N. Committee

Following the issuance of Spoor's order of the day, Netherlands Government representatives sent a letter to the United Nations Good Offices Committee and the consular truce commission saying a cease-fire had been issued for late yesterday. It was indicated that an attempt had been made to transmit the order to representatives of the Indonesian Republic.

The Dutch informed the Good Offices Committee that 46 United Nations military observers will be permitted to observe at first hand conditions in former Republican territory now occupied by Netherlands troops.

Ordered To Withdraw

A committee attaché said top United Nations military experts in Batavia will confer tomorrow with the Dutch high command to learn where the observers will be permitted to go and what restrictions, if any, will be placed upon them.

After Netherlands forces began their operations December 19 the observers withdrew from the field on orders of local Dutch army commanders. The committee has asked that they be allowed to return to the combat areas to gather information for reports to the Security Council. The Security Council ordered a cease-fire in the East Indies Christmas Eve.

Indian Conference Call

An authoritative Dutch source expressed doubt that India's call for an Asian conference on the Indonesian question would be "universally popular" among the nations invited. The informant gave the impression that Netherlands authorities were not worried because of the Indian action.

He described the call for the conference as "another step on the way to Indian leadership of the Asian world," and added: "We are not at all sure that all Asian countries will greet such a maneuver favorably."

One foreign diplomat pointed out, however, that any concerted economic sanctions by Asian countries might close the chief rice sources of Dutch-held Indonesia.

Israeli Assails British Moves In Palestine

Tel Aviv, Israel, Jan. 3 (AP)—An Israeli Foreign Office spokesman said today the British Government appears to be maneuvering its "sulky boycott" of Israel toward actual war.

[The phrase "sulky boycott" was coined by Wiston Churchill, who demanded in the House of Commons on December 10 that Britain accord recognition to Israel.]

"When the Security Council meets again," the spokesman declared, "it must regard Britain as now completely out of court as an impartial member of the United Nations interested in peace and stability in the Middle East. She is becoming an active ally of the Arab states."

"Heavy Pressure"

He referred gravely to reports from the British press and Foreign Office which he said showed Britain now is bringing "heavy pressure on the United States to help save the Egyptians from the results of the folly of their own aggression."

[The London Daily Mirror said today "dramatic changes in British and American policy over Palestine are likely as the result of incursions by Jewish troops into Egypt."

Any threat to the Suez Canal, the Mirror added, might compel Britain to "take action to aid the Egyptian Army."]

The Foreign Office spokesman said it is not known here whether even the Egyptian Government had sanctioned the reported operation of British reconnaissance planes over Israeli positions in the battle area of the Negeb front.

"Britain Was Silent"

"When Egyptian troops disregarded United Nations partition lines and rulings and drove deep into Israeli territory, Britain was silent. She even assisted by furnishing military supplies and equipment," the Israeli spokesman went on.

"Now that Egyptian forces are being flung out and smashed and shattered on their own doorstep Britain threatens to turn what Churchill described as a sulky boycott into an Anglo-Israeli war."

A military spokesman gave no news of operations in the Negeb in the last 24 hours except to say there was some activity. That was regarded here as indicating a continuing mopup near the Egyptian frontier and in some rear pockets.

Holy City Raided; Reprisal Likely

JAN 1949

Jerusalem, Jan. 3 (AP)—Jerusalem was bombed by unidentified warplanes last night, bringing a new threat of Jewish retaliation against Cairo.

There were two raids. At least five were injured in the first, when three bombs were dropped on a densely populated Jewish quarter.

Another raid came three hours later. No details were available but two explosions were heard.

Sufficient Reason

An Israeli spokesman said in Tel Aviv that if the bombers proved to be Egyptian, the raid would be sufficient reason for the Jewish Air Force to strike at Cairo.

[An Egyptian War Ministry communiqué issued last night in Cairo said Egyptian planes carried out long-range reconnaissance raids over Jewish positions yesterday. The communiqué said Israeli planes raided Palestine Arab refugee camps and dropped bombs, causing casualties.

[The Egyptian communiqué also reported a continued "exchange of fire" along Egyptian and Israeli positions in the Negeb desert, where renewed fighting has been reported for several weeks.]

Third Bombing

The bombing was the third suffered by Jerusalem since the start of the current Arab-Jewish war. It was the first time bombs were dropped in one of the city's residential quarters, however.

[The Chicago Sun-Times said meanwhile that the British Ambassador in Washington is "understood to have notified the United States of growing danger that Britain may become involved in a war at the side of the Arab nations against the Jews." The dispatch, which came from London, said "this is stated at least to have been the clear inference of the ambassador's message" in a conversation Friday with Acting Secretary of State Robert Lovett. The story stated that the "possibility of Britain's embroilment in a Middle Eastern war is also the topic of current talks between the British Foreign Office and the United States Embassy in London."]

New Front Opens In Palestine War

Tel Aviv, Palestine, Jan. 3 (AP)—Warfare flared on a second Palestine front today when Israel and Iraqi troops clashed on the Holy Land's long-dormant central front.

[In Cairo, an Egyptian War Ministry statement said Egyptian planes had scattered Jewish concentrations near Faluja, 30 miles south of Tel Aviv, and that the fighting continued on the Negeb front of southern Palestine.]

An Israeli army statement issued in Tel Aviv emphatically denied Egyptian charges that Jewish forces had used gas against Egyptian forces trapped in the Faluja pocket.

Jewish reports of the central front fighting said the battle on the plain of Sheron began at dawn with both sides suffering casualties. After two hours the fighting lessened but the whole front remained tense.

ISRAELI ARMY DENIES CHARGE OF USING GAS

TEL AVIV, Israel, Jan. 3—(AP) The Israeli army tonight emphatically denied Egyptian charges that Jewish forces had used gas against Egyptian troops trapped in the Faluja pocket, 30 miles south of Tel Aviv.

The Israeli denial was the first disclosure here that the charges had been made. Upwards of some 2,500 Egyptian troops have been surrounded at Faluja by the Jews for several weeks.

A military spokesman in the Israeli capital said the chief of Jewish operations received the first word of the accusation in an urgent communication Saturday night from Brig. Gen. William E. Riley, chief of the United Nations military staff in Haifa.

Riley's message said the commander-in-chief of the Egyptian army had reported receiving a message from the Egyptian commander at Faluja which said the Jews had used "tear gas and choking gas" in attacks on the encircled troops.

PEACE NEGOTIATIONS BOG DOWN IN BURMA

RANGOON, Burma, Jan. 3 (AP)—Peace negotiations between an outlawed Burmese Army group and the Government broke down today just as the nation prepared to celebrate its first independence anniversary tomorrow.

An official statement said that the White Band Peoples Volunteer Organization (the PVO)—a rebel group said to number 50,000 men—had again gone underground.

The break followed the Government's refusal of a PVO demand that they be regarded as "mercenary soldiers" instead of volunteers. The Government also turned down a request that the PVO be allowed to retain its arms.

Bo Pu Kun, PVO leader and former Education Minister, and his chief aides have "disappeared" from Rangoon, the statement said.

The PVO is made up of forces from the private army of U Aung San, assassinated Nationalist Premier. It went underground last August when the Government outlawed it.

Official sources believe that the PVO is being tutored by Communists.

Meanwhile, the Burmese Government said that it had re-established control on the China-Burma border where fighting occurred last week against armed Chinese bandits.

Drees Gets Permission

NEW DELHI, India, Jan. 3 (AP)—India agreed today to let a Royal Dutch Airlines (KLM) plane carrying Premier Drees of the Netherlands to Indonesia stop en route in India. A Government spokesman said similar action was likely by Pakistan on the Dutch request. He said he did not know when Premier Drees would make the trip. Both Dominions had banned KLM landings because of Dutch military action against the Indonesian Republic.

The Indian Government today invited a fourteenth nation—the Philippines—to attend an Asian conference on Indonesia.

ALLIES DEMAND REDS GIVE DATA ON GERMAN PW'S

JAN 1949

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3—(AP) The western powers demanded tonight that Moscow say how many German war prisoners Russia still holds and whether she plans to release them as pledged.

The United States said that Russia has failed to reveal the number. It implied that Moscow has violated a four-power agreement to release all by the end of 1948.

The American demand for "specific information," including the number of Germans who have died in Soviet captivity, was contained in a note delivered today by the embassy in Moscow to the Soviet foreign office, the State department announced. Similar notes were presented by Britain and France.

The Soviet news agency Tass quickly asserted that Russia had sent home an "overwhelming majority" of its Germans. In a dispatch from Moscow, it said:

"The repatriation of the remainder is proceeding according to the plan adopted by the Soviet government and is to be completed during 1949." The American note said it has been 10 months since Moscow reported officially on its German war captives. Russia was told that the western powers have carried out their part of a 1947 agreement to return all the prisoners to their homeland by the close of 1948.

Allied and German sources estimate that more than 200,000 Germans are still in Soviet captivity. Soviet officials, meanwhile, have been telling the Germans that the west is keeping many of their compatriots at forced labor.

The American note said that actually the last Germans held by the United States were returned home in mid-1947. The State department said its understanding is that the British and French likewise have sent all their captives home.

German communists have admitted that more than 30,000 German war prisoners are held in Poland as forced labor. Yugoslavia is estimated to have an equal number.

Soviet-licensed newspapers in Berlin say the slow return of German prisoners from Russia and Soviet-dominated countries is due to transportation difficulties.

When the four-power agreement was made, Moscow reported Russia still had 890,532 German prisoners. The latest report on the progress in freeing them was made 10 months ago, on March 1, 1948 to the inter-allied combined repatriation executive in Berlin.

The American note, and presumably the demands for information made by Britain and France, dealt only with the Germans held captive by Russia. The release of Japanese prisoners is covered by a separate agreement under which Russia undertook to send them to their homeland at an agreed monthly rate. The Japanese repatriation was halted recently when Russia reported weather conditions made further shipments impossible at this time.

West May Ask Russ Return 200,000 German P.W.'s

Washington, Jan. 3 (AP)—Russia probably will be asked soon by the Western powers to explain why it has not returned an estimated 200,000 German prisoners of war.

This report came today from diplomatic informants who indicated that notes requesting the explanation now are being prepared. It also was indicated that the notes probably will be submitted simultaneously by the United States, France and Britain.

Specific figures on the number of German prisoners still held by Russia are unavailable. Estimates of Allied and German sources, however, have placed the total at more than 200,000.

30,000 Held In Poland

Of this number, German Communists have admitted more than 30,000 are held as forced labor in Poland. Yugoslavia is estimated to have an equal number of German war prisoners.

Soviet-licensed newspapers in Berlin have said that the slow return of prisoners has been due to transportation difficulties.

SOME REDS WANT PEACE WITH U. S., AMBASSADOR SAYS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3 — (AP) There are Russian leaders who wish to be conciliatory, in the opinion of U. S. Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith, just back from Moscow.

This was in line with President Truman's statement last week that there are Soviet leaders who are "exceedingly anxious" to reach an understanding with the United States.

Smith, meeting reporters after leaving the President, was asked whether he could identify the leaders to whom the President referred. He replied he could not.

The diplomat asked Mr. Truman again to relieve him of his post in Moscow, which he has held three years. He said the President has not acted and had asked him to come in and talk about it later.

Smith, a lieutenant general and a career man, pointed out he would do what his commander-in-chief ordered him to do.

His reference to Russian attitudes came when reporters referred to the President's remark. Smith said:

"I imagine there are in the Soviet Union certain leaders who are more desirous of being conciliatory than they are of pursuing the policy of harshness we have encountered. But it would be difficult to say who they are."

As to the politburo—stern handful of Russian masters—Smith said that a real cleavage there "is a little beyond the scope of my imagination."

There never is a cleavage in that body, he said, although there are "certain differences of opinion before policies are made and adopted."

Bound for Florida

Smith left the executive offices for the airport to fly to Pittsburgh and receive a degree tonight. Then he will go to Florida for a vacation.

Arriving at Pittsburgh, he told reporters that relations between the two countries may continue as they are without growing better or worse for an indefinite time.

Smith said here in reply to a question that he does not now whether the President will have "pity" on him in his request to be relieved of his post.

"I've been out of the country in all for seven years and when you are gone that long you get awfully homesick," he said.

Talk of his possible successor has brought up the names of H. Freeman Matthews, ambassador to Sweden; Avra M. Warren, minister to Finland; Charles E. Bohlen, State department counselor, and George Kennan, chief of the State department policy planning staff.

Code To Curb Congressional Probers Proposed In House

JAN 1949

Washington, Jan. 3 (AP)—A new code for congressional investigations, designed to grant accused persons a hearing and to curb headline-conscious congressmen, was proposed by Administration leaders on Capitol Hill today.

Ostensibly, the plan was not aimed at any particular committee. But it stems from a furore over the methods of the House Committee on Un-American Activities. Critics have charged this committee with failing to give hearings to accused persons and with bidding for publicity.

In the House the code was introduced by Representative McCormack (D., Mass.), floor leader. The Senate floor leader, Senator Lucas (D., Ill.) announced he would offer a similar proposal.

Contents Of Proposal

"Some committees use their privileges in a manner which violates American standards of fair play," Lucas said.

Under McCormack's proposal, a person who believes testimony before a Senate or House committee has damaged his reputation would be permitted to:

1. File a sworn statement in his own behalf.
2. Testify personally.
3. Call and examine witnesses.
4. Crossexamine for not more than an hour, personally or by counsel, any witness whose testimony he feels adversely affected him.

The resolution also would allow witnesses called before congressional committees to be accompanied by attorneys and to buy stenographic transcripts of public or private testimony.

Committeemen would not be allowed to issue any reports until the full committee approved by a majority vote.

Publicizing Is Restricted

No committee member or employé could file or make public any statement adversely conmmenting on any person until that person had been notified and been given an opportunity to present a sworn statement on the subject.

Members and committee employés would not be allowed to lecture or write about the committees' activities or reports while a member of or working for the committees.

MARINE MOVE SURPRISES U.S.

State Department Not Notified Of Withdrawal Plan

JAN 1949

Washington, Jan. 3 (AP)—State Department officials expressed surprise tonight at the announcement of the withdrawal of United States Marines from China.

Officials here said no previous information had been received to support definitely the idea that the Nationalist Government was talking with the Communists.

The development was not entirely unexpected, however. Rear Admiral Oscar Badger, commander of the Marines, has had authority from the Navy for weeks to abandon the Tsingtao base at any time he considered there was danger the American forces might become involved in the Chinese fighting.

To Provide Training

[Editor's Note—Philip Potter, of the Washington Bureau of The Sun, wrote December 24 that the lull in the fighting in China indicated "There may be something to rumors that talks are under way between Nationalist elements and the Communists."]

The Marines were dispatched to China as part of a postwar agreement to provide the Chinese with training in the operation of naval craft furnished by the United States.

Since the Communists swept southward to the Yangtze, the naval command has had the additional responsibility of taking charge of the evacuation of Americans from the port city of Shanghai.

Officials here have emphasized that the Marines would not take sides in the Chinese civil war.

Madame Chiang Seeks Aid

While continuing to deal with Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek as the leader of China, the State Department has adopted a policy of neutrality toward any peace negotiations.

Madame Chiang has been in this country appealing, so far futilely, for stepped-up aid to her husband's Government.

Withdrawal Not Unexpected

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3 (AP).—Officials here said tonight no previous information had been received to support definitely the idea that China's Nationalist government was talking with the Communists.

The reported Marine withdrawal was not entirely unexpected, however. Vice-Admiral Oscar Badger, commander of the Marines, has had authority from the Navy for weeks to abandon the Tsingtao base at any time he considered there was danger the American forces might become involved in the Chinese fighting.

The Marines were dispatched to China as part of a post-war agreement to provide the Chinese with training in the operation of naval craft furnished by the United States. President Truman has indicated he is in no hurry to decide the China aid question. There was no immediate comment from the White House tonight on the Tsingtao announcement.

Royall In From Europe, G.I.s in 'Splendid Shape'

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3 (AP).—Secretary of the Army Kenneth C. Royall returned today from a three-week inspection trip to Europe where, he said, he found American troops in "splendid shape."

Secretary Royall told reporters who met him at the National Airport that he was particularly impressed by the 26th Infantry Combat Team, a unit of the 1st Division, which he inspected at Bambere, Germany.

"I believe that this outfit is as well trained and in as good condition of readiness as any of those in the training camps during the war," he said. "The rest of the troops of the 1st Division in Germany are in the same state of readiness."

During his trip, which started on Dec. 11, Mr. Royall visited Army, Air Force and Navy bases in Turkey, Greece, Trieste, Austria and Germany.

EMERGENCY AID FOR CHINA

ECA Provides $16,490,000 for Wheat and Rice

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3 (AP)—The United States today increased foreign aid to China by $16,490,000 to provide emergency food supplies of wheat and rice to seven large population centers in that civil-war-ravaged country.

The action by the Economic Cooperation Administration is in line with the policy of maintainng a rationing program for emergency food supplies in the cities of Peiping, Tienstin, Tsing Tao, Shanghai, Nanking, Canton and Swatow.

At the same time, ECA said it cut $3,935,000 from previously authorized prior China aid to buy fertilizer. The new supplies of wheat will come from the United States, while rice will come from Far Eastern sources.

14 Permanent Overseas Army Cemeteries Planned

JAN 1949

Washington, Jan. 3 (AP)—American war dead from 400 overseas cemeteries will be brought together in fourteen permanent military cemeteries in Europe, Africa and the Philippines.

The Army announced today the selection of the fourteen as the final resting place for these men, whose families preferred that they be left in the area of their sacrifice, rather than be brought back to America.

It is estimated that of the 257,890 identified casualties overseas more than 100,000 will be finally interred in these cemeteries which are markers along the lines of fighting in Europe, Africa and the Pacific area.

64% Requested Return

Relatives were given their choice of having their dead returned home, or left overseas in military cemeteries or private cemeteries. About 64 per cent asked that the remains be brought back.

All told, about 150,000 will be returned. So far 114,000 have been.

The permanent cemeteries are located as follows:

Cambridge, England, 50 miles from London; Margraten, Holland, 10 miles west of Aachen, Germany; Hamm, Luxembourg, 2½ miles east of the city of Luxembourg; Henri Chapelle, Belgium, 18 miles northeast of Liege; Neuville-en-Condroz, Belgium, 9 miles southeast of Liege.

Locations In France

In France, five—St. Laurent, 20 miles northeast of St. Lo; St. James, 33 miles northwest of Rennes; Draguignan, 11 miles from St. Rafael; Epinal, 2½ miles south of the town; St. Avold, 23 miles east of Metz.

In Italy, two—Nettuno (Anzio), 32 miles south of Rome; Florence, 6 miles south of the city.

In North Africa, at Carthage, 11 miles from Tunis.

In the Philippines, Fort McKinley, 4 miles southeast of Manila.

In addition to these military cemeteries, two national cemeteries will be established at Honolulu, Hawaii and at San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Rules On National Cemeteries

The military cemeteries are reserved exclusively for World War II dead, but the national cemeteries are available to any armed service personnel or honorably discharged veteran who may wish to be buried overseas.

After World War I, eight permanent military cemeteries were established in France, Belgium and England. A total of 30,908 World War I dead are buried in them.

The cost in lives overseas in the last war numbered about 358,967.

Trial Of 'Tokyo Rose' Scheduled For May 16

San Francisco, Jan. 3 (AP)—An American-born Japanese woman accused of broadcasting as "Tokyo Rose" during the war will be tried May 16 on a treason charge.

The date was set today after the woman, Iva Toguri D'Aquino, pleaded innocent to the charge in United States District Court.

Mrs. D'Aquino was accused in a Federal grand jury indictment of "traitorously and treasonably" giving aid and comfort to Japan by her wartime broadcasts to American troops in the Pacific.

Wayne Collins, defense attorney, indicated he would seek to force the prosecution to subpoena certain defense witnesses from Japan. He himself can subpoena as witnesses American citizens living in Japan, but only the prosecution may subpoena aliens.

Chambers Sees Continued Red Spy Activity

JAN 1949

New York, Jan. 3 (AP)—Whittaker Chambers, admitted former courier for a Soviet spy ring, said today that infiltration of Government agencies by Communist agents would "continue to go on until somebody routs them out."

Chambers's statement was made after he testified again before the Federal grand jury investigating Communist espionage activities. The jury resumed its inquiry today after a holiday recess.

Chambers said Communist agents with whom he associated while a courier received no pay for their services.

None Of Agents Paid

"None of the people with whom I had anything to do recived any remuneration," he said in response to questions. "All agents were dedicated Communists who would have resented payment for their services."

Chambers, a key figure in the grand jury's investigation as well in that being made by the House Un-American Activities Committee, admitted that on one occasion before he broke with the Communists in 1938 he carried $10,000 in cash from Washington to California.

He said he did not know what the money was for.

Silent About Inflerman

Chambers declined comment when asked if he knew Felix August Inflerman, a new witness who also testified today.

Inflerman appeared after Anna Belle Newcomb, former secretary to Assistant Secretary of State Francis B. Sayre, had been questioned at length by the jury.

When she emerged from the session Miss Newcomb said she did not expect to be recalled.

"I hope they are finished with me," she said.

COURT ORDERS FOSTER HAVE SECOND CHECKUP

NEW YORK, Jan. 3—(AP) A federal judge ruled today that William Z. Foster, Communist party national chairman, must have another physical checkup to determine whether he is well enough to stand trial on Jan. 17 with 11 other top officials of the party.

Foster and his co-defendants, all members of hte Communist party's national board, were indicted last July 20 on a charge that they conspired to overthrow the U.S. government by force.

Foster had a physical examination last November. Court-appointed physicians said then that a trial might cause undue strain on him since he was suffering from a heart ailment.

Today's application for a second medical checkup was filed by the government.

Federal Judge Sylvester J. Ryan granted the motion over the objections of defense lawyers.

taker Chambers said today.

The self-admitted ex-courier for a Soviet spy ring made his statement after testifying before a special Federal grand jury.

The jury resumed its probe of alleged Communist activity in the Government after a holiday recess.

Others Who Appeared

Others appearing before the jury were Felix August Inflerman—not further identified—and Anna Belle Newcomb, former secretary to Francis B. Sayre, former assistant secretary of state.

It was from Sayre's office that some of the publicized "pumpkin papers" were filched for photographing on microfilm. These in turn—according to previous testimony by Chambers—were handed on to Soviet espionage agents.

They Worked Without Pay

Chambers, a key figure in the grand jury's investigation as well as that being made by the House Un-American Activities Committee, testified only a few minutes.

He told newsmen later that none of the Communist agents with whom he had associated received pay.

"All agents," he said, "were dedicated Communists who would have resented payment for their services."

Republic achieves independence, "it would undoubtedly become a Communist country, because the best organized and probably strongest part of the republic is the Communist group."

Chilean Steel Mill Gets 20-Million Loan

Washington, Jan. 3 (AP)—The Export-Import Bank has loaned another $20,000,000 for completion of a steel-mill project in Chile. The project is to cost around $83,000,000 in all, with the bank putting up $48,000,000. American equipment suppliers $4,000,000 and Chilean interests the rest.

The new loan, which completes the bank's share, is to be used to "cover price increases on purchases made in the United States and for inclusion of certain installations not originally contemplated," the bank announcement said.

The loan was granted to Corporacion de Fomento. It is to bear four per cent interest and run for 20 years, with amortized repayments beginning after the plant goes into operation.

Russ Get E.R.P. Goods, Senator Says

Boston, Jan. 3 (AP)—Senator George W. Malone (R., Nev.) says Great Britain is shipping Marshall plan goods to Russia.

Malone, long-time critic of the European Recovery Program, made the charge during a brief stopover here yesterday after a round-the-world inspection tour.

At the same time he declaimed the Dutch and French were using American money to re-establish their empires.

Malone did not elaborate on his charges but claimed his trip abroad convinced him "we have no foreign policy."

Palar, who will represent Indonesia at forthcoming Security Council discussions at Lake Success, arrived by plane from Paris today.

NIGHT LEAD ISRAEL

BY ARTHUR GAVSHON

LONDON, JAN.3-(AP)-A RESPONSIBLE SOURCE SAID TODAY THE UNITED STATES HAS TOLD ISRAEL SHE FACES THE LOSS OF AMERICAN DIPLOMATIC RECOGNITION IF JEWISH TROOPS INVADE NEIGHBORING ARAB STATES.

THE INFORMANT, WHO DECLINED TO BE IDENTIFIED, SAID THE SURPRISE AMERICAN MOVE CAME AFTER BRITISH OFFICIALS WARNED THAT BRITAIN MIGHT BE DRAWN INTO THE MIDDLE EAST CONFLICT AS AN ACTIVE MILITARY ALLY OF THE ARAB STATES.

A U.S. EMBASSY SPOKESMAN SAID HE COULD NOT COMMENT OFFICIALLY ON THE REPORT. THE STATE DEPARTMENT IN WASHINGTON DECLINED TO GIVE EITHER CONFIRMATION OR DENIAL.

AN ISRAELI FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN IN TEL AVIV SAID THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT APPEARS TO BE MANEUVERING ITS "SULKY BOYCOTT" OF ISRAEL TOWARD ACTUAL WAR. WINSTON CHURCHILL COINED THE PHRASE "SULKY BOYCOTT" WHEN HE DEMANDED ON DEC.10 THAT BRITAIN ACCORD RECOGNITION TO THE YOUNG JEWISH STATE.

THE BRITISH AMBASSADOR IN WASHINGTON, SIR OLIVER FRANKS, MADE AND THEN CANCELLED AN APPOINTMENT WITH PRESIDENT TRUMAN TODAY. THERE WAS NO EXPLANATION FROM THE WHITE HOUSE FOR THE ENVOY'S ACTION. NO NEW APPOINTMENT WAS MADE.

THE INFORMANT HERE GAVE THIS ACCOUNT OF THE AMERICAN WARNING TO ISRAEL:

FRANKS MET FRIDAY WITH UNDER-SECRETARY OF STATE ROBERT A.LOVETT. THE BRITISH AMBASSADOR ASKED THAT THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT USE ITS INFLUENCE WITH THE JEWS TO GET THEM TO STAY IN THEIR OWN TERRITORY.

UNLESS THE JEWS DO SO, FRANKS REPORTEDLY SAID, BRITAIN MAY BE COMPELLED TO GO TO THE AID OF HER ARAB FRIENDS AS AN ACTIVE MILITARY ALLY.

U.S. OFFICIALS REACTED SWIFTLY, SENDING A MESSAGE TO THE TEL AVIV GOVERNMENT WHICH SHARPLY REPRIMANDED THE JEWS FOR CROSSING INTO THE TERRITORY OF THEIR NEIGHBORS. THE JEWS LAST WEEK OFFICIALLY DENIED EVER HAVING DONE SO.

THE ISRAELI GOVERNMENT FORMALLY REPLIED TODAY TO THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S WARNING, THE INFORMANT SAID. HE WAS UNABLE TO GIVE ANY IDEA WHAT ISRAELI OFFICIALS SAID.

JAN 1949

BRITAIN REPORTEDLY HAS BEEN ALARMED AT THE APPEARANCE OF ISRAELI FORCES AT POINTS ON OR NEAR THE PALESTINE-EGYPTIAN FRONTIER, 120 MILES AWAY FROM THE STRATEGIC SUEZ CANAL. THE INFORMANT SAID BRITAIN COULD NOT TOLERATE THE PRESENCE OF "ANY INVADING FORCE" NEAR THE CANAL.

BRITAIN IS BOUND BY TREATIES TO EGYPT AND TRANS-JORDAN AND ALSO HAS COMMITMENTS WITH IRAQ. THESE TREATIES PROVIDE FOR MUTUAL AID IN THE EVENT OF ATTACK.

THE BRITISH ARE SAID TO FEEL THAT IF THESE TREATIES ARE INVOKED, BRITAIN MUST ACT, EVEN THOUGH THE FOREIGN OFFICE HAS EXPLAINED THAT IT PLACES COMMITMENTS TO THE UNITED NATIONS ABOVE THOSE TO TREATY PARTNERS.

THE UNITED STATES WAS THE FIRST COUNTRY TO RECOGNIZE ISRAEL. THE U.S. HAS HAD MORE INFLUENCE WITH ISRAEL THAN MOST OTHER COUNTRIES AND THIS IS WHY THE BRITISH FELT A WARNING FROM THE AMERICANS WOULD HELP REMIND THE JEWISH STATE OF "ITS RESPONSIBILITIES," THE INFORMAN SAID.

THE ISRAELI SPOKESMAN IN TEL AVIV SAID REPORTS SHOWED BRITAIN WAS BRINGING HEAVY PRESSURE ON THE UNITED STATES TO "HELP SAVE THE EGYPTIANS FROM THE RESULTS OF THE FOLLY OF THEIR OWN AGGRESSION."

"WHEN THE SECURITY COUNCIL MEETS AGAIN," THE SPOKESMAN DECLARED, "IT MUST REGARD BRITAIN AS NOW COMPLETELY OUT OF COURT AS AN IMPARTIAL MEMBER OF THE U.N. INTERESTED IN PEACE AND STABILITY IN THE MIDDLE EAST. SHE IS BECOMING AN ACTIVE ALLY OF THE ARAB STATES."

THE SPOKESMAN SAID IT WAS NOT KNOWN IN TEL AVIV WHETHER EVEN THE EGYPTIAN GOVERNMENT HAD SANCTIONED THE REPORTED OPERATION OF BRITISH RECONNAISSANCE PLANES OVER ISRAELI POSITIONS IN THE NEGEV DESERT BATTLE AREA IN SOUTHERN PALESTINE.

IF THE REPORTS ARE CORRECT, HE CONTINUED, THEY SUGGEST THAT BRITAIN NOW SEEMS WILLING TO PROVOKE A BRITISH-ISRAELI WAR.

JUST BEFORE CHRISTMAS THE JEWS LAUNCHED AN OFFENSIVE AGAINST EGYPTIAN POSITIONS IN VARIOUS PARTS OF THE NEGEV DESERT. AN ISRAELI SOURCE DISCLOSED LAST FRIDAY THAT JEWISH TROOPS HAD DRIVEN ACROSS THE UNITED NATIONS PARTITION LINE IN THE SOUTHERN NEGEV, WHICH WOULD MEAN THAT ISRAELI FORCES ARE VERY NEAR THE EGYPTIAN FRONTIER.

THE POLITICAL CORRESPONDENT OF THE DAILY MAIL MADE THAT ESTIMATE OF THE VOLUME OF TRADE. HE SAID THE AGREEMENT WOULD BE SIGNED "SHORTLY."

PARIS, JAN.3-(AP)-WESTERN EUROPE CAN TAKE A 10 PER CENT CUT IN UNITED STATES AID FOR 1949-50 AND STILL EAT BETTER.

THIS IS THE GIST OF A REPORT PUT OUT BY 19 MARSHALL PLAN COUNTRIES. THE INFORMATION WAS GATHERED BY THE ORGANIZATION FOR EUROPEAN ECONOMIC COOPERATION (OEEC).

THESE COUNTRIES ARE ASKING UNCLE SAM FOR $4,347,000,000 (B) FOR THE PERIOD JULY 1, 1949 TO JUNE 30, 1950. THAT IS $528,000,000 (M) LESS THAN THE CURRENT FISCAL YEAR.

THE REPORT WILL BE USED BY U.S.OFFICIALS IN ASKING CONGRESS FOR ADDITIONAL SUMS FOR THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM.

OF COURSE, WHAT THE OEEC ASKS, AND WHAT CONGRESS APPROPRIATES, ARE WELL UNDERSTOOD HERE AS TWO DIFFERENT MATTERS. THE NEEDS OF WESTERN EUROPE AS IT SEES THEM WILL BE EXPLAINED IN WASHINGTON BY A THREE-MAN MISSION NOW ON ITS WAY TO THE UNITED STATES ABOARD THE LINER QUEEN MARY.

ONE IS ROBERT MARJOLIN, GENERAL SECRETARY OF OEEC. HE TOLD NEWSPAPERMEN BEFORE HE LEFT THAT THE ESTIMATES WERE "RATHER OPTIMISTIC. THIS WAS DUE, HE SAID, TO GOOD 1948 CROPS IN EUROPE, AND INCREASED INDUSTRIAL PRODUCTION.

MOST AREAS ASKED FOR MORE THAN THEY GOT LAST YEAR. A NOTABLE EXCEPTION WAS THE UNITED KINGDOM, THE BIGGEST BENEFICIARY ON THE LIST. THE BRITISH ASKED FOR $940,000,000 (M) INSTEAD OF $1,263,000,000 (B) ALLOTTED FOR 1948-49.

MOSCOW, JAN.3-(AP)-THE RUSSIANS APPEAR TO BE WAITING WITH CONSIDERABLE INTEREST FOR PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S ADDRESS TO THE 81ST CONGRESS, ESPECIALLY IN VIEW OF HIS RECENT REMARKS ON THE DESIRE OF SOME MEN IN THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT FOR AGREEMENT WITH THE UNITED STATES.

THE SOVIET PRESS TOOK NO NOTICE TODAY OF THE OPENING OF THE AMERICAN CONGRESS, BUT THE PRESIDENT'S RECENT STATEMENTS ABOUT THE SOVIET UNION HAVE ATTRACTED WIDE ATTENTION.

BOTH THE PRESS AND THE RADIO HERE HAVE REFRAINED FROM COMMENTING ON THE PRESIDENT'S OBSERVATIONS, AND NEITHER HAS MADE ANY PREDICTIONS ABOUT THE NEW CONGRESS.

(THE PRESIDENT SAID AT KANSAS CITY A WEEK AGO THAT "CERTAIN LEADERS" IN RUSSIA WANT TO TALK PEACE.)

SEVERAL HIGHLY PLACED FOREIGN DIPLOMATS IN MOSCOW EXPRESS THE OPINION THAT 1949 WILL SEE MAJOR EFFORTS TO FIND A NEW BASIS FOR A SETTLEMENT OF THE OUTSTANDING ISSUES BETWEEN THE SOVIET UNION AND THE WESTERN POWERS.

THE DIPLOMATS BASE THESE OPINIONS ON REPORTS OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THEIR RESPECTIVE GOVERNMENTS AT WASHINGTON AND THEIR HOME CAPITALS, AS WELL AS UPON THEIR OWN OBSERVATIONS HERE.

AT THE MOMENT, NO ONE HERE SEEMS TO HAVE ANY HARD FACTS TO GO ON, BUT A POLL AT ANY OF THE WEEKLY DIPLOMATIC RECEPTIONS WILL SHOW ABOUT 80 PER CENT OF THE DIPLOMATS BELIEVING PROGRESS WILL BE MADE THIS YEAR.

IT WOULD BE DIFFICULT TO FIND AN INFORMED FOREIGN DIPLOMAT IN MOSCOW WHO BELIEVES WAR IS IMMINENT OR EVEN THAT THERE WILL BE A WAR ANY TIME SOON. VIRTUALLY ALL OF THEM DISCOUNT THE POSSIBILITY OF ARMED CONFLICT. WHILE THE BASIS OF THIS FEELING MAY NOT BE READILY APPARENT, THE DIPLOMATS SEEM A BIT OPTIMISTIC ABOUT THE NEW YEAR.

NANKING, JAN. 3-(AP)-DELAYS AND DELETIONS FROM PRESS DISPATCHES FILED BY FOREIGN CORRESPONDENTS INDICATE THAT GARRISON HEADQUARTERS IS APPLYING SECRET CENSORSHIP UNDER THE AUTHORITY OF MARTIAL LAW.

GARRISON OFFICIALS RESPONSIBLE FOR SUCH MATTERS INSIST AS THIS IS WRITTEN THAT THEY ARE "ONLY STUDYING THE QUESTION OF CENSORSHIP."

BUT REPRESENTATIVES OF BOTH THE COMMUNICATIONS MINISTRY AND THE GOVERNMENT RADIO COMMUNICATIONS ADMINISTRATION SAID CENSORS FROM GARRISON HEADQUARTERS WERE ALREADY CHECKING TELEGRAMS AND RADIOGRAMS.

FOREIGN CORRESPONDENTS PROTESTED TO GOVERNMENT INFORMATION DIRECTOR SHEN CHANG-HUAN THAT THE GARRISON HAD FAILED TO NOTIFY FOREIGN CORRESPONDENTS OF THE START OF CENSORSHIP. THEY ALSO ASSERTED THAT THE GOVERNMENT HAD FAILED TO ESTABLISH AN EFFICIENTLY OPERATED OFFICE WHICH WOULD ELIMINATE DELAYS TO DISPATCHES.

SHEN REPLIED THAT HE WOULD CONFER TOMORROW ON THE SUBJECT WITH GARRISON OFFICIALS.

(THIS DISPATCH WAS RADIOED VIA SHANGHAI AFTER FAILURE OF THE GOVERNMENT RADIO ADMINISTRATION TO TRANSMIT NEWS ON A REGULAR NANKING CHANNEL LEASED BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

THE RADIO ADMINISTRATION BLAMED A TRANSMITTER FAILURE, BUT SHANGHAI SOURCES SAID IT WAS MORE LIKELY THAT THE MILITARY HAD PUT PRESSURE ON THE RADIO ADMINISTRATION TO CANCEL THE FACILITY.)

Nanking adds evidence to

IN NANKING, THE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT SEEMED TO BE STRUGGLING TO PREVENT A SEPARATE PEACE IN THE NORTH. UNDERCOVER POLITICAL MANEUVERS WERE IN PROGRESS ON BOTH SIDES -- AND THE LULL ON THE WARFRONTS CONTINUED.

IT WAS KNOWN THAT PRESIDENT CHIANG KAI-SHEK SENT A NEW ORDER TO GEN. FU TSO-YI, HIS NORTHERN COMMANDER, TO LEAVE PEIPING FOR CONSULTATION IN THIS CAPITAL.

FU WAS INVITED TO NANKING LAST WEEK. HE DIDN'T SHOW UP, EXPLAINING THE WEATHER WAS TOO BAD FOR FLYING. NOR DID HE LATER SEND A REPRESENTATIVE.

MOOSA HAD REPORTED EARLIER THAT EXPECTATIONS OF AN IMMINENT PEACE IN NORTH CHINA HAD MERELY BEEN POSTPONED FOR TWO OR THREE WEEKS.

MEANWHILE, IT WAS REPORTED RELIABLY FROM HONG KONG THAT MARSHALL LI SHI-SHEN HAD LEFT FOR A RENDEZVOUS WITH THE REDS IN THE NORTH. LI, A NON-COMMUNIST, HAS SAID HE WOULD BE AVAILABLE TO HEAD A COALITION GOVERNMENT.

THE MARSHAL ONCE WAS CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S CHIEF OF STAFF; NOW HE OPPOSES HIM STRONGLY. LI'S TRIP INTO COMMUNIST TERRITORY WAS DESCRIBED BY NANKING OFFICIAL QUARTERS AS IDENTIFYING THE MARSHAL AS "A COMMUNIST."

CHANG LAN, CHAIRMAN OF THE OUTLAWED DEMOCRATIC LEAGUE, ALSO WAS REPORTED TO HAVE GONE FROM HONG KONG TO RED TERRITORY. HE LIKEWISE IS GENERALLY IDENTIFIED AS A NON-COMMUNIST.

FOURTH NIGHT LEAD CHINESE

SHANGHAI, TUESDAY, JAN. 4-(AP)-OFFICIAL U.S. SOURCES IN SHANGHAI TODAY DENIED A REPORT FROM TSINGTAO THAT AMERICAN MARINES WERE LEAVING SHORE BILLETS TO WITHDRAW FROM THAT WESTERN PACIFIC ANCHORAGE IN NORTH CHINA9

THESE SOURCES EXPRESSED BELIEF THE REPORT STEMMED FROM THE EVACUATION OF A GROUP OF SHOPKEEPERS AT THE MARINE SHORE QUARTERS AT SHANTUNG UNIVERSITY AT TSINGTAO.

THE CONCESSIONARIES WERE BELIEVED CIVILIANS OPERATING MANY SHOPS IN BUILDINGS WHERE THE MARINES HAD OFFICE AND LIVING BILLETS. THESE SOURCES SAID THE MARINES HAD NOT GIVEN UP THEIR SHORE BILLETS AND HAD DISCLOSED NO PLANS FOR DOING SO.

THE TSINGTAO STORY HAD SAID THE MARINES OFFICIALLY NOTIFIED UNIVERSITY OFFICIALS THAT THE BILLETS -- WHICH HAD BEEN LEASED SINCE JAPAN'S SURRENDER IN 1945 -- WOULD BE VACATED BY JAN. 25.

(THE SHANGHAI SOURCE WAS NOT IDENTIFIED OTHER THAN AS BEING OFFICIAL. SHORTLY BEFORE THIS DISPATCH, U.S. CONSULATE SOURCES SAID THEY HAD NO KNOWLEDGE OF THE TSINGTAO STORY -- BUT THAT SUCH A DEVELOPMENT WOULD NOT BE SURPRISING.)

THE TSINGTAO REPORT SAID THE MARINES WERE BEING WITHDRAWN "SINCE THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT HAS NOW DECIDED TO NEGOTIATE FOR A PEACE SETTLEMENT WITH THE REDS."

JAN 1949

(WHETHER THAT QUOTATION WAS TRUE WAS NEITHER AFFIRMED NOR DENIED IN THE SHANGHAI DISPATCH. IF TRUE, IT MEANT THE FIRST OFFICIAL MOVE HAS BEEN TAKEN BY THE BEIJING CHINESE GOVERNMENT TO SEEK PEACE WITH THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS.)

REGARDLESS OF THE TSINGTAO DEVELOPMENT--OR LACK OF ANY--THE CLAMOR FOR PEACE ROSE FROM ALL SECTIONS OF CHINA.

MORE THAN 300 UNIVERSITY PROFESSORS IN SHANGHAI AND NANKING SUBMITTED TO THE GOVERNMENT A NINE-POINT PROGRAM FOR PEACE WITH THE REDS. THE POWERFUL SHANGHAI CITY COUNCIL RADIOED A PEACE PLEA DIRECT TO THE COMMUNIST HEADQUARTERS AT YENAN.

U.S. NAVY HEADQUARTERS IN SHANGHAI SAID IT KNEW NOTHING OF THE TSINGTAO ANNOUNCEMENT, BUT THAT IT WAS NOT BELIEVED THE ACTION WOULD AFFECT THE 600-ODD MARINES QUARTERED ABOARD SHIP AT SHANGHAI TO AID AMERICANS IN ANY EMERGENCY.

NAVAL AUTHORITIES HERE SAID THEY WERE MESSAGING VICE ADMIRAL OSCAR C.BADGER, COMMANDER OF THE WESTERN PACIFIC FLEET WITH HEADQUARTERS AT TSINGTAO, FOR A STATEMENT.

(IN WASHINGTON, STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS PROFESSED TO BE SURPRISED AT THE TSINGTAO ANNOUNCEMENT BUT SAID THE DEVELOPMENT WAS NOT ENTIRELY UNEXPECTED. ADMIRAL BADGER FOR WEEKS HAD HAD AUTHORITY TO PULL OUT OF THE TSINGTAO ANCHORAGE.)

THE TSINGTAO ANNOUNCEMENT, DETAILING STEPS FOR ABANDONMENT OF SHORE BILLETS AT NATIONAL SHANTUNG UNIVERSITY, SAID BADGER'S HEADQUARTERS WOULD REMAIN AT TSINGTAO.

THE REASON OFFICIALLY GIVEN AT TSINGTAO FOR THE MOVE WAS THAT, SINCE THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT "HAS DECIDED TO NEGOTIATE FOR A PEACE SETTLEMENT WITH THE REDS, AND THERE IS GOOD PROSPECT FOR PEACE BEING RESTORED, THE PRESENCE OF THE MARINES IS NO LONGER NEEDED."

(ALTHOUGH AN OBLIQUE REFERENCE TO ANY PEACE SETTLEMENT NEGOTIATIONS, IT WAS THE FIRST OFFICIAL REPORT THAT THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT IS SUING FOR PEACE WITH THE COMMUNISTS -- WHO HAVE OVERRUN ALL OF MANCHURIA AND MOST OF NORTH CHINA.)

THERE ARE ABOUT 5,000 MARINES IN CHINA. OF THESE, 4,300 ARE IN THE FLEET MARINE FORCE, WESTERN PACIFIC, UNDER THE COMMAND OF BRIG. GEN. GERALD C.THOMAS.

IN ADDITION TO THOSE ASSIGNED TO SHANGHAI, SMALL DETACHMENTS ARE ON GUARD AT U.S. DIPLOMATIC OFFICES IN VARIOUS CHINESE CITIES. THE EXACT DISPOSITION HAS NOT BEEN GIVEN, BUT THE LEATHERNECKS AIDED CONSIDERABLY IN THE EVACUATION OF AMERICANS FROM NORTH CHINA IN NOVEMBER.

U.S. CONSULATE SOURCES IN SHANGHAI SAID THEY HAD NOT BEEN NOTIFIED OF ANY PLANS FOR THE MARINES TO LEAVE TSINGTAO BUT ADDED: "WE'RE NOT SURPRISED."

CHANG CHIH-CHUNG AND SHAO LI-TZE BOTH HAVE BEEN MENTIONED AS STRONG ADVOCATES OF A NEGOTIATED PEACE. CHANG IS ONE OF THE "INNER CABINET" OF SIX SET UP BY PREMIER SUN FO LAST MONTH.

CHANG'S ASSOCIATES SAID THE DINNER WAS "IN CELEBRATION OF HIS EFFORTS TOWARDS PEACE."

CHANG HIMSELF DECLINED TO TALK, BUT URGED HIS GUESTS:

"FORGET THIS SITUATION AND ENJOY THE FOOD AND DRINK."

SHAO, WHO SAT BESIDE CHANG, WAS LESS RETICENT. HE TOLD THE MEETING THAT CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S NEW YEAR'S STATEMENT SUGGESTING POSSIBLE PEACE NEGOTIATIONS MADE HIM HAPPY BUT WOULD NOT GET RESULTS.

"IT SOUNDED TOO MUCH LIKE TELLING THE COMMUNISTS TO SURRENDER," HE COMMENTED.

ASKING THE GUESTS NOT TO BE DISAPPOINTED BY A NEGATIVE REACTION BY THE REDS, HE INSISTED "AT THIS POINT, PEACE IS NOT ONLY NECESSARY BUT VERY POSSIBLE."

ANOTHER GUEST, NI TSING-YUAN, A NANKING UNIVERSITY PROFESSOR, DECLARED, "WE ARE ALL HERE BECAUSE WE ALL WANT PEACE."

THE UNITED STATES AND PLANS TO SIT THIS ONE OUT ON THIS STRATEGIC ISLAND.
THERE ARE THESE SIGNS TO BACK UP THE VIEW THAT CHIANG MAY COME HERE:
1. CHIANG'S SON, MAJ. GEN. CHIANG CHING-KUO, FORMER ECONOMIC CZAR OF SHANGHAI, HAS BEEN NAMED HEAD OF THE KUOMINTANG (GOVERNMENT) PARTY ACTIVITIES HERE.
2. GEN. CHEN CHENG WAS SUDDENLY APPOINTED GOVERNOR OF FORMOSA. CHEN IS A FORMER CHAMPOA MILITARY STUDENT OF CHIANG'S AND A FORMER ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF.
3. NAVY AND AIR FORCE HEADQUARTERS HAVE BEEN MOVED HERE. HEADQUARTERS OF THE CHINESE NATIONAL AIR CORPORATION ARE BEING SET UP AT TAINAN.
4. A FOREIGN CONSULATE RECENTLY COMPILED A LIST OF OFFICIAL GOVERNMENT FAMILIES HERE AND A SPOKESMAN SAID IT LOOKED LIKE A NATIONALIST "WHO'S WHO."
5. A FORMER MANAGER OF THE MANCHURIAN RAILWAYS HAS ARRIVED HERE REPORTEDLY TO TAKE OVER FORMOSA'S RAIL SYSTEM.
OUTGOING GOV. WEI TAO-MING RECEIVED THE FIRST NOTICE OF HIS REMOVAL FROM OFFICE THROUGH THE CHINESE CENTRAL NEWS AGENCY.
SINCE GENERAL CHEN'S APPOINTMENT, CHINESE ADMINISTRATION OFFICIALS FROM ALL OVER THE ISLAND HAVE BEEN ARRIVING HERE TO SEE WHETHER THEY STILL HAVE JOBS. RUMORS SAY CHEN PLANS TO REMOVE AT LEAST 200 OF THEM.
CHINESE RESIDENTS AND FORMOSANS, WHO WERE UNDER THE JAPANESE FOR 50 YEARS, ARE FRANKLY DISTURBED ABOUT THE ISLAND'S FUTURE.
THE FORMOSANS REMEMBER WELL THE 1947 RIOTS WHICH TOOK PLACE WHEN ANOTHER CHINESE MILITARY MAN, GEN. CHEN YI, WAS GOVERNOR. THEY HOPE GEN. CHEN CHENG WILL BE MORE LENIENT.
CHIANG'S SON, WHEN HE WAS ECONOMIC CZAR OF SHANGHAI, SHOWED HE KNEW HOW TO GET TOUGH -- AND A GET TOUGH POLICY HERE MIGHT CAUSE A LOT OF TROUBLE.

LT. GEN. SIMON SPOOR TOLD HIS MEN THEIR ONLY REMAINING JOB IS "OPERATIONS AGAINST ROAMING GROUPS OR INDIVIDUALS TRYING TO CAUSE DISORDER."

THE ORDER OF THE DAY WAS MADE AVAILABLE TODAY BY THE OFFICIAL NETHERLANDS MILITARY SPOKESMAN HERE. THE SPOKESMAN REFUSED, HOWEVER, ALL INFORMATION CONCERNING THE ISSUANCE OF THE ORDER. HE DECLINED TO SAY WHEN IT ACTUALLY WAS GIVEN TO THE TROOPS AND WHEN A SIMILAR ORDER MIGHT BE ISSUED ON SUMATRA.

THE SPOKESMAN INDICATED THERE HAD BEEN ATTEMPT TO TRANSMIT THE ORDER TO REPRESENTATIVES OF THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC.

HE DECLARED THAT "IN THE FIRST PLACE THERE IS NO MORE REGULAR ENEMY IN JAVA."

ASKED WHETHER THE REPUBLICAN COMMANDER ON SUMATRA MIGHT BE EXERCISING AUTHORITY OVER FORCES ON JAVA, HE REPLIED:

"OPERATIONS IN JAVA STOPPED LONG BEFORE DEC.31. IN JAVA THERE ARE NO REGULAR REPUBLICAN TROOPS UNDER A RESPONSIBLE COMMANDER."

ALTHOUGH SPOOR TOLD HIS TROOPS NEW YEAR'S EVE THAT "ALL MILITARY ACTIONS ON JAVA HAD COME TO AN END," DUTCH AUTHORITIES HAVE ISSUED NO FORMAL CEASE FIRE PROCLAMATION ON EITHER JAVA OR SUMATRA.

A GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN IN THE HAGUE SAID HOSTILITIES COULD BE CONSIDERED AT AN END AT MIDNIGHT DEC.31, WITHOUT THE ISSUANCE OF A FORMAL ORDER, SINCE HOLLAND HAD INFORMED THE UNITED NATIONS OF THE YEAR-END DEADLINE.

INFORMED SOURCES IN BATAVIA SAID TODAY SPOOR WAS EXPECTED TO ISSUE AN ORDER OF THE DAY TO TROOPS ON SUMATRA WHEN THE DUTCH CAPTURE BENKOELEN, THE LAST MAJOR AREA ON THE ISLAND STILL IN REPUBLICAN HANDS.

THE DUTCH ARMY ANNOUNCED NEW GAINS ON SUMATRA, INCLUDING THE CLEARING OF REPUBLICAN FORCES FROM TWO POINTS ENROUTE TO BENKOELEN, 230 MILES EAST OF PADANG.

THE COMMUNIQUE SAID REPUBLICANS HAD BEEN CLEARED FROM LOEBOEKLINGGAU, 50 MILES EAST OF BEKOELEN. THEY APPEARED TO BE APPROACHING THE CENTER FROM TWO SIDES, SINCE THE COMMUNIQUE ALSO REPORTED CLEARING PAGERALAM, 65 MILES SOUTHEAST OF BENKOELEN.

THE ARMY ALSO ANNOUNCED THAT 169 FORMER REPUBLICAN ARMY OFFICERS HAD SURRENDERED TO THE DUTCH AT JOGJAKARTA, THE FORMER REPUBLICAN CAPITAL ON JAVA.

(THIS ACCOUNT WAS SUBJECT TO DUTCH CENSORSHIP. NO ACCOUNTS ARE AVAILABLE FROM THE INDOESIAN REPUBLICANS.)

ON THE DIPLOMATIC FRONT, AN AUTHORITATIVE DUTCH SOURCE EXPRESSED DOUBT THAT INDIA'S CALL FOR AN ASIAN CONFERENCE ON THE INDONESIAN QUESTION WOULD BE "UNIVERSALLY POPULAR" AMONG THE NATIONS INVITED.

THIS SOURCE, WHO IS CLOSE TO THE NETHERLANDS INDONESIAN GOVERNMENT, SAID THE INDIAN CALL FOR A CONFERENCE WAS "ANOTHER STEP ON THE WAY TO INDIAN LEADERSHIP OF THE ASIAN WORLD. WE ARE NOT ALL SURE THAT ALL ASIAN COUNTRIES WILL GREET SUCH A MANEUVER FAVORABLY."

THIS SOURCE GAVE THE IMPRESSION THE DUTCH DO NOT CONSIDER THE INDIAN ACTION A SERIOUS THREAT TO THEIR PLANS FOR INDONESIA.

ONE FOREIGN DIPLOMAT POINTED OUT, HOWEVER, THAT ANY CONCERTED ECONOMIC SANCTIONS BY ASIAN COUNTRIES MIGHT CLOSE THE CHIEF RICE SOURCES OF DUTCH-HELD INDONESIA.

THE DUTCH ALSO ISSUED A NEW CASUALTY TOTAL YESTERDAY, LISTING 66 SOLDIERS KILLED AND 172 WOUNDED SINCE THE ATTACK AGAINST THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC WAS BEGUN DEC.19.

THE DUTCH INFORMED THE UNITED NATIONS GOOD OFFICES COMMITTEE TONIGHT THE COMMITTEE'S 46 MILITARY OBSERVERS WILL NOW BE PERMITTED TO OBSERVE FIRST HAND CONDITIONS IN JAVA AND SUMATRA. UP TO NOW, THE DUTCH HAD REFUSED TO ALLOW THE OBSERVERS IN THE AREAS TAKEN FROM THE REPUBLIC.

PMS BUDGET (400)

TRUMAN-FOREIGN JAN 1949

BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON, JAN.3-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN IS EXPECTED TO TELL CONGRESS WEDNESDAY THAT THE UNITED STATES IS WINNING THE FIRST STAGE OF THE STRUGGLE WITH RUSSIA. TO THAT HE IS EXPECTED TO ADD THAT A LONG AND COSTLY CAMPAIGN OF COUNTER-ACTION STILL LIES AHEAD.

DESPITE COMMUNIST VICTORIES IN CHINA, THE PRESIDENT'S TOP FOREIGN POLICY ADVISERS REGARD 1948 AS A YEAR OF GREAT GAINS IN UNIFYING THE WESTERN ANTI-COMMUNIST NATIONS AND BUILDING UP THEIR ECONOMIC AND MILITARY POWER. BUT THEY ARE EQUALLY CONVINCED THAT ONLY CONTINUED DEVELOPMENT ALONG THESE LINES CAN MAKE THE GAINS PERMANENT. HENCE THE PLANS FOR MILITARY SUPPORT OF WESTERN EUROPE.

RUSSIA'S COUNTER-MOVES DURING THE PAST YEAR HAVE TAKEN THE FORM OF THE BERLIN BLOCKADE, INCREASED COMMUNIST PRESSURE IN ASIA AND A SPEEDUP IN EFFORTS TO COMPLETE THE COMMUNIZATION OF THE SOVIET'S OWN EASTERN EUROPEAN SATELLITE COUNTRIES.

BUT AMERICAN EXPERTS DO NOT BELIEVE THE SOVIET REACTION TO STRENGTHENING OF THE WEST WILL STOP THERE. THERE IS CONSIDERABLE SPECULATION HERE THAT THE SOVIETS MAY LAUNCH A NEW PEACE OFFENSIVE IN THE NEW YEAR TO TRY TO DISARM THE WEST, QUIET THE CONTINUED WAR FEARS OF WESTERN EUROPEAN LEADERS AND THEREBY WEAKEN THE NEWLY FOUND WESTERN UNITY.

BECAUSE THEY BELIEVE THAT WILL BE THE CASE, SOME OF MR.TRUMAN'S OWN FOREIGN ADVISERS REACTED SKEPTICALLY TO HIS ASSERTIONS LAST WEEK THAT THERE ARE IN THE KREMLIN SOME SOVIET LEADERS WHO WOULD LIKE TO BE MORE FRIENDLY WITH THE WEST. IN THE PRESENT MOOD OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT--AND REPORTS ARE THE FRENCH AND BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICES FEEL THE SAME WAY--ANY RUSSIAN SHOW OF FRIENDSHIP WOULD HAVE TO BE BACKED UP BY POWERFUL PROOF IF IT IS TO CONVINCE THE PRESIDENT'S OWN ADVISERS.

THESE OFFICIALS TAKE THE LINE THAT THE MEN WHO RULE RUSSIA ARE FULLY DETERMINED UPON A COMMUNIST CONQUEST OF THE WORLD. THAT IS REGARDED AS THE KREMLIN'S CERTAIN LONG-RANGE STRATEGY. A RUSSIAN EFFORT TO EFFECT A TRUCE IN THE COLD WAR, HOWEVER, IS ALSO REGARDED AS QUITE POSSIBLE. IN THE AMERICAN VIEW IT WOULD BE A TACTICAL

MOVE--A MANEUVER TO GAIN TIME IN WHICH TO PREPARE FOR THE NEXT COM-MUNIST PUSH.
A FALSE SHOW OF FRIENDSHIP, IN THE VIEW OF MANY STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS, THEREFORE, SEEMS TO BE THE MOST DANGEROUS POTENTIAL WEAPON
IN THE SOVIET ARSENAL. IF THE SOVIETS EMPLOYED IT EFFECTIVELY TO TRY TO BREAK DOWN THE NEW WESTERN GROUPING OF NATIONS, IT MIGHT WRECK MANY OF THE GAINS OF THE PAST YEAR.
THE PAST 12 MONTHS HAVE BROUGHT A PARTIAL DISAPPEARANCE OF "NEUTRAL" NATIONS IN THE MOST CRITICAL AREAS OF THE COLD WAR. THIS WAS CAUSED PARTLY BY COMMUNIST ACTIONS IN EASTERN EUROPE, PARTLY BY INCREASING EVIDENCE THAT THE UNITED STATES IS IN WESTERN EUROPE TO STAY UNTIL REAL PEACE IS ESTABLISHED.

IN 1947 THE COMMUNISTS SMASHED A PRO-SOVIET GOVERNMENT IN HUNGARY
AND SEIZED COMPLETE POWER. IN FEBRUARY 1948 THEY DID THE SAME THING
IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA. OF THE SOVIET BORDER COUNTRIES, ONLY FINLAND RETAINS A DEGREE OF SHAKY INDEPENDENCE IN THAT IT IS NOT TOTALLY GOVERNED BY COMMUNISTS.
ON THIS SIDE OF THE IRON CURTAIN SWEDEN BEGAN SLOWLY AND RELUCTANTLY TO RECONSIDER ITS VENERABLE NEUTRALITY POLICY AND IS STILL CARRYING ON SECURITY TALKS WITH THE NORWEGIANS AND DANES. THIS HAS SET UP THE FIRST INDIRECT, FRAGILE LINK BETWEEN SWEDISH AND WESTERN SECURITY INTERESTS.
FRENCH RELATIONS WITH THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN HAVE BEEN GREATLY STRENGTHENED IN THREE WAYS: BY INCREASING COOPERATION IN WESTERN GERMANY, BY PARTICIPATION IN THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM, AND BY JOINING IN CANADIAN-AMERICAN-WESTERN EUROPEAN PLANS FOR A NORTH ATLANTIC MILITARY ALLIANCE.
WIDESPREAD FREVHOTURE GERMAN REVIVAL JAN 1949
L WIE
WVREAD FRENCH FEARSOM

WIDESPREAD FRENCH FEARS OF A FUTURE GERMAN REVIVAL AND ANXIETY OVER POSSIBLE RUSSIAN OCCUPATION IN EVENTS OF AN EAST-WEST WAR ARE BELIEVED BY AMERICAN OFFICIALS TO BE LESS STRONG NOW THAN THEY WERE A YEAR AGO. DESPITE BITTER DISPUTES OVER CONTROL OF THE RUHR, PARIS HAS FOLLOWED A CONSISTENT POLICY OF COOPERATION WITH LONDON AND WASHING-TON.
SWITZERLAND CLINGS TO ITS TRADITIONAL NEUTRALITY BUT ITS LOCATION AND FREEDOM FROM STRONG COMMUNIST INFLUENCE MAKES THAT A MATTER OF SECONDARY IMPORTANCE IN TERMS OF WESTERN STRATEGY. ITALY AS SOON AS POSSIBLE WILL BE OFFERED A CHANCE TO LINE UP MORE DEFINITELY WITH THE WESTERN BLOC BY JOINING THE NORTH ATLANTIC DEFENSE PACT.
ONE MAJOR FACTOR IN BRINGING ABOUT THESE DEVELOPMENTS IS THE IN-CREASED MILITARY POWER OF THE UNITED STATES DURING THE PAST YEAR.
ANOTHER IS RUSSIA'S OWN CONDUCT. ADMINISTRATION LEADERS FEEL THAT THE COMMUNIST SEIZURE OF POWER IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA HAD A GREAT INFLUENCE IN GETTING THE MARSHALL PLAN THROUGH CONGRESS LAST SPRING.
SIMILARLY THEY BELIEVE IT HAD A PROFOUND EFFECT ON THE THINKING OF EUROPEAN PEOPLES ABOUT THEIR PLACE IN THE COLD WAR LINEUP.

TAD STATES POLICY

EUROPEAN PEOPLES ABOUT THEIR PLACE IN THE COLD WAR LINEUP.
UNITED STATES POLICY TOWARD EUROPE IS NOT BASED ON THE ARGUMENT
THAT THE EUROPEAN NATIONS OUGHT TO LINE UP WITH THE UNITED STATES
AGAINST RUSSIA. ITS CENTRAL IDEA IS THAT AS RUSSIA SEEKS WORLD DOMINATION FOR COMMUNISM IN WAR OR PEACE THE FIRST BLOWS WOULD FALL IN WESTERN EUROPE AND THE INTERESTS OF THE UNITED STATES REQUIRE THAT THIS COUNTRY HELP THE EUROPEN NATIONS PRESERVE THEIR FREEDOM.
TO THE EXTENT THAT THIS HAS BEEN ACCOMPLISHED DURING THE PAST YEAR, AMERICAN OFFICIALS SAY THEY CAN CLAIM PROGRESS TOWARD THE GOAL OF CREATING STABLE CONDITIONS IN WHICH WORLD PEACE CAN EVENTUALLY BE REESTABLISHED.
JAN 1949

THE PRIMARY CONDITION IS THAT A NEW BALANCE OF POWER SHOULD BE CREATED IN EUROPE. THIS IS THE PURPOSE OF THE MARSHALL PLAN, WHICH AIMS AT RESTORING A HEALTHY WESTERN EUROPEAN ECONOMY. IT IS ALSO THE PURPOSE OF THE PROPOSED MILITARY AID PROGRAM, WHICH IS DESIGNED TO RESTORE WESTERN EUROPE AS A POWER CENTER ABLE TO OFFSET RUSSIAN

WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE MEMBERS SAID THIS WILL BE DONE BY ADHERENCE TO A NEW PRINCIPLE THAT MEMBERS WHO SERVE AS CHAIRMAN OF ONE COMMITTEE CANNOT HOLD MEMBERSHIP ON ANOTHER.
RANKIN IS IN LINE TO BE CHAIRMAN OF THE VETERANS AFFAIRS COMMITTEE, A POST HE HAS SAID HE WOULD NOT RELINQUISH AT ANY COST.
THE ADMINISTRATION SPOKESMAN WHO DISCLOSED THE PLAN, EMPHASIZED THAT IT WAS NOT AIMED AT RANKIN BECAUSE OF HIS SUPPORT OF J.STROM THURMOND OVER PRESIDENT TRUMAN IN THE LAST ELECTION BUT GREW OUT OF RANKIN'S ACTIVITIES ON THE COMMITTEE. RANKIN WAS ACTIVE IN THE RECENT CONGRESSIONAL SPY PROBE WHICH PRESIDENT TRUMAN CALLED "A RED HERRING."
THE SAME SOURCE SAID ADMINISTRATION DEMOCRATS ALSO PLANNED TO PUT THROUGH A NEW SET OF RULES TO GUIDE HOUSE COMMITTEES AND TO PREVENT SOME OF THE PROCEDURES FOR WHICH THE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE HAS BEEN CRITICIZED. THE PLAN CALLS FOR APPOINTMENT OF A SPECIAL COMMITTEE TO DRAFT A CODE OF PRACTICES FOR ALL HOUSE COMMITTEES. IT WOULD GIVE ACCUSED PERSONS AN OPPORTUNITY TO DEFEND THEMSELVES PUBLICLY AND TO QUESTION THEIR ACCUSERS IN THE SAME FORUM IN WHICH THE ACCUSATION IS MADE.
THE WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE DEMOCRATS PROBABLY WILL REACH THE RANKIN CASE LATER THIS WEEK AND ITS ACTION IS SUBJECT TO APPROVAL OF THE ENTIRE DEMOCRATIC MEMBERSHIP AND THE HOUSE ITSELF. INVARIABLY, HOWEVER, THE RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE COMMITTEE HAVE BECOME EFFECTIVE.

WASHINGTON,JAN 3-(AP)-USE OF CONFIDENTIAL COUNTER-ESPIONAGE FUNDS AT THE LOS ALAMOS,N.M. ATOMIC ENERGY PROJECT FOR "ENTERTAINMENT PURPOSES" WAS REPORTED TODAY BY THE HOUSE EXECUTIVE EXPENDITURES COMMITTEE.
THE COMMITTEE SAID IT HAD LEARNED THAT THIS PRACTICE WAS FOLLOWED FOR A TIME BOTH BEFORE AND AFTER THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION TOOK CHARGE OF THE PROJECT IN JULY 1947. WHEN IT WAS BROUGHT TO THE ATTENTION OF THE PRESENT MANAGER, CARROLL L.TYLER, IT WAS DISCONTINUED.
TERMING THIS AN "IMPROPER AND ILLEGAL USE OF THE FUND," THE COMMITTEE SAID IN A REPORT TO THE HOUSE:
"RESPONSIBILITY FOR IMPROPER USE OF THESE FUNDS IS NOT FIXED BY THE SUBCOMMITTEE (WHICH INVESTIGATED OPERATIONS OF THE PROJECT). THE SUBCOMMITTEE RECOGNIZES THAT THE MANAGER IN HIS CAPACITY HAS MANY DISTINGUISHED VISITORS AND SOME ENTERTAINMENT MUST BE PROVIDED."
THE COMMITTEE SAID, HOWEVER, IT FELT THAT ENTERTAINMENT FUNDS FOR LOS ALAMOS SHOULD BE SPECIFICALLY APPROPRIATED BY CONGRESS.

SOME OF THIS PROBABLY WAS UNAVOIDABLE DURING THE WAR, THE REPORT SAID, BUT CONTINUED:
"HOWEVER, WHILE THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION HAS TAKEN CERTAIN CORRECTIVE STEPS, ACTION WAS NOT TAKEN AS SPEEDILY AS CIRCUMSTANCES DEMANDED. THE PRESENT MANAGER HAS EFFECTED SOME ECONOMIES, BUT MUCH REMAINS TO BE ACCOMPLISHED."

WASHINGTON,JAN.3-(AP)-SIR OLIVER FRANKS, THE BRITISH AMBASSADOR, MADE AND THEN CANCELLED AN APPOINTMENT WITH PRESIDENT TRUMAN TODAY.

THERE WAS NO EXPLANATION FROM THE WHITE HOUSE FOR THE ENVOY'S ACTION. IT CAME AFTER A PUBLISHED REPORT THAT HE HAD NOTIFIED THE UNITED STATES OF GROWING DANGER THAT BRITAIN "MAY BECOME INVOLVED IN A WAR AT THE SIDE OF THE ARAB NATIONS AGAINST THE JEWS."

THE REPORT WAS CARRIED BY THE CHICAGO SUN-TIMES IN A DISPATCH FROM ITS LONDON CORRESPONDENT, FREDERICK KUH. KUH SAID "THIS IS STATED AT LEAST TO HAVE BEEN THE CLEAR INFERENCE OF THE AMBASSADOR'S MESSAGE" IN A CONVERSATION FRIDAY WITH UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE ROBERT LOVETT.

THE WHITE HOUSE CALLING LIST, WHEN FIRST POSTED, SHOWED SIR OLIVER AS HAVING AN APPOINTMENT WITH PRESIDENT TRUMAN FOR 12:15 P.M. (EST). LATER, PRESIDENTIAL PRESS SECRETARY CHARLES ROSS SAID THE APPOINTMENT WAS CANCELLED AT THE AMBASSADOR'S REQUEST.

ROSS WAS ASKED WHETHER THE WHITE HOUSE WAS AWARE OF THE REPORTED MESSAGE TO LOVETT.

"THAT I DON'T KNOW," ROSS REPLIED. HE SAID NO NEW APPOINTMENT HAD BEEN SET UP WITH THE PRESIDENT.

THE BRITISH EMBASSY DECLINED COMMENT ON BOTH KUH'S REPORT AND THE CANCELLATION OF SIR OLIVER'S DATE WITH THE PRESIDENT.

FOLO WASHINGTON

PITTSBURGH, JAN. 2-(AP)-WALTER BEDELL SMITH SAID TODAY HE EXPECTED THE UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA RELATIONS TO "REMAIN IN A STATE OF TENSION FOR SOME TIME."

HE ADDED AT A PRESS CONFERENCE TODAY:

"WE CAN'T AFFORD TO ALLOW OURSELVES TO BE LULLED INTO A FALSE SENSE OF SECURITY; NEITHER CAN WE AFFORD TO BECOME HYSTERICAL."

SMITH, PRESENT U.S. AMBASSADOR TO RUSSIA, FLEW HERE FROM WASHINGTON TO ACCEPT AN HONORARY DOCTOR OF LAWS DEGREE FROM DUQUESNE UNIVERSITY.

SMITH EXPLAINED HE FELT RELATIONS WITH RUSSIA MIGHT CONTINUE IN THEIR PRESENT STATE WITHOUT WORSENING OR BETTERING FOR AN INDEFINITE TIME.

"WE MUST VIEW THIS AS A LONG TERM THING," HE SAID. "THE RUSSIAN POLITBURO ALSO THINKS IN TERMS OF YEARS."

IN A BRIEF SPEECH AT THE CONVOCATION, THE AMBASSADOR SAID IT IS AN UNHAPPY PROSPECT FOR A PEACE-LOVING PEOPLE, SUCH AS AMERICANS, TO LIVE INDEFINITELY IN A STATE OF WORLD TENSION. HE ADDED HE BELIEVED IT INCONCEIVABLE THAT THE U.S. WOULD EVER ABANDON THE PRINCIPLES OF FREEDOM UPON WHICH ITS DEMOCRACY IS BASED. STEADFASTNESS OF PURPOSE AND CALM FIRMNESS WILL SEE US THROUGH, HE ADDED.

AT THE PRESS CONFERENCE HE SAID HE WAS "PRETTY HOPEFUL" HIS TENDERED RESIGNATION WILL BE ACCEPTED BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN, DECLARING HE HAD BEEN AWAY FROM THE U.S. SEVEN YEARS "AND I'M PRETTY HOMESICK FOR MY OWN COUNTRY."

REGARDING HIS TENDERED RESIGNATION TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN, HE SAID HE WAS "PRETTY HOPEFUL THE PRESIDENT WILL SEE FIT TO ACCEPT. I HAVE BEEN AWAY FROM THE UNITED STATES FOR SEVEN YEARS AND I'M PRETTY HOMESICK FOR MY OWN COUNTRY."

SMITH HANDED IN HIS RESIGNATION AS AMBASSADOR WHILE STILL IN MOSCOW. HOWEVER, IT IS CUSTOMARY FOR TOP DIPLOMATS AND CABINET OFFICERS TO SUBMIT THEIR RESIGNATIONS AT THE START OF EACH NEW ADMINISTRATION. HE RENEWED HIS DESIRE TO RESIGN IN WASHINGTON TODAY.

IF THE RESIGNATION IS ACCEPTED, HE SAID: "I WOULD AUTOMATICALLY REVERT TO MY STATUS OF LIEUTENANT GENERAL OF THE ARMY." ASKED WHAT HE WOULD DO IF THE PRESIDENT PERSUADED HIM TO REMAIN ON DUTY, HE SMILED AND SAID:

JAN' 1949

"FOR THE PAST 32 YEARS I'VE ALWAYS DONE WHAT THE COMMANDER IN CHIEF TOLD ME TO DO."

ASKED WHETHER HE WAS DISCOURAGED BY THE SEEMING IMPASSE BETWEEN RUSSIA AND THIS COUNTRY ON SUCH ITEMS AS THE BERLIN BLOCKADE, HE SAID: "ANYONE WHO GETS DISCOURAGED HAD BETTER QUIT BEING A DIPLOMAT. I AM NEITHER OPTIMISTIC NOR PESSIMISTIC." HE ADDED:

"WE ARE VERY WRONG TO TAKE THE VIEW THAT THE PRESENT TENSE SITUATION AUTOMATICALLY WILL EXPLODE INTO WAR TOMORROW OR THE NEXT DAY."

THE DIPLOMAT TERMED "DEPLORABLE" THE ARREST OF CARDINAL MINDSZENTY IN BUDAPEST. HE SAID, "I'VE MET CARDINAL MINDSZENTY AND I'VE A VERY HIGH REGARD FOR HIM. CERTAINLY I CAN'T TAKE SERIOUSLY THE STATEMENTS ATTRIBUTED TO HIM THAT HE ADMITTED GUILT."

NEW YORK, JAN.3-(AP)-THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION TONIGHT TERMED "INACCURATE" A CLAIM BY COLUMNIST DREW PEARSON THAT SCIENTISTS AND WEATHER EXPERTS ARE TRYING "TO PREVENT ANOTHER DONORA SMOG TRAGEDY" AT THE BROOKHAVEN ATOMIC PILE ON LONG ISLAND.

PEARSON, IN A WASHINGTON DISPATCH PUBLISHED IN THE NEW YORK DAILY MIRROR, SAID THE SCIENTISTS "ARE WORKING ON WAYS TO PROTECT THE 10,000,000 (M) RESIDENTS OF LONG ISLAND AND NEW YORK CITY FROM POSSIBLE EXPOSURE TO DEADLY ATOMIC RADIATION."

THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION, HOWEVER, SAID THAT "UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCE COULD A POISONOUS SMOG SUCH AS OCCURRED AT DONORA, PA., RESULT" AT THE BROOKHAVEN PILE, ABOUT 50 MILES EAST OF NEW YORK.

THE DONORA SMOG TOOK SEVERAL LIVES LAST YEAR.

THE AEC TERMED PEARSON'S STORY AN "INACCURATE RECAPITULATION OF INFORMATION PREVIOUSLY RELEASED."

PEARSON SAID THAT WHAT "WORRIES THE SCIENTISTS" WILL BE "THE DEADLY WASTE GASES THAT WILL BE DISCHARGED INTO THE AIR BEGINNING THIS SPRING," WHEN THE ATOMIC PILE GOES INTO ACTION.

JAN 1949

PEARSON SAID "IF THE RADIOACTIVE GASES FROM THE NEW ATOMIC PILE WERE TO BLOW DOWN INSTEAD OF UP X X X THE RESULT MIGHT BE TRAGIC."

THE AEC CALLED PEARSON'S STORY "AN ERRONEOUS PREDICTION OF CONDITIONS THAT WILL PREVAIL WHEN THE BROOKHAVEN REACTOR IS IN OPERATION."

THE COMMISSION SAID THAT IN OPERATION OF THE PILE, "MINUTE AMOUNTS OF RADIOACTIVITY WILL BE RELEASED INTO THE AIR AT THE TOP OF A STACK ABOUT 400 FEET HIGH.

"IN SUCH SMALL AMOUNTS THIS RADIOACTIVITY WILL BE HARMLESSLY DISSIPATED.

"UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCE COULD A POISONOUS SMOG X X X RESULT. THE BROOKHAVEN PILE WILL PRODUCE NO SMOKE OR FUMES. THIS ERRONEOUS COMPARISON IS UNWARRANTED."

THE BROOKHAVEN LABORATORY, STILL UNDER CONSTRUCTION, IS LOCATED ON THE FORMER SITE OF CAMP UPTON. ITS PURPOSE IS TO EXPLORE PEACETIME USES OF ATOMIC ENERGY.

Marines' Withdrawal From Base Is Denied

JAN 1949

Chinese warplanes drop leaflets on Red troops as peace offensive grows. [Page 4.]

Shanghai, Jan. 4 (AP)—Vice Admiral Oscar C. Badger today denied American forces were being withdrawn from China.

Admiral Badger, commander of the Western Pacific Fleet, said the "rumors were based on reports United States Marines had terminated their lease on the Shantung University campus, where they maintained their barracks."

Badger cabled the denial from his Tsingtao base to the Associated Press in Shanghai.

Discussion Is Admitted

His statement admitted discussions between the Chinese Ministry of Education and the Navy as to "the feasibility of returning the campus to the university for educational purposes."

The Admiral said he ordered an end of the negotiations "upon learning these discussions were being used as a basis for withdrawal rumors."

The statement did not say whether any agreement had been reached before negotiations ended for returning to the university the building the Marines have leased since the end of the war.

A Tsingtao report had said Marines were preparing to pull out because peace talks were already under way between Communists and the National Government.

There were plenty of rumors, but no indication that either side had taken a single step toward actually negotiating an end to the civil war.

CHINESE REDS STALL PEACE

ROY ESSOYAN

Increasing Clamor Answered Only By Communist Silence

Shanghai, Jan. 4 (AP)—The Chinese Government's "peace offensive" appeared stalled today against a wall of Communist silence.

From the Government side came a rising clamor for a truce and a negotiated settlement. The Communists, who have been winning the civil war, said nothing.

Nanking reported growing anxiety among Chinese who had predicted a quick Communist response to President Chiang Kai-shek's new year offer to negotiate.

Neutral observers in Nanking predicted the Communist answer would be a demand that the Government armies — not the Communist armies—lay down their arms.

Leaflets Dropped

A usually informed source in Nanking said Government war planes dropped leaflets over Communist lines urging the soldiers to quit fighting so peace talks could begin.

There was little fighting anyway. The Communist radio in North China again made no mention of the Government peace offer.

[It said that Communist artillery was moving into the suburbs of besieged Peiping and Tientsin in the North. On the central front it asserted whole battalions of the long-encircled Suchow garrison were surrendering. The broadcast was heard by the Associated Press at San Francisco.]

Appeals Sent To Mao

The official Central News Agency said peoples councils and other representatives of 29 provinces and cities had sent appeals to Mao Tze-tung, Communist leader, to order a cease fire and open peace talks.

In Peiping, a group of delegates to the National Assembly sent Mao a message urging an immediate cease fire because "the people cannot endure any further suffering." The assembly is an elective group which elected Chiang President of China last April.

Meanwhile Vice Admiral Oscar C. Badger, commander of United States naval forces in the western Pacific, denied rumors of a withdrawal of "American forces from China."

Lease Terminated

In a statement from the fleet anchorage at Tsingtao, he said "the rumors were based on reports the Marines had terminated their lease on Shantung University campus, where they maintain their barracks."

Badger said discussions had begun with the Chinese Ministry of Education as to "the feasibility of returning the campus to the university for educational purposes."

The admiral said he ordered the discussions halted when he learned they were being used as a basis for withdrawal rumors.

"Just Premature"

An American source in Shanghai in a position to know said the earlier withdrawal report "isn't wrong—it's just premature."

[The earlier report was based on a dispatch from the Associated Press correspondent at Tsingtao. This said 3,000 United States Marines would be "pulled aboard naval vessels" to await further orders.

[The dispatch added that "the exact date of the withdrawal was unrevealed so far, but it is expected before January 25." This was interpreted by the San Francisco cable desk as meaning the Marines were withdrawing from Tsingtao.

Only Release Of Buildings

[Subsequent information brought out that the term "withdrawal" referred only to the proposed release of university buildings being used as Marine barracks.

[The dispatch reported further the "surprise move" caused "considerable speculation and some consternation among war-jittery Chinese residents."

[The dispatch said Marine authorities "officially notified" Shantung University officials that because the Chinese Government had decided to negotiate for peace their presence no longer was needed.]

[There still was no explanation from the Tsingtao correspondent for the phrase, attributed to the Marines as a "reason officially given" that the Chinese Government had decided to negotiate. The correspondent also placed a loose interpretation on the word "official."]

A dispatch from Canton said the small United States naval observatory unit there had folded and its commander, Robert E. Lockwood, had left by plane for Shanghai, where the advisory group has headquarters.

Collapse Predicted

With the cry for peace rising, Harold K. Milks, Associated Press correspondent in Nanking, reported many Chinese leaders believe they will get it soon—but as a result of a Government collapse.

Milks said there were rumors the Communists already had representatives in either Nanking or Shanghai. The rumors were generally discounted as "hopeful thinking."

The Nanking newspaper Mei Jih Wan Pao warmed up an old rumor that the Chinese Government contemplated inviting the Big Four of Russia, Britain, France and the United States to mediate. The newspaper quoted sources "close to official circles."

Must Repeal Decree

Some Chinese observers in Shanghai said the Government cannot expect to talk terms with the Communists until it repeals its decrees of 1947 officially branding them as "bandits."

Government military leaders appeared as puzzled by the lack of Communist offensives as the politicians were over their silence on the question of peace negotiations.

Reports reaching Nanking indicated that the Central Chinese forces of Communist Gen. Liu Po-cheng and the East China armies of Gen. Chen Yi again were forming north of the Hwai River line 100 miles north of Nanking for a possible drive south.

Nationalist Planes Join China Peace Offensive

JAN 1949 H.K. MILKS

Nanking, Jan. 4 (AP)—Government warplanes joined the peace offensive today.

They dropped leaflets over Communist positions, urging Red troops to stop fighting and permit peace negotiations. The leaflets were only part of the "peace offensive."

The Chinese press said the Government is contemplating inviting the Big Four powers to mediate. The newspaper Mei Jih Wan Pao said the United States, Britain, Russia and France would be asked to step in only if the Communists do not react favorably to peace pleas.

So far the Communists have made no response.

Collapse Is Foreseen

Chinese leaders who are calling for an end to the civil war say they expect to get it soon. Privately, they admit peace is more likely to come through collapse of Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist Government than from negotiation with the Communists.

Most observers here said the Red silence was far more significant than the flood of support for peace views expressed by Chiang in a New Year's Day message.

"Indicated Their Stand"

The official Central News Agency noted that peace pleas sent to Communist leaders at Yenan "stressed the point the next move is up to the Communist party, since President Chiang and the Government have already indicated their stand."

[Chiang's offer was described in Shanghai by Shao Li-tze, his former Ambassador in Moscow, as "too much like telling the Communists to surrender."]

Most appeals imply that the Government is still a going concern, able to negotiate with the Communists on equal terms.

Must Quit Fighting

Militarily, at least, this is not correct. Neutral observes in Nanking say the most likely Communist answer to these appeals will be a demand that the Government armies lay down their arms and quit fighting if they want peace.

In the event Communists tell Government forces to stop fighting first, Chiang would have three choices:

1. Retire from the Government and let others work out what would amount to unconditional surrender.
2. Flee to Formosa, off the China coast, or some other fortress, and wait international developments.
3. Attempt to defend the Nanking-Shanghai area with inadequate forces which lack the will to fight.

British To Sign 5-Year Pact With Poles

London, Jan. 4 (AP)—A five-year Anglo-Polish trade pact setting up the biggest East-West commercial deal since the war's end probably will be signed soon, a British official said today.

A Board of Trade spokesman said the two countries would exchange approximately £50,000,000 ($200,000,000) worth of goods in the next five years under the projected pact.

A Board of Trade negotiator returned to Warsaw yesterday to conclude discussions which began three months ago. The spokesman said Poland and Britain were "agreed on all major details" of the proposed pact.

Swap Food For Machines

Poland, which will ship bacon, eggs and other foods, wants a five-year pact in order to lay out a long-term agricultural expansion program. The spokesman said that Poland wants mainly machinery and other manufactured goods in return.

The five-year pact, if finally signed, will be the largest single postwar trade contract between eastern and western European countries. One-year contracts with Russia and Yugoslavia have been larger in a single year's trade exchange, but the five-year term of the Anglo-Polish pact calls for greater total volume.

Russ Pact Over

The one-year Anglo-Russian trade pact which ended last fall provided for an exchange of Russian coarse grains for approximately £23,000,000 ($92,000,000) worth of British manufactured articles. Negotiations for a new long-term Anglo-Russian trade pact have been going on since September without agreement so far.

The Anglo-Yugoslav pact signed last month calls for exchange of £15,000,000 ($60,000,000) worth of goods in 1949.

Defense-Pact Parley Due In Spring

JAN 1949

London, Jan. 4 (AP)—High British sources said today that nearly a dozen Western-nation foreign ministers, including the American, French and British, will meet in the spring to conclude the North Atlantic defense pact.

One unofficial report was that the ministers might meet on a vessel in the Atlantic to sign the accord.

The United States, Britain, Canada, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg, principals in the negotiations, are expected to invite Denmark, Iceland, Eire and Portugal to join the alliance.

Comment Sent To D.C.

Britain has sent comments on a preliminary draft of the pact to her Ambassador, Sir Oliver Franks, in Washington. Franks will resume negotiations tomorrow with the French, Dutch, Belgian and Luxembourg ambassadors and the Canadian and American representatives, the sources said.

Other countries which may be invited include Norway, Sweden, Italy, Greece and Turkey. The British informants said the conferees in Washington have made no final decision on countries who will be asked to join the alliance.

Sweden Expected To Refuse

The feeling in London is that Sweden, at least, will refuse, in line with her cherished neutrality policy.

Britain is reported opposed to Italy as a member for the present. The belief here is that Italy would make the price of her entry a wholesale revision of the Italian peace treaty. France is understood to want Italy in the alliance and the United States is said to have an open mind on the subject.

The five Brussels alliance powers will meet here January 26. These are Britain, France, Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg.

Red Report Omits Mention of 'A' Bomb

London, Jan. 4 (A. P.).—Russia's minister of heavy engineering, Nikolai Kazakov, said today his engineers beat all their targets last year and are ready to face "any technical task, no matter how complicated." Kazakov made his claim in a special year-end article for Tass, the Soviet news agency, distributed here.

He did not mention one of the most complicated of all engineering problems—that of building plants to make atomic bombs, which several Soviet leaders have hinted Russia has or will have soon.

West Europe May Remain In Red After Aid Plan End

JAN 1949

Paris, Wednesday, Jan. 5 (AP)—Western Europe admitted today that on the basis of present planning it may not be able to stand alone after the European Recovery Plan ends.

The nineteen areas participating in the program said that even on the basis of optimistic estimates they could foresee a deficit of $800,000,000 with the rest of the world in the 1952-53 fiscal year. That would be the year after the European Recovery Plan ends.

The deficit with North and South America was listed at $1,000,000,000, but $200,000,000 in surpluses with other areas put the world deficit at the $800,000,000 mark.

Plan To Increase Exports

The figures emerged in spite of plans to increase exports from 65 to 70 per cent above present levels. Industrial and agricultural production levels are slated to rise 25 to 30 per cent.

The Organization for European Economic Co-Operation (OEEC)—the central office through which the nineteen areas are trying to plot the way toward collective recovery—frankly admitted the production and export goals might not be met. This could lead to a possible deficit of ~~$30,000,000,000~~ $3,000,000,000—if imports were maintained on the proposed schedule.

The facts were published by the OEEC in a 200-page report outlining progress that has been made in framing western Europe's economic policies for the next 4½ years.

There was no note of defeatism in the report. There was no suggestion that the European Relief Plan be continued beyond June 30, 1952, as originally scheduled.

Outlines Problems Ahead

But the document did lay bare Europe's economic soul as it outlined the problems ahead and suggested possible solutions.

The report also emphasized that all of the figures are subject to revision since the plans of the nineteen individual areas have not been co-ordinated into one master plan.

Originally it had been hoped to have the master plan available by this time. When it was found impossible to do this because of the mass of complex details to be ironed out, it was decided to prepare the progress report. The interim statement will be used by American officials in explaining to Congress how the European Recovery Plan is working and what it hopes to accomplish.

Little Hope As To Food

For the individual, the report held out little hope. It said "it appears not unlikely that western Europe may have to be content for some years ahead with a pattern of food consumption not dissimilar from that which exists today."

By 1952-53 it is hoped to have fourteen per cent more bread than prewar, but there will be eleven per cent more people to eat it because of population growth.

The planner would like to see the same amount of meat in 1952-53 as there was before the war. This would mean an increase of about one third over present supplies. There is some doubt this can be attained because of the shortage of coarse feed grains. It may be necessary to concentrate on grains for human consumption rather than livestock feeding.

Three-Point Solution

Consumption of clothing and textiles by 1952-53 was estimated at 43 per cent above 1947 and 21 per cent above 1938.

A three-point solution was proposed for the problem of the anticipated dollar deficit in 1952-53.

The points were:

1. Even greater intensification of the export drive, although it was admitted that present goals may be impossible to reach.
2. New sources of supply to replace those of the dollar area.
3. A further reduction of imports although these have already been pared down to what are believed irreducible minimums.

Depends On U.S. Tariff

To build up her exports, western Europe was urged to make energetic efforts to regain her old markets and find new ones.

The report said "European manufacturers must compete in quality, in service, in promptness of delivery, in attention to the needs of the customer, in price. Sales to the United States market will depend partly, in addition, on American tariff policy."

The colonial areas of the participating countries were suggested as a possible new source for supplies. Eastern Europe was listed as another possibility. The report pointed out that imports from eastern Europe are now $1,500,000,000 lower than before the war.

Reports On Berlin Money Complete

London, Jan. 4 (AP)—The British Foreign Office has received a report by neutral currency experts on "possible solutions" to blockaded Berlin's dual money muddle. A spokesman said it is under study.

The report was submitted by a committee of experts representing the six neutral members of the United Nations Security Council. They were appointed last November to find a solution to the problem acceptable to Western allies and Russia.

A Western and an Eastern mark were introduced into Berlin after currency reform became effective in western Germany last June.

The Russians blockaded the four power city in an effort to drive the West out and sought to apply their own currency reform to the whole of Berlin, thus incorporating it into the Soviet's eastern economy.

Western allied efforts to work out a scheme for a single currency under four power control broke down in extended negotiations with the Russians.

BRITISH ASK DELAY ON EUROPEAN TALK

JAN 1949

Paris, Jan. 4 (A. P.).—A French Foreign Ministry spokesman said today that the British had requested a postponement of discussions on European union, and expressed astonishment at the request. The discussions were to have been resumed on Thursday in Paris after a holiday recess, by delegates of the Brussels Alliance—France, Belgium, the Netherlands, Luxembourg and Britain. They were to examine proposals for a western European consultative parliament, and a ministerial council.

The spokesman, announcing that Britain's request was made yesterday, said that it seemed to throw some doubt on Britain's attitude in general toward the idea of promoting European unity. He said that he saw no reason for delay.

No new date has been set. The delegates were supposed to report on their deliberations to the next session of the Brussels Alliance Foreign Ministers on January 26.

Prime Minister Drees En Route To Indonesia

JAN 1949

Amsterdam, Jan. 4 (AP)—Prime Minister Willem Drees left by plane for Indonesia today. He promised eventual free elections and democratic government for the East Indies.

In a prepared statement the Prime Minister re-emphasized the two-point Dutch plan:

1. Formation of an Indonesian interim government, which will be truly representative for the whole of Indonesia.
2. Preparation for the formation at an early date of the United States of Indonesia to which we will be able to transfer our sovereignty.

"To this end," he added, "free elections will have to be held, which will be decisive on several issues."

His chartered plane will touch down in Pakistan and India en route to Batavia. As a protest over Dutch action in Indonesia, the two dominions stopped Dutch planes from landing, but will make an exception in the case of the Prime Minister.

Vatican Says Cardinal Sought Hungary Accord

Vatican City, Jan. 4 (AP)—The Vatican newspaper, L'Osservatore Romano, said today Josef Cardinal Mindszenty tried in vain to effect an understanding between the Vatican and Hungary's Communist-dominated Government.

The newspaper, devoting nearly all its front page to the case of the Hungarian Primate, arrested on treason charges by Hungary, said the Church's insistence upon dealing with its own interests was treated by Hungary as a "reactionary and rebellious act."

The Cardinal, after losing his battle to prevent nationalization of church schools in Hungary, announced "nothing will be concluded" in the way of an understanding, the newspaper said.

This conclusion stands for the Vatican, the newspaper said, since the first to express the desire for negotiations (Cardinal Mindszenty) was imprisoned by Hungary.

Czech Consul Quits Rather Than Go Home

Milan, Italy, Jan. 4 (AP)—Karel Trpak has resigned as Czechoslovak consul in Milan, rather than obey orders to return to Prague. He was the fourth diplomat of Communist-dominated countries to quit under similar conditions within about a year.

Trpak did not say why he does not want to go back to Prague.

Jan Paulinyi-Toth, Czechoslovak Minister to Italy, resigned in Rome two months ago rather than return home. The Romanian and Polish consuls at Milan also quit.

U.S. And Britain Deny Berlin Coal Charges

Berlin, Jan. 4 (AP)—The Soviet-licensed newspaper National Zeitung today accused British and American officers of shunting more than 8,000 tons of airlifted coal into the black market of fuel-short Berlin.

Anglo-American official promptly retorted: "Nonsense," and "poppycock."

The German newspaper charged a black-market gang is peddling "huge" quantities of coal, and that British and American officers "manage" things for the gang at the Gatow and Tempelhof airfields.

Colonel Held, Paper Says

The National Zeitung said three officers, one of them a colonel, have been arrested and "further arrests are expected."

Anglo-American officials flatly denied such a gang exists. Col. Frank L. Howley, the American commandant, called the story "a lot of poppycock." A British spokesman, who said he spoke for American and British officials, called it "nonsense."

The Briton said the airlift's coal loss is only 1.5 per cent.

"This is general wastage," he said. "German police said the sale of airlift coal on the black market or coal from any other source is negligible."

Stocks Held Adequate

American officials conceded last month that Germans working at airlift bases were stealing 3 to 10 per cent of small packaged consumers' goods flown to Berlin.

They said such heavy packages as sacks of coal and flour, which form the bulk of the tonnage, rarely are bothered.

The National Zeitung also contended Berlin's coal shortage "becomes more disastrous every day." It said "responsible authorities" believe the supply will not maintain electric power in the western sectors at the already restricted level.

Colonel Howley retorted: "Our coal stocks are adequate."

Berlin School Approved

Elsewhere in Germany:

1. The new three-power Kommandatura approved a German proposal to set up a high school of political sciences in Berlin. This was the governing body's second meeting since the United States, Britain and France established three-power government in their sectors of Berlin without Russian participation.
2. The airlift ferried 6,123 tons of supplies to Berlin over the Russian blockade in the 24 hours ended at noon today.
3. American officials announced a German translation of President Truman's report on the State of the Union will be broadcast tomorrow by all radio stations in the United States zone, simultaneously with the President's appearance before Congress.

4. The Communists of western Germany announced they were cutting all organizational links with the Communist-dominated Social Unity party (SED) of east Germany. Since 1947 west German Communists have had a "working co-operative" organization with SED in Berlin. American political experts said disbanding of the organization would give west German Communists freedom to take their orders directly from the Cominform.

Four Russian Pledges On Prisoners Cited

Berlin, Jan. 4 (AP)—Western officials dug into the records of four-power Berlin talks tonight and found at least four occasions when the Russians promised to return all German prisoners of war by December 31, 1948.

An American spokesman said the Soviet officers here promised to meet the deadline for repatriation fixed by the Moscow conference of March 1947, each time the subject was mentioned.

Poland's Record Cited

Specifically, the American official listed the promises as coming from Soviet Lieut. Gen. M. I. Dratvin on November 28, 1947; Soviet Major General Barinov in an earlier meeting that year; General Dratvin again in December, 1947; and finally Soviet Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky, commander for Germany, in January, 1948.

The military government official, in a statement, said "the record of returning German prisoners is none too good in other nations behind the so-called Iron Curtain." Poland, listed as an example, has said its German prisoners will not be released in entirety before next summer.

"Failure to return all German prisoners of war is another violation by the U.S.S.R. of an international commitment," the official said.

Pastor Under Russ Asks Moderation

Berlin, Jan. 4 (AP)—A demand for moderation of Communist aims in Soviet-occupied Germany appeared today in the Russian-licensed newspaper Neue Zeit.

"The great majority of our people in the East and West wish no state development in a Marxist sense," Pastor Ludwig Kirsch, of Chemnitz, wrote.

Reminds Russ Of Promise

The article appeared on the front page of this official newspaper of the Soviet zone's Christian Democratic Union.

The writer said the promises made by Russia and other Allied powers at Potsdam to support the revival of Germany as a peaceful and democratic nation "cannot be guaranteed by a dictatorship of the proletariat or through a people's democracy form of state."

Urges Parliamentary Rule

Instead, Pastor Kirsch advocated "a parliamentary democracy whose basis has already been laid in the East zone by political and economic reforms."

He pointed to Switzerland and Sweden as examples of parliamentary democracy which assure peace. He said Germany must not only live in peace with the Soviet Union but the rest of the world.

Berlin Professor Quits

Berlin, Jan. 4 (AP)—Dr. Bruno Gleitze resigned today as dean of the economic science faculty at the Russian-controlled Berlin University. Gleitze said he did so as a protest against "intolerable dogmatic pressure."

German Arrested As Hit-run Killer

Frankfurt, Jan. 4 (A. P.).—A German was jailed today on suspicion of being the hit-and-run driver who killed Pvt. Frank Librizzi of 249 Littleton avenue, Newark, N. J., on New Year's Day. An Army announcement said that Librizzi was injured in a jeep wreck while on constabulary patrol.

After being pulled from under the jeep by two other soldiers, he was laid in the road to await an ambulance. A German car then struck Librizzi and dragged him more than 300 yards. The friction ignited the gasoline which had dripped into his clothes from the first wreck. He was dead on arriving at a hospital.

4 American MP's Arrested In Reich Cigarette Smuggling

JAN 1949

Munich, Jan. 4 (AP)—The United States Army disclosed today four American military policemen have been arrested on bribery chages in connection with cigarette smuggling.

Two have been convicted, and the other two are still to be tried. About 1,000 cartons were involved.

Disclosures by a fraulein led to the arrest. An army statement said the girl, Yetta Winter, had boasted to other military police her boy friend, Pfc. William E. Brown, had netted approximately $40,000 in cigarette deals in little more than a year.

Two Are Convicted

Brown and Sergt. Elmer K. Bogart, both military policemen in Salzburg, Austria, will be tried soon in Austria on charges of offering a bribe.

Already convicted on charges of accepting a bribe are Corporal James C. Schneider and Pfc. Roscoe S. Stephens, military policemen stationed in Berchtesgaden, Hitler's old mountain retreat on the German-Austrian border.

Schneider was sentenced to two and a half years at hard labor and Stephens to one and a half years. Both were ordered dishonorably discharged.

Suspicions were aroused when some military police were found to be "spending more money than seemed reasonable," provost marshall authorities said.

When officials questioned Brown's girl friend, she described what she said was a specific $1,000 bribe deal, in addition to telling of her friend's alleged profits over the year-long period.

A provost marshal office spokesman said the 1,000-carton deal was but a small part of "what is believed to be a gigantic syndicate" importing American cigarettes illegally into Germany.

"The operation is so large," the spokesman said, "that when we confiscate three or four truckloads of cigarettes, no one claims them, nor is any complaint received from those we believe to be at the top."

Shipped To 'Free Zone'

Officials say the ring is understood to operate in this way:

They buy cigarettes legitimately in the United States and ship them to a "free zone" in Switzerland. Goods in "free zones" are not subject to taxes or customs until they reach the country of final destination.

The cigarettes are consigned to American addresses in Austria near the German border. They are transported in box cars containing up to 9,600 cartons each. From Austria they are smuggled into Germany where they command high prices.

West German Reds Sever East Link

JAN 1949

Frankfurt, Jan. 4 (AP)—West Germany's Communists announced tonight they were cutting all "organizational" links with the Communists in eastern Germany.

American Military Government officials interpreted the Communist move as a tactical one, possibly preparing the way for direct relations between western Germany's Communist party and the Cominform (Communist International Information Bureau).

The West German Communists have had a "working co-operative" since 1947 with the Russian zone's Socialist Unity party (SED), which is Communist-dominated.

Merger Is Banned

This "working co-operative" was formed after United States Military Government forbade a direct merger of the SED and Communists (KPD) in the United States zone.

The so-called "co-operative" had its headquarters in Berlin. Its board of chairmen comprised members of the KPD and the SED.

A communiqué from the KPD tonight said this "co-operative" was being disibanded. All KPD members were severing associations with the SED, it said.

Agree On Policy

The party said the move was designed to improve the "mobilization of all progressive powers in the Western zones for the re-establishment of Germany's unity."

It said, however, that "complete agreement" continued to exist between the KPD and the SED "over the fundamental questions of German policy—the fight for Germany's unity, for national self-determination, for a democratic peace and unity of the German workers' movement."

M'Evoy's Blonde In Germany Denies She's His Wife

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 4 (AP). The German woman for whom James McEvoy wants to give up his United States citizenship denied today that she is his wife, and accused him of stealing her clothes.

Alma Bolster walked into a United States military police station today and filed a theft complaint against the Oakland (Cal.) sailor.

She claimed she met McEvoy only two months ago. She said she is married to a German who has been in jail since last April, and her 7-month-old child is the German's.

Citizenship Case Complicated

McEvoy told the United States consul in Bremerhaven yesterday he was the woman's husband and father of her child and wanted to stay in Germany to support them.

McEvoy's application to renounce his citizenship was forwarded to Washington. But he was told he must prove his citizenship—a task complicated by his claim that his birth records were destroyed in the San Francisco earthquake of 1906.

McEvoy is a little, bespectacled man of 49. The woman is a 29-year-old blonde, taller than he.

Clothing Given By Him

Although the Bolster woman told military police McEvoy stole her clothes, she admitted under questioning that most of them had been given to her by the sailor when he came back to Germany the first time after meeting her.

McEvoy was arrested in her Bremerhaven home Christmas Day and jailed on charges of entering Germany illegally by abandoning the ship he worked on. His trial comes up Thursday.

Agents of the United States Army's Criminal Investigation Division said they were investigating the woman's complaint against McEvoy.

Lindbergh In Germany

Wiesbaden, Germany, Jan. 4 (AP). The Army disclosed today that Charles A. Lindbergh has arrived on a special mission.

Lindbergh will inspect the Berlin airlift and serve as a special adviser on technical affairs to the United States Air Force chief of staff, Maj. Gen. Robert W. Douglass, Jr., an announcement said. He inspected the huge loading operation at the airlift's Rhine-Main staging ground at Frankfurt when he landed there last night. Only two officers knew he was due until after he had arrived.

He is scheduled to visit United States fighter and bomber bases at Fuerstenfeldbruck and Neubiberg, Germany, following a round of conferences with high officers today. There was no indication how long he would remain here as an adviser.

On World Tour Of Bases

The Army said Lindbergh is on an "unscheduled" round-the-world tour of United States air installations which brought him here from Dharan, Saudi Arabia. The Air Force public information office said it did not know of his assignment until he was here. He visited Japan last month.

Lindbergh, who resigned his colonel's commission in 1941 after a foreign policy quarrel with President Roosevelt, gave the Army and Navy technical assistance in World War II. He helped co-ordinate combat-gained information, especially on increasing the range of fighter planes, and did important work in other fields.

JAN 1949

Douglas A Classmate

Representative Noah Mason (R., Ill.) told Congress in a speech November 30, 1945, that Lindbergh shot down several enemy planes as a civilian pilot serving with the armed forces in the southwest Pacific. Capt. Robert de Haven, a war pilot, reported Lindbergh narrowly escaped being shot down while accompanying a combat mission over Truk.

Details of what Lindbergh will do here and how long he will stay were just as hush-hush as the plans for his arrival.

General Douglass, an old flying-school classmate of Lindbergh and his host in Wiesbaden, received newsmen at his home but withheld information of his guest's plans. Lindbergh, who was upstairs, refused to come down while reporters were in the house. The two men were students at Kelly and Brooks fields, Texas, in the middle 1920's.

Other officers said they believed Lindbergh's visit is not primarily concerned with the airlift. It was not known whether he would visit Berlin.

U. S. SANTAS HELP 1,577,296 KIDS

Frankfurt, Jan. 4 (A. P.).—Americans played Santa Claus to 1,577,296 German children at Christmas, a United States Army survey showed today. They gave out 5,524,777 candy bars—prized gifts in this land of tightly rationed sweets, but it was far from being only a candy-bar Christmas.

Throughout the American zone and Berlin, soldiers, civilians and their wives pitched in to stage 3,925 Christmas parties for German children, give 534 tons of food—not counting the candy bars—and distribute 167,498 toys and thousands of articles of clothing and scarce articles, such as soap.

U.S. To End Return Of Loot In Austria

Vienna, Jan. 4 (AP)—United States occupation heads will not continue after January 19 their program for returning to rightful owners property taken by Nazi Germans and brought to Austria.

An official United States spokesman said today all countries have been told that no claims to property will be accepted after that date. Each claimant country was given three months' notice.

A Tass dispatch received in London today said Poland had protested to the Allied council in Vienna that the United States decision to turn down Polish claims after January 19 "does damage to the interests of Poland and her citizens, since this property has not been wholly returned from Austria."

The United States spokesman said the Allied council has no authority in the matter. Under Article 5 of the Austrian control agreement, all restitution is handled on a zonal basis and is the responsibility of each commander in chief.

New Documents Of Mindszenty Confiscated

Budapest, Jan. 4 (AP)—The Hungarian Government made public today new documents which it said it had found in the cellar of the home of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty.

The documents concerned the historic crown of St. Stephen—now in the possession of the United States occupation authorities at Wiesbaden, Germany—and an alleged memorandum of the arrested Cardinal concerning land reform.

The Government also made public what it described as a deposition from Duke Paul Eszterhazy which stated that the Duke bought a check worth 8,000 "United States dollars, and several thousand dollar notes" from the Cardinal.

One Of Ten Arrested

Mindszenty, Eszterhazy and nine other Hungarian church figures were arrested eight days ago. The Government said Mindszenty was jailed on suspicion of plotting against the Government, spying, treason and black-market money dealings.

He is also charged by the Communist - dominated Government with hindering the return of the crown—a historic relic worn by Hungary's first king, to the Hungarian Government.

[Mindszenty has been held incommunicado in a Budapest jail, unable to answer. The Vatican since has excommunicated all Roman Catholics who had anything to do with his arrest.]

Found In Metal Capsule

The documents, the Government said, were found in a metal capsule buried in the Cardinal's palace. Presumably, they will be used as evidence at his trial.

Several are said to be letters relating to St. Stephen's crown.

One, the Government said, is a letter written by Msgr. Giovanni Montini, Vatican Under Secretary of State, to Mindszenty. Another is described as a letter from a high Salzburg church official to Francis Cardinal Spellman, Archbishop of New York.

[In New York, Cardinal Spellman's office said there was no comment.]

Horthy Letter Seized

Another, said by the Government to be a letter from Admiral Nicholas Horthy, wartime Premier, to the Pope, stated that "weight was off his mind" when he learned that the crown would be transferred to the Holy See.

MINDSZENTY HELD BIG ESTATE BACKER

Hungary Publishes Purported Secret Memorandum by Arrested Cardinal

BUDAPEST, Hungary, Jan. 4 (AP)—A purported memorandum from arrested Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty saying big Hungarian estates up to 500 or 1,000 acres should be restored was published by the Hungarian Government today.

The publication was a new installment of documents that the Government said had been found in a metal box buried in the basement of the palace of the Roman Catholic Primate of Hungary. The Cardinal was arrested more than a week ago on charges of plotting against the Government, spying, treason and dealing in the money black market.

The policy of the Communist-dominated Government is to break up big estates into small farms, but Cardinal Mindszenty was quoted as saying "the division of land in pre-war Hungary was not bad at all."

Cardinal Mindszenty, in jail, is not in a position to comment.

Other Letters Issued

Also published were several letters allegedly written by Msgr. Giovanni Montini, Vatican Under-Secretary of State, to Cardinal Mindszenty; by a high Salzburg church official to Francis Cardinal Spellman, Archbishop of New York, and by Admiral Nicholas Horthy, former Regent of Hungary, to Pope Pius concerning the disposal of St. Stephen's crown.

The crown, worn by Hungary's canonized first King, was taken by the Germans and recovered by the Americans. It is now in United States hands in Germany pending a decision as to its disposition. The Hungarian Government has charged that Cardinal Mindszenty interceded to prevent its return to the present Hungarian Government.

Admiral Horthy was quoted as saying a "weight was off my mind" when he learned the crown would be transferred to the Vatican.

A purported letter from Prof. Justin Baranyai, an alleged accomplice of the Cardinal's, suggested that Cardinal Mindszenty request the Americans to transfer the crown to Rome.

Greek Jewel Gift to Wife Of Clay Kin Criticized

ATHENS, Jan. 4 (AP).—A Greek newspaper today criticized a government gift of a jeweled bracelet to the British wife of Eugene Clay, former economic adviser to the American Mission to Aid Greece.

Mr. Clay is a nephew of General Lucius D. Clay, American Military Governor in Germany, and served more than a year and a half under Dwight Griswold, former A. M. A. G. head. He married his British wife several weeks ago, a few days after she had divorced her former husband.

[In Paris it was said Mr. Clay had left for the United States Sunday and could not be reached for comment on the bracelet.]

Finance Minister Dimitri Helmis told newsmen tonight the bracelet cost 20,000,000 drachmai ($2,000), half of which came directly from the government and the other half from the Bank of Greece.

The conservative newspaper "Estia" said "it was strange" that the Greek government could make the gift "but was not able to give 15,000,000 drachmai ($1,500) to disabled veterans."

Mr. Helmis said the gift was approved by the Co-ordinating Council, which, in effect, is an inner cabinet.

Pravda Denies Broken-Pact Charges

Moscow, Jan. 4 (AP)—The Communist party newspaper Pravda declared today President Truman's recent statement that Russia had failed to carry out her agreements was "a complete contradiction to the truth and generally known facts."

The Soviet press mentioned for the first time the declaration on Russian-American relations delivered by President Truman in Kansas City December 27.

"This declaration was necessary," Pravda said, "in order to cover up the too obvious illegal decisions on the Ruhr question which were adopted before the new year at the London Conference of the United States, France, England and the Benelux countries—crude violations of the Yalta and Potsdam agreements."

Six-Power Plan

[The six-power plan to establish an international control authority for the Ruhr was announced December 28. Diplomatic authorities said Russia might get a voice in controlling Ruhr industries if the East-West quarrel was settled.

[The high point of President Truman's December 27 speech was his report that certain leaders in Russia are "exceedingly anxious" to reach an agreement with the United States to end the cold war. This angle apparently was not emphasized in the Soviet press.]

Israel Central Front Tense After Fight

Tel Aviv, Israel, Jan. 4 (AP)—Fresh bloodshed in a Jewish-Iraqi battle left Israel's central front tense today.

Israeli and Iraqi troops fought for two hours yesterday on the potentially explosive Sharon Valley sector. Both sides suffered casualties.

An army spokesman said a Jewish punitive expedition clashed with Iraqi regulars. Jews said the Israeli troops were hunting Arab raiders accused of killing two settlers, kidnapping two women and rustling cattle in the area of Tira, a Jewish village 16 miles northeast of Tel Aviv.

Jerusalem Alarm

Meanwhile, a single, unidentified aircraft approached Jerusalem before dawn today, causing an air-raid alarm. No incidents were reported, however.

It was the city's third alert in 36 hours, but only in the first one, Sunday night, were bombs dropped.

Newspapers in the Holy City reported that investigation of the Sunday raid showed that fourteen British-made 250 and 500 pound bombs were dropped. They said that a building hit housed a small synagogue, which was slightly damaged. Earlier it was reported that at least five persons were injured in the first Sunday raid, when three bombs were dropped on a densely populated Jewish quarter.

Near Partition Line

[Tira, where the alleged kidnapping took place, lies in Israel about a mile west of the Arab-Jewish partition line. This dispatch, which passed through Israeli censorship, did not say whether the battle was fought east or west of the line.]

The central front has been quiet under the United Nations truce for weeks, while attention centered on warfare in the south between Israel and Egypt, another of the Arab nations which sent troops into Palestine last spring.

However, an Arab League report from Cairo that Iraqi troops had been ordered to join the Egyptians in the renewed fighting drew official attention here last Wednesday. An Israeli Army spokesman said: "Many Israeli commanders will be only too happy if the Iraqi Army commanders start fighting."

Ben-Gurion Hopeful

Premier David Ben-Gurion, addressing a group of Jewish volunteers yesterday, hinted he believed the shooting might be over soon, though "our enemies—and they are not the Arabs only—still hope to exterminate Israel and its military force."

"I cannot say there is no prospect for an early and quick end to the war," he said.

The Israeli Army denied Egyptian charges that Jewish forces had used tear gas and choking gas against the encircled 3,000-man Egyptian garrison at Faluja, 30 miles south of Tel Aviv.

"Emphatic Denial"

The charge was made by the Egyptian commander in chief to United States Brig. Gen. William E. Riley, chief of the United Nations military staff at Haifa.

"The reply," an Israeli Army spokesman said, "was an emphatic denial of any Jewish use of anything that could be regarded as, or mistaken for, gas in any form."

[The Egyptian War Ministry announced last night that Egyptian planes broke up Jewish troop concentrations around Faluja. The Ministry said Egyptian and Israeli forces continued to exchange small-arms fire along the southern front.]

EGYPT REPORTS JEWS ATTACK

Tells Of Fighting At Forward Base Near Border

JAN — 1949

Cairo, Jan. 4 (AP)—The Ministry of War said tonight Jewish troops were attacking forward positions toward Rafah, strategic Egyptian airbase on the Palestine-Egyptian frontier.

At the same time an Iraq communiqué gave details of the new fighting that has flared in the Sharon Valley sector northeast of Tel Aviv.

The Egyptian statement said the attack in the south started at Monday midnight but the attackers were repulsed. It said also the Egyptian air force carried out reconnaissance raids over enemy positions in southern Palestine and in one instance strafed 45 enemy armored vehicles and burned a majority of them.

Claims Losses Inflicted

The Iraqi communiqué said that on Sunday and Monday units of the Iraqi army were engaged in heavy fighting with the Jewish forces at Tira and Kufish, just north west of Qalqilye, an Arab highway center on the road to Tulkarm.

The communiqué claimed heavy losses were inflicted on the Jews and they were forced to retreat. Tira and Kufish are both inside Israeli territory as outlined in the partition boundaries set forth by the United Nations.

[The Israeli version of this clash said Jewish and Iraqi forces battled for two hours Monday in the area of Tira, which lies 16 miles northeast of Tel Aviv. The Jews said their troops were hunting Arab raiders accused of kidnapping two women and stealing cattle in the Tira area.]

Ready To Accept Order

Earlier today Egypt announced she was ready to accept the United Nations Security Council's order of December 29 for another ceasefire in southern Palestine if the Jews issue a like order first.

Cease-Fire Is Accepted By Egyptians

Cairo, Jan. 4 (AP)—Egypt has accepted the Security Council's Negeb cease-fire order of December 29 and asked imposition of sanctions against Israel. She charged that Zionists "systematically obstruct the Council's decisions."

Foreign Minister Dessouki Abaze Pasha expressed the Egyptian position in a note to Lake Success, made public here today.

The note said Egypt accepted the cease-fire order in line with "her policy of co-operation with the Security Council and her desire to help restore peace in Palestine," but that Israel had not obeyed the Council's order of November 4 that both parties in the Negeb withdraw to positions occupied before October 14.

[Israel has gained ground and Egypt has lost ground in the fighting.]

Riley to Report Here on Palestine

Haifa, Jan. 4 (A. P.).—Brig.-Gen. William E. Riley flew toward America today to report to Ralph J. Bunche, acting Palestine mediator for the United Nations. Riley, U. N. chief of staff, will give a detailed account of developments in Palestine, and meet the conciliation commission. He is expected to return within two weeks.

4 In Last Java Cabinet Head Guerrilla Group

Batavia, Java, Jan. 4 (AP)—A Chinese newspaper reported today the formation of an anti-Dutch "guerrilla government for Java," headed by four members of the Indonesian Republic's last Cabinet.

The newspaper, Sin Po, said the Cabinet ministers are Dr. Soekiman, who directed internal affairs and led the republic's largest party, Masjunmi (National Moslem); Dr. Leimena, Health Minister and a leading figure in Dutch-Indonesian negotiations; Dr. Djuanda, Communications Minister, and Dr. Kasimo, Food Suppy Minister.

The heads of the last Indonesian Government, including President Soekarno and Premier Mohamed Hatta, have been in Dutch custody since the beginning of the latest Dutch military action against the republic in Java and Sumatra, now virtually complete.

"Fully Intact"

Sin Po's correspondent said Republican armed forces "generally remained fully intact" in the Dutch "police action," and escaped the Netherlanders' drives.

The new fugitive government, Sin Po said, is co-ordinating guerrilla activity and using a number of radio transmitters for the purpose, one of them transmitting as the "mountainside Republican radio."

A Republican broadcast from a secret transmitter said guerrillas on Monday night occupied three estates in the Soekabumi area, 50 miles south of Batavia, after a four-hour battle. The same broadcast said guerrilla activity has been intensified north of Bandjarmasin, Southeast Borneo, where outbreaks have been reported since the beginning of the Dutch action on Java on December 19.

"Uprisirg Failed"

A Dutch Army press statement said Republican plans for a general uprising on Java on New Year's Day "came to nothing." It said incidents then and since "did not turn out to be more than everyday occurrences."

The Dutch statement said a major attempt to attack Malang on New Year's Day miscarried, and "the largest of these bands was scattered and for the greater part eliminated by Dutch forces."

Guerrillas Directed By Radio, Chinese Paper Says

Batavia, Java, Jan. 4 (AP)—The Chinese newspaper Sin Po reported today Indonesian Republicans have organized a "guerrilla government for Java" which directs their fight against the Dutch by radio.

A Dutch army press statement, however, said the Republicans' plans for a "general uprising" to start New Year's Day against Netherlands occupation forces "came to nothing." It said there have been no more incidents "than usual." This was an indirect reference to the Dutch contention that they started military action against the Republicans to quell disorders.

Sin Po, quoting a special correspondent, said four insurgents have constituted the "guerrilla government of Java" in the absence of Indonesian President Soekarno, Premier Mohamed Hatta and other top leaders whom the Dutch captured and interned.

Four Constitute "Move"

Sin Po identified the four as members of the last Republican Cabinet: Dr. Sukiman, Minister of Internal Affairs and leader of the republic's largest political party, the National Moslems; Dr. Leimena, Minister of Health and a leader in previous negotiations with the Dutch; Dr. Djuanda, Communications Minister, and Dr. Kasimo, Food Supply Minister.

Armed Forces Intact

The newspaper asserted the Republicans's armed forces "generally remained fully intact" after escaping to the hills. It reported the new "government" was co-ordinating guerrilla raiders by radio, including a transmitting station dubbed "mountainside Republican radio."

An underground Republican broadcast Monday night said guerrillas have intensified raiding north of Bandjarmasin in southeast Borneo.

The Dutch military statement reported a "major attempt" by guerrillas to attack Malang on New Year's Day "miscarried." The Dutch said the largest attacking band was "scattered and for the greater part eliminated."

Prime Minister Leaves

Amsterdam reported Dutch Prime Minister William Drees left today by air for Batavia to fulfill these two principal objectives:

"1. Formation of an Indonesian interim government which will be truly representative of the whole of Indonesia.

"2. Preparation for formation at an early date of a United States of Indonesia to which we will be able to transfer our sovereignty."

The words are those of Drees, personally read in a broadcast at the airport.

Drees declared his Government "always had tried to promote perfect understanding between the authorities in The Hague and in Batavia by personal contact."

Cease-Fire on Sumatra Ordered

BATAVIA, Java, Wednesday, Jan. 5 (AP)—The Dutch Army ordered a cease-fire on the island of Sumatra at noon local time (11 P. M., Tuesday, Eastern standard time) today.

At the same time, the Dutch Army announced that it had cleared the Republican forces from Benkoelen, west Sumatra port that had been the last major town still in Republican hands.

An order of the day from Lieut. Gen. Simon H. Spoor, Dutch commander in chief in Indonesia, said that after noon the task of his men would "be confined to action against roaming groups and gangs or individuals who try to cause disturbances."

Arabs Get Bid To Indonesia Talks

Cairo, Jan. 4 (AP)—Six Arab League countries were formally invited today to join a conference of fourteen Asiatic countries to consider joint action on the Dutch-Indonesian dispute.

Indian Ambassador Said Hossein extended invitations to representatives of Egypt, Syria, Lebanon, Iraq, Saudi Arabia and Yemen.

Trans-Jordan, also a member of the Arab League, was not invited, a League spokesman said, because it is not a member of the United Nations.

The conference, proposed by Premier Jawaharlal Nehru of India, is to convene at Allahabad later this month.

Pakistan Accepts Bid To Asia Parley

Karachi, Pakistan, Jan. 4 (AP)—The Pakistan Government has accepted an invitation of India to attend a conference of Asiatic countries of the Indonesian situation, it was announced today.

A Foreign Ministry spokesman said Pakistan will play a part in "any collective deliberation or action that may be decided upon jointly to secure redress of the wrong done by Dutch aggression against Indonesians and generally safeguard the freedom and honor of Asiatic nations."

The conference will be held at Allahabad, India, this month.

British Vessel Shells West Malaya Jungles

Kuala Lumpur, Malaya, Jan. 4 (AP)—A British destroyer shelled west coastal jungles today, covering the landing of Gurkha infantry to attack a band of Communist insurgents.

The destroyer H.M.S. Consort fired more than 150 shells from its four-inch guns into jungle positions where the insurgents were reported encamped. Land forces moved in from the flanks as small boats landed the seaborne troops under cover of the barrage. An RAF spotter plane supported the action.

It was the first operation of its kind in the current campaign against the insurgents.

British Troops Land On West Malaya Coast

JAN 1949

Kuala Lumpur Federation of Malaya, Jan. 4 (AP)—Under cover of a bombardment from a Royal Navy destroyer, a company of Royal Gurkha Rifles landed on the west coast of Mayala today to attack a concentration of Communist insurgents.

RAF spotter planes also covered the landing, the first of its kind in the present campaign against the insurgents.

The troops were in small boats towed to the site of the landing (which was not announced) by naval motor launches.

As soon as the seaborne troops reached shore, the bombardment by the 4-inch guns of the destroyer H.M.S. Concord began. More than 150 shells were fired into five positions in the jungle where the insurgents were reported encamped.

Yap Island 'Spell' Cast; Thief Caught

Pearl Harbor, Jan. 4 (AP)—Navy administrators asked the tribal sorcerers to cast a spell on Yap Island after $2,100 disappeared from the safe of the navy-sponsored copra warehouse.

Sorcerers hung a "pa 'pigue"—a sacred symbol woven of palm leaf—on the warehouse wall.

And then some one quietly returned $1,100 of the stolen money. With $1,000 still missing, the Yap Islanders continued to fret under the spell. Finally, an islander was caught burying cigarettes in a garden. He confessed the money theft and was sentenced to three years by a navy court.

And the spell was lifted at Yap.

U. S. Cigarettes Banned.

Singapore, Jan. 4 (A. P.).—The Government today banned importation of American cigarettes into Singapore and Malaya. Cigarettes from the United States for the first nine months last year were valued at $782,619 (United States).

'Unknown Soldier' First In New Pacific Cemetery

By The Associated Press.

HONOLULU, Jan. 4—The body of an unknown soldier, killed in the Pearl Harbor attack, was buried today in "The Crater of the Dead," a volcanic bowl overlooking this city.

His coffin was the first lowered into the soil of the new National Memorial Cemetery of the Pacific. Catholic, Protestant and Jewish Chaplains officiated.

Afterward, 108 more coffins of the dead from scattered Pacific battlefields were lowered into graves.

Then, bulldozers and graders resumed their work. Construction of the cemetery will continue while 200 war dead are buried daily during the next two months.

Israel and Egypt Warned Not to Expand Fighting

JAN 1949

WASHINGTON. (AP)—The United States has urged both Israel and Egypt to take no military actions "extending the hostilities" in Palestine.

The state department announced this last night and said Israel responded by assuring this country that all its troops have been withdrawn from Egypt.

Hope for Armistice

The withdrawal apparently ends the newest Palestine crisis in which the British government feared it might become involved under terms of a 1936 Anglo-Egyptian military alliance.

The state department announcement expressed hope that both Arabs and Jews would now stop fighting and negotiate a permanent armistice.

The assurances from Israel set forth in a note received here have been communicated to the British government, a state department spokesman said, and there apparently has been a general easing of tension.

The note to Israel was based on forays of Israel forces across the Egyptian border, and that to Egypt was founded on Egyptian bombings and naval shelling of Israel territory.

So far, the state department said, there has been no reply from the Egyptian government.

RUMORS SPIKED

The department's announcement was issued by Press Officer Michael J. McDermott. It came after widely published reports—originating mostly in London—to the effect that the U. S. had told Israel it would lose American recognition and any chance of obtaining a prospective $100,000,000 loan if it persisted in military operations in Egypt.

McDermott said such reports are "completely untrue." He then told in his statement what he called "the facts."

His account:

British Ambassador Sir Oliver Franks called on Undersecretary of State Lovett last Thursday and declared that if the Israelis did not withdraw from Egypt the British government would "have to consider its position" under the 1936 treaty.

TREATY BINDING

McDermott said the treaty binds Egypt and Britain alike to assist each other in case either is attacked. The Egyptians in recent years have assailed this treaty because it gave the British certain base rights on their territory but the treaty was not considered invalid by either Britain or the United States.

McDermott said this country received reports that Israeli forces had crossed the Egyptian frontier and was "concerned" lest "grave consequences ensue."

The American representative in Tel Aviv was instructed to approach the provisional Israeli government and did so "in the most friendly interest." The assurances resulted.

Moreover, the Israeli note yesterday said its troops did not enter Egypt "with the intention of occupying Egyptian territory."

Israeli diplomats here, amplifying this point, asserted that the border crossing occurred in desert country where boundaries are difficult to define, and in pursuit of Egyptian troops who had been engaged in fighting in Palestine.

Jap Reparations Still A Problem For Allies

JAN 1949

Washington, Jan. 4 (AP)—All the "more important" questions about Japan's future have been settled except reparations and the size of her industry, the Far Eastern Commission said today.

The commission issued a report summarizing nearly three years of its work as Allied governing body for the former enemy nation. It did not give any reason for the stumbling blocks it apparently has hit on the two remaining issues.

But an official indicated that Communist successes in the Far East have magnified both the industrial problem and the related reparations puzzle.

Communists Block Recovery

"Communist expansion in the Orient has brought further economic deterioration there," he said. "This has rendered Japan unable to develop its foreign trade to the extent planned and also has curtailed the flow of raw materials to Japanese industries.

"These developments make it increasingly difficult to determine how much industrial capacity Japan must have to make herself economically self-supporting."

He added that the commission hopes both matters, which have plagued it since it started work in February, 1946, will be settled during the coming year.

MacArthur May Act Alone

Otherwise, he said, the United States, which has authority to play a lone hand in Japan, may instruct Gen. Douglas MacArthur to handle both problems himself. MacArthur is supreme Allied commander in the area.

Since February, 1946, the commission reported, it has made 54 policy decisions for MacArthur's guidance—41 before July, 1947, and thirteen between then and the close of 1948.

The directives covered such vareid grounds as the demilitarization of Japan and destruction of her war industries down to such details as allowing Japanese students to go abroad for cultural instruction.

Data Distributed

The final 1948 directive made Japanese scientific and technical data available to the 45 countries which were at war with Japan after December 7, 1941.

The remaining reparations questions, officials said, are (a) what Japanese assets are to be removed; (b) to whom they are to be distributed, and (c) how the distribution is to be made.

In April, 1947, the United States directed MacArthur to start reparations on their way to China, the Philippines, the United Kingdom (for Burma and Malaya) and the Netherlands (for the Dutch East Indies). These areas were considered to have suffered most at the hands of the Japanese military.

China Getting Tools

The amount of reparations authorized at that time has never been disclosed, but an official indicated that about 19,000 machine tools have been distributed to date, most of them to China.

These preliminary reparations are reported continuing, although at a slow pace.

The countries represented on the Far Eastern Commission are the United States, China, the United Kingdom, Australia, India, the Netherlands, the Philippines, France, New Zealand, Russia and Canada.

U.S. Prods Russia On Fate Of P.W.'s

Washington, Jan. 4 (AP)—The Western powers have never had any word on the fate of about half of the 890,532 German prisoners of war Russia acknowledged early in 1947 that she was holding.

This was disclosed today when the State Department made public the text of a note to Moscow demanding an exact count of the prisoners still held. The fact the note had been sent had been announced 24 hours earlier.

Reminds Of Agreement

In sharp language the note reminded that Russia agreed with the Western powers early in 1947 that all German prisoners of war would be discharged by the end of 1948. It said Soviet failure to comply with the agreement "can only be interpreted by world opinion as a breach of faith."

Statistically, the note set out this picture: Early in 1947, the Soviets said they had 890,532 German war prisoners. Between March 1, 1947, and March 1, 1948, they reported 252,395 returned to all four German occupation zones. Since the latter date, the Western powers know only of 194,972 sent into the three Western zones.

Due Home By End Of '48

Under a four-power agreement, all prisoners of war were to have been sent home by the end of 1948.

The State Department announced that a note had been delivered to Moscow asking (a) how many prisoners of war still are in Russia; (b) what the Soviet Union plans to do about returning them to Germany, and (c) how many have died in captivity.

The Soviet news agency Tass replied in a broadcast from the Russian capital that an "overwhelming majority" of the German prisoners have been sent home, and added: "The repatriation of the remainder . . . is to be completed during 1949."

Allied and German sources estimate that more than 200,000 prisoners of war remain in Russian hands. The United States, Britain and France released their prisoners except a few in hospitals or absent without leave.

U.S. REJECTS RUSS STAND

Refuses Contention It Is Not Bound To Prisoner Accord

JAN 1949

Washington, Jan. 4 (AP)—The United States rejected today Russia's contention that the Soviet was not bound by a four-power agreement calling for release of all German war prisoners by the end of 1948.

This rejection came on the heels of a United States note demanding that Russia account for an estimated 443,165 German prisoners previously listed by the Soviet but as yet unreturned to their homes.

The Russian contention that the Soviet was not bound by a 1947 agreement of the Foreign Ministers' Council in Moscow was advanced yesterday by Tass, official Russian news agency.

Efforts Collapsed

The Soviet propaganda line was that the deadline of last December 31 was dependent on a plan of repatriation to be worked out through the four-power Berlin Allied Control Council. Efforts to work out details collapsed there later.

Michael McDermott, State Department press officer, replied to the Tass contention today by quoting from the earlier Moscow agreement. It stated flatly that the four powers—the United States, Russia, Britain and France—agreed "German prisoners of war . . . will be returned to Germany by December 31, 1948."

Meanwhile, the text of the United State note, delivered in Moscow yesterday, was made public. In this, the United States told Russia that the Soviets will be guilty of "a breach of faith" if they fail to comply with the foreign ministers' agreement dealing with German prisoners.

Number Who Died In Captivity

The note said the United States already has complied with the pact. It said Britain and France also have reported meeting its terms.

In it, the United States demanded to know (a) How many prisoners of war still are in Russia; (b) What the Soviet Union plans to do about returning them to Germany; and (c) How many have died in captivity.

The note used the Soviet's own statistics on German prisoners to show that many of them have not been accounted for by the Russians. It set forth this picture.

Had 890,532 Prisoners

Early in 1947, Russia reported she had 890,532 Germans as prisoners. Between March 1, 1947, and March 1, 1948, the Soviets reported 252,395 returned to all four German occupation zones. Since March of last year, the Western powers know of only 194,972 sent into the three western zones of Germany.

These figures add up to a total of 447,367 Germans officially listed as returned to Germany by the end of 1948. This would leave a total of 443,165 unaccounted for, based on the Russians' own figure of 890,532 held early in 1947.

The undisclosed fate of these prisoners is involved in the new United States demand on Russia.

closure of any information regarding preparation of codes, or the construction, repair and maintenance of machines used in transmission.

In his letter Forrestal said the proposed bill would not in any way control free dissemination of information which might be transmitted by code and cipher unless the information was obtained by clandestine interception and cryptoanalysis.

Other Provisions Proposed

Another paragraph of the transmittal letter, however, said the proposed bill would:

"Protect against publication of any other revelation, regardless of intent, of all important information affecting United States communication intelligence operation and all direct information abo all United States codes a ciphers."

Forrestal said a joint cong sional committee investigating t Japanese attack at Pearl Harb "recognized" that existing laws d not adequately protect Unite States communications and codes.

The proposed bill, he said, ex presses the combined views of the Army, Navy, Air Force, Central Intelligence Agency and the State Department.

concluded.

More Responsibility

A State Department official said a three-month extension, rather than a longer one, was decided upon because:

1. France is expected to merge its zone with the British-American area before March 31.
2. The approaching formation of a western German government will call for revision of the agreement.

This official said the Germans would be given more responsibility and power in any new agreement in line with a German constitution now being drafted at Bonn, Germany.

ARMED SERVICES DISCLAIM ERROR

JAN 1949

Intelligence Blunder On Russ Troops Denied By All

Washington, Jan. 4 (AP)—All three of the armed forces now have denied blame for the intelligence error last spring which an investigating group said might have produced serious international consequences.

The Navy and Army today disclaimed responsibility. James Forrestal, Secretary of Defense, previously had said he was convinced the Air Force was not responsible for the blunder.

This is the background:

Last month a Hoover Commission group studying the national security organization reported that a "departmental intelligence agency" had prepared the mistaken estimate which it said might have resulted in "serious consequences if the error had not been corrected in time by the Central Intelligence Agency.

Dealt With Russ Moves

The Hoover group, headed by Ferdinand Eberstadt, did not name the departmental agency, nor did it say what the consequences might have been had the original intelligence analysis been carried out.

It was reported later, however, that the incident in question dealt with alleged Russian plans for troop moves. This supposedly led to consideration of American countermoves which were not pressed after the Central Intelligence Agency re-evaluated the information from abroad.

In answer to inquiries by reporters, W. John Kenney, acting Navy secretary, said tonight that John L. Sullivan, Secretary of the Navy, had authorized this statement:

Army Also Disclaims It

"The Navy was not responsible for the erroneous intelligence evaluation referred to in the Eberstadt report."

A few hours earlier Kenneth Royall, Secretary of the Army, said the Army "so far has been unable to find any such incident in which the Army was connected."

The House Armed Service Committee is expected to hold hearings on the incident.

Appeal To U.N. Asked In Case Of Mindszenty

Washington, Jan. 4 (AP)—Representative Rooney (D., N.Y.) proposed to Congress today that the arrests of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty and Archbishop Aloysius Stepinac, by the Hungarian and Yugoslav governments, respectively, be referred to the United Nations. He introduced resolutions by which Congress would place the matters before the United Nations.

French Voice Protest

Paris, Jan. 4 (AP)—Leading French Catholic officials protested today against Hungary's arrest of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty.

The protest, delivered to the Hungarian Minister, Count Michael Karolyi, termed the arrest "a defiance to the spiritual mission of the Catholic Church."

"We don't want to believe that the Hungarian authorities will persist in their attitude, but rather that they will free, with no delay, the spiritual head of the Hungarian church," said the protest.

It was signed by Emanual Suhard, archbishop of Paris, and other leaders.

Lovett Sees Truman

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4 (AP).—Under Secretary of State Robert A. Lovett made an unscheduled call on President Truman today, but said afterward that reports of the withdrawal of marines from China were "not mentioned." He told reporters he knew "nothing about" the story. Earlier, Charles G. Ross, Presidential secretary, said Mr. Truman had no knowledge of the report.

China Gets Oil Grant Of $11,506,000

Washington, Jan. 4 (A. P.).—New foreign aid grants of $17,131,000 to four European nations and China were approved today by the Economic Co-Operation Administration.

China's authorization of $11,506,000 tops the list of allotments which bring to $4,254,094,000 the cumulative total of American recovery aid committed under the Marshall plan. China will use the latest grant to finance purchase of crude oil and petroleum products for its electrical and transportation facilities.

KILLER HANGED ON GUAM

Philippine National Slew U. S. Marine and an Islander

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4 (AP)—Mariano Genetano, a Philippine national, was hanged yesterday on Guam for the murder of two men, one a United States marine.

Genetano was first convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment for the murder of Marine Pfc. Hubert H. Oliver of Des Arc, Ark., Nov. 8, 1947. He later escaped from jail and killed Santiago Santos of Guam, who had refused to give him clothing. He was recaptured after he fled into the jungle.

The island court of Guam, operating under naval military government, imposed the death sentence.

he defrauded the Government by accepting salary kickbacks from nonworking "employés" listed on his congressional pay roll.

William H. Collins, defense attorney, told the judge that Thomas is "a very sick man."

Dr. F. R. Kanning, of Allendale, N.J., Thomas's home town, in an affidavit presented to the court, said any undue strain or excitement might bring on a recurrence of the internal hemorrhage that Thomas recently suffered.

Thomas was sworn in for his seventh two-year term as a member [illegible] House at the opening of the [illegible]arst Congress yesterday.

McAuliffe To Join Far East Command

Washington, Jan. 4 (AP)—Maj. Gen. Anthony C. McAuliffe, the general who answered an enemy demand for surrender with a curt "Nuts!" is going to join the Army command in the Far East.

Orders issued today announced McAuliffe's transfer to Tokyo, effective late next month. He now is deputy director of the Army's Logistic Division, in charge of research and development.

It was McAuliffe who replied to a German demand for surrender at Bastogne with the brief, contemptuous and now historic answer. He was commander of airborne troops holding the Bastogne area against attacks when the Germans broke through Allied lines in December, 1944.

Since his return to the United States, the general has been assigned to a variety of research projects. He was senior army commander at the 1946 Bikini atomic-bomb experiments.

The orders today did not disclose McAuliffe's exact assignment in Japan.

Forrestal Asks Stronger Code Protection

Federal spy jury hears former secretary of ex-State Department aides. [Page 3.]

Washington, Jan. 4 (AP)—Secretary of Defense James Forrestal today asked Congress to put new and stronger force into laws protecting the nation's secret codes and intelligence activities.

Forrestal said existing legislation is "far too limited in application to afford needed protection to certain highly secret Government activities."

This assertion was made in a letter to House Speaker Rayburn, accompanying a proposed bill to tighten security measures.

Proposed Penalties

The bill would set fines up to $10,000 and imprisonment up to ten years, or both, for violations.

Forrestal's proposal not only would outlaw publication, communication, or use of restricted materials and codes, but also the dis-

U.S. And Britain To Extend Bizonal Pact For 3 Months

JAN 1949

Washington, Jan. 4 (AP)—The United States and Great Brit agreed today to extend for th months the present agreement merging their zones of Germany.

This step was taken as a temporary measure pending the writing of a new agreement which would include the French zone of western Germany.

The old agreement was due to expire December 17 after being in effect one year. The extension keeps existing agreements in force until March 1.

To Increase Trade

During this period the British Government promised to continue contributing supplies and services to Germany at the existing rate of £17,500,000 annually (approximately $70,000,000).

The United States, in turn, agreed to authorize discussions on ways to increase the flow of trade between the western zones of Germany and the sterling area pending the writing of the three-power agreement.

One clause in the temporary agreement provides for the right to end it by mutual consent as soon as the trizonal agreement is

JAN 1949

Washington, Jan. 4 (AP)—Representative J. Parnell Thomas (R., N.J.) was in Walter Reed Hospital today after winning a seven-day postponement of his trial on fraud charges.

District Judge Schweinhaut yesterday granted postponement to January 17.

Counsel for the former chairman of the House Un-American Activities Committee pleaded that Thomas's life might be endangered by a "nervous or mental disturbance" at this time.

Spy Jurors Quiz GE Man, Shifted To Non-Secret Job

NEW YORK. (AP)—Felix August Inslerman, a General Electric employe said to have been transferred recently from a confidential to a non-confidential post at the firm's Schenectady plant, testified yesterday before the federal grand jury investigating espionage. He made no comment afterwards.

Others who testified were Dr. Max Yergan, former executive secretary of the Council on African Affairs, and Miss Eunice Lincoln, ex-secretary to former Assistant Secretary of State Francis B. Sayre. They also declined comment on their testimony.

Miss Lincoln worked in Sayre's office at the same time as Alger Hiss, who was charged with perjury by a previous federal grand jury. Whittaker Chambers, admitted former Communist courier, has said Hiss gave him secret state department documents. Hiss has denied the charge.

Miss Lincoln said she now is a reviewing officer on the co-ordination review staff of the state department's executive secretariat.

General Electric said in Schenectady that Inslerman until recently had performed work of a confidential nature in the aeronautics and ordnance systems divisions at its Schenectady plant.

The work, being done for the armed forces, required security clearance, GE said. It added that Inslerman recently was transferred to a job of a non-confidential nature and that he had not reported for work in the past 10 days. No further details were given.

Louis Bender, attorney for Inslerman, said his client "had never been employed by the state department, was not a Communist, and had been subpoenated on the assumption that he might know something about the investigation."

Spy Jury Hears Ex-Secretary Of Sayre

JAN 1949

New York, Jan. 4 (AP)—Eunice Lincoln, ex-secretary to former Assistant Secretary of State Francis B. Sayre, testified today before the Federal spy-hunting grand jury, but declined to reveal what she said.

She worked in Sayre's office at the same time as Alger Hiss. Whittaker Chambers has said that Hiss gave him secret State Department documents. Hiss was indicted for perjury after denying Chambers's charges.

May Recall Chambers

Chambers, confessed ex-courier for a Red spy ring and key figure in the jury investigation, may be recalled before the jury late today.

When reporters asked Miss Lincoln for her personal opinion of Hiss, she replied:

"He was a very erudite gentleman. I feel he was a capable man."

She said she is now a reviewing officer on the co-ordination review staff of the State Department's executive secretariat.

Inslerman Questioned

Another witness to appear today is Felix August Inslerman, said to reside on a farm 20 miles north of Albany, N.Y. He was questioned by the jury yesterday.

Louis Bender, attorney for Inslerman, said his client "had never been employed by the State Department, was not a Communist, and had been subpoenaed on the assumption he might know something about the investigation."

French Girl Jilted; Won't Stay In U.S.

New York, Jan. 4 (AP)—Miss Gilberte Baijot, French blonde, said today she had no intention of trying to remain in the United States after her permit expires in 90 days.

"Why should I stay here now?" she asked.

Miss Baijot, 32, arrived here last Tuesday to marry Kelman P. Gomo, of Greensboro, N.C. But yesterday Gomo, who had posted a special alien bond of $500 for her entry into this country, informed her he was unable to go through with the marriage.

FORMER RUSS TEACHER NOW A CATHOLIC

JAN 1949

Mrs. Kasenkina Joins Ukranian Rite Church In New York

New York, Jan. 4 (AP)—Mrs. Oksana Kasenkina, 52-year-old Russian schoolteacher who leaped to freedom from the Soviet consulate here last August, today joined the Greek Catholic Church.

The church is in union with the Roman Catholic Church.

Through a friend, Mrs. Luba Terpak, she said:

"The Catholic Church means so much to me since it is so well organized and is the main force against communism in the world. There is no discrimination in it. This is shown by the fact that at this time his Holiness the Pope is praying for the welfare of the Russian people."

Receives Sacraments

Mrs. Kasenkina, in childhood a member of the Russian Orthodox Church, attended confession and received holy communion today at St. George's Ukrainian Catholic Church. The church is under the Basilian Fathers and is of the Eastern Ukrainian rite.

Mrs. Kasenkina now is living quietly here writing her memoirs after recovering from numerous injuries sustained in her three-story leap from the consulate.

Through Mrs. Terpak, she said:

"I wanted to become a Catholic before the Eastern rite Christmas which is next Friday, and this morning I was received into the church."

Mrs. Kasenkina said she had not attended the Russian Orthodox Church in many years.

"Never Had Lost Faith"

The Rev. Marianus M. Horishny, O.S.B.M., who visited Mrs. Kasenkina while she was at the hospital, said that when he first visited her he "noticed that the woman was expressing a wish to return to the spiritual life. I found in my visits that she really never had lost faith."

After her jump from the consulate to avoid being returned to Russia, Mrs. Kasenkina was confined to the hospital for many weeks.

Her act resulted in the breaking off of consular relations between the United States and Russia.

Night Lead Trade

By Robert Hewett

London, Jan. 4--(AP)---An encouraging gain in British-polish relations was seen tonight in a five-year bacon and eggs pact expected to be signed soon.

JAN 1949

A board of trade spokesman said the two countries would exchange about 50,000,000 pounds ($200,000,000) worth of goods under the proposed trade agreement--biggest east-west commercial deal since the war.

The spokesman said Poland and Britain had reached agreement on "all major details" in three months of bargaining. A british negotiator left for Warsaw yesterday to wind up the deal.

A foreign office spokesman said trade treaties with the soviet satellite states were an "encouraging gain toward better relations."

Under the proposed pact five year pact Poland would expand her agricultural program to ship bacon, eggs and other food to Britain. Britain would ship machinery, steel, chemicals and raw materials. Polish timber also is sought by Britain.

running until 1954.

The agreement would replace and expand a three-year trade treaty signed in 1947. Under that pact Poland agreed to ship 23,000,000 pounds worth food and timber by midsummer, 1950.

An authoritative source said agreement also has been reached on on the British demand for co pensation for an estimated 30,000,000 pounds ($120,000,000) worth of British property confiscated during and since the war in Poland.

JAN 1949

One-year agreements negotiated by Britain with the Soviet Union and Yugoslavia are bigger than any single year's trade envisaged under the new Anglo-Polish pact, but the five-year term makes it the bigges of the proposted treaty makes it the biggest single east-west deal.

Russia shipped Britain 23,000,000 pounds ($92,000,000) worth of coarse grain in 1948 in return for machinery, rubber and wool. The hat agreement has now expired and ~~neo negotiatio g~~ negotiations for a new long-term treaty have been dragging on since September with few signs of an agreement.

Last month britain and yugoslavia signed a pact for the exchange of 15,000,000 pounds ($60,000,000) worth of goods in 1949.

JAN 1949

A Hungarian delegation is due in London this month to discuss the workings of a trade agreement under which britain imported 3,800,000 pounds worth of Hungarian goods in the first 10 months of 1948. No amount was total amount of trade was set down in the Hungarian treaty.

Britain has no trade agreements with Czechoslovakia, Romania or

Bulgaria, although there is a small amount of trade with each of the soviet satellites.

NANKING HEARD RUMORS THAT COMMUNISTS ALREADY HAVE REPRESENTATIVES IN EITHER NANKING OR SHANGHAI. BUT THESE WERE GENERALLY DISCOUNTED IN THE CAPITAL ITSELF AS WISHFUL THINKING.

EVEN GOVERNMENT WARPLANES HAVE JOINED THE PEACE OFFENSIVE, DROPPING LEAFLETS ON RED TROOPS URGING THEM TO LAY DOWN THEIR ARMS.

COMMUNISTS, WHOSE ARMIES DOMINATE THE MILITARY SCENE, HAVE MADE NO REPLY TO ANY OF THE FLOOD OF PLEAS THAT THEY INITIATE PEACE NEGOTIATIONS. THE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT HAS MADE NO MOVE SINCE CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S NEW YEAR'S DAY MESSAGE. THIS EXPRESSED WILLINGNESS TO TALK PEACE -- ON HIS TERMS.

A TSINGTAO DISPATCH SAID SOME 3,000 UNITED STATES MARINES ARE LEAVING THEIR BARRACKS AND BOARDING NAVAL VESSELS IN THE HARBOR. IT REPORTED THEY WERE EXPECTED TO WITHDRAW FROM TSINGTAO, ANCHORAGE OF THE U.S. WESTERN PACIFIC FLEET, BEFORE JAN. 25.

AMERICAN NAVAL AND DIPLOMATIC SOURCES WERE DENIED MARINES WERE PREPARING TO LEAVE CHINA, BUT THEIR DENIALS WERE HALF-HEARTED.

ONE SPOKESMAN, WHO SHOULD BE IN A POSITION TO KNOW, SAID: "THAT REPORT ISN'T WRONG; IT'S JUST PREMATURE." JAN 19

THE TSINGTAO REPORT SAID "THE REASON OFFICIALLY GIVEN FOR THE SURPRISE MOVE WAS THAT SINCE THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT HAS NOW DECIDED TO NEGOTIATE FOR PEACE SETTLEMENT WITH THE REDS, THERE IS A GOOD PROSPECT FOR PEACE BEING RESTORED AND THE PRESENCE OF THE MARINES IS NO LONGER NEEDED."

THERE WAS NO CONFIRMATION THAT PEACE TALKS WERE UNDERWAY. NEW DEMANDS FOR PEACE CAME FROM SHANGHAI BUSINESSMEN. AND COMMUNISTS WERE REPORTED PRESSING FOR LOCAL NEGOTIATIONS TO END THE CIVIL WAR IN FIVE NORTHERN PROVINCES.

THE TSINGTAO REPORT CAME FROM THE ASSOCIATED PRESS' LOCAL CORRESPONDENT. HE SAID VICE ADMIRAL OSCAR C. BADGER, COMMANDER OF THE WESTERN PACIFIC FLEET, WOULD CONTINUE TO MAINTAIN HIS BASE IN TSINGTAO.

THE CORRESPONDENT'S REPORT SAID MARINE AUTHORITIES NOTIFIED NATIONAL SHANTUNG UNIVERSITY THEY WERE VACATING THEIR QUARTERS ON THE CAMPUS THEY HAD LEASED SINCE V-J DAY. BUILDINGS WERE TO BE TURNED BACK TO THE UNIVERSITY BY JANUARY 21. SOME NAVY QUARTERS IN SHANGHAI SAID THE ORDER PERTAINED MERELY TO EVACUATION OF SHOPKEEPERS AND CONCESSIONAIRES FROM THE BUILDINGS.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT TOUCHED OFF A SERIES OF RUMORS IN TSINGTAO. ONE WAS THAT COMMUNISTS, WHO CONTROL MOST OF SHANTUNG PENINSULA, WERE PREPARING FOR A LARGE SCALE ATTACK ON THE TSINGTAO AREA, AND DID NOT WANT TO GET INVOLVED. ANOTHER WAS THAT THE U.S. GOVERNMENT HAS ACCEPTED A REQUEST OF THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT THAT IT MEDIATE A SETTLEMENT OF THE CIVIL WAR.

A48FX

(STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS IN WASHINGTON EXPRESSED SURPRISE AT THE TSINGTAO DEVELOPMENT, BUT SAID ADMIRAL BADGER HAS AUTHORITY TO PULL OUT OF THE TSINGTAO ANCHORAGE.)

SOURCES IN SHANGHAI SAID THEY HAD HEARD NO SUCH REPORT OFFICIALLY, BUT SAID IT WOULD NOT BE SURPRISING. SOME 600 MARINES ARE AT SHANGHAI, QUARTERED ABOARD THE TRANSPORT BAYFIELD. THEY SAID THEY HAD HEARD NOTHING ABOUT LEAVING CHINA. THERE ARE ABOUT 5000 MARINES IN CHINA, OF WHICH 4,800 ARE IN THE WESTERN PACIFIC FLEET MARINE FORCE. SMALL DETACHMENTS ARE WITH U.S. DIPLOMATIC OFFICES IN VARIOUS CITIES.

MEANWHILE THE U.S. NAVAL ADVISORY UNIT AT CANTON FOLDED UP TODAY. ITS COMMANDER ROBERT E.LOCKWOOD LEFT CANTON BY NAVAL PLANE FOR SHANGHAI. WITHDRAWAL OF THIS SMALL LOCAL UNIT HAD BEEN EXPECTED FOR SOME TIME.

A NEW WAVE OF PEACE DEMANDS, TOUCHED OFF YESTERDAY BY THE POWERFUL SHANGHAI CITY COUNCIL, BROUGHT A NEW SERIES OF DEMANDS AND OFFERS TODAY.

SHANGHAI'S "SELF AID AND NATIONAL SALVATION FEDERATION" INVITED T NATIONALS AND COMMUNISTS TO SEND REPRESENTATIVES TO SHANGHAI FOR L CE TALKS. THE ASSOCIATION WAS FORMED A MONTH AGO TO PROTECT VITAL SHANGHAI INDUSTRIES AND PUBLIC UTILITIES IF LOCAL AUTHORITY SHOULD BREAK DOWN.

IT SENT IDENTICAL MESSAGES TO PRESIDENT CHIANG KAI-SHEK IN NANKING AND TO COMMUNIST LEADER MAO TSE-TUNG IN YENAN. THE MESSAGES EMPHASIZED CIVIL WAR IS "CRIPPLING THE COUNTRY." THEY PROPOSED "PRELIMINARY TALKS IN SHANGHAI WHERE MORE FACILITIES, INCLUDING FOREIGN OBSERVERS, ARE AVAILABLE THAN ELSEWHERE."

ALSO HOPPING ON THE PEACE BANDWAGON WERE 300 COLLEGE PROFESSORS IN SHANGHAI AND NANKING, AND THE NORTH CHINA PROVINCIAL COUNCIL IN PEIPING.

ASSOCIATED PRESS CORRESPONDENT SPENCER MOOSA REPORTED FROM PEIPING THAT WELL INFORMED QUARTERS SAID COMMUNISTS WERE PRESSING NORTH CHINA NATIONALIST GEN. FU TSO-YI THROUGH DEVIOUS CHANNELS TO MAKE HIS OWN PEACE WITH THEM. THESE SOURCES DENIED A RUMOR THE REDS WERE THREATENING AN ATTACK ON PEIPING ITSELF.

GENERAL FU SAID THE COMMUNISTS HAVE ABOUT 75,000 MEN AROUND PEIPING. HE SAID HE WANTS TO SAFEGUARD THE CITY AS A CULTURAL CENTER, BUT THAT IF THE REDS ATTACK HE WILL RESIST.

TAIPEI, FORMOSA, JAN.1-(DELAYED)-(AP)-IF YOU WANT TO SEE WHAT HALF A CENTURY OF LIFE UNDER A POLICE STATE DOES TO A PEOPLE, COME TO FORMOSA -- OR TAIWAN, AS IT WAS CALLED.

DURING 50 YEARS UNDER JAPAN, 6,000,000 TAIWANESE BECAME LITERATE, BUT WHAT THEY WERE ALLOWED TO READ LEFT THEM IGNORANT OF THE WORLD OUTSIDE JAPAN.

ECONOMIC CRUSTS FLUNG THEIR WAY BY THE EXPLOITING JAPANESE HEIRARCHY INCLUDED NO GREAT FUND OF ADMINISTRATIVE EXPERIENCE WHICH COULD SERVE THEM NOW.

OLDTIMERS HERE SAY THE TAICASRV DYESENT CONTROL FROM THE CHINA MAINLAND, BUT THEY ARE CONFUSED WITHOUT PRACTICAL IDEAS AS TO HOW TO ASSERT THEMSELVES TO INFLUENCE THEIR OWN DESTINY.

FORMOSA OFFERS THE LIKELIEST REFUGE FOR CHINA'S NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT. THE BIG ISLAND'S GEOGRAPHIC POSITION, PLUS A LARGE

NOW THE TAIWANESE SAY THEY ARE SORRY TO SEE WEI LEAVE.

THEY STILL ARE UNARMED AND THE LIKELIHOOD OF ANY EFFECTIVE REVOLT IS PRACTICALLY NIL. HOWEVER, THAT DOES NOT ELIMINATE THE POSSIBILITY OF SERIOUS TROUBLE, IN THE OPINION OF INFORMED OBSERVERS.

CHINESE OFFICIALS POOH POOH THIS, BUT OTHER CHINESE ARE FRANKLY WORRIED. THEY SAID THE 1947 INCIDENT SHOWED THE VOLATILITY OF THE TAIWANESE. THEY ADDED THAT THE REVOLT WAS OBVIOUSLY HOPELESS FROM THE START, YET IT SWEPT THE ISLAND'S LENGTH.

"THE TAIWANESE ARE LIKE CHILDREN -- WITHOUT EXPERIENCE, BUT WITH VAGUE IDEAS OF FREEDOM FOR WHICH THEY HAVE NO PRACTICAL PLAN TO REALIZE. THEY ARE UNARMED, BUT COULD BLOW UP IN OUR FACES ANY TIME."

THE RUSSIAN MEMBER PREVIOUSLY HAD SAID THE "SYSTEMATIC GROWTH OF THE JAPANESE POLICE FORCE X X X MAY LEAD TO CREATION OF A NEW THREAT ON THE PART OF JAPAN AGAINST INTERNATIONAL PEACE AND SCURITY."

SEBALD REPLIED THAT HE WAS "GREATLY SURPRISED" THAT DEREVYANKO, A GENERAL, SHOULD REFER TO AN "ALLEGED REARMAMENT OF JAPAN" THROUGH A POLICE FORCE.

"IT APPEARS OBVIOUS TO ME," SAID SEBALD, "THAT NO ARMY CAN BE BUILT AROUND THE FRAMEWORK OF A CIVIL POLICE FORCE OF THE TYPE WE HAVE IN JAPAN."

SEBALD CONTINUED THAT DEREVYANKO'S REFERENCE AT A COUNCIL SESSION TO ALLEGED REARMAMENT OF JAPAN "APPEARS TO BE PART AND PARCEL OF A COORDINATED CAMPAIGN BY SOVIET AUTHORITIES TO CREATE MENDACIOUS RUMORS AND PROPAGANDA DESIGNED TO UNDERMINE THE POLICIES, NOT ONLY OF OCCUPATION AUTHORITIES IN JAPAN, BUT ALSO OF THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES AND THE FAR EASTERN COMMISSION."

2. RECENT MANEUVERS BY BRITISH TROOPS IN TRIPOLITANIA WERE DESIGNED TO SIMULATE TERRITORIAL CONDITIONS WHICH WOULD PREVAIL IN A LANDING ON ISRAELI SOIL.

A GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN DECLINED TO COMMENT ON REPORTS FROM ABROAD THAT THE UNITED STATES THREATENED TO WITHDRAW RECOGNITION OF ISRAEL IF JEWISH FORCES INVADED TERRITORY OF THE NEIGHBORING ARAB STATES. ASKED ABOUT BRITISH FEARS ON THIS SCORE, THE SPOKESMAN SAID ISRAELI FORCES ARE "NO NEARER TRANS-JORDAN NOW THAN A WEEK OR TWO WEEKS AGO."

THE NEAREST ISRAELI POSITION TO TRANS-JORDAN KNOWN TO CORRESPONDENTS HERE IS AT SODOM, NEAR THE SOUTHERN END OF THE DEAD SEA, WHERE A TRANS-JORDAN VILLAGE AND A JEWISH SETTLEMENT ARE IN SIGHT OF ONE ANOTHER.

TULKARM, PALESTINE, JAN. 4-(AP)-KING ABDULLAH OF TRANS-JORDAN WOUND UP A THREE-DAY TOUR OF CENTRAL PALESTINE TODAY WITH A PROMISE TO GIVE PALESTINIANS A POLITICAL NEW DEAL.

THOUSANDS TURNED OUT TO LOOK AT THE HASHIMITE MONARCH WHO MAY BE THE NEW KING OF UNITED ARAB PALESTINE AND TRANS-JORDAN. (OTHER ARAB COUNTRIES HAVE EXPRESSED DISFAVOR FOR THE UNION.)

THEY CHEERED WHEN HE INDICATED HE WAS PREPARED TO ACCEPT THE CROWN IF NO STRINGS WERE ATTACHED. HE TOLD A CROWD IN NABLUS:

"I WILL ACCEPT YOUR OFFER IF YOU GIVE IT WITHOUT CONDITIONS. I WILL NOT LEAD YOU INTO PATHS THAT ARE DANGEROUS BUT WILL PROTECT YOU WITH ALL MY STRENGTH, EVEN UNTO DEATH."

ABDULLAH PROMISED TO RELINQUISH HIS RULE ANY TIME PALESTINIANS ASKED HIM.

HE SPOKE HERE TO 15,000 WITHIN SIGHT OF JEWISH LINES A MILE AWAY. HE SAID HE CAME "AS A PROTECTOR, NOT AS AN INVADER."

OTTAWA, JAN.4-(AP)-CANADA IS EMBARKING ON AN ARMAMENTS PROGRAM TO EQUIP HER THREE SMALL REGULAR FORCES WITH NEW AIR AND SEA CRAFT AT A COST WELL INTO THE MILLIONS.
MARKING THE FIRST POST-WAR SPLURGE ON MILITARY EQUIPMENT, THE PROGRAM HAS BEEN SHAPING UP HERE OVER THE LAST FEW WEEKS.
IT WILL EVENTUALLY EMBRACE INDEFINITE QUANTITIES OF JET FIGHTERS FOR THE AIR FORCE, A NEW TYPE OF SURFACE CRAFT AND A FIGHTER PLANE FOR THE ANTI-SUBMARINE NAVY AND A TRANSPORT PLANE TO GUARANTEE THE MOBILITY OF THE ARMY'S AIRBORNE BRIGADE.
THE ARMAMENT PROGRAM WILL STRENGTHEN CANADA'S HAND AS A PARTICIPANT IN DISCUSSIONS EXPECTED TO PRODUCE AN ATLANTIC SECURITY PACT THIS YEAR.
IT WILL BE 1950 BEFORE PRODUCTION OF THE NEW CRAFT REALLY BEGINS TO ROLL.
THE LATEST OF THE NEW PIECES OF EQUIPMENT TO COME INTO THE LIMELIGHT IS THE AMERICAN FAIRCHILD PACKET TRANSPORT PLANE THAT WILL BE USED BY THE AIRBORNE BRIGADE. PLANS CALL FOR THE 7,000-MAN BRIGADE TO BE A STANDING FORCE TO MEET ANY DIVERSIONARY ATTACK ON THE COUNTRY.
THE FAIRCHILD IS THE SECOND U.S. PLANE SLATED FOR PRODUCTION IN CANADIAN AIRCRAFT FACTORIES AS A RESULT OF NEGOTIATIONS. THE FIRST IS THE F86, GENERALLY REGARDED AS THE WORLD'S FASTEST JET FIGHTER.
THE PACKET PLANE WILL BE USED IN THE ARCTIC TO TAKE MATERIAL TO MILITARY BASES AND TRANSFER IT. EXPERIMENTS HAVE BEEN LOOKING TO THE USE OF A TRACKED LANDING GEAR--SOMEWHAT LIKE THAT OF TANKS--WHICH WOULD WIDEN CONSIDERABLY ITS CHANCES OF LANDING.

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON, JAN.4-(AP)-THE TEXT OF THE UNITED STATES NOTE TO SOVIET RUSSIA ON REPATRIATION OF GERMAN WAR PRISONERS FOLLOWS (ABOUT 600):
THE EMBASSY OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA PRESENTS ITS COMPLIMENTS TO THE MINISTER OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS OF THE UNION OF SOVIET SOCIALIST REPUBLICS AND HAS THE HONOR, UNDER INSTRUCTIONS FROM ITS GOVERNMENT, TO COMMUNICATE THE FOLLOWING TO THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT.
IN FULFILLMENT OF ITS COMMITMENT AS A PARTY TO THE AGREEMENT MADE AT MOSCOW IN APRIL, 1947, BY THE COUNCIL OF FOREIGN MINISTERS, THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES HAS DISCHARGED ALL GERMAN WAR PRISONERS FORMERLY HELD BY IT AS A RESULT OF THE HOSTILITIES AGAINST GERMANY.
THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT HAS BEEN INFORMED BY THE BRITISH AND FRENCH GOVERNMENTS THAT THEY HAVE LIKEWISE HONORED THEIR COMMITMENTS UNDER THE ABOVE AGREEMENT.
THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT ADDRESSED AN INQUIRY TO THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT ON SEPT. 23, 1948, REQUESTING INFORMATION REGARDING ITS PLANS TO FULFILL ITS COMMITMENT UNDER THE COUNCIL OF FOREIGN MINISTERS AGREEMENT. NO REPLY HAS BEEN RECEIVED TO THIS NOTE NOR HAS ANY INFORMATION BEEN FURNISHED BY THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT INDICATING IT HAS IN FACT HONORED ITS COMMITMENT IN THIS RESPECT.
IN VIEW OF THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT'S FAILURE TO FURNISH INFORMATION CONCERNING THE STEPS TAKEN BY IT TO IMPLEMENT THE COUNCIL OF FOREIGN MINISTERS' AGREEMENT, THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT IS COMPELLED TO EVALUATE THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT'S ACTION ON THE BASIS OF INFORMATION AVAILABLE FROM OTHER SOURCES.
ACCORDING TO OFFICIAL STATISTICS MAINTAINED BY THE COMBINED REPATRIATION EXECUTIVE IN BERLIN THE NUMBER OF WAR PRISONERS REPATRIAT BY THE UNION OF SOVIET SOCIALIST REPUBLICS TO ALL FOUR ZONES OF GERMANY FROM MARCH 31, 1947 TO MARCH 1, 1948, TOTALLED 252,395. MARCH 1, 1948 TO DECEMBER 1, 1948, SHOW THAT A TOTAL OF 194,972 WAR PRISONERS WERE RETURNED TO THOSE ZONES. JAN 1949

THEREFORE, ON THE BASIS OF THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT'S STATEMENT AT THE COUNCIL OF FOREIGN MINISTERS IN MOSCOW THAT 890,532 WAR PRISONERS WERE STILL HELD BY THE UNION OF SOVIET SOCIAL REPUBLICS AT THAT TIME, ONLY SOME 447,367 ARE OFFICIALLY KNOWN TO HAVE BEEN REPATRIATED TO GERMANY.
THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT, COGNIZANT OF ITS RESPONSIBILITIES UNDER THE COUNCIL OF FOREIGN MINISTERS AGREEMENT, REQUESTS INFORMATION CONCERNING THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT'S INTENTIONS WITH RESPECT TO THESE WAR PRISONERS. THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT IS NO DOUBT AWARE THAT THE COUNCIL OF FOREIGN MINISTERS AGREEMENT WITH RESPECT TO GERMAN WAR PRISONERS WAS PUBLICLY ANNOUNCED AND FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH ITS TERMS CAN ONLY BE INTERPRETED BY WORLD OPINION AS A BREACH OF FAITH.

CONSCIOUS OF THE IMPORTANCE PLACED ON THE FULL IMPLEMENTATION OF THIS AGREEMENT BY THE GERMAN PEOPLE AND HUMANITARIAN ELEMENTS THROUGHOUT THE WORLD, AND IN VIEW OF ITS CONTINUING INTEREST AS A PARTY TO THAT AGREEMENT, THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT FEELS COMPELLED TO RENEW ITS REQUEST FOR SPECIFIC INFORMATION CONCERNING THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT'S PERFORMANCE DURING THE PAST 10 MONTHS, AND ITS INTENTION WITH RESPECT TO THE FUTURE REPATRIATION OF WAR PRISONERS, INCLUDING THE NUMBER STILL TO BE REPATRIATED. THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT IS OF THE OPINION THAT THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT HAS A CONTINUING OBLIGATION TO HONOR ITS COMMITMENT AT THE COUNCIL OF FOREIGN MINISTERS.

THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT SIMULTANEOUSLY RENEWS ITS EARLIER REQUEST FOR INFORMATION CONCERNING WAR PRISONERS WHO HAVE DIED WHILE IN THE UNION OF SOVIET SOCIALIST REPUBLICS, AS EXPRESSED IN THE EMBASSY'S NOTES NO. 129, DATED MARCH 9, 1948 AND NO. 599, DATED SEPTEMBER 15, 1948. (END TEXT)

WASHINGTON,JAN.4-(AP)-COMMUNIST SUCCESSES IN THE ORIENT WERE REPORTED TODAY TO HAVE THRUST A BIG STUMBLING BLOCK IN THE PATH OF THE FAR EASTERN COMMISSION'S EFFORTS TO SETTLE CERTAIN QUESTIONS ABOUT JAPAN'S FUTURE.

NAMING REPARATIONS AND THE SIZE OF JAPAN'S INDUSTRY AS THE TWO REMAINING BIG PROBLEMS, THE COMMISSION ITSELF DID NOT SAY WHAT WAS HOLDING UP A DECISION ON THESE TWO BIG ISSUES.

BUT, AN OFFICIAL WHO ASKED THAT HIS NAME NOT BE USED CITED RED ADVANCES AS THE CURRENT ROAD BLOCKS.

"COMMUNIST EXPANSION IN THE ORIENT HAS BROUGHT FURTHER ECONOMIC DETERIORATION THERE," HE TOLD A REPORTER. "THIS HAS RENDERED JAPAN UNABLE TO DEVELOP ITS FOREIGN TRADE TO THE EXTENT PLANNED, AND ALSO HAS CURTAILED THE FLOW OF RAW MATERIALS TO JAPANESE INDUSTRIES."

HE SAID THE COMMISSION, THE ALLIED BODY WHICH DETERMINES POLICY FOR THE ONETIME ENEMY NATION, HOPES BOTH MATTERS CAN BE SETTLED THIS YEAR.

AN ALTERNATIVE, HE ADDED, WOULD BE FOR THE UNITED STATES TO INSTRUCT GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR, SUPREME ALLIED COMMANDER IN THE AREA, TO HANDLE THE PROBLEMS HIMSELF. THE U.S. HAS AUTHORITY TO PLAY A LONE HAND IN JAPAN.

OFFICIALS SAID PRINCIPAL REPARATIONS QUESTIONS ARE: (1) WHAT JAPANESE ASSETS ARE TO BE REMOVED; (2) TO WHOM THEY ARE TO BE DISTRIBUTED; AND (3) HOW THE DISTRIBUTION IS TO BE MADE.

THE SITUATION IN JAPAN WAS REVIEWED BY THE COMMISSION IN A REPORT SUMMARIZING ITS NEARLY THREE YEARS OF WORK DEALING WITH JAPANESE TROUBLES.

NATIONS REPRESENTED ON THE COMMISSION ARE THE U.S., CHINA, THE UNITED KINGDOM, AUSTRALIA, INDIA, THE NETHERLANDS, THE PHILIPPINES, FRANCE, NEW ZEALAND, RUSSIA AND CANADA.

HE URGED THE WESTERN POWERS IN 1948 TO SET AN EXAMPLE FOR RUSSIA BY REPATRIATING ALL THEIR GERMAN POWS.

CONGRESS ACCEPTED AN AMENDMENT HE OFFERED TO THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM APPROPRIATION BILL LAST YEAR MAKING ANY OF THE 16 PARTICIPATING NATIONS INELIGIBLE FOR AID IF THEY STILL HELD ANY GERMAN PRISONERS BY LAST DEC.31.

MC CARTHY SAID IN A STATEMENT TO A REPORTER:

"NO ONE HAS ANY IDEA OF THE NUMBER OF THE POWS WHO HAVE DIED OF OVERWORK AND STARVATION IN RUSSIA AND OTHER EUROPEAN COUNTRIES.

"THE MOST CONSERVATIVE REPORT ACCEPTED BY WESTERN ALLIED MILITARY AUTHORITIES IN GERMANY IS THAT 200,000 PRISONERS ARE STILL HELD BY RUSSIA.

"I HAVE ASKED THE STATE DEPARTMENT COUNTLESS TIMES IN THE PAST TWO YEARS TO REPUDIATE THE STAND WE TOOK AT YALTA WHEN WE AGREED TO THE USE OF PRISONERS OF WAR AS SLAVE LABORERS."

WASHINGTON, JAN 4-(AP)-SECRETARY OF THE ARMY ROYALL SAID TODAY THE FORCES OF DEMOCRACY ARE DEFINITELY ON THE RISE AGAINST COMMUNISM IN EUROPE.

AS FOR THE POSSIBILITY OF ARMED CONFLICT, ROYALL TOLD NEWSMEN:

"I STATED LAST FALL I BELIEVE THAT WAR WAS NOT IMMINENT. I AM STILL OF THAT OPINION."

THE ARMY'S CIVILIAN CHIEF, NEWLY RETURNED FROM A THREE-WEEK INSPECTION SWING IN EUROPE, BROUGHT SOME GOOD NEWS TO TAXPAYERS WHO HAVE LEE SHOULDERING THE BURDEN OF EUROPEAN RECOVERY.

ARMY RELIEF COSTS IN GERMANY ARE DROPPING, HE SAID, BECAUSE OF THE IMPROVED SITUATION THERE, AND THE ARMY EXPECTS TO HAVE $50,000,000 EAR-MARKED FOR GERMAN FOOD LEFT OVER WHEN THE FISCAL YEAR ENDS NEXT JUNE 30.

COMBINED WITH OTHER FACTORS, THAT WILL ENABLE THE ARMY TO SLASH $200,000,000 OFF ITS REQUEST FOR NEW FOOD FUNDS, HE SAID.

ROYALL ALSO DISCLOSED THAT THE ARMY HAS "LIQUIDATED" A $255,000,000 DEFICIT IN ITS FUNDS RESULTING FROM GI "YANKEE TRADER" DEALS IN GERMAN MARKS SOON AFTER THE WAR.

HE SAID HE WOULDN'T DESCRIBE THESE TRANSACTIONS AS "BLACK MARKET" OPERATIONS, BUT NOTED THAT THEY INVOLVED THE SALE OF WATCHES, CIGARETTES AND OTHER ARTICLES FOR GERMAN MARKS. GI'S THEN TURNED IN THE GERMAN MARKS TO THE ARMY FOR U.S. DOLLARS.

THE ARMY FINALLY HALTED SUCH GET-RICH-QUICK PRACTICES BY STALLING THE SCRIP SYSTEM IN GERMANY.

A REPORTER ASKED WHETHER THE RUSSIANS, WHO PRINTED GERMAN OCCUPATION-MONEY MARKS WITH U.S. PLATES, BENEFITTED MORE THAN GI'S FROM THE TRANSACTIONS. WITH A TWINKLE, ROYALL REPLIED:

"THE GI SOLD HIS WATCH TO THE RUSSIAN FOR A HATFUL OF MARKS AND TRADED IN THE MARKS FOR DOLLARS, WHICH HE SENT BACK HOME. SO I'D SAY THE GI'S GOT THE BEST OF THE DEAL."

BESIDES WATCHES TO THE RUSSIANS, AMERICAN SOLDIERS SOLD U.S. CIGARETTES TO GERMANS AND OTHER EUROPEANS FOR REPUTEDLY FABULOUS SUMS.

THESE TWO STEPS, THE CABLE SAID, CONSTITUTE THE "MINIMUM ACTION" NEEDED TO VINDICATE THE AUTHORITY OF THE U.N. AND BRING BACK "SOME PORTION AT LEAST OF ITS LOST PRESTIGE."

Forecast Made As Tel Aviv Official Tells Of Troops' Thrust Into Egypt For 30 Miles

Gerald Griffin, In London, writes of British indignation over Palestine war.....Page 14

Acting Secretary and British Ambassador confer.....Page 14

Tel Aviv, Palestine, Jan. 5 (AP)—An unusually reliable private source reported tonight the Jews had accepted the United Nations Security Council's cease-fire order.

At the same time a Government spokesman said Israeli troops had knifed 30 miles into Egypt and then had withdrawn.

The private informant predicted fighting between Jews and Egyptians in the Negeb desert of southern Palestine will end soon. It was understood Israel's acceptance of the cease-fire will be sent to the Security Council tomorrow.

Believed Cabinet's Topic

The Israeli Cabinet held a meeting tonight, at which decisive action on the cease-fire apparently was taken. All the ministers refused to talk, but they did not deny that a cease-fire decision had been made.

The timing and other details of the cease-fire apparently would be fixed by United Nations truce observers, in co-operation with the Israeli and Egyptian military commanders.

An Israeli Foreign Office spokesman said Jewish troops, which entered Egypt in a three-day battle, had withdrawn according to plan after killing or wounding several hundred Egyptians and taking several hundred more prisoner.

90 Miles From Canal

He said the Israeli force had reached El Arish, a strong Egyptian military base including airfields and other installations about 90 miles from the Suez Canal. The spokesman said Egyptian matériel taken or destroyed included several Bren gun carriers, artillery pieces, gasoline and oil stocks and other stores.

[In Cairo the Egyptian War Ministry said tonight Egyptian forces repulsed Israeli attacks last night and this morning on Egyptian positions near Rafa. The enemy suffered considerable losses in lives and armored cars, the Ministry said.]

Israeli military sources said that before reaching the El Arish district Jewish armored infantry supported by artillery and aircraft had occupied the important road junction of Abu Awugeila.

Several Planes Captured

Several Egyptian Spitfire planes were captured on the El Arish airfields. The Foreign Office spokesman said the airfields themselves were heavily damaged and that enemy communications were badly disrupted.

"There was never at any time any design on the part of Israel to occupy Egyptian territory," the spokesman declared. He said the penetration was made by troops "in hot pursuit of the fleeing enemy."

He added that "Israel has no claims to the territory of other countries. It has but one desire—the cessation of hostilities and negotiations for a permanent peace."

Charges British Campaign

The spokesman denounced what he called an "anti-Israel diplomatic campaign that the British Government has been conducting in Washington." He repeated last night's charge by a Government spokesman concerning "military preparations which the British Government is known to be making in the Middle East."

"The British Foreign Secretary has made no secret of his deep-seated antagonism to Israel," he said. "This latest campaign is but one more example of a consistent and deliberate plan to damage the interests of Israel and shield Arab interests from the boomerang effects of their aggression."

[It was announced that Jefferson Patterson, United States chargé d'affaires in Cairo, had personally delivered today to King Farouk an American plea that the Palestine conflict not be enlarged.]

Air-Raid Alerts

Meanwhile, some fighting was reported today from the Negeb, but apparently on a smaller scale than during the last few days. No incidents were reported from other parts of the country. Tel Aviv had a short air-raid alert shortly after 7 P.M., but no bombs were dropped in the city.

However, three persons were reported injured when a Jewish settlement east of Tel Aviv was bombed by an unidentified plane shortly after 7 P.M.

Israel Reports British May Enter War

JAN 1949

Beirut, Lebanon, Jan. 5 (AP)—A Government spokesman said today that the Jews occupied the Lebanese frontier village of Yaroun after bombarding it.

Tel Aviv, Israel, Jan. 5 (AP)—A Foreign Office spokesman said last night that information received by the Israeli general staff indicates British military forces may intervene in the Jewish-Arab conflict.

[There was no comment from British officials in London. Britain has mutual-defense treaties with several of the Arab nations at war with Israel, but they have not been invoked so far.]

The spokesman said there were reports that Britain has sent a number of fighter and bomber planes to Mafrak, Trans-Jordan, and that British troops are on the way to the Trans-Jordanian port of Aqaba.

Maneuvers Reported

He said British troops in Tripolitania, a section of Libia, recently held maneuvers designed to simulate conditions which would prevail in a landing on Israeli soil and that "Israeli place names were used to designate the objectives."

He expressed fear the object might be to use military measures to reinforce British political aims in the Middle East, particularly to "attempt to wrest the Negeb from Israel."

130,000 in Year Settle in Israel

Jerusalem, Jan. 5 (A. P.).—The Jewish Agency said today that more than 130,000 Jews had reached Israel last year from seventy countries.

Palestine Situation Still Grave, Britain Asserts

ARTHUR GAVSHON

London, Jan. 5 (AP)—Britain said today that the situation on the Palestine-Egyptian frontier continues grave, although "the main body of Israeli forces" has been withdrawn from Egyptian territory.

A Foreign Office spokesman said an Israeli withdrawal has given "local relief to a still obscure situation which continues to cause anxiety."

He said he was not prepared to say that all Israeli forces have been withdrawn from Egypt. The Israeli Government told the United States in a note early this week that all its troops had left Egyptian territory.

Britain Blames Israel

The spokesman made clear that Britain blames Israel for recent United Nations truce violations in southern Palestine.

He said a study of reports received by the Foreign Office "now leave no doubt at all that Egypti... territory was violated."

"The whole situation," he added; "arises out of the most flagrant and staggering violation by Israel of the United Nations Security Council resolutions of November 4, 16 and December 29."

These resolutions called for a cease-fire in the Negeb Desert and its demilitarization; the opening of armistice negotiations, and yet another cease-fire between Israeli and Egyptian forces.

U.S. Action Welcomed

The spokesman said Britain welcomed yesterday's announcement in Washington that the United States had approached Israel and the Arabs to comply with United Nation orders.

The spokesman refused comment on Israeli charges in Tel Aviv yesterday that British troops were moving to the Red Sea port of Aqaba; that Britain was reinforcing air strength at Mafrak in Trans-Jordan, and that Britain planned to send an expeditionary force to the Egyptian-Palestine border.

He declined comment, too, on British press reports that Egypt has formally asked Britain to resume the supply of arms.

Deputy To Stalin Believed Leader Favoring Amity

London, Jan. 5 (AP)—The British magazine News Review said today French sources believe President Truman's recent remark about "Soviet leaders anxious to come to an understanding with us" referred to Secret Police Chief Lavrenti P. Beria.

Beria, a Georgian like Premier Stalin, and a member of the fourteen-member Politburo, is a Russian deputy premier.

"He is opposed to the extreme anti-western clique which at present dominates Kremlin policy," News Review said. "Since the death of Cominform Leader Andrei Zhdanov, this clique is led by Foreign Minister Vyacheslav Molotov and by Marshal Nicolai Bulganin."

The magazine quoted Paris sources as saying Beria is in "secret alliance" with Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia, who has been denounced by the Cominform, the Communist International Information Bureau.

Garrison Sent to Aqaba

LONDON, Jan. 5 (AP).—A high government source tonight disclosed thta a small British detachment has gone to the Red Sea port of Aqaba in Trans-Jordan, adjoining territory allotted to Israel under the U. N. partition plan. Britain normally does not keep a garrison at Aqaba, but she has a mutual defense pact with Trans-Jordan, as with Egypt.

An Israeli spokesman in Tel Aviv charged last night that Britain not only had sent forces to Aqaba, but also planes to Mafrak in Trans-Jordan, and was holding landing exercises in Tripolitania against simulated Israeli targets.

M.P. Shudders at Idea Of Britain as U.S. State

SLOUGH, England, Jan. 5 (AP).—Benn Levy, Laborite M. P., playwright and husband of the American-born film actress Constance Cummings, gave this answer when asked at a Labor meeting tonight if Britain could solve her economic problems by becoming the forty-ninth state of the United States of America:

"The possibility of being ruled by the United States Congress, the possibility of finding ourselves dominated by their vastly inferior Constitution and the possibility of finding ourselves submerged in a country which is at least twenty-five or thirty years behind ourselves, are quite horrifying."

Frenchmen Would Balk At Yielding Atomic Data

Paris, Jan. 5 (AP)—Frederic Joliot-Curie, French high commissioner for atomic energy, said today he would leave the Communist party if it ordered him to give secret information to a foreign country.

"If the Communist party did that," he told a luncheon of the Anglo-American Press Association, "it would no longer be my party."

Joliot-Curie said he joined the Communists in 1941, during the German occupation of France. Son-in-law of Pierre and Marie Curie, codiscoverers of radium, he held an important post in the French resistance movement.

British Fleet Sets Maneuvers

LONDON, Jan. 5 (AP)—The Admiralty announced today that the British Home Fleet would sail from Portland on Jan. 31 on its spring cruise. The fleet will call at Gibraltar before returning to home ports on March 24 and 25.

RED-LED STRIKERS RIOT IN SOUTHERN ITALY

ROME, (Thursday), Jan. 6—(AP) Communist-led strikers in extreme Southern Italy yesterday built roadblocks and fired warning shots into the air. Rome newspapers reported today.

The incident occurred at Andria and along a highway near Minervino, both in the poverty-ridden heel of the Italian "boot." Mobile police squads broke up the blocks, arrested four strikers and restored order.

Demonstrations by striking workers and peasants have created disturbances in the area for three days. Crowds of unemployed are demanding work or relief.

Finns Lead in Heroin Use

Ask U. N. Board for Increased Allocation as Health Aid

GENEVA, Jan. 5 (AP).—The United Nations Central Opium Board said tonight Finland has become the biggest consumer of heroin in the world.

Finland's consumption of the drug (17.67 kilograms per million inhabitants in 1947) was more than three times that of the next highest consumer, Italy, the board reported.

In its 1949 estimates the Finnish government asked three times the amount used in 1947. The government said increased consumption figures were due to "post-war circumstances" which brought a general deterioration of health. "The high consumption of codeine is explained by the fact that considerable quantities of this drug are used in Finland for curing coughs," it added.

QUEEN JULIANA TO SPEAK

AMSTERDAM, The Netherlands, Jan. 5—(AP) Queen Juliana will address the nation by radio tomorrow (7:15 a. m., E.S.T.) on political developments in Indonesia.

victed Ruth Riecki, 22-year-old mother of his child, of hiding Lada after he escaped from a military police stockade Dec. 18. The young woman will be sentenced next week.

Lada himself learned today that the army will try him on seven specific charges for his exploit of gate-crashing the Russian blockade to enter the American zone of Berlin "just to visit my girl." (It turned out to be two girls.) The penalties could amount to 10 years in jail and $10,000 in fines.

The one-time paratrooper from Newark, N. J., was charged specifically with entering Germany without a permit, illegal entry of the American occupation zone, escape from the U. S. army military stockade, and illegal possession of American and British currency, U. S. military payment certificates and a military identification card. His trial was set for Jan. 14.

The complex tale of Lada's love-life unfolded after he had been arrested for illegally entering the American zone. The 28-year-old veteran said he had walked through the Soviet sector to visit Miss Riecki. She and a blonde German actress, Ursula Schmidt, had a public tug of war for his affections, each contesting he had come to visit her.

Lada told various stories, and finally Ursula settled things. She gave him a public tongue-lashing in statements to the newspapers, the gist of which was that they were sweethearts no longer.

Lada finally said he wanted to stay in Germany and marry Ruth, even if he would have to renounce U. S. citizenship. Then he escaped and was recaptured.

Today the military court found that Ruth and her mother had hidden him with friends after he fled the police stockade. The girl's mother and two other German civilians were convicted of deliberately withholding information of his whereabouts from MP's after his escape.

Soldiers Win Temporary Victory Over Berlin Officers

Berlin, Jan. 5 (AP)—The biggest American club in Berlin banned United States enlisted men but admitted German frauleins, and so the fight waxed hot today.

The GI won a temporary victory when the board of governors suspended the month-old ban until a special meeting tomorrow has threshed it out again.

The dispute grows from the long-standing demand of United States Army officers for the right to relax where enlisted men can't watch them, and the enlisted man's contention that what's good enough for an officer is good enough for him.

Lodging For Visitors

At one point in this particular feud an officer is alleged to have opposed admitting "enlisted barbarians." That just piled fuel on the fire.

The board of governors indorsed the ban on enlisted men last night by vote of 135 to 110, but the angry minority applied enough heat to have the decision reversed, at least temporarily, today. The sign, "No Enlisted Men Allowed" was hastily taken down.

An old mansion houses the club near the military government headquarters. It is a plush spot, with a bar, dining rooms and lodging accommodations for important visitors.

Civilian Protest

Until a month ago its membership was open to all American Army officers and enlisted and civilian employés at $2 a month. Then, at the officers' demand, the constitution was amended to bar the GI. Members still are permitted to invite German fraulein guests.

D. C. Demartin, a civilian employé of the military government, said the GI ban "simply means that everybody in Berlin can come into this club except an American enlisted man. That is not our idea of being American."

BLOCKADE CUTS OUTPUT IN BERLIN 60 PER CENT

BERLIN, Jan. 5 (AP)—The Soviet blockade has cut Berlin's industrial output 60 per cent and its factories are using materials faster than they can be replaced, American officials said today.

The factories all are light industries needing few imported raw materials. Those producing items essential to the city's economy still turn out such things as spare parts for utility plants and street cars.

"Berlin's industrialists have been going on hope for six months," said one official. "Right now factories are using their inventories of raw materials and hoping they run out to getmore in on the airlift. Many also are beginning to run short of cash.

"We hope the time will come when the airlift can bring in raw materials as fast as they are used. The long term outlook is optimistic—but I don't know about the next month."

Col. Howley Assails Reds' Mayor

Berlin, Jan. 5 (AP)—Col. Frank L. Howley, the United States commandant here, pinned the label of "fool" and "puppet" today on the Communist Mayor of Soviet-occupied eastern Berlin.

Commenting on an apparent relaxation of Soviet pressure in Berlin, Howley said:

"They've grabbed one third of the city from international control and now they're busy consolidating it under the puppet government of Friedrich Ebert. They've given the United States Government the greatest insult it has ever received in peacetime from a supposedly friendly power, and they think they've gotten away with it."

Uncertain He's Red

Howley said he was uncertain whether Ebert, son of the first president of the Weimar Republic, was a member of the Communist party.

"I draw no distinction, however, between a fool who obeys Communist orders and a scheming Communist," he added.

Western Berlin newspapers reported that the British plan to increase to 4,000 the number of German police on anti-smuggling patrol on the frontier between the British and Soviet zones of Germany. The Americans are reported not contemplating a similar step at this time.

British authorities recently exposed large-scale attempts to smuggle steel and textile products from the Ruhr into Russian-occupied Germany.

German Girl Convicted Of Hiding Newark Ex-G.I.

BERLIN, Jan. 5 (AP).—An American Military Government court today convicted Ruth Riecki, twenty-two, of unlawfully hiding her lover, Edward J. Lada, twenty-eight, a former pjaratrooper, from Newark, N. J. Miss Riecki, mother of Lada's two-year-old daughter Nancy, will be sentenced next week. Her mother and two other German civilians were convicted of deliberately withholding data about Lada's whereabouts.

SED Denies Influence For Prisoners' Return

Berlin, Jan. 5 (AP)—Otto Grotewohl, chairman of the Social Unity party (SED), said tonight he was powerless to influence the Russians to return German war prisoners.

The chairman of the Communist-dominated party said in an interview with the Soviet-licensed ADN news agency "the SED is as unable as other parties to influence occupation forces on this question."

He said, though, he thought "traffic difficulties" would be overcome and "the last German prisoners from the Soviet Union will arrive in Germany this year."

The Western powers asked the Soviet Union this week why it had not kept its pledge to return the 200,000 or 250,000 prisoners by January 1.

Charles P. Gross N. Governor of Baden

BERLIN, Jan. 5 (AP).—Charles P. Gross, former chief of the Army's transportation system, has been appointed military governor for Wuerttemberg-Baden, American officials announced tonight.

Mr. Gross, a retired major-general and a native of Brooklyn, succeeds Charles M. La Follette, former Indiana Congressman. Mr. La Follette said last month he would be unable to continue in the post after the new year.

After his retirement by the Army in 1945, Mr. Gross served for two years as chairman of the New York Board of Transportation.

Wuerttemberg-Baden is one of the three Laender (states) in the American-occupied zone of Germany. Headquarters is in Stuttgart.

25 Fleeing Magyars Land at Munich

Munich, Jan. 5 (A. P.).—United States officials said today that twenty-five Hungarians landed here yesterday, fleeing the "Soviet terror" in their Communist-ruled land. The group was said to include several physicians and engineers, the director of a large Hungarian bank and a number of women.

The plane carried four airmen and twenty-one passengers. All were held by Army officials. The plane was reported to have headed for Switzerland, but was forced to land because fuel was low.

MINERS IN RUHR SET PRODUCTION RECORD

DUESSELDORF, Germany, Jan. 5 (AP) German miners in the Ruhr set a new record in mining a total of 8.1 million tons of hard coal during December, German authorities said today.

The miners dug an average of 311,500 tons daily.

Compared to November, 1948, miners increased their output in December by a total of 400,000 tons.

DISMANTLING RESISTED

Germans Block Ruhr Job—British to Use Troops

JAN 1949

DUESSELDORF, Germany, Jan. 5 (AP)—Britain may use troops to overcome German resistance to dismantling the big Bochumer Verein steel works in the Ruhr.

More than 100 Essen workers, siding with the Bochum employes, refused today to begin razing the plant. It is situated in Bochum, thirty miles northeast of Duesseldorf.

Earlier this week a group of Bochum workers formed a human wall around a machine and turned back British officers and some Germans who had come to start the dismantling.

A high British official said that another attempt would be made Monday.

"This time," he said, "there will be sufficient British troops standing by to insure that the job will start. If the Bochumer Verein workers try to interfere, we are prepared to take counter-measures."

Franz-Josef Mueser, plant manager, said tonight that he expected no active resistance by the workers if the British moved in the troops because "my workers are very reasonable."

CZECHS FACE RISE IN LIVING COSTS

A1 GOLDBERG

PRAGUE, Jan. 5 — (AP) Czechoslovakia's Communist government decreed a drastically higher cost of living for the nation today.

Finance Minister Jaromir Dolansky, announcing new taxes on rationed and unrationed goods alike, said a free market would be established for many things at prices which would raise the cost 50 to 450 per cent of prices a week ago. He maintained this would kill the black market and that workers would get priority in all consumer goods.

The first sanctions against "capitalists" were indicated by the trade union newspaper Prace late tonight.

Merchants, employers, professional persons not members of trade Unions, and farmers owning more than 35 acres of land will not be issued clothing on textile coupons. Instead they will be forced to buy on the very high free market.

Members of their families, up to the age of 15, also will not get tickets.

Ration coupons for all clothing and textiles must be exchanged in the next two days for new coupons.

But the new prices, with the definite impression that there will not be any wage increases to match them, will affect everybody.

Taxes will raise the price of bread one per cent, meat three cents a pound, and rationed gasoline to about $1.50 a gallon.

The old clothing coupon ration was 80 points. One overcoat took 80 points. A garment that was chiefly wood fiber used to cost about $35. Now a rationed overcoat will cost around $56, a free market overcoat about $192.

Two days ago Czechoslovakia began her new five year economic plan.

The country has not learned yet how high its prices will be.

The Czechoslovak radio tonight carried only some extracts of Dolansky's budget speech and referred to the new general tax, but no idea of the scale was given.

HUNGARY REPORTS BISHOPS IN PARLEY

BUDAPEST, Hungary, Jan. 5—(AP) The communist-controlled Hungarian government said today top government officials are negotiating with Hungary's Roman Catholic bishops.

A communique said only that the talks began yesterday "in the atmosphere of understanding in spite of existing difficulties."

Josef Cardinal Mindszenty is under arrest, charged with plotting against the government, spying, treason and black market dealings.

There was no statement from any of the bishops who the government said were taking part in the negotiations.

The Vatican has excommunicated all Hungarian Catholics who had a hand in Mindszenty's arrest. Hungary is 65 per cent Catholic.

The Vatican radio announced three days ago that the Holy See had rejected a Hungarian offer to negotiate a settlement of church-state differences in Hungary.

22 SEIZE PLANE, ESCAPE HUNGARY

JAN 1949

Say They Fled 'Communist Terror' In Their Country

Munich, Jan. 5 (AP)—A plane load of refugees made an aerial getaway from Hungary and said today they had fled from "Communist terror."

Twenty-two of those aboard a commandeered Hungarian National Airways liner which made a surprise landing here last night were in the escape plot. Three others said they want to go back to Hungary.

"We fled from constant Communist terror," said Capt. Janos Majoros, the pilot.

A passenger telling of life in Hungary said:

"Every noise at night . . . the ring of a doorbell, gave you panicky fear. You never knew if it was not the police."

Ordinary Flight

One refugee said that even persons who never belonged to any political party live in "constant" fear because Communists consider them "reactionary."

Majoros, a former Hungarian airline pilot, told how the escape was engineered. He and confederates boarded the plane ostensibly as ordinary paying passengers on its regularly scheduled flight from Pecs in southern Hungary to Budapest.

Once in the air, he took over the controls as prearranged with its regular pilot, Capt. Milos Kuhn, and flew the ship across the border, he said. The navigator and mechanic learned of the plan after the takeoff and agreed with the idea, Majoros said.

Life In Danger

In a telephone interview with an Associated Press correspondent in Frankfurt, Majoros said he planned the escape because his life was in danger for anti-Communist activities.

"It was a question of life or death to me to get out," he said. He told of hiding in the woods for two months while Hungarian secret police hunted him. He said he boarded the plane wearing a beard as a disguise.

Thirteen men, nine women and three children were in the aircraft.

Smuggled Out Of Hospital

"One of our friends was smuggled out of a hospital where he was suffering from pleurisy and put aboard the plane," Majoros said. "One of the women was a secretary in the Turkish Embassy in Budapest. She was constantly under police observation because she worked for a foreign power" and was afraid, he continued.

A physician, two engineers, two former Hungarian army officers and a bank director were with him in the plan, Majoros said.

The refugees are quartered temporarily at the Dachau displaced persons camp.

HUNGARIAN RADIO HITS MARSHAL TITO'S REGIME

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, Jan. 5—(AP) The radio in Budapest, Hungary, has added its voice to the campaign in Cominform countries against the regime of Premier Marshal Tito.

Budapest is beaming two programs daily toward Yugoslavia. Today's broadcasts repeated the original charges that Yugoslavia communists have become anti-Soviet.

Israeli Transport At Constanta

Bucharest, Romania, Jan. 5 (AP). The Israeli steamer the S.S. Pgarlin docked today at Constanta, Romanian Black Sea port, to pick up 1,500 Jewish emigrants. This will be the second group of Jews to leave since Christmas Eve, when the Israeli S. S. Atzimauth departed for Israel with 2,500 emigrants.

Russ Assail Danes For West Ties

Moscow, Jan. 5 (AP)—The Soviet trade union newspaper Trud today attacked Danish Social Democrats for "drawing the nation into the orbit of Anglo-American policy in Europe."

Commentator S. Maximov said the Danish Social Democrats were "protesting" the continued stationing of American troops in Greenland only as a matter of form.

Trud said secret talks were in progress concerning Denmark's entry into the North Atlantic Pact. (Soviet newspapers and commentators previously have warned other Scandinavian nations against entering into the proposed North Atlantic alliance which would link the United States and Canada with the anti-Communist nations of western Europe.)

CHINA REDS SHELL POSTS AT TIENTSIN

JAN 1949

Break War Lull After Rejecting Chiang's Peace Offer

Shanghai, Thursday, Jan. 6 (AP)—Chinese Communists began shelling Government positions around Tientsin today after they scornfully rejected Chiang Kai-shek's peace offer.

The artillery fire broke a two-week lull which had settled on China's far-flung battlefronts amid a rising clamor for peace. Chinese newspapers in Shanghai reported that the attack near Tientsin seemed to be mounting in intensity.

A Communist broadcast heard in Shanghai late Wednesday night had warned of the attack, declaring that "a general assault on besieged Peiping, Tientsin and Tangku (seaport for Tientsin) is imminent."

To Resume Air Service

From Peiping, Spencer Moosa, Associated Press correspondent, reported nothing more exciting than police beginning "a night-long checkup for what they called undesirable elements." He added, however, that small-scale clashes were reported on Peiping's outskirts.

Another indication that the lull at Peiping was not only continuing, but expected to last for some time, was an announcement in Shanghai that commercial air service to that ancient capital would be resumed.

The Chinese National Aviation Corporation said its regular service of four trips weekly would be resumed with the planes landing at the new Temple of Heaven Airfield inside the city. The Communist seized Peiping's south airfield about three weeks ago.

Possible Flight South

Meanwhile, Government officials in Nanking were reported packing again for possible flight southward. They were convinced that the Communist answer to President Chinag's peace offer, made on his terms, would be an emphatic "No."

The Communist broadcast heard here seemed to be directed to Communist armies in the Tientsin-Peiping area. It said:

"The Peoples' Liberation Armies are more than 3,000,000 strong now. The aim is final victory and complete destruction of the Kouming-tang reactionaries and expulsion of the forces of American aggression from China."

Government troops were told by the broadcast their safety and property would be "guaranteed if they surrender without injuring prisoners, civilians and without damaging their arms or any property in areas occupied."

To Fight To Finish

The broadcast from North China by the Communist New China News Agency, as heard by the newspaper Sin Wan Pao in Nanking, said President Chiang's New Year's Day peace-on-his-own terms speech was "delaying action."

The Chinese Communists, it added, "intend to maintain their original plan to fight to the finish."

[The Communist broadcast heard at San Francisco quoted a Communist commentator for the agency as saying that in 1949 Communist armies will cross the Yangtze into South China.

[The commentator said a "political consultative conference" will then meet "without the participation of reactionary elements" and organize a central government.

[Chiang "and the American imperialist force of aggression in China are in desperate need of a breathing spell," he asserted.

[The broadcast said Gen. Fu Tso-yi, commander in the north, was a "war criminal" but could atone by surrendering. He was told his life and possessions would be guaranteed if he gave up promptly].

MARINES TO MOVE, TSINGTAO HEARS

JAN 1949

To Quit Barracks At University, Editor Reports

Tsingtao, China, Thursday, Jan. 6 (AP)—A reliable Chinese journalist reported today that the United States Marines were preparing to leave their barracks at Shantung University, despite official denials.

Y. C. Jao, editor of the English language Tsingtao Peoples' Herald, reported that "the university is proceeding with preparations to take over on January 25."

"While both Navy and Marine were reticent on preparations for evacuation of shore billets, observers here felt the impending change reflected changing United States policy," Jao added.

Guam Transfer Expected

"Reports here," Jao said, "were that some Marines will remain afloat here but others will be transferred to Guam."

Jao said there are, at present, about 3,000 Marines here. More than 600 others are stationed afloat on the Shanghai riverfront.

Vice-Admiral Oscar C. Badger, commander of the Western Pacific Fleet, denied yesterday that the Marines would leave their billets at the university. He said he had terminated discussions about turning back to Chinese authorities the university property.

[Navy and Marine officials in Washington, questioned about the new reports, said they had no information other than Badger's denial that any evacuation was contemplated.]

Letter Called Error

Jao had reported the impending move Tuesday. After considerable time had elapsed, the Admiral issued a statement of denial.

[It was learned in Shanghai reliably Wednesday that a letter from the Marines to Chinese authorities in Tsingtao had advised the lease on the campus would be terminated on January 25. But some Navy officials said the letter was written "by error" and had been canceled.]

Expected For Some Time

"Indications are the Marine removal caused no panic among the townspeople in this city surrounded by Communists," Jao reported today.

"The hardest hit part of the population will be the several hundred Chinese civilian employés of the Marines plus merchants who deal exclusively with the Marines.

"Chinese officials, including the local garrison commander, said yesterday they had not been informed officially of the Marine evacuation of shore billets but had expected it for some time."

Li's Paper Assails U.S.

Hong Kong, Jan. 5 (AP)—The newspaper WenWei Pao, organ of the China Democratic League and Li Chi-shen's Kuomintang revolutionary committee, today declared that Chiang Kai-shek's peace move was the result of "American intrigues."

Li is a leader of anti-Chiang elements here.

The newspaper attacked what it described as "American imperialists and Chinese reactionaries" and said the Chinese peoples' revolution will continue "until successfully achieved."

Wen Wei Pao said the publishing of the Communst "war-criminals" list has shattered "all peace rumors." ADD

Pacific Services Seen Integrated

Pearl Harbor, Jan. 5 (A. P.).—Admiral Dewitt C. Ramsey said today that the security of the Pacific was in the hands of thoroughly integrated military organizations. The Pacific Fleet commander added that significant strides were made in the integration of Army, Air Force and Navy activities in the last year.

Dutch Sumatra Cease-Fire Is Ordered

Batavia, Java, Jan. 5 (AP) — The formal phase of the Dutch military campaign to regain control of the Republic of Indonesia ended today.

Lieut. Gen. Simon Spoor, commander of Dutch forces in Indonesia, ordered a cease-fire on Sumatra at noon.

He told his troops in an order of the day that their task hereafter would "be confined to action against roaming groups and gangs or individuals who try to cause disturbances."

The same terms were used in Spoor's order announcing that formal hostilities on Java had ended at midnight, New Year's Eve.

Had Informed Council

The Netherlands had informed the United Nations Security Council on December 29 that it would stop fighting in Java on New Year's Eve and in Sumatra two or three days later.

Several delegates at the time said the Dutch statement represented defiance of the Council's order for an immediate cease-fire in Indonesia.

Simultaneously, with Spoor's order, the Army announced it had cleared Republican Army troops from Benkoelen, a port on Sumatra's west coast which was the last major town still in Republican hands.

Informed sources in Batavia had predicted Monday that the cease-fire on Sumatra would be issued when Benkoelen fell.

Other Towns Cleared

The army communiqué said the Republican Army also had been cleared from two small towns on Sumatra and that "herewith operations on Sumatra ended."

The Sumatra cease-fire meant that, in the seventeen days since the Dutch began what they termed their "police action" against the Indonesian republic, they had penetrated all major centers of Java and Sumatra. They hold key outposts on all points of the islands, many of them linked by Dutch-held communication lines.

The Dutch now are faced with the problem of clearing up scattered units of the Republican army and combatting outbreaks of guerrilla activity.

Token Resistance

From both Dutch and Republican reports it appears that the initial Netherlands campaign on Sumatra met little more than the token resistance offered on Java.

As on Java, the Republican tactics had called for a withdrawal, avoiding frontal attacks, with guerrilla action developing later.

Fugitive Republican radio stations are already reporting guerrilla attacks in Java, but so far the Republicans have not made similar claims for Sumatra.

The reports of Republican activity also have been carried by Batavia newspapers and some of them have been borne out by later Dutch statements.

INDONESIANS VOW TO CONTINUE WAR FROM MOUNTAINS

HARRIS TACKSON

BATAVIA, Java, Jan. 5 (AP)—The Dutch ordered a cease-fire in all Indonesia today, but Republican guerrillas said they would still fight.

An order of the day, told Dutch troops to restrict their action in Sumatra to fighting "roaming groups, gangs or individuals who try to cause disorder." This was about the same language with which the Dutch had ordered a cease-fire on New Year's eve in Java, the other section of the Republic of Indonesia.

In Australia, an Indonesian official spokesman, Dr. R. Usman, said the Republican emergency government has instructed him to announce it will end guerrilla fighting only after the Dutch have met conditions which clearly are unacceptable at this time to the Netherlands.

Usman said the fugitive emergency government would call off the fighting only after the Dutch have done these things:

1. Released captive Indonesian leaders, including Dr. Soekarno, president of the republic, and its premier, Dr. Mohamed Hatta.

2. Withdrawn from positions they have seized in the fighting which started Dec. 19.

3. Recognized the Republicans' sovereignty over Java, Sumatra and Madoera.

4. Allowed a sovereign all-Indonesian government to take over the republic by democratic means without Dutch interference.

5. Agreed to withdraw Dutch forces from Indonesia as soon as possible after the all-Indonesian government has been formed, with guarantees that Netherlands economic interests would be properly protected. ADD

Burma, Ceylon Accept Role

NEW DELHI, India, Jan. 5 (AP)—Burma and Ceylon have accepted India's invitation to take part in a conference on Indonesia, the Foreign Ministry said today. The conference has been proposed tentatively for Jan. 10 or Jan. 16. It was called by the Prime Minister, Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru.

INDONESIANS OFFER A PEACE FORMULA

Sovereignty, Leaders' Release and Dutch Retirement Are Listed—U. S. Recalls Aide

JAN 1949

CANBERRA, Australia, Jan. 5 (AP)—An emergency Indonesian Republican Government laid down the conditions today under which it would cease its fight against Netherland forces in Java and Sumatra.

The peace offer, relayed through Dr. R. Usman, Republican Government representative, was hinged on withdrawal of Dutch troops to lines held before the recent fighting and recognition of Republican sovereignty over Java, Sumatra and Madura.

The statement released here by Dr. Usman came from Dr. S. Prawiranegara, Minister for Economic Affairs in the Cabinet of Premier Mohammed Hatta. Premier Hatta and other top Republican leaders have been interned by the Dutch.

Dr. Prawiranegara was identified as head of the emergency government. He issued the statement from "somewhere in Sumatra."

The Dutch already have ordered a formal cease-fire on Sumatra and Java.

The emergency government, in its statement, said it would issue a cease-fire order on Java and Sumatra and resume negotiations with the Dutch, under supervision of the United Nations Committee of Good Offices, under five conditions, including withdrawal by the Dutch to their lines of last Dec. 18 and recognition of the Republican sovereignty. The others were:

(1) Immediate release of Republican leaders held by the Dutch.

(2) Formation of an "All-Indonesian" Government, "arrived at by democratic means by the Indonesian people without Dutch interference."

(3) Withdrawal of the Dutch army from Indonesia as soon as possible after the All-Indonesian Government is formed.

U.S. COOL TO AID BEYOND 1952

Western European Plea Discouraged In Washington

Washington, Jan. 5 (AP)—Western Europe's plea for extension of the Marshall plan beyond 1952 is getting a cool reception here.

Richard M. Bissell, deputy assistant administrator of the Economic Co-operation Administration, predicted today that the Marshall plan will end on schedule. He told a news conference that western Europe had offered "no evidence" that the program should be continued beyond June 30, 1952.

Bissell, however, did not rule out long-term aid to individual countries, depending upon their needs. He cited Greece as one country that will need aid after 1952. He said that Greece is not alone in this category, but that it is too early to say which others will need similar assistance.

Report From Paris

The organization for European Economic Co-operation released a report in Paris yesterday saying that countries receiving aid under the ECA still will need as much as $3,000,000,000 a year after the Marshall plan comes to an end.

Bissell, who served as co-ordinator with the European countries in making the report, commented that it contained no evidence that the Marshall plan should be continued beyond four years.

"It is still very definitely my view that the European Recovery Program will end on schedule," he said.

In this connection he emphasized that he was not predicting the aid program will last four years. The year-to-year decision is up to Congress, he said.

Congress will be asked to provide about $4,347,000,000 to finance the program next year, Bissell said. This is the same figure mentioned by the participating European nations as their needs for the year.

Need For Exports

He listed the necessity of greater European industrial exports and the finding of low cost sources of food and raw materials as the greatest blocks to economic stability in Europe.

Participating European countries have done a "masterful job" in getting together to iron out economic differences, Bissell said.

Meanwhile, the ECA today approved $9,514,000 in new foreign aid grants to seven European countries, Western Germany and French North Africa.

But cutbacks in previous allotments of $10,360,000 resulted in a net decrease of $846,000 in the cumulative total of American funds earmarked for global recovery. This now stands at $4,253,248,000.

The Netherlands received the largest new approval, $2,477,000 for oil seeds, linseed oil and metallic ores from Latin America.

JAN 1949

End Of E.R.P. Seen On Schedule In '52

JAN 1949

Washington, Jan. 5 (AP)—A top Marshall-plan official said today that the general European Recovery Program "will end on schedule" in 1952 despite the plea of western Europe that it cannot stand alone on its economic feet by that time.

Richard M. Bissell, deputy assistant administrator of the Economic Co-operation Administration, made the forecast at a news conference.

"No Evidence" To Contrary

He implied that longer-term United States aid may be made available to individual countries, depending on their needs, but declared:

"It is still very definitely my view that the European Recovery Program will end on schedule."

"There is no evidence" in a report from ten European Marshall plan recipients that the program should be continued after June 30, 1952, Bissell said.

He referred to a long-range plan for European recovery released yesterday in Paris by the Organization for European Economic Co-operation. The report declared that the countries receiving American foreign aid under ECA still will need as much as $3,000,000,000 in assistance after the plan, as now constituted, comes to an end.

Bissell emphasized that his statement "does not imply that the European recovery program will last four years." He said the year-to-year operation of the Marshall plan is a decision that Congress must make.

ECA To Ask 4.3 Billions

To finance recovery next year, Bissell said ECA will ask Congress for about $4,347,000,000 "with certain adjustments yet to be made."

This figure was the same as recommended by the OEEC in its program submitted to United States aid officials.

Bissell said OEEC has made it clear that "many stumbling blocks" still lie in the path of economic stability in Europe. He listed two major problems.

These are the urgent needs of increasing European industrial exports and finding low-cost sources of supply for food and raw materials.

Hails "Masterful Job"

Bissell said the European recommendations contained no hint of defeatism. On the contrary, he asserted that the countries have done a "masterful job" in getting together to iron out economic differences.

"There will always be a shortage of dollars in parts of Europe," Bissell predicted. He said the goal of ECA is to make the shortage as small as possible by 1952.

Bissell cited Greece as a prime example of aid needed after 1952. "It is not the only country in Europe which still will need aid, but it is too early to determine which others will," he said.

Atomic Board Sets Up Strict Loyalty Check

Forrestal's Security Bill and House Inquiry Funds Facing Fight in House

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5 (AP).—The Atomic Energy Commission laid down today a tight list of loyalty checks for atomic workers.

The commission described it as a formal set of rules "for the guidance of the responsible officers of the commission in determining eligibility for personnel security clearance."

It listed nine "classes of derogatory information which establish a presumption of security risk" and nine more which would land a prospective worker in the suspicious class—where "the attitude or convictions of the individual must be weighed."

Other security developments found Representative Emanuel Celler, Democrat, of New York, indicating that a bill to tighten the secrecy guards around government codes may be in for a rough reception.

"Suspicious" of Classifying

The bill, sent to Capitol Hill by Secretary of Defense James Forrestal, was referred to the House Judiciary Committee. Representative Celler, who is due to head the committee, told a reporter, "I'm suspicious of these proposals based on 'classified information' without any indication as to who does the classifying." The bill would set a maximum fine of $10,000 and maximum imprisonment of ten years, or both, for handing over to "unauthorized persons" any "classified information" concerning codes or transmission devices used by the United States or any foreign country.

Also, the House Committee on Un-American Activities apparently faced an uphill fight for expense money for investigating spies. Representative Mary T. Norton, Democrat, of New Jersey, who has objected to previous requests from the group, is due to be chairman of the House Administration Committee, in charge of funds for inquiries. Mrs. Norton, who has showed no liking for the Un-American Activities Committee, told reporters: "My position toward the committee is unchanged."

Omission of Data Listed

The Atomic Energy Commission included in the first nine of its listed categories, besides such things as current membership in a subversive organization and evidence of previous sabotage or treason, insanity, drug or alcohol addiction, and the omission of "significant information" from a personal history statement.

The second category emphasized possible sympathy, identification or association with subversive individuals or groups—including the Communist party—as well as conscientious objection to military service, except for religious reasons.

In both categories, the commission said, the standards were to be applied to the individual's spouse, as well as to the prospective employee himself.

The agency said the list may be changed from time to time "to maintain the security of the project in a manner consistent with traditional American concepts of justice and rights of citizenship."

Asks "Common-Sense" Decision

It also reminded its officials that "the decision as to security clearance is an over-all, common-sense judgment, made after consideration of all the relevant information," adding that such decisions about any individual must balance "the cost to the program of not having his services against any possible risks involved."

High in the first, or more risky category, the commission mentioned association with foreign spies or "representatives of foreign nations whose interests may be inimical to the United States." But it cautioned against holding against a man "chance or casual meetings" or "normal business or official relations" with such persons.

"Residence of the individual's spouse, parent(s), brother(s), sister(s) or offspring in a nation whose interests may be inimical to the interests of the United States" was given as cause for inclusion in the second category.

ATOMIC GROUP ORDERS RIGID LOYALTY TEST

JAN 1949

Commission Lists Classes Of Facts Indicating Security Risk

Washington, Jan. 5 (AP)—Rigid loyalty tests for workers on atomic energy projects were prescribed today.

They are intended "to insure the most effective application of the policies designed to maintain the security of the project," the Atomic Energy Commission said.

The commission listed nine "classes of derogatory information which establish a presumption of security risk."

A second list, called Category B, named nine grounds "sufficient to establish a reasonable belief" of security risk.

Ordinarily Denied Clearance

Ordinarily, the commission said, persons coming within any of the eighteen classes will be denied "security clearance." This is essential to work for the commission or to have access to restricted data.

Persons coming within Category B, however, may be given "security approval." This means that they may be employed by contractors on jobs not involving access to restricted data.

The commission emphasized that responsible commission officials must base their security clearance decisions on "an overall, common-sense judgment, made after consideration of all the relevant information."

"If it is determined that the common defense and national security will not be endangered, security clearance will be granted; otherwise, security clearance will be denied," the commission said.

Commission May Be Basis

The Class A list—the most risky—listed current membership in a subversive organization and evidence of previous sabotage or treason, as well as insanity, drug or alcohol addiction, and the omission of "significant information" from personal history statements.

The second category emphasized possible sympathy, identification or association with subversive individuals or groups—including the Communist party—as well as conscientious objection to military service, except for religious reasons.

Residence of a near relative "in a nation whose interests may be inimical to the interests of the United States" was given as one reason for inclusion in the second category.

U.S. RECALLS JAVA DELEGATE

Gives Further Notice Of Disapproval Of Dutch Action

Washington, Jan. 5 (AP)—The United States today gave further notice of its disapproval of Dutch military action in Indonesia by recalling its delegate to a mediation group set up by the United Nations Security Council.

Announcing that H. Merle Cochran had been called home for "consultation," the State Department said:

"This move is occasioned by the recent action of the Netherlands Government in Indonesia, which abruptly interrupted the efforts of the committee of good offices to find through peaceful negotiations a satisfactory settlement of the three-year dispute between the Netherlands Government and the Indonesian Republic."

State Department authorities indicated that since the Dutch forces may hold the Republican leaders captive, the United Nations mediation group could serve no further useful purpose because only one side was left with whom it might try to negotiate a peaceful settlement.

For that reason, they said, Cochran's presence here was required for a first-hand report on the situation.

Other members of the mediation group are Belgium and Australia.

This is the second step taken by the United States to signify its opposition to the Dutch resort to arms which State Department officials have said might hamper efforts to block a Communist expansion drive in southeast Asia.

On December 22, only a few days after the Dutch forces opened their drive, the Economic Co-Operation Administration cut off recovery funds allotted to the Netherlands East Indies. These funds, totaling $68,000,000, were part of the Netherlands aid grant but earmarked for use in Indonesia. At the time of the cut-off all but about $14,000,000 of the money had been parceled out.

Fight Is Slated On Fund For Red Probe

JAN 1949

Washington, Jan. 5 (AP)—The House Un-American Activities Committee may be a bit hard up this year for expense money for investigating spies and Reds.

Representative Mary Norton (D., N.J.), who has objected to previous requests from the group, is due to be chairman of the House Administration Committee. As such, she will be in charge of doling out funds to finance any inquiries.

Mrs. Norton is no friend of the Un-American Activities Committee. And she told reporters:

"My position toward the committee is unchanged."

She wouldn't go beyond that because she hasn't been picked officially to run the Administration Committee.

May Get Some Cash

The probe committee will probably get some cash and will probably make some investigations. But the Administration is evidently bent on putting a crimp in some of its operations.

Under Republican control, the committee kept up a running feud with the Administration.

With the Republicans running Congress, the committee got $200,000 last year—the biggest amount in its ten-year history. As a matter of fact, it is giving back about $50,000 of the total.

Mrs. Norton battled the $200,000 in the Administration Committee. She tried to get the figure down to $50,000 or $100,000. And when that failed, she voted against any funds when the issue reached the House floor.

LOVETT CONFERS ON MOVES TO END WAR IN PALESTINE

JAN 1949

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5. — (AP) Under Secretary of State Lovett conferred today with British Ambassador Sir Oliver Franks on possible actions each country might take to bring about peace between the Jews and Arabs.

Sir Oliver declined to give reporters details of the conversation except to say: "We discussed the prospects of peace and looked at the chances of a cessation of hostilities."

The State department is reported to share at least partly, Britain's expressed fear that continued fighting in the Middle East might upset the political balance in some of the Arab countries.

During today's meeting the British envoy is reported to have mentioned the possibility of communist gains in the Arab nations in the event the present governments fell because of military defeats at the hands of Israeli forces.

The precise steps each country might take in the Jewish-Arab fighting was not revealed. But responsible informants said both countries are coming around to the view that perhaps they could and should do something jointly.

Any simultaneous action by Britain and the U. S. would be certain to have a far-reaching effect since the Arabs rely heavily on Britain for military and political support while Israel depends mainly on the United States.

The Lovett - Franks conference coincided with reports of new heavy fighting along the Egyptian-Israel frontier. The meeting also came just one day after the State department publicly disclosed it had appealed to Egypt and Israel to avoid any actions that might spread the fighting into other areas.

To back up this warning, the American charge d'affaires in Egypt called today upon King Farouk.

American representatives in Tel Aviv earlier had voiced the U. S. view to Jewish authorities. The State department denied, however, this was accompanied by a threat to withdraw recognition and cancel a contemplated American loan to Israel.

U. S. ENVOY CONFERS WITH EGYPTIAN KING

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5—(AP) The United States took to Egypt's King Farouk today a plea that the Arab states and Israel avoid enlarging the Palestine conflict.

Jefferson Patterson, U. S. charge d'affaire at Cairo, had an audience with the king. Diplomatic officials said the occasion was the new American effort to keep the Palestine situation under control and speed a settlement.

U. S. Recalls Cochran for Talks

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5 (AP)—The United States has recalled "for consultation" H. Merle Cochran, United States delegate to the United Nations Security Council's Committee of Good Offices in Indonesia.

In making the announcement, the State Department said:

"This move is occasioned by the recent action of the Netherlands Government in Indonesia, which abruptly interrupted the efforts of the Committee of Good Offices to find through peaceful negotiations a satisfactory settlement of the three-year dispute between the Netherlands Government and the Indonesian Republic."

Chiang's Peace Move 'Ridiculous', Reds Say

JAN 1949

San Francisco, Jan. 5 (AP)—The North Shensi Chinese Communist radio said today that the Reds would "carry the revolution to the very end."

The broadcast, heard here, referred to Chiang Kai-shek's peace overtures on New Year's as a "peace move aimed at preserving the Chinese reactionaries and American aggressive forces in China."

It was the first full account of Communist reaction to Chiang's statement.

"Truce Face" Exposed

The radio said: "The fact that China's No. 1 war criminal (the Communist appellation for Chiang Kai-shek) appealed for 'peace' is not only in itself ridiculous but further exposes the true face of these peace plots.

"It reveals that the Kuomintang (Government) regime is down but not yet completely out, and the American imperialist forces of aggression in China are in desperate need of a breathing spell."

Masters Are Irate

"Only a million and several hundred thousand Kuomintang combat troops remain to face a people's liberation army over 3,000,000 strong," the broadcast continued. "The Kuomintang's American imperialist masters are irate at their 'stooges'' inability to keep on 'stooging' for much longer.

"The people's war is approaching final victory, which means the complete destruction of the Kuomintang reactionaries and the expulsion of the forces of American imperialist aggression from China."

The radio said Communists were not convinced that "Chiang Kai-shek's bleating about peace" and "his statements that in the event of peace he would attach no importance to his own position," meant anything.

Kansas Couple Give Wheat For Foreign Aid

Dayton, Ohio, Jan. 5 (AP)—A gift of 3,000 bushels of wheat for overseas relief from a Kansas farm couple was announced today by CROP, the Christian Rural Overseas Program which is assembling train loads of food for shipment abroad.

The 3,000 bushel gift came from Mr. and Mrs. D. C. White, who live near Kingsdown in Ford county.

SPY JURORS HEAR ONE WHO WAS EXPELLED

Ex-Communist Bedacht Believes Party Ousted Him Unfairly

New York, Jan. 5 (AP)—Max Bednacht, expelled charter member of the American Communist party and a witness before a spy-hunting federal grand jury, said today he thought his expulsion was unfair.

Expelled last October 13 on his sixty-fifth birthday, after what he described as "a lifetime" in the party, Bedacht said his political beliefs "have not changed."

He declined to say why he was expelled but added: "Who would consider this punishment fair?"

Won't Divulge Testimony

Bedacht also declined to tell reporters anything about his testimony before the grand jury but said he had met Whittaker Chambers "at meetings."

He said he never knew "intimately" the former Time magazine editor and admitted former Communist.

He added that he did not know Alger Hiss, former State Department official who was indicted on perjury charges after Chambers told the House Un-American Activities Committee Hiss worked with the Communist underground.

Bedacht was a member of the old national committee of the American Communist party, former secretary of the party and former secretary of the International Workers Order.

Now Raises Chickens

He said he was "a witness who intends to tell the truth. I will not lie for or against anybody. I have not been asked any questions I have not wanted to answer."

He added that he is now "trying to make a living raising chickens" on a farm at Frenchtown, N.J.

Two unidentified witnesses also appeared before the grand jury, one of whom was about to talk to reporters when his wife angrily dragged him away.

The jury also heard more testimony today from Felix August Inslerman, engineer for the General Electric Company.

Worked In Plane Design

Neither Inslerman nor authorities have disclosed Inslerman's connection with the hearings.

An official of the Republic Aviation Company said Inslerman was employed by the firm from 1942 to 1946, when he went to General Electric.

The Republic official said Inslerman was one of the company's 1,500 engineers and worked on plans for the P-47 and for conversion of C-54 cargo planes to transports for Airlines.

He said Inslerman was employed on "no secret or confidential projects."

Employed In Baltimore

Previosuly, from 1938 to 1942, Inslerman worked for the Glenn L. Martin Company in Baltimore. An official there said tonight he left with a "good work record."

Now 38 and married, Inslerman started in the Baltimore aircraft firm's toolroom while attending night school at Johns Hopkins University, the official said.

He was graduated from Hopkins with an engineering degree in 1939 and was advanced to the Martin engineering department as a draftsman on the B-26 marauder.

NIGHT LEAD PALESTINE

BY ARTHUR GAVSHON

LONDON, JAN 5—(AP)—A HIGH GOVERNMENT SOURCE SAID TONIGHT BRITAIN MIGHT ASK THE U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL TO LIFT ITS EMBARGO ON ARMS SHIPMENTS TO ARAB COUNTRIES IF ISRAELI PATROL ACTION ON THE EGYPTIAN BORDER CONTINUES.

THE INFORMANT MADE THE STATEMENT AS MILITARY SPOKESMEN IN TEL AVIV DISCLOSED THAT JEWS IN A THREE-DAY INVASION OF EGYPT HAD STRUCK 30 MILES ACROSS THE BORDER AND REACHED THE BIG EGYPTIAN MILITARY BASE OF EL ARISH ON THE MEDITERRANEAN COAST.

LIFTING THE CURTAIN FOR THE FIRST TIME ON THE OPERATION, THE ISRAELI SPOKESMAN SAID RAIDING PARTIES KILLED OR WOUNDED SEVERAL HUNDRED EGYPTIANS AND CAPTURED OTHER HUNDREDS. HE ALSO SAID THEY DESTROYED OR CAPTURED LARGE AMOUNTS OF WAR MATERIALS AND HEAVILY DAMAGED AIRFIELDS IN THE AREA.

THE SPOKESMAN SAID THE RAIDERS HAD NOW WITHDRAWN FROM EGYPTIAN TERRITORY ACCORDING TO PLAN.

THE HIGH BRITISH GOVERNMENT INFORMANT SAID THERE WAS ABSOLUTELY "NO QUESTION" OF BRITAIN GOING TO WAR WITH ISRAEL, HOWEVER, AS SOME BRITISH NEWSPAPERS SUGGESTED. THE PRO-LABOR PAPER "REOPLE" LAST SUNDAY PRINTED A STORY UNDER THE HEADING, "BRITAIN IS NEAR WAR WITH ISRAEL" AND SAID BRITISH AMBASSADOR SIR OLIVER FRANKS HAD BLUNTLY WARNED THE UNITED STATES THAT THIS WAS SO LAST WEEK.

THE INFORMANT SAID THIS WAS "DISHONEST PROPAGANDA."

THE INFORMANT DISCLOSED, HOWEVER, THAT A SMALL BRITISH DETACHMENT HAS COME TO THE AREA AT AQABA IN TRANS-JORDAN, ADJOINING TERRITORY ALLOTTED TO ISRAEL UNDER THE U.N. PARTITION PLAN. BRITAIN NORMALLY DOES NOT HAVE A GARRISON AT AQABA, BUT SHE HAS A MUTUAL DEFENSE PACT WITH TRANS-JORDAN, AS WITH EGYPT.

AN ISRAELI SPOKESMAN IN TEL AVIV CHARGED LAST NIGHT THAT BRITAIN NOT ONLY HAD SENT TROOPS TO AQABA, BUT ALSO PLANES TO MAFRAK IN TRANS-JORDAN AND WAS HOLDING LANDING EXERCISES IN TRIPOLITANIA AGAINST SIMULATED ISRAELI RAIDERS.

BRITISH SPOKESMAN REFUSED COMMENT ON THESE LATTER CHARGES.

THE ISRAELI SPOKESMAN IN TEL AVIV CHARGED THAT BRITAIN WAS TRYING TO MANEUVER EGYPT INTO INVOKING THE BRITISH-EGYPTIAN MUTUAL DEFENSE PACT OF 1936.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCED IN WASHINGTON LAST NIGHT THAT THE ISRAELI GOVERNMENT HAD GIVEN ASSURANCES ALL ITS FORCES HAD BEEN WITHDRAWN FROM EGYPT.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT EXPLAINED THAT IT MADE REPRESENTATIONS TO THE JEWISH GOVERNMENT AFTER BRITAIN HAD WARNED THAT SHE MIGHT HAVE TO TAKE ACTION UNDER HER TREATY WITH EGYPT.

BRITISH DIPLOMATIC INFORMANTS HERE SAID THE AMERICAN COMMUNICATION TO ISRAEL CONTAINED A CLEAR STATEMENT THAT THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT MIGHT HAVE TO REVIEW ITS RELATIONS WITH ISRAEL.

WASHINGTON STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS SAID THE UNITED STATES MADE NO SUCH THREAT OF WITHDRAWING RECOGNITION OF THE ISRAELI GOVERNMENT.

PARIS, JAN 5-(AP)-WESTERN EUROPEAN PLANNERS CONTEMPLATED TODAY A GRIM ECONOMIC FUTURE AFTER AMERICAN AID ENDS IN 1952.

THE EUROPEAN ECONOMIC COOPERATION ORGANIZATION (OECC) RELEASED AN INTERIM REPORT FORECASTING HUGE DEFICITS FOR 1952-53, THE YEAR EUROPE IS SCHEDULED TO WALK ALONE ECONOMICALLY.

IN THAT YEAR, WITHOUT AMERICAN AID, THE 19 MARSHALL PLAN NATIONS FACE A DEFICIT OF $800,000,000, (M) THE REPORT FORESHADOWS.

HOWEVER, IT WARNS THAT WESTERN EUROPE MIGHT FIND ITSELF $3,000,000,000 (B) IN THE RED IN 1953 UNLESS IMPORT PROGRAMS ARE TRIMMED 10 TO 15 PER CENT.

THE LONG TERM REPORT WAS ISSUED TO GUIDE THE PARTICIPATING NATIONS AND TO SHOW THE AMERICAN CONGRESS THE PROBLEMS CONFRONTING THE JOINT FOUR-YEAR PROGRAM.

THERE WAS NO SPECIFIC SUGGESTION THAT U.S. AID BE MAINTAINED BEYOND THE FOUR YEARS OF THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PLAN. HOWEVER, THERE WERE HINTS FOUR YEARS OF PUMP-PRIMING WAS TOO SHORT A PERIOD.

THE OEEC SECRETARIAT CALLED UPON MEMBER GOVERNMENTS AND THEIR PEOPLE FOR GREATER SACRIFICES.

IT URGED THE NATIONS TO A GREATER DEVELOPMENT OF INTRA-EUROPEAN TRADE TO PROVIDE GOODS WHICH THEY CAN NO LONGER AFFORD TO BUY IN AMERICA.

THE REPORT SAID ALL 19 GOVERNMENTS INTEND TO PROMOTE "THE MAXIMUM PRACTICABLE FREEDOM" IN INTRA-EUROPEAN TRADE AND IN THE TRANSFER OF CURRENCY.

IT URGED THE DEVELOPMENT OF SUPPLY SOURCES WITHIN EUROPE TO SUBSTITUTE FOR COMMODITIES NOW IMPORTED FROM NORTH AMERICA TO SAVE SCARCE DOLLARS.

THE ORGANIZATION ALSO URGED MEMBERS TO GREATER SPECIALIZATION WITH A TWO-FOLD OBJECT: GREATER INCREASE IN INTRA-EUROPEAN TRADE AND IMPROVEMENT OF EUROPE'S COMPETITIVE POSITION IN THESE CERTAIN SPECIALIZED LINES. THIS, IT SAID, WAS THE ONLY WAY EUROPE COULD HOPE TO REGAIN PART OF ITS LOST MARKETS IN SOUTH AMERICA, THE FAR EAST AND MIDDLE EAST, NOW LARGELY HELD BY THE UNITED STATES.

BERLIN, JAN. 5-(AP)-EDWARD J. LADA'S COMPLICATED LOVE LIFE WAS ONLY ONE OF HIS TROUBLES TODAY.

THE FORMER PARATROOPER FROM NEWARK, N.J., WHO CRASHED THE SOVIET BLOCKADE OF BERLIN, WAS CHARGED WITH SEVEN OFFENSES IN A MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT.

HE WAS CHARGED WITH ENTERING GERMANY WITHOUT A PERMIT AND CROSSING THE BORDER OF THE U.S. ZONE IN VIOLATION OF MILITARY GOVERNMENT LAWS. A THIRD COUNT CONCERNED HIS ESCAPE FROM A MILITARY POLICE STOCKADE DEC. 16.

OTHER CHARGES WERE ILLEGAL POSSESSION OF U.S. CURRENCY, BRITISH

CURRENCY, U.S. MILITARY PAYMENT CERTIFICATES AND A MILITARY IDENTIFICATION CARD.

UNDER MILITARY GOVERNMENT REGULATIONS THE MAXIMUM PENALTIES FOR WHICH HE IS LIABLE ARE 10 YEARS IN PRISON AND A FINE OF $10,000. HE WAS ORDERED TO STAND TRIAL JAN. 14.

THE 28-YEAR-OLD VETERAN WAS ARRESTED WHEN HE WENT TO THE U.S. CONSULATE HERE IN AN ATTEMPT TO LEGALIZE HIS VISIT TO BERLIN. HE SAID HE HAD CRACKED THE BLOCKADE TO SEE RUTH PIECKI AND HIS TWO-YEAR-OLD DAUGHTER BY HER.

A PUBLIC TUG OF WAR FOR LADA'S AFFECTIONS THEN DEVELOPED BETWEEN MISS PIECKI AND A BLONDE GERMAN ACTRESS, URSULA SCHMIDT, WHO SAID SHE WAS THE REASON HE CAME TO BERLIN.

LADA WAVERED FOR A TIME. URSULA THEN TOLD HIM OFF VIA THE PUBLIC PRINTS AND LADA ANNOUNCED RUTH WAS HIS FINAL CHOICE. HIS LAST COMMUNIQUE, ISSUED DEC. 22, WAS TO THE EFFECT THAT HE WOULD GIVE UP HIS AMERICAN CITIZENSHIP, IF NECESSARY, TO STAY WITH RUTH AND HIS DAUGHTER.

MUNICH, GERMANY, JAN 5-(AP)-TWO AMERICAN MILITARY POLICE HAVE BEEN CONVICTED AND TWO ARRESTED IN WHAT THE U.S. ARMY DESCRIBES AS "THE FIRST MAJOR BRIBERY CASE INVOLVING MILITARY PERSONNEL IN THE EUROPEAN THEATER."

REVELATIONS BY A PRETTY FRAULEIN LED TO DISCOVERY OF WHAT AN ARMY SPOKESMAN SAID YESTERDAY "IS BELIEVED TO BE A GIGANTIC SYNDICATE" IMPORTING AMERICAN CIGARETTES INTO GERMANY ILLEGALLY.

"THE OPERATION IS SO LARGE THAT WHEN WE CONFISCATE THREE OR FOUR TRUCKLOADS OF CIGARETTES NO ONE CLAIMS THEM, NOR IS ANY COMPLAINT RECEIVED FROM THOSE WE BELIEVE TO BE AT THE TOP," THE SPOKESMAN SAID.

THE FRAULEIN WHOSE BOASTS CAUSED THE ARREST OF THE FOUR MP'S WAS IDENTIFIED BY THE ARMY AS YETTA WINTER, WHO "HAD ACCEPTED NUMEROUS EXPENSIVE GIFTS OF JEWELRY AND CLOTHING FROM HER GI LOVER."

SHE BOASTED TO OTHER MILITARY POLICE THAT HER BOY FRIEND, PFC. WILLIAM E. BROWN HAD NETTED APPROXIMATELY $40,000 IN CIGARETTE DEALS IN LITTLE MORE THAN A YEAR.

BROWN IS SCHEDULED TO GO ON TRIAL SOON IN AUSTRIA WITH SGT. ELMER K. BOGART ON CHARGES OF OFFERING A BRIBE. BOTH ARE MP'S STATIONED AT SALZBURG, AUSTRIA.

ALREADY CONVICTED OF ACCEPTING A BRIBE ARE CORP. JAMES E.SCHNEIDER AND PFC. ROSCOE E.STEPHENS, MILITARY POLICE STATIONED AT BERCHTESGADEN, HITLER'S OLD MOUNTAIN RETREAT ON THE GERMAN-AUSTRIAN BORDER.

SCHNEIDER WAS SENTENCED TO TWO AND ONE HALF YEARS AT HARD LABOR, STEPHENS TO ONE AND ONE HALF YEARS. BOTH WERE ORDERED DISHONORABLY DISCHARGED. (HOME ADDRESSES UNAVAILABLE.)

THE SPECIFIC DEAL INVOLVING THE FOUR MP'S CONCERNED A $1,000 BRIBE FOR ALLEGEDLY ALLOWING ABOUT 1,000 CARTONS OF CIGARETTES ACROSS THE BORDER FROM AUSTRIA TO GERMANY.

JAN 1949

A19

AN ARMY STATEMENT SAID THE WINTER WOMAN TOLD THIS STORY:

SHE WAS RIDING WITH BROWN FROM SALZBURG TO BERCHTESGADEN OCT. 25 IN A CAR LOADED WITH CIGARETTES, BOGART FOLLOWED IN ANOTHER CAR.

SCHNEIDER AND STEPHENS, ON PATROL ON THE GERMAN SIDE OF THE BORDER, STOPPED THEM. NOTING THE CIGARETTES, THEY ORDERED THE TWO GI'S FROM AUSTRIA TO FOLLOW THEM TO A POLICE STATION.

BROWN SUGGESTED THAT SCHNEIDER AND STEPHENS KEEP THE CIGARETTES AND LET THEM GO. WHEN THAT FAILED, HE OFFERED $1,000. HE TRANSFERRED THE TITLE OF HIS CAR TO SCHNEIDER AS SECURITY. TWO DAYS LATER, SCHNEIDER MET BROWN AND ACCEPTED THE MONEY FROM BROWN'S COMPANION, A DISPLACED PERSON WHO OWNED THE CIGARETTES.

A SPOKESMAN FOR THE PROVOST MARSHAL'S OFFICE GAVE THIS PICTURE OF THE OPERATIONS OF THE SYNDICATE:

THEY BUY CIGARETTES LEGITIMATELY IN THE U.S. AND SHIP THEM TO A "FREE ZONE" IN SWITZERLAND. GOODS IN "FREE ZONES" ARE NOT SUBJECT TO TAXES OR CUSTOMS UNTIL THEY REACH THE COUNTRY OF THEIR DESTINATION.

THE CIGARETTES THEN ARE CONSIGNED TO AMERICAN ADDRESSES IN AUSTRIA, NEAR THE GERMAN BORDER. THEY ARE CARRIED IN BOX CARS CONTAINING UP TO 9,600 CARTONS EACH.

THEY ARE SMUGGLED FROM AUSTRIA INTO GERMANY, WHERE THEY COMMAND HIGH PRICES.

vienna, jan. 5--(ap)--the u.s. army today took a swipe today at news reporting standards of a communist newspaper.

the communist "der abend" had a story tuesday about a shooting-stabbing incident in the american zone of austria last sunday.

said the army today in a statement:

JAN 1949

"the local communist press yesterday reported the non-existent shooting of an unnamed american soldier by an unidentified u.s. m.p. (military policeman) near hoersching, land upper austria, last sunday night after the unknown soldier allegedly stabbed another unidentified m.p, killing him."

"the only item in the story which is true," the army said, "is the fact that hoersching is in land upper austria."

this [redacted] way of running a newspaper, the army added, fits into a "longstanding policy of distortion of facts, vituperation and fanciful reporting."

SHANGHAI, JAN. 5-(AP)THE [redacted] COMMUNIST NEW CHINA NEWS AGENCY TODAY TORNED CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S PEACE OVERTURES A NATIONALIST "DELAYING ACTION" AND SAID THE REDS WOULD FIGHT ON "TO THE FINISH."
THE BROADCAST WAS PICKED UP IN NANKING BY THE NEWSPAPER SIN HUA JIH PAO. NO OTHER SOURCE REPORTED HEARING THE BROADCAST. THE FIRST MENTION BY THE YENAN RADIO OF CHIANG'S PEACE FEELER OF A FEW DAYS AGO.
NO COMMUNIST OFFICIAL OR ORGANIZATION WAS QUOTED BY THE RED NEWS AGENCY, WHICH, PRESUMABLY, MADE THE STATEMENT ON ITS OWN.
HOWEVER, COMPETENT SOURCES HERE AND ELSEWHERE TOOK THE BROADCAST TO MEAN THAT BOTH SIDES NOW MAY BE ENTERING INTO A FAVORITE CHINESE PASTIME -- BARGAINING.
MANY VIEW CHIANG'S ORIGINAL TERMS IN HIS YEAR END STATEMENT TO BE THE GOVERNMENT'S FIRST PRICE. THE COMMUNISTS, THEY SAY, ARE REACTING ACCORDING TO THE BEST CHINESE BUSINESS TRADITION BY SHOUTING NO INTEREST. THEY ARE IN A POSITION TO DO SO, FOR THEY HAVE THE UPPER HAND MILITARILY. IF SUCH IS THE PROCEDURE, WHEN CHIANG GETS DOWN TO HIS LAST PRICE THEN A BREAK MAY COME.

(NANKING REPORTS, LACKING OFFICIAL VERIFICATION, SAID THE GOVERNMENT'S CENTRAL CHINA COMMANDER, GEN. PAI CHUNG-HSI, HAD ORDERED HIS TROOPS IN THE PUKOW-PENGPU AREA TO RETURN TO HANKOW FOR MOVEMENT TO THE SOUTH. THE REPORTS INDICATED GENERAL PAI WAS DISSATISFIED WITH CHIANG'S NEW YEAR'S STATEMENT.
(THESE REPORTS, POSSIBLY INDICATING GENERAL PAI AND OTHER MEMBERS OF THE "KIANGSI PROVINCE GENERALS' CLIQUE" ARE MAKING READY FOR A SEPARATE SETTLEMENT WITH THE COMMUNISTS, SAID PAI WAS PREPARING TO MOVE HIS MAIN HEADQUARTERS SOUTHWARD FROM HANKOW. SINCE HIS 12TH ARMY GROUP WAS DESTROYED BY A COMMUNIST ENCIRCLEMENT SOUTHWEST OF SUHSIEN, THE ONLY IMPORTANT TROOPS UNDER HIS COMMAND IN THIS AREA FORM THE 20TH ARMY.)

NEWSPAPERS IN SHANGHAI AND NANKING TURNED THE BLAST OF THEIR PEACE OFFENSIVE ON THE GOVERNMENT. SEVEN MORE PUBLIC ORGANIZATIONS IN SHANGHAI SENT MESSAGES TO YENAN AND NANKING URGING THE BELLIGERENTS TO COME TO TERMS.
THE PEACE CLAMOR HAS SPREAD GENERALLY OVER THE WHOLE COUNTRY WITH NATIONALIST PLANES REPORTEDLY DROPPING LEAFLETS ON COMMUNISTS TROOPS IN NORTH CHINA ASKING THEM TO STOP FIGHTING AND TALK PEACE. ONLY AROUND TIENTSIN, A CITY OF 2,000,000, WAS ANY HOSTILITY REPORTED. THAT WAS ONLY MINOR.
A REPORT THAT UNITED STATES MARINES BASED AT TSINGTAO WOULD MOVE FRO SHORE BASES TO SHIPS IN THE HARBOR CROPPED UP AGAIN. VICE ADM. OSCAR C.BADGER, COMMANDER OF U.S. NAVAL FORCES IN THE WESTERN PACIFIC, SAID HE HAD TERMINATED DISCUSSIONS WITH CHINESE AUTHORITIES ABOUT TURNING BACK SHANTUNG UNIVERSITY PROPERTY USED AS A BILLET FOR 3,000 MARINES. HE DID NOT SAY HOW FAR THE DISCUSSIONS HAD PROGRESSED.
LEADING THE NEWSPAPER DEMAND FOR "AN END TO THE WEEK LONG STALEMATE" IN PEACE NEGOTIATIONS WAS TUNG NAN JIH PAO, A KUOMINTANG (GOVERNMENT) PARTY ORGAN, WHICH SAID:
"HOW CAN THE ADMINISTRATION RESORT TO SUCH PROCRASTINATION IN THE FACE OF THE PRESENT CRITICAL SITUATION? IT IS MAKING ITSELF THE LAUGHING STOCK OF THE PEOPLE."
THE AMERICAN OWNED SHANGHAI EVENING POST MERCURY SAID THAT CHIANG'S NEW YEAR MESSAGE WAS "MERELY PROVOCATIVE."
(CHIANG SAID, IN EFFECT, IT WAS UP TO THE COMMUNISTS TO LAY DOWN THEIR ARMS IF A PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT WERE TO BE ACHIEVED.)
"SOMETHING MORE POSITIVE MUST COME OUT OF NANKING IF WE ARE NOT TO HAVE A CONTINUATION OF TALK AND MORE TALK ADDING UP TO INDEFINITELY PROTRACTED HORSE TRADING.

A PLAN TO PUT THE 3,000 MARINES STATIONED AT TSINGTAO ABOARD SHIPS HAS BEEN STUDIED BY NAVAL AUTHORITIES.

IT WAS FELT HERE THAT MOVEMENT OF THE TSINGTAO MARINES FROM LAND BASE TO SHIP WAS IN LINE WITH THE POLICY ADOPTED AT SHANGHAI WHERE 600 ODD U.S. MARINES WERE SENT LAST MONTH. THESE MARINES ARE STILL ABOARD SHIP IN THE WHANGPOO RIVER BUT SHORE PARTIES ARE PERMITTED.

ASSOCIATED PRESS CORRESPONDENT HAROLD K.MILKS IN NANKING SAID MANY ARE CONVINCED CHIANG WILL MOVE TO FORMOSA OR TO CANTON ON THE SOUTH COAST TO CONTINUE FIGHTING WHATEVER COMMUNIST-DOMINATED COALITION GOVERNMENT MAY GET UP IN NANKING.

NANKING, JAN. 5-(AP)-A CHINESE SOURCE WITH CONNECTIONS CLOSE TO THE GOVERNMENT SAID TODAY CHIANG KAI-SHEK HAD ORDERED THE REMOVAL OF GOVERNMENT RECORDS, PROPERTY AND PERSONNEL SOUTHWARD TO CANTON AND FORMOSA.

THIS WAS TAKEN AS EVIDENCE BY MANY THAT THE CHINESE PRESIDENT AND GOVERNMENT LEADERS DID NOT EXPECT A FAVORABLE REACTION FROM HIS PEACE ON HIS OWN TERMS -- PROPOSAL TO THE COMMUNISTS.

PREMIER SUN FO, PRESIDING AT A WEEKLY CABINET MEETING, SAID THE GOVERNMENT HAD RECEIVED NO REACTION FROM THE COMMUNISTS TO PEACE PROPOSALS AND WAS "QUIETLY AWAITING THEIR CONSIDERATION."

TWO DAYS AFTER CHIANG'S STATEMENT ON PEACE, HE PERSONALLY ORDERED TECHNICIANS AND FOUR FACTORIES OPERATED IN NANKING BY THE GOVERNMENT'S NATIONAL RESOURCES COMMISSIONREMOVED TO FORMOSA, A RELIABLE SOURCE SAID.

WHEN THE QUESTION OF FUNDS FOR DISMANTLING, SHIPMENT AND ASSEMBLY OF MACHINERY OF THE FOUR PLANTS WAS RAISED CHIANG GAVE AN ORDER ON THE FINANCE MINISTRY FOR 60,000,00 (M) GOLD YUAN, THIS SOURCE SAID.

IT WAS CONSIDERED SIGNIFICANT THAT HE ACTED PERSONALLY WITHOUT TAKING THE MATTER THROUGH THE EXECUTIVE YUAN WHICH NORMALLY ACTS ON SUCH MATTERS. THE EQUIPMENT AND TECHNICIANS ARE SCHEDULED TO BE LOADED BY JAN. 10 FOR SHIPMENT TO FORMOSA.

THE EXECUTIVE YUAN, IT WAS LEARNED, HAS DIRECTED GOVERNMENT MINISTRIES TO PACK UP CERTAIN ARCHIVES AND VALUABLE EQUIPMENT FOR SHIPMENT SOUTH BY JAN. 12. A SHORTAGE OF FUNDS MAY DELAY THE SHIPMENTS.

MANY PEOPLE HERE ARE CONVINCED THAT CHIANG WILL NOT MAKE A CLEAR BREAK FROM THE NATIONAL GOVERNMENT IF THAT IS THE PRICE OF COMMUNIST PARTICIPATION IN PEACE TALKS. INSTEAD, THEY EXPECT HIM TO MOVE SOME PART OF HIS SUPPORTERS TO FORMOSA OR CANTON WITH A VIEW OF FIGHTING WHATEVER COMMUNIST DOMINATED COALITION THE GOVERNMENT MIGHT SET UP HERE.

PALESTINE

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

CAIRO, EGYPT, JAN 5-(AP)-EGYPTIAN STATEMENTS INDICATED TODAY A RENEWAL OF THE BATTLE FOR CONTROL OF THE NEGEV DESERT AREA AND PALESTINE'S SOUTHERN COAST.

THE GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCED ISRAELI TROOPS STRUCK AT MIDNIGHT MONDAY AGAINST FORWARD POSITIONS TOWARD RAFA AFTER WEEKEND BOMBARDMENT OF GAZA AND KHAN YUNIS, TWO EGYPTIAN-HELD CITIES WITHIN THE PALESTINE COASTAL SALIENT WHICH THE UNITED NATIONS ALLOTTED TO THE ARABS.

THE FIRST THRUST TOWARD RAFA, AN EGYPTIAN AIR BASE ON THE PALESTINE FRONTIER THREE MILES FROM THE MEDITERRANEAN, WAS REPULSED, BUT THE BATTLE IS CONTINUING, THE WAR MINISTRY ANNOUNCED. EGYPTIAN WARPLANES STRAFED 45 ISRAELI ARMORED VEHICLES, IT SAID, AND BURNED A MAJORITY OF THEM.

FOREIGN MINISTER BESSOUKI ABAZA PASHA REPORTED FIGHTING IN THE NEGEV DESERT, WHICH ADJOINS THE COASTAL STRIP, INCREASED IN WEIGHT YESTERDAY. HE SAID THE EGYPTIAN POSITION IS SATISFACTORY. THE NEGEV SITUATION HAD APPEARED TO EASE LAST WEEK AFTER A SHARP EXCHANGE OF BLOWS.

THE FOREIGN OFFICE SAID JEWS BOMBARDED GAZA FROM THE SEA SATURDAY NIGHT AND BOMBED BOTH GAZA AND KHAN YUNIS FROM THE AIR BOTH SATURDAY NIGHT AND SUNDAY, CAUSING MANY CASUALTIES AMONG INHABITANTS AND ARAB REFUGEES. U.N. OBSERVERS WERE QUOTED AS SAYING 30 PERSONS WERE KILLED AND 75 WOUNDED IN KHAN YUNIS, THE SMALLER OF THE TWO CITIES.

THESE REPORTS OF ACTION ON THE SOUTHERN FRONT WERE ACCOMPANIED BY A COMMUNIQUE FROM BAGHDAD GIVING THE IRAQI VERSION OF A CLASH OF JEWISH AND IRAQI SOLDIERS AT TIRA AND KUFISH, JUST NORTHWEST OF THE ARAB HIGHWAY CENTER OF QALQILYE, ON THE CENTRAL FRONT.

"IN SPITE OF HEAVY ATTACKS BY ZIONIST TROOPS, SUPPORTED BY HEAVY SHELLING AND MACHINEGUN FIRE, OUR UNITS FORCED THE ENEMY TO RETREAT, LEAVING BEHIND HEAVY LOSSES," THE COMMUNIQUE SAID.

A TEL AVIV ACCOUNT YESTERDAY SAID BOTH SIDES SUFFERED CASUALTIES WHEN AN ISRAELI FORCE HUNTING ARAB RAIDERS HAD A BRUSH WITH IRAQI REGULARS IN THAT AREA.

Cairo, Egypt, Jan. 5----Egyptian statements indicated today a revival of the battle for control of the Negev desert area and Palestine's southern coast.

JAN 1949

The government announced Israeli troops struck at midnight Monday against forward positions toward Rafa after weekend bombardment of Gaza and Khan Yunis, two Egyptian-held cities within the Palestine coastal salient which the United Nations allotted to the Arabs.

The first thrust toward Rafa, an Egyptian air base on the Palestine frontier three three miles from the Mediterranean, was repulsed, but the battle is continuing, the war ministry announced. Egyptian warplanes strafed 45 Israeli armored vehicles, it said, and burned a majority of them.

Foreign Minister Dessouki Abaza Pasha reported tank fighting in the Negev desert, which adjoins the coastal strip, increased in weight yesterday. He said the Egyptian position is satisfactory. appeared to exchange of blows.

The foreign office said bombarded Gaza from the sea Saturday night and bombed both Gaza and both Khan Yunis from the air Saturday night and Sunday, causing many casualties among Arab inhabitants and/refugees. U.N. observers were quoted as saying 30 persons were killed and 75 wounded in Khan Yunis, the smaller of the two cities

HAWAIIAN ROUNDUP (250) JAN 1949
BY LYLE ERICKSON
KAHULUI, MAUI, JAN. 5-(AP)-ROUNDUP TIME IN TEXAS WAS NEVER LIKE THIS--A HAWAIIAN CATTLE ROUNDUP OF WHITE FACED HEREFORDS FOR GUAM.
CATTLE RANCHING IS BIG BUSINESS IN HAWAII. IN THE MOVIES, CATTLE HAVE TO SWIM OUT TO A SHIP TO GET HOISTED ABOARD. BUT THE COW PUNCHING WORK ON THIS SHIPMENT OF 144 HEREFORD HEIFERS TO GUAM WAS SLICK, SMOOTH AND UN-HOLLYWOOD.
IT TOOK THREE HOURS TO LOAD THE CATTLE ABOARD THE CHICOT, A 2,500-TON NAVY FREIGHTER. THE HEIFERS WENT ABOARD IN WOODEN PENS, SIX TO A PEN. THE PENS THEN WERE BOLTED TO THE DECK AS A PRECAUTION AGAINST A HEAVY SEA.
TWO SHIP BOOMS AND A DOCK CRANE SET THE EMPTY PENS ON CARGO PALLETS ON THE DOCK. THEN THE ULUPALAKUA RANCH COWBOYS BACKED TWO-TON STOCK TRUCKS AGAINST THE PENS.
WITH STICKS GIVING OFF LIGHT SHOCKS FROM FLASHLIGHT BATTERIES, THE NOTORIOUS COWHANDS ENCOURAGED THE HEIFERS TO MAKE A QUICK TRANSFER FROM TRUCK TO PEN. THEN THE PENS WERE HOISTED TO THE CHICOT' DECK.
THE VOYAGE TO GUAM WILL TAKE 14 DAYS.
THE CATTLE SHIPMENT IS INTENDED TO REHABILITATE GUAM'S BEEF. GUAM NOW HAS BEEF THAN 4,000 CATTLE. BEFORE THE WAR, THE ISLAND HAD ABOUT 10,000 -- AND EVEN THAT WASN'T ENOUGH.
EDWARD D. D. BALDWIN, MANAGER OF THE 64,000-HEAD ULUPALAKUA RANCH, GOT 30 CENTS A POUND, OR ABOUT $135 A HEAD, FOR THE HEREFORDS DELIVERED AT DOCKSIDE.
ANTONIO I. CRUZ, AGRICULTURAL ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT HANDLING THE SHIPMENT FOR THE GUAM GOVERNMENT, SAID THE CATTLE WOULD BE SOLD TO GUAM FARMERS AT ABOUT $230 A HEAD.
"THE NAVY'S NOT CHARGING A THING FOR SHIPPING," CRUZ EXPLAINED, "BUT THERE'S QUITE A COST IN THOSE PENS AND IN THE FEED."
IT IS THE FIRST CATTLE CONSIGNMENT TO GUAM SINCE THE WAR.
SKIPPER JOSEPH C. MEREDITH OF SAN FRANCISCO SAID THE CHICOT ALSO IS CARRYING TO GUAM SOME TURKEYS, BREADFRUIT AND OTHER TROPICAL PLANTS.

INDIA CALLED THE CONFERENCE. IT IS SCHEDULED TO BE HELD AT ALLAHABAD LATER THIS MONTH.

SEVERAL NEWSPAPERS AND POLITICAL OPPONENTS OF THE GOVERNMENT HAVE BEEN ASKING FOR A CLEAR STATEMENT ON AUSTRALIAS' POLICY.
IMMIGRATION MINISTER ARTHUR CALWELL HAS SAID IN EFFECT THAT HE IS 100 PERCENT BEHIND THE NATION'S WHITE AUSTRALIA POLICY. THIS POLICY IS DIRECTED AT KEEPING ASIATICS AND OTHER COLORED PEOPLE OUT OF THE COUNTRY.
MANY AUSTRALIANS ARE SAYING THAT THIS POLICY IS BEING WEAKENED BY THE GOVERNMENT'S SUPPORT FOR INDONESIA.
JAN 1949
THESE CRITICS SAY IT WOULD BE GOOD STRATEGY ON AUSTRALIA'S PART TO TRY TO STRENGTHEN THE DUTCH POSITION IN INDONESIA. THEY SAY THAT THIS WOULD HELP TO KEEP AUSTRALIA WHITE. THEY SAY THE HOLLANDERS IN INDONESIA ARE A BUFFER BETWEEN AUSTRALIA AND ASIA.
THERE ARE 1,000,000,000 (B) COLORED PEOPLE SPREAD ALONG A GREAT ARC NORTHWEST OF AUSTRALIA. HERE IN THIS COUNTRY OF NEARLY 3,000,000 (M) SQUARE MILES, THERE ARE ONLY 7,500,000 (M) WHITES.
DOCK WORKERS HAVE REFUSED TO WORK DUTCH SHIPS BOUND FOR INDONESIA, AND SEAMEN HAVE REFUSED TO MAN TUGS TO ASSIST THE SHIPS IN MANEUVERING.
THIS POLICY HAS NOT BEEN APPROVED BY THE GOVERNMENT, BUT THERE HAS BEEN NO ORDER FROM THE GOVERNMENT TO CEASE SUCH ACTIVITIES.
MOST NEWSPAPERS STRONGLY CRITICISED THE ANTI-DUTCH COMMENTS MADE BY AUSTRALIAN COLONEL W.R. HODGSON BEFORE THE SECURITY COUNCIL.
SOME HAVE URGED THAT THE GOVERNMENT DECLINE THE INVITATION TO ATTEND THE INDIAN CONFERENCE.

HOLLAND'S PRIME MINISTER WILLEM DREES ALREADY IS EN ROUTE HERE TO SUPERVISE THE ORGANIZATION OF A UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA WITHIN THE DUTCH EMPIRE--A PLAN ON WHICH REPUBLICANS HAVE BEEN UNABLE TO AGREE WITH THE DUTCHM

THE DUTCH CEASE-FIRE WAS ISSUED BY LT. GEN. SIMON SPOOR, COMMANDER IN CHIEF OF THE DUTCH ARMY, 11 DAYS AFTER THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL HAD ORDERED IT.

IT WAS ISSUED ONLY AFTER HOLLAND'S TROOPS HAD COMPLETED THEIR OCCUPATION OF ALL THE PRINCIPAL INDONESIAN TOWNS. A COMMUNIQUE ANNOUNCED SEIZURE OF BENKOELEN, A WEST COAST PORT IN SUMATRA WHICH WAS THE LAST STRONGHOLD OF REPUBLICAN FORCES. THE ARMY SAID INDONESIAN TROOPS ALSO HAVE BEEN CLEANED OUT OF TWO SMALL TOWNS.

DUTCH FORCES NOW CONTROL EVERY MAJOR POINT IN SUMATRA, AS WELL AS IN JAVA AND MADOERA, AND HOLD THE LAND COMMUNICATION LINES WHICH CONNECT THEM.

HOWEVER, THEY STILL FACE THE PROBLEM OF GUERRILLA HIT AND RUN RAIDS WHICH THE REPUBLICANS SAID THEY WOULD NEVER STOP UNTIL THEY HAVE RE-ESTABLISHED THEIR NOW TOPPLED REPUBLIC. BOTH DUTCH AND INDONESIAN REPORTS INDICATED THE OCCUPATION OF THE MAIN CENTERS IN SUMATRA WAS ACCOMPLISHED WITH LITTLE MORE RESISTANCE THAN THE POORLY ARMED INDONESIANS OFFERED ELSEWHERE.

JAN 1949

THE REPUBLICANS' STRATEGY HAS BEEN TO AVOID MAJOR BATTLES AND DISPERSE THEIR FORCES, WITH THE IDEA OF RALLYING THEM AGAIN AT PRE-ARRANGED POINTS TO CARRY ON HARASSING GUERRILLA ATTACKS.

(AUSTRALIA, BURMA AND CEYLON ANNOUNCED THEY WOULD SEND REPRESENTATIVES TO A CONFERENCE OF ASIAN COUNTRIES CALLED BY INDIA TO CONSIDER THE CASE. DEFENSE MINISTER JOHN DEDMAN OF AUSTRALIA SAID HIS COUNTRY'S REPRESENTATIVES WILL EXPLORE WAYS BY WHICH A SETTLEMENT CAN BE WORKED OUT THROUGH UNITED NATIONS FACILITIES, AND REPORT BACK TO THEIR GOVERNMENT. HE ADDED THAT "IF THE SECURITY COUNCIL ACTS IN SUCH A WAY AS TO MAKE THE CONFERENCE UNNECESSARY" AUSTRALIA MIGHT NOT PARTICIPATE.)

(380) MILITARY ALLIANCE

JAN 1949

BY DON WHITEHEAD

WASHINGTON, JAN.5-(AP)-THE PROPOSED NORTH ATLANTIC DEFENSE ALLIANCE IS DUE FOR A THOROUGH GOING-OVER IN CONGRESS.

THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE PLANS A FORMAL STUDY OF THE PACT, WHICH WOULD BIND THE UNITED STATES AND CANADA TO FIVE--AND LATER MORE--EUROPEAN NATIONS IN A TIGHT DEFENSIVE WALL AGAINST COMMUNISM.

A COMMITTEE MEMBER WHO ASKED NOT TO BE QUOTED BYNAME SAID THE SENATORS HAVE THEIR OWN IDEAS ABOUT THE FORM THE ALLIANCE SHOULD TAKE. HE REPORTED THAT THE COMMITTEE PLANS TO STUDY THE ENTIRE PROJECT LATE THIS MONTH.

SENATOR CONNALLY (D-TEX), SLATED TO HEAD THE POWERFUL FOREIGN RELATIONS GROUP, HAS BEEN MEETING WITH UNDER SECRETARY OF STATE LOVETT AND OTHER STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS TO DISCUSS THE PROPOSED ALLIANCE.

"OUR TALKS HAVE BEEN ENTIRELY PRELIMINARY," CONNALLY SAID. "WE HAVE DISCUSSED ONLY THE BROAD OUTLINES OF THE PROPOSED AGREEMENT AND HAVE NOT GOTTEN DOWN TO DETAILS YET."

SENATOR LODGE (R-MASS) ALSO A COMMITTEE MEMBER SAID HE WANTS A "CAREFUL LOOK" AT ANY PROPOSALS MADE BY THE NEGOTIATORS NOW AT WORK ON A DRAFT OF THE DEFENSE PLAN.

"I HAVE A GREAT MANY QUESTIONS I WANT ANSWERED BEFORE I CAN SAY I'LL BE IN FAVOR OF IT," HE TOLD A REPORTER.

THERE WAS TALK FOR A TIME THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN MIGHT EFFECT UNITED STATES ENTRY INTO THE PACT BY EXECUTIVE AGREEMENT WITH THE NORTH ATLANTIC COUNTRIES--GREAT BRITAIN, FRANCE, THE NETHERLANDS, CANADA, BELGIUM AND LUXEMBOURG--WITHOUT THE FORMALITY OF SENATE APPROVAL.

BUT SINCE THE ALLIANCE IS EXPECTED TO BE FAIRLY FAR-REACHING, THAT SUGGESTION WAS REPORTED TOSSED ASIDE TO AVOID ANY REACTION IN THE SENATE, WHICH NORMALLY MUST APPROVE TREATIES.

MEMBERS OF THE FOREIGN RELATIONS GROUP HAVE MADE IT ABUNDANTLY CLEAR THAT THEY WANT TO CHECK THE AGREEMENT BEFORE THE UNITED STATES SIGNS UP.

"UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES;" ONE SENATOR SAID, "WILL ANY TREATY PROVIDE THAT WE AUTOMATICALLY GO TO WAR IN CASE A MEMBER OF THE ALLIANCE IS ATTACKED." HE POINTED OUT THAT THE CONSTITUTION RESERVES FOR CONGRESS THE RIGHT TO DECLARE WAR.

HE ALSO INDICATED THAT THE COMMITTEE WILL EXAMINE CLOSELY THE COST OF THE ALLIANCE TO THE UNITED STATES.

JAN 1949

"THIS COUNTRY IS NOT GOING TO UNDERWRITE A MILITARY PREPAREDNESS PROGRAM," THE SENATOR SAID. "IT MUST BE A JOINT EFFORT."

A FIGURE OF $1,000,000,000 (B) HAS BEEN MENTIONED AS THE LIKELY INITIAL COST OF SUCH A PACT TO THE UNITED STATES. BUT THE COST WILL NOT BE KNOWN UNTIL THE ALLIANCE IS DRAFTED AND ITS NEEDS ARE STUDIED.

THERE IS STRONG SENTIMENT, THE COMMITTEE MEMBER SAID, AGAINST THROWING THE ALLIANCE OPEN TO ANY AND ALL NATIONS--REGARDLESS OF THEIR STRENGTH. HE SAID EACH NATION IS EXPECTED TO BE AN ASSET AND NOT A LIABILITY IN EVENT OF WAR.

WASHINGTON,JAN. 5-(AP)-THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION TONIGHT ASSUMED DIRECTION OF THE UNITED STATES' $125,000,000 (M) RECOVERY PROGRAM FOR THE NEW REPUBLIC OF KOREA.

ECA CHIEF PAUL G.HOFFMAN ANNOUNCED THE MOVE LESS THAN TWO HOURS AFTER PRESIDENT TRUMAN ORDERED ECA TO TAKE OVER FROM THE ARMY THE RESPONSIBILITY FOR AMERICAN AID OPERATIONS IN THE INFANT FAR EASTERN NATION.

KOREA IS SPLIT IN TWO POLITICALLY AT THE 38TH PARALLEL OF LATITUDE. THE SEAT OF THE REPUBLIC IS AT SEOUL, IN THE SOUTHERN PORTION. A SOVIET PUPPET STATE HAS BEEN SET UP IN THE NORTH.

ECA SAID THE SWITCH IN CONTROL OVER THE RECOVERY PROGRAM IS RETROACTIVE TO JANUARY 1. FOR THE PRESENT, THE RECOVERY AGENCQ SAID IT WILL CONTINUE THE RELIEF AND REHABILITATION PROGRAM SET UP BY THE ARMY

THERE WAS NO ESTIMATE OF THE FUNDS REMAINING FROM THE $125,000,-000 ALLOCATED FOR KOREA THROUGH NEXT JUNE 30

HOFFMAN ESTIMATED LAST MONTH WHEN HE RETURNED FROM AN AROUND-THE-WORLD TRIP INCLUDING KOREA, THAT THE RECOVERY EFFORTS PLANNED BY ECA THERE WILL COST ABOUT $100,000,000 ANNUALLY.

HE ALSO TOLD REPORTERS THAT "KOREA MAY WELL BECOME THE BASTION OF DEMOCRACY IN THE FAR EAST." HE DID NOT ELABORATE, BUT THE CRUMBLING POSITION OF CHINA IN THE FACE OF COMMUNIST PRESSURE, TIED IN WITH HIS STATEMENT, WOULD INDICATE MOUNTING U.S. INTEREST IN THE KOREAN REPUBLIC.

WASHINGTON,JAN.5-(AP)-REP.CELLER (D-NY) INDICATED TODAY THAT A BILL TO TIGHTEN THE SECRECY GUARDS AROUND GOVERNMENT CODES MAY BE IN FOR A ROUGH RECEPTION.

THE BILL, SENT TO CAPITOL HILL BY SECRETARY OF DEFENSE FORRESTAL, WAS REFERRED TO THE HOUSE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE. CELLER, WHO IS DUE TO HEAD THE COMMITTEE, TOLD A REPORTER HE HADN'T SEEN THE MEASURE UP TO LAST NIGHT, BUT --

"I'M SUSPICIOUS OF THESE PROPOSALS BASED ON 'CLASSIFIED INFORMATION' WITHOUT ANY INDICATION AS TO WHO DOES THE CLASSIFYING."

HE SAID THE BILL "WILL HAVE TO BE SCRUTINIZED CAREFULLY."

IT WOULD SET A MAXIMUM FINE OF $10,000 AND MAXIMUM IMPRISONMENT OF 10 YEARS, OR BOTH, FOR HANDING OVER TO "UNAUTHORIZED PERSONS" ANY "CLASSIFIED INFORMATION" CONCERNING CODES OR TRANSMISSION DEVICES USED BY THE UNITED STATES OR ANY FOREIGN COUNTRY.

"THE JOKER," SAID CELLER, "IS IN THAT 'CLASSIFIED INFORMATION' CLAUSE.

"SOME MAGAZINE WRITER MIGHT INNOCENTLY TURN OUT A GOOD TECHNICAL ARTICLE ON A SCIENTIFIC SUBJECT, AND FIND HIMSELF IN TROUBLE BECAUSE SOMEBODY'S OFFICE ASSISTANT THOUGHT IT CONTAINED SOME GOOD STUFF THAT SHOULD BE STAMPED 'CLASSIFIED'."

IN SUBMITTING THE BILL, FORRESTAL WROTE THAT EXISTING LEGISLATION IS "FAR TOO LIMITED IN APPLICATION TO AFFORD NEEDED PROTECTION TO CERTAIN HIGHLY SECRET GOVERNMENT ACTIVITIES."

HE SAID THE MEASURE REPRESENTS THE VIEW OF THE ARMY, NAVY, AIR FORCE, THE CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY AND THE STATE DEPARTMENT.

THE BILL WOULD NOT "IN ANY WAY" CONTROL INFORMATION TRANSMITTED BY CODE AND CIPHER, FORRESTAL ADDED, "UNLESS THE INFORMATION WAS OBTAINED BY CLANDESTINE INTERCEPTION AND CRYPTANALYSIS."

PRESENT COMMUNICATIONS SECURITY LAWS--TWO ACTS PASSED IN 1927 AND 1933--HAVE BEEN UNDER DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE FIRE SINCE THE RECENT RECOVERY OF SECRET GOVERNMENT DOCUMENTS FROM WHITTAKER CHAMBERS, ADMITTED ONE-TIME COMMUNIST COURIER.

THE 1927 ESPIONAGE ACT PROVIDES PENALTIES FOR THE UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF GOVERNMENT SECRETS ONLY IF "INTENT TO INJURE THE UNITED STATES" CAN BE PROVED.

THE 1933 ACT APPLIES ONLY TO MESSAGES SENT IN DIPLOMATIC CODE.

THE FORRESTAL PROPOSAL WOULD MAKE IT A CRIME TO USE CODES OR CODE INFORMATION "IN ANY MANNER PREJUDICIAL TO THE SAFETY OR INTEREST OF THE UNITED STATES OR THE BENEFIT OF ANY FOREIGN GOVERNMENT TO THE DETRIMENT OF THE UNITED STATES."

BY ELTON C.FAY JAN 1949

WASHINGTON,JAN.5-(AP)-SECRETARY OF THE ARMY ROYALL IS BACK FROM EUROPE WITH SOME ENCOURAGING THOUGHTS ABOUT THE SITUATION THERE--EXCEPT IN GREECE.

"GREECE HAS A WAR, DON'T FORGET THAT," HE CAUTIONS.

IN A NEWS CONFERENCE YESTERDAY FOLLOWING HIS RETURN FROM A THREE WEEK TRIP TO SEE HOW THE UNITED STATES ARMY IS DOING IN ITS JOB OF OCCUPATION AND ADVISING OTHER NATIONS MILITARY-WISE, ROYALL STEERED CLEAR OF DISCUSSING DETAILS OF THE PROBLEM IN GREECE.

HE DID MAKE THESE OBSERVATIONS:

"THERE IS A VERY DIFFICULT SITUATION TO DEAL WITH IN GREECE, NOT ONLY WITH THE GUERRILLAS UP NEAR THE ALBANIAN BORDER, BUT A GREAT DEAL OF PROPAGANDA."

HE EXPLAINED THAT UNITED STATES ARMY OFFICERS ARE WITH GREEK DIVISIONS "ENGAGED WITH THE GUERRILLAS" TO ADVISE THEM ON OPERATIONS AGAINST THE COMMUNIST FORCES.

LT.GEN.JAMES A.VAN FLEET, CHIEF OF THE MILITARY MISSION TO GREECE, "IS DOING AS WELL AS HE CAN DO IN A DIFFICULT SITUATION," ROYALL SAID. (GREECE HAS BEEN ENGAGED FOR MORE THAN A YEAR IN MILITARY OPERATIONS INTENDED TO DESTROY THE COMMUNIST GUERRILLA FORCES LED BY GENERAL MARKOS. IN THAT CAMPAIGN, THE GREEK GOVERNMENT HAS HAD THE U.S. SUPPORT OF BOTH ADVISORY OFFICERS AND WEAPONS AND OTHER WAR EQUIPMENT.)

ROYALL'S THOUGHTS ABOUT GERMANY WERE IN CONSTRAST WITH HIS RESERVED

IMPRESSIONS ABOUT GREECE. THEY SUMMED UP THIS WAY:

1. THE FOOD SITUATION IS SO IMPROVED IN GERMANY THAT THE ARMY WILL FINISH THE CURRENT FISCAL YEAR NEXT JULY 30 WITH ABOUT $50,000,000 (M) UNUSED OUT OF ITS FUNDS SET UP FOR BUYING FOOD FOR OCCUPIED AREAS. BECAUSE OF THE IMPROVED SITUATION THERE, THE ARMY WILL ASK FOR ABOUT $200,000,000 LESS NEXT YEAR FOR FEEDING THE POPULATIONS OF THE OCCUPIED ZONE IN GERMANY AND IN JAPAN. THE REQUEST PROBABLY WILL RANGE AROUND $1,100,000,000 (B), HE SAID.

2. TROOPS OF THE 1ST DIVISION, THE COMBAT OUTFIT OF THE U.S. ZONE IN GERMANY, ARE IN EXCELLENT CONDITION AND AT A HIGH DEGREE OF READINESS SHOULD COMBAT CONDITIONS COME.

3. WAR IS NOT IMMINENT.

4. THE FORCES OF DEMOCRACY IN GERMANY, ITALY, GREECE AND OTHER COUNTRIES HE VISITED "ARE GROWING STRONGER."

JAN 1949

ROYALL ALSO WAS ASKED ABOUT A REPORT FROM AN AGENCY OF THE HOOVER GOVERNMENT REORGANIZATION COMMISSION THAT THERE WAS AN INTELLIGENCE FOOD LAST SPRING WHICH MIGHT HAVE HAD SERIOUS INTERNATIONAL CONSEQUENCES. HE SAID THE ARMY "SO FAR HAS BEEN UNABLE TO FIND ANY SUCH INCIDENT IN WHICH THE ARMY WAS CONCERNED."

SECRETARY OF THE NAVY SULLIVAN ALSO WAS ASKED ABOUT IT. HE REPLIED THAT "THE NAVY WAS NOT RESPONSIBLE." SECRETARY OF DEFENSE FORRESTAL PREVIOUSLY HAS SAID HE WAS SURE THE AIR FORCE WAS NOT RESPONSIBLE.

COINCIDENTAL WITH ROYALL'S CONFERENCE WAS AN ANNOUNCEMENT THAT THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN HAVE AGREED TO EXTEND FOR THREE MONTHS THE AGREEMENT MERGING THEIR ZONES OF GERMANY. THE OLD AGREEMENT EXPIRED DECEMBER 17. THE EXTENSION WILL KEEP IT IN FORCE PENDING FINAL ACTION ON THE PROPOSAL TO BRING THE FRENCH ZONE INTO THE AGREEMENT.

Reds Open Fire On 2 Armies Of Chiang

JAN 1949

Nanking, Jan. 6 (AP)—Communist troops, turning a deaf ear to Nationalist peace pleas, tonight reportedly began to shell Tientsin in the north, as well as encircled Government armies southwest of Suchow.

The firing broke a two-week lull. Peace overtures, including a message from President Chiang Kai-shek at year's end offering to negotiate "if the Communists really are sincere," had flooded the country.

Pleas Dropped By Planes

The latest was made by the Peiping City Council, which voted to ask Communists surrounding that city for terms. The North China commander, Gen. Fu Tso-yi, gave permission for an air drop of the Peiping peace plea. He has been rumored seeking a separate settlement of the North China war.

Nanking heard that Red troops commenced shelling Gen. Tu Li-ming's surrounded armies southwest of Suchow from two sides after vocal barrages from loudspeakers failed to persuade the Nationalists to surrender.

Escapes In Disguise

The independent Nanking People's Daily said that Gen. Sun Yuan-liang, commander of the 16th Army group under General Tu, had reached the Honan province temporary capital of Hsinyang on January 4 after passing through the Communist lines in disguise. General Sun reported the encircled troops, numbering between 150,000 and 250,000, had eaten all of their horses and other animals and that hundreds of men were deserting.

This account was in contrast with the statement of Government military spokesman Teng Wen-yi, who said General Sun and "some of his men" broke the encirclement and reached Hsinyang.

Surrender Soon Forseen

Clear weather today, despite the bitter cold, enabled planes to resume dropping food and supplies to General Tu. However, Tu is expected to surrender to the Reds within a few days.

Another Government spokesman, Information Director Shen Chang-huan, said here today that the Communists had "neither formally nor informally" replied to Chiang's bid for peace.

Asked if he considered a Red radio transmission which called Chiang's message a "trick to gain time" an official Communist reaction, Shen replied:

"I think that is only the comment of the reporter (of the Communist New China News Agency). We do not deem it a reply, either formal or informal."

Denies Mediation Bid

Shen added that he knew of no Government official who had been authorized to request mediation of the Big Four or any single power in China's civil war. The report had been published in Nanking and elsewhere.

For the second consecutive day, the Communist New China News Agency on the Red radio said that Chiang's peace proposal had only one purpose—to "preserve Kuomintang reactionaries."

Communists today reportedly shelled Tientsin (A) and surrounded Government armies (B) southwest of Suchow. Shading indicates approximate Communist-dominated area

"War Criminal Chiang"

The broadcast said the ultimate goal of "war criminal Chiang Kai-shek's peace appeal" was to "preserve the freedom of oppression and exploitation and the present extravagant and lustful living while the Chinese laboring people must preserve their freedom of being oppressed and exploited."

The statement said the message was an attempt to "make certain the Communists are damned and their crime worth 10,000 deaths" should they refuse to make peace.

It appeared that Chiang's peace message was likely to have one result—increasing pressure throughout the nation for peace.

Teng said the Government was convinced that wily, one-eyed Communist General Liu Po-cheng had been killed. Teng said Government planes bombing near the obscure village of Taoyuantsi killed Liu on December 13.

Previously Reported Dead

"His leg was torn off and he received body wounds which killed him," Teng said. "This time his death definitely has been confirmed. At least five other high Communist officers died with him."

Liu many times previously had been reported killed. The Government spokesman said it was probable that the Russian-trained Liu had been succeeded by Chen Keng, Whampao Military Academy graduate who had been his subordinate. Teng added that it had been confirmed that Liu and not Gen. Chen Yi was the supreme Red commander for the campaigns into the Yangtze Valley.

Teng also informed foreign correspondents that military authorities will impose censorship on their stories "when the fighting gets nearer." He promised to inform them in advance and added their stories "would be handled with the greatest of care."

Americans Believed Safe

His statement, which was in conflict with information that messages already were being censored, added that the whole subject of censorship was being carefully and sympathetically considered by military authorities.

Details of the Tientsin shelling were meager here. Fighting around Peiping was confined to skirmishes on the outskirts of the old Chinese capital.

All American consulate personnel and other foreigners, including hundreds of White Russians, were believed safe in the modern European sector of Tientsin, a city of 2,000,000. This area, along both sides of the Hai River in downtown Tientsin, contains many modern buildings built by American, Belgian, Italian, French, British, Indian and Canadian interests.

Earlier in Shanghai the Chinese National Aviation Corporation announced its regular four-trips-a-week service to Peiping would be resumed. The planes could use the newly constructed Temple of Heaven Airfield inside the city. Communists have seized the South Airfield.

Nanking reports said Government officials were packing for possible flights from there to the south. Many of their families are in Canton and on the island of Formosa, off the coast halfway between here and Canton.

Chiang's Government Seen Planning to Withdraw to Island

H.K.

NANKING, (Friday) Jan. 7—(AP) The official Chinese central news agency reported today the big island of Formosa is being turned into a stronghold against the Chinese communists.

The agency reported an interview with Chen Cheng, new governor of Formosa, in which he was quoted as saying:

1) There is little hope for peaceful settlement of China's civil war because "the communist party is not sincerely desirous of peace."

2) Formosa is being built into a "stronghold for the regeneration of the people," and "neither communist forces nor communist thought will be allowed to infiltrate into Taiwan (Formosa), which is separated from the mainland by the sea."

Leaders Flock to Isle

(AP Correspondent James D. White reported from Formosa last week that hundreds of rich Chinese refugees and government officials are coming to the island by steamer and plane).

The news agency said Chen Cheng made his remarks at Taipei, Formosa, upon assuming the governorship. Chen formerly commanded government armies in Manchuria. Later he was China's chief of staff, resigning because of illness.

(The fact the news agency carried Chen's remarks indicates tacit approval by the Chinese government. There has been no official announcement the Nanking government would withdraw to Formosa, but signs have been multiplying that it plans to go either there or to Canton in the south.

(Many government ministries have been packing; hundreds of dependents of officials already have left the Chinese capital.)

(In Shanghai, the China National Federation of Chambers of Commerce issued a formal appeal to both the government and the communists for an immediate ceasefire and peace negotiations.

(The organization proposed that representatives of business, industry, civic groups and agriculture meet in Shanghai to form a national peace consultation body).

Reds Renew Fighting

Meanwhile, the reds were answering President Chiang Kai-shek's peace offer with gunfire.

In North China, encircled Tientsin was under attack.

(Pro-government reports from Tientsin to Peiping said about 500 prominent Chinese in Tientsin were urging withdrawal of nationalist troops from the city to spare it from battle. The Tientsin garrison commander was reported to have replied the city was "well defended" and there was "no need to worry.")

ISRAEL AGREES TO CEASE FIRE IN PALESTINE

JAN 1949

Tel Aviv Accepts Order by U. N. Preparatory to an Armistice.

BRITISH SEE EGYPT INVADED

Foreign Office Charges That Strong Point Beyond Line Has Been Set Up.

Tel Aviv, Jan. 6 (A. P.).—Israel has agreed to an immediate cease-fire in the Palestine war as a prelude to armistice negotiations with the Egyptians, an Israeli Army spokesman said tonight. The cease-fire was to have been effective at 6 P. M. Israel time (9 A. M. Eastern standard time), but at 9 P. M. it was not in effect, the spokesman said.

However, the delay appeared to have been caused by technicalities. Egypt already has notified the United Nations that she has accepted the Security Council order of December 29 for an immediate cease-fire in southern Palestine.

The Israeli decision was sent by U. N. observers here to Cairo at once. No reply has been received from the Egyptian side as yet concerning an actual end to the fighting.

Order Received.

Observers here expected the cease-fire to become effective momentarily. This would be followed quickly by negotiations between the Egyptians and the Israelis for the armistice which the United Nations has ordered.

An Israeli Foreign Office spokesman said that the Government had received Egypt's offer to cease fire last night from Henri Vigier, representative of the acting U. N. mediator, Dr. Ralph J. Bunche. Vigier quickly proposed that the cease-fire begin today and the Israeli Government accepted.

Israel May Yield To Cease-Fire Order

Tel Aviv, Israel, Jan. 6 (AP)—The Security Council order of December 29 for an immediate cease-fire in southern Palestine may be honored soon.

The Israeli Cabinet met last night. A usually reliable private source said the Ministers, whose troops have wound up a three-day invasion strike into Egypt, decided to accept the order.

It was understood the acceptance might be announced today. The timing and other details apparently would be fixed by United Nations truce observers.

Egypt Accepts

Egypt cabled her acceptance to Lake Success Tuesday, subject to a like decision from Israel. Egyptian and Israeli troops have been fighting in the Negeb desert and the southern Palestine coastal strip off and on since mid-October.

A Government spokesman last night announced the Israeli thrust into Egypt. He said Jewish troops, "in hot pursuit of the fleeing enemy," recently knifed to the Egyptian military base of El Arish, on the Mediterranean coast 30 miles below the Palestine frontier. He said they killed or wounded several hundred Egyptians, captured several hundred more and seized or destroyed several planes, field guns, gasoline and other stores. El Arish airfields were reported damaged heavily.

Secret Israeli Mission

Jerusalem, Jan. 6 (AP)—Dr. Bernard Joseph, military governor of the Jewish-held part of Jerusalem, left suddenly today for New York on a secret mission on behalf of the Government of Israel.

The Canadian-born military governor is expected to be away for two weeks. There was no official explanation of his mission, but speculation was that he would be a personal emissary of Premier David Ben-Gurion to Henry Morgenthau, former United States Secretary of the Treasury. The report was that he would attempt to persuade Morgenthau to resume the post of general chairman of the United Jewish Appeal.

In Joseph's absence, Abraham Bergmann, who holds a doctorate of philosophy from Johns Hopkins University of Baltimore, will be acting military governor.

Haifa, Jan. 6 (AP)—Israeli authorities today seized eight armored vehicles unloaded from the ship Elmira Victory here and consigned to the United Nations. Officials said the United Nations Truce Commission had given no satisfactory explanation about how the vehicles would be used.

Iraqis Issue Communiqué

CAIRO, Jan. 6 (AP)—An Iraqi communiqué said: "Skirmishes with the enemy occurred in the Qalqiyah (central front) sector in which the enemy suffered great losses." This referred to the Tira section.

Britain Charges Egypt Invaded

LONDON, Jan. 6 — (AP) Israeli troops have established a fortified strongpoint five miles inside Egypt, a British foreign office spokesman charged tonight. The obvious deduction, the informant added, is that "the Jews intend to stay inside Egyptian territory."

Meanwhile, sources in Tel Aviv declared Israeli units had intercepted an Egyptian troop train in Palestine nine miles north of the frontier town of Rafa. The Egyptian prisoners taken probably constituted the largest single day's bag of the current Negev fighting, it wac said. The exact number was not given.

Accounts reaching London and Tel Aviv made it clear that Egypt's military position has worsened. The two main routes from Cairo to Palestine now are said to be cut by Jewish forces.

The interception of the Egyptian troop train indicated the coastal route from Cairo to the southern Palestine coastal city of Gaza has been cut. A highway which parallels the railway through the sand dunes also is said to be within range of Israeli artillery.

The second route—the old desert trail to Beersheba—is the one the British foreign office spokesman said Israeli troops had blocked with their strongpoint inside Egypt.

London, Jan. 6 (AP)—A Foreign Office spokesman charged tonight that the Israeli Army has set up a fortified strongpoint five miles inside Egyptian territory.

The spokesman said information reaching the Foreign Office from British sources in Egypt disclosed that three anti-tank guns have been set up at the strongpoint which he said is encircled by barbed wire entanglements.

"The obvious deduction from the existence of the strongpoint," he added, "is that the Jews intend to stay inside Egyptian territory."

An Israeli Government spokesman asserted last night that Jewish troops entered Egypt recently, driving 30 miles into the country to the Egyptian military base of El Arish. The Israeli official said the troops were withdrawn and "there was never at any time any design on the part of Israel to occupy Egyptian territory."

European Aid Goal Held Sure

Paris, Jan. 6 (AP)—Despite pessimistic first estimates, western Europe can solve its economic problems within the time limit of the European Recovery Program, a top American administrator said today.

W. Averell Harriman, special representative in Europe for the aid program, admitted that much work would have to be done.

But, he said, he believed "the E.R.P. nations have it within their capabilities to attain a manageable situation in 1952-53, and have the vision and drive to achieve it."

Harriman referred to a report submitted by the Organization for European Economic Co-Operation showing that a deficit of from one billion to three billion dollars was possible in the first year after the end of the aid program.

To reduce the deficit, Harriman said the OEEC leadership "must be supported and strengthened by the participating governments and their peoples."

He said the nineteen areas participating in the recovery plan had been asked to submit new individual four-year programs showing how they can live without unusual outside assistance by 1952.

'Thank-You Train' Is At French Port

Paris, Jan. 6 (AP)—France's thank-you message to the United States—49 boxcars full of gifts—was at Le Havre tonight, ready to bear its spirit of gratitude across he sea.

Jefferson Caffery, United States Ambassador, and Andre Marie, French Vice Premier, joined in the official farewells today as the train left Paris on its long trip. Monday it will be loaded aboard the freighter Magellan for the voyage to New York.

The "Thank-You Train" was born in a war veterans' organization of railway men last spring.

Big N.Y. Reception

Frenchmen and Frenchwomen of all classes and regions contributed gifts to thank America for aid to France during and after both wars.

A spokesman for the organizers here said present plans call for a big reception to the Magellan in New York harbor, with 500 planes overhead. The ship will be painted with the French and American red, white and blue and will carry the words "Merci-America" on its side.

Drew Pearson, Washington columnist who organized the Friendship Train, heads the United States committee which will receive the "Thank-You Train." Each state has its own committee, headed by the governor, to decide on the distribution of gifts.

Spa Visit For Veteran

One of the train's organizers explained that although each car is inscribed with the name of a state, the contents are not necessarily to be distributed in that state.

Aboard is a certificate from a spa near the Pyrenees for a 21-day visit by some United States ex-service man who wants to take a cure for skin disease.

President Vincent Auriol gave 49 Sevres vases. The fashion industry sent 49 2-foot dolls dressed to illustrate two centuries of fashion. War veterans made brushes and sent them.

Prince Louis-Napoleon gave a valuable painting of his grandfather. There are souvenirs of Lindbergh's first trans-Atlantic flight, the first book mentioning America by name, and bits of cord woven from the intertwined American and French flags that flew atop Eiffel Tower the day Paris was liberated in 1944.

ATLANTIC PACT SEEN NEARLY COMPLETED

PARIS, Jan. 6—(AP) Well-informed sources said tonight the North Atlantic defense pact is almost completed.

Final talks among the United States, Canada and the Western European Union countries of Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg are scheduled to open later this month in Washington. If these are successful the document may be signed before Feb. 1.

These sources said two subjects have not yet been settled—the extent of the security zone the pact will cover and the membership aside from the seven charter members.

The question of what other members may be taken in obviously concerns Italy and Portugal and the Scandinavian states.

HUNGARY ASSUMES PAYMENT TO CLERGY

ROME, Jan. 6 (AP)—Vatican sources said today Hungary had decided that all Roman Catholic clergy in that Communist-controlled country henceforth would receive their pay from the Government.

The sources said this information had been brought here through Msgr. Giulio Czapick, Archbishop of Eger, Czechoslovakia.

The information was that the decision had been made by the Hungarian Government following the nationalization of Catholic schools, a move fought bitterly by Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty. Cardinal Mindszenty now is under arrest on Government charges of treason.

Queen Gives Stand On Indonesia

The Hague, Jan. 6 (AP)—Queen Juliana expressed hope today that an Indonesian Federal Government will be established within a few weeks as a step toward formation of a sovereign United States of Indonesia.

Free elections were pledged "as soon as circumstances permit."

The Queen told the Dutch in a broadcast that the newly concluded military action in Indonesian Republican territory "was in no way to go back on the pledges which have been solemnly given by my mother (former Queen Wilhelmina) and by the Netherlands people as a whole."

Interim Regime

The transition from the old to the new constitutional order, including the organization of the elections, will devolve upon the interim Federal regime, she said.

"I hope that thus the sovereign United States of Indonesia will soon become a reality," she said. "Indonesia and the Netherlands will then join in a union and harmonize their efforts and energies for the sound development of the two countries and for the benefit of world prosperity.

Mother's Promises

"From the beginning of my reign (last September), I have always striven for the complete fulfillment of the promises given by my mother to co-operate toward securing peace, happiness and prosperity for the peoples of Indonesia under a sovereign government of their own.

"I have been happy to note that large parts of Indonesia were prepared to co-operate in achieving this purpose. In other parts, unfortunately, certain elements preferring violence and chaos to peaceful co-operation proved to predominate over those who were willing to build new constitutional order in mutual understanding with the Netherlands. For this reason, military action became unavoidable."

HAGUE RENEWS INDIES PLEDGE

Juliana Promises Indonesians Free Election

The Hague, Jan. 6 (AP)—Queen Juliana today renewed pledges to Indonesians of free elections and partnership in a sovereign government.

The Queen said Dutch military action in the East Indies became unavoidable because of "certain elements preferring violence and chaos to peaceful co-operation."

In a broadcast address to Hollanders, she expressed the hope that an Indonesian federal government would be established in a few weeks.

The object of military action, she said, "was in no way to go back on the pledges which have been solemnly given by my mother and by the Netherlands people as a whole."

Hoped For Co-Operation

Juliand referred to the address of Queen Wilhelmina in December, 1942, who expressed hope that after the war Indonesia and the Netherlands "would co-operate voluntarily in freedom and on a basis of equality."

Juliana said: "From the beginning of my reign I have always striven for the complete fulfillment of the promises given by my mother to co-operate toward securing peace, happiness and prosperity for the people of Indonesia under a sovereign government of their own."

Free Elections Planned

The Dutch-sponsored plan, she explained, is to set up a federal interim government in a few weeks. As a second step, she said, free elections would be organized "as soon as circumstances permit."

The third step would be the creation of what she called "the sovereign United States of Indonesia."

"Indonesia and the Netherlands will then join in a union, harmonize their efforts and energies for the sound development of the two countries and for the benefit of world prosperity," Juliana concluded.

Meeting In Brussels

Brussels, Jan. 6 (AP)—Five Western European Defense Ministers will meet in Brussels January 14 and 15, a Belgian Defense Ministry spokesman said today. He declined to give any information on the conference program. Armament standardization is understood to be one major point on the agenda.

SCANDINAVIAN GROUP ENDS DEFENSE PARLEY

STOCKHOLM, Jan. 6 (AP)—Top ranking leaders of Sweden, Norway and Denmark today ended a two-day defense conference in southwestern Sweden.

A brief official announcement from the Swedish foreign office said the meeting, in Karlstad, considered possibilities for cooperation between the Scandinavian nations on defense policy.

A Danish foreign office statement in Copenhagen said: "the Norwegian, Swedish and Danish prime, foreign and defense ministers on Jan. 5-6, met in Karlstad to discuss presuppositions for co-operation between the Scandinavian countries regarding a joint defense policy."

Official Stockholm sources said the attitude of the three countries toward the proposed North Atlantic pact also was discussed.

A diplomatic source said Norway and Denmark were expecting to be invited any day to join in the discussions on the North Atlantic pact. The pact is being negotiated by the United States, Canada, Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

The Scandinavian defense commission meets for its final conference in Holmenkollen, near Oslo, Jan. 11.

The commission, set up last summer and including military experts from the three countries, has been investigating the prospects for joint Scandinavian defense without any alliances with the western powers.

Russ Army Hints Korea Is Pattern For Germany

Berlin, Jan. 6 (AP)—The Soviet Army hinted in print today that Russia may follow the same policy in Germany as in Korea and withdraw her occupation forces earlier than the Western Allies.

A front page editorial in Taegliche Rundschau, official Soviet military organ, asserted: "Korea is an example for Germany—at least in so far as the attitude of the Soviet Union is concerned."

It said the last Russian troops had evacuated North Korea December 25, and "complete Korean independence in a united state could be possible" but for American forces remaining in South Korea.

Following Potsdam Pact

"The comparison between Korean developments and those in West and East Germany goes on," the editorial declared.

The Soviet Army newspaper claimed Russia would hold fast to the principles of the Potsdam Pact for Germany, "assisting all steps toward state independence."

"The development of the Soviet occupation zone follows the same course as in Korea—despite the contrary and sinister plans of American colonial politics," it concluded.

"Old Propaganda Tune"

A high American officer described the Red Army withdrawal hint in Taegliche Rundschau as "the same old propaganda tune."

The Soviet-licensed Berliner Zeitung attacked Col. Charles A. Lindberg, now inspecting United States Air Forces in Germany, as having been an organizer of the America First Committee "which followed an anti-Roosevelt policy and closely co-operated with the Nazis."

It accused United States Army Secretary Kenneth C. Royall of sending "American Nazis" to western Germany in exchange for German Nazi specialists dispatched to the United States.

The newspaper apparently referred to United States Military Government's published plan for an exchange of American and German experts in police, public health, education and other fields.

Officers Must Pay Own Expenses If They Bar GIs from Berlin Club

BERLIN, Jan. 6 — (AP) The U. S. Army told the Tony Harnack House Club today it will have to stop snubbing GIs if it wants to keep on receiving army support.

Maj. Gen. George Hays, deputy American commander in Germany, explained to the club's board of directors that regulations forbid "discrimination" against enlisted men when federal funds are being used as a subsidy.

American constabulary officers led the campaign to bar enlisted men from the club, largest in Berlin. Civilian members said the GIs should be allowed to use the club as long as German girls can be guests.

A special meeting of all members has been called for Tuesday night to consider reorganizing as a private club.

As such Harnack House could bar anyone it chose. But it also would have to pay rent on its big mansion, extra transportation costs for liquor and supplies and salaries for management.

D. C. DeMartin of Hamden, Conn., a board member, said rent alone would be $1,100 a month.

Signs barring enlisted men had been posted at the club. These were removed yesterday pending a final decision. The club has 400 officers and 700 civilians as members.

Clubs like Harnack House are set up under army supervision. Food and liquor come from tax free army stocks. The army provides the building, fuel and public utilities and the rent is charged against German reparations.

Russian Command In Berlin Orders Slav Mission Cut

Berlin, Jan. 6 (AP)—The Russian command has requested the Yugoslav military mission in Berlin to reduce its staff by 90 per cent, the Soviet-licensed news agency, ADN, said tonight.

The agency said its correspondent had learned facts "which are characteristic for the speculative and other social activities of several official Yugoslav personalities in the Soviet occupation zone of Germany."

It charged Yugoslav trade representatives with large-scale blackmarketing of foodstuffs and other goods allegedly supplied for its military mission in Berlin by Yugoslavia.

Sentence Suspended If Seaman Quits Reich

Bremerhaven, Germany, Jan. 6 (AP)—Seaman James McEvoy, of Oakland, Cal., who said he jumped ship for love of a German woman and her small son, was given a year suspended sentence today.

A United States Military Government Court convicted him of remaining in Germany illegally. The sentence was suspended on the understanding that McEvoy would return to the United States as a crewman on another ship.

McEvoy, 49, was jailed on Christmas Day after his ship, the General Darby, docked here. He told authorities then he would renounce his American citizenship if necessary to remain in Germany with the woman and the child.

Alma Bolster, 29, told United States military police in Frankfurt yesterday she is the woman in question. She denied she was McEvoy's wife, although the seaman told a United States Army information officer he married a German woman eighteen months ago.

German Workers Block Dismantling Of Plant

Bochum, Germany, Jan. 6 (AP)—Workers today blocked efforts of a German crew to begin dismantling portions of the Bochumer Verein steel works. It was the second such incident this week.

Tonight the British military government posted warnings in the plant that any further interference would result in prosecution.

The dismantling crew from nearby Essen left the plant today after the workers began shouting "traitors" and "shame."

Major G. Gordon Wilson, resident officer in Bochum, denied a report that the British planned to use troops to make sure the dismantling is carried out. He said the German police are able to keep law and order.

Czechs Fight Black Market

Prague, Czechoslovakia, Jan. 6 (AP)—Czechoslovaks got their first look at the high prices in the Government's "free-market" stores which opened today.

You could get a necktie for $12. Children's overcoats were $58. Women's skirts were $78 and underpants $20.

Prices were up 50 to 450 per cent over last week. On the "free market" you don't need ration coupons. But the Government announced ration goods are subject to a big increased tax, too.

Aimed At Black Market

Premier Antonin Zapotocky explained at a news conference that the country's high-priced "free markets" were intended to be only temporary and were aimed at wiping out the black market. Only stores designated by the Communist-dominated government may carry the "free-market" goods.

With ration tickets distributed in factories by workers' councils, Czech workers will get first chance at buying the cheaper rationed goods. They are from 200 to 400 per cent less than prices on the "free market" but quantities are limited.

Shopkeepers, private employers and farmers who own more than 35 acres of land will not be issued ration coupons for clothing.

Artisans, Peasants Affected Most

If they have enough money they can buy on the "free market," which today offered men's handkerchiefs at $10, and women's shoes at $52.

Artisans, who work for themselves and cannot be controlled by the State, and peasants, especially those who have not delivered their produce quotas, will be affected most, the Premier said.

"It is only natural that we are trying to hit at these people because they have not yet offered any sacrifices to the state and its economy," Zapotocky was quoted by a Czechoslovakia Press Bureau.

"If there were no reservations on them, they would grow into new capitalists."

IRAQI PREMIER OUT, SUCCESSOR NAMED

Nuri as-Said Assumes Post of Amin el-Pachachi—British See Palestine Peace Gain

BAGHDAD, Iraq, Jan. 6 (AP)—Gen. Nuri as-Said, one-tme Premier, formed a new Iraqi Cabinet today. It replaced the government of Muzahim Amin el-Pachachi, who resigned earlier in the day.

In accepting a formal call to form a Cabinet, General Nuri said: "The liberation of Palestine requires the exertion of all efforts * * * I will do my utmost to unify all efforts within and without [Iraq] to realize the emergence of an Arab nation fron. this cruel trial successfully."

Students have been demonstrating in the streets of Baghdad, demanding full-scale resumption of the Arab war against Israel and have been pressing former Premier el-Pachachi to promise officially that the fight would go on.

The former Premier, at the year's end, had promised an official statement, but none has been forthcoming.

A veteran government leader, he took the Premiership last June and served in the Cabinet as Foreign Minister.

Cochran's Staff Stays in Java

BATAVIA, Java, Jan. 6 (AP)—Mr. Cochran left for Washington early today for consultations at the State Department. His staff on the Good Offices Committee remained here and R. E. Lisle of Lynbrook, L. I., N. Y., deputy to Mr. Cochran, will be acting United States representative.

Col. William Mayer of Washington, chairman of the board of a six-nation military observer team, left on the same plane with Mr. Cochran. He was relieved by Col. Willard B. Carlock of Austin, Tex

Eisenhower Wanted To Conduct Plebiscite

Karachi, Pakistan, Jan. 6 (AP)—A Foreign Ministry spokesman intimated today Pakistan would like to have Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower administer the forthcoming plebiscite in Kashmir.

He said Moslem leaders in the princely state also are favorable.

Pakistan and India recently agreed to a cease-fire in Kashmir and are discussing procedure on determining the state's future by plebiscite. The population of the border state is predominantly Moslem but its Hindu Maharajah acceeded the state to India. An undeclared war erupted.

Canada Treaty Steps May Parallel U.S. Acts

Ottawa, Jan. 6 (AP)—A Government source said today that the North Atlantic Alliance probably will be placed before the United States Congress and the Canadian Parliament simultaneously in a few months.

It had been reported earlier that Canada would await approval by the United States Congress before submitting the treaty to Parliament. It is believed, however, that Canada will make her approval contingent on that of the United States.

British sources report that the Foreign Ministers of the nations involved in the pact will meet in the spring to sign the alliance, possibly on a vessel in the Atlantic.

Sources in Brussels say United States assistance would go automatically to other signatories in the event one is attacked, under the current draft of the treaty. However, little information was available on the contents of the draft.

The United States, Britain, Canada, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg are the principals in the negotiations. Other countries probably will be invited to join later.

U.S. Asks Dutch Proof Of Good Intentions

JAN 1949

Washington, Jan. 6 (AP)—The United States called upon the Netherlands today to give "concrete demonstration" of its intention to satisfy the "legitimate aspirations of the Indonesians for self rule."

Under Secretary of State Lovett advanced the suggestion in a letter to CIO President Philip Murray which reviewed American efforts to end the fighting between Dutch and Indonesian forces.

Lovett served notice that the American Government will refuse to accept as final the so-called Dutch "police action" which crushed the Indonesian Republic several weeks ago.

Can't Condone It

"The United States cannot, of course, indorse or condone a solution by force of such a problem as that in Indonesia," Lovett said.

The American Government hopes the Netherlands will remember that lasting peace in Indonesia can only be built upon the trust and co-operation of the Indonesian people, "including the Republican element which had been in the van of the Nationalist movement," he went on

"Democratic Processes"

Lovett then expressed the view that Netherlands authorities should organize an Indonesian Government in which all parties could seek and obtain representation "in accordance with their popular followings, through the exercise of free, democratic processes."

The letter was made public on the heels of another slap at Netherlands military action in Indonesia. That move was an order recalling the United States delegate to the United Nations group trying to settle the dispute.

1,000-Word Letter

Lovett made known the American position in a 1,000-word letter answering an appeal made by Murray to Secretary Marshall December 23.

Murray's message expressed the CIO's approval of United States leadership in trying to stop hostilities in Indonesia.

He voiced the hope that the American Government would take "every feasible step in the realm of diplomacy and economics to help terminate the Dutch aggression in Indonesia."

Marshall Fund Cut Off

In reply, Lovett noted that the United States had suspended further Marshall plan help to the Indies pending the end of fighting.

Press Officer Michael McDermott told reporters at a news conference that the United States views on means of stopping the fighting have been communicated directly to the Netherlands Government.

Lovett said the anti-Communist complexion of the Republican Government in Indonesia was something the State Department kept in mind in urging the Netherlands to reach agreement with it.

Action Against Reds

He said "resolute" action taken against Communist forces "showed that the Republican Government was not fooled by the "lip service" Communists were paying to the nationalist ideal in Indonesia."

He commented that "the institution of alien controls of far-reaching and tyrannical character" is the true goal of international Communist forces.

Proposal Rejected

Lovett noted that the United Nations Security Council has rejected an American proposal that the Dutch withdraw to positions they held before they launched their military action December 18.

The Council's refusal to adopt this American view, he said, "emphatically does not mean that this Government has abandoned hope of a constructive solution of the Indonesian problem in which the legitimate interests of both sides may be safeguarded and indeed enhanced."

U. S. URGES DUTCH SPEED MOVES FOR INDONESIAN PEACE

JAN 1949

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6 — (AP) The United States prodded the Netherlands government today to prove by prompt, specific actions, its declared intention to grant self rule to the people in Indonesia.

Undersecretary of State Lovett made the U. S. views known in a letter addressed to CIO President Philip Murray. Murray had written Secretary Marshall last month praising American steps to end what the labor official called Dutch "aggression" in the East Indies.

Lovett declared that peace in the strife-torn Asiatic islands will be impossible "unless the trust and co-operation of the Indonesian people including the Republican elements which have been in the van of the nationalist government, are enlisted."

U. S. Urges Action

Therefore, he said, the United States hopes that the Netherlands government will "make concrete demonstration of its intention to satisfy the legitimate aspirations of the Indonesians for self rule and to organize an Indonesian government in which all parties may seek and obtain representation in accordance with their popular followings, through the exercise of free, democratic processes."

While Lovett defined the American position in general terms in his letter to Murray, officials at the State department said that the same views had been forcefully expressed to the Netherlands government directly.

What the United States wants, these informants said, is action along three main lines to bring about conditions in which it will be possible to resume negotiations for Indonesian independence. These are:

Cease-Fire Order Asked

1. An immediate and completely effective cease-fire order to all Dutch troops.

2. Unconditional release of all leaders of the Indonesian republic.

3. Withdrawal of Netherlands troops from territory occupied since the Dutch started their "police action" against the Indonesians December 18.

Lovett told Murray that one of the main interests of the United States in seeking to aid the Indonesian Republic lies in the non-communist character of that native movement. He said the Republican government had "resolutely taken action against and eliminated a communist revolt against its authority engineered by Moscow-trained and disciplined communist agents."

RUSSIA LOSES CENSURE MOVE

Seeks To Condemn MacArthur's No-Strike Order

Washington, Jan. 6 (AP)—Russia was voted down, 9 to 1, today on a Soviet move to condemn Gen. Douglas MacArthur's no-strike order for Government workers in Japan.

The vote was taken at a heated session of the eleven-nation Far Eastern Commission.

Russia called MacArthur's action "anti-democratic."

Carlos Romulo, Philippines Ambassador, retorted that Russia was making a "malicious distortion" of the case and was seeking to exploit the commission as a "springboard for propaganda."

China Abstains

Only Alexander S. Panyushkin, Soviet Ambassador, voted for the Russian resolution. Nine other governments voted against it. China abstained.

The Soviet envoy had demanded that the commission instruct MacArthur to withdraw a directive he issued to the Japanese Cabinet last July 22, banning strikes by several million Japanese Government employés. At that time, it was explained that MacArthur took the same position as the United States Government: Strikes against the Government are illegal.

Immediately after today's vote, the Soviet envoy pulled a prepared statement from his pocket and read it. He said the other nations, by their votes, had "thus entered the road of approving these anti-democratic measures of General MacArthur and the Japanese Government."

Evidence Of Propaganda

Romulo promptly declared the fact of the Soviet statement having been prepared in advance was evidence that Russia's purpose was propaganda alone.

The Far Eastern Commission sets formal policies to guide MacArthur as supreme Allied commander for the occupation of Japan.

Banned Bargaining

Several members said privately they considered that Russia was seeking to make capital out of the Japanese labor situation. They said the vote was a rejection of the Soviet tactic rather than a formal indorsement of the Japanese labor-curbing legislation. This view was emphasized by the Philippines and New Zealand envoys.

In writing MacArthur's no-strike directive into law, the Japanese Diet (Parliament) last November 30 also enacted a ban on collective bargaining by Government workers.

Panyushkin charged that the legislation violated both the 1945 Potsdam agreement and stated policies of the commission itself.

Softer Policy And New Peace Road, Columnist Writes In Article

Washington, Jan. 6 (AP) — Jay Franklin, who helped write President Truman's campaign speeches, says in a Life magazine article that the President is waging a fight within his own Cabinet to soften America's "tough" policy toward Russia and open up a new approach to peace.

The magazine says in a foreword that Mr. Truman's counsel, Clark Clifford, does not agree with Franklin's views.

Life adds that it "dissents from the fundamental premise" of Franklin's arguments—that a settlement with Russia is being blocked by special interests rather than by the basic conflict between democracy and communism.

Cites Speeches, Conversations

Franklin, whose newspaper column has been the subject of Truman press-conference comment, claimed in a post-election story that the voters had blasted "the whole Byrnes - Marshall - Forrestal program." This was described by the President as a "typical columnist's comment."

Franklin says the conclusions he expressed in that column and now develops in his Life article "flowed from the President's own campaign statements and from my private conversations with him." He insists Mr. Truman did not disavow the view expressed in an earlier column that peace with Russia is possible.

The latest presidential comment Franklin cites is that made in Kansas City last week when the President said certain Russian leaders are eager to have an understanding with the United States. Mr. Truman added that he would spend the next four years seeking "to reach an understanding on a basis that peace is possible with all nations."

Reports "Goose-Pimples"

What Mr. Truman said, Franklin writes, caused "diplomatic goose-pimples in the State Department."

"It is in the Cabinet," Franklin writes, "that the President has been facing his greatest pressure, for it is there that he confronts the two wings of the ominous vested interest in the continuation of bad relations between America and Russia: the munitions interests and the Arabian oil interests.

"It is interesting to note in this regard that his Secretary of Defense, Jim Forrestal, and his Under Secretary of State, Bob Lovett, were both investment bankers in private life, and it is a well-known fact that the investment-banking industry has loaned huge sums to munitions makers and the oil industry."

Advocates of a $25,000,000,000 military program for the next fiscal year, Franklin says, have lost their fight in the Cabinet and are prepared to take it to Congress.

Sees Fight In Congress

The Middle Eastern oil-policy fight, deeply involving United States policy on Palestine, Franklin says, is still undecided. But he predicts that the final solution of the present foreign-policy issues, as he sees them, will be not in the Cabinet but in Congress.

Mr. Truman, Franklin says, has to make as many as 50 decisions a day and sometimes makes mistakes, but he concludes:

"It seems reasonably clear, however, that the American people will not regart it as a mistake if he drives the money changers out of the temple or takes a little of the poison ivy from around the olive branch which he is determined to wave at his fellow prisoner in the domed and distant Kremlin."

[Franklin had recalled that Mr. Truman once said Stalin was a prisoner of the Communist party's Politburo. The President, Franklin declared, has sometimes likened the White House to a prison.]

Clemency Asked for Nazis Doomed to Die for Crimes

JAN 1949

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6 (AP)—An investigating commission has recommended commutation of the death sentences given 12 members of a Nazi force which massacred American soldiers near Malmedy, Belgium.

The recommendation for life imprisonment instead of death, came from a commission appointed by Army Secretary Royall. It was made public today. Heading the commission was Justice Gordon Simpson of the Texas Supreme Court. The inquiry was started last Summer.

The commission also recommended the commutation in 17 other cases of Germans sentenced in individual instances where American fliers or soldiers were slain.

Others Granted Clemency

The trial court originally sentenced 43 men to death for the Malmedy massacre. General Lucius D. Clay, American military governor in Germany, commuted the sentences of all but the 12 subsequently considered by the investigating commission.

The Malmedy massacre cases were among 139 tried at Dachau, Germany, and reviewed by the commission. The investigation was ordered after a number of appeals had been made to the supreme court. The court, by an evenly divided vote, declined to consider the cases on the grounds of no jurisdiction.

The Malmedy massacre occurred Dec. 17, 1944, during the German's Ardennes offensive. Directly involved was the so-called "Combat Group Peiper," a fanatical Nazi elite group. In the advance of the German forces, an engagement with elements of the First U. S. Army occurred. American soldiers surrendered. The Nazis lined them up by a roadside and killed 83 with machinegun fire.

Defense counsel for the German troops at the Dachau trials based their petitions to the Supreme court on alleged irregularities during and preceding the trials. They contended that, among other things, statements were obtained by the use of mock trials.

The investigating commission, in recommending clemency for the 12 Germans, said methods used by the prosecution raised enough doubt to warrant a change in the death sentences.

"Heat of Battle" Cited

The commission said "the assassinations" were "most reprehensible and merit stern retribution." Then its report added:

"However, it is extreme doubtful that an American court martial would fix any punishment more severe than life imprisonment if it were trying members of the American army who committed like offenses in the heat of battle."

"Moreover, the prosecution testimony in this case was made up in large part of the extrajudicial statements of the accused. x x x Admittedly, some of these statements were obtained by the use of mock trials in which one or more persons attired as American officers pretended to preside as judges and others attired in army officers' uniforms pretended to be the prosecutor and defender of the accused.

"The room where these proceedings were held contained a table covered with a black cloth on which stood a crucifix and burning candles. The accused was conducted to this room with a black hood over his head.

"The mock trials were designed, among other things, to gain the confidence of the accused in his supposed defense attorney and thus to elicit a statement from him."

In addition to Simpson, the other members of the investigating commission were Judge Edward Van Roden of Delaware County, Pa., and Lt. Col. Charles W. Lawrence, Jr., of the judge advocate general's department of the army.

STRIPLING QUITS AS SPY PROBER

JAN 1949

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5 — (AP) Robert E. Stripling has resigned formally as chief investigator of the House Un-American Activities committee.

The 36-year-old Texan has played a major part in spectacular committee investigations into red operations, spying, and communist activity in Hollywood. Now he plans to return to Texas, take a "long rest," and then "accept a position offered me in the oil industry."

The resignation was effective last Monday, when the 80th Congress went out of business. But Stripling has stayed on to help get out a final report on what the committee has done in the last two years.

The report, he told reporters, goes to committee members tomorrow for their approval and probably will be made public next week.

Who will become the new chief investigator for the committee hasn't been decided yet. That will be up to the members, and it isn't sure who all of them will be.

Except for a hitch in the army during the war, Stripling has been with the committee since its founding 10 years ago. His name has been in the headlines frequently ever since.

Before joining the committee staff, he was a capitol employe for eight years, under the wing of former Representative Martin Dies of Texas—the first chairman of the committee.

'Fighting' U. S. General Seen China's Need

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6 — (AP) Congress was told today that a "fighting" American general, aided by 600 officers—and $800,000,000—could turn the tide of war in China and save the Orient from communism.

That suggestion came from William C. Bullitt, former U. S. diplomat who made a special mission to China during the last two months for a Republican-dominated congressional committee. It is considered highly unlikely that his advice will be heeded by the administration or by the now-Democratic Congress. For one thing, some officials have expressed doubt that the aid would be affective.

"Not Too Late", He Says

Reporting to the joint Senate-House committee on foreign economic cooperation, Bullitt said it is "not yet too late" to bolster Generaliesimo Chiang Kai-shek's forces sufficiently to stem the communist advance.

Bullitt said, however, that American economic aid and military supplies could not do the job unless a "fighting general of the highest qualities" is put in control of the nationalist forces.

He told reporters he believed Chiang would readily accept American direction of his troops. Although Bullitt refused to say which general he thinks should be sent he added:

"I believe General MacArthur could do the job in less time than any other general."

Bullitt, who was in China from November 9 to December 15, said it was "totally untrue" that Chiang is no longer able to govern his country. But he added that the Chinese have no single government general with the military training and skill to meet the attack of more than 2,000,000 communist soldiers.

Bullitt's suggestions were generally along the line advanced in recent weeks by Chinese leaders as the military situation in the war-torn country became increasingly critical for the nationalist forces.

THOMAS TRIAL DELAYED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6—(AP) The trial of Rep. J. Parnell Thomas (R-NJ) on charges of conspiring to defraud the government and filing false claims in connection with his congressional office payroll was postponed today from January 17 to February 7.

District Judge Henry A. Schweinhaut ordered the postponement to give additional time for the preparation of a report by Walter Reed Hospital physicians on Thomas's physical condition. U. S. Attorney George Morris Fay said he had been informed it would take at least two weeks to conduct a thorough physical examination of the lawmaker.

Thomas, who served as chairman of the House Un-American Activities Committee the past two years, attended the opening session of Congress Monday but has been in the hospital since, his attorney said. He was reported to have suffered a stomach hemorrhage last month.

Huge Navy Force Plans Maneuvers

JAN 1949

Washington, Jan. 6 (AP)—A hundred fighting ships and 35,000 soldiers, sailors, Marines and flyers will take part in huge war games in the Caribbean and western Atlantic, starting next month.

The Navy announced tonight that the maneuvers will be held from February 14 to April 1. Navy men said these would be the biggest war games ever held in the Caribbean area.

They will involve tests between carriers, submarines, submarine-killer ships, the 45,000-ton battleship Missouri and a swarm of other warships. Army and Marine forces, under the command of a Marine general, will make an amphibious landing on the island of Vieques, Puerto Rico.

Under Blandy's Command

Admiral W. H. P. Blandy, commander-in-chief of the Atlantic Fleet, will have overall command of the maneuvers.

In London, the Admiralty announced the American and West Indies squadron of the British navy will hold joint maneuvers with the Royal Canadian navy in the Caribbean in March.

The ships, now on winter cruise, will rendezvous with the Canadians off Trinidad for fourteen days of exercises.

After the maneuvers, Admiral Sir William Tennant, commander of the British squadron, will be succeeded by Rear Admiral Richard V. Symonds-Taylor.

Admiral To Pay Visits

During the cruise Admiral Tennant will visit Rio de Janeiro, Buenos Aires and the Falkland Islands in his flagship, the cruiser Glasgow.

The cruiser Jamaica will visit Jamaica and the west coast of South America. The sloop Snipe will cruise the Caribbean, calling at the Guianas.

Another sloop, the Sparrow, is going to the Falklands where it will be at the disposal of the islands' Governor Miles Clifford.

Norway Gets U. S. Aid As Curb To Inflation

Washington, Jan. 6 (AP) — The United States acted under the Marshall plan tonight to help Norway curb inflation caused by the German occupation.

The Economic Co-operation Administration released $22,000,000 in Norwegian kroner "counterpart" funds so Norway could ease the burden saddled on her by the Germans during the war.

When the United States supplies dollars to a country under the Marshall plan of European recovery, the recipient is required to set aside an equivalent sum of its own currency. This is known as a counterpart fund. It must be used to promote recovery, and can't be used until the United States gives the word.

Germans Took Two Billion

During the war the Germans saddled Norway with huge costs to support German occupation forces. The Germans drew 11,000,000,000 kroner (about $2,200,000,000) from the Bank of Norway for the purpose and the sum became a national debt of Norway.

Since the liberation, the ECA said, the Norwegian Government has been able to reduce this "occupation account" to about $1,600,000,000.

ECA officials denied that today's action, permitting a further reduction in the occupation account, constituted United States recognition of liability for debts incurred by Norway during the war.

Craft Taken At Dock, Believed Destined For Egypt

Newark, N.J., Jan. 6 (AP)—The United States Government today seized a cargo of five crated military planes which it listed as an illegal arms shipment believed bound for Egypt.

Roger M. Yancey, assistant United States attorney, said the decl aration on the planes showed them bound for "Djibuti, Abyssinia," but that the government believed they would be diverted to Egypt without State Department authorization.

Djibouti actually is the capital of French Somaliland and not in Abysinia as listed in the shipping declaration.

Valued At $250,000

Yancey said the five planes, valued by the Army at a total of $250,000, were taken on the dock at Port Newark. Customs officials prevented the loading of the planes aboard the Egyptian passenger ship, the Mohammed Ali el Kabir, just before it sailed last week, Yancey said.

The seizure was completed in Federal Court this afternoon on an order from Judge Thomas F. Meany which granted the Government custody of the five planes until an owner can establish legal claim and show the seizure to be unjustified.

Alfred E. Modarelli, United States attorney, said the State Department reported the planes were listed as owned by a John A. Romano, of New York city. Romano's declaration valued the planes at a total of $25,000.

License For One Claimed

The State Department, Modarelli said, granted an export license for one plane but became suspicious when Romano requested authorization to ship four other planes.

Romano's application said the planes were to be used for aerial photography work, Modarelli said. The planes were described by the United States attorney as North American advanced trainers rated at 600 horse-power. They are single-engined twin-seaters capable of mounting .30-caliber machine guns.

The United States attorney said his office had been unable to find any Romano at the New York city address listed in the export application and that he believed the name was fictitious. He said the New York site was occupied by a trucking company warehouse.

In Washington, a State Department official said the Department had issued no license.

New Uranium-235 Plant Costing $70,000,000 To Be Built at Oak Ridge, Lilienthal Says

JAN 1949

OAK RIDGE, Tenn., Jan. 6 (UP)—Plans for a new $70,000,000 plant here for the production of uranium-235 were revealed today by David E. Lilienthal, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission.

He said that plans for the new plant called for construction to begin in about six months with at least 3,500 construction workers employed. The work will take about two years, he added.

Mr. Lilienthal told Oak Ridge citizens that the plant would increase "very substantially" the U-235 output here. The plans were revealed as he outlined a comprehensive expansion program planned for the atomic city.

He said that engineering studies on a master plan for a permanent Oak Ridge national laboratory were nearing completion, and that the plan involved an outlay of about $20,000,000.

The chairman said that construction was well under way on radioisotope processing facilities, which would cost $1,500,000.

The commission is making every effort to increase efficiency in the operation of Oak Ridge "to get more results with fewer people," he said, adding:

"The gaseous diffusion plant at Oak Ridge is producing considerably more U-235 today than it did two years ago—with 4,000 less people on the payroll."

N.Y. Spy Jury Hears Inslerman 4th Time

JAN 1949

New York, Jan. 6 (AP)—Felix August Inslerman, 38-year-old engineer for the General Electric Company, today appeared for the fourth successive day as a witness before the spy-hunting Federal grand jury.

Two new witnesses also were on hand as the grand jury resumed its probe of Communist espionage. They were Prof. E. J. McShane, 44, of the University of Virginia, and Prof. John L. Kelly, 32, of the University of California.

Mathematics Experts

McShane and Kelley, both mathematics instructors, said after they had testified that the jury questioned them concerning the character "and what we know" about another witness who appeared before the old Federal grand jury.

They identified the former witness as Franklin Victor Reno, a mathematics expert with whom they collaborated in writing a book entitled "Exterior Ballistics."

The two professors said they met Reno at the Aberdeen (Md.) Proving Grounds in 1942, and later were associated with him in army work.

"Didn't Say Why"

"They asked us about Reno—his character and what we knew about him," McShane said. "They did not say why they asked us."

The present grand jury took up its spy investigation where its predecessor jury left off last month.

The jury yesterday questioned Max Bedacht, expelled charter member of the American Communist party.

EGYPT AGREES TO TRUCE TALK WITH ISRAELIS

United Nations Hails Move — Cease-Fire Order Is Accepted

Lake Success, N.Y., Jan. 6 (AP)—Egypt has agreed for the first time to direct negotiations with Israel for an armistice in Palestine, the United Nations acting mediator said today.

The mediator, Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, hailed the agreement as a possible step toward permanent peace in the Holy Land.

United Nations sources said they expected other Arab states to follow Egypt's lead and negotiate with Israel.

Bunche announced also that Egypt and Israel agreed to a cease-fire in Palestine effective at 2 P.M. G.M.T. today He later set the deadline ahead to noon G.M.T. (7 A.M. E.ST) tomorrow because of what he termed "unfortunate communications delays"

Tel Aviv dispatches said fighting continued past the first deadline but that the order was expected to be respected momentarily. The hitch was blamed on a communications mixup which prevented Tel Aviv from receiving a reply from Egypt.

The agreement for direct negotiations between Egypt and Israel, through the chairmanship of the United Nations represents the first break in the solid Arab line-up against negotiations with the Jews.

The first intimation that Egypt was ready to talk directly with the Jews came in Cairo when an Egyptian proposal was presented to Bunche's personal representative, Dr. Pablo Azcarate. Azcarate promptly communicated it to Bunche here.

Accepted By Israelis

Bunche relayed the proposal to Henri Vigier, his representative in Tel Aviv. The Israeli Government accepted the proposal, which also carried the provision for the cease-fire, and this acceptance was relayed back to Bunche.

The Palestine situation will be reviewed tomorrow at 10 A.M. by the seven-member Palestine committee of the United Nations Security Council.

One of the points expected to be put before the committee concerns British charges that the Israeli army has set up a fortified strong-point 5 miles inside Egyptian territory.

Israel sources said yesterday their troops had penetrated into Egypt but that all Israeli soldiers had been withdrawn.

Bunche "Greatly Encouraged"

Bunche issued this one-sentence statement today:

"I am greatly encouraged by this development and earnestly hope that the negotiations contemplated will lead to permanent peace in the area."

The time and place for the negotiations will be fixed later.

Bunche talked today with Joseph B. Keenan, of Cleveland, who has been appointed as the United States member of the Palestine Conciliation Commission. Other members are Hussein Yalcin, of Turkey, and Claude de Boisanger, of France.

Observers here said the commission would be the logical body to assist in the direct negotiations between Egypt and Israel.

United Nations Announce Plan For Holding Plebiscite

Lake Success, N.Y., Jan. 6 (AP)—The United Nations formally announced tonight the plan under which India and Pakistan have accepted a truce and plebiscite in Kashmir.

Details of the plan were disclosed by the United Nations Commission for India and Pakistan after that body had heard the representative of Colombia, Dr. Alfredo Lozano, report on his talks with the two dominion governments in New Delhi and Karachi.

Official Notice To Council

Word that the two disputing governments had ordered a cease-fire New Year's night already had been received here from unofficial sources. The Security Council was notified officially by Dr. Josef Korbel, of Czechoslovakia, and Ambassador J. Klahr Huddle of the United States, chairman and vice chairman of the commission.

The plan fixed no specific date for the plebiscite, but states it will be held when the commission finds the cease-fire and truce arrangements are completed and preparations for the voting finished.

[Editor's Note — In a recent series of articles on India, Price Day, Sun staff correspondent, reported that, despite official denials of any agreement on procedure for settling the status of Kashmir, there were signs that such an agreement might be forthcoming.

[The province has been the scene of bitter dispute between India and Pakistan since October, 1947.]

To Name Administrator

The main points in the agreement were:

1. The secretary general of the United Nations will nominate a person of outstanding international prestige as a plebiscite administrator who will have virtually complete power during the plebiscite period.

2. All civil and military authorities in Kashmir will have to co-operate with the administrator in the preparation for and the holding of the plebiscite.

3. The disposition of Indian and Kashmir troops in the state will be determined by the administrator in consultation with the Indian Government.

4. The disposition of troops in the Azad, or so-called free part of Kashmir, similarly will be determined after consultation with local authorities.

5. All citizens who have left Kashmir because of the disturbances will be invited to return before the plebiscite. All noncitizens who have entered the state since August 15 for unlawful purposes will be required to leave.

6. All authorities in Kashmir will try to insure that there are no threats, coercion, intimidation, bribery or other undue influence on the voters.

The plebiscite is to determine whether Kashmir wishes to join Pakistan or India. The commission lauded the governments of India and Pakistan for their action in ordering a cease-fire.

Hitler Ranked 'a Baby' Beside the Politburo

NEW YORK, Jan. 6—(AP) Economic Cooperation Administrator Paul G. Hoffman said today "Hitler was a baby" compared with the Russian politburo.

Goal of the politburo, top Soviet policy-making body, is to "take over the world," Hoffman said at a news conference.

"If it were not for the Marshall Plan," he said, "there is danger that they would have Europe by now. Hitler was a baby compared with this gang. He was talking and they are acting."

BERN, SWITZERLAND JANUARY 6-(AP)-THE SWISS ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION WARNED TODAY AGAINST SPECULATORS OFFERING SMALL QUANTITIES OF URANIUM AT "FANTASTIC PRICES."

THE SALE AND PURCHASE OF URANIUM -- ELEMENT USED IN THE PRODUCTION OF ATOMIC ENERGY -- IS NOT GOVERNMENT-CONTROLLED IN SWITZERLAND, A STATEMENT BY THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION SAID URANIUM WAS AT PRESENT "ONE OF THE MOST DANGEROUS COMMODITIES OF SPECULATION."

"UNSCRUPULOUS DEALERS," THE STATEMENT SAID, "ARE DEMANDING PRICES FOR THIS METAL WHICH MUST BE DESCRIBED AS ABSOLUTELY FANTASTIC.

"THE PUBLIC IS EXPRESSLY WARNED AGAINST SUCH TRANSACTIONS, WHICH INVOLVE GREAT RISKS AND ARE AGAINST THE INTERESTS OF OUR COUNTRY."

DR. ALFRED KRETHLOV, A MEMBER OF THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION, SAID THE ORIGIN OF THE URANIUM SOLD BY SPECULATORS WAS NOT KNOWN, BUT, AS THERE IS NO URANIUM-PRODUCTION IN SWITZERLAND, IT MUST COME FROM A FOREIGN SOURCE.

"WE FREQUENTLY RECEIVE REPORTS OF URANIUM BEING OFFERED AT PRICES INVOLVING SEVERAL THOUSAND SWISS FRANCS PER KILOGRAM, AT LEAST TEN TIMES THE NORMAL MARKET VALUE" DR. KRETHLOV SAID.

THE QUANTITIES OF THE METAL OFFERED ARE USUALLY SO SMALL AS TO BE ENTIRELY USELESS FOR ATOMIC RESEARCH, DR. KRETHLOV ADDED, BUT THE SPECULATORS TRIED TO DISPOSE OF IT TO PERSONS WITHOUT ANY OF THE NECESSARY TECHNICAL KNOWLEDGE, WHO SAW IN URANIUM MERELY A HOPEFUL MEANS OF INVESTMENT.

Stockholm, Jan. 6--(AP)--Hundreds of thousands of gift packages from the United States to Berlin and the eastern zone of Germany have been piled up in southern Sweden because the Russians refused to accept them, postal authorities said tonight.

Soviet authorities even returned American Christmas packages to Sweden which were forwarded to Sassnitz, on Germany's Baltic coast, by regular Swedish train-ferry from Trelleborg.

The first batch of packages arrived Christmas eve at Malmoe, Sweden, on the American ship, Mecmac Hawk. It consisted of 31,170 bags. Fifteen train-cars, fully loaded, were sent to Sassnitz, but they were returned to Trelleborg because the Russians refused to accept them.

The postmaster in Trelleborg said the Russians' refusal to accept the parcels was formally based on a statement that the transport of American packages through Sweden to Germany was NOT in conformity with the international postal convention.

The U.S. packages were gifts from American citizens to civilians in the Soviet zone of Germany and in the [redacted] eastern and western sectors of Berlin, reports from Trelleborg said. Many of the packages contain food, which, it was feared, would [redacted] spoil.

Swedish postal authorities have asked American postal officials in Washington for instructions as to what to do with this mail, a high postal official said.

Besides the mail brought in the Hoosac Hawk, another 24,000 bags of packages was expected to arrive in another U.S. ship next week.

The stacked up packages are being stored in the free port of Malmoe pending instructions from Washington.

Swedish postal authorities were asked last November by U.S. authorities if Sweden could forward gift packages to Berlin and the soviet zone of Germany. Since Sweden has a regular train-ferry service from Trelleborg to Sassnitz, it appeared to be a simple matter.

Three trains carrying five carloads of packages were dispatched to Sassnitz before the postal office in Trelleborg was informed that Russian authorities in Berlin had refused to accept the packages.

BERLIN, JAN. 6-(AP)-THE ARMY GAVE THE HARNACK HOUSE CLUB AN ULTIMATUM TODAY--STOP SNUBBING GIS OR ELSE.
MAJ. GEN. GEORGE HAYS, U.S. DEPUTY COMMANDER IN GERMANY, GAVE THE TONY OFFICER-CIVILIAN CLUB A BROAD HINT IT WOULD LOSE THE USE OF FEDERAL FUNDS IF IT PERSISTED IM TRYING TO KEEP OUT ENLISTED MEN AS GUESTS.
A FACTION WHICH WANTS TO KEEP OUT THE LOWLY GI PROMPTLY TOYED WITH THE IDEA OF REORGANIZING HARNACK HOUSE AS A PRIVATE CLUB, BUT R.C. DEMARTIN OF HAMDEN, CONN., A BOARD MEMBER WHO OPPOSES THIS IDEA, SAID IT WOULD BE IMPRACTICAL FROM A MONEY STANDPOINT.
THE ISSUE OF ADMITTING GIS, SMOLDERING FOR SOME TIME, BURST INTO FLAME RECENTLY WHEN CONSTABULARY OFFICERS, LEADING A FIGHT TO BAR THE ENLISTED MEN, WON THEIR POINT IN A MEETING ATTENDED BY ONLY A FOURTH OF THE MEMBERS. SIGNS WERE POSTED BARRING GIS.
THEN THE FIGHT BROKE OUT IN THE OPEN, AND THE CLUB'S BOARD REMOVED THE SIGNS PENDING A FINAL DECISION.
GEN. HAYS CALLED IN THE CLUB'S BOARD AND TOLD THE MEMBERS REGULATIONS FORBID DISCRIMINATION WHERE FEDERAL FUNDS ARE USED AS SUBSIDY. THE ANTI-GI FACTION, HOWEVER, DEMANDED THAT THE FULL MEMBERSHIP VOTE ON WHETHER ENLISTED MEN SHOULD BE BARRED. THE CLUB HAS 400 OFFICERS AND 700 CIVILIANS AS MEMBERS.
A SPECIAL MEETING OF ALL MEMBERS HAS BEEN CALLED FOR TUESDAY NIGHT. DEMARTIN SAID THIS MEETING WOULD TAKE UP THE PROPOSAL TO PROGRAMME AS A PRIVATE CLUB.

AS A PRIVATE CLUB HARNACK HOUSE COULD BAR ANYONE IT CHOSE--BUT IT WOULD HAVE TO PAY RENT ON THE BIG MANSION WHICH HOUSES IT, EXTRA TRANSPORTATION COSTS FOR LIQUOR AND SUPPLIES, AND SALARIES FOR THE MANAGEMENT.
"THE RENT ALONE WOULD BE $1,100 A MONTH," DEMARTIN SAID. "WE PROBABLY WOULD HAVE TO FLY THE LIQUOR IN INSTEAD OF GETTING IT DIRECTLY FROM THE ARMY. THE SALE OF 45-CENT DRINKS WOULD BE OVER."
CLUBS LIKE THE HARNACK HOUSE ARE SET UP UNDER ARMY SUPERVISION. THE ARMY POST PROVIDES BUILDING, FUEL, WATER, ELECTRICITY, GAS AND OTHER FACILITIES AND THE RENT IS CHARGED AGAINST GERMAN REPARATIONS. FOOD AND LIQUOR COME FROM ARMY STOCKS. MONEY MAY BE PURCHASED LOCALLY. THE TAX-FREE PRIVILEGES GRANTED THE ARMY THUS ARE HANDED ON IN THE NATURE OF LOW PRICES FOR CLUB MEMBERS. A BOTTLE OF WHISKY THAT WOULD COST AS HIGH AS $5 IN NEW YORK COSTS ONLY THREE WHEN PURCHASED FROM ARMY STOCKS HERE.

Berlin, Jan. 6-(ap)-western allied aircraft busted the russian blockade wi

in the past 24 hours, 773 flights brought 6,494 tons of supplies into western berlin. it was the 12th straight day in which the city's minimum requirement of 4,000 tons had been surpassed.

armed russian soldiers patrolled the soviet sector borders in a new drive to curb blockade running by german motorists. the russians checked all german-licensed vehicles on both the british and americ sector borders. german traffic in food across the sector boundaries is heavy and the soviets impose periodic spot checks. however, they use their own sector police, usually, rather than russian soldiers.

the russian blockade, with its drain on raw materials, has caused a cut of 60 per cent in berlin's industrial output.

AN AMERICAN OFFICIAL SAID "BERLIN'S INDUSTRIALISTS HAVE BEEN GOING ON HOPE FOR SIX MONTHS. RIGHT NOW FACTORIES ARE USING THEIR INVENTORIES OF RAW MATERIALS AND HOPING BEFORE THEY RUN OUT TO GET MORE IN ON THE AIRLIFT."
HE SAID THOSE FACTORIES PRODUCING ITEMS ESSENTIAL TO THE CITY'S ECONOMY STILL RUN AT CAPACITY. THE OTHERS, NOT ONLY HAVE BEEN FORCED TO CURTAIL PRODUCTION BUT ALSO ARE BEGINNING TO RUN SHORT OF CASH AS A RESULT. GERMAN REPORTS HAVE SAID 9,826 PLANTS HAVE CLOSED IN THE WESTERN SECTORS.
GERMAN INDUSTRIALISTS AND CITY OFFICIALS HAVE ASKED THAT THE AIRLIFT BE EXPANDED TO BRING IN 6,500 TONS A DAY AND ALLOCATE 1,375 TONS OF THAT TO THINGS NEEDED BY FACTORIES, THE OFFICIAL SAID.
THE OFFICIAL SAID, HOWEVER, THAT "EIGHT THOUSAND TONS IS MORE NEARLY CORRECT FOR ALL THE CITY'S REQUIREMENTS."
THE AIRLIFT EXCEEDS 6,000 TONS ON GOOD DAYS. IN THE 24-HOUR PERIOD ENDED AT NOON YESTERDAY THE PLANES DELIVERED 6,393 TONS. OFFICIALS HOPE TO BOOST THE AVERAGE TO 6,500 WITH THE ADDITION OF MORE PLANES.

FRANKFURT,GERMANY,JAN.6-(AP)-AN AMERICAN JUDGE IN THE I.G.FARBEN WAR CRIMES CASE SAYS PENALTIES AGAINST SOME DEFENDANTS MIGHT HAVE BEEN MORE SEVERE IF COMPLETE RECORDS HAD BEEN AVAILABLE.

JUDGE PAUL M.HEBERT, OF BATON ROUGE, LA., SAID IN A CONCURRING OPINION MADE PUBLIC YESTERDAY BY AMERICAN WAR CRIMES AUTHORITIES IN NUERNBERG:

"THE DESTRUCTION OF IMPORTANT FARBEN RECORDS AT THE DIRECTION OF CERTAIN OF THE DEFENDANTS HAS PROBABLY DEPRIVED THE PROSECUTION OF ESSENTIAL LINKS IN ITS CHAIN OF INCRIMINATING EVIDENCE AND LEAVES ONE WITH THE FEELING THAT A DIFFERENT RESULT MIGHT POSSIBLY BE CALLED FOR, IF THE COMPLETE FARBEN FILES WERE NOW AVAILABLE TO THE WAR CRIMES PROSECUTION."

HEBERT WAS ILL AT THE TIME THE TRIBUNAL'S OPINION WAS READ.

THIRTEEN OF THE 23 FARBEN DEFENDANTS WERE GIVEN JAIL TERMS LAST JULY BY THE AMERICAN TRIBUNAL ON WHICH HEBERT SAT.

BY A.I.GOLDBERG
PRAGUE, CZECHOSLOVAKIA, JAN.6-(AP)-MILITARY SECURITY HID TONIGHT ANY EXACT INFORMATION HERE ABOUT CZECHOSLOVAKIA SUPPLYING PLANES AND MUNITIONS TO ISRAEL.
THE PRESUMPTION WAS THAT THE STATEMENT OF THE BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE CHARGING CZECHOSLOVAKIA WITH SUCH ACTION WAS TRUE IN SOME RESPECTS.
THE ONLY STATEMENT FROM OFFICIAL QUARTERS, HOWEVER, WAS "NO COMMENT." THERE WAS NO DENIAL IN PRAGUE OF THE ACCUSING STATEMENTS MADE BY THE FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN IN LONDON.
THE KNOWN FACTS ARE THESE:
CZECHOSLOVAKIA LONG HAS HAD A N IMPORTANT ARMS INDUSTRY.
THE INDUSTRY PRODUCES SMALL SPORT PLANES. THERE IS OFFICIAL SECRECY ABOUT THE PRODUCTION OF OTHER SMALL PLANES WHICH MIGHT BE FITTED OUT AS MILITARY CRAFT. IT IS KNOWN THAT CZECH INDUSTRY PRODUCES SUCH PLANES ON MESSERSCHMITT MODELS.
IT IS KNOWN THAT A NUMBER OF FOREIGN FLIERS--INCLUDING AMERICANS--WERE BASED LAST SUMMER AROUND KARLOVY VARY (CARLSBAD) AND ZATEC, WHERE THE AIRPORT WITH THE LONGEST RUNWAY IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA WOULD ALLOW BIG TRANSPORT PLANES TO TAKE OFF.
ZATEC IS NEAR PRAGUE. OCCASIONALLY SOME FLIERS, BETWEEN FLIGHTS THAT TOOK THEM THROUGH ITALY AND YUGOSLAVIA TO PALESTINE, DRIFTED INTO PRAGUE FOR NIGHT-CLUBBING.
THEY BEGAN TO DISAPPEAR LAST AUTUMN SOME TIME AFTER ONE CONVERTED U.S. ARMY TRANSPORT PLANE CRASHED NEAR ZATEC. THE CRASH WAS NOT PUBLIC KNOWLEDGE IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA. BUT FLIERS REPORTED SEEING THE CRASHED SKELETON OF THE PLANE ON THE FIELD, AND THE ACCIDENT RECENTLY WAS REPORTED IN FLORIDA STORIES ABOUT THE INDICTMENTS OF FORMER U.S. ARMY FLIERS IN THE GUN-RUNNING TRADE.
ALL LAST SUMMER HAGANAH AGENTS RECRUITED CZECH, POLISH AND OTHER JEWISH YOUTHS IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA FOR ISRAEL'S LAND ARMY. THEY LEFT HERE IN DETACHMENTS OF 20, 50 AND 100, WITH GOVERNMENT EXIT PERMITS.
FOLLOWING RUSSIA'S LEAD, CZECHOSLOVAKIA HAS PROCLAIMED ITS SYMPATHY WITH ISRAEL'S FIGHT. AN AIR CONNECTION WAS ESTABLISHED FROM PRAGUE TO PALESTINE. THERE HAS BEEN A BACK-AND-FORTH STREAM OF MINOR CZECH OFFICIALS.

A strong Israeli legation has been established here since it has become such an important gateway between the east and the west.

The Egyptian legation has [illegible] kept a charge d'affaires in Prague and has promised to send a new minister despite its low-voiced protests over Czechoslovakia's kind attentions to Israel.

NANKING, JAN.6-(AP)-CHINESE COMMUNISTS APPEARED TODAY TO BE REPLYING TO CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S PEACE OFFER WITH THUNDEROUS ARTILLERY FIRE.
REPORTS REACHING NANKING SAID THE REDS HAD RESUMED ATTACKS ON THE FORMER SUCHOW GARRISON AFTER A LULL OF NEARLY TWO WEEKS. THIS FORCE HAS BEEN TRAPPED FOR WEEKS 150 MILES OR SO NORTHWEST OF NANKING.
(SHORTLY BEFORE, SHANGHAI PRESS DISPATCHES HAD SAID THE COMMUNISTS IN NORTH CHINA ALSO HAD BEGUN SHELLING TIENTSIN'S DEFENSES. TIENTSIN IS UNDER SIEGE ALONG WITH PEIPING. PEIPING, HOWEVER, REMAINED QUIET.)
THE REDS WERE SAID TO HAVE BEGUN SHELLING THE TIGHTLY-ENCIRCLED FORCE AFTER A VOCAL BARRAGE TO SURRENDER WAS FIRED FROM BATTERIES OF LOUDSPEAKERS WHEELED UP TO THE FRONT LINES.
THE SUCHOW GARRISON ORIGINALLY WAS SAID TO NUMBER 250,000 MEN, BUT THERE WAS ONE REPORT THAT IT MAY HAVE LOST 100,000 MEN.
GEN.SUN YUAN LIANG, WHO COMMANDED THE ARMY GROUP, REPORTEDLY ESCAPED TO HANKOW. THE INDEIENDENT NEWSPAPER PEOPLES DAILY QUOTED HIM AS SAYING THE FORCE HAD BEEN CUT [illegible] 150,000 TO 200,000. HE SAID THE MEN HAD EATEN ALL THE HORSES AND HUNDREDS WERE DESERTING.
MEANWHILE, INFORMATION DIRECTOR SHEN CHANG-HUAN TOLD REPORTERS THAT CHINESE COMMUNIST RADIO ATTACKS ON PRESIDENT CHIANG'S PEACE PROPOSAL WERE NO REPLY "EITHER FORMAL OR INFORMAL."

(THE "REPORTER" IN THIS CASE IS A COMMENTATOR FOR THE COMMUNIST NEW CHINA NEWS AGENCY, WHICH PROCLAIMS THE PARTY LINE).
AS FOR PUBLISHED REPORTS THAT THE GOVERNMENT IS ASKING THE UNITED STATES, RUSSIA, FRANCE AND BRITAIN TO MEDIATE, THE SPOKESMAN SAID:
"SO FAR AS I KNOW, NO GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL HAS BEEN AUTHORIZED TO REQUEST MEDIATION FROM ALL OR ANY OF THOSE COUNTRIES, NOR FROM ANY OTHER FOREIGN POWER."
THE COMMUNIST RADIO RETURNED TO THE ATTACK AGAIN TODAY. A BROADCAST HEARD IN NANKING SAID CHAING'S PEACE BID WAS AN ATTEMPT TO "PRESERVE THE KUOMINTANG (GOVERNMENT PARTY) REACTIONARIES" AND TO "PRESERVE THE FREEDOM OF OPPRESSION AND EXPLOITATION" OF CHINA.
NANKING OBSERVERS SAID CHIANG'S MESSAGE APPEARED TO HAVE GENERATED SUCH A NATION-WIDE DEMAND FOR PEACE THAT THE GOVERNMENT WOULD HAVE TO TAKE DEFINITE ACTION BEFORE LONG.
THE COURSES OPEN SEEM TO BE THE SAME AS THOSE PREVAILING BEFORE THE OFFER TO NEGOTIATE WAS MADE--CHIANG TO RETIRE AND LET SOMEONE ELSE TRY TO DEAL WITH THE REDS, A RETREAT TO THE SOUTH OR AN ATTEMPT TO STAND ON THE YANGTZE IN THE HEART OF CHINA.

THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT SAYS IT AT LAST HAS KILLED RUSSIAN-TRAINED LIU PO-CHENG, ONE-EYED COMMUNIST COMMANDER IN CENTRAL CHINA WHOSE SKILLED GENERALSHIP HEAPED DISASTER ON NATIONALIST ARMIES.

IF SO, THE COMMUNIST ARMIES HAVE LOST ONE OF THEIR MOST ABLE TACTICIANS AT A TIME WHEN THEY URGENTLY NEED HIM. THE FORMIDABLE YANGTZE MUST BE CROSSED NOW FOR THE RED CONQUEST OF NANKING.

GEN. TENG WEN-YI, GOVERNMENT MILITARY SPOKESMAN, SAID IN NANKING YESTERDAY THAT GOVERNMENT BOMBERS KILLED GENERAL LIU IN A RAID DEC. 13 ON A VILLAGE ON THE BATTLEFRONT NORTH OF THE CAPITAL.

AT THAT TIME LIU WAS LEADING HIS TROOPS IN THE ANNIHILATION OF THE TRAPPED 12TH ARMY GROUP. THIS NATIONALIST FORCE OF 110,000 MEN HAD BEEN MOVED UP FROM HANKOW TO TRY TO CHECK THE RED ADVANCE TOWARD THE YANGTZE.

IT WAS RECALLED THAT THE GOVERNMENT HAS "KILLED" LIU ON SEVERAL PREVIOUS OCCASIONS. EACH TIME HE TURNED UP, HARDER TO HOLD THAN

...ER. IN ONE PREVIOUS BATTLE HE LOST AN EYE.

"THIS TIME," GENERAL TENG TOLD REPORTERS, "HIS DEATH IS DEFINITELY CONFIRMED. HIS LEG WAS TORN OFF AND HE RECEIVED BODY WOUNDS WHICH KILLED HIM."

THE SPOKESMAN SAID LIU'S BODY WAS PLACED IN A COFFIN PURCHASED WITH A FEW BUSHELS OF WHEAT AND BURIED AT THE VILLAGE OF TINGPING, SOUTHWEST OF SUHSIEN, WHERE LIU SPRANG THE TRAP WHICH DOOMED ALL THE MAJOR GOVERNMENT FORCES OF CENTRAL CHINA ON THE FRONT NORTH OF NANKING.

LIU WAS WINNING VICTORIES IN CENTRAL CHINA LONG BEFORE RED COMMANDERS IN THE NORTH BEGAN STRIKING THE SLEDGEHAMMER BLOWS THAT ROUTED NATIONALIST ARMIES FROM MANCHURIA AND ALL BUT SANK CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S GOVERNMENT.

LIU DID HIS WORK SO WELL HE WAS SOON ABLE TO JOIN UP WITH THE EAST CHINA ARMIES OF GEN. CHEN YI, FORGING A SOLID SUPPLY LINK FROM NORTH TO CENTRAL CHINA.

IF LIU IS DEAD, THEN GENERAL CHEN, A HIGHLY-SUCCESSFUL GENERAL HIMSELF, UNDOUBTEDLY WILL LEAD THE CLIMACTIC CAMPAIGN ON THE YANGTZE.

SEOUL, FRIDAY, JAN. 7-(AP)-PRESIDENT SYNGMAN RHEE SAID TODAY REPUBLIC OF KOREA WOULD SEEK TO RECOVER EVERYTHING JAPAN TOOK FROM THIS ASIATIC NATION DURING 40 YEARS OF OCCUPATION.

HE SAID DR.HENRY DE YOUNG, AN AMERICAN-EDUCATED KOREAN, HAS BEEN SENT TO TOKYO WITH THE RANK OF MINISTER TO PRESENT KOREA'S REPARATIONS CLAIMS.

RHEE TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE HE WOULD PREFER TO DEMAND REPARATIONS FROM THE TIME OF THE HIDEYOSHI INVASION 350 YEARS AGO, BUT REALIZED THAT WOULD NOT BE PRACTICAL.

"GENERALLY SPEAKING, THE CLAIMS SHOULD COVER A PERIOD OF THE LAST 40 YEARS -- UP TO OUR LIBERATION IN 1945," HE SAID.

RHEE ADDED THAT AT LEAST ONE CLAIM WOULD GO BACK 350 YEARS; A CLAIM TO THE LARGE ISLAND OF TSUSHIMA, FOR WHICH THE STRAIT BETWEEN KOREA AND JAPAN WAS NAMED. JAPAN TOOK TSUSHIMA DURING THE HIDEYOSHI INVASION.

NIGHT LEAD PALESTINE (370)
BY ERIC GOTTGETREU

TEL AVIV, ISRAEL, JAN.6-(AP)-ISRAEL HAS AGREED TO AN IMMEDIATE CEASE-FIRE IN THE PALESTINE WAR, AN ISRAELI ARMY SPOKESMAN SAID TONIGHT. HE SAID A CEASE-FIRE WOULD BE RESPECTED AS A PRELUDE TO ARMISTICE TALKS WITH EGYPT.

FIGHTING CONTINUED IN THE HOLY LAND, HOWEVER, AND JEWISH SOURCES BLAMED IT ON TECHNICAL DIFFICULTIES. AN ISRAELI ARMY SPOKESMAN SAID HE BELIEVED THE FIGHTING MIGHT END DURING THE NIGHT.

(AT LAKE SUCCESS THE ACTING U.N. MEDIATOR, DR.RALPH BUNCHE, SAID EGYPT HAS AGREED FOR THE FIRST TIME TO ENTER INTO DIRECT NEGOTIATIONS FOR AN ARMISTICE.

(HE ADVANCED THE CEASE-FIRE DEADLINE TO NOON GMT. (7 A.M. EST.) FRIDAY BECAUSE COMMUNICATIONS DELAYS PREVENTED BOTH EGYPT AND ISRAEL FROM RECEIVING CONFIRMATION OF [illegible]'S ACCEPTANCE OF THE CEASE-FIRE IN TIME TO ABIDE BY AN EARLIER DEADLINE. BUNCHE ORIGINALLY HAD MADE THE DEADLINE 2 P.M. GMT. (9 A.M. EST. TODAY.)

THE ISRAELI ARMY SPOKESMAN DISCLOSED THAT A LARGE NUMBER OF EGYPTIAN PRISONERS WERE TAKEN DURING THE PAST 48 HOURS WHEN ISRAELI FORCES INTERCEPTED AN EGYPTIAN TROOP TRAIN JUST NORTH OF RAFA, NEAR THE EGYPTIAN FRONTIER.

A NUMBER OF EGYPTIANS WERE KILLED AND WOUNDED IN THE ATTACK, THE JEWISH SPOKESMAN SAID. HE ALSO CONFIRMED THE DESTRUCTION OF EGYPTIAN GROUND MATERIAL ON THE NEGEV BATTLEFRONT AND THE DOWNING OF TWO EGYPTIAN PLANES.

ON PALESTINE'S CENTRAL FRONT, MORTAR SHELLING WAS REPORTED FROM THE RAMAT HAKOVESH REGION YESTERDAY, WHERE ISRAELI AND IRAQI UNITS FACE EACH OTHER.

(IN CAIRO, AN EGYPTIAN WAR MINISTRY STATEMENT SAID TONIGHT EXTENSIVE FIGHTING BETWEEN EGYPTIAN AND JEWISH FORCES IN THE NEGEV RAGED DURING THE PAST 24 HOURS. THE STATEMENT SAID THE EGYPTIANS REPULSED ISRAZBI ATTACKS, INFLICTING HEAVY CASUALTIES IN LIVES AND MATERIAL. IT ADDED THAT JEWISH PLANES HAD BOMBED REFUGEE CAMPS, CAUSING CASUALTIES IN DEAD AND WOUNDED.

("OUR CONCENTRATED ARTILLERY FIRE DURING THE LAST 24 HOURS WAS DEADLY TO THE ENEMY," THE EGYPTIAN STATEMENT SAID.

(AN IRAQI COMMUNIQUE SAID "SKIRMISHES WITH THE ENEMY OCCURRED IN THE QALQIYAH (CENTRAL FRONT) SECTOR IN WHICH THE ENEMY SUFFERED GREAT LOSSES.")

WB718PES

JAN 1949

THE TROOPS WITHDREW ACCORDING TO PLAN, THE SPOKESMAN SAID, AND "THERE WAS NEVER AT ANY TIME ANY DESIGN ON THE PART OF ISRAEL TO OCCUPY EGYPTIAN TERRITORY."

HE SAID THE UNITED STATES HAD MADE REPRESENTATIONS EXPRESSING THE "DESIRE FOR PROMOTION OF PEACE IN THE MIDDLE EAST-DESIRE WITH WHICH THE ISRAELI GOVERNMENT IDENTIFIES ITSELF COMPLETELY."

(THIS INFORMATION, WHICH PASSED THROUGH ISRAELI CENSORSHIP, DID NOT GIVE THE INVASION DATES. THE BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE DISCLOSED DEC.29, WHILE THE SECURITY COUNCIL WAS CONSIDERING ITS LATEST CEASE FIRE ORDER, REPORTS OF SUCH A RAID ON EL ARISH. THERE WAS NO CONFIRMATION FROM TEL AVIV AT THAT TIME.

(A BRITISH GOVERNMENT SOURCE SAID LAST NIGHT BRITAIN MIGHT ASK THE SECURITY COUNCIL TO LIFT ITS EMBARGO ON ARMS SHIPMENTS TO ARAB COUNTRIES IF ISRAELI PATROL ACTION ON THE EGYPTIAN FRONTIER CONTINUED. HE SAID, HOWEVER, THERE WAS ABSOLUTELY "NO QUESTION" OF BRITAIN GOING TO WAR WITH ISRAEL, AS SOME BRITISH NEWSPAPERS HAVE SUGGESTED. A MUTUAL DEFENSE TREATY LINKS BRITAIN AND EGYPT.)

BEFORE HANDING DOWN A FORMAL VERDICT, HOWEVER, FINANCIAL EXPERTS IN WASHINGTON AND PARIS, WHERE IT WAS WORKED OUT, WERE EXAMINING THE PROPOSAL CAREFULLY. BOTH POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC ANGLES WERE BEING TAKEN UP MEANWHILE WITH THE BRITISH AND FRENCH.
AMERICAN AUTHORITIES WANT TO MAKE SURE THAT THE WEST DOES NOT ACCEPT ANY PLAN WHICH WOULD HAND ECONOMIC CONTROL OF THE GERMAN CAPITAL TO THE SOVIETS AND THUS NULLIFY THE COSTLY AIRLIFT WHICH CARRIES SUPPLIES TO THE WESTERN SECTORS OF THE CITY.
THE NEW SCHEME, AS REPORTED TO THE STATE DEPARTMENT, CALLS FOR CREATION OF TWO SEPARATE BANKING SYSTEMS FOR BERLIN, WITH SOVIET CURRENCY USED FOR THE ENTIRE CITY--BUT UNDER JOINT FOUR-POWER CONTROL THROUGH A COORDINATING COMMITTEE AND A SINGLE BANK OF ISSUE.
THERE ALSO IS A PROVISION FOR FULL PUBLICITY ON THE CREDIT AND TRADE POLICIES OF BOTH THE SOVIET AND WESTERN ZONES.
RUSSIA CLAMPED ON THE LAND BLOCKADE LAST JUNE WHEN THE ALLIES INTRODUCED THEIR OWN CURRENCY INTO BERLIN OVER SOVIET OBJECTIONS THAT IT THREATENED TO WRECK THE CITY'S ECONOMY. THE WEST HAD SAID IT WOULD ACCEPT SOVIET CURRENCY ONLY IF IT WAS UNDER FOUR POWER CONTROL.

Marshall Resigns, Acheson Succeeds Him; Truman Declares Foreign Policy Stands

JAN 1949

Dean Acheson Named To Succeed Marshall (AP)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7—(AP) President Truman today assigned a new team to run American foreign policy.

At a news conference, Mr. Truman announced:

General George C. Marshall, 68, and in ill health, has resigned as secretary of state effective January 20.

Acheson Named

Dean Acheson, lawyer and former undersecretary who is 13 years younger than Marshall, will be the new secretary and number one man in the president' second term cabinet.

Robert A. Lovett, 53, Wall Street banker and Marshall's undersecretary, will resign along with his chief January 20 for "personal reasons," meaning that he wants to get back to private life.

James E. Webb, 11 years younger than Lovett at 42, and now Mr. Truman's budget director, will succeed Lovett as undersecretary of state.

The immediate reaction to the Acheson appointment was mostly favorable. Cordell Hull, former secretary of state, called Acheson a man of "outstanding ability." Senator Connally (D-Tex), new chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, expressed pleasure while calling Marshall's departure regrettable.

Senator Wiley (R-Wis) said he expected some "concern" among senators over frequent changes in the state department which, he said, have prevented "consistency" in foreign policy.

The changes are subject to senate confirmation.

It was indicated that some members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee may explore Acheson's relations, while he was previously in the state department, with Alger Hiss, former department official.

Hiss is now under indictment for perjury. The charge is that he falsely denied he gave secret government papers to Whittaker Chambers, acknowledged former courier for a communist spy ring.

Alger Hiss' brother, Donald, is one of 23 partners in the Acheson law firm—Convington, Burling, Rublee, Acheson and Shorb.

On Aug. 31, 1948, members of the House Unamerican Activities Committee released testimony by A. A. Berle, former assistant secretary of state, dealing with the Hiss brothers. Berle said that after Chambers came to him in 1939 with a story of a secret red network in the nation's capitol, he looked into the record of the Hiss brothers. He said Acheson vouched for them.

In Britain today, the appointment of Acheson was greeted enthusiastically by high officials, who called him a "friend of Britain."

Truman Lauds Marshall

In accepting Marshall's resignation, Mr. Truman paid about the highest praise it would be possible for a president to apply to an associate. He said that Marshall was virtually an "indispensable man" and that he had hoped the general would be able to continue as secretary of state after recovering from the kidney operation he underwent Dec. 7.

Now, however, the President said in his letter to Marshall, he is "unwilling to assume the responsibility of furhter jeopardizing your health." Marshall is at Pinehurst, N. C., where he is slowly convalescing. He said he had no immediate plans for the future.

To reporters at a news conference, Mr. Truman remarked, "I think Gen. Marshall is the outstanding man of the war period."

In accepting Lovett's resignation, Mr. Truman praised him for "the highest intellectual integrity xxx untiring industry, outstanding ability and selfless devotion to the public interest."

During the election campaigns, there were widespread reports that Mr. Truman was bitter about Lovett's actions in balking several moves in foreign policy. Both Marshall and Lovett held aloof from the presidential campaign. The President, however, denounced reports that he was displeased with Lovett and his letter today gave no hint of unfriendliness.

Acheson And Webb To Get Marshall, Lovett Offices

Biographical sketches of Acheson and Webb on Page 3

Washington, Jan. 7 (AP)—President Truman today named Dean Acheson to replace the ailing Secretary of State Marshall, but emphasized that this top Cabinet shake-up will not alter America's cold war strategy.

Mr. Truman announced at his news conference that Marshall is resigning, effective January 20, for reasons of health, and will be suceeded by Acheson, who served as Under Secretary with Cordell Hull.

Asserting that these and several other top-level switches in his Administration will mean no change in American foreign policy, the President declared specifically and in strong language that there is absolutely no foundation to reports that he wanted to soften America's present "tough" policy in dealing with Russia.

Lovett Also Resigning

Mr. Truman announced Marshall's resignation suddenly after opening his news conference by saying he had some announcements to make.

In short order then he said the 68-year-old Marshall and Under Secretary Robert A. Lovett, a Wall Street banker, are resigning from their jobs, effective January 20, Inauguration Day for Mr. Truman's new term.

To replace them, he said, he has named 55-year-old Dean Acheson, Washington lawyer and stanch party Democrat, as Secretary of State, and James E. Webb, the present Budget Director as Under Secretary.

Marshall Recovering

Mr. Truman announced further that Frank Pace, assistant budget director under Webb, will be promoted to director and that Fred J. Lawton, a career man in the Budget Bureau, would succeed Pace.

The President disclosed that the letters of resignation from Marshall and Lovett had reached him under date of January 3. That was almost a month after Marshall, just back from a United Nations meeting at Paris, had a kidney removed at the Army's Walter Reed Hospital.

Marshall is now recovering from the operation at his home in Pinehurst, N.C., and Lovett has been actively running the State Department.

Reorganization Expected

Lovett's tenure of office has been dependent on Marshall's. Both men had long counted on resigning when Mr. Truman's new term began.

Acheson, whose law office is in Washington, was unavailable immediately after the President's announcement because he was attending a meeting of the Hoover Commission on Government Reorganization.

One of his first big jobs will probably be a reorganization of the State Department along Hoover Commission lines.

No Break In Policy

Both Acheson and Webb are expected to begin working directly with Lovett in a few days so that there will be no break in the continuity of American foreign policy when they take over.

In a speech at Lansing, Mich., last September 30, Acheson declared that "we live in dangerous times because of the decisions of another power which are beyond the control of any or all of us."

No Foundation In Fact

Mr. Truman made no effort to conceal his extreme regret at losing Marshall's services. He re-emphasized that "I think General Marshall is the outstanding man" of the war period.

After the President made the announcement he was asked whether the personnel shifts meant "any change in foreign relations along the lines of the article written by Jay Franklin (in today's Life magazine).

Mr. Truman declared that it does not mean any change. He said the article was absolutely without foundation in fact and that in almost every sentence and every paragraph there was some error of fact.

[In New York, Joseph J. Thorndike, Jr., managing editor said "Life presented this article as the views of someone who has been close to the President, just as in our November 15 issue we published Franklin's first-hand account of the inside strategy of the President's campaign.

Differences Stated

["Our own reservations and disagreements with Mr. Franklin's views on President Truman's foreign policy were stated in our editorial note preceding the article."]

Franklin, who was not at the White House news conference today, said afterward he had no comment.

Later, Oscar Ewing, Federal Security Administrator, took issue with an editors' foreword on the Franklin article which said "it seems clear that Mr. Franklin reflects the views of others close to the President, such as David Niles, Oscar Ewing and Senator Claude Pepper."

Never Has Seen Franklin

David K. Niles is a presidential assistant. Senator Pepper (D., Fla.) has criticized some aspects of United States policy abroad.

"This is utterly absurd," Ewing said.

"So far as I know I have never laid eyes on Franklin.

"The President and the President alone determines our foreign policy. I am now and have consistently been in complete accord with that policy."

The main point of Franklin's article was that Mr. Truman was now waging a fight inside his Cabinet, chiefly against Lovett and Secretary of Defense Forrestal, to soften American policy toward Russia in hope of clearing the way for peace.

Double Policy Denied

The President then was asked what he could say about "speculation that there is a Forrestal-Marshall-Lovett foreign policy as distinguished from a Truman foreign policy."

Again he said that such an idea is without foundation in fact.

The foreign policy of the United States, Mr. Truman said, has been inaugurated by the President and carried out by the Secretary of State and the President has given the Secretary of State 100 per cent support in his work.

Hull praised the appointment of Acheson as "a splendid one from every viewpoint."

He said Acheson "will bring to this high office a long and varied experience in international affairs.

"Outstanding Ability"

"As Secretary of State, Mr. Acheson will display the same type of outstanding ability that has characterized his previous service to the nation."

Senator Connally (D., Texas), the Democrats' Foreign Relations chairman for the new Congress, praised Marshall highly and said his departure is "regrettable."

Connally said: "The appointment of Mr. Dean Acheson as Secretary of State will give to that high office a man well trained in foreign relations and familiar with the administration of the Department of State.

Reaction Is Favorable

"His appointment is pleasing to me as chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations."

Early congressional comment, on the average, was highly favorable to the Acheson selection, without any suggestion of trouble over confirmation.

Wiley Sees "Concern"

Senator Wiley (R., Wis.), however, said he expected "concern" in the Foreign Relations Committee over frequent changes in the State Department which he said have prevented "consistency and continuity in United States foreign policy."

He also said there will be interest in whether there will be an "overhauling of the State Department to make sure that the last remnant of all leftist groups is removed therefrom."

Letters on State Dept. Change

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7 (AP).—The complete texts of the letters exchanged between President Truman and Secretary of State George C. Marshall and Under Secretary of State Robert A. Lovett:

Marshall to Truman

Jan. 3, 1949.

My Dear Mr. President:

I regret that it is necessary for me to submit my resignation as Secretary of State.

Please accept my thanks for the extraordinary consideration and complete support you have given me these past three years. I shall never forget your kindness and I submit this resignation with affectionate regard and great respect.

Faithfully yours,

G. C. MARSHALL.

Truman to Marshall

Jan. 7, 1949.

My Dear General Marshall:

Your letter of Jan. 3 emphasizes to me that considerations of health compel your decision to return to private life which I had hoped in your country's interest could be long deferred.

Those of us who have had extensive experience in public affairs know full well that there are very few indispensable men. Happily for the continuity of government, there appears from time to time a man of outstanding ability whose service in one post of responsibility gives him exceptional qualification to discharge other duties of equal moment in a quite different field of activity. You are the exemplification of the type of public servant I have in mind.

As Chief of Staff of the United States Army you were the guide and counselor of two Commanders in Chief. You brought to the performance of your task abilities and qualifications which inspired the armies of the democratic nations to victory in a war unparalleled in magnitude and in the vastness of the issues involved.

When the great office of Secretary of State became vacant it seemed to me fortunate that you were available for the position, although you had richly earned retirement. As it turned out, your previous training and experience were a preparation for the onerous duties which befell you in directing our foreign affairs—particularly in the formulation and execution of the Marshall plan.

I had hoped that with medical treatment and rest and recuperation you could continue in office. I am, however, unwilling to assume the responsibility of further jeopardizing your health. I accept, therefore, effective on Jan. 20, 1949, your resignation as Secretary of State. In taking this action reluctantly and with deep regret, I heartily reciprocate your sentiments of affection and respect.

Very sincerely yours,

HARRY S. TRUMAN.

Lovett to Truman

Jan. 3, 1949.

My Dear Mr. President:

For personal reasons with which you are familiar, I respectfully submit my resignation as Under Secretary of State.

I thank you most sincerely for the confidence you have reposed in me and for your unfailing consideration and kindness.

With great respect and deep appreciation, I am faithfully yours,

ROBERT A. LOVETT.

Truman to Lovett

Jan. 7, 1949.

My Dear Bob:

I have received with heartfelt regret your letter of Jan. 3d. Because of my familiarity with the personal considerations which prompt it, I have no recourse but to comply with its terms and accept your resignation as the Under Secretary of State, effective Jan. 20, 1949.

In taking this action I need hardly assure you, as you return to private pursuits, that I heartily reciprocate the personal sentiments of friendship and respects which you express.

You have earned the gratitude of the nation for outstanding service. As special assistant to the Secretary of War and as Assistant Secretary of War for Air, you had gained invaluable experience before I called you to assume the intricate responsibilities of the office of the Under Secretary of State.

The country has been fortunate in having the benefit of your expert abilities in peace as well as in war. You have been guided and inspired through all of your varied service by the highest intellectual integrity and you have brought to each task untiring industry, outstanding ability and selfless devotion to the public interest.

Although you must now relinquish public office, I shall like to think that we can call upon you from time to time for the advice and counsel which you can give out of your rich experience.

With every good wish,

Very sincerely yours,

HARRY S. TRUMAN.

No Future Plans, Marshall Says

Pinehurst, N.C., Jan. 7 (AP)—Gen. George C. Marshall, who resigned today as Secretary of State, said at his home here that he has no plans for the immediate future.

The General said a kidney operation performed last month has been "entirely successful." He disclosed that he had taken short walks in the last two days about his home, Liscombe Lodge.

He said his doctors had told him it would be at least six weeks before the effects of the operation wore off.

Mrs. Marshall Has Cold

General Marshall said he was pleased that Mrs. Marshall would get a respite from the pressure of the last ten years. Mrs. Marshall was confined to her room with a cold and was unable to appear with her husband when photographs were made today.

General Marshall had no comment on foreign policy. He said he had been out of touch with facts relating to various issues since he entered Walter Reid Hospital at Washington in December.

He said President Truman had been aware of his desire to resign since his return from a United Nations meeting in Paris.

West Europe's Leaders Sorry Marshall Quit

E. SHANEE (N)

Promise to Help Acheson; Czech Radio Sees Role of 'Warmongers' Cut

LONDON, Jan. 7—(AP) Western European leaders today expressed regret at the retirement of Secretary of State George C. Marshall and promised cooperation with his successor, Dean Acheson.

Britain's Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin said Marshall "may be assured we shall not rest" until the European recovery program—known as the Marshall Plan—is "brought to complete fruition."

Bevin added in an official statement that Acheson "is no stranger to us and he, too, may be assured of our continued cooperation." Of Marshall, Bevin said: "This great American, who did as much as any one man to win the war, has since devoted his whole efforts to restoring the wrecked economy of Europe and to establishing firm foundations for world peace."

He referred to Marshall as "one of the great U. S. secretaries of state."

High British government officials privately said Acheson was considered a "friend of Britain."

Western Europe generally received the news of U. S. State department changes with the hope that there would be no fundamental shift in American foreign policy.

French officials said they regretted Marshall's illness. They expressed surprise that W. Averell Harriman, roving ambassador for the ERP or Chief Justice Fred Vinson had not been appointed to succeed him.

Italian Premier Alcide De Gasperi said Marshall's resignation will have no effect on the carrying out of present policies. De Gasperi said he remembered well the "friendliness and good will toward Italy" shown by Acheson in the past.

The Czech radio broadcast the commentary of the left wing agency "Telepress" that Acheson was a personal friend of President Truman and probably could not be "reached" by "warmongers." The government radio said Marshall's resignation was "no surprise" in view of his long illness.

The Soviet-sponsored Radio Berlin had "no comment" on the changes, but there was regret in western Germany at the departure of Marshall.

Acheson Choice Pleases Allies

JAN 1949

London, Jan. 7 (AP)—Western Europe received the news of the United States State Department switches today with a mixed reaction—regret at the retirement of George Marshall and hope that American foreign policy will continue unchanged.

The appointment of Dean Acheson as Marshall's successor was generally welcomed.

French officials expressed surprise that W. Averell Harriman, roving ambassador for the European Recovery Program, or Chief Justice Fred Vinson had not been appointed to take Marshall's place.

London, Rome Pleased

They said they foresaw no change in American foreign policy because of the shift.

E. SHANEE

Both in London and in Rome the appointment of Acheson brought satisfaction.

High British Government officials privately said Acheson was considered a "friend of Britain."

An Italian Foreign Office spokesman said:

"While we feel sorrow at Secretary Marshall's resignation, the news that Acheson would succeed him was well received here.

Regrets In Germany

"Acheson showed friendship and understanding toward Italy during his service as Under Secretary of State. We hope he now will follow the lines laid down by Mr. Marshall."

There was almost universal regret in Germany at the departure of Marshall.

Hans Richter, head of the trade unions in the State of Hesse, said he hoped Marshall's resignation "will not mean a loss of aid for Germany."

A spokesman for the conservative Christian Democratic party said "Marshall's memory will live in the hearts of millions of Europeans whom he saved."

Hopeful On Acheson

"Marshall had a great knowledge of and good will toward Germany and thus we are sorry to see him go," said a spokesman for Germany's labor party, the Social Democrats, in Hannover.

He expressed hope that Acheson "recognizes the possibilities Germany offers for the reconstruction of Europe and that his point of view will be as objective as Mr. Marshall's."

The Soviet-sponsored Radio Berlin said it had "no comment" on the changes.

One informant in touch with Cabinet opinion said Acheson is considered "a friend of Britain."

When told about Acheson's appointment this source exclaimed: "Oh, good."

Sorry To Lose Marshall

There was no immediate official Foreign Office reaction to the resignations of Marshall and Lovett.

But, again privately, officials said they were sorry to see Marshall go after all "his fine and outstanding work for the good of humanity."

Foreign Secretary Bevin is expected to send a personal cable to Marshall telling him that.

One official who has had personal contact with Acheson called him "a man who has always understood this country and sympathized with its problems."

Truman Blasts Report He's Seeking to Soften Policy Toward Russia

JAN 1949

FOREIGN STAND IS UNCHANGED, PRESIDENT SAYS

Marshall Resigns as Secretary of State Because of Ill Health

ACHESON NAMED

Lovett Quits; Budget Director Webb to Take Over Post

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7 — (AP) President Truman told the press with considerable emphasis today that American foreign policy is undergoing no change.

He labeled without foundation in fact a published report that he is trying, against cabinet opposition, to soften our policy toward Russia in a new approach to peace.

His blunt words were spoken at his first 1949 news conference. He first announced the appointment of Dean Acheson and James E. Webb as secretary and undersecretary of state to succeed the resigning George C. Marshall and Robert A. Lovett.

No Shift In Policy

Did this presage a shift in foreign policy in line with a Life magazine article by columnist Jay Franklin? A newsman asked.

It does not, Mr. Truman replied sharply. He went on to say the Franklin article is without foundation in fact in nearly every instance and every paragraph.

Franklin, who would not comment on the President's remarks, had written in an earlier article that the election blasted the "whole Byrnes-Marshall-Forrestal program." He referred to former Secretary of State James F. Byrnes, General Marshall and Secretary of Defense James Forrestal.

To this, Mr. Truman replied with continued emphasis that our foreign policy was inaugurated by the president, that it was carried out by the secretary of state, and that he, the president, stands behind the secretary.

Franklin wrote in Life today that the conclusions he reached "flowed from the president's own campaign statements and from my private conversations with him."

Asked about this, Mr. Truman said Franklin was one of his campaign assistants who helped in preparing speeches. But he added the columnist had never had an interview with him on any subject. The only time he had seen him at the White House was when Franklin called about a job.

He said as long as he had been president Franklin had never seen any top secret messages.

In New York, Life's managing editor, Joseph J. Thorndike, Jr., said today's article was published as the views of someone who has been close to the president, along with a note stating the magazine's own "reservations and disagreements" with Franklin's views.

6 FOUND DEAD ON U.S. PLANE

JAN 1949

All That Were Aboard Airlift Craft, British Police Say

Warrington, England, Saturday, Jan. 8 (AP)—Six men died yesterday in the first crash in Britain of a United States Army plane engaged in the Berlin airlift.

County police from Preston who found the six bodies in the wreckage in northwest Lancashire said no more victims were there.

An Air Force spokesman in Frankfurt, Germany, said it was believed seventeen or eighteen men were aboard the C-54 four engine Skymaster, but a check in England disclosed only six men were in the plane.

The cargo-carrying plane fell in swamp country enroute from Germany to Burtonwood air base for inspection.

Manifest Shows Six

A United States Air Force medical search and rescue team reached the crash scene early today from Burtonwood base near Warrington.

A spokesman for the United States Air Force at Bushey Park, Middlesex, said the plane's original manifest showed only six aboard. He was Major Thomas F. Corrigan, 3d Division public information officer, of Kansas City., Kan.

He said the information on the manifest came from both the Frankfurt flight service and the British flight service. Names of the dead will not be released until 48 hours after next of kin are informed, he said.

Asked Clearance

The plane was en route from Rhein-Main airport at Frankfurt. It established radio contact with Burtonwood and asked for clearance to land. No further word was heard from the plane after that.

It took three hours for a searching party of 50 policemen assisted by firemen to slog their way through driving rain and mist to reach the wreckage.

Thirteen Americans were killed near Glossop, Derbyshire, last November 3 in the crash of a B-29 bomber based in England.

WEST BERLIN RUSS PUTSCH PREVENTED

R. KASISCHKE

Howley Says Communists Intended To Set Up Puppet Regime (N)

William J. Perkinson writes about German miners' fear of Ruhr statute.....Page 8

Berlin, Jan. 7 (AP)—German police broke up today what American authorities called a "Soviet putsch" attempt to seize political control in a West Berlin borough.

The Communist dominated "Democratic bloc" of the Russian sector scheduled a meeting in the elevated railway station in the borough of Kreuzberg in the American sector.

Col. Frank L. Howley, the American commandant, said the Communists planned "to set up a puppet government in Kreuzberg."

Expect Soviet Protection

The Soviet administration controls all Berlin's elevated lines—even those reaching into the western sector—and Communists reasoned they would have the protection of the Russians.

But American authorities do not recognize Soviet extra-territorial rights in the rail stations.

The "Democratic bloc," which set up the Communist-controlled East Berlin government by a show-of-hands vote in the State Opera House several weeks ago, planned a similar installation in the western borough.

The meeting was called for 1.15 P.M. but western German police moved into the station 15 minutes ahead of time. The Communists first announced a delay in their meeting and then canceled it.

Political Comic Opera

Colonel Howley asserted that "neither this nor any other similar double-talk meeting will be held in the United States sector. The United States sector will not be subject to a Soviet putsch to set up a government for any one of the boroughs."

He said the Communists "planned a political comic opera with the usual collection of stooges. The actors were to hold their meeting and to 'elect' by the usual showing of hands a mayor, other officials for Kreuzberg and an assembly.

"The Communists and their Soviet supporters will simply have to abide by the results of the December elections, and that's that."

Separate State Indications

Meanwhile, American authorities saw new signs that Russia planned the early establishment of a separate East German state.

The Russian named V. S. Semionov "extraordinary ambassador plenipotentiary" in the Russian zone. That is the highest Soviet diplomatic rank. Previously, he was political adviser to the Soviet military administration, a job similar to that of Robert Murphy in the American zone.

An American Military Government official interpreted the announcement as an indication "the Russians have decided to seize the initiative and will announce their East German government before the Bonn deliberations are completed."

Demands Yugoslav Curb

The constitution of a West German state is being worked out by a German constituent assembly at Bonn.

The Soviet-controlled press today demanded Yugoslavia reduce its political, trade and military mission here by 90 per cent. It charged Marshal Tito's officials were engaged in large-scale black marketing and "other anti-social activities."

The Yugoslav mission said the demand for reduction of personnel had not yet been made by the Russians officially. It said the press charges against Yugoslav personnel were baseless, and denied there were 260 persons in the mission as alleged by the Soviet-zone press.

Top Rank Given Soviet Official In Germany

JAN 1949

Berlin, Jan. 7 (AP)—Russia's highest diplomatic rank was bestowed today on the top Soviet political expert in Germany.

V. S. Semionov, political advisor to the Soviet Military Administration, was named extraordinary ambassador plenipotentiary. The appointment was announced in the Soviet Press. R. KASISCHKE

American authorities interpreted the move as meaning early establishment of a separate East German state in the Russian Zone.

Plans Well Advanced

The Russians and their German Communist followers are known to have preparations well advanced for such a move. Anti-Communist German newspapers recently said it was planned for April.

A leading official of the American Military Government's civil administration division who has attended four-power negotiations here and in Moscow said:

"It probably means the Russians have decided to seize the initiative and will announce their East German government before the Bonn deliberations are completed."

[The West German state's constitution is being drawn up by a constituent assembly at Bonn.]

Move Taken For Granted

"We have always taken it for granted," he added, "that when a government is established in Western Germany the Russians would take similar action in their zone of occupation. They were well ahead of us in all other things such as centralizing their zone's administrative structure.

"Certainly they have made plenty of preparations, including organization of a department of interior and a German replica of the MVD (Soviet secret police)."

they said, and the church is being persecuted.

Cardinal A Martyr

Nagy said the people regard Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, recently arrested Hungarian primate, as a martyr.

"For the people he was the last symbol of freedom," Nagy said. "The people now wonder what the outside world will do to rescue the Cardinal. They wonder how far the Communists dare go."

The fugitives declared that Hungarians look to the United States and other western democracies to rescue them from communism.

paign against the church in Hungary, where the primate, Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, has been arrested.

Msgr. Josef Beran, Archbishop of Prague, is to be the target of the new attack, Mayer said.

Retrial Set For Bishop

Budapest, Jan. 7 (AP)—Bishop Lajos Ordas of the Hungarian Lutheran Church today was granted a retrial before a Workers Court on charges of foreign currency manipulation.

Ordas, who was accused of failing to report a gift of $500,000 to his church from Lutheran churches in the United States, had asked that the case be reopened.

He was sentenced three months ago to serve two years in prison because, the Government said, he had not notified the national bank of these foreign-currency assets.

[Bishop Eivind Berggrav, primate of the Lutheran Church of Norway, asserted that Ordas was jailed because he opposed the "misuse of police power" in Communist-dominated Hungary, where Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, Roman Catholic primate, recently was arrested.]

Berlin, reports from Trelleborg said.

Spoilage Feared

Many of the packages contain food which, is was feared, will spoil.

The postmaster in Trelleborg said the Soviet refusal to accept the parcels was formally based on a statement that the transport of American packages through Sweden to Germany was not in conformity with the international postal convention.

A high postal official said Swedish authorities have asked officials in Washington what they should do with this mail.

Another 24,000 bags of parcels is expected to arrive from the United States next week.

Soviet Coal Ministries Merge

MOSCOW, Jan. 7 (AP).—The Soviet government announced today the consolidation of three ministries dealing with coal into a single Ministry of the Coal Industry, headed by A. F. Zasyadko. The merger was ordered by the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet (Parliament) Dec. 28, it was announced, "for the purpose of improving direction over the enterprises and construction organizations of the coal industry."

The merger included this ministry, the Ministry of the Coal Industry in the Eastern Areas and the Ministry for Construction of Fuel Enterprises.

Egyptians in more than two weeks of fighting suffered 2,500 casualties, of whom 700 were killed and 700 captured.

"It Was A Hard Fight"

In sweeping operations against the Egyptians in the Negeb desert, Israeli forces secretly repaired the old Roman road leading southwest from Beersheba and suddenly drove against the Egyptians, Yadin said. The Egyptians, he added, "ran like hell."

"But it was a hard fight," Yadin said. "The cost to us also was considerable."

In the end he declared, nearly all Egyptian forces were hurled from Israeli soil. Rafa, the Egyptians' gateway to Palestine where the actual border line is in dispute, is partially ringed from the south and west by Israeli troops, he declared.

It was in that area that fighting was reported after the cease-fire deadline. The Jews said the Egyptians counterattacked the Israeli line there late this afternoon and were thrown back. They said altogether five Egyptian planes were shot down in the Negeb today.

Blackout Restrictions Kept

An Israeli spokesman described the fighting as local in character, however, and it still was too early to say whether the cease-fire orders would hold.

The spokesman said fighting still was going on at Rafa at 5 P.M. Two of the Egyptian planes which were shot down were part of a formation of twelve which was broken up by four Israeli aircraft, he said.

Earlier, United Nations observers at Haifa had reported general observance of the cease-fire.

Israeli still maintained its blackout restrictions.

[The Egyptian Government in Cairo, in announcing that it had ordered a cease-fire, said its action was "conditional" on Israel's withdrawing to her positions of October 14 and obeying other United Nations Security Council orders. Nevertheless, the communiqué said, the cease-fire order was being carried out.]

Clashes also were reported today from the Ramath Hakovesh area in the central sector where Israeli and Iraqi forces face each other.

Taking Of Height Reported

Jewish military sources said Iraqi units succeeded in taking a height hitherto occupied by the Jews. The Jewish command said

Hungarian Refugees Tell Of Police Terror

Munich, Germany, Jan. 7 (AP)—Twenty Hungarians who pirated an airliner to flee "from communism" tell a story of police terror and political persecution in their homeland.

"The Hungarian people live in constant fear," Laszlo Nagy, textile wholesale dealer from Budapest, who fled with his bride, said yesterday.

"Everybody is afraid of everybody else," Nagy said. "Even a son fears his father and the father fears his son."

Some Abandon Fortunes

The fugitives said many of them had abandoned their jobs, fortunes and families to escape.

The group boarded a Hungarian-Soviet Airlines plane, ostensibly for a routine journey from Pecs in southern Hungary to Budapest. Once aloft, they seized the plane at gun point, they said, and flew it to American-occupied Germany.

Workers Also Suffering

There were 25 persons aboard the plane which landed here Tuesday night. Five, who were not in the escape plot, are trying to return to Hungary. They are the radio operator and mechanic of the plane crew and a woman and her two children.

The escapees include Nagy, four airplane pilots, a physician, an engineer, an oil company director, a machine factory owner, a jeweler, three female secretaries, four housewives and three children.

Those willing to talk said the same thing: Businesses are being confiscated by the state, and individual liberties are suppressed by police.

Even the workers are suffering,

3000 Postcards Ask Reds' Release

The Hague, Jan. 7 (A. P.).—The United States embassy here has received 3,000 postcards, presumably Communist-inspired, demanding the release of twelve American Communist leaders indicted by a Federal Grand Jury in New York.

The Dutch post office temporarily halted the stream of cards, addressed to Ambassador Herman B. Baruch, but forwarding was resumed after postal officials notified the embassy that the cards were being held.

The twelve are charged with conspiracy to overthrow the government by force.

Czech Drive On Church Reported

Rome, Jan. 7 (AP)—Czechoslovak Communists have orders to open a tough attack on the head of the Catholic Church in Czechoslovakia, a high-ranking Czech exile said today.

In an interview published by the newspaper Popolo, Vaclav Mayer, a Socialist, who was Czechoslovak food minister before the Communist seizure of power, said orders have gone out from the Cominform (Communist National Information Bureau). He likened it to the cam-

Russ Block Parcel Gifts To Germans

Stockholm, Jan. 7 (AP)—Postal authorities say hundreds of thousands of American gift parcels addressed to Berlin and East Germany are piling up in Sweden because the Russians will not accept them.

They said the Russians even turned back 31,170 bags of United States packages which arrived at Malmoe, Sweden, Christmas Eve and were forwarded to Sassnitz, on Germany's Baltic coast, from Trelleborg.

The packages were gifts from American citizens to civilians in the Soviet zone of Germany and in the eastern and western sectors of

Russ Call Truman Aim Militaristic

Moscow, Jan. 7 (AP)—A Tass dispatch from Washington said today President Truman's state-of-the-Union message makes clear the United States will continue a policy directed at "gaining world domination and destruction of the independence of other countries."

"On the question of foreign relations," the Soviet news agency said, "Truman pictured affairs as if the basis of United States foreign policy is seeking peace and toward the principle of international cooperation. However, Truman then immediately asked for extensive military appropriations and for introduction of universal military training."

Pravda, Izvestia, Trud, Red Star and other Soviet newspapers carried the dispatch prominently, but headlined it only "Truman's Message To Congress."

The Tass account said the United States promises in the message to "continue the policy of marshallization and forcing its will on other countries in the future as well as in the present."

[President Truman said: "We are doing what we can to encourage free states and free peoples throughout the world, to aid the suffering and afflicted in foreign lands, and to strengthen democratic nations against aggression. The heart of our foreign policy is peace."]

FOES BATTLE IN HOLY LAND DESPITE TRUCE

Local Israeli - Egyptian Fighting In South Palestine Reported

Cairo, Jan. 7 [Reuter]—Egypt accepted a United States Government offer of mediation to bring about an end to the Negeb fighting in Palestine "on condition the necessary measures are taken to insure implementation of Security Council decisions, it was announced here today.

Tel Aviv, Palestine, Jan. 7 (AP)—Fighting sputtered in southern Palestine tonight despite an Israeli-Egyptian cease-fire order designed to lead to a permanent armistice.

Israeli forces completed what the Jews said was probably the "greatest battle of movement" in Holy Land history before the deadline was reached at 2 P.M. (7 A.M., E.S.T.).

It was an operation which saw Israeli troops stab as deep as 48 miles into Egyptian territory. The Israeli chief of operations, Col. Yigal Yadin, estimated that the Israel's cease-fire order applied to the central front as well as to southern Palestine. Israeli troops were told to return fire only if attacked. Tel Aviv informants regarded the Iraqi operations as not particularly serious.

Before the cease-fire deadline Rafa, on the coastal road to Gaza, was under attack from the south and west by Jewish forces, informed Jewish sources said. It could not be determined whether the Israeli troops there were on the Egyptian side of the frontier.

[A British Foreign Office spokesman charged in London that Israeli units had made a fresh incursion into Egypt near Rafa and had 150 vehicles at a camp 3 miles south of the town yesterday noon. He said the Jewish troops apparently intended to outflank Rafa. Yesterday, he said the Jews had a roadblock 5 miles inside Egypt on the road to Abu Awugeila, deep inland.]

Argument Over Border

The matter is further confused by an argument over where the Egyptian-Palestine border runs in that area. The Jews said that under the British mandate Rafa was classed as being inside Palestine. At the end of the mandate last May, the British shifted the boundary from south of the town to north of it, putting Rafa inside Egypt, the Jews added. (The National Geographical Society lists Rafa as an Egyptian town.)

If Jewish forces now are actually on Egyptian soil there, Colonel Yadin said, "it will be an easy enough matter to adjust an armistice or peace talks."

The account given by the Israeli operations chief of the Jewish drive through southern Palestine and into Egypt's barren Sinai peninsula was the first detailed description of the fighting which began December 21.

Hot Pursuit Reported

Now the entire Egyptian position along the Palestine coast south of Gaza is in danger, Yadin said. Not only has the coastal road been cut but the parallel rail line has been made inoperative by aerial bombing and by Jewish marine commando raids from the sea.

According to Yadin, the Israeli strike into Egypt unfolded this way:

Israeli units moving down the old Roman road smashed into the rear of the Egyptian lines. Once the Egyptians began to give ground the Jews began a hot pursuit.

The Jews reached the Egyptian coastal base of El 'Arish 30 miles inside Egyptian territory. They also pushed west of Abu Awugeila, an interior road town, 15 miles beyond the Palestine frontier.

The whole Egyptian 5th Battalion was captured and a frontier armored regiment destroyed.

Two Egyptian Forces

Yadin said the Israeli attack came as the Egyptians were building up their forces for an attempt to take Beersheba and cut off the southern Negeb.

"The Egyptians had two arms into southern Palestine as if to embrace us," he added. "One was up the coast to Gaza; the other extended slightly more than half way to Beersheba."

Yadin said Jewish forces had not been in Egypt's Sinai peninsula for 3,400 years.

"While we were there . . . we figured we might as well do what damage we could to Egypt's rear airbases," he explained.

JAN 1949

Clashes Despite Israel Truce Reported

Tel Aviv, Israel, Jan. 7 (AP)—An Israeli Army spokesman reported local clashes of Egyptian and Jewish forces in southern Palestine today despite cease-fire orders.

In all, he said, five Egyptian planes were downed during the day in the Negeb Desert area. He said the Egyptians counterattacked the Israeli ring near Rafa, Egypt's border outpost; and were thrown back.

The Israelis already had announced a cease fire and the end of "Operation A," their Negeb offensive, with Egyptian forces hurled from Israeli soil and Jewish patrols back from penetrations deep into Egypt. The Jewish soldiers had been told not to fire unless fired upon, authorities here said.

Skirmishes Reported

Some skirmishing also was reported in the central sector between Jewish and Iraqi forces contesting a hill strongpoint.

Earlier, United Nations observers had reported to Haifa headquarters that both sides appeared to be respecting the new truce.

The general staff ordered Israeli troops to cease fire, remain in their positions and shoot only if fired upon. The truce is a prelude to armistice talks with the Egyptians aimed at ending the war in southern Palestine.

The cease-fire found Israel's troops astride the only coastal road to Gaza, the seaport assigned to the Arabs by partition, and ringed in a half circle around Egypt's frontier base at Rafa, a spokesman said. The Israelis said their patrols were withdrawn from stabs as deep as 48 miles into Egypt.

Ready To Talk

[No mention was made of the Egyptians bottled up in the Faluja trap northeast of Gaza and just outside territory assigned to Israel under the United Nations partition plan of November 29, 1947.]

The Israeli Chief of Operations estimated Egyptian casualties in the two weeks of fighting in the South at 2,500 men, of whom 700 were killed and 700 captured.

"But it was a hard fight. The cost to us was considerable," he added.

Detailed Review

Correspondents, permitted for the first time since the offensive began to see an operations map and hear a detailed review, were told Jewish forces held some heights in the south which might be on the Egyptian side of the border.

"If this is the case," said the Chief of Operations, Yigdal Yadin, "it will be an easy enough matter to adjust in armistice or peace talks."

[Britain has charged that the Israelis still hold a strongpoint 5 miles inside Egypt.]

Kept After Them

"They ran like hell," Yadin said of the Egyptians in the south. "So we ordered our mobile forces to keep after them as long as they fled."

Here is what happened, as Yadin reviewed it:

The Jews secretly repaired an old Roman road to Beersheba, southwest through the otherwise trackless wasteland leading to the Egyptian border. The Israeli Army struck down that road, smashed into the rear of Egyptian lines and beyond in hot pursuit of the Egyptians. This took a Jewish force nearly 50 miles into Egypt. It reached the outskirts of El Arish and points west of Abu Geli in the Sinai Peninsula.

The Egyptians had thought Gaza was an Israeli objective, and the Israelis were willing to let them think so and divert their attention from the real center of operations 40 or 50 miles to the south.

Two Egyptian Arms

"The Egyptians had two arms into southern Palestine as if to embrace us," Yadin said. "One was up the coast to Gaza; the other extended slightly more than half way to Beersheba. The Egyptians were rebuilding strength to attack in an attempt to retake Beersheba and again cut off the southern Negeb.

Striking down the old Roman road, the Jews captured the whole Egyptian 5th Battalion and destroyed a frontier armored regiment, Yadin said. The rest of the Egyptians ran. The Jews pursued into Egypt.

Airbases Damaged

"While we were there—and we Jews haven't been there for 3,400 years—we figured we might as well do what damage we could to Egypt's rear airbases," Yadin said.

The order was in keeping with United Nations' directions for a halt in the weeks of active hostilities between Israel and Egypt.

Israel is prepared to abide by the United Nations resolution of December 11, which appointed a Palestine conciliation commission, a Foreign Office spokesman said.

He said the Government was prepared to co-operate fully with the conciliators. The commission members are Joseph B. Kennan, of the United States; Claude de Boissanger, of France, and Hussein Cahit Yalchin, of Turkey.

It was officially stated, meanwhile, that Iraqi troops had directed heavy fire at Jewish positions in the central sector. The Jews returned the fire.

Cabinet Crisis

A private source said the fight began last night when the Iraqis unsuccesfully tried to wrest several strongholds from the Israelis.

Fighting was reported in the Ramat Hakovesh area of the central front last night and today, but an Israeli military spokesman said the action was a local one. He said this area, too, is covered by the cease-fire order and Israeli troops return fire only if attacked. There was no tendency here to over-rate the importance of skirmishes on the Iraqi-Israeli front for the past few days.

EGYPT AGREES CONDITIONALLY TO CEASE FIRE

JAN 1949

Israel Has Ordered End of Palestine Fighting for Armistice Talks.

Cairo, Jan. 7 (A. P.).—The Egyptian Government announced tonight it has ordered a cease fire in Palestine, subject to certain conditions.

A communique said the cease fire was ordered for 2 P. M., Palestine time (7 A. M., Eastern standard time) today at the request of the Security Council and as a result of efforts made by the United States Government.

[This was the first word from Egypt that a cease fire had been directed. The Israeli Army earlier had ordered firing to stop at the same hour.]

The communique added the cease fire was issued on condition that "necessary measures" be taken to carry out the Security Council's decisions of November 4 and 16, 1948 and December 29, 1948. The November 4 order, among other things, directed withdrawal of troops in the Negeb to lines held October 14. It also ordered Israeli forces out of Beersheba, mother city of the Arab world. The November 16 and December 29 orders directed cease fire orders and referred back to the November 4 order.

HAIFA, Israel, Jan. 7 (AP)—United Nations observers reported to truce headquarters here today that the new cease-fire in southern Palestine was being respected by both Israelis and Egyptians.

British Act To Protect Interests

JAN 1949

, Kyrenia, Cyprus, Jan. 7 (AP)—Britain in the last four days has taken positive military steps to safeguard what is considers its vital interests in the Trans-Jordan part of the world.

Acting swiftly after reported Jewish penetration of Egypt, the Royal Air Force has started fighter-reconnaissance patrols over Trans-Jordan within view of the southern Palestine battle area.

At the same time it has begun enlarging its reserves of military supplies with quantities of ammunition flown in from bases in Egypt to Mafrak and Aqaba, Trans-Jordan.

Airlift Operation Efficient

The RAF's stock of aviation gasoline at Amman has been expanded by overland movements from Royal Air Force bases in Iraq.

Patrol operations which range from northern Trans-Jordan to the Red Sea port of Aqaba in the south are being carried out by two squadrons of cannon-firing Tempest fighters.

Daily flights of fourteen cargo-carrying Dakota planes escorted by fighters are accomplishing an airlift of military supplies from the Suez Canal zone.

This airlift operation is proceeding efficiently. The planes are unloaded, under the protecting guns of armored-car squadrons from the Amman RAF station, in an average of seven minutes and immediately take off for their home base.

According to present plans, they are scheduled to continue for two weeks.

Anxious Over Aqaba

Though flights of both fighters and cargo ships have been observed from Amman, there has been no official details of their activity. A tight press censorship in Trans-Jordan barred mention of British moves.

Britain is known to be anxious over the fate of Aqaba, Trans-Jordan's only coastal outlet. It is important as a terminal of the road to Damascus originally built by Britain for military use. Bypassing Palestine, the road permits traffic to reach the Dead Sea without using the Suez Canal. For that reason it has a great wartime value.

Under treaties with Trans-Jordan which gave that nation independence Britain promised to come to her aid if attacked. Similarly, Britain would assist Egypt, if only to protect the Suez Canal.

Israel Invades Egypt Again, British Say

JAN 1949

London, Jan. 7 (AP)—The British Foreign Office charged today that an Israeli force has made a new incursion into Egypt near the border town of Rafa.

A spokesman said the Jewish force was observed at a point 3 miles south of Rafa yesterday. The British yesterday charged that the Israelis had established a roadblock base 5 miles inside Egypt.

The spokesman, saying British sources had reported the incursion to the Foreign Office, added he could give no details on the strength of the force or when it crossed the border. There was, therefore, no indication whether an incursion had taken place after Israel agreed to cease fire in southern Palestine yesterday.

Arms From Czechs

The Foreign Office said last night that Israel has been receiving a flow of arms and aircraft from Czechoslovakia. Foreign Office figures say the Jews have almost tripled their air strength in the last six months.

The Times, of London, expanded on the charge of Czechoslovak arms shipment and said American money was behind the arming of Israel.

The newspaper's lead editorial declared:

"Unofficially, American dollars and American initiative have secured for Israel a steady supply of the latest armaments from the arsenals of many countries—especially, it seems, from Czechoslovak aircraft factories."

Military "Threat"

The Times, independent politically, said a settlement in Palestine could be reached soon "if Britain and the United States could work together to reinforce the moderate elements in the councils of the Israeli Government."

But, it added, "militarists threaten to gain the upper hand at Tel Aviv."

In Prague, meanwhile, Czech officials did not deny the British statements accusing Czechoslovakia of supplying arms to Israel in violation of the United Nations' ban on arms shipments to Palestine.

Military security cloaked any exact information and official quarters said only "No comment."

Britain has not protested directly to the Czech Government.

BURMA REPORTS THREAT IN SOUTH

Rangoon Fears General Upheaval By Karen Nationalists

Rangoon, Burma, Jan. 7 (AP)—A Government spokesman said today that Premier Thakin Nu's regime faces the threat of a general upheaval in large areas of southern Burma.

Serious clashes already have broken out between Burmese and separatist Karen tribesmen. The informant said the situation has become "extremely delicate."

The fighting grew out of Christmas Eve incidents in the Mergui district of extreme southeastern Burma. The Karen Nationalist Union, a separatist organization, charged that Burmese military police massacred 200 Karen men and women who were attending midnight religious services in the district.

Hand Grenade Attacks

According to the secretary of the union, the military police made hand grenade attacks on churches in nine villages.

The clashes now have spread from southeastern Burma to the rich Irrawaddy delta area near Rangoon. A Government statement said large village tracts in both areas are in the hands of the Karens although the Government still maintains control of the main towns.

Karens Seize Arms

The Karens form one of Burma's numerous tribal groups. Their union advocates the establishment of a separate independent state to be called Karenistan. The Premier has summoned Karen leaders to an emergency conference.

A Government statement said Karen forces are laying siege to the delta town of Pantanaw, a rice center 45 miles west of Rangoon. The besiegers are being reinforced by Karens living in the area who have seized arms supplied by the Government for the defense of villages.

Clashes Break Out In Southern Burma

Rangoon, Burma, Jan. 7 (AP)—Serious clashes between Burmese Government and Separatist forces have broken out in southern Burma as the result of Christmas Eve incidents in the Mergui district.

A spokesman for the Karen National Union, which wants a separate state of Karenistan independent of the Burma union, charged yesterday that 200 Karen men and women were massacred while attending midnight church services by Burmese military police attacking with hand grenades.

"Delicate Situation"

A Government spokesman said today that a general upheaval had resulted. He said the Government is planning to dispatch troops to the disturbed area and described the situation as "deteriorating" and "extremely delicate."

Burmese Premier Thakin Nu summoned Karen National Union leaders to an emergency conference.

The clashes were reported along the Southeast Burma coast and in several areas of the rice-rich Irrawaddy delta above Rangoon.

Nanking Awaits Second Peace Offer By Chiang

JAN 1949

Nanking, China, Jan. 7 (AP)—This anxious capital today awaited a second Government offer to talk peace with the Communists, who have launched heavy attacks in Central and North China. (N)

The Nanking News said an authoriative source disclosed the Government will issue a "second peace statement." A Government spokesman said he knew nothing about it, but other sources thought it "quite probable."

The News said the second statement might indicate whether Chiang Kai-shek will quit the presidency. It added officials hoped the statement would persuade the Communists to abandon their "militaristic tactics."

Chiang's New Year's offer to negotiate brought first a barrage of criticism from the Communist radio, and then a barrage of artillery fire from Communist gunners in the north and on the central fronts. H.K. MILNS

Suchow Surrender Forecast

On the front north of Nanking, the former Suchow garrison was melting away under renewed assault by encircling Communists, informed sources said. Hunger and bullets were forcing the soldiers to quit. Complete surrender was predicted by the end of the week.

No more than 150,000 remained of the original force of 250,000 which Chiang had counted on to move south from Suchow and help hold the Yangtze River line, they added.

One unconfirmed report said Gen. Tu Li-ning, commander of the trapped forces, had taken off by plane from a small airstrip inside his lines and had reached Nanking.

Kuomintang Parley Set

On the political front, the News said the executive committee of the Kuomintang (Chiang's Nationalist party) would meet and decide the next step in the Government's attempt to end the fighting.

The News speculated that China as a charter member of the United Nations, might ask the United Nations to give the Government "proper support," or might ask the United Nations or some major power to mediate.

The News also thought it possible a high Government official might be sent to North China to discuss at the Communist capital of Yenan the procedure for negotiations.

There was no evident basis for these speculations, but they reflected what many high officials in Nanking are thinking.

Harsh Terms Indicated

A growing number of them are convinced the Government has gone too far now to retreat excepting under some kind of settlement with the Communists—regardless of the terms.

[If Communist broadcasts are any indication, any terms will be harsh. The Communists have vowed to crush the Kuomintang and to punish "war criminals." They list Chiang Kai-shek as the No. 1 "war criminal."]

Chiang Expected To Issue New Peace Bid

Nanking, Jan. 7 (AP)—The Nanking Evening News reported today the Government will issue a second "peace statement" in an effort to clear up the stalemate produced by Chiang Kai-shek's New Year's message.

Government spokesman Shen Chang-huan said he knew of no such plans, but other sources said they considered it "quite probable" some official utterance will follow the apparent Communist rejection of Chiang's offer to discuss terms for peace.

As the peace issue flared all over Nationalist China with business men clamoring for cease-fire orders, informed sources in Nanking said a force of 150,000 Government troops surrounded southwest of Suchow was melting away under Red attacks.

Full Surrender Expected

The forces of Gen. Tu Li-ming were reported dwindling so rapidly that surrender to Chen Yi's Red troops was expected by the week end. Chen began attacks yesterday.

An unconfirmed report in Nanking tonight said that General Tu had been flown to Nanking from a small airstrip within the Red-ringed area, where his troops bogged down four weeks ago.

The Evening News said the expected peace statement would indicate whether Chiang would resign, whether the Government would ask for United Nations support or United Nations or big-four mediation, or whether a peace emissary will be sent to the Red capital in Yenan.

Kuomintang To Decide

Which of these steps will be taken will be decided, the newspaper said, by the Kuomintang (Government) Central Executive Committee.

While this report was considered speculative, it represents what many people in high official circles are thinking in Nanking.

This does not represent the viewpoint either of Chiang or his top advisers, particularly certain military leaders who still insist on fighting—from Formosa if necessary.

Fighting Rages At Tientsin

Reports reaching here from Tientsin said heavy fighting was continuing around the city's defense perimeter with indications the Communists planned to take the industrial center by assault if necessary.

Spencer Moosa, Associated Press correspondent in Peiping, reported that the Nationals, after throwing back Red attacks at Tientsin, were now giving ground. Nationalist headquarters said the Reds left 1,500 dead on the field.

Peiping pro-Government reports said Manchurian Red Gen. Lin Piao had massed eight columns totaling 120,000 men around Tientsin. Part of this force was shifted from the quiet Peiping front.

The Reds reportedly shelled several factories in southern Tientsin suburbs. A quarter of a million men had been conscripted to build defense works.

FU TO FIGHT, PEIPING TOLD

JAN 1949

China Reported Strengthening Defenses In North

Peiping, Jan. 7 (AP)—Government troops are strengthening the defenses of Peiping and Tientsin and are determined to hold the two key North China cities, a spokesman for Gen. Fu Tso-yi said tonight.

The spokesman for the North China commander said Fu would not surrender, as demanded by Gen. Lin Piao, the invading Communist general from Manchuria.

If Fu answers the Communist demand, "his answer will be to fight—to resist—to do everything possible to defend Peiping and Tientsin," the spokesman told a news conference. S MOOSA

Battle Imminent

He said the Communists are concentrating their attention at the outer rim of Tientsin "and there are indications a battle is imminent."

A lull in the Peiping area was broken today by skirmishes at the western and southwestern suburbs.

Communist troops in North China have been regrouped, the spokesman said, giving this picture:

There are five columns on the outer rim of Tientsin and three around Tangku, seaport for Tientsin. [A Communist column averages 15,000 men. All these columns are under General Lin. Around Peiping there are six columns, two belonging to Lin and four to Gen. Nieh Jung-chen, Communist commander for North China.]

Morale Very Low

The spokesman said the morale of General Nieh's troops is very low and claimed many had surrendered.

Charles Peacock, an Englishman in his early 60's who was coming into Peiping for refuge, was hit in the left arm by a stray bullet on the western suburbs today.

A German national caught in a crossfire in Peiping's suburbs was killed.

The German was Erich Wilberg, of Bremen, who once was correspondent for DNB, former German news agency. For the past few years he has been running a small farm in the western outskirts of Peiping.

He was walking across the fields toward his farm with Michael Keon, United Press correspondent, when bullets began flying. Keon fell to the ground and was not hit, but Wilberg was shot four times in the body.

Anti-British Rioters Jailed

CANTON, Jan. 7 (AP).—Sixteen persons, most of them Chinese students, were convicted today of firing the British Consulate compound and adjoining property here during anti-British rioting a year ago. The court sentenced four to three and one-half years' imprisonment, six to fourteen months and the rest to a year. Three were acquitted.

Jap War Criminal Dies In Hospital

Tokyo, Saturday, Jan. 8 (AP)—Gen. Yoshijiro Umezu, who was sentenced by the International Military Tribunal to life imprisonment for war crimes, died of cancer in a United States Army hospital today.

Umezu had been hospitalized since March and was informed while in bed of his sentence.

Sixty-six-year-old Umezu was one of the signers of Japan's surrender aboard the battleship Missouri.

He formerly was commander of the Kwantung army, chief of Japan's army general staff and supreme war councilor. The tribunal in passing sentence found Umezu "played a principal part in the waging of war against China and the Western powers."

Dutch, Indonesians Plan For Conferences

Batavia, Java, Jan. 7 (AP)—Dutch officials said today plans are under way for talks between Indonesian Federal leaders and Netherlands Prime Minister William Drees.

The main question hinges on who will represent the former Republican areas; whether the Dutch will seek the co-operation of Premier Mohamed Hatta and President Soekarno, now captives, or attempt to obtain new representatives.

There has been no announcement when the Dutch intend to comply with the United Nations' order to release the Republican leaders. A Dutch spokesman denied yesterday a Batavian newspaper report that they are being held at Balikpapan, Borneo.

China Red Tide Causes Exit Of Intellectuals

JAN 1949

Manila, Jan. 7 (AP)—The flight of China's intellectuals from the floodtide of communism became more evident today.

Pausing briefly in Manila before continuing to the United States and Canada were enough educators to start a university, enough doctors to staff a hospital and a long list of distinguished pasesngers. They were among 2,100 evacuees crowded aboard the American President liner General M. C. Meigs.

Ex-U.N. Delegate Flees

A glance at the ship's roster of passengers showed how deeply China's revolution has uprooted the educated section of its population.

There was Dr. Franklin Ho, acting president of Nankai University in Peiping and former Chinese delegate to the United Nations. He felt that anyone who had anything to do with the molding of the political thought of China would be among the first to suffer under Communist rule. He left to preserve his individual freedom.

Surgeon Leaves Country

There was Dr. S. T. Kwan, one of the world's greatest neurologists and surgeons who was called to operate upon former Chinese Premier Wong Wen-hao. And Dr. Ching Fook-han, a graduate of Yale who headed the foreign language department of Tsinghua University. He left Peiping once before when the Japanese captured that ancient capital.

On his way to the Massachusetts Institute of Technology for a teaching assignment was Dr. Ku Pei-moo, one of China's leading professors of aeronautical engineering.

FREEDOM TRAIN BACK TODAY IN PHILADELPHIA

JAN 1949

Impressive Ceremony Of Welcome Planned By Quaker City

Philadelphia, Jan. 7 (AP)—The freedom train, America's history on wheels, returns tomorrow to the place of its beginning in the final chapter of a sixteen-month criss-crossing pilgrimage through 35,000 miles of the United States.

The great red, white and blue train, with its priceless cargo of documents shares top billing with the gala mummers parade which was postponed on New Year's Day after bad weather threatened.

Ceremonies Planned

Parade and freedom train officials say they have worked out a schedule to avoid any conflict of the two events.

Impressive ceremonies will highlight the city's welcome to the returning train which began its tour here September 17, 1947.

A formal rededication service will start at 10 A.M. tomorrow when disabled war veterans, escorted by color guards, bands and drum corps, march from City Hall to the train platform.

Shortly after the freedom train ceremonies have been completed, the gaily garbed mummers will strut their string bands up Broad street past the reviewing stand at City Hall.

8-Mile Line Of March

Mummers' officials said a record number of 36 string bands, comic clubs and fancy clubs will high step along the 8-mile line of march to the tunes of "O Dem Golden Slippers," "Four Leaf Clover" and other traditional mummers' tunes.

But although the mummers' colorful parade, dating back to Colonial times, will be a one-day affair, the freedom train will make a six-day visit with each marked by special ceremonies.

Sunday will be designated as "Freedom of Religion" day in churches of all faiths. In the afternoon a star-spangled freedom rally will be held in the Academy of Music with headliners in the entertainment field and some of the nation's prominent officials taking part.

Opera Star To Sing

Gladys Swarthout, Metropolitan Opera star, will be heard in several arias along with the Mendelssohn Club Choir. Representatives of more than 30 nationalities, in native costume, will form a colorful background.

Certificates of citizenship will be awarded to 80 men and women—including eleven foreign-born brides of American ex-service men. Principal speakers at the ceremonies in the academy will be Tom Clark, Attorney General, and United State Senator Francis Myers (D., Pa.).

Other days in the train's stopover here will be dedicated to women, labor-management, civic organizations and education.

Its Tour Extended

The train, which has visited 322 cities in every state of the Union, recently had its tour extended to include presidential inaugural week at Washington.

The American Heritage Foundation, sponsor of the train, said it would visit Penns Grove, N.J., January 14; Newport News, Va., January 15, and Washington, January 16-22 after leaving here.

After the inaugural week showing, the cargo of historical documents will be removed and the train disbanded.

Missions Parley Urges E.R.P. to Cut Off Dutch

Protestant Agency Backs U. S. Indonesian Policy, Wants It Strengthened

BUCK HILL FALLS, Pa., Jan. 7 (AP). — The largest Protestant agency in North America called on the United States today to cut off Marshall plan aid to the Netherlands until that country withdraws from Indonesia.

Leaders of the Foreign Missions Conference commended the United States government for its stated policy during the "present emergency in Indonesia" and added: "We respectfully urge that the United States continue unwaveringly in this attitude, even though it may have to stand alone among the great powers in refusing to buttress colonialism in Indonesia."

The resolution, passed by the Protestant missionary leaders at the final session of a four-day meeting, also urged that the United States representative in the United Nations Security Council be instructed by his government to continue to demand withdrawal of the Dutch army to its lines of Dec. 19, 1948, and the release of leaders of the republic; to press for renewed negotiation through the U. N. Good Offices Committee until a conciliation or arbitration commission has been established, and to insist on due respect for basic legal and human rights of all persons who have been involved in the struggle, whatever the convictions to which they gave support.

The meeting of the Foreign Missions Conference, which represents 108 Protestant foreign mission boards in sixty-one denominations, was high-lighted by a vote to stay out of the projected National Council of Churches of Christ in the United States of America.

The National Council, scheduled for organization in 1950, had invited the conference as well as seven other Protestant interdenominational agencies to merge into a super-Protestant body.

The more than 100 delegates also passed a resolution urging the Eighty-first Congress to amend displaced person legislation "to eliminate elements of discrimination."

Another resolution urged member boards and agencies to work for passage in the present Congress of the Judd bill for equality in naturalization and immigration.

"It is amply clear now, for example," the resolution stated, "that the discriminatory feature of our immigration laws was a large factor in making it possible for the military leaders of Japan to lead the Japanese people into World War II."

B-36 GOING TO ALASKA FOR TESTS IN ARCTIC

JAN 1949

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7 (AP)—The Air Force said today that it would send a B-36, its largest type bomber, to Alaska next week for several months of cold wetaher tests.

The B-36 will go from Eglin Base, Fla., to Land Base, Fairbanks, Alaska, flying non-stop. The Air Force said that the trip would be routine and that no other B-36s were scheduled for assignment in the Alaskan area.

Air Force officials explained that this was just a testing of a single B-36 in cold weather conditions and was not a tactical assignment.

B-36s at Eglin Base have been subjected to arctic cold in ground tests in the climatic hangar where the temperature can be dropped far below zero. However, the big bomber has not yet been operated under arctic conditions.

The cold weather testing in Alaska, the Air Force said, was to determine the efficiency of the plane's engines, lubricants and fuels, and its general performance at extremely low temperature. The testing also will produce information of maintenance problems.

BOARD TO SCAN WEAPONS FOR ALL SERVICES

Gen. Hull To Head New Unit For Deciding On Wartime Uses

Washington, Jan. 7 (AP)—Lieut. Gen. John E. Hull, who commanded the atomic-bomb test at Eniwetok, today was given the task of deciding what weapons the armed forces will use in any future war.

The 53-year-old Ohioan was shifted from his assignment as commander of the army forces in the Pacific to head a weapons-system evaluation group for the entire military establishment.

James Forrestal, Defense Secretary, in making the announcement, said the newly created group "will be responsible for the careful evaluation of all present or projected systems of attack and defense."

That sweeping assignment indicated that the new board will play a key role not only in determining modes of warfare but also the particular weapons which a specific branch of the service would use in carrying out a battle order.

Board To Assist Him

Hull will be assisted by a board of civilian and military experts in sizing up the effectiveness of the nation's present and future arsenal. A civilian research director, to be named later, will serve as chief scientific officer of the group.

While each service has its own weapons-assessment group, this marks the first time that an overall board has been given power to fit the Army, Navy and Air Force arsenals and planning into a unified system.

Such a move was recommended by the Hoover Commission study group headed by Ferdinand Eberstadt, which investigated the nation's security system. This committee said top-level control was needed to furnish impartial evaluation to curtail interservice rivalry.

Closer Liaison Needed

The Hoover committee also reported closer liaison was needed between the joint chiefs of staff and the research and development board which handles scientific programs for the military.

Hull has had close ties with both groups. During World War II he served on the Army general staff as chief of the theater group of operations divisions and as assistant chief of staff in charge of the theater operations.

In 1946 he was named commander of army forces in the Pacific and later commanded the atomic-bomb tests at Eniwetok. It was there he was brought into direct contact with the scientists who developed and are seeking to perfect this country's most powerful war instruments—the atomic bomb and its allied weapons.

CONDON REBUKES DEFEATED PROBER

JAN — 1949

Asserts Pennsylvanian Should 'Put Up Or Shut Up'

Pittsburgh, Jan. 7 (AP)—Dr. Edward U. Condon, director of the United States Bureau of Standards—charged with being a "weak link" in the nation's atomic security—today said a Pennsylvania ex-Congressman should either "put up or shut up."

Dr. Condon said he was referring to John McDowell, of near-by Wilkinsburg. McDowell, a newspaper publisher, was defeated in his bid for re-election last November. While in Congress he was a member of the subcommittee of the House Un-American Activities Committee. Last March the subcommittee said Condon was "one of the weakest links in our atomic security."

"Potshots" Charged

"John McDowell . . . should either put up or shut up," Condon said. "He has been taking potshots at me in his newspaper. He and his committee made a personal attack on me March 1, 1948.

"I have never called for a hearing. . . . John McDowell now accuses me of keeping silent since the Hiss-Chambers affair. If they don't have the hearing it looks like they have nothing. I have not personally asked for a hearing. However, I am willing to have one at any time.

Wants To Wind Up Affairs

"If I had done anything improper, I should have been put out of my job a long time ago. I hold a very important position with access to vast information and it's unfair to the American people not to wind this up."

Condon came here to deliver an address last night. McDowell was not available for comment.

WAR FIANCEE, 19, READY TO MARRY

Italian Girl Freed From Ellis Island Met By GI Friend

New York, Jan. 7 (AP)—A 19-year-old war fiancee was free at Ellis Island today and left with her soldier sweetheart ready to marry "as soon as possible."

Gioia Culley, the girl, arrived by plane from Rome last night but was detained because her visa had expired.

Visa Requirement Waived

After her finance, Sergt. Robert Reynolds, of Fort Belvoir, Va., arrived today to claim her, the Immigration Service waived the visa requirement and admitted her to the United States.

Miss Culley's detention climaxed a series of misfortunes which had dogged her romance with Reynolds for three years. She is the daughter of an American-born father, and met Reynolds when he was stationed in Rome.

SALES OF E BONDS AT PEACETIME HIGH

JAN — 1949

Washington, Jan. 7 (A. P.).—Sales of series E savings bonds—the former "War Bonds"—hit a peacetime record last year, sending the total in the hands of the public to a new high of $32,188,000,000.

Officials said the bonds also turned in their best peacetime performance last year in another respect: sales topped cash-ins by $494,148,000—a 219 per cent improvement from 1947's $155,299,000 margin.

Sales during 1948 totaled $4,223,556,000, a gain of 3 per cent from 1947. Redemptions totaled $3,728,408,000, a decrease of five per cent.

Officials said the improvement reflected a tendency by Americans to put more into savings, and the effects of the security loan drive launched last May 15 to combat inflation and to promote bond buying through reduction-from-pay arrangements.

U.N. Chiefs Hail Acheson Choice

(N)

Lake Success, N.Y., Jan. 7 (AP)—Selection of Dean Acheson as Secretary of State was greeted with approval today by United Nations leaders. They said this meant no change in United States support of the United Nations.

Delegates and United Nations officials obviously were surprised at President Truman's announcement that Secretary George C. Marshall would leave his post January 20 and Acheson would take over the State Department.

Malik Shows Interest

Jakob A. Malik, Russian delegate, showed interest in the shift, but had no comment. INSERT

One high United Nations official appeared bewildered when he heard of Acheson's selection as Secretary of State.

"Acheson? Well, I'll be darned," he said. E.W. CARPENTER

Acheson is known here among United Nations officials and delegates as "pro-United Nations."

It was recalled that Acheson was Under Secretary of State in the formative days of the United Nations and that he had a hand in helping shape the organization.

Dulles Likes Choice

Delegates interested in the atomic-energy problem pointed out he helped write the Acheson-Lilienthal report, which formed a large part of the United States plan for world atomic control put before the United Nations Atomic Energy Commission in 1946 by Bernard M. Baruch. David Lilienthal, chairman of the United States Atomic Energy Commission, collaborated with Acheson in writing that report.

John Foster Dulles, Republican party foreign affairs adviser who was named acting chairman of the United States delegation at the Paris Assembly after Secretary Marshall returned to Washington in November, said in a statement in New York he regretted Marshall's resignation.

But since it had to be, Dulles said he was glad his successor would be one who demonstrated the capacity "to carry forward our foreign policy without interruption or vacillation."

Lie Sends Messages

Trygve Lie, secretary general, sent messages to General Marshall and Acheson. In his telegram to Marshall, Lie said:

"As you relinquish your duties as Secretary of State I want to congratulate you upon the distinguished service that you have rendered to your country and to the world during your term of office."

In his telegram to Acheson, Lie said:

"Please accept my hearty congratulations upon your appointment as Secretary of State. I look forward to working with you in the many areas in which our respective responsibilities meet."

Egypt Joins Attack On Handling Of Indonesian Case

G. PALMER

Lake Success, N. Y., Jan. 7 (AP)—A bloc of Pacific countries, joined by Egypt, vigorously attacked the United Nations Security Council today for its handling of the Indonesian question.

Australia, India and the Philippines lashed out at the Netherlands for its attempt to settle the problem by armed force and urged the Council to take immediate action in behalf of the Indonesian republic.

J. H. van Royen, Netherlands delegate, told the Council that Dutch hostilities have ceased and that Republican political prisoners have been released from custody.

He said complete freedom had been granted to five of nine Indonesian leaders the Dutch had interned. The other four, President Soekarno, Premier Mohammed Hatta, Sutan Sjarir, former Premier, and Hadji Agoes Salim, Foreign Minister, still are confined to the island of Bangka, Indonesia, van Royen said.

The Council passed a resolution in Paris last month calling on the Dutch to cease firing in Indonesia and release the arrested Republican leaders. The eleven-nation body met, for nearly three hours today, then adjourned until Tuesday without taking any action in the case.

Brig. Gen. Carlos P. Romulo, Philippines delegate, condemned the Dutch action and accused the Security Council of condoning the "brazen attempt" of Holland to resolve the dispute by force of arms.

Cannot Play Ostrich

He vigorously criticized the Council for what he termed its vacillations, contradictions and indecision in handling the case.

Norman J. O. Makin, Australian Ambassador to the United States, charged that the Council's resolution on the war in Indonesia had not been complied with by the Dutch and declared the Council "cannot play the ostrich and bury its head in the sands of Lake Success."

Mahmoud Bey Fawzi, Egyptian delegate, said the release of Indonesian political prisoners is being made into a mockery and called for immediate Council action. "How many more months will this go on?" he asked. "What are you waiting for?"

Withdrawal Order

Sir Rama Rau, Indian Ambassador to Washington, said the present plight of the Republican leaders "is an insult to the intelligence of the Council to say the order (for their release) has been carried out."

The Far Eastern delegates, along with L. N. Palar, of the Indonesian Republic, urged the Council to make the Netherlands respect its resolution. They also urged the Council to order the Dutch to withdraw their forces to positions held prior to the Netherlands pre-Christmas offensive.

The four Indonesian leaders on Bangka, the Dutch delegate said, have complete freedom on the 4,500-square-mile island and may have their families with them if they wish.

ALMOST THE FIRST QUESTION PUT TO THE PRESIDENT AFTER HE READ OUT HIS LIST OF CHANCES AT THE NEWS CONFERENCE WAS WHETHER THE SHAKEUP IN THE FOREIGN POLICY HIGH COMMAND WOULD MEAN ANY SHIFTS IN THE POLICY ITSELF, PARTICULARLY ALONG THE LINE FORECAST BY NEWSPAPER COLUMNIST JAY FRANKLIN IN TODAY'S LIFE MAGAZINE.

MR. TRUMAN REPLIED THAT THE CHANGE IN PERSONNEL MEANT ABSOLUTELY NO CHANGE IN POLICY. HE THEN WENT ON TO DENY FRANKLIN'S ARTICLE AS WITHOUT FOUNDATION. THE NEWSPAPER COLUMNIST, WHO HELPED WRITE SOME OF MR. TRUMAN'S CAMPAIGN SPEECHES, ASSSERTED THAT THE PRESIDENT WAS FIGHTING IN HIS OWN CABINET TO SOFTEN THIS NATION'S "TOUGH" POLICY TOWARD RUSSIA.

MR. TRUMAN SAID HE NEVER HELD ANY PRIVATE TALKS WITH FRANKLIN AND THAT FRANKLIN NEVER SAW A TOP SECRET MESSAGE OF THE GOVERNMENT.

MOREOVER THE PRESIDENT TOOK FULL RESPONSIBILITY FOR AMERICAN FOREIGN POLICY AS DEVELOPED BY MARSHALL DURING THE PAST TWO YEARS. HE SHARPLY EMPHASIZED THAT HE EXPECTS ACHESON TO DEVELOP VIGOROUSLY THE POLICIES MARSHALL HAS SHAPED--SUCH AS THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM AND PROJECTED MILITARY SUPPORT FOR WESTERN EUROPE.

ACHESON, IN FACT, WILL BE RETURNING TO FAMILIAR SCENES AND CAN RECOGNIZE MANY OF HIS OWN IDEAS WHEN HE TAKES CONTROL OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT IN THE SECRETARY'S PANELLED OFFICE 18 DAYS FROM NOW.

HE STEPPED OUT AS UNDERSECRETARY 18 MONTHS AGO--JULY 1,1947. MARSHALL HAD BECOME SECRETARY ONLY ABOUT SIX MONTHS BEFORE. HE HAD RELIED HEAVILY ON ACHESON WHO HAD ALREADY BEEN IN FOREIGN POLICY HARNESS FOR ABOUT SIX YEARS--SERVING UNDER SECRETARIES HULL, STETTINIUS AND BYRNES, AS WELL AS UNDER PRESIDENTS ROOSEVELT AND TRUMAN.

IN THE YEARS OF HIS SERVICE, ACHESON WAS OFTEN BITTERLY CRITICIZED BY COLLEAGUES IN THE DEPARTMENT AND OTHERS WHO CONSIDERED THAT HE RELIED TOO MUCH ON THE POSSIBILITY OF FRIENDLY RELATIONS WITH COMMUNIST RUSSIA. IN THOSE YEARS HE APPEARS TO HAVE GONE ALONG WITH THE ROOSEVELT IDEA THAT POSTWAR FRIENDSHIP BETWEEN THE SOVIETS AND THE WESTERN WORLD COULD BE ACCOMPLISHED. (Nitel JAN 1949

A185WX add (woslin - Acheson named) xxx unfriendliness

LATER AS EFFORTS TO ESTABLISH REAL PEACE IN THE WORLD WERE SWALLOWED UP IN THE INCREASING CONFLICT BETWEEN RUSSIA AND THE WEST, ACHESON SWIFTLY ADOPTED A STRONG STOP-COMMUNISM POSITION. ONE OF HIS LAST SPEECHES IN OFFICE ON JUNE 15,1947 DENOUNCED MOSCOW'S POLICIES AS "DIAMETRICALLY OPPOSED TO THE VERY PREMISES OF INTERNATIONAL ACCORD AND RECOVERY." HE ACCUSED THE RUSSIANS OF BREAKING VITAL INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENTS AND GENERALLY BLOCKING PEACE.

BOTH OF THE TWO GREAT COLD WAR MOVES CREDITED TO MARSHALL'S ADMINISTRATION ACTUALLY WERE CHARTED WITH ACHESON'S HELP.

THESE WERE (1) THE GREEK-TURKISH AID PROGRAM LAID DOWN IN MARCH 1947 TO PREVENT RUSSIAN EXPANSION INTO THE MIDDLE EAST AND THE MEDITERRANEAN AND (2) THE MARSHALL PLAN FOR EUROPEAN RECOVERY FIRST PROPOSED JUNE 5,1947.

THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY SCHEME, REQUIRING COOPERATION AMONG THE NATION'S OF EUROPE BEFORE THEY COULD GET AMERICAN AID, IS FAR AND AWAY THE BEST KNOWN OF MARSHALL'S ACHIEVEMENTS AS SECRETARY AND IS CONSIDERED BY MANY PERSONS HIS OUTSTANDING CONTRIBUTION TO THE ANTI-COMMUNIST CAUSE.

SOME INSIDERS THINK, HOWEVER, THAT IT MAY NOT BE REGARDED BY HISTORY AS NECESSARILY HIS GREATEST POSTWAR CONTRIBUTION. THEY ARE INCLINED TO RESERVE THIS TOP PRAISE FOR HIS GLOBAL STRATEGY IN HANDLING THE COLD WAR.

THE ESSENCE OF THIS STRATEGY WAS THAT UNITED STATES DIPLOMACY SHOULD BE RELATED TO ITS REAL POWER. IN DASHING ABOUT THE WORLD TO COMBAT THE SPREAD OF COMMUNISM, THE UNITED STATES SHOULD NEVER TAKE ON GREATER RESPONSIBILITY THAN IT COULD ASSUREDLY CARRY, HE FELT.

THUS IN HIS CONDUCT OF FOREIGN POLICY AGAINST COMMUNISM AS IN HIS EARLIER CONDUCT OF THE WAR AGAINST GERMANY, MARSHALL BELIEVED THAT THE FIRST TASK WAS TO PREVENT THE FALL OF WESTERN EUROPE. OUT OF THAT GREW THE PRESENT EMPHASIS ON EUROPE AND OFFICIAL WILLINGNESS TO ACCEPT, HOWEVER RELUCTANTLY, THE PROSPECT OF A DEFEAT FOR ANTI-COMMUNIST FORCES IN CHINA.

ON THE RECORD AT LEAST, ACHESON SUBSCRIBES TO THE SAME GENERAL APPROACH TO WORLD AFFAIRS. IN A SPEECH AS UNDERSECRETARY IN MAY 1947, HE DECLARED:

"WE ARE GOING TO HAVE TO CONCENTRATE OUR EMERGENCY ASSISTANCE IN AREAS WHERE IT WILL BE MOST EFFECTIVE IN BUILDING WORLD POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC STABILITY, IN PROMOTING HUMAN FREEDOM AND DEMOCRATIC INSTITUTIONS, IN FOSTERING LIBERAL TRADING POLICIES AND IN STRENGTHENING THE AUTHORITY OF THE UNITED NATIONS." JAN 1949

IF THERE IS ANY CHANGE IN AMERICAN DIPLOMACY UNDER ACHESON'S DIRECTION IT WILL RESULT FROM THE DIFFERENCES IN THE PERSONALITIES OF THE TWO MEN. ACHESON MAY OPERATE BASIC POLICY MORE FLEXIBLY THAN MARSHALL AND MAY SEEK MORE DELIBERATELY TO AVOID SUCH DEADLOCKS AS THAT IN WHICH EAST AND WEST ARE NOW CAUGHT AT BERLIN.

YET PERSONS MOST FAMILIAR WITH THE MARSHALL METHODS DOUBT WHETHER ACHESON COULD HAVE DONE THINGS VERY MUCH DIFFERENTLY IN THE PAST 18 MONTHS. THESE ASSOCIATES CONTEND MARSHALL HAS NEVER BEEN UNWILLING TO WORK OUT PRACTICAL AGREEMENTS WITH THE SOVIETS BUT THAT RUSSIA HAS NEVER SHOWN GOOD FAITH IN BARGAINING.

SINCE HIS RESIGNATION FROM THE STATE DEPARTMENT, ACHESON HAS DEVOTED HIMSELF TO A LUCRATIVE PRIVATE LAW PRACTICE AND TO SERVING, AT PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S BEHEST, ON THE HOOVER COMMISSION FOR GOVERNMENT REORGANIZATION. A REORGANIZATION OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT MAY BE ONE OF THE FIRST TASKS HE AND WEBB WILL TACKLE.

ACHESON'S INCOME AS AN ATTORNEY HAS BEEN ESTIMATED AT MORE THAN $50,000 A YEAR. AS SECRETARY OF STATE, HE WILL GET $15,000 UNDER PRESENT GOVERNMENT PAY SCALES.

SECRETARY MARSHALL DREW A FEW HUNDRED DOLLARS MORE THAN $15,000 FROM THE GOVERNMENT DURING HIS TWO YEARS IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT. BUT THAT WAS BECAUSE AS A FIVE STAR GENERAL HE EARNED A GOVERNMENT INCOME ESPECIALLY VOTED BY CONGRESS.

MARSHALL'S RESIGNATION JAN.20 PRESUMABLY WILL GIVE HIM THE REST HE WAS LONG SOUGHT. HE RETIRED AS CHIEF OF STAFF OF THE ARMY IN NOVEMBER 1945 AFTER HAVING SERVED SIX YEARS IN THAT POST THROUGH ONE OF HISTORY'S MOST CRITICAL PERIODS. HE WAS TIRED AND MADE NO SECRET OF IT TO HIS FRIENDS. ALL HE WANTED WAS TO GO TO THE COUNTRY AND FORGET ABOUT PUBLIC AFFAIRS.

ER336PES

SENATOR MYERS (D-PA) SAID HE SHARED MR.TRUMAN'S REGRET THAT MARSHALL'S HEALTH HAD FORCED HIM TO RESIGN. BUT HE ADDED THAT IN PICKING ACHESON AS A SUCCESSOR "PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAS MADE NOT ONLY A LOGICAL APPOINTMENT BUT AN INSPIRING ONE."

"I THINK HIS NOMINATION WILL BE GREETED ENTHUSIASTICALLY BY ALL THOSE IN THE SENATE AND IN THE NATION WHO BELIEVE IN AN AMERICAN FOREIGN POLICY DEDICATED PRIMARILY TO THE PROTECTION AND EXPANSION OF FREEDOM THROUGHOUT THE WORLD." MYERS SAID.

SENATOR CONNALLY (D-TEX) SAID THE RESIGNATION OF SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL "IS DEEPLY REGRETTABLE" BUT THE CHOICE OF DEAN ACHESON AS HIS SUCCESSOR "IS PLEASING."

THE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE WITH CONNALLY AS CHAIRMAN WILL PASS ON THE FORMAL NOMINATION.

CONNALLY TOLD REPORTERS HE HAD BEEN CONSULTED BY THE PRESIDENT BEFORE ACHESON'S SELECTION WAS ANNOUNCED.

JAN 1949

CONNALLY SAID IN A STATEMENT THAT ACHESON "IS A MAN OF UNUSUAL ABILITY AND SPLENDID BACKGROUND," AND WILL GIVE TO THE NATION AS SECRETARY OF STATE "A MAN WELL TRAINED IN FOREIGN RELATIONS."

THE SENATOR SAID IN A SECOND STATEMENT THAT MARSHALL "HAS PERFORMED THE DUTIES OF SECRETARY OF STATE WITH GREAT ABILITY AND OUTSTANDING DISTINCTION. add-Washn-(Day-Acheson)XXX these Rome

"IT IS DEEPLY REGRETTABLE," CONNALLY WENT ON, "THAT THE STATE OF HEALTH OF SECRETARY OF STATE GEORGE C.MARSHALL IS SUCH THAT HE HAS THOUGHT PROPER TO RESIGN AS SECRETARY OF STATE."

HE ADDED THAT AS CHIEF OF STAFF DURING THE WAR MARSHALL COMMANDED THE ADMIRATION AND RESPECT OF ALL NATIONS AND HIS PRESTIGE AND INFLUENCE GAVE HIS VOICE "GREAT WEIGHT IN INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS."

REP.EATON OF NEW JERSEY, TOP REPUBLICAN ON THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE AND ITS CHAIRMAN DURING THE PAST TWO YEARS, SAID HE THINKS ACHESON "WILL MAKE A GOOD SECRETARY OF STATE."

HOUSE DEMOCRATIC LEADER MCCORMACK OF MASSACHUSETTS CALLED ACHESON "ONE OF THE BEST MEN IN THE FIELD OF DIPLOMACY I'VE EVER KNOWN."

SENATOR HICKENLOOPER (R-IOWA), A MEMBER OF THE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE, EXPRESSED REGRET AT THE LOSS OF THE SERVICES OF BOTH MARSHALL AND LOVETT. HE CALLED MARSHALL "AN OUTSTANDING AMERICAN" AND SAID LOVETT "CONTRIBUTED UNUSUALLY ABLE SERVICE" TO THE STATE DEPARTMENT. HICKENLOOPER DECLINED TO COMMENT ON THE NEW APPOINTMENTS.

SENATOR LODGE (R-MASS), ALSO A FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE MEMBER, HAD NO COMMENT ON EITHER THE RESIGNATIONS OR THE APPOINTMENTS.

SENATOR MC MAHON (D-CONN) CALLED THE SELECTION OF ACHESON "AN EXCELLENT CHOICE."

REP.VORYS (R-OHIO) OF THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE SAID HE HAD A HIGH PERSONAL REGARD FOR DEAN ACHESON "BUT FOR THE OVERALL SHIFT THE KINDEST THING I CAN SAY IS THAT IT LOOKS LIKE SENDING IN THE SECOND TEAM TO REPLACE THE VARSITY IN A VERY BIG GAME."

B125WX

SENATOR MORSE (R-ORE) SAID HE HAD "ALWAYS BEEN MUCH IMPRESSED WITH THE STATESMANSHIP OF DEAN ACHESON."

HOUSE SPEAKER SAM RAYBURN: "I THINK DEAN ACHESON IS ONE OF THE ABLEST MEN I HAVE SEEN AROUND WASHINGTON. I DON'T THINK A BETTER APPOINTMENT COULD HAVE BEEN MADE."

RAYBURN SAID HE KNEW WEBB AS "A FINE MAN" WHO HAS MADE "A SPLENDID RECORD" IN THE BUDGET BUREAU.

COMPTROLLER GENERAL LINDSAY C.WARREN, WHO HAS WORKED CLOSELY WITH WEBB FOR YEARS, COMMENTED:

"THE PRESIDENT WILL NEVER MAKE A BETTER APPOINTMENT. JIM WEBB HAS BEEN THE ABLEST DIRECTOR OF THE BUDGET, AND IT IS FORTUNATE FOR THE COUNTRY THAT HE WILL REMAIN IN THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

OTHER COMMENTS:

SENATOR PEPPER (D-FLA) "DEAN ACHESON X X X WILL CONTINUE TO LEAD THE DEMOCRATIC FORCES OF THE WORLD IN SEARCH OF A FAIR, JUST AND HONORABLE PEACE AND A HIGH LEVEL OF WORLD PROSPERITY."

SENATOR GREEN (D-RI) OF THE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE:

"MR.ACHESON IS A VERY ABLE MAN, BUT I DOUBT THAT ANYONE CAN FILL MR. MARSHALL'S PLACE ENTIRELY."

SENATOR FULBRIGHT (D-ARK) SAID HE WAS "HIGHLY PLEASED" WITH THE APPOINTMENT.

SENATOR THOMAS (D-UTAH) PREDICTED ACHESON WILL MAKE "A VERY POPULAR SECRETARY OF STATE."

REP.BLOOM (D-NY), SLATED TO BE CHAIRMAN OF THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE: "I THINK DEAN ACHESON IS GOING TO MAKE A GREAT SECRETARY OF STATE. I DON'T THINK THERE IS ANY ONE TODAY IN THIS COUNTRY WHO COULD GIVE BETTER SERVICE."

BLOOM SAID THERE IS NO QUESTION BUT THAT MARSHALL "DID A GOOD JOB AND WE ALL ARE GRATEFUL TO HIM."

THE CHANGE FROM A SECRETARY OF STATE TRAINED IN THE MILITARY SCHOOL TO ONE TRAINED IN DIPLOMACY, BLOOM ADDED, SHOULD RESULT FAVORABLY.

ACHESON

BY EDWARD BOMAR

JAN 1949

WASHINGTON,JAN.7-(AP)-SIX YEARS SERVICE IN THE U.S.STATE DEPARTMENT GIVES DEAN ACHESON A WIDE BACKGROUND FOR HIS NEW POST AS SECRETARY OF STATE.

THROUGHOUT WORLD WAR II HE SERVED AS ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE UNDER CORDELL HULL. THEN HE BECAME UNDERSECRETARY AUGUST 27, 1945 AND HELD THIS POST UNTIL HIS RESIGNATION WAS ACCEPTED WITH "GREAT REGRET" BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 1947.

SINCE THEN ACHESON HAS BEEN ENGAGED IN PRIVATE LAW PRACTICE IN WASHINGTON. HE HAS KEPT HIS HAND IN GOVERNMENT AFFAIRS MEANWHILE AS A MEMBER OF PRESIDENT HOOVER'S COMMISSION FOR REORGANIZATION OF

THE GOVERNMENT.
A NATIVE OF MIDDLETOWN, CONN., ACHESON IS 55, AND A GRADUATE OF YALE AND THE HARVARD LAW SCHOOL. AFTER WORLD WAR ONE SERVICE AS A NAVAL ENSIGN HE BECAME PRIVATE SECRETARY TO SUPREME COURT JUSTICE LOUIS BRANDEIS AND THEN ENTERED PRIVATE LAW PRACTICE.
PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT BROUGHT HIM INTO THE ADMINISTRATION AS UNDER-SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY AT THE START OF THE NEW DEAL IN 1933.
WHEN JAMES F.BYRNES STEPPED OUT AS SECRETARY OF STATE IN JANUARY, 1947, ACHESON PRESSED MR.TRUMAN TO PERMIT HIM TO QUIT THE STATE DEPARTMENT. AS UNDERSECRETARY HE HAD BORNE MUCH OF THE BURDEN OF DETAIL OF THE DEPARTMENT AND THE DIPLOMATIC SERVICE.
PRESIDENT TRUMAN RELUCTANTLY ACCEPTED HIS RESIGNATION ON MAY 12, 1947, IN A LETTER IN WHICH HE STATED "YOU HAVE BEEN THE TYPE OF EFFICIENT PUBLIC SERVANT WHOSE WITHDRAWAL FROM PUBLIC LIFE AT ANY TIME WOULD BE A LOSS TO THE NATION."
"YOU HAVE BROUGHT TO YOUR DUTIES IN THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE LEGAL TRAINING AND EXPERIENCE; FAMILIARITY WITH FINANCE, PARTICULARLY IN ITS BEARING UPON INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS; CLEAR-CUT JUDGEMENT AND INCISIVE POWER OF REASONING," MR.TRUMAN SAID.
"THESE, WITH YOUR PRODIGIOUS INDUSTRY, HAVE BEEN ASSETS UPON WHICH WE COULD ALWAYS RELY AND WE SHALL MISS THEM IN TIME TO COME. I SHALL LIKE TO THINK THAT I CAN, AS NEED ARISES, CALL UPON YOU FOR ADVICE."

JAN 1949

TALL, SUAVE, CULTURED, AND ALWAYS METICULOUSLY DRESSED, ACHESON SUGGESTS THE DIPLOMAT IN APPEARANCE AND MANNER.
AS MARSHALL'S CHIEF AIDE IN EARLY 1947, ACHESON GAINED FIRST HAND FAMILIARITY WITH THE "TRUMAN DOCTRINE" OF SEEKING TO CONTAIN RUSSIAN EXPANSION.
HE LED THE ADMINISTRATION FIGHT TO WIN CONGRESSIONAL ACCEPTANCE OF THE GREEK-TURKISH AID PROGRAM. THEN HE HELPED DEVELOP THE MARSHALL PLAN FOR EUROPEAN RECOVERY BEFORE RETURNING TO PRIVATE LAW PRACTICE IN MID-1947.
HIS RETURN TO PUBLIC LIFE GIVES MR.TRUMAN THE HELP OF AN OFFICIAL CREDITED, LIKE GENERAL MARSHALL, WITH ENJOYING CORDIAL RELATIONS WITH CONGRESS.
ACHESON IS RECORDED IN WHO'S WHO AS A DEMOCRAT.
--DASH--
GEN.GEORGE C.MARSHALL, THE RETIRING SECRETARY OF STATE, WAS WORLD WAR 11 ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF AND HAS BEEN SECRETARY OF STATE SINCE JAN. 2, 1947.
MARSHALL HAS BEEN AWAY FROM HIS STATE DEPARTMENT DESK SINCE HE ENTERED WALTER REED HOSPITAL DECEMBER 7 TO UNDERGO A KIDNEY OPERATION. FOR THE LAST 10 DAYS HE HAS BEEN RECUPERATING AT HIS PINEHURST, N.C., HOME.
MARSHALL'S TERM AS SECRETARY OF STATE CLIMAXED A BRILLIANT CAREER AS ONE OF THE OUTSTANDING FIGURES OF U.S. ARMY HISTORY.
A NATIVE OF PENNSYLVANIA, MARSHALL WAS COMMISSIONED IN THE ARMY AFTER GRADUATION FROM VIRGINIA MILITARY INSTITUTE AND MADE IT HIS CAREER.
NOW 68, MARSHALL HAS SAID REPEATEDLY HE WANTED TO QUIT PUBLIC LIFE AND LIVE AT HIS HOME AT NEARBY LEESBURG, VA. HE WAS LOOKING FORWARD TO THIS AFTER RETIRING AS CHIEF OF STAFF WHEN PRESIDENT TRUMAN SENT HIM TO CHINA AS A SPECIAL ENVOY TO TRY TO BRING PEACE, AND THEN ON HIS RETURN NAMED HIM SECRETARY OF STATE.
--DASH--
ROBERT A.LOVETT, THE RETIRING UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE, HAS BORNE THE TASK OF RUNNING THE STATE DEPARTMENT MUCH OF THE TIME SINCE HE RELIEVED ACHESON AS UNDERSECRETARY JULY 1, 1947. MARSHALL HAS HAD TO ATTEND A LONG SERIES OF MEETINGS WITH THE BIG FOUR FOREIGN MINISTERS AND OTHER INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCES.
MARSHALL BROUGHT LOVETT INTO THE DEPARTMENT BECAUSE OF A WARTIME ASSOCIATION WHEN LOVETT WAS ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF WAR FOR AIR.
LOVETT, 55, HAD BEHIND HIM A SUCCESSFUL CAREER IN BANKING AND BUSINESS WHEN HE TOOK THE WAR DEPARTMENT APPOINTMENT. HE RESIGNED THEN A PARTNERSHIP WITH BROWN BROTHERS, HARRIMAN AND COMPANY, NEW YORK BANKERS. HE HAD SETTLED BACK INTO PRIVATE LIFE WHEN THE SUMMONS TO WASHINGTON CAME.

WEBB (400)
WASHINGTON,JAN.7-(AP)-JAMES E.WEBB, PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S CHOICE FOR UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE, IS A MAN WHO KNOWS HOW TO SAY "NO"--AND MAKE IT STICK.
THE 42 YEAR OLD NORTH CAROLINIAN HAS BEEN SAYING IT OFTEN THESE LAST TWO YEARS. AS BUDGET DIRECTOR, IT'S BEEN HIS JOB TO TURN DOWN CABINET MEMBERS AND OTHER FEDERAL OFFICIALS WHO WANTED TO SPEND MORE MONEY THAN WEBB FELT THE GOVERNMENT COULD AFFORD.
AS FRIENDS PUT IT, HE'S A MAN WHO BELIEVES IN LIVING WITHIN YOUR INCOME.

JAN 1949

WEBB IS A RELATIVE NEWCOMER TO GOVERNMENT SERVICE. HE WAS MOVED UP TO THE POST OF BUDGET DIRECTOR IN AUGUST, 1946, AFTER SIX MONTHS AS AN ASSISTANT TO THE LATE O.MAX GARDNER, ANOTHER NORTH CAROLINIAN WHO WAS THEN UNDERSECRETARY OF THE TREASURY.
AT THAT TIME, WEBB SAID HIS ONLY GOAL WAS TO "SERVE THE PRESIDENT AND THE COUNTRY TO THE BEST OF MY CAPACITY."
HE TOOK THE JOB FOR LESS MONEY THAN HE GOT EARLIER AS A LAWYER IN GARDNER'S FIRM AND AS VICE PRESIDENT OF THE SPERRY GYROSCOPE CO. HIS GOVERNMENT PAY HAS BEEN $10,000 A YEAR--LESS THAN SOME OF HIS ASSISTANTS HAVE BEEN GETTING. (HE'LL GET $12,000 AS UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE.)
WEBB WAS BORN IN GRANVILLE COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA, WHERE HIS FATHER WAS COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS FOR MANY YEARS.
HE WORKED AT ODD JOBS TO PAY HIS WAY THROUGH THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA WHERE HE WON THE COVETED PHI BETA KAPPA KEY FOR TOP SCHOLARSHIP. IN HIS SPARE TIME, HE STUDIED SHORTHAND AND TYPING AT A BUSINESS SCHOOL.
AS A RESERVE OFFICER IN THE MARINES IN THE EARLY 30'S, HE LEARNED HOW TO FLY AND STILL HOLDS A COMMERCIAL PILOT'S LICENSE.
WEBB GOT INTO POLITICS IN 1932--FOUR YEARS AFTER LEAVING COLLEGE--AS A SECRETARY TO THE LATE REP.E.W. POU OF NORTH CAROLINA. IN WASHINGTON, HE CAUGHT GARDNER'S EYE, STUDIED LAW AND TOOK A JOB IN GARDNER'S LAW OFFICE.
A COUPLE OF YEARS LATER, HE JOINED SPERRY GYROSCOPE IN NEW YORK AS PERSONNEL DIRECTOR AND ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT. FROM 1943 TO 1944, HE WAS SECRETARY AND TREASURER OF THE FIRM AND IN 1944 THE VICE PRESIDENT.
HE LEFT SPERRY LATER THAT YEAR TO COMMAND THE FIRST MARINE AIR WARNING GROUP AS A MAJOR. AT THE END OF THE WAR, HE RETURNED TO A LAW PRACTICE IN WASHINGTON.
OFF THE JOB, WEBB IS STRICTLY A "FAMILY MAN", LIVING QUIETLY WITH HIS WIFE AND SMALL DAUGHTER. MRS.WEBB IS THE FORMER PATSY AIKEN DOUGLAS OF WINNSBORO, S.C. THEY WERE MARRIED IN 1938.
AB114PES

MR.TRUMAN STARTED THE CONFERENCE BY ANNOUNCING THE RESIGNATION OF GENERAL MARSHALL BECAUSE OF HEALTH AND OF LOVETT FOR "PERSONAL REASONS" WITH WHICH LOVETT SAID THE PRESIDENT WAS FAMILIAR.

BOTH RESIGNATIONS HAD BEEN EXPECTED FOR SOME TIME, BUT THE ANNOUNCEMENT HAD NOT BEEN EXPECTED TODAY.

THE RESIGNATIONS ARE EFFECTIVE INAUGURATION DAY, JAN.20. THE ANNOUNCEMENT THAT ACHESON, 55 YEAR OLD WASHINGTON AND NEW YORK LAWYER WHO RESIGNED AS UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE JUNE 30,1947, WOULD REPLACE MARSHALL ALSO WAS NO SURPRISE. HE HAD BEEN IN THE SPECULATION FROM THE START AND ESPECIALLY SINCE MARSHALL HAD A KIDNEY REMOVED LAST MONTH. add-Wash-(Truman-Russia) xxy -Views

WEBB, A 42 YEAR OLD NATIVE OF OXFORD,N.C., THE NEW UNDERSECRETARY, IS DIRECTOR OF THE BUDGET. THE PRESIDENT NAMED FRANK PACE,JR., OF LITTLE ROCK,ARKANSAS, THE NEW BUDGET DIRECTOR, AND FREDERICK J.LAWTON, ASSISTANT BUDGET DIRECTOR.

PACE HAS BEEN ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF THE BUDGET AND LAWTON A VETERAN OFFICIAL OF THAT BRANCH OF THE EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

ASKED WHY WEBB, A BUDGET EXPERT, SHOULD BE TRANSFERRED TO THE NO.2 SPOT IN THE FOREIGN AFFAIRS DEPARTMENT, MR.TRUMAN SAID HE IS A GOOD MAN AND A GOOD ADMINISTRATOR.

THE REST OF THE NEWS CONFERENCE DEALT WITH PORTIONS OF THE PRESIDENT'S LEGISLATIVE RECOMMENDATIONS, PARTICULARLY STEEL AND LABOR.

MR.TRUMAN SAID HIS RECOMMENDATIONS FOR EXPANSION OF STEEL PRODUCTION CONTEMPLATED PROGRESSIVE STEPS RATHER THAN IMMEDIATE GOVERNMENT CONSTRUCTION OF STEEL PLANTS.

IN HIS STATE OF THE UNION MESSAGE HE PROPOSED GOVERNMENT LOANS FOR PRIVATE EXPANSION AND GOVERNMENT CONSTRUCTION IF PRIVATE INDUSTRY FAILED TO MEET CRITICAL NEEDS.

HE POINTED OUT TODAY HE RECOMMENDED IN THE MESSAGE THAT THE QUESTION FIRST BE STUDIED AND IT IS UP TO CONGRESS HOW TO PROCEED. HE SAID HIS PROPOSALS COVERED ALL BASIC COMMODITIES IN SHORT SUPPLY, INCLUDING STEEL.

JAN 1949

A191WX

HE REPEATED THERE IS A SHORTAGE OF STEEL FOR CIVILIAN CONSUMPTION. HE SAID HE WOULD NOT SAY INDUSTRY WAS DELIBERATELY REFRAINING FROM EXPANDING, BUT THAT HE THOUGHT THE STEEL AND POWER INDUSTRIES ARE NOT EXPANDING AS THEY SHOULD.

ASKED ABOUT A DISPUTE OVER WHETHER HE WANTED TAFT-HARTLEY ACT REPEAL AND A NEW LAW IN A SINGLE STEP OR IN PROGRESSIVE STEPS, THE PRESIDENT SAID HE MADE HIS POSITION CLEAR ON LABOR IN HIS MESSAGE AND IT IS UP TO CONGRESS TO WORK OUT THE METHOD OF PUTTING NEW LABOR LAW CHANGES INTO EFFECT.

HE ALSO SAID IT IS UP TO CONGRESS TO SAY WHAT NEW TAXES SHOULD BE IMPOSED. HE ASKED FOR $4,000,000,000 IN NEW TAXES AND SUGGESTED AS SOURCES FOR NEW REVENUE CORPORATION LEVIES, INHERITANCE AND ESTATE TAXES, AND CONSIDERATION OF HIGHER TAXES ON THE MIDDLE AND UPPER BRACKET INCOMES.

ASKED ABOUT THE EXCESS PROFITS TAX WHICH HE HAD SOUGHT TO BE RESTORED LAST YEAR, BUT OMITTED FROM THIS WEEK'S MESSAGE, THE PRESIDENT REMARKED THE MESSAGE SPEAKS FOR ITSELF.

NEW YORK, JAN. 7-(AP)-JOHN FOSTER DULLES, REPUBLICAN PARTY ADVISOR ON FOREIGN AFFAIRS, EXPRESSED SATISFACTION TODAY WITH PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S APPOINTMENT OF DEAN ACHESON AS SECRETARY OF STATE.

DULLES WAS MENTIONED BEFORE THE NOVEMBER ELECTION AS THE LEADING POSSIBILITY FOR SECRETARY OF STATE IF THE REPUBLICANS WON THE PRESIDENCY. HE SERVED AS ACTING CHAIRMAN OF THE UNITED STATES DELEGATION TO THE UNITED NATIONS ASSEMBLY IN PARIS.

"I DEEPLY REGRET MR.MARSHALL'S RESIGNATION AS SECRETARY OF STATE," DULLES SAID IN A STATEMENT. "HE CONTRIBUTED GREAT PRESTIGE AND WISDOM IN A SPIRIT OF LOYAL DEVOTION TO HIS COUNTRY. SINCE HIS RESIGNATION HAD TO BE, I AM GLAD THAT HIS SUCCESSOR WILL BE ONE WHO, AS FORMER UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE, HAS GAINED THE EXPERIENCE AND DEMONSTRATED THE CAPACITY TO CARRY FORWARD OUR FOREIGN POLICY WITHOUT INTERRUPTION OR VACILLATION. THE TEXT OF BEVIN'S STATEMENT:

"I HAVE LEARNED WITH GREAT REGRET THAT THE U.S. SECRETARY OF STATE MR.MARSHALL HAS FELT OBLIGED, ON GROUNDS OF HEALTH, TO RESIGN THAT HIGH OFFICE.

"OTHERS WHO WORKED CLOSELY WITH GENERAL MARSHALL DURING THE WAR ARE BETTER QUALIFIED THAN I AM TO SPEAK OF THE INCALCULABLE SERVICES HE THEN RENDERED TO THE ALLIED CAUSE, WHICH WOULD HAVE BEEN ENOUGH TO EARN THE GRATITUDE OF MANKIND.

"BUT RESPONDING AS ALWAYS TO THE CALL OF DUTY, MR.MARSHALL BECAME ONE OF THE GREAT U.S. SECRETARIES OF STATE TO WHOM THE WORLD, AND MORE ESPECIALLY EUROPE, OWES A GREAT DEBT.

"THIS GREAT AMERICAN, WHO DID AS MUCH AS ANY ONE MAN TO WIN THE WAR, HAS SINCE DEVOTED HIS WHOLE EFFORTS TO RESTORING THE WRECKED ECONOMY OF EUROPE AND TO ESTABLISHING FIRM FOUNDATIONS FOR WORLD PEACE.

"IT HAS BEEN MY PRIVILEGE TO WORK CLOSELY WITH HIM OVER THE PAST THREE YEARS. MY PERSONAL REGARD FOR HIM HAS GROWN WITH EVERY MEETING AND THERE IS NO MAN WITH WHOM ONE COULD WORK WITH A MORE ABSOLUTE CONFIDENT AND TRUST.

"IT WAS MR.MARSHALL'S GREAT HARVARD SPEECH IN JUNE, 1947, WHICH BROUGHT HOPE, ENCOURAGEMENT AND CONFIDENCE TO EUROPE AND WHICH MARKED THE TURNING POINT OF THE POSTWAR PERIOD.

"IT IS REGREABLE THAT, OWING TO CONSIDERATION OF HEALTH, HE IS UNABLE TO SEE THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PLAN, WITH WHICH HIS NAME ALWAYS WILL BE ASSOCIATED, THROUGH TO THE END. BUT HE MAY BE ASSURED WE SHALL NOT REST UNTIL IT IS BROUGHT TO COMPLETE FRUITION.

I WOULD POINT OUT, HOWEVER, THAT THE NOV. 4 RESOLUTION CALLS UPON BOTH SIDES TO WITHDRAW THE POSITIONS THEY HELD ON OCT. 14. add-Egyn-(Israel)xxx government.

"THIS WOULD ENTAIL A CONSIDERABLE WITHDRAWAL BY THE ISRAELI FORCES."

POSITIONS HELD BY JEWS AND EGYPTIANS IN THE NEGEV--THE SOUTHERN PALESTINE DESERT--HAVE CHANGED VASTLY SINCE OCT.14 WHEN FIGHTING FLARED UP IN THE STRATEGICALLY IMPORTANT AREA.

THE SPOKESMAN SAID THE NEWEST REPORTS REACHING THE FOREIGN OFFICE SUGGESTED AN ISRAELI FORCE WAS SWUNG INTO EGYPT SOUTHWARDS WITH THE INTENTION OF OUTFLANKING RAFA.

RAFA IS ON THE MAIN RAILROAD LINE FROM EGYPT TO PALESTINE. THE SPOKESMAN SAID IT SEEMED POSSIBLE THAT THE JEWS, HAVING SET UP A STRONGPOINT ON THE ROAD BETWEEN ABU AWEIGLA IN EGYPT AND EL AUJA IN THE NEGEV, NOW WERE SEEKING TO CONTROL THE MAIN RAILROAD LINK BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES.

HE SAID ABOUT 150 VEHICLES, INCLUDING ARMOR, WERE SPOTTED IN THE MIDST OF A TENTED CAMP JUST SOUTH OF RAFA.

LONDON, JAN 7-(AP)-ANGLO-RUSSIAN TALKS FOR A NEW LONG TERM TRADE AGREEMENT ARE DEADLOCKED AFTER EIGHT MONTHS OF NEGOTIATIONS, A BOARD OF TRADE SPOKESMAN SAID TONIGHT.

HE CONFIRMED REPORTS THAT THE IMPASSE DEVELOPED AFTER BRITAIN CHARGED RUSSIA WITH VIOLATING THE "SPIRIT" OF A ONE-YEAR AGREEMENT WHICH ENDED IN DECEMBER.

JAN 1949

BRITAIN STILL HAS HOPES, THE SPOKESMAN SAID, THAT ANOTHER ONE-YEAR ANGLO-RUSSIAN TRADE PACT MAY BE DRAWN. BUT THE BOARD OF TRADE IS "VERY PESSIMISTIC" ABOUT THE CHANCES NOW FOR ANY LONG TERM PACT.

THE BACKGROUND TO THE DEADLOCK IS THIS:

RUSSIA DELIVERED 750,000 TONS OF WHEAT UNDER THE PACT SIGNED IN DECEMBER, 1947.

IN RETURN FOR THE WHEAT, RUSSIA RECEIVED UNSPECIFIED SUMS OF POUNDS STERLING WHICH, THE SPOKESMAN SAID, SHE WAS TO SPEND IN BRITAIN ON MACHINERY, RAILS AND OTHER SPECIFIED PRODUCTS.

"UP TO NOW THE RUSSIANS HAVE NOT PLACED MORE THAN SOME 20 PER CENT OF THE CONTRACTS BUT HAVE BEEN SPENDING A GREAT PART OF THEIR STERLING BALANCES ON RAW MATERIALS NOT NAMED IN THE AGREEMENT," THE SPOKESMAN SAID.

BOARD OF TRADE PRESIDENT HAROLD WILSON TOLD THE RUSSIANS SEVERAL WEEKS AGO HE THOUGHT THEY WERE VIOLATING THE "SPIRIT" OF THE AGREEMENT.

THE RUSSIANS SNAPPED BACK AFTER CONSULTATIONS WITH MOSCOW, THAT: (1) THEY HAD BEEN ABLE TO PLACE IN BRITAIN CONTRACTS FOR JUST ABOUT 15 PER CENT OF THE MACHINERY AND RAILS THEY NEEDED.

(2) BRITISH PRICES WERE TOO HIGH.

(3) BRITAIN IS NOT FULFILLING THE "GOOD ENDEAVOR" CLAUSE OF THE DECEMBER PACT.

THE "GOOD ENDEAVOR" CLAUSE STIPULATED BRITAIN WOULD GIVE "ALL POSSIBLE AID" IN THE PLACING OF RUSSIAN ORDERS AND EXPEDITE THEIR COMPLETION.

JAN 1949

THE BOARD OF TRADE DENIED ALL THE RUSSIAN CHARGES.

THE VICAR FOUND THE 24-YEAR-OLD GIRL HANGED FROM A PILLAR NEAR THE ALTAR.

"IT IS UN-ENGLISH AND NOT FAIR. WE HAVE GOT TO MAKE UP OUR MINDS WHETHER OR NOT WE WANT THEM HERE. IF WE DO, WE HAVE TO TREAT THEM PROPERLY."

london, jan. 7-(ap)-the influential times of london today expanded british foreign office charges that czechoslovakia sent arms to israel and said american money was behind the arming of the jewish state.

the newspaper's lead editorial declared:

"unofficially, american dollars and american initiative have secured for israel a steady supply of the latest armaments from the many countries - especially, it seems, from the arsenals of factories."

the times, independent politically, said a settlement in palestine could be reached soon "if britain and the u.s. could work together to reinforce the moderate elements in the counsels of the israeli government."

but, it added, "militarists threaten to gain the upper hand at tel aviv."

in prague, meanwhile, czech officials did NOT deny the british statements accusing czechoslovakia of supplying arms to israel in violation of the united nations ban on arms shipments to palestine.

military security cloaked any exact information and official quarters said only "no comment."

the presumption was that the british carges were true in many respects.

britain has not protested directly to the czech government. a government source in czechoslovakia let it be understood that if a note were sent, it would "probably be answered."

JAN. 1949

it is known in prague that czech factories produce planes such as messerschmitt types, which the british said were supplies to israel. the czechs have been producing those planes since the germans occupied the country during the war.

it also is known that a number of foreign fliers were in czechoslovakia last summer and early fall. there have been unconfirmed reports that the fliers' base of operations now is deep in slovakia.

czechoslovakia also maintains regular airline service from prague to israel. a strong israeli legation has been established in prague since it became an important gateway to the outside world.

BERLIN, JAN. 7-(AP)-THE SOVIET-CONTROLLED PRESS DEMANDED TODAY THAT YUGOSLAVIA DRASTICALLY CUT THE SIZE OF ITS MILITARY, DIPLOMATIC AND TRADE DELEGATIONS IN EASTERN GERMANY.

THE OFFICIAL PRESS DECLARED MANY YUGOSLAV OFFICIALS WERE ENGAGED IN LARGE-SCALE BLACK MARKETING AND "OTHER ANTI-SOCIAL ACTIVITIES."

THE PRESS INSISTED THE STAFF OF THE YUGOSLAV MILITARY MISSION IN BERLIN BE REDUCED BY 90 PER CENT. IT CLAIMED THE MILITARY MISSION WAS AIDING THE ALLEGED ILLEGAL ACTIVITIES. THE MISSION'S PRESENT STRENGTH IS 260 PERSONS, BY SOVIET ESTIMATE, BUT YUGOSLAV OFFICIALS SAID THAT WAS TOO HIGH. THEY REFUSED TO SAY WHAT YUGOSLAV PERSONNEL NUMEBERS IN GERMANY.

A SPOKESMAN FOR THE YUGOSLAV MISSION SAID HE HAD LEARNED OF THE CHARGES ONLY THROUGH THE PRESS. HE SAID THE SOVIET AUTHORITIES HAD PRESENTED NO FORMAL DEMANDS TO THE MISSION, HE ADDED:

"THE YUGOSLAV CITIZENS MENTIONED IN THE RUSSIAN PRESS AS ALLEGEDLY BEING ENGAGED IN BLACK MARKETING ARE ALL YUGOSLAV DISPLACED PERSONS. THEY ARE NOT YUGOSLAV OFFICIALS AND HAVE NO CONNECTION WITH OUR MILITARY MISSION. WHEN THE RUSSIANS PRESENT US WITH A FORMAL STATEMENT WE WILL MAKE A FORMAL REPLY."

THE YUGOSLAV MILITARY MISSION, ACCREDITED TO THE ALLIED CONTROL COUNCIL, NOW HAS OFFICES IN THE BRITISH SECTOR OF THE CITY. ORIGINALLY IT WAS IN THE SOVIET SECTOR. MEMBERS OF THE MISSION STILL LIVE IN THE RUSSIAN SECTOR.

THE YUGOSLAVS MOVED THEIR OFFICES WHEN THEY OBTAINED PERMISSION TO RE-OCCUPY THEIR PREWAR LEGATION BUILDING IN THE BRITISH SECTOR. THE YUGOSLAV SPOKESMAN SAID THE RUSSIANS HAD NOT TRIED TO MAKE ANY YUGOSLAVS MOVE OUT OF EASTERN BERLIN.

YUGOSLAVIA HAS NOT BEEN GETTING ALONG VERY WELL WITH RUSSIA SINCE THE COMINFORM BLASTED PREMIER MARSHAL TITO AND HIS LIEUTENANTS LAST YEAR FOR STRAYING FROM THE COMMUNIST PARTY LINE.

ALL WERE BELIEVED TO BE MILITARY PERSONNEL.

FIRST ANNOUNCEMENT SAID THERE WERE SIX PERSONS ABOARD, BUT THE AIR-FORCE SAID A RECHECK INDICATED THE NUMBER WAS 17 OR 18.

A BRITISH AIR MINISTRY SPOKESMAN IN LONDON SAID SIX BODIES HAD BEEN RECOVERED FROM GHE WRECKAGE. ASKED WHETHER HE COULD CONFIRM WHETHER MORE WERE ABOARD HE REPLIED "I UNDERSTOOD THERE WERE SIX MEN ABOARD BUT I'M NOT SURE WHETHER THAT'S RELIABLE INFORMATION OR NOT."

THE PLANE WAS ENROUTE FROM THE RHINE-MAIN AIRBASE AT FRANKFURT TO THE BURTONWOOD MAINTENANCE BASE FOR AIRLIFT PLANES.

THE PLANE CRASHED IN THE SWAMP COUNTRY OF LANCASHIRE COUNTY IN NORTHWEST ENGLAND. AFTER FIRST REPORTS OF THE CRASH 50 POLICEMEN ASSISTED BY FIREMEN SET OUT TO SEARCH THE SPARSELY POPULATED REGION.

THEY SLOGGED THROUGH DRIVING RAIN AND MIST FOR THREE HOURS BEFORE THEY CAME UPON THE WRECKAGE.

POLICE SAID TWO BODIES WERE RECOVERED FROM THE PLANE.

THE PLANE HAD ESTABLISHED RADIO CONTACT WITH BURTONWOOD AFTER IT WAS 50 MINUTES OVERDUE. IT ASKED FOR CLEARANCE TO LAND, BUT NO FURTHER WORD WAS HEARD FROM THE FOUR ENGINE CRAFT.

NEITHER U.S. AIR FORCE OFFICIALS IN ENGLAND NOR THE BRITISH AIR MINISTRY COULD CONFIRM THAT 17 OR 18 PERSONS WERE ABOARD THE PLANE.

CAIRO, EGYPT, JAN. 7-(AP)-TEXT OF A COMMUNIQUE ISSUED BY THE CABINET ANNOUNCING A CEASE-FIRE IN PALESTINE FOLLOWS:

ON MAY 15, 1948 THE ARAB ARMIES ENTERED PALESTINE TO RESTORE ORDER AND SECURITY AND PUT AN END TO ATROCITIES BEING COMMITTED BY ZIONIST TERRORIST GANGS AGAINST PEACEFUL INHABITANTS. THE MOTIVE FOR THIS WAS NOT A DESIRE FOR WAR ITSELF NOR FOR THE ACHIEVEMENT OF ANY TERRITORIAL GAIN.

THE STRUGGLE CONTINUED FOR ABOUT EIGHT MONTHS DURING WHICH THE EGYPTIAN FORCES MADE THE GREATEST SACRIFICES FOR THE SAKE OF THIS HUMAN MOTIVE.

DURING THIS STRUGGLE THE SECURITY COUNCIL INTERVENED REPEATEDLY TO IMPOSE A TRUCE ON BOTH SIDES AND ISSUED DECISIONS ON MAY 29, 1948, JULY 15, 1948 AND AUG. 18, 1948. WE RESPECTED THE DECISIONS EACH TIME. BUT THE ZIONISTS DID NOT RESPECT THEM AND CONTINUED THEIR AGGRESSION, CONCENTRATING THEIR ATTACK ON POSITIONS OF THE EGYPTIAN FORCES IN THE NEGEV. THE EGYPTIAN FORCES FACED THIS AGGRESSION COURAGEOUSLY AND THE EGYPTIAN GOVERNMENT ASKED THE SECURITY COUNCIL TO PUT AN END TO IT.

ON NOV. 4, 1948, NOV. 16, 1948 AND DEC. 29, 1948 THE COUNCIL ISSUED ORDERS FOR A CEASE FIRE AND RESTORATION OF THE SITUATION TO THAT PREVAILING BEFORE THE ZIONIST AGGRESSION WHICH STARTED OCT. 14, 1948. THE JEWS CONTINUED THEIR AGGRESSION AGAINST EGYPTIAN FORCES, PAYING NO NOTICE AS USUAL TO SECURITY COUNCIL DECISIONS AND DEPENDING ON EQUIPMENT, AMMUNITION AND TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE THEY RECEIVED FROM SOME EASTERN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES IN SPITE OF THE EMBARGO IMPOSED BY THE SECURITY COUNCIL.

FINALLY THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT MEDIATED TO STOP THE FIGHTING IMMEDIATELY AS A STEP TOWARD ESTABLISHMENT OF A PERMANENT ARMISTICE IN PALESTINE. THE EGYPTIAN GOVERNMENT ACCEPTED IN ACCORDANCE WITH ITS PREVIOUS RESPECT FOR SECURITY COUNCIL DECISIONS ISSUED NOV. 4, 1948, NOV. 16, 1948, AND DEC. 29, 1948, ON CONDITION THAT NECESSARY MEASURES BE TAKEN TO CARRY OUT THESE DECISIONS. THE MEDIATOR FIXED 12 NOON, GREENWICH MEAN TIME, (7 A.M. EST) TODAY, JAN. 7, 1949, FOR THE CEASE FIRE AND IT WAS CARRIED OUT.

WHILE THE EGYPTIAN GOVERNMENT RENEWS THE CEASE FIRE IN COMPLIANCE WITH THE SECURITY COUNCIL DECISION AND WITH THE MEDIATION OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT AND ITS ASSURANCES IT PAYS TRIBUTE TO ITS COURAGEOUS ARMY WHICH CARRIED THE RESPONSIBILITY ALONE AND MAINTAINED ITS TRADITIONS AND GLORIES STANDING FIRM IN ALL ITS POSITIONS AND LINES.

(ADVANCE)-SINGAPORE, JAN. 6-(AP)-THE GOODS OF THE WORLD ONCE MORE ARE FLOWING ACROSS SINGAPORE'S DOCKS, THE CROSSROADS OF THE SOUTH PACIFIC, AS FAST AS THEY DID BEFORE THE WAR.

AFTER THREE YEARS OF REBUILDING AND REHABILITATION, SINGAPORE'S HARBOR BOARD REPORTS ITS EQUIPMENT IS BACK TO PREWAR STANDARD. IT IS HANDLING AS MUCH CARGO (250,000 TONS A MONTH) AS IT DID IN THE AVERAGE MID-1930 YEAR. MORE THAN 20 OCEAN-GOING SHIPS USUALLY ARE TIED UP AT ITS 24 BERTHS.

OUT IN THE VAST SINGAPORE ROADS, ONE OF THE WORLD'S LARGEST ANCHORAGES, THE PICTURE IS NOT SO BRIGHT. ABOUT 85,000 TONS A MONTH ARE HANDLED THERE, UNLOADED INTO BARGES AND TAKEN EITHER TO SMALL COASTAL SHIPS OR TO PRIVATE SHEDS FOR STORAGE. PREWAR STATISTICS AREN'T AVAILABLE, BUT TODAY'S TRAFFIC IS ESTIMATED AT ONE-THIRD PREWAR.

JAN 1949

THE DROP IS BELIEVED DUE MAINLY TO UNSETTLED CONDITIONS IN NEIGHBORING COUNTRIES IN SOUTHEAST ASIA, ESPECIALLY INDONESIA, WHERE POLITICAL OR MILITARY STRIFE HAS REDUCED TRADE.

BUT THE SINGAPORE HARBOR AREA ITSELF IS BUSTLING. ITS MANAGERS HAVE BLUEPRINTS FOR TWO MAJOR IMPROVEMENTS, A NEW DRY DOCK AND NEW BERTHING SPACE FOR 14 MORE THIPS, WHICH WILL COST AN ESTIMATED $16,000,000.

THE 600-FOOT DRY DOCK WILL BE BUILT FIRST WHEN FUNDS ARE AVAILABLE. THE BERTHING SPACE, A LONG TERM PROJECT, WILL GROW ALONG WITH SINGAPORE'S TRADE. ITS COMPLETION MIGHT TAKE 50 YEARS. BOTH PROJECTS WILL BE FINANCED WITH GOVERNMENT LOANS TO BE REPAID FROM HARBOR REVENUE.

ALTHOUGH THE JAPANESE LEFT NO SUNKEN SHIPS TO CLOG STRATEGIC HARBOR BERTHS, ALLIED AIR RAIDS AND JAPANESE NEGLECT EXACTED A HEAVY TOLL FROM HARBOR FACILITIES ASHORE. SEVENTY PER CENT OF ALL TRANSIT SHEDS WERE PUT OUT OF ACTION, AND 50 PER CENT OF ALL OTHER WAREHOUSES WERE DESTROYED.

THE HARBOR BOARD'S LARGEST FLEET OF TUGS AND LIGHTERS WAS ALMOST WHOLLY LOST. RAILROAD FACILITIES FOR HANDLING CARGO INSIDE THE HARBOR BOARD AREA WAS BADLY DAMAGED.

TODAY THE HARBOR BOARD REPORTS MOST OF THE TRANSIT SHEDS AND WAREHOUSES HAVE BEEN REBUILT. STORAGE SPACE IN THE AREA TOTALS 1,500,000 SQUARE FEET. MOST OF THE ROAD AND RAILWAY SYSTEM HAS BEEN RESTORED. MOST OF THE TUGS AND LIGHTERS HAVE BEEN REPLACED. NANKING, SATURDAY, JAN.8-(AP)-CHINA'S TOTTERING NATIONAL GOVERNMENT TODAY LOOKED HOPEFULLY TO THE APPOINTMENT OF DEAN ACHESON AS U.S. SECRETARY OF STATE AS A MIRACLE WHICH MIGHT SAVE IT FROM COMPLETE DEFEAT BY THE COMMUNISTS.

GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS WERE ANXIOUS FOR SOME INDICATION OF ACHESON'S VIEWS ON THE CHINESE QUESTION.

JAN 1949

WHATEVER THE RESULT OF THE NEW DEVELOPMENT, IT WAS CERTAIN TO SLOW PREPARATIONS HERE FOR WHATEVER STEP THE GOVERNMENT BELIEVES NECESSARY TO MEET THE THREAT OF THE RED CONQUEST OF NANKING.

PRESIDENT CHAING KAI-SHEK, ON THE VERGE OF EITHER ABANDONING THE PRESIDENCY OR REMOVING A TOKEN GOVERNMENT TO CONTINUE THE FIGHT FROM FORMOSA OR CANTON, WAS EXPECTED TO DELAY A FINAL DECISION IN HOPE THE CHANGES IN WASHINGTON WILL MEAN A NEW U.S. POLICY OF AID TO CHINA.

IN RECENT MONTHS MANY HIGH CHINESE OFFICIALS HAVE BEEN OPENLY CRITICAL OF SECRETARY OF STAGE GEORGE C.MARSHALL AS THE PRIMARY OPPONENT OF WHOLESALE ASSISTANCE TO THE CHIANG GOVERNMENT. AS A RESULT OF THIS FEELING, AMERICAN POLICY HERE HAS BEEN UNDER CONSTANT ATTACK BOTH BY THE GOVERNMENT AND THE COMMUNISTS.

THERE WAS OBVIOUS ENCOURAGEMENT AMONG GOVERNMENT LEADERS OVER, FIRST, WILLIAM C.BULLITT'S REPORT URGING BROAD ASSISTANCE TO THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT, AND, SECOND, MARSHALL'S RETIREMENT FROM THE SECRETARYSHIP WHERE HE DIRECTED ALL PHASES OF THE AMERICAN PROGRAM FOR CHINA.

NEUTRAL OBSERVERS HERE ARE CONVINCED THAT AMERICAN ASSISTANCE AT THIS TIME -- SHORT OF COMPLETE MILITARY INTERVENTION WITH TROOPS AS WELL AS SUPPLIES AND LEADERSHIP -- WILL ONLY DELAY THE FINAL RESULT OF CHINA'S CIVIL WAR.

YET, FOR THOSE WHO STILL SUPPORT CHIANG'S DETERMINATION TO CONTINUE THE FIGHT, ACHESON'S APPOINTMENT WAS THE FIRST RAY OF HOPE IN MONTHS.

NANKING'S OFFICIALDOM WAS FRANTICALLY SEEKING THE ANSWER AS TO HOW MUCH THIS RAY MEANS TO THEM.

TSINGTAO, CHINA, SATURDAY, JAN. 8-(AP)-THE U. S. NAVY HAS NEITHER INTENTIONS NOR INSTRUCTIONS TO PULL THE MARINES OUT OF CHINA, VICE ADM. OSCAR BADGER SAID TODAY.

DESPITE MOUNTING RUMORS AND CONSIDERABLE EVIDENCE THAT THE MARINES AT LEAST ARE TRANSFERRING FROM SHORE TO FLOATING BASES, BADGER TOLD THE ASSOCIATED PRESS NO CHANGE IN THE NAVY'S CHINA POLICY IS CONTEMPLATED.

WITHOUT DIRECTLY MENTIONING THE 3,000-ODD MARINES STATIONED AT THIS U. S. NAVAL ANCHORAGE, BADGER SAID THE DEPLOYMENT OF HIS FORCES AND THE "STREAMLINING OF OPERATIONS TO FIT THE DIMINISHING NEEDS IN ONE SECTOR AND INCREASING NEEDS IN ANOTHER ALL FIT INTO THE FRAMEWORK OF THE NAVY'S POLICY AFFORDING FULL PROTECTION TO AMERICANS IN CHINA."

DOZENS OF AMERICANNAVAL SHIPS STILL ARE AT ANCHOR AT COMMUNIST-RINGED TSINGTAO AND A SQUADRON OF MARINE FIGHTER PLANES STILL IS AT THE AIRFIELD. AND MARINE PERSONNEL STILL ARE BILLETED AT THE SHANTUNG UNIVERSITY COMPOUND, THEIR SHORE BASE SINCE V-J DAY.

A REPORT THAT THEY ARE TURNING THE COMPOUND BACK TO THE CHINESE HAS BEEN INTERPRETED TO MEAN THEY ARE LEAVING CHINA.

BADGER SAID A LETTER "WRITTEN IN ERROR" THAT A LEASE ON THE UNIVERSITY GROUNDS AND BUILDING BE TERMINATED JAN. 25 MOTIVATED THE REPORT. HE DID NOT SAY WHETHER THE PROPERTY IS BEING RETAINED BEYOND THAT DATE.

SOME LEASES COVERING SHORE QUARTERS, HE SAID, ARE BEING TERMINATED "IN LINE WITH DIMINISHING REQUIREMENTS HERE."

THE EVACUATION OF NAVY AND MARINE DEPENDENTS HAS RELEASED SEVERAL PROPERTIES FORMERLY LEASED FROM THE CHINESE. REDUCTION OF THE MILITARY BUDGET IN WASHINGTON HAS ADDED THE CONSIDERATION OF ECONOMY. BUT IN NO CASE, BADGER STRESSED, HAVE THESE CONSIDERATIONS MINIMIZED THE EFFECTIVENESS OF U. S. FORCES HERE.

JAN 1949

THE INFERENCE WAS PLAIN THAT WHETHER AFLOAT, AS AT SHANGHAI, OR ASHORE, THE NAVY AND MARINES INTEND TO STAY IN WHATEVER POSITION IS NECESSARY TO MEET ANY EMERGENCY IN LINE WITH THE POLICY TO PROTECT AMERICANS.

"BEYOND THAT," SAID BADGER, "WE HAVE NO MISSION. WE WILL CERTAINLY NOT INTERFERE IN CHINA'S CIVIL WAR."

THERE IS NO PANIC IN TSINGTAO, ALTHOUGH CONCERN OVER THE REPORTED IMMINENT WITHDRAWAL OF THE MARINES IS EVIDENT.

THE AMERICAN CIVIL POPULATION HAS DROPPED FROM ABOUT 600 TO AROUND 70, INCLUDING CONSULAR PERSONNEL. WITH THIS DECREASE IN NUMBER, THE SIZE OF THE FORCE REQUIRED FOR THEIR PROTECTION HAS BEEN REDUCED.

IT HAS BEEN SUGGESTED A REDEPLOYMENT OF U. S. FORCES IN CHINA TO OFFER THE MAXIMUM PROTECTION TO NATIONALS MIGHT CAUSE A SHIFT IN THE NAVAL ANCHORAGE ELSEWHERE. BUT EVEN THAT, BADGER STRESSED, WOULD NOT CONSTITUTE A WITHDRAWAL.

TOKYO, JAN. 7-(AP)-VICE ADM. HISASHI ICHIOKA, COMMANDER OF JAPAN'S WARTIME EIGHTH SUBMARINE SQUADRON, TESTIFIED TODAY THAT HIS SUPERIOR, ADM. SOEMU TOYODA, PERMITTED THE KILLING OF SURVIVORS OF TORPEDOED ALLIED SHIPS.

THE TESTIMONY WAS GIVEN AT ADMIRAL TOYODA'S TRIAL BEFORE AN ALLIED OCCUPATION MILITARY TRIBUNAL. TOYODA WAS CHIEF OF JAPAN'S COMBINED FLEET AFTER MAY OF 1944. HE SERVED AS COMMANDER OF THE YOKOSUKA NAVAL DISTRICT WHEN MOST OF THE KILLINGS TOOK PLACE.

ICHIOKA SAID TOYODA DID NOT DEVELOP THE PLAN FOR TORTURING AND KILLING SURVIVORS OF ALLIED SHIPS. BUT HE SAID HIS SUPERIOR ALLOWED THE POLICY TO CONTINUE WHEN HE TOOK CHARGE OF THE COMBINED FLEET.

FIVE OTHER JAPANESE ADMIRALS ALREADY HAVE BEEN SENTENCED FOR THEIR PART IN THE CONSPIRACY WHICH RESULTED IN THE DEATHS OF HUNDREDS OF SURVIVORS OF AT LEAST 11 ALLIED SHIPS. THE VESSELS WERE SUNK BY JAPANESE SUBMARINES IN THE SOUTH PACIFIC AND THE INDIAN OCEAN.

WASHINGTON, JAN 7-(AP)-A TOP AMERICAN GENERAL COULD STEM THE COMMUNIST ADVANCE IN CHINA AND SUCH A MAN WOULD BE WELCOMED BY CHIANG KAI-SHEK, SAYS FORMER AMBASSADOR WILLIAM C.BULLITT.

BULLITT TOLD A REPORTER THAT WHILE HE COULD NOT QUOTE CHIANG, HE WAS CERTAIN THE GENERALISSIMO WOULD ACCEPT SUCH AID IN THE CIVIL WAR.

HOWEVER, IT WAS CONSIDERED HIGHLY UNLIKELY THAT THE UNITED STATES WOULD CONSIDER SENDING "A YOUNG AMERICAN NAPOLEON" TO CHINA, AS SUGGESTED BY THE FORMER DIPLOMAT.

IN A REPORT TO THE SENATE-HOUSE COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN ECONOMIC COOPERATION YESTERDAY, BULLITT SAID THE ENTIRE ORIENT IS IN DANGER OF FALLING TO THE REDS UNLESS THE UNITED STATES STEPS IN.

"TO TURN THE TIDE OF THE WAR IN CHINA THEREFORE," HE SAID, "REQUIRES NOT MERELY ECONOMIC AID AND MILITARY SUPPLIES, BUT ALSO AMERICAN DIRECTION AND CONTROL, EXERCISED BY A FIGHTING GENERAL OF THE HIGHEST QUALITIES WITH AN ADEQUATE STAFF OF ABLE OFFICERS."

BULLITT TOLD REPORTERS LATER HE BELIEVED A TOP-RANKING GENERAL AND 600 OFFICERS ARE NEEDED TO DO A "THOROUGH JOB." HE SAID HE IS SURE CHIANG'S SUBORDINATE ARMY COMMANDERS WOULD NOT OBJECT TO HAVING AMERICANS TAKE OVER.

BULLITT, ONCE AMBASSADOR TO MOSCOW AND TO PARIS, HAS BEEN CRITICAL OF THE ADMINISTRATION'S POLICIES IN CHINA. HE WAS SENT THERE IN NOVEMBER BY THE THEN REPUBLICAN-DOMINATED "WATCHDOG" COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN AID TO REPORT ON CHINA'S ECONOMIC NEEDS, THE PROGRESS OF THE RELIEF PROGRAM, AND THE "GENERAL SITUATION."

SENATOR BRIDGES (R-NH) RELEASED THE BULLITT STUDY AS THE FORMER ENVOY'S "PERSONAL REPORT" AND WITHOUT OFFICIAL COMMITTEE ENDORSEMENT. THE COMMITTEE DECIDED NOT TO MAKE ANY RECOMMENDATIONS TO CONGRESS ITSELF, FOR THE PRESENT AT LEAST.

BULLITT TOLD REPORTERS THAT $800,000,000 (M) IN THE NEXT 17 MONTHS COULD HALT THE REDS AT THE YANGTZE RIVER AND GIVE THE NATIONALIST FORCES TIME TO REGROUP AND TRAIN NEW DIVISIONS. "IT IS VERY LATE," HE SAID, "BUT NOT TOO LATE."

AS FOR LEADERSHIP, HE SAID, "THE JOB PROBABLY WOULD BE SHORTER WITH MACARTHUR THAN WITH ANYONE ELSE." PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAS SAID THAT GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR, SUPREME ALLIED COMMANDER IN JAPAN, IS NOT GOING TO CHINA.

BULLITT SAID CHINA'S LOWER-GRADE OFFICERS AND NON-COMS ARE GOOD "BUT MANY OF THE OFFICERS FROM THE RANK OF MAJOR UPWARD ARE BOTH INCOMPETENT AND DISHONEST--ESPECIALLY THE GENERALS."

"WE DO HAVE TO RECOGNIZE," HE SAID IN HIS REPORT, "THAT WE ARE AT ONE OF THE TURNING POINTS OF HUMAN HISTORY, AND THAT WE CANNOT AFFORD TO BE WRONG IN OUR DECISIONS SINCE THE STAKE MAY BE NOT ONLY THE INDEPENDENCE OF CHINA BUT ALSO THE INDEPENDENCE OF THE UNITED STATES."

BESIDES MACARTHUR, BULLITT MENTIONED GENERALS MARK CLARK, ALBERT WEDEMEYER AND J.LAWTON COLLINS AS POSSIBVLITVES FOR LEADERSHIP OF THE NATIONALIST FORCES.

WASHINGTON,JAN.7-(AP)-THERE HAVE BEEN NO INDICATIONS THAT RUSSIA INTENDS TO CURTAIL SHIPMENTS OF MANGANESE TO THIS COUNTRY A STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIAL SAID TONIGHT.

REPORTS HAD BEEN CIRCULATED DURING THE DAY THAT RUSSIA WAS TRIMMING THE MANGANESE SUPPLIES SO AS TO EFFECT UNITED STATES' STEEL MAKING.

"WE HAVE HEARD NOTHING FROM MOSCOW ON ANY CURTAILMENT," THE OFFICIAL SAID, ADDING:

"THE 1948 SHIPMENTS WERE SATISFACTORY. RUMORS OF A DECREASE IN SHIPMENTS FOR 1949 ARE OF THE SAME TYPE THAT HAVE BEEN CIRCULATING FOR SOME TIME.

"THERE HAS BEEN NO WORD FROM THE RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT."

REP.MURDOCK (D-ARIZ) SAID MEANWHILE THE POSSIBILITY THAT RUSSIA MAY DECLINE TO RENEW CONTRACTS FOR MANGANESE HAS LONG BEEN ANTICIPATED BY CONGRESS.

HE ADDED HE HAS BEEN ADVOCATING THE DEVELOPMENT OF DOMESTIC SOURCES FOR 10 YEARS.

MANGANESE, HE EXPLAINED, IS TO THE STEEL INDUSTRY WHAT STARCH IS TO THE LAUNDRY INDUSTRY.

ONE THIRD OF THE MANGANESE REQUIRED FOR THE AMERICAN STEEL INDUSTRY, HE SAID, HAS BEEN COMING FROM RUSSIA. A WITNESS TOLD THE HOUSE MINING SUBCOMMITTEE DURING LENGTHY HEARINGS LAST YEAR THAT DOMESTIC SOURCES SUPPLY ONLY ABOUT 18 PER CENT OF THE INDUSTRY'S REQUIREMENTS.

"PRACTICALLY EVERY MEMBER OF THE COMMITTEE AND PRACTICALLY EVERY

WITNESS," MURDOCK SAID, "EXPRESSED GREAT CONCERN THAT OUR COUNTRY WAS SO DEPENDENT ON THE RUSSIAN SUPPLY OF THIS EXTREMELY VITAL MATERIAL.

"THIS IS ONE OF THE REASONS WHY THAT COMMITTEE WORKED FOR ADEQUATE STOCKPILING OF MANGANESE AND OTHER MINERALS AND METALS."

MANGANESE IS FOUND IN 27 STATES IN THIS COUNTRY BUT THE WITNESS, A SPOKESMAN FOR UNITED STATES STELL, SAID THE WAR TIME EXPERIENCE WITH DOMESTIC ORES WAS UNSATISFACTORY. THIS, HE EXPLAINED, WAS DUE TO "ERRATIC CHEMICAL AND PHYSICAL QUALITIES WHICH REFLECTED LOW BLAST FURNACE PRODUCTION, HIGH MANGANESE LOSSES, HIGH PRODUCTION COSTS AND SUBSTANDARD FERROMANGANESE."

ANOTHER WITNESS, REPRESENTING THE MANGANESE MINING INDUSTRY, TESTIFIED, HOWEVER, THAT THERE ARE DEPOSITS OF THE MINERAL IN THIS COUNTRY WHICH WILL "RUN THE SAME, IF NOT BETTER" THAN THOSE IN FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

DOMESTIC MANGANESE, HE SAID, WILL COST MORE. HE SAID THIS WAS DUE TO THE LOW COST OF LABOR IN THE FOREIGN PRODUCING COUNTRIES AND THE LOW COST OF OCEAN TRANSPORTATION.

NAZI SENTENCES (350)

WASHINGTON,JAN.7-(AP)-LIFE IMPRISONMENT INSTEAD OF THE DEATH PENALTY HAS BEEN RECOMMENDED BY AN INVESTIGATING COMMISSION FOR 12 NAZIS CONDEMNED TO DIE FOR THE WARTIME MASSACRE OF 83 AMERICAN SOLDIERS.

JAN 1949

WHILE THE MASS KILLING AT MALMEDY, BELGIUM, RATES "STERN RETRIBUTION," THE COMMISSION SAID IN A REPORT MADE PUBLIC YESTERDAY, METHODS USED TO GET PRE-TRIAL STATEMENTS FROM THE ACCUSED MEN WERE "HIGHLY QUESTIONABLE" AND RAISED ENOUGH DOUBT TO JUSTIFY COMMUTING THEIR SENTENCES.

THE COMMISSION WAS ASKED BY SECRETARY OF THE ARMY ROYALL TO LOOK INTO THE CASES AFTER THE SUPREME COURT HAD HELD IT COULD NOT LEGALLY HEAR APPEALS FILED BY THE CONDEMNED GERMANS.

THE INVESTIGATORS, HEADED BY JUSTICE GORDON SIMPSON OF THE TEXAS SUPREME COURT, ALSO RECOMMENDED

THE INVESTIGATORS, HEADED BY JUSTICE GORDON SIMPSON OF THE TEXAS SUPREME COURT, ALSO RECOMMENDED COMMUTATION FOR 17 GERMANS CONVICTED OF SLAYING INDIVIDUAL AMERICAN SOLDIERS OR FLIERS.

THE MALMEDY MASSACRE OCCURRED ON DEC.17, 1944, FOLLOWING AN ENGAGEMENT BETWEEN AMERICAN TROOPS AND A FANATICAL NAZI FORCE KNOWN AS "COMBAT GROUP PEIPER," DURING THE GERMANS' ARDENNES OFFENSIVE. A NUMBER OF AMERICAN SOLDIERS WERE TAKEN PRISONER, THEN MACHINE-GUNNED.

A UNITED STATES TRIAL COURT AT DACHAU, GERMANY, ORIGINALLY HANDED DOWN 43 DEATH SENTENCES FOR THE KILLINGS, BUT ALL EXCEPT 12 WERE COMMUTED TO LIFE IMPRISONMENT BY GEN. LUCIUS D.CLAY, AMERICAN MILITARY GOVERNOR IN GERMANY.

IT ALSO WILL BE UP TO CLAY TO PASS ON THE COMMISSION'S RECOMMENDATION OF CLEMENCY FOR THE 12.

THE PETITIONS SENT TO THE SUPREME COURT BY THOSE 12 SAID THERE WERE IRREGULARITIES BEFORE AND DURING THE TRIALS--INCLUDING MOCK TRIALS BEFORE THE ACTUAL COURT HEARINGS WERE HELD. THE COMMISSION BORE OUT SOME OF THOSE CLAIMS.

SOME STATEMENTS USED BY THE PROSECUTION AGAINST THE ACCUSED MEN, SAID THE INVESTIGATING GROUP, "WERE OBTAINED BY THE HOUSE OF MOCK TRIALS IN WHICH ONE OR MORE PERSONS ATTIRED AS AMERICAN OFFICERS PRETENDED TO PRESIDE AS JUDGES AND OTHERS ATTIRED IN ARMY OFFICERS' UNIFORMS PRETENDED TO BE THE PROSECUTOR AND DEFENDER OF THE ACCUSED.

"THE ROOM WHERE THESE PROCEEDINGS WAS HELD CONTAINED A TABLE COVERED WITH A BLACK CLOTH ON WHICH STOOD A CRUCIFIX AND BURNING CANDLES. THE ACCUSED WAS CONDUCTED TO THIS ROOM WITH A BLACK HOOD OVER HIS HEAD.

"THE MOCK TRIALS WERE DESIGNED, AMONG OTHER THINGS, TO GAIN THE CONFIDENCE OF THE ACCUSED IN HIS SUPPOSED DEFENSE ATTORNEY AND THUS TO ELICIT A STATEMENT FROM HIM."

THE COMMISSION ALSO SAID THAT "IT IS EXTREMELY DOUBTFUL THAT AN AMERICAN COURT MARTIAL WOULD FIX ANY PUNISHMENT MORE SEVERE THAN LIFE IMPRISONMENT IF IT WERE TRYING MEMBERS OF THE AMERICAN ARMY WHO COMMITTED LIKE OFFENSES IN THE HEAT OF BATTLE."

BESIDES SIMPSON, MEMBERS OF THE COMMISSION INCLUDED JUDGE EDWARD VAN RODEN OF DELWARE COUNTY, PA., AND LT.COL. CHARLES W.LAWRENCE, JR, OF THE ARMY JUDGE ADVOCATE GNERAL'S DEPARTMENT.

WASHINGTON,JAN.7-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES HAS RELEASED $22,000,000 OF NORWAY'S MARSHALL PLAN DEPOSIT TO HELP CURB INFLATION CAUSED BY THE GERMAN OCCUPATION.
NORWAY, LIKE OTHER MARSHALL PLAN NATIONS, HAD TO DEPOSIT "COUNTERPART" FUNDS IN ITS OWN CURRENCY TO MATCH DOLLAR GRANTS UNDER THE RECOVERY PROGRAM.
THE UNITED STATES DOES NOT HOLD TITLE TO SUCH FUNDS, BUT THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION MUST APPROVE THEIR RELEASE.
IN RELEASING 110,000,000 KRONER TO NORWAY, ECA SAID THE MONEY WILL BE USED "FOR THE REDUCTION OF THE OCCUPATION ACCOUNT OF THE BANK OF NORWAY," WHICH "REPRESENTS FUNDS DRAWN BY THE GERMAN OCCUPATION OFFICIALS TO FINANCE MILITARY AND OTHER EXPENDITURES OF GERMAN FORCES IN NORWAY DURING THE WAR."
BUT ECA OFFICIALS MADE IT CLEAR THE ACTION DOES NOT INDICATE ANY RECOGNITION BY THIS COUNTRY OF LIABILITY FOR DEBTS INCURRED BY OTHER NATIONS DURING THE WAR.
"THIS IS ONE MEANS THAT WE ARE USING TO CONTRIBUTE TO NORWEGIAN RECOVERY BY REDUCING INFLATIONARY PRESSURES," AN ECA SPOKESMAN SAID.
THE NAZIS FORCED THE STATE-OWNED BANK OF NORWAY TO ADVANCE THEM ABOUT $2,200,000,000 (B) IN OCCUPATION COSTS--AN ESTIMATED 11,000,000,000 (B) KRONER.
THIS PHASE OF THE NORWEGIAN NATIONAL DEBT HAS BEEN CUT TO ABOUT 8,000,000,000 (B) KRONER--OR $1,600,000,000 (B)--SINCE LIBERATION.

WASHINGTON,JAN.7-(AP)-NEW TESTS OF THE NAVY'S SUBMARINES AND ANTI-SUBMARINE WEAPONS ARE EXPECTED TO DEVELOP IN THE BIGGEST EAST COAST WAR GAMES STAGED TO DATE.

MANEUVERING IN THE CARIBBEAN AND WESTERN ATLANTIC AREA WILL BE APPROXIMATELY 100 WARSHIPS, RANGING FROM CARRIERS AND A 45,000-TON BATTLESHIP TO AMPHIBIOUS ATTACK LANDING VESSELS. THIRTY-FIVE THOUSAND MEN WILL MAN THE SHIPS, PLANES AND THE ARMY AND MARINE UNITS IN THE OPERATIONS LEADING TO AN ASSAULT ON AN "ENEMY" ISLAND AT PUERTO RICO. THE SIX-WEEK EXERCISE WILL OPEN ON FEBRUARY 14.

DEFENSE AGAINST THE BIG AND FAST-MOVING STRIKING FORCE WILL BE BUILT AROUND AIRCRAFT AND SUBMARINES. THUS THE CARIBBEAN EXERCISES, INSOFAR AS THE UNDERWATER WARFARE PHASE IS CONCERNED, WILL BE AN EXTENSION OF TESTS MADE DURING SIMILAR MANEUVERS LAST FALL IN THE NORTH ATLANTIC AND AT ARGENTIA, NEW FOUNDLAND.

HIGH NAVY OFFICIALS WERE DISPLEASED WITH NEWS REPORTS FROM THE ARGENTIA EXERCISES WHICH SAID A LARGE NUMBER OF THE SURFACE SHIPS IN THE ATTACKING FORCE HAD BEEN "SUNK" BY THE NEWLY-REDESIGNED SCHNORKEL SUBMARINES OPERATING AGAINST THEM. THE SCHNORKEL TYPE IS EQUIPPED WITH A "BREATHER" TUBE ENABLING IT TO REMAIN SUBMERGED FOR PROLONGED PERIODS. STREAMLINING OF THE SUBMARINES, COMBINED WITH THE ABILITY TO OPERATE THEIR INTERNAL COMBUSTION ENGINES WHILE SUBMERGED, HAVE GIVEN THEM AN UNDERWATER SPEED FAR FASTER THAN POSSESSED BY THE SUBMERSIBLES OF WORLD WAR II.

NAVY OFFICIALS EXPLAINED THAT THE ARGENTIA TESTS WERE WEIGHTED DELIBERATELY IN FAVOR OF THE SUBMARINES, WITH ONLY A SMALL NUMBER OF THE SURFACE SHIPS EQUIPPED WITH NEW AND SECRET ANTI-SUBMARINE DETECTING AND ATTACKING DEVICES. AT THAT TIME, THEY EXPLAINED SUBSEQUENT TESTS WOULD BE MADE WITH MORE OF THE SURFACE SHIPS EQUIPPED FOR ANTI-SUBMARINE WORK.

ADMIRAL LOUIS E.DENFELD HAS SAID THAT "SHIPS WITH MODERN EQUIPMENT ARE NOT ONLY CAPABLE OF STANDING UP TO THE NEW SUBMARINES, BUT ACTUALLY HAVE THE EDGE ON THEM." HE ASSERTED THAT IN THE ARGENTIA EXERCISES ONLY ONE OF EIGHT SHIPS WITH THE NEW ANTI-SUBMARINE DEVICES WAS "SUNK" BY THE ATTACKING SUBMARINES.

THE TARGET OF THE ATTACKING FORCE WILL BE THE ISLAND OF VIEQUES, PUERTO RICO. DEFENDING VIEQUES WILL BE AIRCRAFT AND SUBMARINES AND A HYPOTHETICAL GARRISON OF TROOPS.

FOLO WASHINGTON

LAKE SUCCESS, JAN.7-(AP)-APPOINTMENT OF DEAN ACHESON AS SECRETARY OF STATE REPLACING GEORGE C. MARSHALL TOOK UNITED NATIONS DELEGATES BY SURPRISE TODAY.

MOST U.N. DELEGATES APPEARED TO BE MORE STUNNED AT THE APPOINTMENT OF ACHESON THAN OVER THE NEWS THAT MARSHALL HAD RESIGNED.

TYPICAL OF THE U.N. REACTION WAS THE TERSE COMMENT OF ONE HIGH-RANKING OFFICIAL OF THE WORLD ORGANIZATION WHO SAID:

"ACHESON? WELL I'LL BE DARNED."

A LEADING ARAB DELEGATE WHO ASKED THAT HE NOT BE QUOTED BY NAME SAID: "WE HAVE ALWAYS RECEIVED COOPERATION FROM GENERAL MARSHALL AND HAVE HAD GOOD RELATIONS WITH HIM. I HOPE THAT THE NEW SECRETARY OF STATE WILL BE AS COOPERATIVE AND THAT THE SAME GOOD RELATIONS WILL PREVAIL."

BY MAX HARRELSON

LAKE SUCCESS, JAN.7-(AP)-ACTING U.N. MEDIATOR RALPH BUNCHE PROPOSED TODAY THAT ARMISTICE TALKS BETWEEN ISRAEL AND EGYPT BEGIN JAN.11 OR 12 ON THE ISLAND OF RHODES.

BUNCHE MADE HIS PROPOSAL AFTER REPORTING TO THE SECURITY COUNCIL'S SEVEN-NATION PALESTINE COMMITTEE THAT EGYPT AND ISRAEL HAD AGREED ON A CEASE FIRE TO BE FOLLOWED BY DIRECT NEGOTIATIONS ON AN ARMISTICE.

"I HAVE EVERY REASON TO BELIEVE," BUNCHE SAID, "THAT A CEASE FIRE IS NOW IN EFFECT."

DISPATCHES FROM TEL AVIV SAID THE ISRAELI ARMY HAD ORDERED A CEASE FIRE BUT THERE WAS NO WORD FROM THE EGYPTIAN SIDE.

BUNCHE SAID THE EGYPTIAN GOVERNMENT SHOULD BE COMMENDED FOR TAKING THE INITIATIVE IN PROPOSING THE ARMISTICE TALKS.

EGYPTIAN DELEGATE MAHMOUD BEY FAWZI SAID:

"WE MUST SEE TO IT THAT NO MORE ATTACKS TAKE PLACE."

ARTHUR LOURIE, REPRESENTATIVE OF ISRAEL, SAID HE HOPED THE NEW DEVELOPMENTS MEAN A "NEW AND HAPPIER CHAPTER IN THE MIDDLE EAST."

"ISRAEL HAS NO DESIGNS ON THE TERRITORY OF ANY STATE," LOURIE SAID.

JAN 1949

FINN MOE OF NORWAY, NEWLY ELECTED CHAIRMAN OF THE COMMITTEE, PROPOSED THAT IT INFORM THE SECURITY COUNCIL NO FURTHER ACTION IS REQUIRED HERE AT THE MOMENT. THE PROPOSAL WAS APPROVED WITHOUT OBJECTION.

THE COMMITTEE ADJOURNED SUBJECT TO THE CALL OF THE CHAIRMAN.

TODAY'S MEETING WAS THE VIRST HELD SINCE THE SECURITY COUNCIL WOUND UP ITS PARIS MEETING THE LAST WEEK IN DECEMBER. THERE WAS NO ADVANCE INDICATION OF ANY PROPOSALS TO BE LAID BEFORE THE COMMITTEE.

THERE WAS A POSSIBILITY, HOWEVER, THAT BRITAIN MIGHT BRING UP CHARGES THAT ISRAELI TROOPS ARE HOLDING A SMALL FORTIFIED POSITION INSIDE EGYPTIAN TERRITORY. THE CHARGES ALREADY HAVE BEEN MADE BY A BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN.

U.N. OFFICIALS EXPRESSED THE BELIEF THAT THE SHIFT IN EGYPT'S POSITION ON ARMISTICE NEGOTIATIONS WAS ONE OF THE MOST HOPEFUL DEVELOPMENTS IN PALESTINE SINCE THE FIRST CEASE-FIRE IN PALESTINE LAST MAY 29.

OTHER ARAB COUNTRIES WERE EXPECTED TO FOLLOW EGYPT'S LEAD.

UP TO YESTERDAY EGYPT HAD MAINTAINED SHE WOULD NEVER ENTER INTO DIRECT NEGOTIATIONS WITH THE ISRAELI GOVERNMENT ON ANYTHING, DESPITE SECURITY COUNCIL ORDERS THAT THE JEWS AND ARABS TRY TO SETTLE THEIR DIFFERENCES.

DR.RALPH J.BUNCHE, ACTING U.N. MEDIATOR, HAD THIS COMMENT ON THE AGREEMENT BY EGYPT AND ISRAEL TO BEGIN ARMISTICE TALKS.

"I AM GREATLY ENCOURAGED BY THIS DEVELOPMENT AND EARNESTLY HOPE THAT THE NEGOTIATIONS CONTEMPLATED WILL LEAD TO PERMANENT PEACE IN THE AREA."

ISRAEL AND EGYPT ALSO AGREED TO A CEASE-FIRE EFFECTIVE AT 2 P.M. GMT (9 A.M. EST) YESTERDAY, BUT FIGHTING CONTINUED BECAUSE OF A COMMUNICATIONS MIXUP. BUNCHE SET A NEW DEADLINE FOR NOON GMT (7 A.M. EST) TODAY.

THE FULL SECURITY COUNCIL WAS SCHEDULED TO MEET AT 3 P.M. (EST) TODAY TO RESUME DISCUSSIONS ON THE INDONESIAN QUESTION. SINCE THE LAST COUNCIL MEETING ON THIS ISSUE IN PARIS THE DUTCH HAVE COMPLETED THEIR "POLICE ACTION" IN JAVA AND SUMATRA AND ORDERED A CEASE-FIRE.

IN WASHINGTON YESTERDAY, UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE ROBERT A.LOVETT CALLED ON THE NETHERLANDS TO GIVE A "CONCRETE DEMONSTRATION" OF ITS INTENTION TO SATISFY THE "LEGITIMATE ASPIRATIONS OF THE INDONESIANS FOR SELF-RULE."

HE SERVED NOTICE THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT WILL REFUSE TO ACCEPT AS FINAL THE DUTCH MILITARY ACTION WHICH CRUSHED THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC.

A SPOKESMAN FOR THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC DELEGATION HERE SAID THE INDONESIANS HAVE RECEIVED AUTHORITATIVE WORD THAT THE DUTCH PLAN TO CREATE AN AUTONOMOUS STATE IN CENTRAL JAVA AND TO ESTABLISH TWO OR MORE STATES IN THE REPUBLICAN PART OF SUMATRA.

THE SPOKESMAN SAID THE DUTCH ARE TRYING TO TALK PRESIDENT SOEKARNO AND PREMIER MOHAMED HATTA INTO AGREEING TO HEAD THE PROPOSED CENTRAL JAVA STATE.

THE INDONESIAN REPRESENTATIVE SAID THE DUTCH MIGHT CHANGE THEIR PLANS AFTER READING LOVETT'S DECLARATION.

ML248AES

B47 add-L.Success-(wire-Indonesia)xxx they wish.

PALAR AND ROMULO BOTH CLAIMED THE FOUR LEADERS WERE STILL HELD IN CUSTODY AND DEMANDED THEIR IMMEDIATE RELEASE. A SPOKESMAN FOR THE INDONESIAN DELEGATION SAID THE DUTCH CHOSE THE ISLAND BANGKA "BECAUSE IT HAS A LARGE CHINESE POPULATION AND A SMALL INDONESIAN POPULATION."

JAN 1949

VAN ROYEN TOLD THE COUNCIL "HOSTILITIES HAVE COME TO AN END AS FAR AS THE NETHERLANDS FORCES ARE CONCERNED." "WE ONLY HOPE," HE ADDED, "THAT THE DISORGANIZED GROUPS WHICH MAY BE LEFT OVER FROM THE FORMER REPUBLICAN ARMY WILL ON THEIR PART ALSO RESPECT THE COUNCIL'S CALL TO CEASE HOSTILITIES."

THE INDONESIAN DELEGATE TOOK VIGOROUS EXCEPTION TO THESE REMARKS AND ACCUSED HOLLAND OF IGNORING THE COUNCIL'S CEASE-FIRE ORDER "UNTIL THEY HAD ACHIEVED THEIR MILITARY AIMS."

PALAR, COMMENTING ON THE DUTCH STATEMENT THAT NETHERLANDS TROOPS MIGHT HAVE TO DEAL WITH "ROVING GROUPS WHO ATTEMPT TO CAUSE UNREST," POINTED OUT THAT INDONESIA'S MILITARY POSITION AND STRATEGY NECESSITATES RESORTING TO GUERILLA FIGHTING.

"I HAVE NEVER KEPT SECRET FROM THE SECURITY COUNCIL," THE INDONESIAN DELEGATE SAID, "THE FACT THAT OUR STRENGTH LIES IN GUERRILLA WARFARE X X X.". HE DESCRIBED REPUBLICAN GUERRILLA TACTICS AS "ONLY THE BEGINNING OF OUR WAR OF SELF-DEFENSE."

THE NETHERLANDS DELEGATE SAID DUTCH TROOPS HAD RESTORED "REAL PEACE" TO INDONESIA TO CREATE CONDITIONS FOR "THE CREATION OF A HEALTHY DEMOCRATIC STATE." HE SAID HOLLAND PLANS TO ESTABLISH A FEDERAL INTERIM GOVERNMENT AS A PRELUDE TO CREATING AN INDEPENDENT UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA WHICH EVENTUALLY WOULD BECOME A MEMBER OF THE U.N.

LEAD DAY U.N.-INDONESIA

LAKE SUCCESS, JAN. 7-(AP)-SEVERAL FAR EASTERN COUNTRIES JOINED IN A SLASHING ATTACK ON THE U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL LATE TODAY FOR ITS HANDLING OF THE INDONESIAN CASE.

THE ATTACK WAS LED BY THE PHILIPPINES, AUSTRALIA AND INDIA WHICH DEMANDED FIRM ACTION TO FORCE THE WITHDRAWAL OF DUTCH TROOPS TO THE POSITIONS THEY HELD BEFORE THE DECEMBER OUTBREAK OF FIGHTING.

THE COUNCIL SESSION WAS OPENED WITH A DUTCH DECLARATION IN WHICH IT WAS ANNOUNCED THAT FIGHTING HAD STOPPED AND THAT THE DUTCH HAD RELEASED FROM HOUSE ARREST NINE INDONESIAN LEADERS.

FOUR OF THESE, HOWEVER, INCLUDING PRESIDENT SOEKARNO, PREMIER MOHAMMED HATTA, FORMER PREMIER SUTAN SJARIR AND FOREIGN MINISTER HADJI AGOES SALIM, ARE BEING RESTRICTED TO THE ISLAND OF BANKA, THE DUTCH SAID.

THESE DISCLOSURES WERE MADE BY DUTCH REPRESENTATIVE J.H.VAN ROYEN AS THE U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL RESUMED DISCUSSIONS ON THE INDONESIAN QUESTION.

THE COUNCIL ADOPTED A RESOLUTION IN PARIS CALLING ON THE NETHERLANDS GOVERNMENT TO CEASE FIRE IN INDONESIA AND RELEASE THE ARRESTED LEADERS. VAN ROYAN FORMALLY NOTIFIED THE COUNCIL THAT THE DUTCH "POLICE ACTION" HAD BEEN COMPLETED.

INDONESIAN REPRESENTATIVE L.N.PALAR SAID THE DUTCH WERE DEFYING THE COUNCIL'S ORDER BY REFUSING TO GIVE THE INDONESIAN LEADERS COMPLETE FREEDOM.

PALAR ALSO NOTIFIED THE U.N. THE INDONESIANS HAD STARTED AN ALL-OUT "WAR OF SELF-DEFENSE" IN JAVA AND SUMATRA AND DECLARED "THIS IS ONLY THE BEGINNING."

HE DEMANDED THAT THE COUNCIL ORDER WITHDRAWAL OF DUTCH TROOPS TO THE POSITIONS THEY HELD BEFORE THE DECEMBER ACTION STARTED.

BRIG.GEN.CARLOS P.ROMULO, REPRESENTATIVE OF THE PHILIPPINES, ALSO DEMANDED IMMEDIATE ACTION BY THE COUNCIL TO RESTORE THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC TO ITS FORMER POSITION. HE VIGOROUSLY ASSAILED THE COUNCIL FOR "VACILLATIONS," "CONTRADICTIONS," AND "INDECISION" IN HANDLING THE INDONESIAN QUESTION.

JAN 1949

ROMULO ATTACKED BOTH THE UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA FOR NOT TAKING A STRONGER POSITION AGAINST THE DUTCH.

"HOSTILITIES HAVE COME TO AN END AS FAR AS THE NETHERLANDS FORCES ARE CONCERNED," VAN ROYEN SAID. "WE ONLY HOPE NOW THAT THE DISORGANIZED GROUPS WHICH MAY BE LEFT OVER FROM THE FORMER REPUBLICAN ARMY WILL ON THEIR PART ALSO RESPECT THE COUNCIL'S CALL TO CEASE HOSTILITIES."

HE SAID 66 DUTCH SOLDIERS HAD LOST THEIR LIVES IN THE MILITARY OPERATIONS WHICH BEGAN LAST MONTH. NO FIGURES WERE AVAILABLE ON THE NUMBER OF INDONESIAN CASUALTIES, HE SAID.

THE INDONESIAN POLITICAL LEADERS WHO WERE RELEASED OUTRIGHT FROM DUTCH DETENTION, HE SAID, WERE: MINISTER OF HEALTH LEIMENA, MINISTER OF COMMUNICATIONS DJUANDA, MINISTER OF TRAFFIC AND RECONSTRUCTION LAOH, MINISTER OF YOUTH KUSUAN AND KIAI HADJI DEWANTORO, PROMINENT EDUCATOR.

VAN ROYAN SAID THE FOUR OTHER LEADERS "ENJOY COMPLETE LIBERTY" IN THE ISLAND OF BANKA, BUT THE DUTCH FEEL THAT IF THEY WERE GIVEN COMPLETE FREEDOM AT THIS TIME "IT MIGHT STILL ENDANGER THE PUBLIC SAFETY."

TURNING TO THE QUESTION OF WHAT FREEDOM OF MOVEMENT WILL BE ALLOWED THE U.N. GOOD OFFICES COMMITTEE, THE CONSULAR COMMISSION AND U.N. MILITARY OBSERVERS, VAN ROYEN SAID:

"THE LIBERTY OF MOVEMENT OF THE ORGANS (THE COMMITTEE AND OTHERS) MENTIONED IS INEVITABLY LIMITED BY THE FACT THAT VISITS TO SOME AREAS MAY TEMPORARILY BE RESTRICTED FOR REASONS OF SAFETY AND MILITARY NECESSITY."

HE ADDED, HOWEVER, THAT THE RESTRICTIONS WOULD BE INTERPRETED IN A WAY THAT "NO UNNECESSARY HINDRANCE WILL BE PLACED IN THE WAY OF THE OBSERVERS IN THE EXECUTION OF THEIR TASK."

AUSTRALIAN AMBASSADOR NORMAN J.O.MAKIN URGED THE COUNCIL TO REMAIN IN SESSION UNTIL IT COULD AGREE ON STEPS TO REMEDY THE INDONESIAN SITUATION.

HE SAID HE WAS NOT SATISFIED WITH VAN ROYEN'S STATEMENT THAT THE FOUR TOP REPUBLICAN LEADERS WOULD BE RESTRICTED TO THE ISLAND OF BANGKA.

"THE COUNCIL CANNOT PLAY THE OSTRICH AND BURY ITS HEAD IN THE SANDS OF LAKE SUCCESS UNMINDFUL OF DEFIANCE OF ITS ORDERS," MAKIN SAID.

SIR RAMA RAU, INDIAN AMBASSADOR TO WASHINGTON, SAID "IT IS AN INSULT TO THE INTELLIGENCE OF THE COUNCIL TO SAY THE ORDER (FOR THE RELEASE OF THE INDONESIAN LEADERS) HAS BEEN CARRIED OUT."

MAHMOUD BEY FAWZI EGYPTIAN DELEGATE, SAID THE RELEASE OF THE INDONESIAN LEADERS IS BEING MADE INTO A "MOCKERY."

HE DEMANDED STRONG COUNCIL ACTION.

"HOW MANY MORE MONTHS WILL THIS GO ON?" FAWZI ASKED. "WHAT ARE YOU WAITING FOR?"

THE COUNCIL ADJOURNED UNTIL 3 P.M. (EST) TUESDAY WITHOUT TAKING ANY ACTION.

ISRAELIS DOWN RAF PLANES; BRITAIN PROTESTS STRONGLY, REINFORCES IN TRANS-JORDAN

London Preparing Protest To Present At U.N.

JAN 1949

London, Jan. 8 (AP)—Britain accused Israel today of shooting down five RAF planes in "unprovoked attacks" by Jewish flyers yesterday over Egyptian soil near the Palestine border.

DAY

In Tel Aviv the Jews said they shot down five planes around Rafa and that four appeared to be British and the fifth Egyptian. An Israeli military spokesman asserted the planes were on armed reconnaissance and that some carried wing bombs.

Britain is allied to Egypt and Trans-Jordan in mutual assistance pacts. She announced the dispatch of British troops to Aqaba, the Trans-Jordan Red Sea port, close to the scene of recent Palestine fighting.

Britain alerted her airforce to "regard as hostile any Jewish aircraft" discovered in the future over Egypt. Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin stuck close to his desk, underscoring the gravity with which Britain regarded the growing tension with Israel.

JAN 1949

Protest Is Prepared

The British Government prepared to lodge a stiff protest with the Israeli representative at the United Nations. A Foreign Office statement said:

"His Majesty's Government have instructed Sir Terence Shone, the British representative at the Security Council, to present immediately a memorandum to the Jewish representative at the United Nations containing a strong protest against the attack by Jewish aircraft over Egyptian territory on aircraft of the Royal Air Force on reconnaissance from the [Suez] Canal zone, resulting in the loss of five British aircraft.

"The memorandum states that his Majesty's Government reserve their rights both as regards a claim for compensation and as regards all possible further action. A copy of the memorandum is being communicated to Dr. [Ralph] Bunche, the acting mediator."

More Fighting Predicted

All Palestine fronts appeared quiet under a new United Nations cease-fire except for some shelling around Rafa, reported by an Israeli military spokesman. Rehman Abdel Azzam Pasha, secretary general of the Arab League of Egypt, Trans-Jordan and five other Arab states, declared fighting would be renewed in Palestine.

The British said four Spitfires and a Tempest were shot down on the Egyptian side of the border. An Israeli spokesman said the planes were downed just inside Palestine.

A British communiqué said the RAF fighters had strict orders not to cross the frontier into Palestine. Since the attacks, it added, British airmen have been instructed "to regard as hostile any Jewish aircraft encountered over Egyptian territory."

Two Attacks Reported

The Air Ministry said there were two attacks. The first was made against a reconnaissance patrol sent out "to ascertain the depth and scale of the Jewish incursion into Egyptian territory," the Ministry said. The second was made against a force dispatched to determine the fate of the missing planes in the first group.

A British Foreign Office spokesman charged that Israeli units had made a fresh incursion into Egypt near Rafa and had 150 vehicles at a camp 3 miles south of the town. He said the Jewish troops apparently intended to outflank Rafa. He said the Jews had a roadblock 5 miles inside Egypt on the road to Abu Awugeila, deep inland.

There were these differences in the British and Jewish versions of the clash:

The Jews said four of the downed planes were British and the fifth was Egyptian. At least two and perhaps three were shot down by Israeli fighters and the others by anti-aircraft. A captured British flying officer is being held for Red Cross identification, the Tel Aviv source said.

Alliance Treaty Cited

The Foreign Office spokesman said the British troop movements to Aqaba had been ordered "in response to a request from Trans-Jordan" under its treaty of alliance with Britain. He declined to disclose the number of soldiers involved.

No other movement of troops has taken place "so far," the spokesman continued. He volunteered the observation that the Royal Air Force has bases in Trans-Jordan at Amman and Mafraq.

The informant denied published reports that Britain also is sending troops to the Egyptian-Palestine frontier.

"No movement of British forces has taken place from the Suez Canal Zone to the Egyptian-Palestine border," the spokesman said. Britain has a mutual defense treaty with Egypt as well as with Trans-Jordan.

No War Material

Britain has delivered no war materials to the Arab states, he said. The United Nations Security Council ordered a Middle East arms embargo last spring.

Aqaba links Trans-Jordan's capital of Amman with the sea. It is near the part of the Negeb Desert allotted to Israel and also near Saudi Arabia. In Paris, last month, a British delegate charged before the Security Council that a small Israeli force had crossed the Trans-Jordan border near Aqaba but that it later withdrew.

The Foreign Office spokesman said: "The British Government continues to regard the situation (in Palestine) with grave concern." According to the Foreign Office's latest reports, he said, there still are some Jewish troops on Egyptian soil. He acknowledged, however, that the Foreign Office had received no fresh information since yesterday's cease-fire order.

JAN 1949

Hope For Improvements

The British Government hopes the cease-fire will lead to improvements, he said, but will be more convinced of this when there is evidence that Security Council orders "are put in practice."

He said it was natural that Trans-Jordan should request the aid of British troops in view of Israel's actions along the border, and added that it was natural that Britain should fulfill her treaty obligations.

In Tel Aviv, an official Israeli spokesman said one British flying officer who bailed out was taken prisoner. The charred remains of the body of another was found in the ruin of his RAF-marked Spitfire fighter. The fate of the other two pilots was not learned immediately, but it was presumed they are dead.

The captured British flying officer is being held for Red Cross identification. The Israeli spokesman said he is Flight Officer Timothy John McElhaw, of the RAF reconnaissance squadron. It is presumed he will be set free.

Israeli Strafed

The spokesman said McElhaw's plane and one other were destroyed by Jewish fighters who found them over the Rafa battle zone where "enemy planes" had been strafing Jewish ground forces all morning.

The spokesman quoted the captured Briton as telling this story:

He was assigned to the 208th Squadron based on Fayid, Egypt, in the Suez Canal zone. He and Flying Officers Cooper, Cook and Close were briefed for an armed aerial reconnaissance mission to photograph Israeli and Egyptian positions in the area from Rafa to Auja.

Did Not Fire

They took off with a camera in the lead plane and all guns loaded, the purported account went on. He said he did not fire his guns. He told Jewish questioners he saw Cooper's plane shot down and that he, McElhaw, bailed out when his plane was hit by Israeli fighter gunfire.

The Jewish spokesman said "enemy planes" appeared over the battle zone again in the afternoon and were attacked by anti-aircraft fire and fighters.

He said during this time a formation of twelve planes was seen to be carrying wing bombs northeast of Rafa. These were attacked by four Israeli fighters. One plane crashed in flames and another was claimed by Israeli pilots as probably shot down.

Found In Wreck

The spokesman said later the Israeli forces found a burned wreck of one of these planes and asserted it bore RAF markings. Thus, it was assumed the squadron was British and that the second downed plane was an RAF machine.

The pilot's body found in the wreckage was burned beyond recognition.

Britain Warns Israelis In Downing of 4 Planes; Rebuffed by Jewish Aide

JAN 1949

RAF Told To Retaliate, London Says

TEL AVIV, Israel, Jan. 8 (AP).—The Jewish air force and anti-aircraft shot down at least four British planes over the still sputtering Egyptian front, Israel announced today.

(The British said five planes were missing from missions Friday, and accused the Jews of shooting them down.

(The British lodged a "strong protest" with Israeli representatives to the United Nations in New York.

(In London, the Air Ministry said that as a result of the "unprovoked attack" orders had been given its pilots to regard all Israeli aircraft encountered over Egyptian territory henceforth as hostile. The British said one attack was 15 miles inside Egyptian territory.

BRITISH TO GUARD PORT

(At the same time, the British Foreign Office announced that British troops have been sent to guard the Trans-Jordan port of Aqaba on the Red Sea to back up her mutual defense pact with King Abdullah.

(The clash took place as other dispatches disclosed that Britain has instituted armed air patrols along the Trans-Jordan and Egyptian borders as a strong warning to Israel not to interfere with British interests in the Middle East.)

AIR FIGHT DESCRIBED

An official Israeli spokesman said four or five planes shot down in the Rafa border region were British.

The Jewish spokesman emphatically declared that the fight in which three of the planes were shot down "began, was carried on and ended over Israel."

"Regarding the other two planes the possibility the fight took place in the border area exists but there, too, it cannot have taken place deep inside Egyptian territory," he added.

He said one of the pilots bailed out, was captured and proved to be an officer of the RAF. The burned body of another pilot was found in the ruins of an RAF Spitfire, he added. Fate of the other pilots was not known but they were presumed to be dead.

EGYPTIAN PLANE DOWNED

A fifth plane shot down in the area was Egyptian, the spokesman said.

The spokesman said two of the planes were shot down by Israeli fighters yesterday morning before the 2 P. M. cease-fire went into effect with Egypt. The two others were shot down in the afternoon.

The encounters took place, the spokesman declared, after "enemy aircraft" had strafed Jewish forces.

The captured flier was identified as Flying Officer Timothy John McElhaw, 22, of the RAF's Reconnaissance Squadron No. 208. McElhaw was said to have given this account:

He and Flying Officers Cooper, Cook and Close were instructed to make an armed aerial reconnaissance of Israeli and Egyptian positions along the border, from Rafa at the coast to Auja, about 30 miles inland. The mission took off with a camera in the lead plane, and all guns loaded. He saw Cooper's plane shot down and he himself bailed out without firing his guns when his plane was hit by fire from Israeli fighters.

SENDING DETAILS TO U.N.

Later, the spokesman said, a formation of 12 planes carrying wing bombs was seen northeast of Rafa (in Palestine territory) and was attacked by Israeli fighters and anti-aircraft guns. One crashed in flames and another was claimed by Israeli pilots as shot down. It was in one of these planes that the charred body of the British pilot was found.

The government said it was communicating its version of the incident to the United Nations immediately.

Presumably the captured British flier will be released.

Rafa, in the area of the clash, is a disputed town. An Israeli spokesman said yesterday Rafa had been in Palestine territory until the end of the British mandate, when the British moved the border north to include it in Egypt.

MAY RENEW FIGHTING

Meanwhile the cease-fire on Palestine's southern borders still was shaky.

(Abdel Rahman Azzam Pasha, secretary-general of the Arab League, said in Cairo he believed fighting would be resumed if the Jews do not carry out the U.N. Security Council resolution of Nov. 4 ordering a withdrawal in the Negeb to the Jewish positions of Oct. 14. Egypt said yesterday she was ordering a cease-fire on the condition the resolution was carried out.)

Late Israeli reports said there were no incidents on any fronts this afternoon. An Israeli military spokesman had reported this morning "some Egyptian artillery activity in the South, where Jewish positions were subjected to sporadic shelling."

Despite the quiet, the blackout remained in effect throughout Israel.

IRAQI CAPTURE HILL

There was no fresh flare-up in the Ramath Hakovesh area on the Iraqi front in central Palestine, however, where firing had been reported for several days. The Iraqis yesterday took a Jewish hill in the area, the Jews reported.

A Jewish spokesman said Israel was ready to participate in projected negotiations with Egypt for a permanent armistice in Palestine but said he was not yet informed by the U.N. as to the place of such negotiations. (AOO)

Egypt Confirms Willingness To Negotiate For Armistice

JAN 1949

Cairo, Egypt, Jan. 8 (AP)—Egypt confirmed today that she has agreed to negotiate with Israel for a Palestine armistice.

The Foreign Office's confirmation (two days after it had been announced by the United Nations mediator in New York) marked a departure from Arab policy dating back to 1939 of holding no direct talks with Zionists. It was accompanied by some Egyptian recriminations aimed at some of their Arab allies.

Abdel Rahman Azzam Pasha, Egyptian secretary general of the Arab League, said recent fighting in Palestine had showed "the regrettable hesitation of some politicians in Arab countries," an obvious reference to the failure of Arab allies to come to Egypt's assistance.

Question Put To Baghdad

Edgar Gallad Bey, publisher of the influential Arabic El Zamane and the French Le Journal D'Egypte, in a signed editorial said other Arab countries had refrained from joining the recent fighting in the hope that the Israelis would overcome the Egyptians and open the way for a settlement in the interest of Israel and Trans-Jordan.

NIGHT

Gallad Bey also wrote that Nuri Pasha es Said, new Iraqi Premier, declared this week he would renew co-operation with the Arab countries to "save Palestine."

"What does he mean by 'save Palestine'?" Gallad Bey asked. "This is the question which Cairo puts to Baghdad. She is putting it because she knows that if Nuri Pasha does not change his old policy 'to save Palestine' will mean something contrary to what the Arab League wants and in agreement with the policy of the Hashemite King (Abdullah of Trans-Jordan)."

Azzam Pasha predicted that fighting will reopen in Palestine unless Israeli troops withdraw from their newly won Negeb battleground.

Fighting Brings Out 2 Points

"We are still in the early phases of the struggle for liberation of Palestine," he said in a news conference. "We have still before us a long struggle which will take many forms."

The spokesman for the league, which represents seven Arab nations, spoke pointedly of the failure of some of those countries to help Egypt in the latest fight with Israel, and asserted:

"Although the Egyptian Government has been forced for various reasons to accept a cease-fire (last June) while the Egyptian Army had the initiative on the battlefield, there is no doubt the Zionists will not respect their pledges.

"Thus, this phase is similar to previous phases, and anybody who thinks battles will not be renewed in Palestine will be mistaken."

He said the fighting has brought out two points.

Many Explosive Issues

"One, which is regrettable, is the hesitation of some politicians in Arab countries." His reference obviously was to failure of some league members to join Egypt in the renewed fighting.

The other point, he added, was the way the Egyptian Army, "supported by the Egyptian nation and some Arab forces such as Saudi Arabians and Palestinians," had "defended the right and stood firm for Allah."

He predicted this year would see the tide turn toward final Arab victory in the Holy Land.

The latest cease-fire still leaves many explosive issues to be settled. Chief of these is the United Nations Security Council demand that Jewish forces withdraw in the Negeb to the positions they held before the Israeli advance began on October 14 during the truce.

Another Knotty Problem

Another question is what to do about Egyptian troops isolated at Faluja. The Egyptians contend the Israelis refuse to permit these troops to return to Egypt, and have attacked them repeatedly since they were trapped in mid-October.

Negotiation of an armistice to replace the Palestine truce is another knotty problem.

All of these are covered by the Security Council's orders of November 4 and November 16, or by plans worked out by Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, acting United Nations mediator, in his efforts to make the orders effective.

Egypt and Israel were miles apart in their interpretation of the orders, however, even before the last outburst of fighting in the Negeb.

Order Is Conditional

The Egyptian Foreign Office

Positive Steps

The British-Israeli air clash followed authoritative information from Cyprus that Britain has taken positive military steps this week to safeguard what she considers her vital interests in the Middle East.

A dispatch by John Roderick, Associated Press correspondent until recently assigned to the Arab side in the Palestine war, said the British Royal Air Force was flying fighter reconnaissance patrols over Trans-Jordan within view of the Negeb battle area.

The RAF also has been building up its gasoline stocks and other supplies in Trans-Jordan by means of cargo planes flying from bases in Iraq and the Suez Canal Zone of Egypt. This airlift operation was planned to continue two weeks.

Not A Threat

Britain is known to be anxious over the fate of Aqaba, which is important as a terminal of the road to Damascus originally built by Britain for military use.

One British Government source in London said the RAF activity in Trans-Jordan was not designed as a military threat against Israel but as evidence of Britain's intent to back up warnings against Jewish violations of the borders of allied countries.

An Israeli Foreign Office spokesman announced at noon that observance of cease-fire orders appeared complete in Palestine, but a military spokesman said two hours later there had been some shelling around Rafa during the day.

Ready To Nominate

The latter spokesman said Israel is ready to nominate representatives for armistice talks at Rhodes, as proposed by Bunche, but has not yet been officially notified to do so.

The Foreign Office spokesman said yesterday's fighting after the cease-fire around Rafa finally stopped at 7 o'clock last night (noon, E.S.T.).

Informed Jewish sources said the Egyptians counterattacked the Israeli lines there late in the afternoon and were thrown back. Israeli spokesmen, however, described the incident as local in character.

Rafa is on the communication lines up the coastal strip of southern Palestine to the Egyptian-held city of Gaza.

said recently that, just before the new fighting started on December 21, Egypt offered to enter into negotiations with United Nations representatives for a permanent armistice within three days after the Jews would comply with the Council's withdrawal orders.

[The Jews said they withdrew the reinforcements sent into the Negeb on and after October 14 and that this constituted compliance. However, they refused to withdraw from captured Beersheba or give up their seige of Faluja.]

Announcing yesterday's cease-fire order to its troops, Egypt said the order was conditional on "necessary measures" being taken to carry out the Council's orders. Whether Egyptian participation in armistice negotiations will be conditioned, as before, on the prior withdrawal of Jewish forces in the Negeb is not yet apparent. United Nations representatives here said they had no information as to what the next step would be.

State Of Israel Not Recognized By Great Britain

JAN 1949

New York, Jan. 8 (AP)—The Israeli delegation to the United Nations refused tonight to transmit to Tel Aviv a British protest against the shooting down of five RAF planes because it was not addressed to the Israeli Government.

Britain has not recognized the State of Israel.

I. L. Kenen, press attaché of the Israeli delegation to the United Nations, announced that Arthur Lourie, delegation head, had informed Sir Terence Shone, British deputy on the United Nations Security Council, of the Israeli stand.

The protest was drafted after the British Air Ministry in London accused Jewish forces of downing five British planes on patrol over Egypt.

NIGMT

Lourie Changes Earlier Stand

In his statement to Shone, Lourie said that he had noted the British document "contains a request to 'the Jewish delegation' to transmit the protest contained in that document to 'the Jewish authorities at Tel Aviv.'

"I had assumed that you were calling on me in my capacity as acting representative of the provisional Government of Israel at the Security Council of the United Nations, and it was on that understanding that, subject to the proviso verbally communicated to you, I had undertaken to transmit the contents of the document in question to my Government.

"It is clear from the document itself, however, that I was mistaken, and in the absence of any specific indication as to who is intended by words 'the Jewish representative' or 'the Jewish authorities at Tel Aviv,' I am not in a position to act on your request."

At the time he received the protest Lourie told Shone it would be sent to Tel Aviv promptly.

A Matter Of Courtesy

Shone, who said the language of the protest was strong, also gave a copy to Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, acting United Nations mediator for Palestine. The British deputy arrived at Lourie's apartment on Riverside drive here with one assistant and talked with Lourie for about 30 minutes.

Lourie said at that time he was receiving the document merely as a matter of courtesy for transmission to his Government. The contents were not made public.

A British source said the note was handed to Lourie here instead of being sent direct to Tel Aviv because it was a matter of convenience. He said Israel had to be informed and the acting mediator told of Britain's attitude at the same time, so the Government chose to deliver the notes here.

Immediate Action Ordered

This source said Britain has not yet asked for a meeting of the Security Council on the plane incident.

Shone interrupted his week-end holiday to spend all day at his office in downtown New York drafting the protest to Israel.

The Foreign Office in London instructed Shone to take immediate action. The British charged in London that Israeli forces had shot down five British planes over the Egyptian front. A Jewish spokesman in Tel Aviv said at least four were downed.

Bunche said at Lake Success he had received no official report of the incident.

He said he would take no action, regardless of any protest, until he had received all the facts and knew just what had happened.

Bunche declared he hoped that the British-Israeli clash would not interfere with the armistice negotiations scheduled to begin next week on the Island of Rhodes.

Riley To Accompany Bunche

Bunche said he was hopeful that Egypt and Israel would send their foreign ministers to the peace talks. He had not received notification of the ranks of the armistice delegates when he left his office at Lake Success today.

Bunche will take with him to Rhodes the chief of staff of his truce supervision teams, Brig. Gen. William E. Riley, a United States Marine Corps officer. John Reedman, his assistant, and a secretary also will go with Bunche.

United Nations officials speculated at Britain's motives in taking the unusual step of submitting the protest note to the Israeli representative here instead of handing in a protest directly to the United Nations mediator or directly to Israeli Government officials in Tel Aviv.

These officials said the British move might imply a sort of backhanded recognition of the Israeli Government.

Israeli Sees Unusual Course

An Israeli spokesman speculated that Britain had chosen this unusual course to avoid having to send a note directly to the Government in Tel Aviv.

This spokesman declared in a statement that Britain's action in sending planes across the Egyptian frontier was a "shocking violation of the United Nations truce."

He said Britain had no right to send planes across the frontier.

There was no indication here of an early Security Council meeting on the latest development in Palestine.

The Council's seven-member Palestine committee met yesterday and heard with obvious satisfaction that Egypt and Israel have decided to negotiate for an armistice. The committee adjourned to see how these armistice talks would end.

Israeli Spokesman Says British Broke Truce

Carpenter

JAN 1949

Lake Success, Jan. 8 (AP)—An Israeli spokesman declared today that Britain committed a "shocking violation of the United Nations truce" by sending planes across the Egyptian frontier.

Britain accused the Israelis today of shooting down five RAF planes yesterday over the Rafa area on the Palestine-Egyptian border. The British statement said the "unprovoked attacks" were committed over Egyptian soil.

DAY

No Right, He Says

The spokesman for the Israeli delegation to the United Nations said that Britain has no right to send planes across the Egyptian frontier.

The Israeli spokesman said:

"It is amazing that the British persist in forcing their way into the Palestine conflict by flying planes over the frontier at a time when Egypt and Israel have agreed to cease fire and to begin armistice negotiations."

Paris Situation Cited

"They open themselves," his statement added, "to the grave charge that they are prejudicing prospects to peace which have become so promising within the last 48 hours. That may not be so surprising when one recalls that in Paris the British vigorously opposed every proposal for direct negotiations between Israel and the Arab states."

Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, United Nations acting mediator on Palestine, said here he had no information on the incident.

Top British Liberal Indorses Israel

South-End-On-Sea, England, Jan. 8 (AP)—Immediate recognition of the state by Israel by Great Britain was urged tonight by Sir Andrew McFadyean, president-elect of the Liberal party.

Sir Andrew said recognition now would soon wipe out the memory of "incidents" which have soured British-Jewish relations in the last two years.

"Jewry owes much more to this country than to any other, and I believe that debt will be remembered," he said.

Understanding Forecast

"I believe also that Trans-Jordan and Israel will reach a modus vivendi (understanding), and that we shall then see the opening of a new epoch in the Middle East."

He was the second British party leader to urge recognition of Israel. Winston Churchill, the Conservative chief, demanded in House of Commons on December 10 that Britain end her "sulky boycott" of the new state.

Sir Andrew assailed present British policy in Palestine as a "disastrous series of mistakes."

"It is hard to resist the conclusion," he said, "that Foreign Secretary Bevin made up his mind to back the Arab horse."

D.C. Concerned Over Palestine Situation

Washington, Jan. 8 (AP)—American officials expressed deep concern today over the shooting down of British fighter planes in the Palestine area.

They expressed hope, however, that a general acceptance of the United Nations cease-fire order for Palestine fighting would prevent a more serious involvement of the British with the Jews.

First reaction from official informants here was that the incident would infuriate the British Government and rouse a new wave of anti-Israel feeling among the British people but that the British would "not go to war" about it.

Perhaps Not Armed

Some authorities suggested that the British planes which were shot down, being on a reconnaissance mission, probably either were not armed or had orders not to fire.

[Israeli sources quoted a captured British airman as saying his and some other planes were armed but did not fire. They also said some of the planes carried bombs.]

The State Department evidently was without any full official report from the Foreign Office in London on the incident.

The fact that the shooting occurred over Rafa was viewed at the State Department as possibly offering an explanation why such a thing could happen at all.

In Border Area

Rafa is in the Palestine-Egyptian border area. Israelis presumably take the position it is in Palestine, while the British consider it in Egypt. Some officials here said that even if the city is in Palestine, it is in the section assigned to the Arabs under the United Nations division of the Holy Land.

Top American authorities obviously are relying heavily on the cease-fire order to keep an admittedly bad matter from becoming much worse. Only a few days ago the State Department issued a statement disclosing that it had called on both Jews and Arabs to make a permanent truce.

Both Sides Warned

At that time it warned the Jews to get their troops off Egyptian territory and the Egyptians to avoid such actions as bombing and shelling of Israeli centers—actions which in the American view tend to enlarge the area of hostilities and force retaliatory action.

Quick and effective observance of the truce, however, was in question. According to diplomatic reports reaching here, Egyptians and Israelis both claim to have given cease-fire directions to their troops, but each side was accusing the other of continuing to fight.

DOMINIONS SUGGEST BRITISH JAVA SHIFT

JAN 1949

Fear That Support of Dutch May Aid Communist Cause—Urge an Eastern Union

By The Associated Press.

LONDON, Jan. 8—British Dominion High Commissioners for Australia, New Zealand, India, Pakistan and Ceylon called on Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin today and delivered a statement advising that Britain's hands-off policy in the Dutch-Indonesian strife might play into Communist hands.

Foreign Office spokesmen officially refused comment beyond the terse announcement of the meeting. But informed Government sources said that the Commissioners were worried over the effect that Britain's failure to condemn the Dutch would have on the restive populations of the Far East.

India, one of the newest Dominions and strongly pro-Indonesian, is particularly irritated at Secretary Bevin's policy, it was authoritatively reported.

All of the Far Eastern Dominion commissioners were reported to feel that Britain's prestige in the area would suffer and that her drive to crush communism in Malaya would be hampered.

More Direct U.S. Soviet Policy Foreseen

Paris, Jan. 8 (AP)—The changes in the United States State Department touched off speculation in the French press today about a possible new American move to reach an understanding with Russia.

Most newspapers expressed belief President Truman will now take a more direct role in elaboration of American foreign policy. This, they said, may herald some new gesture such as Truman's abortive plan to send United States Supreme Court Justice Fred Vinson to Moscow.

DAY

Red Press Pessimistic

Comment generally reflected the overall French desire for peace with Russia at almost any price.

Most of the papers said the replacement of Secretary of State Marshall and Robert Lovett, Under Secretary, also will mean a stiffened attitude toward Germany.

The Communist organ L'Humanite was practically alone in declaring the changes mean nothing and that, "in the person of Dean Acheson, Marshall succeeds Marshall."

Communists Fire Shots

Berlin, Jan. 8 (AP)—Communist German police fired on a German wagon driver who ran the tightened Soviet blockade of western Berlin today.

A volley of five shots missed him but two bullets struck a pedestrian in the leg.

It was the first shooting to follow intensified blockade measures by the Russians who dug trenches across roads in and around the city to stop smugglers.

On this one hundred and ninety-ninth day of the blockade, Lord Mayor Ernest Reuter of the western sections praised the Allied airlift as a "first class miracle" which would save the city from the Communists.

"Berlin can be held by stubborn determination," Reuter said in an interview.

NIGHT

Separate Government Seen

"We in Berlin have given the greatest decisive blow to the Communists in Europe," he continued. "There are no Communists left in (western) Berlin—about five per cent, and that is nothing. We are defending western Europe to a certain extent."

He expressed doubt the blockade will end at an early date.

"There is some opinion that Russia will give in if we muddle through this winter," Reuter said. "I doubt it. They will give in when they see that we can get along indefinitely."

The blockade, he predicted, will be lifted "only if the Russians understand they cannot conquer us. We have to show the Russians that we are able to hold our ground whatever they do," he added.

The Lord Mayor predicted the Soviets will set up a separate east German government after the Bonn Constitutional Convention and creation of the west German government.

Trenches Dug Across Roads

He quoted Maj. Gen. Alexander Kotikov, Russian commandant of Berlin, as declaring at a reception on the Russian side of the line that he "hopes to welcome at this same spot a German government." Reuter did not disclose the source of his information.

The digging of trenches across roads was started to back up a strict system of inspections by armed Russian and German police in the Soviet zone which failed to stop completely the overland flow of food and materials into western sectors.

Only cargoes bearing Russian-approved consignment papers are allowed on the highways, but trucks, automobiles and carts in small numbers still have managed to get through the Soviet sector of the city and the Soviet zone into west Berlin.

JAN 1949

Russ Dig Trenches Across Berlin Roads

Berlin, Jan. 8 (AP)—German police said today the Russians are digging trenches across roads inside their sector of Berlin and around the city to stop blockade-running trucks and cars seeking to move supplies into western Berlin.

This was the latest development in Communist efforts to plug loopholes through which uncertified foodstuffs and materials have been trickling in from eastern Berlin and the surrounding Russian occupation zone.

It was intended to back up traffic inspections conducted at the western Berlin sector borders by armed Russian and German police. Only cargoes bearing Russian approved consignment papers are passed.

Bananas Flown To Save Life Of Berlin Baby

Berlin, Jan. 8 (AP)—An emaciated 14-month-old German girl today munched bananas which were flown in by the American air lift to help save her life.

The child, Roswitha Bondzio, is ill with a rare intestinal ailment. She weighs only ten pounds, and her doctors say she can get nutrition only from bananas. She is in a German hospital in blockaded Western Berlin.

Appealing to the Americans for help, Dr. Irmgard Rueger said Roswitha probably would die within a week unless she obtained the fresh fruit. Airlift flyers brought in six pounds, an estimated five-day supply, from American stores in Frankfurt and promised more shipments as the child needs them.

Hess' Brother Convicted As Nazi

Hof, Germany, Jan. 8 (AP)—Alfred Hess, brother of Hitler's one-time deputy, Rudolf Hess, was classified today as a 'Nazi activist'—second worst type of Nazi—by a German de-Nazification court.

He was sentenced to two years in a labor camp. The court considered the term as served because Alfred had been under arrest since 1941. He was jailed by the Nazis for his part in the peace plan which his brother proposed to the British after his flight in 1941. The court's conviction today was based on his party activities before 1941.

Rudolf Hess is serving a life term for war crimes.

'English Ladies' Quitting Rumania

MUNICH, Germany, Jan. 8 (AP).—The old, Roman Catholic order of "English Ladies" is withdrawing from Rumania in the face of Communist pressure, church authorities said today.

Most of the 200 or more nuns who are leaving the Soviet-dominated Eastern European country are Germans. The order takes its name from its founder, Mary Ward, an Englishwoman who was a contemporary of Queen Elizabeth. It had been active in Rumania since 1852. Most of the members were engaged in teaching.

Bishop Johannes Neuhaeusler of Munich said the nuns were abandoning their work in Rumania because schools there had been nationalized and their cloisters were expropriated.

West German Coal Output Up

Dusseldorf, Germany, Jan. 8 (AP). West Germany's hard-coal production in 1948 totaled 87,000,000 tons, almost 16,000,000 tons more than in 1947, the German Coal Mining Administration announced today.

British Attacked In Prague Paper

Prague, Czechoslovakia, Jan. 8 (AP)—An anonymous commentary in the newspaper Lidove Noviny said tonight "the fingers of the British are on the triggers of Arab rifles."

The article was circulated by the Czechoslovak press bureau in advance of tomorrow's publication. This is not a usual practice and suggested intervention by high authority.

The article, signed only "R.D.," charged that a British Foreign Office statement three days ago—saying Czechoslovakia had supplied arms by airlift to Israel in defiance of the United Nations truce order—was made only to draw attention from the role Britain was playing in keeping the war going in the Middle East.

The Czechoslovak Foreign Office has made no comment on the British charges. Members of the foreign office press staff have written often in the past for Lidove Noviny. At the editorial offices of the publication, whose name means "free newspaper," spokesman professed not to know the identity of "R.D."

His article said Israeli's moves are "interfering with the imperialism of Great Britain in the Middle East and it is the British who stand in the way of peace between Israel and the Arabs."

"The Slav states," it continued, "helped Egypt get her place in the Security Council. It is only through the Slav states that Egypt can insure her economic independence of the British Empire."

NORWAY HELD PACT'S AGENT

Moscow Charges Oslo Acted As Washington Spearhead

Moscow, Jan. 8 (AP)—Norway was pictured in the Moscow newspapers today as an agent in Scandinavia for the projected North Atlantic defense pact.

Tass dispatches reported from Stockholm that Norwegian, Swedish and Danish premiers, foreign ministers and defense ministers met at Karlstad on January 5 and 6 to discuss political and military cooperation. The Soviet news agency quoted several Stockholm newspapers as saying the meeting was called "at the insistence of the Norwegian Government in connection with a request from Washington as to whether Norway and Denmark would co-operate in the so-called "Atlantic pact."

NIGHT

Formal Invitations Ready

Tass quoted Dagens Nyheter in Stockholm as saying Norwegian and Danish diplomats in Washington were given notes informing them that the nations participating in pact negotiations were ready to issue formal invitations to their governments to participate in the alliance. The dispatch said a special courier to Oslo gave similar tidings to the Norwegian Government.

Dagens Nyheter was quoted as saying the Danes wanted to postpone consideration of the question until after February 1, but the Norwegians insisted upon an immediate meeting.

China Asks Big 3 To Mediate War; Reds Push Drive

H. W. Jacks

NANKING, Jan. 8 (AP).—China's Government reportedly made one more desperate bid for peace today as the Communists loosed intense attacks on Nanking's last defense line short of the Yangtze. (LINE)

The Ambassadors of the United States, Great Britain and France were summoned to the Foreign Office. A usually reliable source said they had been requested to ask their governments to try to mediate the civil war.

Neither the Ambassadors nor the Foreign Office would comment. It was considered likely from the actions of the various officials that the question of mediation or an appeal to the United Nations was under study.

NIGHT

REDS RENEW ATTACK

In the midst of intense diplomatic activities, field dispatches said the Reds had opened attacks along the Hwai River line, the thinly manned Government defenses 100 miles north of Nanking.

(Pro-Government reports in Peiping said the Chinese Communists had penetrated into several points well within the city limits of beseiged Tientsin.

(Fighting was reported less than a half mile from Kiessling's famed confectionery-restaurant. The Reds also were reported to have penetrated to a point between the city's east and central stations.)

ARTILLERY IN ACTION

JAN 1949

It was the first attack on the Hwai since the big Red push southward turned last month and began the annihilation of two Government forces trapped between the river and Suchow 90 miles north.

Dispatches to the Chinese press reported artillery fire could be heard again in Pengpu, anchor for the line 108 miles northwest of Nanking. The rear guards under attack are north of the Hwai.

This attack was coupled with heavy assaults on the former Su-chow garrison, which still holds possibly 150,000 Government soldiers. This force has been encircled for weeks.

The Government's central news agency asserted the Reds lost "more than 20,000" in the new attacks on the encircled forces. It also claimed the Reds were using poison gas.

PEACE PROPONENTS BUSY

Aside from the diplomatic maneuvering, peace proponents in Nanking also were busy.

Vice President Li Tsung-jen was reported in frequent sessions with Chang Chi-chung, minister-without-portfolio in the Cabinet, and others who are supposed to be trying to form a "peace bloc."

Li has been mentioned as the one to take over the government and try to work out a peaceable solution to the civil war should President Chiang Kai-shek step aside.

One well-informed source said Chiang would "retire" within the next few days, apparently convinced there is no other way to bring the Communists to the table of negotiations.

China Proposes Big 3 Mediate Civil War

Nanking, Jan. 8 (AP)—A usually reliable source said today the Chinese Government had asked the United States, French and British governments to attempt to mediate the civil war.

Ambassadors for the three powers here were asked to relay the request to their governments, this source said.

The three ambassadors were called to the Foreign Office by Foreign Minister Wu Te-chen late today. None of the three nor Foreign Office officials would comment.

Negotiated Peace Sought

Reliable sources, however, said they were asked to present to their governments a request that "the Big Three" attempt to mediate and obtain a negotiated peace with the Communists.

It was apparent, from the actions of various officials, that the question either of mediation or an appeal to the United Nations was under consideration.

Failure to include the Soviet member of the "Big Four" in the summons raised considerable speculation here. It was understood that the Russian Ambassador has been shying away from any possible participation in either mediation or discussion of negotiations apparently on orders from Moscow.

Tientsin Attack Ends

This latest development coincided with reports from Tientsin that a heavy Red attack on that besieged city had ended abruptly at noon today after the Communists had occupied sections of the old "Chinese city."

These reports said the garrison commander ordered an immediate midday curfew in Tientsin, forbidding Tientsin residents to leave their homes and the streets were empty except for National troops.

Cessation of firing after the Communists had started what appeared to be a determined effort to capture the city raised speculation here that a "deal" had been arranged for the surrender of Tientsin to the Reds.

REDS THRUST INTO TIENTSIN; BATTLE RAGES

JAN 1949

Pierce City Limits At Several Points; Shells Pour On Road

Peiping, Jan. 8 [Delayed] (AP)—Pro-government reports said today the Chinese Communists had penetrated into several points well within the city limits of besieged Tientsin.

Fighting was reported less than a half mile from Kiessling's famed confectionery-restaurant. The Reds also were reported to have penetrated to a point between the city's East and Central stations.

Ten shells landed in Roosevelt road, one of the main thoroughfares, the reports added.

The Tientsin City Council appealed to both sides to halt the fighting.

12,000 Casualties Reported

Headquarters of Gen. Fu Tso-yi, the government's North China commander, reported the Reds Friday attacked Tientsin from the east, west and south, throwing more than one column into each sector. A Red column averages 15,000 men.

Headquarters said more than 12,000 Reds were killed or wounded. (Chinese casualty claims usually are exaggerated.)

In Peiping, prices of meat, vegetables and other foods doubled in the past 24 hours. The black-market exchange of the gold yuan plunged to a new depth—270 to $1 United States.

There were clashes during the night in Peiping's north and western suburbs, but no major action.

Fu's headquarters said the fighting was particularly fierce around Taipingying in the northern suburbs, where it was claimed 400 Reds were killed or wounded.

Headquarters described the situation around Tangku, seaport for Tientsin, as quiet.

China Group Hails Acheson Choice

Hong Kong, Jan. 8 (AP)—The Liberal Democratic Action Committee of China today welcomed the appointment of Dean Acheson as United States Secretary of State.

They "expressed regret" at the resignation of Gen. George C. Marshall.

"Mr. Acheson has long been regarded as a friend of the Chinese people," said the statement signed by Percy Chen, chairman.

Hope For Neutrality

It added:

"While peace in China is a matter wholly concerning the Chinese and interferences by any foreign government will be wholeheartedly opposed, it is expected the United States Government will follow a policy of strict neutrality between the warring factions."

The statement held the "Eighteth Republican Congress and the activities of Henry Luce (Time and Life publisher and former resident of China), and former Under Secretary Robert Lovett, Representative Walter Judd, William Bullitt and Patrick Hurley" responsible "for the bankruptcy of the American policy in China and the Far East."

3 GIs Face Trial In Japan Murder

TOKYO, Jan. 8 (AP).—Three Air Force enlisted men are scheduled for trial Monday on murder charges in the Dec. 3 killing of Sgt. Paul T. Wilburn, of Columbus, O.

They are Pfc. James H. Burk, 20, of Bullman, Ala.; Pfc. Robert E. Keller, 20, of Covington, Ind., and Pvt. Robert L. Baughman, 19, of Connellsville, Pa.

Wilburn's body, the jugular vein severed, was found in his room at the Tachikawa air base post exchange, where he was bookkeeper.

Jap General Serving Life Term Dies

Tokyo, Jan. 8 (AP)—Gen. Yoshijiro Umezu, 66, Japanese war criminal under a life sentence, died of cancer today in an army hospital.

He formerly was commander of Japan's Kwantung Army, chief of Japan's army general staff and supreme war councilor. He was sentenced to life by the same tribunal that condemned Hideki Tojo to death.

GOP AROUSED BY NAMING OF ACHESON

JAN 1949

Capehart Charges Choice Is 'Another Slap' At Bipartisan Policy

Washington, Jan. 8 (AP)—Senator Capehart (R., Ind.) called the bipartisan foreign policy "dead" tonight and Republican critics lined up to fight—or minutely analyze—nomination of Dean Acheson as Secretary of State.

Because Republicans were not consulted by President Truman in advance about the Cabinet choice, Capehart said he regards the action as "another slap at the bipartisan foreign policy."

He said this, piled on top of the Democrats' action this week in taking top-heavy control of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, demonstrated that two-party co-operation on foreign affairs is at an end.

"Best Thing" For Country

"The Democrats have broken up the bipartisan foreign policy and it's the best thing that ever happened to the country," the Indiana Senator declared. He said he now considered himself a "free agent" and gave notice that he and Republicans of like views were ready to battle Administration ideas they do not like.

He predicted Republicans would demand a full airing of Acheson's views, a move also called for by Senator Vandenberg (R. Mich.).

Describing Acheson as "a distinguished American with wide experience in foreign affairs and with many proved qualifications for this critical responsibility," the Michigan Senator said:

"I expect the Senate Foreign Relations Committee will fully explore his viewpoints when it considers the nomination."

Regrets Marshall Retirement

Vandenberg, who vigorously protested the Democrats' action in taking 8-to-5 control of the committee, described Acheson as the "personal" choice of President Truman.

Vandenberg said he "deeply regrets" the retirement of Gen. George C. Marshall, "who is one of the great Americans of all time."

The Michigan Senator also expressed regret that Robert A. Lovett, Under Secretary, also is quitting. He said Lovett had given "devoted service to the national welfare in superlative degree."

Vandenberg made no mention in the statement of President Truman's choice of James E. Webb, Budget Director, to be Under Secretary of State.

Was Not Consulted

Friends added the statement up to an indorsement by Vandenberg—with reservations—of an appointee who certainly would not have been the Michigan Senator's first choice for the place, had he been asked about it.

Vandenberg was not consulted in advance by the President—a change of Administration tactics from the time a few months ago when President Truman was reported to have passed over Acheson, his first choice, to name Paul G. Hoffman as Marshall-plan administrator. Hoffman had the vigorous support of Vandenberg.

Senator Taft, of Ohio, top Senate policy leader, announced at New Haven, Conn., that he "will certainly" vote for Acheson. That indicated that some of the Republicans are willing to go along on the nomination.

Wherry Is Surprised

But Senator Wherry, of Nebraska, the Republican floor leader, said he was surprised that the President did not consult Vandenberg before making the appointment.

"So far as I personally am concerned, I have not changed my mind about Acheson," said Wherry, who fought Acheson's confirmation as Under Secretary of State in September, 1945.

JAN 1949

Editorial Comment

On Acheson

New York, Jan. 8 (AP)—Many American newspapers editorially approved the appointment of Dean Acheson as Secretary of State, although there were some dissents.

The Washington Post said President Truman "has lately been . . . accused of seeking a soft peace in the cold war with Russia. Mr. Acheson is no advocate of a soft peace. On the contrary, he is a realist. Indeed, Mr. Acheson was the first high official of this Government publicly to denounce Soviet expansionism."

The Washington Star said, that "though men of the Marshall type are few and far between, President Truman has done well in naming Dean Acheson as the new Secretary. . . . He can be counted upon, it his record means anything, to discharge his responsibilities with distinction."

Advance Of Soviet Power

The Washington Times-Herald said that "in the matter of relations with Russia, the time was that he (Acheson) had great confidence in the theory of 'co-operation.' . . . Many disastrous and expensive experiences have made it plain that Stalin . . . is interested solely in the advance of Soviet power and nothing else. Mr. Acheson is said to have learned from those experiences and that he will never be caught napping again. We hope not."

The New York Times said, "in Mr. Acheson's record . . . we find him appearing before Congress in March, 1947, to support Mr. Truman's proposal for American aid to Greece and Turkey—the first front on which the new policy of 'firmness' toward Russia was vigorously applied. We find him credited officially by the State Department itself with the original presentation of the formula (in a speech at Cleveland, Miss., on May 8, 1947) which Mr. Marshall then elaborated in his Harvard address of June 5, 1947, and which ultimately became the Marshall plan."

Revised His Viewpoint

The New York Daily News said, "we do think . . . that there's bound to be considerable speculation about Acheson's past viewpoints as regards the U.S.S.R. . . . Acheson's later utterances on the Russkies indicate considerable enlightenment about Joe (Stalin) and his chums. . . . Perhaps he (Acheson) has radically revised his viewpoint since his days of girlish optimism about the world's commies."

The New York Sun said, "why Acheson, of all people? Why bring back as head of this department a man once suspected of undue tenderness for Soviet Russia? A man whom others had accused of helping cover up the Chambers-Bentley-Hiss scandal involving espionage and alleged Communist infiltration into the department itself?"

No Major Alteration

The New York Herald-Tribune said, "undoubtedly Mr. Truman is sincere when he says that the change in the State Department will involve no major alteration in purpose; remembering the Vinson episode, however, the American people may well wonder what changes—what errors, perhaps—may take place in American diplomatic tactics.

"Can Mr. Acheson, like his predecessor, save the country from the consequences of the President's impulsive gestures?"

Appointment Called Good

The New York World-Telegram said, "Mr. Acheson's effectiveness at the State Department will be determined largely by his influence on the President. He has the advantage of being liked and respected by Mr. Truman. But he lacks the tremendous public following of a Marshall or Hull, or the party strength of a Hull or a Byrnes, which helps a Secretary of State to counteract selfish pressures applied to the White House by interested groups."

The Richmond Times-Dispatch said, "Dean Acheson's appointment is good. Mr. Acheson appears to be the best equipped of those who were prominently mentioned for the post."

The Richmond News Leader said, "Mr. Acheson's largest opportunity is his lack of what his predecessor so opulently possessed—a reputation as a pre-eminent soldier."

The Albany Knickerbocker News said, Mr. Truman "had at his call a man tailor-made for the job—a man who has been through the mill in the State Department. . . . And if Mr. Stalin took any heart in the change, let him disillusioned quickly. . . ."

The Philadelphia Inquirer said, "It is reassuring that President Truman, in announcing Acheson's appointment, has declared that our foreign policy will remain unchanged. The Government must show that, regrettable as may be the retirement of General Marshall from the State Department, it does not in the slightest degree modify our policy toward the Soviet Union."

No Change In Policy

The Philadelphia Evening Bulletin said, that "in naming Dean Acheson as General Marshall's successor, President Truman has acted to dispel any notion that there is to be a change in our foreign policy."

The Charlotte News said, that "in recalling Dean Acheson to Government service as secretary, President Truman has made what should be a popular choice as he has a rich background of diplomatic experience."

The Boston Herald said, the "nomination . . . should be reassuring to those who had any doubts as to continuity of the Administration's foreign policy. Not only is Mr. Acheson no starry-eyed New Dealer, he has been very close to Wall Street during his legal career."

Civilian As Successor

The St. Louis Post-Dispatch said, "certainly it is no reflection on Marshall to express gratification that the President has turned from the military to a civilian in selecting his successor. That is how it ordinarily should be in a democracy. Fortunately a highly qualified civilian was available."

The Pittsburgh Post Gazette said, Acheson's appointment "climaxes a series of recent developments suggesting the Administration may be planning an effort to thaw out the somewhat cold war with Russia."

The Atlanta Constitution said, "Dean Acheson has an outstanding record of public service and there will be no fear of any break in American foreign policy."

The Atlanta Journal said, "Dean Acheson brings great talents and broad experience to the office. He looks the part of the diplomat, and there is substance behind this appearance."

President Congratulated

The Rochester Times-Union said, "in Dean Acheson as secretary he (Mr. Truman) has chosen one pledged to strive to carry out policies formulated by the President. The President is to be congratulated for taking these important posts out of the political grab-bag."

The Rochester Democrat and Chronicle said, "he (Acheson) is tough, realistic and open-eyed; a match for the Kremlin crowd, yet wise enough to play his cards astutely."

The Miami Daily News said, "Acheson will not suffer by comparison (with Marshall) because he is a recognized authority on the postwar foreign policy and an intimate associate of President Truman in shaping that policy."

Fine Opportunity Provided

The Cleveland Plain Dealer said, "Acheson . . . has a fine opportunity to root out the last remnants of the personnel which forgot its allegiance to the United States in its misguided enthusiasm to serve an alien ideology."

The Cleveland News said, "The change in command in the State Department does not mean a softening of American policy. It does indicate that President Truman is to follow Roosevelt precedent and become his own Secretary of State. Nothing sinister about that. He's the boss anyway."

Foreign Policy Dead, Asserts Capehart

JAN 1949

Washington, Jan. 8 (AP)—Senator Capehart (R., Ind.) served notice today he and Republicans of like views consider the bipartisan foreign policy dead and are ready for a fight against Administration proposals.

Their first opportunity to air their views fully may come in Senate action on President Truman's appointment of Dean Acheson as Secretary of State to succeed George C. Marshall.

Capehart said he doesn't know enough about Acheson's record to comment yet on the nomination. However, he assailed the Democrats' decision to take topheavy control of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, which will consider the appointment.

Democrats Blamed

"The Democrats have broken up the bipartisan foreign policy, and it's the best thing that ever happened to the country," he declared.

Senator Vandenberg (R., Mich.), who vigorously protested the Democrats' action in taking 8-to-5 control of the committee, described Acheson as the "personal" choice of President Truman.

Vandenberg in a statement called Acheson "a distinguished American with wide experience in foreign affairs and with many proved qualifications for this critical responsibility."

Study Proposed

But he added:

"I expect the Senate Foreign Relations Committee will fully explore his viewpoints when it considers the nomination."

Vandenberg said he "deeply regrets" the retirement of Secretary of State Marshall, "who is one of the great Americans of all time."

The Michigan Senator also expressed regret that Robert A. Lovett, Under Secretary, also is quitting. He said Lovett had given "devoted service to the national welfare in superlative degree."

Vandenberg made no mention in the statement of President Truman's choice of Budget Director James E. Webb to be Under Secretary of State.

Confirmation Predicted

Vandenberg gave no indication he will actually oppose Acheson. Senator Connally (D., Texas), who succeeded the Michigan Senator as Foreign Relations chairman, confidently forecast confirmation despite some signs of Republican coolness.

Connally said the Senate Foreign Relations Committee — organizing Tuesday under his chairmanship—will set a date for Acheson and Webb to appear personally.

More Changes Hinted

The move was regarded in Congress as possibly only the first of several changes in top personnel. Speculation involved the posts of Secretary of Defense Forrestal, Secretary of Interior Krug and Secretary of Commerce Sawyer.

Acheson's confirmation was forecast on the basis of his acquaintance with many senators and the unwritten rule that a President can name almost anybody he chooses to his Cabinet.

But there was evidence that some influential Republicans—and a few Democrats—were disappointed.

Some Won't Comment

Significantly, perhaps, Senators Smith of New Jersey, Hickenlooper of Iowa and Lodge of Massachusetts, Republican members of the Foreign Relations group, declined to comment publicly on the change. So did Senator George of Georgia, a Democratic member.

The reaction in Congress was considered important not only because it may affect Acheson's confirmation chances, but also because one of his big jobs will be to determine how closely to work with both Republican and Democratic leaders in developing new foreign policy measures.

Bi-Partisan Policy

Marshall and Lovett solved this problem by (a) removing themselves from any part in domestic politics and (b) consistently consulting Senator Vandenberg and John Foster Dulles, both Republican leaders in foreign policy, on every important step they proposed.

Vandenberg led the fight for both the Truman doctrine program of aid to Greece and Turkey and the Marshall plan for European recovery.

But Vandenberg's friends said he never has listed Acheson as one of his top choices to succeed his friend Marshall.

There is no evidence that Vandenberg was consulted about the nomination in advance—a reversal of the policy the White House followed when the Republicans controlled Congress.

House Ratio Kept

Vandenberg was one of several GOP senators who protested this week that a Democratic move increasing the majority's strength on the Foreign Relations Committee was a blow at two-party conduct of foreign affairs.

The tension was lightened somewhat yesterday when House Democrats kept intact the majority-minority ratio on their foreign group.

First as an assistant secretary when Cordell Hull headed the State Department and later as No. 2 man to Secretary of State Byrnes, Acheson played a fairly important part in setting up that policy.

Rankin's Probe Job Reported At An End

JAN 1949

Washington, Jan. 8 (AP)—Representative John E. Rankin's job on the House Un-American Activities Committee was reported at an end today.

Members of the Democratic committee on committees said a substantial majority had voted to keep any committee chairman in the House from serving on another committee. The Mississippi Democrat is slated to head the Veterans Affairs groups.

The committee action, subject to approval of all Democratic House members and the entire House membership, has been reported in the making for several weeks with Administration approval.

Supported Thurmond

It was aimed directly at Rankin, who supported Gov. J. Strom Thurmond for President against Harry S. Truman, and who has been active in the Un-American Activities Committee's spy probes, which Mr. Truman called a "red herring."

The Mississippian is expected to contest the action, although if he loses the fight in the Democratic caucus that probably will end it. Traditionally, party caucus recommendations are not questioned by the opposing party.

Ruhr Outcome Held Up To Germans

JAN

Washington, Jan. 8 (AP)—A State Department expert on Germany said today that it must be left up to the Germans finally to decide who shall own the industries of the Ruhr. He made a definite proviso, however, for measures to make sure that the Nazis do not come back into control and that production shall not be converted to war potential.

DAY

Basic American policy, wrote Jacob D. Beam, calls for Ruhr production to contribute substantially to European recovery. Incentives to efficient operation will be destroyed, he said, unless the people who developed the Ruhr have the say on disposition of the properties.

Replies To Letter

Beam is chief of the Division of Central European Affairs in the State Department. His views were expressed in a letter to Howard A. Cowden, vice president of the Co-Operative League of the United States. Cowden had written Secretary of State Marshall asking that Hurd industries be turned over to international ownership by the Marshall plan countries.

In releasing quotations from Beam's letter, the co-operative organization took the line that it represented American policy under Marshall and Under Secretary of State Lovett, and that under Dean Acheson and James E. Webb, as Secretary and Under Secretary, the State Department might pursue a different policy.

Jessup May Quit As U.N. Delegate

LAKE SUCCESS, Jan. 8 (AP).—Informed sources said today Dr. Philip C. Jessup planned to retire about Feb. 1 from his post as Deputy United States Delegate on the United Nations Security Council.

Dr. Jessup expects to return to his position as professor of international law at Columbia University, these sources said.

The deputy delegate would not comment on his plans.

During the Paris meeting of the United Nations Assembly, however, American sources said Dr. Jessup intended to resume his teaching post when his year's leave of absence from Columbia expired.

'False Security' Article Gets Sharp Reply From MacArthur

JAN 1949

New York, Jan. 8 (AP)—A magazine article asserting Gen. Douglas MacArthur has "misled the American people" about the extent of communism in Japan today brought sharp criticism from MacArthur himself, the magazine said.

The article in the current issue of Look, magazine, written by Hallett Abend, former foreign correspondent, said MacArthur has "lulled us into a false sense of security about the perilous situation in the Far East."

It cited purported Communist infiltration into Japanese labor unions. It also asserted that Russia had made propaganda use of alleged "high-handed and undemocratic methods" of the Allied supreme commander in Japan.

MacArthur's Reply Noted

"The Communists are so strong that if war with Russia is thrust upon us, sabotage and domestic unrest will probably seriously weaken our already shaky position," Abend wrote.

The magazine said MacArthur had replied in a cablegram to Gardner Cowles, editor of Look, that the article was completely unrealistic.

Look quoted MacArthur as saying that the article "follows the exact line of false propaganda now being put forth almost daily by Moscow . . . and is calculated to achieve the same purpose."

MacArthur also was quoted as saying Abend had not been in Japan since the war and had no personal knowledge of conditions there.

Regime's Achievement Decried

The article contended that MacArthur's regime in Japan has not made Japan much more self-sustaining than it was at the end of the war and just keeping Japanese "alive on meager rations" costs this country more than $1,000,000 a day.

"Many highly placed members of the occupation forces," Abend wrote, "see the probability of Japan turning anti-American and pro-Russian. General MacArthur blandly assumes that all is sweetness and light and that communism has no chance."

He said the facts are kept from the American people by a censorship "as vicious as it is effective, one for which General MacArthur must be held personally accountable."

Fraulein To Wed Ex-GI After All

New York, Jan. 8 (AP)—An Indiana ex-GI today said his German fiancée, who balked at a ready-made family of four she hadn't heard about, would marry him after all.

The girl, Edith George, 19, of Hamburg, Germany, came here to marry Clayton Barber, 31, an electrician from Mishawaka, Ind.

She changed her mind when told he had four children by a former marriage.

Barber rushed here to talk her into changing her mind again. After a talk with her at Ellis Island, he said "the whole thing was a mistake" and the marriage would take place.

He wouldn't say anything about the children, except that Miss George might have misunderstood the situation because she didn't know English too well.

Relatives in Indiana had said the children were in the custody of Barber's former wife.

Barber said he would stay here until Monday and try to arrange the girl's release from Ellis Island. Then, he said, they would go back to Mishawaka to be married.

Frauleins Sent To Ellis Island

NEW YORK, Jan. 8 (AP).—Several ex-G.I.s waited in vain at the Idlewild Airport today for their fiancees from Germany.

The girls were hurried to Ellis Island along with the rest of 37 German girls arriving to marry former service men.

The future bridegrooms must wait until next week, when they can post bonds to guarantee that the girls will leave within 90 days if they are not married in the meantime.

At the field were: William Blackburn, mechanic from Llanerch Hills, Pa., waiting to welcome 18-year-old Karola Sterzenbach, of Bayreuth, and Fred Isaacs, a waiter from Monmouth Beach, N. J., whose fiancee is Anna Hauser, of Obersul.

2 Named to Direct Atom Ship Project

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 8 (AP). — Westinghouse Electric Corp. has named Dr. William E. Shoupp, nuclear physicist, as research director of its atomic power division, and Robert A. Bowman as manager of engineering.

The appointments came after the firm announced yesterday it had optioned 160 acres near Pittsburgh as a possible site for an atomic research plant. There Westinghouse employes, mainly engineers, will work on an atomic motor for a Navy vessel, under a Navy contract.

Such a motor, called a nuclear reactor, would give a ship an almost unending source of power.

NIGHT LEAD BRITISH
BY ALEX H SINGLETON
LONDON, JAN. 8-(AP)-BRITAIN ANGRILY ACCUSED ISRAEL TODAY OF SHOOTING DOWN FIVE RAF PATROL PLANES OVER EGYPT AND GAVE HER FLIERS A FREE HAND TO FIGHT BACK.
AT THE SAME TIME SHE DISCLOSED AN UNSPECIFIED NUMBER OF BRITISH TROOPS HAVE BEEN MOVED INTO AQABA AT THE REQUEST OF HER ALLY, KING ABDULLAH, TO GUARD THAT STRATEGIC RED SEA PORT IN TRANS-JORDAN.
IN THE TENSE ATMOSPHERE, FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN GAVE UP HIS WEEKEND IN THE COUNTRY AND STAYED CLOSE TO HIS DESK TO WATCH DEVELOPMENTS.

ISRAELI SPOKESMEN IN TEL AVIV ACCOUNTED FOR ONLY FOUR BRITISH PLANES SHOT DOWN AND SAID AT LEAST THREE OF THEM WENT DOWN IN FIGHTS THAT BEGAN AND ENDED OVER ISRAELI TERRITORY. THEY ADMITTED THE POSSIBILITY OF FIGHTS OVER THE BORDER AREA BUT SAID THEY COULD NOT HAVE TAKEN PLACE DEEP IN EGYPTIAN TERRITORY.
THE ISRAELIS SAID THEY HAD TWO CAPTURED BRITISH PILOTS, ONE SLIGHTLY WOUNDED, AND THAT ONE OF THE PLANES FELL NEAR NIRM, A PALESTINE SETTLEMENT 15 MILES NORTH OF THE BORDER LINE.

THE BRITISH AIR MINISTRY'S VERSION OF THE INCIDENT ALONG THE EGYPTIAN FRONTIER WAS THIS:
YESTERDAY MORNING TWO FORMATIONS OF FOUR SPITFIRES AND ONE OF A SINGLE MOSQUITO AND FOUR TEMPEST FIGHTERS, LEFT THEIR SUEZ CANAL ZONE BASE IN EGYPT ON RECONNAISSANCE TO "ASCERTAIN THE DEPTH AND SCALE OF JEWISH INCURSION INTO EGYPTIAN TERRITORY."
THEY HAD "STRICT ORDERS" NOT TO CROSS THE BORDER INTO PALESTINE.
THE SPITFIRES WERE ATTACKED BY JEWISH AIRCRAFT AND NONE OF THE SPITFIRES RETURNED. THE LEADER OF THE SPITFIRES REPORTED HE WAS ATTACKED WHILE 15 MILES INSIDE EGYPT AND THAT HE WAS COMPELLED TO BAIL

OUT. HE WAS WOUNDED AND PICKED UP BY AN ARAB NEAR BRIGABRAMIR, 15 MILES WEST OF RAFA, THE BORDER POINT.

A FEW HOURS LATER ANOTHER RECONNAISSANCE FORCE WAS SENT TO SEE WHAT HAD HAPPENED TO THE SPITFIRES. IT "WAS ALSO ATTACKED BY JEWISH AIRCRAFT" AND ONE TEMPEST IS MISSING.

THE AIR MINISTRY SAID THAT UNTIL NOW ITS AIRCRAFT HAD HAD ORDERS TO AVOID COMBAT, BUT "IN VIEW OF THESE UNPROVOKED ATTACKS OUR AIRCRAFT HAVE NOW BEEN INSTRUCTED TO REGARD AS HOSTILE ANY JEWISH AIRCRAFT ENCOUNTERED OVER EGYPTIAN TERRITORY."

THE MINISTRY SAID BRITISH AIRCRAFT HAD BEEN MAKING TRIPS ALONG THE EGYPTIAN SIDE OF THE FRONTIER FOR SEVERAL DAYS TO LEARN THE POSITIONS OF JEWISH TROOPS. BRITAIN HAS A 1936 TREATY OF DEFENSE WITH EGYPT AND IS HOLDING HER AIR BASES IN THE CANAL ZONE UNDER THAT TREATY. THE ZONE, VITAL TO EMPIRE COMMUNICATIONS, IS ONLY ABOUT 90 MILES FROM THE BIG EGYPTIAN BASE OF EL ARISH, 30 MILES FROM THE PALESTINE BORDER.

THE JEWS HAVE ANNOUNCED OFFICIALLY THAT THEY CHASED THE EGYPTIANS AS FAR AS EL ARISH A FEW DAYS AGO, BUT WITHDREW INTO PALESTINE. HOWEVER, THEY HAVE ADMITTED THAT A FEW JEWISH TROOPS MAY STILL BE ON THE EGYPTIAN SIDE WHERE THEY ARE MAINTAINING A HALF-RING AROUND THE COASTAL BORDER TOWN OF RAFA.

JAN 1949

A2

A FEW HOURS AFTER PIECING TOGETHER THE DETAILS OF THE POTENTIALLY EXPLOSIVE INCIDENT BRITAIN STARTED A STRONG PROTEST ON ITS WAY TO ISRAELI REPRESENTATIVES AT THE UNITED NATIONS IN NEW YORK.

SHE ALSO TOOK STEPS TO BRING THE CASE TO THE ATTENTION OF THE U.N.

THERE WAS NO INDICATION THAT BRITAIN WOULD RESORT TO FORCE INSIDE THE JEWISH STATE IN RETALIATION. BUT THE BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE SAID IT RESERVED THE RIGHT TO DEMAND COMPENSATION AND TO TAKE "ALL POSSIBLE FURTHER ACTION."

WEHTHER THE CLASHES TOOK PLACE AFTER THE CEASE-FIRE DEADLINE ON THE SOUTHERN FRONT REMAINED A QUESTION.

ALTHOUGH LINKED WITH THE GENERAL TENSION, THE ANNOUNCEMENT THAT BRITISH TOMMIES ARE MOVING INTO AQABA HAD NO DIRECT CONNECTION WITH THE PLANE INCIDENT. PLANS FOR THE SHIFT OF TROOPS OBVIOUSLY HAD BEEN UNDERWAY FOR DAYS.

A SPOKESMAN SAID IT WAS ONLY "NATURAL" THAT TRANS-JORDAN SHOULD ASK FOR MILITARY AID AND THAT BRITAIN SHOULD FURNISH IT TO AN ALLY.

OTHER GOVERNMENT SOURCES SAID THE TROOPS PLAINLY WERE BEING SENT TO BACK UP BRITAIN'S WARNING TO ISRAEL AGAINST VIOLATING ARAB FRONTIERS.

A FEW WEEKS AGO BRITISH SPOKESMEN IN THE UNITED NATIONS REPORTED JEWISH PATROLS VIOLATED TRANS-JORDAN'S FRONTIERS NEAR AQABA. THE BRITISH ALSO WERE THE FIRST TO REPORT THE ISRAELI INCURSION INTO EGYPT.

THE SPOKESMAN SAID NO OTHER BRITISH TROOP MOVEMENTS HAD TAKEN PLACE IN THE AREA "AS YET." HE DENIED PUBLISHED REPORTS THAT DETACHMENTS ALSO HAVE BEEN SENT TO THE EGYPTIAN BORDER AREA.

BQ412PES

LONDON, JAN.8-(AP)-THE TEXT OF A COMMUNIQUE ISSUED TODAY BY THE AIR MINISTRY: (ABOUT 225)

DURING THE LAST FEW DAYS, RAF AIRCRAFT FROM THE (SUEZ) CANAL ZONE HAVE BEEN CARRYING OUT RECONNAISSANCES TO ASCERTAIN THE DEPTH AND SCALE OF JEWISH INCURSION INTO EGYPTIAN TERRITORY. THESE RECONNAISSANCES HAVE BEEN STRICTLY CONFINED TO THE EGYPTIAN SIDE OF THE FRONTIER.

ON THE MORNING OF JANUARY 7 TWO FORMATIONS--ONE OF FOUR SPITFIRES AND ONE OF A SINGLE MOSQUITO ESCORTED BY FOUR TEMPESTS--WHICH WERE ON RECONNAISSANCE INSIDE THE EGYPTIAN FRONTIER, WERE ATTACKED BY JEWISH FIGHTERS AND THE FOUR SPITFIRES FAILED TO RETURN FROM THE MISSION.

A FEW HOURS LATER A FURTHER AIR RECONNAISSANCE FORCE, DESPATCHED TO OBTAIN INFORMATION OF THE FATE OF THE MISSING SPITFIRES, WAS ALSO ATTACKED BY JEWISH AIRCRAFT AND ONE TEMPEST HAS BEEN REPORTED MISSING.

THE RAF AIRCRAFT IN QUESTION HAD STRICT ORDERS NOT TO CROSS THE FRONTIER INTO PALESTINE. THE PILOT WHO WAS THE LEADER OF THE SPITFIRES REPORTED HE WAS ATTACKED 15 MILES INSIDE EGYPTIAN TERRITORY AND COMPELLED TO BALE OUT.

HE WAS WOUNDED AND PICKED UP BY A BEDOUIN NEAR BIRGABRAMIR APPROXIMATELY 15 MILES WEST OF RAFAH.

NEXT OF KIN ARE BEING INFORMED.

JAN 1949

OUR AIRCRAFT HAVE BEEN UNDER STRICT ORDERS TO AVOID COMBAT. IN VIEW OF THESE UNPROVOKED ATTACKS OUR AIRCRAFT HAVE NOW BEEN INSTRUCTED TO REGARD AS HOSTILE ANY JEWISH AIRCRAFT ENCOUNTERED OVER EGYPTIAN TERRITORY. (END TEXT)

FIRST LEAD PALESTINE
BY ERIC COTTGETREU

TEL AVIV, ISRAEL, JAN.8-(AP)-OBSERVANCE OF CEASE FIRE ORDERS APPEARED TO BE COMPLETE IN PALESTINE TODAY.

THE EGYPTIAN ATTACK IN THE RAFA AREA CEASED AT 7 P.M. LAST NIGHT (12 NOON EST YESTERDAY AND ALL FIGHTING IN THAT AREA STOPPED," AN ISRAELI FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN ANNOUNCED.

JAN 1949

ALL WAS QUIET ON THE CENTRAL SECTOR AS WELL, HE SAID.

JEWS BLAMED THE EGYPTIANS FOR THE FLURRY OF SHOOTING WHICH DEVELOPED IN THE RAFA AREA AFTER THE CEASE FIRE WAS TO HAVE BECOME EFFECTIVE YESTERDAY.

AN ISRAELI SPOKESMAN SAID FIGHTING WAS STILL GOING ON AT RAFA, AN EGYPTIAN FRONTIER BASE, AT 5 P.M. YESTERDAY 10 A.M. EST . THIS WAS THREE HOURS AFTER THE DEADLINE.

INFORMED JEWISH SOURCES SAID THE EGYPTIANS COUNTERATTACKED THE ISRAELI LINES THERE LATE IN THE AFTERNOON AND WERE THROWN BACK. ISRAELI SPOKESMEN, HOWEVER, DESCRIBED THE INCIDENT AS LOCAL IN CHARACTER.

RAFA IS ON THE COMMUNICATION LINES UP THE COASTAL STRIP OF SOUTHERN PALESTINE TO THE EGYPTIAN-HELD CITY OF GAZA.

JEWISH SOURCES SAID RAFA WAS UNDER ATTACK BY ISRAELI FORCES FROM THE SOUTH AND WEST BEFORE THE CEASE FIRE DEADLINE. JEWISH CLAIMS TO THE CITY OF RAFA COMPLICATED THE MATTER OF WHETHER PART OF THESE TROOPS WERE ON EGYPTIAN SOIL.

COL. YIGAL YADIN, CHIEF OF ARMY OPERATIONS, COMMENTED THAT IF

ISRAELI FORCES ARE ON EGYPTIAN SOIL, "IT WILL BE AN EASY ENOUGH MATTER TO ADJUST IN THE ARMISTICE OR PEACE TALKS."

JEWISH SOURCES SAY THAT, UNDER THE BRITISH MANDATE, RAFA WAS CLASSED AS BEING INSIDE PALESTINE. THEY SAY THAT, AT THE END OF THE MANDATE LAST MAY, THE BRITISH SHIFTED THE BOUNDARY FROM SOUTH OF THE TOWN TO NORTH OF IT, PUTTING RAFA INSIDE EGYPT.

(THIS DOES NOT CONFORM TO INFORMATION OF THE NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC SOCIETY, AUTHORITATIVE AMERICAN GEOGRAPHIC ORGANIZATION. ITS MAP OF THE BIBLE LANDS OF 1946, ISSUED DURING THE MANDATE PERIOD, SHOWED RAFA AS AN EGYPTIAN CITY. A BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN SAID YESTERDAY ISRAELI UNITS HAD 150 VEHICLES AT A CAMP THREE MILES SOUTH OF RAFA AFTER A FRESH INCRUSION INTO EGYPT.)

ISSUANCE OF THE CEASE FIRE ORDERS IS DUE TO BE FOLLOWED BY ARMISTICE NEGOTIATIONS BETWEEN EGYPT AND ISRAEL UNDER UNITED NATIONS AUSPICES.

A41 JAN 1949

(THE EGYPTIAN GOVERNMENT, IN ORDERING ITS TROOPS TO QUIT SHOOTING, SAID ITS ACTION WAS CONDITIONAL ON ISRAEL WITHDRAWING HER FORCES TO POSITIONS OF OCT. 14 AND OBEYING OTHER U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL ORDERS. OCT. 14 MARKED THE START OF THE FIRST OF TWO ISRAELI DRIVES SOUTHWARD.

(AN EGYPTIAN COMMUNIQUE SAID: "WHILE THE EGYPTIAN GOVERNMENT RENEWS THE CEASE FIRE IN COMPLIANCE WITH THE SECURITY COUNCIL DECISION AND WITH THE MEDIATION OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT AND ITS ASSURANCES, IT PAYS TRIBUTE TO ITS COURAGEOUS ARMY, WHICH CARRIED THE RESPONSIBILITY ALONE AND MAINTAINED ITS TRADITIONS AND GLORIES, STANDING FIRM IN ALL ITS POSITIONS AND LINES.")

BULLETIN

TEL AVIV, ISRAEL, JAN.8-(AP)-AN OFFICIAL ISRAELI SPOKESMAN SAID TODAY FOUR OF FIVE PLANES SHOT DOWN BY JEWS YESTERDAY OVER RAFA APPARENTLY WERE OF THE BRITISH ROYAL AIR FORCE.

TWO WERE KNOWN TO BE BRITISH-PILOTED RAF PLANES, THE ISRAELI SPOKESMAN SAID, AND THE OTHER TWO WERE PRESUMED TO BE.

ONE BRITISH FLYING OFFICER WHO BAILED OUT WAS TAKEN PRISONER. THE CHARRED REMAINS OF THE BODY OF ANOTHER WAS FOUND IN THE RUIN OF HIS RAF-MARKED SPITFIRE FIGHTER. THE FATE OF THE OTHER TWO PILOTS WAS NOT LEARNED IMMEDIATELY, BUT IT WAS PRESUMED THEY ARE DEAD.

A87 JAN 1949

(A BRITISH EMBASSY SPOKESMAN IN CAIRO ANNOUNCED THAT THE EMBASSY IS INVESTIGATING A REPORT BRITISH PLANES HAD BEEN ENGAGED BY ZIONIST AIRCRAFT AND THREE MACHINES WERE SHOT DOWN.

(THE BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE ANNOUNCED THAT BRITAIN, AT THE REQUEST OF TRANS-JORDAN, HAS SENT TROOPS TO GUARD THE TRANS-JORDANIAN RED SEA PORT OF AQABA, NEAR THE TIP OF SOUTHERN PALESTINE. THE RAF HAS BEEN BUILDING UP STRENGTH THIS WEEK IN TRANS-JORDAN, WHICH LIES ACROSS THE JORDAN RIVER FROM PALESTINE.)

OBSERVANCE OF CEASE FIRE ORDERS APPEARED TO BE COMPLETE IN PALESTINE TODAY.

THE SPOKESMAN SAID TWO BRITISH PLANES WERE DOWN DURING THE MORNING YESTERDAY AND TWO DURING THE AFTERNOON. HE SAID THE FIFTH PLANE DESTROYED WAS EGYPTIAN.. AT LEAST TWO AND PERHAPS THREE WERE SHOT DOWN BY ISRAELI FIGHTERS AND THE OTHERS BY ANTIAIRCRAFT, THE SPOKESMAN SAID.

(IN LONDON, THE AIR MINISTRY SAID TODAY ALL FIVE PLANES WERE BRITISH).

THE GOVERNMENT SAID THIS VERSION IS BEING FORWARDED TO THE UNITED NATIONS. THE CAPTURED BRITISH FLYING OFFICER IS BEING HELD FOR RED CROSS IDENTIFICATION. THE ISRAELI SPOKESMAN SAID HE IS F. O. TIMOTHY JOHN MCELHAW OF THE RAF RECONNAISSANCE SQUADRON. IT IS PRESUMED HE WILL BE SET FREE.

THE SPOKESMAN SAID MCELHAQ'S PLANE AND ONE OTHER WERE ESTROYED BY JEWISH FIGHTERS WHO FOUND THEM OVER THE RAFA BATTLE ZONE WHERE "ENEMY PLANES" HAD BEEN STRAFING JEWISH GROUND FORCES ALL MORNING.

THE SPOKESMAN QUOTED THE CAPTURED BRITON AS TELLING THIS STORY:

HE WAS ASSIGNED TO THE 208TH SQUADRON BASED ON FAYID, EGYPT IN THE SUEZ CANAL ZONE. HE AND FLYING OFFICERS COOPER, COOK AND CLOSE WERE BRIEFED FOR AN ARMED AERIAL RECONNAISSANCE MISSION TO PHOTOGRAPH ISRAELI AND EGYPTIAN POSITIONS IN THE AREA FROM RAFA TO AUJA.

THEY TOOK OFF WITH A CAMERA IN THE LEAD PLANE AND ALL GUNS LOADED, THE PURPORTED ACCOUNT WENT ON. HE SAID HE DID NOT FIRE HIS GUNS. HE TOLD JEWISH QUESTIONERS HE SAW COOPER'S PLANE SHOT DOWN AND THAT HE, MCELHAW, BAILED OUT WHEN HIS PLANE WAS HIT BY ISRAELI FIGHTER GUNFIRE.

THE JEWISH SPOKESMAN SAID "ENEMY PLANES" APPEARED OVER THE BATTLE ZONE AGAIN IN THE AFTERNOON AND WERE ATTACKED BY ANTI-AIRCRAFT FIRE AND FIGHTERS.

HE SAID DURING THIS TIME A FORMATION OF 12 PLANES WAS SEEN TO BE CARRYING WING BOMBS NORTHEAST OF RAFA. THESE WERE ATTACKED BY FOUR ISRAELI FIGHTERS. ONE PLANE CRASHED IN FLAMES AND ANOTHER WAS CLAIMED BY ISRAELI PILOTS AS PROBABLY SHOT DOWN.

THE SPOKESMAN SAID LATER THE ISRAELI FORCES FOUND A BURNED WRECK OF ONE OF THESE PLANES AND ASSERTED IT BORE RAF MARKINGS. THUS IT WAS ASSUMED THE SQUADRON WAS BRITISH AND THAT THE SECOND DOWNED PLANE WAS AN RAF MACHINE.

JAN 1949

THE PILOT'S BODY FOUND IN THE WRECKAGE WAS BURNED BEYOND RECOGNITION.

AN ISRAELI FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN ANNOUNCED AT NOON THAT OBSERVANCE OF CEASE FIRE ORDERS APPEARED COMPLETE IN PALESTINE BUT A MILITARY SPOKESMAN SAID TWO HOURS LATER THERE HAD BEEN SOME SHELLING AROUND RAFA DUBING THE DAY.

THE LATTER SPOKESMAN SAID ISRAELI IS READY TO NOMINATE REPRESENTATIVES FOR ARMISTICE TALKS AT RHODES, AS PROPOSED BY MEDIATOR RALPH J. BUNCHE, BUT HAS NOT YET BEEN OFFICIALLY NOTIFIED TO DO SO.

THE FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN SAID YESTERDAY'S FIGHTING AFTER THE CEASE FIRE AROUND RAFA FINALLY STOPPED AT 7 O'CLOCK LAST NIGHT (NOON, EST).

FIRST LEAD EGYPT (A76)

CAIRO, JAN 8-(AP)-THE SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE ARAB LEAGUE PREDICTED TODAY A RENEWAL OF FIGHTING IN PALESTINE DESPITE THE CURRENT TRUCE.

"ALTHOUGH THE EGYPTIAN GOVERNMENT HAS BEEN FORCED FOR VARIOUS REASONS TO ACCEPT THE CEASE FIRE WHILE THE EGYPTIAN ARMY HAD THE INITIATIVE ON THE BATTLEFIELD, THERE IS NO DOUBT THE ZIONISTS WILL NOT RESPECT THEIR PLEDGES," SAID RAHMAN ABDEL AZZAM PASHA. "THUS THIS PHASE IS SIMILAR TO PREVIOUS PHASES AND ANYBODY WHO THINKS THE BATTLES WILL NOT BE RENEWED IN PALESTINE WILL BE MISTAKEN."

THE ARAB LEAGUE IS AN ASSOCIATION OF SEVEN ARAB COUNTRIES--EGYPT, TRANS-JORDAN, IRAQ, SYRIA, SAUDI ARABIA, YEMEN AND LEBANON. ALL HAVE BEEN AT WAR WITH ISRAEL BUT ONLY THE FIRST THREE HAVE DONE ANY FIGHTING OF CONSEQUENCE.

AZZAM PASHA PREDICTED RENEWED FIGHTING IN PALESTINE UNLESS THE SECURITY COUNCIL'S ORDER FOR WITHDRAWAL TO LINES OCCUPIED BY EGYPT AND ISRAEL OCT. 14 IN THE NEGEV DESERT IS CARRIED OUT. HE EXPRESSED REGRET ABOUT "THE HESITATION OF SOME POLITICIANS IN ARAB COUNTRIES."

PALESTINE INTERPRETIVE (570)

(EDITORS: JOHN RODERICK, ASSOCIATED PRESS CORRESPONDENT IN TRANS-JORDAN, NOW ON A TRIP TO CYPRUS, HAS WRITTEN THE FOLLOWING BACKGROUND ARTICLE ON BRITISH RELATIONS WITH ISRAEL).

--DASH-- JAN 1949

BY JOHN RODERICK

KYRENIA, CYPRUS, JAN. 8-(AP)-BRITAIN IS TELLING ISRAEL IN PLAIN LANGUAGE: "IF YOU STRETCH OUT A HAND AGAINST BRITISH INTERESTS IN THE MIDDLE EAST, WE'LL RAP YOUR KNUCKLES."

THAT IS THE MEANING OF BRITAIN'S SHOW OF FORCE IN THE AIR OVER TRANS-JORDAN AND THE EGYPTIAN SINAI DESERT ADJOINING PALESTINE.

LONDON'S FOREIGN OFFICE MAY MINIMIZE THE FACT THAT SQUADRONS OF BRITISH FIGHTER PLANES ARE SCOURING THE SKIES IN CRITICAL AREAS OF THE EGYPTIAN AND TRANS-JORDAN FRONTIERS ON GROUNDS OF NORMAL SECURITY PRECAUTIONS.

BUT THERE IS NO AVOIDING THE IMPLICATION THAT IF THE ZIONISTS ATTEMPT TO MAKE MORE INCURSIONS INTO EGYPT OR PROBE TOWARDS THE IMPORTANT TRANS-JORDAN PORT OF AQABA, FULLY LOADED FIGHTER PLANES ARMED WITH POWERFUL CANNON MAY BE ON HAND TO INTERCEPT THEM. BOTH EGYPT AND TRANS-JORDAN ARE HER ALLIES.

AS LONG AS THE JEWS AND EGYPTIANS CONFINED THEIR QUARRELS TO PALESTINE THE BRITISH TOOK NO EXTRAORDINARY MILITARY ACTION. ONCE THE ISRAELIS STRAYED OUT OF THOSE BORDERS INTO AN AREA BRITAIN CONSIDERS HER OWN PRESERVE, THE REACTION WAS QUICK, IMMEDIATE AND DRASTIC.

THE BRITISH STAKE IN THE SUEZ CANAL AND MIDDLE EAST OIL FIELDS IS TOO GREAT TO PERMIT WINKING AT ANY SUCH MOVES.

INAUGURATION OF REGULAR PATROL RECONNAISSANCE FLIGHTS OVER THE TRANS-JORDAN BORDER AREAS AND SWIFT ADDITIONS TO ITS FIGHTING RESERVES WAS THE BRITISH ANSWER.

THE START OF THESE OPERATIONS OPENED UP THE POSSIBILITY THAT BRITISH AIRCRAFT MIGHT RUN AFOUL OF JEWISH PURSUIT PLANES, AS HAPPENED ALONG THE EGYPTIAN FRONTIER YESTERDAY. THIS WAS A DANGEROUS CHANCE WHICH LONDON APPEARS TO HAVE CONSIDERED WAS WORTHWHILE IN VIEW OF THE IMPORTANCE OF THE ISSUES INVOLVED.

ROYAL AIR FORCE FIGHTER PLANES BEGAN DAILY RECONNAISSANCE PATROLS WITHIN SIGHT OF THE SOUTHERN PALESTINE BATTLE AREA SOON AFTER THE RECENT JEWISH PENETRATION OF EGYPT, AND REPORTED PATROL INCURSIONS INTO TRANS-JORDAN.

JAN 1949

A175

FROM THE SUEZ CANAL ZONE THE BRITISH STARTED THEIR OWN AIRLIFT--A QUIETLY EFFICIENT OPERATION MASKED BY CENSORSHIP SO TIGHT THAT EVEN UNITED NATIONS OBSERVERS STILL CAN NOT CONFIRM THESE PREPARATIONS.

FIGHTER-ESCORTED TRANSPORT PLANES MADE THE AIRLIFT TO AQABA AND MAFRAK IN TRANS-JORDAN ON TIME-CROWDING SCHEDULES THAT ALLOWED ONLY SEVEN MINUTES TO DROP A LOAD. SWARMS OF ARMORED VEHICLES PROTECTED EACH LANDING. OVERLAND SUPPLY ROUTES BROUGHT FROM IRAQ TO AMMAN, TRANS-JORDAN, MORE AVIATION GASOLINE TO SUPPORT THE AERIAL OPERATIONS.

IMPORTANT AQABA, TRANS-JORDAN'S SOLE PORT ON THE RED SEA, IS BRITAIN'S CHIEF WORRY AT THE MOMENT.

THERE SHE HAS SENT TROOPS FOR THE ANNOUNCED PURPOSE OF GUARDING THE PORT OF HER ALLY. THE PALESTINE NEGEV, WHICH THE JEWS WANT AND HAVE MOSTLY OCCUPIED, ALSO HAS A TIP REACHING DOWN TO THE RED SEA A FEW MILES FROM AQABA.

AQABA IS IMPORTANT TO THE BRITISH BECAUSE IT HAS A MILITARY HIGHWAY BY-PASSING PALESTINE AND RUNNING NORTH THROUGH TRANS-JORDAN TO DAMASCUS, SYRIA. THUS, CONCEIVABLY, IT MIGHT BE THE KEY TO A TENUOUS LINK BETWEEN THE MEDITERRANEAN AND RED SEA IN EVENT THE SUEZ CANAL WERE BLOCKED.

AQABA IS A CITY OF PALM GROVES KNOWN IN BIBLICAL DAYS AS ELATH. IT IS THE PORT FROM WHICH SOLOMON'S SHIPS SAILED FOR THE LAND OF OPHIR.

SITTING AT THE CROSSROADS OF MANY ANCIENT LAND AND SEA ROUTES IT HAS BEEN SOUGHT BY A SUCCESSION OF POWERS. IN THE 12TH CENTURY SALADIN BUILT A FLEET FROM PARTS OF SHIPS CARRIED BY CAMEL ACROSS THE SINAI DESERT, WITH AQABA AS HIS GOAL.

LAWRENCE OF ARABIA CAPTURED IT IN 1917 WITHOUT FIRING A SHOT. SINCE THEN, UNTIL 1925, IT WAS ADMINISTERED WITH MA'AN AS PART OF THE HASHEMITE KINGDOM OF HEJAZ. IT WAS A PLACE OF REFUGE FOR HUSSEIN, FATHER OF KING ABDULLAH OF TRANS-JORDAN. HUSSEIN FOUNDED THE HASHEMITE DYNASTY IN 1924.

THE BRITISH IN PALESTINE TOOK IT OVER A YEAR LATER WHEN SAUDI ARABIA MENACED IT, AND IT CAME UNDER TRANS-JORDAN IN 1931.

IBN SAUD, RULER OF SAUDI ARABIA, OFTEN HAS TRIED FOR AQABA TO GIVE HIM A DOOR TO A CORRIDOR TO EGYPT.

TEL AVIV--FIRST ADD NIGHT LEAD PALESTINE (A60-61) XXX SUCH NEGOTIATION

(A COMMUNIQUE ISSUED TODAY BY THE IRAQI DEFENSE MINISTRY IN BAGHDAD REPORTED THE RAMAT HAKOVESH AREA IN CENTRAL PALESTINE HAD BEEN CLEARED. IT SAID THAT "CLASHES, SHELLING AND A MACHINEGUN DUEL CONTINUED ALL LAST NIGHT. OUR TROOPS CLEARED THE HAKOVESH AREA AND CAPTURED SIX MACHINEGUNS AND TWO MORTARS. THE ENEMY SUFFERED CASUALTIES. OUR LOSSES WERE EIGHT SOLDIERS WOUNDED AND ONE DEAD.")

THE ISRAELI SPOKESMAN SAID THE WRECK OF ONE OF THE RAF PLANES SHOT DOWN IS NOW INSIDE ISRAEL, NEAR NIRM, A SETTLEMENT 15 MILES NORTH OF THE ISRAELI-EGYPTIAN BORDER. THIS PLANE WAS INSPECTED BY U.N.OBSERVERS, HE SAID.

THE SPOKESMAN SAID THAT IN ADDITION TO THE RAF PILOT CAPTURED AFTER BAILING OUT, IDENTIFIED AS MCELHAW, THE ISRAELIS ALSO HOLD A SECOND RAF MAN WHO ALSO BAILED OUT AND FELL SLIGHTLY WOUNDED IN THE NIRIM CORRECT AREA IN ISRAEL. HIS NAME WAS NOT GIVEN.
NOTING THAT NO OTHER PLANE WRECKS HAD BEEN FOUND, THE SPOKESMAN SAID THAT THE OTHER FOUR RAF PLANES SHOT DOWN MUST HAVE FALLEN IN NO-MAN'S LAND, IN EGYPTIAN BORDER TERRITORY, OR INTO THE SEA.

UNDATED NIGHT LEAD PALESTINE JAN 1949

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
FOUR BRITISH PLANES AND A FIFTH PLANE IDENTIFIED AS EGYPTIAN WERE SHOT DOWN BY THE JEWISH AIR FORCE AND ANTI-AIRCRAFT UNITS IN FIGHTS OVER THE ISREAL-EGYPTIAN FRONT, ISRAEL ANNOUNCED YESTERDAY (SAT .
IN LONDON THE BRITISH AIR MINISTRY SAID ISRAEL SHOT DOWN FIVE RAF FIGHTER PLANES PATROLLING OVER EGYPT, AND GAVE BRITISH FLIERS THE GO-AHEAD TO FIGHT BACK.
NOT LONG AFTERWARDS, BRITISH REPRESENTATIVES TO THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL DELIVERED IN NEW YORK A STRONG PROTEST TO THE RANKING ISRAELI REPRESENTATIVE TO U.N.
ARTHUR LOURIE, THE ISRAELI REPRESENTATIVE, REFUSED, HOWEVER, TO TRANSMIT THE PROTEST TO TEL AVIV BECAUSE IT WAS NOT ADDRESSED TO THE ISRAELI GOVERNMENT. BRITAIN HAS NOT RECOGNIZED THE NEW STATE OF ISRAEL. THE PROTEST USED THE WORDS "JEWISH AUTHORITIES AT TEL AVIV."
BRITAIN ANGRILY CALLED THE SHOOTING, WHICH OCCURRED FRIDAY, AN "UNPROVOKED ATTACK" AND TOLD RAF PILOTS TO "REGARD AS HOSTILE ANY JEWISH AIRCRAFT ENCOUNTERED" OVER EGYPT.
ON THE OTHER HAND, AN ISRAELI SPOKESMAN AT U.N. HEADQUARTERS IN LAKE SUCCESS CHARGED THAT BRITAIN HAD COMMITTED A "SHOCKING VIOLATION OF THE UNITED NATIONS TRUCE" BETWEEN EGYPT AND ISRAEL BY SENDING RAF PLANES ACROSS THE BORDER INTO ISRAEL.
LINKED WITH THE GENERAL TENSION IN THE MIDDLE EAST BUT UNCONNECTED WITH THE PLANE INCIDENT WAS AN ANNOUNCEMENT BY A BRITISH SPOKESMAN IN LONDON THAT AN UNDISCLOSED NUMBER OF BRITISH TROOPS HAVE BEEN MOVED INTO AQABA, STRATEGIC RED SEA PORT IN TRANS-JORDAN, AT THE REQUEST OF THAT COUNTRY. THE TROOPS WILL GUARD THE PORT.
AT KYRENIA, CYPRUS, ASSOCIATED PRESS CORRESPONDENT JOHN RODERICK, WHO HAS BEEN IN TRANS-JORDAN, DESCRIBED BRITAIN'S SHOW OF FORCE NEAR THE PALESTINE BORDER AS A WARNING TO ISRAEL NOT TO ENCROACH ON BRITISH INTERESTS IN THE MIDDLE EAST.
RODERICK SAID BRITAIN CONSIDERS HER STAKE IN THE SUEZ CANAL, MIDDLE EAST OIL, AND THE PORT OF ABAQA TOO GREAT TO ALLOW INCURSIONS BY OTHERS INTO EGYPT AND TRANS-JORDAN.
HE TOLD OF AERIAL PATROLS BY THE BRITISH OVER TRANS-JORDAN BORDER AREAS WHICH RAISED THE POSSIBILITY OF JUST SUCH A CLASH WITH JEWISH PLANES AS THE ONE AT THE EGYPTIAN BORDER.
DR. RALPH J.BUNCHE, ACTING U.N. MEDIATOR, PREPARED TO LEAVE TOMORROW FOR THE ISLAND OF RHODES FOR ARMISTICE TALKS BETWEEN ISRAELI AND EGYPTIAN REPRESENTATIVES. BRITIAN MARKED HIM IN ON ITS PROTEST TO ISRAEL ON THE SHOOTING DOWN OF HER PLANES.
EVEN AS EGYPT CONFIRMED AT CAIRO THAT SHE HAS AGREED TO NEGOTIATE WITH ISRAEL FOR A PALESTINE ARMISTICE, AN ARAB LEAGUE SPOKESMEN PREDICTED THE TRUCE WOULD NOT LAST.

ABDEL RAHMAN AZZAM PASHA, EGYPTIAN SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE SEVEN-NATION ARAB LEAGUE, ASSERTED "THERE IS NO DOUBT THE ZIONISTS WILL NOT RESPECT THEIR PLEDGES. THUS THIS PHASE IS SIMILAR TO PREVIOUS PHASES, AND ANYBODY WHO THINKS BATTLES WILL NOT BE RENEWED IN PALESTINE WILL BE MISTAKEN."
AZZAM PASHA JIBED AT "THE REGRETTABLE HESITATION OF SOME POLITICIANS IN ARAB COUNTRIES" WHICH REFUSED TO JOIN EGYPT IN THE FIGHT WITH ISRAEL.
MEDIATION OF A PALESTINE ARMISTICE WILL INVOLVE MANY EXPLOSIVE PROBLEMS. AMONG THEM IS WHAT TO DO WITH EGYPTIAN TROOPS WHOM THE ISRAELIS TRAPPED AT FALUJAH, AND THE U.N. ORDER THAT BOTH SIDES WITHDRAW TO POSITIONS THEY HELD BEFORE FIGHTING STARTED LAST OCTOBER.
THE PALESTINE CEASE-FIRE APPARENTLY WAS COMPLETE, ACCORDING TO LATEST REPORTS. NO INCIDENTS WERE REPORTED YESTERDAY (SAT) AFTERNOON, ALTHOUGH ISRAELI MILITARY SPOKESMAN HAD SAID DURING THE MORNING THAT "SOME EGYPTIAN ARTILLERY ACTIVITY IN THE SOUTH, WHERE JEWISH POSITIONS WERE SUBJECTED TO SPORADIC SHELLING." A LATER OFFICIAL REPORT AT TEL AVIV SAID SHELLING IN THE NEGEV HAD DIED DOWN.

BRITAIN AND FRANCE PLAN A "PEACE CONFERENCE" OF THEIR OWN. BIG QUESTIONS BEFORE THEM ARE WHETHER TO SET UP A PARLIAMENT OF EUROPE FOR WESTERN ANTI-COMMUNIST COUNTRIES, WHICH BRITAIN IS RELUCTANT TO DO; AND A DECISION ON GERMANY'S POLITICAL FUTURE.
COMMUNIST GERMAN POLICE IN BERLIN FIRED ON A GERMAN WAGON DRIVER WHO RAN THE TIGHTENED BLOCKADE OF THE WESTERN ZONE. FIVE SHOTS MISSED HIM, BUT TWO OF THEM STRUCK A PEDESTRIAN. EARLIER IN THE DAY THE RUSSIANS BEGAN DIGGING TRENCHES ACROSS ROADS IN AND NEAR BERLIN TO STOP BLOCKADE RUNNERS.
THE GREEK GOVERNMENT BROADENED ITS COALITION BASE TO TAKE SOME OF THE STEAM OUT OF THE OPPOSITION. JAN 1949

(600) AMS BRITISH-FRENCH

BY ARTHUR GAVSHON

LONDON, JAN.8-(AP)-BRITAIN AND FRANCE WILL HAVE A "PEACE CONFERENCE" OF THEIR OWN WEDNESDAY.

THEY ARE WEST EUROPE'S MAIN PARTNERS IN TRYING TO ACHIEVE PROSPERITY, POLITICAL UNITY AND MILITARY SECURITY FOR THE CONTINENT, AND IN THE FIGHT TO BEAT BACK COMMUNISM.

BUT THEIR STATESMEN ARE WORRIED BECAUSE THEIR POLICIES CLASH AT MANY POINTS AND LEVELS THROUGHOUT THE WORLD.

IN AN EFFORT TO STRAIGHTEN OUT THEIR DIFFICULTIES, FRANCE'S FOREIGN MINISTER ROBERT SCHUMAN WILL ARRIVE WEDNESDAY TO TALK IT ALL OVER WITH FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN IN A TWO-DAY MEETING.

SCHUMAN, BEVIN AND THEIR ADVISERS PLAN TO GO OVER THE WHOLE FIELD OF INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS.

BRITISH AND FRENCH OFFICIALS EXPECT THEM TO DWELL MAINLY ON WHETHER TO SET UP A PARLIAMENT OF EUROPE FOR WESTERN ANTI-COMMUNIST GOVERNMENTS, AND ON GERMANY'S POLITICAL FUTURE.

THESE OTHER ISSUES ALSO WILL COME UP:

THE FUTURE OF ITALY'S PRE-WAR AFRICAN COLONIES.

JAN 1949

THE NORTH ATLANTIC SECURITY PACT.

RECOGNITION OF ISRAEL AND ITS ADMISSION INTO THE UNITED NATIONS.

COORDINATION OF FRENCH AND BRITISH COLONIAL POLICIES IN THE FAR EAST AND AFRICA.

BRITAIN AND FRANCE HAVE DISTINCTLY DIFFERENT DESIGNS BY WHICH THEY BELIEVE EUROPE SHOULD DEVELOP POLITICAL UNITY.

FRANCE IS PRESSING BRITAIN TO ACCEPT A LONG-TIME PLAN FOR CREATING A PARLIAMENT OF EUROPE. THE FRENCH BELIEVE IT WOULD PROVIDE A POSITIVE, DYNAMIC ALTERNATIVE TO WHAT COMMUNISM OFFERS.

BRITAIN FRANKLY DOES NOT LIKE THE IDEA.

THE FRENCH HAVE MUSTERED STRONG BACKING FOR THEIR PROJECT. THE UNITED STATES HAS SAID IT THINKS A EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT WOULD BE A FINE THING. BELGIUM SUPPORTS IT. ITALY DOES, TOO. SO DO SEVERAL OTHER POLITICALLY IMPORTANT COUNTRIES.

BEVIN AND HIS ADVISERS DON'T LIKE THE IDEA THAT BRITAIN, UNDER THAT PLAN, MIGHT HAVE TO YIELD SOME SOVEREIGNTY TO A NEW AND POSSIBLY TENUOUS AUTHORITY.

LOOK AT OTHER EXPERIMENTS OF THAT KIND--THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS, FOR INSTANCE, OR EVEN THE UNITED NATIONS--THEY TELL FRANCE.

OVER AND OVER THE BRITISH STRESS THEY DON'T WANT TO GO INTO SOMETHING-THAT-MIGHT-TURN-OUT TO BE JUST-ANOTHER TALK FEST.

BEVIN HAS SUGGESTED AN ALTERNATIVE. HE SAID TO THE FRENCH, DUTCH, BELGIANS AND LUXEMBOURGERS: HOW ABOUT SETTING UP A EUROPEAN MINISTERIAL COUNCIL, A BODY WITH DEFINED POWERS WHICH COULD GET THINGS DONE INSTEAD OF ONLY TALKING ABOUT THEM?

SOMEWHAT RELUCTANTLY THE OTHERS AGREED TO THINK IT OVER. AN 18-MAN COMMITTEE, REPRESENTING THE FIVE COUNTRIES, HAS WORKED OUT A COMPROMISE, BUT BEVIN AND HIS ADVISERS DON'T LIKE IT MUCH.

SCHUMAN AND BEVIN WILL THRESH ALL THIS OUT. THE FRENCHMAN, HARD-PRESSED BY A DELICATE POLITICAL BALANCE AT HOME, PROBABLY WILL TRY TO FIND OUT EXACTLY HOW FAR BEVIN WANTS TO GO.

THEY ALL WANT A DECISION BY JAN. 26, WHEN THE FOREIGN MINISTERS OF THE FIVE BRUSSELS UNION COUNTRIES ARE SUPPOSED TO LOOK AT THEIR WORKING COMMITTEE'S REPORT.

THERE ARE STILL POINTS OF CONFLICT IN THE TWO COUNTRIES' GERMAN POLICIES.

FRANCE, THRICE-INVADED SINCE 1871, WANTS INTERNATIONAL OWNERSHIP OF INDUSTRIES IN THE RUHR. THIS AREA, RICH IN COAL AND STEEL, HAS BEEN THE CRADLE OF GERMAN AGGRESSION. THE FRENCH SAY GERMAN ECONOMIC MIGHT MUST BE CONTROLLED.

SOCIALIST BRITAIN DISAGREES. THIS COUNTRY WANTS THE BASIC INDUSTRIES OF GERMANY NATIONALIZED--LIKE ITS OWN.

FRANCE FEELS ALSO AN EXCESSIVE CONCENTRATION OF POLITICAL AND EVEN FINANCIAL POWER IN GERMANY WOULD BE BAD FOR EUROPE. ITS POLICY LONG HAS BEEN GUIDED BY THE PRINCIPLE THAT WHEN GERMANY SNEEZES, ALL EUROPE CATCHES COLD.

THUS, IN TALKS WITH THE BRITISH AND THE AMERICANS ON AN OCCUPATION STATUTE FOR WEST GERMANY, THE FRENCH HAVE INSISTED THE POWERS OF A WEST GERMAN GOVERNMENT BE DECENTRALIZED AS MUCH AS POSSIBLE.

DUE, THEN, FOR SETTLEMENT IS THE QUESTION WHETHER TAXES TO PAY THE WESTERN ALLIES FOR OCCUPATION OF WEST GERMANY SHOULD BE LEVIED BY THE CENTRAL GERMAN GOVERNMENT OR BY THE STATES.

BRITAIN, LIKE THE UNITED STATES, FAVORS GIVING THAT RIGHT TO THE CENTRAL AUTHORITY.

SOME HORSETRADING SEEMS LIKELY IN EFFORTS TO REACH AN AGREEMENT ON THE FUTURE OF ITALY'S PRE-WAR AFRICAN COLONIES.

JAN 1949

BRITAIN WOULD LIKE TO BECOME THE TRUSTEE, ON BEHALF OF THE UNITED NATIONS, FOR CIRENAICA (EASTERN LIBIA) AND TRIPOLITANIA (WESTERN LIBIA.)

BUT TRIPOLITANIA BORDERS FRENCH ALGERIA. FRANCE DOES NOT LIKE BRITISH POLICY TOWARDS THE ARABS AND WOULD PREFER TO HAVE ITALY ADMINISTER TRIPOLITANIA.

THEREFORE, ACCORDING TO AN ASSOCIATED PRESS MESSAGE FROM PARIS, THE FRENCH ARE LIKELY TO SUPPORT BRITAIN'S CLAIM FOR A CIRENAICAN TRUSTEESHIP IF ITALY IS GIVEN BACK TRIPOLITANIA.

THE TWO COUNTRIES DON'T SEE EYE TO EYE OVER ISRAEL, EITHER.

THERE IS A GOOD DEAL OF POLITICAL PRESSURE IN FRANCE TO RECOGNIZE THE NEW JEWISH STATE AND SUPPORT ITS EFFORTS TO ENTER THE UNITED NATIONS.

THE BRITISH SO FAR HAVE MANAGED TO PERSUADE FRANCE TO TAKE NO ACTION TOWARDS THE STATE OF ISRAEL WHICH WOULD CREATE NEW DIFFICULTIES FOR THE BRITISH.

THE SAME A.P. PARIS DISPATCH SAID THERE IS NO REASON TO BELIEVE FRANCE WILL SYNCHRONIZE ITS POLICY TOWARDS ISRAEL WITH THAT OF BRITAIN.

IN TSINGTAO, THE U.S. FLEET ANCHORAGE, VICE ADM. OSCAR BADGER SAID THE NAVY HAS NO INTENTION OF PULLING THE MARINES OUT OF CHINA.

IN AN INTERVIEW WITH ASSOCIATED PRESS CORRESPONDENT ROY ESSOYAN, THE ADMIRAL SAID SOME LEASES ON SHORE QUARTERS ARE BEING TERMINATED "IN LINE WITH DIMINISHING REQUIREMENTS HERE (TSINGTAO)", BUT HE MADE CLEAR THE NAVY AND MARINES INTEND TO STAY IN WHATEVER POSITION IS NECESSARY TO PROTECT AMERICANS.

TSINGTAO'S FOREIGN CIVIL POPULATION HAS DROPPED FROM AROUND 600 TO ABOUT 70, HE SAID, AND ANY DECREASE IN THE SIZE OF THE AMERICAN FORCE IS IN LINE WITH DIMINISHED NEEDS.

BEYOND PROTECTING AMERICANS "WE HAVE NO MISSION" IN CHINA, BADGER SAID. "WE WILL CERTAINLY NOT INTERFERE IN CHINA'S CIVIL WAR."

THE MARKER, AT THE POINT WHERE THE FIRST AMERICAN SOLDIER STEPPED ASHORE ON LINGAYEN GULF, WAS UNVEILED BY DEFENSE SECRETARY RUPERTO KANGLEON.

MARSHALL-ACHESON INTERPRETIVE

BY JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON, JAN -- AP -CRITICS OF MARSHALL-LOVETT DIPLOMACY ARE EXPECTED TO PRESS THE STATE DEPARTMENT TO REVERSE ITSELF ON SEVERAL MAJOR ISSUES AFTER DEAN ACNESON AND JAMES E. WEBB TAKE OVER FOREIGN POLICY DIRECTION.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S DECLARATION THAT THE SWITCH FROM GENERAL GEORGE C. MARSHALL TO ACHESON AS SECRETARY OF STATE LATE THIS MONTH WILL BRING NO CHANGE IN FOREIGN POLICY IS TAKEN BY MOST INFORMED PERSONS HERE AT FACE VALUE ;o.ICIMICIMICIMICIMICIGM

NO CHANGE IN FOREIGN POLICY IS TAKEN BY MOST INFORMED PERSONS HERE AT FACE VALUE. BUT IT DOES NOT PRECLUDE THE POSSIBILITY THAT ACHESON WILL GO ABOUT CARRYING OUT THIS FOREIGN POLICY IN A MANNER QUITE DIFFERENT FROM MARSHALL.

POLICY ISSUES TO WHICH ACHESON MAY HAVE TO GIVE CONSIDERABLE ATTENTION IN THE FIRST WEEK INCLUDE:

1. AMERICAN OPERATIONS IN GERMANY AND JAPAN.
2. THE QUESTION OF AID TO CHINA.
3. THE STATE OF RELATIONS BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND WESTERN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES--INCLUDING THE NETHERLANDS WHICH HAVE BEEN TAKING AN AMERICAN BEATING OVER THE FIGHTING IN INDONESIA.

ACHESON ALSO STEPS IN AT A TIME WHEN REPUBLICAN SENATE ANGER IS AROUSED OVER A DEMOCRATIC GRAB OF EIGHT SEATS ON THE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE, LEAVING THE REPUBLICANS FIVE. IN THE REPUBLICAN CONGRESS, THE DIVISION WAS SEVEN TO SIX.

INDICATIONS WERE THAT THE REPUBLICAN SENATORS WILL FEEL FREER TO ARGUED ON FOREIGN POLICY ISSUES BEFORE DECISIONS ARE REACHED. SENATOR CAPEHART (R-IND) DECLARED "THE DEMOCRATS HAVE BROKEN UP THE BIPARTISAN FOREIGN POLICY." HE SERVED NOTICE THAT ADMINISTRATION PROPOSALS WILL RUN THE RISK OF STIFF RESISTANCE.

SECRETARY MARSHALL AND UNDERSECRETARY ROBERT A. LOVETT HAVE CONSISTENTLY WON MAJORITY SUPPORT FOR THEIR MAIN FOREIGN POLICY PROJECTS.

THESE INCLUDE ALL-OUT AID FOR EUROPE, ONLY LIMITED AID FOR CHINA, RESISTANCE TO RUSSIA AT BERLIN, GERMAN AND JAPANESE RECONSTRUCTION, AND THE PREVENTION OF COMMUNISM IN GREECE AND TURKEY.

BUT THEIR SUCCESS IN PUTTING OVER THE BIG PROGRAM DOES NOT MEAN THEY HAVE WON ALL ALONG THE LINE OR WITHOUT STIRRING UP POWERFUL OPPOSITION.

SOME OF THIS OPPOSITION WHICH HAS BEEN PUT DOWN REPEATLY NOW SEEMS CERTAIN TO POP UP AGAIN TO CONFRONT ACHESON AND WEBB (ASSUMING THEY ARE CONFIRMED BY THE SENATE) WHO ARE SCHEDULED TO TAKE OFFICE JANUARY 20.

JAN 1949

ONE INDICATION OF REVIVING HOPE AMONG CRITICS OF RECENT U.S. ACTIONS CAME TO LIGHT TODAY AMONG LEADERS OF THE COOPERATIVE LEAGUE OF THE USA, AN ORGANIZATION PROMOTING THE COOPERATIVE MOVEMENT. THE LEAGUE PUBLISHED A LETTER FROM THE STATE DEPARTMENT REJECTING ITS LATEST PETITION FOR THE UNITED STATES TO SUPPORT INTERNATIONAL, COOPERATIVE OWNERSHIP OF THE GREAT RUHR INDUSTRIES OF GERMANY.

JACOB D. BEAM, CHIEF OF THE DEPARTMENT'S CENTRAL EUROPEAN DIVISION, ADVISED THE LEAGUE BY LETTER OF THE PRESENT BASIC GOVERNMENT POLICY; THAT INTERNATIONAL OWNERSHIP OF THE RUHR RESOURCES WOULD INTERFERE WITH GERMAN PRODUCTION AND THEREFORE WITH THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM.

IN MAKING PUBLIC BEAM'S REPLY, THE NEWS SERVICE OF THE LEAGUE ADDED IN A FOOTNOTE THAT LEAGUE PRESIDENT MURRAY LINCOLN AND HIS ASSOCIATES "WERE FACED WITH MOMENTARY PESSIMISM ON RECEIPT OF THE BEAM LETTER BUT THIS WAS SUPPLANTED BY HOPE AND OPTIMISM WHEN THE STATE DEPARTMENT CHANGES WERE ANNOUNCED."

THE FRENCH HAVE DEMANDED INTERNATIONALIZATION OF THE RUHR. AUTHORITIES HERE EXPECT THAT MUCH MORE WILL BE HEARD ON THE ISSUE FROM PARIS.

ON ANOTHER ASPECT OF THE PROBLEM IN OCCUPIED COUNTRIES, THERE HAS BEEN OVER THE PAST TWO YEARS A GRADUAL SHIFT OF EMPHASIS IN AMERICAN POLICY AWAY FROM REFORMS OF GERMAN AND JAPANESE BASIC ECONOMY AND TOWARD MEASURES TO MAKE BOTH COUNTRIES SELF SUPPORTING.

THE SHIFT OF EMPHASIS HAS BEEN ACCOMPANIED BY RUNNING CONTROVERSY IN THE STATE AND WAR DEPARTMENTS HERE AND AMONG OCCUPATION AUTHORITIES ABROAD AS TO WHETHER IT WAS A GOOD IDEA TO GIVE MEASURES FOR RECOVERY PRIORITY AT ANY POINT OVER MEASURES OF REFORM. THE RECOVERY ADVOCATES HAVE WON OUT TO THIS POINT.

IN THE CASE OF CHINA, MARSHALL AND LOVETT ON THE ADVICE OF THEIR DIPLOMATIC EXPERTS HAVE BLOCKED ANY MOVE BY THE UNITED STATES WHICH WOULD DEEPLY INVOLVE THE COUNTRY ON THE SIDE OF CHIANG KAI-SHEK.

DIPLOMATIC AUTHORITIES WOULD NOT BE SURPRISED IF MADAME CHIANG MAKES APPEALS TO ACHESON FOR ALL-OUT CHINA AID.

EVEN ON THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM ITSELF ACHESON MAY HAVE TO ANSWER SOME DIFFICULT QUESTIONS. THE EUROPEANS, FOR EXAMPLE, RECENTLY CAME UP WITH FIGURES TO SHOW THAT AT THE END OF FOUR YEARS WHEN THE PROGRAM IS SUPPOSED TO EXPIRE THEY STILL WILL NOT BE SELF SUPPORTING. THE CRITICAL QUESTION HERE IS WHETHER THE UNITED STATES SHOULD NOW TELL THE EUROPEANS TO PULL THEIR BELTS TIGHTER AND MAKE GREATER USE OF THEIR OWN RESOURCES, OR WHETHER IT SHOULD HOLD OUT HOPE THAT EVEN WHEN THE MARSHALL PLAN ENDS AMERICAN DOLLARS WILL STILL BE AVAILABLE FOR NEEDY COUNTRIES.

A172WX

IN THE CASE OF INDONESIA, UNDERSECRETARY LOVETT, AGAIN ON THE ADVICE OF HIS DIPLOMATIC EXPERTS, RAN INTO A CONFLICT BETWEEN AMERICAN INTERESTS IN (1) WINNING THE GOOD WILL OF COLONIAL PEOPLES THROUGHOUT ASIA, AND (2) AMERICAN COOPERATION WITH THE NETHERLANDS IN HOLDING COMMUNISM AT BAY IN EUROPE. LOVETT CHOSE TO BACK THE INDONESIANS IN AMERICAN MOVES THROUGH THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL. OPPONENTS THOUGHT AMERICA'S MAJOR INTEREST LAY WITH THE DUTCH. THERE SEEMS NO DOUBT THAT THE CRITICS WILL PRESS ACHESON FOR WHATEVER MODIFICATION OF THE AMERICAN POSITION MAY BE POSSIBLE.

BY MORGAN REYNOLDS

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON, JAN. [illegible]-(AP)-WHEN DEAN ACHESON TAKES OVER AS THE NATION'S FOREIGN POLICY DIRECTOR FROM GEORGE C.MARSHALL JANUARY 20 HE WILL BRING TO THE STATE DEPARTMENT A NEW LOOK--A LAWYER'S LOOK AT THE WORLD'S PEACE PROBLEMS.

ALTHOUGH PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAS MADE EXPLICITLY CLEAR THAT THIS COUNTRY'S FOREIGN POLICY WILL NOT CHANGE, EVEN THOUGH THE DIRECTORS DO, ACHESON IS EXPECTED TO TACKLE HIS "COLD WAR" ASSIGNMENT FROM A DIFFERENT ANGLE THAN MARSHALL'S.

MARSHALL, FOR EXAMPLE, WAS TRAINED TO BE A SOLDIER--TO TAKE AND ISSUE COMMANDS AND TO WEIGH EACH NEW PROBLEM IN LINE WITH A MASTER PLAN OF STRATEGY.

ACHESON, ON THE OTHER HAND, IS A PRODUCT OF THE GROTON-YALE-HARVARD TRAINING WHICH STRESSES EQUALLY PRECISE ANALYSIS BUT PERHAPS A MORE FLEXIBLE APPROACH TO THE COMPLEX PROBLEMS OF THE ATOMIC AGE.

WHEN MARSHALL ASSUMED THE STATE DEPARTMENT ASSIGNMENT TWO YEARS AGO HE HAD JUST REACHED THE BRILLIANT CONCLUSION OF ONE CAREER--AN ACHIEVEMENT MOST OTHER MEN WOULD HAVE BEEN CONTENT TO REST ON. BUT LIKE THE GOOD SOLDIER HE IS RECOGNIZED TO BE, MARSHALL ACCEPTED PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S REQUEST AS ANOTHER ORDER IN THE LONG LIST HE HAD OBEYED.

THOSE ORDERS FIRST STARTED AT VIRGINIA MILITARY INSTITUTE, THE FAMED "WEST POINT OF THE SOUTH", WHERE HE EARLY DEMONSTRATED THE ABILITIES WHICH WERE TO LEAD HIM TO EVER HIGHER PINNACLES.

AS AIDE TO GEN. "BLACKJACK" PERSHING IN WORLD WAR 1, MARSHALL HAD OPPORTUNITY TO PUT INTO PRACTICE THE MILITARY TRAINING HE HAD RECEIVED AT V.M.I. DURING THAT CONFLICT HE IS REMEMBERED FOR THE BRILLIANT STAFF JOB HE ENGINEERED IN SECRETLY SHIFTING OVER 800,000 MEN AND SUPPLIES ON THE MEUSE-ARGONNE FRONT FOR THE CLIMACTIC OFFENSIVE WHICH CRACKED THE GERMAN LINES.

WHEN THE SAME GERMAN LEGIONS STARTED ONCE AGAIN ON THEIR WORLD CONQUEST PATH, PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT REACHED DOWN PAST 32 GENERALS TO BRING MARSHALL TO THE TOP AS CHIEF OF STAFF. IN THAT POST HE SUCCESSFULLY GUIDED AMERICAN ARMIES TO THEIR GLOBAL VICTORY.

THEN CAME A WELL-DESERVED--BUT BRIEF--RETIREMENT, FROM WHICH HE WAS RECALLED TO UNDERTAKE A SPECIAL MISSION TO CHINA. THERE HE WAS CHARGED WITH THE TASK OF MEDIATING THE NATIONALIST-COMMUNIST CONFLICT. ALTHOUGH THIS MISSION MARKED HIS FIRST FAILURE, MARSHALL RETURNED HOME WITH UNDIMMED HONORS AS AMERICA'S NO. 1 WAR HERO.

IN JANUARY, 1947, THE PRESIDENT ONCE AGAIN SENT OUT AN ORDER TO MARSHALL--THE REQUEST TO TAKE OVER AS SECRETARY OF STATE FROM [redacted].

THE MONTHS FOLLOWING SAW THE SOLDIER-DIPLOMAT CHALK UP NEW MARKS IN HIS SECOND CAREER: THE GREEK-TURKISH AID PROGRAM, THE RIO PACT AND MOST IMPORTANTLY, THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM WHICH BEARS HIS NAME--THE MARSHALL PLAN.

IN ALL THESE ENDEAVORS, MARSHALL USED GENERALSHIP TACTICS IN THE NEW DIPLOMATIC THEATER OF OPERATIONS. HIS MAJOR THEME WAS TO APPLY DIPLOMATIC PRESSURE TO THE EXTENT THIS COUNTRY HAD THE MILITARY AND ECONOMIC POWER TO BACK IT UP.

THAT MARSHALL HAS SUCCEEDED IN HIS PRIMARY AIM--TO CONTAIN COMMUNISM WITHIN THE BOUNDS MARKED BY RED ARMY CONTROL--WAS ATTESTED BY ACHESON IN A SPEECH LAST SEPTEMBER IN LANSING, MICH.

ACHESON SAID THAT THE "TIDE HAD TURNED" AGAINST THE COMMUNIST ADVANCE WHICH HAD THREATENED TO ENGULF EUROPE AND THE MIDDLE EAST. HE WENT ON TO SAY THAT AT NO POINT HAD THE RUSSIANS SUCCEEDED IN EXTENDING THEIR MILITARY CONTROL.

NOW AS THE "COLD WAR" ENTERS A NEW YEAR AND ACHESON HIMSELF IS PREPARING TO ASSUME MARSHALL'S BURDEN, HE HAS THE CHANCE TO STRENGTHEN THE BULWARKS TO SAFEGUARD DEMOCRATIC FREEDOMS.

NOT ONLY DOES THE 55-YEAR-OLD ACHESON LOOK LIKE A DIPLOMAT BUT HE HAS HAD THE EXPERIENCE WHICH QUALIFIES HIM TO TAKE HIS SEAT WITH ANY AND ALL OF HIS "OPPOSITE NUMBERS". TALL (6 FEET ONE) AND SANDY-HAIRED, ACHESON IS AN AFFABLE PERSON AND A FLUENT SPEAKER. HE IS MARRIED AND HAS THREE CHILDREN.

JAN 1949

A115WX

ACHESON WAS BORN IN MIDDLETOWN, CONN., THE SON OF AN EPISCOPALIAN BISHOP. HE PREPARED FOR YALE AT GROTON AND RECEIVED HIS B.A. DEGREE IN 1915. ACHESON ROWED ON THE YALE FRESHMEN CREW AND WAS ASSISTANT COACH OF THE VARSITY CREW IN 1914.

HE HAS BEEN IN GOVERNMENT SERVICE INTERMITTENTLY SINCE 1919. AFTER WORLD WAR I SERVICE AS A NAVAL ENSIGN, HE BEGAN HIS CAREER AS PRIVATE SECRETARY TO THE LATE SUPREME COURT JUSTICE LOUIS D.BRANDEIS.

THEN FOLLOWED A PERIOD OF PRIVATE LAW PRACTICE BEFORE RETURNING TO WASHINGTON IN 1933 AS UNDERSECRETARY OF THE TREASURY. HE RESIGNED THAT POST AFTER SIX MONTHS, REPORTEDLY IN PROTEST OVER PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S MOVE TO DEVALUE THE DOLLAR.

DURING THE PAST WAR ACHESON BEGAN HIS 6-YEAR STATE DEPARTMENT SERVICE AS ASSISTANT SECRETARY UNDER CORDELL HULL. HE LATER BECAME UNDERSECRETARY, RESIGNING IN MAY, 1947, AFTER JAMES BYRNES HAD STEPPED DOWN AS SECRETARY.

IN ACCEPTING ACHESON'S RESIGNATION, PRESIDENT TRUMAN THEN WROTE:

"YOU HAVE BEEN THE TYPE OF EFFICIENT PUBLIC SERVANT WHOSE WITHDRAWAL FROM PUBLIC LIFE AT ANY TIME WOULD BE A LOSS TO THE NATION.

"YOU HAVE BROUGHT TO YOUR DUTIES X X X LEGAL TRAINING AND EXPERIENCE; FAMILIARITY WITH FINANCE, PARTICULARLY IN ITS BEARING UPON

JAN 1949

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS. X X X

"I SHALL LIKE TO THINK THAT I CAN, AS THE NEED ARISES, CALL UPON YOU FOR ADVICE."

THUS THE CYCLE TURNED AND MR.TRUMAN NOT ONLY CALLED UPON ACHESON FOR ADVICE BUT HAS ENTRUSTED HIM WITH CARRYING ON THIS COUNTRY'S FOREIGN POLICY WHEN GENERAL MARSHALL ONCE AGAIN STEPS OUT OF PUBLIC LIFE TO REST.

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON, JAN 8-(AP)-REP. VORYS (R-O) SAID TONIGHT DEAN ACHESON CAN MAINTAIN A BIPARTISAN FOREIGN POLICY AS SECRETARY OF STATE IF PRESIDENT TRUMAN LETS HIM.

A MEMBER OF THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE, VORYS EXPRESSED HIS VIEWS IN A PREPARED ADDRESS BEFORE THE OHIO SOCIETY OF WASHINGTON.

"DEAN ACHESON SHOWED GRAT SKILL AND TACT AND AN UNDERSTANDING OF BIPARTISAN TEAMWORK WITH CONGRESS WHEN HE WAS IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT BEFORE," SAID VORYS.

"THERE WAS MORE OF THIS IN THE LATTER PART OF THE ROOSEVELT ADMINISTRATION THAN UNDER TRUMAN. ACHESON KNOWS HOW TO DO IT IF THE PRESIDENT PERMITS HIM."

THE OHICAN COMMENDED THE HOUSE DEMOCRATIC LEADERSHIP FOR MAINTAINING THE SAME RATIO OF DEMOCRATIC AND REPUBLICAN MEMBERS ON THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE AS PREVAILED UNDER THE LAST, REPUBLICAN-CONTROLLED, CONGRESS.

HE CRITICIZED THE SENATE DIVISION OF PARTY MEMBERS ON ITS FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE, WHICH GAVE THE DEMOCRATS AN INCREASED RATIO.

ELABORATING ON THE SUBJECT OF BIPARTISAN FOREIGN POLICY, HE CONTINUED:

"THE REPUBLICANS ARE PLEDGED TO COOPERATE, BUT COOPERATION IS A TWO-WAY PROPOSITION, AT HOME AND ABROAD.

"MERELY JAMMING THROUGH BILLS FROM THE STATE DEPARTMENT IS NOT A BIPARTISAN APPROACH. ON THE SURFACE, IT LOOKS JAN 1949 AS IF THIS IS THE PLAN IN THE SENATE."

ACHESON DECLINED COMMENT ON "ANY SUBJECT WHATSOEVER," AND SAID THAT "UNTIL I TAKE OFFICE ON JANUARY 20 MY IDEAS ARE THOSE OF A PRIVATE CITIZEN AND I WILL KEEP THEM PRIVATE."

EARLIER IN THE DAY, PRESIDENT CHARLES SEYMOUR OF YALE, LAUDING THE SELECTION OF ACHESON, SAID HE WOULD "BRING TO HIS NEW POSITION AS SECRETARY OF STATE THOSE QUALITIES OF INTELLIGENCE, MORAL COURAGE AND LEARNING WHICH HAVE DISTINGUISHED HIS CAREER AS AN ATTORNEY AND GOVERNMENT OFFICER."

BY ROGER D.GREENE

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON, JAN. 8-(AP)-SOUTHERN CHARM AND AN ABILITY TO SAY "NO" TO REQUESTS FOR BILLIONS OF DOLLARS WERE CREDITED TODAY WITH SPEEDING THE METEORIC RISE OF JAMES E.WEBB TO HIGH GOVERNMENT LEVEL.

THE 42-YEAR-OLD NORTH CAROLINIAN IS PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S CHOICE AS THE NEW UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE.

NOW THE BUDGET DIRECTOR, WEBB WILL ASSUME HIS NEW DUTIES JANUARY 20.

WITH HIS BACKGROUND OF BUSINESS MANAGEMENT, WEBB IS EXPECTED TO PLAY A KEY ROLE IN REVAMPING AND "STREAMLINING" THE VAST AFFAIRS OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT WHERE DEAN ACHESON WILL TAKE OVER THE SECRETARYSHIP FROM GEN.GEORGE E.MARSHALL.

ASBUDGET DIRECTOR FOR THE PAST TWO AND ONE-HALF YEARS, YOUNG JIM WEBB HAD THE TOUGH JOB OF SAYING NO TO CABINET OFFICERS AND HEADS OF FEDERAL AGENCIES WHO WANTED TO SPEND COUNTLESS MILLIONS WHICH HE THOUGHT COULD BE SAVED. HE SAID IT--AND MADE IT STICK.

BY ONE ESTIMATE, HE HAS CUT MORE THAN $14,000,000,000--THAT'Y BILLIONS--OFF THE BUDGETARY REQUESTS OF GOVERNMENT AGENCIES. BUT THAT ESTIMATE WAS MADE BEFORE THE NEW BUDGET, WHICH PRESIDENT TRUMAN WILL SEND TO CONGRESS ON MONDAY, WAS PREPARED. NOW IT MIGHT BE DOUBLE THAT FIGURE.

IN ADDITION, HE HELPED ENGINEER THE FIRST TWO BALANCED BUDGETS THIS COUNTRY HAS SEEN SINCE 1930. THE SECOND CARRIED A RECORD-SMASHING $8,400,000,000 SURPLUS OF FEDERAL INCOME OVER SPENDING FOR THE DISCAL YEAR ENDED LAST JUNE 30.

A COMPARATIVE NEWCOMER TO GOVERNMENT SERVICE, WEBB BECAME BUDGET DIRECTORS IN AUGUST, 1946, AFTER SIX MONTHS AS AN ASSISTANT TO THE LATE O.MAX GARDNER, ANOTHER NORTH CAROLINIAN, WHO WAS THEN UNDER SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY.

HE TOOK THE BUDGET POST AT LESS MONEY THAN HE GOT EARLIER AS A L LAWYER IN GARDNER'S FIRM AND AS VICE PRESIDENT OF THE SPERRY GYROSCOPE COMPANY. IN FACT, THROUGH A QUIRK IN THE LAW, HIS $10,000 GOVERNMENT PAY AS BUDGET CHIEF AS BEEN LESS THAN SOME OF HIS ASSISTANTS HAVE BEEN GETTING. HE'LL GET $12,000 A YEAR AS UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE, PERHAPS MORE IF THE PROPOSED PAY BOOSTS FOR FEDERAL OFFICIALS GOES THROUGH.

A131WX

A NATIVE OF GRANVILLE COUNTY, N.C., WHERE HIS FATHER WAS COUNTRY SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS, WEBB WORKED HIS WAY THROUGH THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA--AND WON THE COVETED PHI BETA KAPPA KEY FOR TOP SCHOLARSHIP. IN HIS SPARE TIME, HE STUDIED SHORTHAND AND TYPING AT BUSINESS SCHOOL.

AFTER COLLEGE, WEBB TURNED TO LAW, BUT INTERRUPTED HIS LEGAL TRAINING TO SERVE TWO YEARS AS A MARINE CORPS FLIER.

IN 1932, HE BECAME SECRETARY TO REP.EDWARD W.POU (D-NC), THEN CHAIRMAN OF THE POWERFUL HOUSE RULES COMMITTEE, AND CONTINUED HIS LAW STUDIES AT GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY.

AFTER TWO YEARS IN GARDNER'S LAW FIRM IN WASHINGTON--GARDNER WAS A FORMER GOVERNOR OF NORTH CAROLINA--WEBB LEFT IN 1936 TO JOIN ANOTHER NORTH CAROLINIAN, THOMAS MORGAN, PRESIDENT OF SPERRY GYROSCOPE CO. IN THE NEXT SEVEN YEARS HE ROSE TO VICE PRESIDENCY OF THE FIRM.

IN 1944, HE WENT ON ACTIVE DUTY WITH THE NINTH MARINE AIRCRAFT WING, TRAINING PERSONNEL IN RADAR AND ELECTRONICS. WEBB CAME OUT OF THE WAR A MAJOR AND RETURNED TO LAW PRACTICE IN WASHINGTON.

WEBB MARRIED A FORMER WINNSBORO, S.C., GIRL, MISS PATSY AIKEN DOUGLAS, IN 1938. THEY HAVE TWO SMALL CHILDREN.

ASSOCIATES SAID WEBB HAS TURNED DOWN LUCRATIVE OFFERS OF JOBS IN PRIVATE INDUSTRY, BUT HE STILL DOESN'T THINK IT'S A "SACRIFICE" TO ACCEPT LESS MONEY IN A FEDERAL POST.

"I THINK IT IS PRIVILEGE TO PUT IN SOME WORK FOR YOUR GOVERNMENT," HE SAYS.

SYMINGTON REPORT

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON, JAN 8-(AP)-WE HAVE "NONE TOO MUCH TIME" TO PREPARE, SECRETARY OF AIR SYMINGTON SAID TODAY. AND HE RESTATED HIS BELIEF IN A 70-GROUP AIR FORCE DESPITE ITS HEAVY COST.

THE 70 COMBAT GROUPS ARE ONE FEATURE OF A FOUR-YEAR PROGRAM AIMED AT CREATING BY 1952 AN AIR FORCE ABLE TO MEET ANY CRISIS. THE AIR FORCE BEGAN BUILDING TOWARD IT LAST YEAR BUT IT TAKES ANNUAL APPROPRIATIONS TO FULFILL THE PROGRAM.

WITH A TIGHT NATIONAL DEFENSE BUDGET IN PROSPECT, THE SECRETARY OF THE AIR FORCE SAID IN HIS FIRST ANNUAL REPORT:

"THE EXPENDITURES OF MONEY WHICH THIS PROGRAM REQUIRES ARE GREAT.

"LEGISLATIVE AND EXECUTIVE AUTHORITIES MUST CONSTANTLY WEIGH THE STATE OF WORLD CONDITIONS, THE MILITARY NEEDS OF THE COUNTRY, AND THE EFFICIENCY AND ECONOMY WITH WHICH THE AIR FORCE IS CARRYING OUT THE PROGRAM.

"BUT I SOLEMNLY URGE THAT THERE BE MOST CAREFULLY WEIGHED THE IMPORTANCE OF STABILITY AND RESOLUTENESS.

"THIS COUNTRY HAS NONE TOO MUCH TIME TO PROVIDE ITSELF WITH THE MEANS OF ITS OWN PROTECTION.

"IT CANNOT AFFORD THE WASTE OF ITS TIME AND RESOURCES THAT ARE INHERENT IN VACILLATION AND STOP-AND-START PLANNING." JAN 1949

SYMINGTON ALSO DESCRIBED AS "CRITICAL" NEEDS:

1. A "RADAR FENCE" AROUND THE COUNTRY TO WARN OF AIR ATTACK AND D[illegible] THE DEFENSE.

2. ADDITIONAL HOUSING FOR OFFICER AND [illegible]EN AND THEIR FAMILIES TO AVOID LOSS OF TRAINED PERSONNEL WHO CAN'T AFFORD INFLATED CIVILIAN HOUSING COSTS ON THEIR LIVING ALLOWANCES.

3. UNIFIED MEDICAL SERVICES IN THE MILITARY ESTABLISHMENT.

THE SECRETARY'S PROPOSAL FOR A RADAR SCREEN AROUND THE UNITED STATES WAS ASSURED OF QUICK ATTENTION ON CAPITOL HILL. REP.VINSON (D-GA), WHO WILL BE CHAIRMAN OF THE HOUSE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE, HAS INTRODUCED A BILL TO AUTHORIZE IT.

"THE NEED FOR THIS SORT OF PROTECTION IS VERY URGENT," VINSON SAID TODAY "AND IT SHOULD BE ESTABLISHED AT ONCE."

VINSON SAID HIS BILL WILL BE TAKEN UP AS SOON AS THE COMMITTEE IS SELECTED, POSSIBLY BY THE END OF NEXT WEEK. HE ESTIMATED THE RADAR NETWORK WOULD COST AT LEAST $50,000,000 (M).

A PLANE GROUP VARIES IN SIZE WITH THE TYPE OF AIRCRAFT. IN PEACETIME A HEAVY BOMBER GROUP USING B-29 SUPERFORTS HAS 2,300 MEN AND 30 AIRCRAFT. A FIGHTER GROUP HAS 1,900 MEN AT A BASE, AND 75 PLANES. WARTIME GROUPS WOULD BE AT LEAST 50 PERCENT LARGER.

THE 70-GROUP PLAN HAS WARM FRIENDS ON CAPITOL HILL, ALTHOUGH A BILL FORMALLY TO DECLARE THAT SIZE AS A NATIONAL POLICY GOT SIDETRACKED IN THE ADJOURNMENT RUSH LAST JUNE.

THE WHITE HOUSE LAST SPRING OPPOSED SUCH AN EXPANSION BECAUSE OF THE ULTIMATE COST. NEVERTHELESS, THE REPUBLICAN CONTROLLED 80TH CONGRESS VOTED $822,000,000 MORE THAN PRESIDENT TRUMAN ASKED TO START BUILDING PLANES FOR A 70-GROUP PROGRAM. IT GAVE THE PRESIDENT THE SAY ABOUT SPENDING IT.

SYMINGTON SAID THAT CONGRESS BY ITS ACTION HAD MADE THE FOUR-YEAR PROGRAM "AN INTEGRAL PART OF NATIONAL POLICY." ONE AIM, HE SAID, IS "ATTAINING BY 1952 SUPREMACY IN AIR POWER." JAN 1949

IT IS GENERALLY ASSUMED THAT MR. TRUMAN'S FORTHCOMING BUDGET WILL NOT CALL FOR THE FULL AMOUNT NEEDED TO CONTINUE AIRCRAFT PURCHASES AT THE SAME LEVEL.

FORRESTAL SAID SEVEN WEEKS AGO THE PROGRAMS OF HIS THREE MILITARY BRANCHES FACED "ADJUSTMENT" TO FIT THE FISCAL PATTERN. HE IS REPORTED UNOFFICIALLY TO CONTEMPLATE A PROGRAM OF AROUND 50 GROUPS, COMPARED WITH 60 GROUPS NOW OPERATIONS.

IN A RECENT SPEECH, SYMINGTON COMMITTED HIMSELF TO SUPPORT OF MR. TRUMAN'S ECONOMY PROGRAM.

THE PRESIDENT HAS REFUSED TO GO BEYOND $15,000,000,000 FOR DEFENSE NEXT YEAR DESPITE REQUESTS OF THE SERVICES FOR BILLIONS MORE. UNDESCRIPTIVE OF THE "FOUR-YEAR PROGRAM." WHILE 70 COMBAT GROUPS ARE ESSENTIAL TO IT, HE DESCRIBED AS MORE IMPORTANT THE FACT THAT IT PROVIDES FOR:

1. REPLACEMENT OF OBSOLESCENT WORLD WAR II TYPE PLANES WITH TYPES CAPABLE OF MEETING NEW REQUIREMENTS FOR COMBAT.

2. RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT WHICH ASSURE THE BEST POSSIBLE EQUIPMENT FOR THE NATION'S PILOTS.

3. A LONG RANGE STRIKING FORCE TO "CHOKE OFF HOSTILE ATTACK AT ITS SOURCE."

4. NOURISHMENT OF A HEALTHY AIRCRAFT INDUSTRY AND TRAINING OF SKILLED MANPOWER NECESSARY FOR QUICK EXPANSION IN EVENT OF WAR.

THE AIRCRAFT INDUSTRY IS BEHIND SCHEDULE ON NEW PLANE PRODUCTION, THE SECRETARY SAID. HE NOTED THAT "FOR TWO AND A HALF YEARS SINCE V-J DAY WE FAILED TO MAINTAIN THAT MINIMUM LEVEL OF PRODUCTION ESSENTIAL TO A HEALTHY AIRCRAFT INDUSTRY."

WHEN FUNDS FOR SUFFICIENT PRODUCTION WERE PROVIDED LAST MAY, HE SAID, THE INDUSTRY WAS "ILL-PREPARED TO COPE WITH A MULTITUDE OF IM-MEDIATE AND PRESSING EXPANSION PROBLEMS."

SYMINGTON LISTED AS THE WORST PROBLEMS THE TECHNICAL ASPECTS OF TRANSITION FROM PISTOL ENGINES TO JET POWER; LIMITED SUPPLIES OF ESSENTIAL MATERIALS AND PARTS, AND THE NECESSITY OF COMPETING FOR SKILLED LABOR IN A PERIOD OF FULL EMPLOYMENT AND RISING COSTS. HE EXPRESSED BELIEF THE MANUFACTURERS WOULD CATCH UP WITH SCHEDULES BY NEXT JULY.
AMONG SYMINGTON'S LEGISLATIVE PROPOSALS WERE THESE:
1. ADEQUATE FACILITIES FOR RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT OF SUPERSONIC AIRCRAFT AND GUIDED MISSILES.

JAN 1949

A107WX
2. INCREASED AIRBASE FACILITIES TO MEET PRESENT NEEDS AND PREPARE FOR SCHEDULED DEVELOPMENT OF AIRCRAFT.
3. LEGISLATION TO RELIEVE THE AIR FORCE OF SURPLUS PROPERTY DISPOSAL AFTER FEB. 28 AS NOW CONTEMPLATED.
4. AUTHORITY TO RETAIN APPROPRIATIONS UNTIL SPENT INSTEAD OF HAVING ONE OR TWO-YEAR LIMITS.
5. PROVISION FOR FEDERAL AID IN DEVELOPING NEW TRANSPORT PLANES.
6. LEGISLATION TO PERMIT TRANSFER OF OFFICERS AMONG THE THREE SERVICE BRANCHES.
7. A PROGRAM UNDER WHICH THE AIR FORCE WOULD RECEIVE ONE-THIRD OF THE GRADUATES OF WEST POINT AND ANNAPOLIS. AS AN ALTERNATIVE HE PROPOSED AN AIR ACADEMY.
8. ESTABLISHMENT OF A STATUTORY SIZE OF AIR FORCE PERSONNEL TO PERMIT LONG TERM PLANNING AND AVOID FLUCTUATIONS.
~~9. REORGANIZATION OF THE AIR RESERVE PROGRAM.~~

THE SCIENTIST DENIED THE ACCUSATION.
DR.CONDON SAID IN AN INTERVIEW "JOHN MCDOWELL SHOULD EITHER PUT UP OR SHUT UP. HE HAS BEEN TAKING POTSHOTS AT ME IN HIS NEWSPAPER. X X X "I HAVE NEVER CALLED FOR A HEARING. X X X JOHN MCDOWELL NOW ACCUSES ME OF KEEPING SILENT SINCE THE HISS-CHAMBERS AFFAIR. IF THEY DON'T HAVE THE HEARING IT LOOKS LIKE THEY HAVE NOTHING. X X X
"IF I HAD DONE ANYTHING IMPROPER, I SHOULD HAVE BEEN PUT OUT OF MY JOB A LONG TIME AGO. I HOLD A VERY IMPORTANT POSITION WITH ACCESS TO VAST INFORMATION AND IT'S UNFAIR TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE NOT TO WIND THIS UP."
AT HIS HOME IN NEARBY WILKINSBURG, MCDOWELL COMMENTED:
"I THINK HE (CONDON) SHOULD HAVE A HEARING AND I'M PERFECTLY CONTENT AS TO WHAT THE RESULT IS GOING TO BE.
"IN VIEW OF THE FACT THAT I'M NOT NOW A MEMBER OF CONGRESS AND JUDGE WOOD (REP.JOHN S.WOOD, D-GA, NEW HEAD OF THE COMMITTEE) HAS ANNOUNCED HE IS GOING TO GIVE DR.CONDON A HEARING AS SOON AS THE COMMITTEE GETS ORGANIZED, I THINK THAT TAKES CARE OF EVERYTHING."
"THE REASON DR.CONDON HASN'T RECEIVED A HEARING UP TO THIS TIME WAS BECAUSE THOMAS (J.PARNELL THOMAS, R-NJ, FORMER HEAD OF THE COMMITTEE) WAS IN THE HOSPITAL WHEN HE MADE THAT 'WEAKEST LINK' STATEMENT AND INSISTED CONDON'S HEARING NOT BE HELD UNTIL HE (THOMAS) COULD GET OUT OF THE HOSPITAL AND CONDUCT IT HIMSELF."
ANSWERING CONDON'S CHARGE THAT HE, MCDOWELL, "HAS BEEN TAKING POTSHOTS AT ME IN HIS NEWSPAPER," THE FORMER REPUBLICAN CONGRESSMAN SAID:
"IN MY PAPER I HAVE DEFENDED THE COMMITTEE, WHICH HAS BEEN ACCUSED OF 'SMEARING' DR.CONDON. WELL, THE COMMITTEE WAS ALSO ACCUSED OF 'SMEARING' ALGER HISS BUT THAT WAS BEFORE THE PUMPKIN PAPERS ENTERED THE PICTURE."
MCDOWELL DECLINED TO CLARIFY HIS COMMENT THAT HE WAS "CONTENT AS TO WHAT THE RESULT" OF A HEARING FOR DR.CONDON WOULD BE.

(120) NIGHT LEAD DRAFT

WASHINGTON,JAN. 8-(AP)-WITH VOLUNTARY ENLISTMENTS UP, THE ARMY SAID TODAY IT WILL DRAFT NO MEN IN EITHER FEBRUARY OR MARCH. A CALL FOR 5,000 MEN NEXT MONTH WAS CANCELLED.

SECRETARY OF THE ARMY ROYALL SAID THAT VOLUNTARY ENLISTMENTS AND REENLISTMENTS HAVE BEEN AVERAGING 35,000 A MONTH, FILLING ALL REQUIREMENTS.

JAN 1949

HE ADDED:

"AS LONG AS VOLUNTARY ENLISTMENTS AND REENLISTMENTS REMAIN SUFFICIENT TO MAINTAIN THE STRENGTH OF THE ARMY THERE WILL BE NO CALLS FOR INDUCTIONS."

THE ARMY'S PRESENT STRENGTH IS 657,700, INCLUDING 18-YEAR-OLD VOLUNTEERS. THE NAVY AND THE AIR FORCE HAVEN'T FOUND IT NECESSARY TO DRAFT MEN IN PEACETIME TO KEEP THEIR RANKS FILLED.

THE ARMY ANNOUNCEMENT GAVE THE SELECTIVE SERVICE SYSTEM CAUSE FOR CONCERN. DIRECTOR LEWIS B.HERSHEY HAS EXPRESSED FEAR THAT WITH NO WORK TO BE DONE, THE DRAFT BOARD MACHINERY, MANNED FOR THE MOST PART BY VOLUNTEERS, WILL FALL TO PIECES.

VX815PES

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON, JAN 8-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN TOLD THE RESERVE OFFICERS ASSOCIATION TODAY:

"WHEN WORLD PEACE FINALLY IS ACHIEVED--AND I HAVE FAITH IN THAT CULMINATION OF PRESENT EVENTS--THIS NATION CAN AGAIN PLACE ITS ARMED FORCES UPON A PEACETIME FOOTING."

THE CHICAGO DAILY NEWS SAID "THOSE WHO PROFESS TO SEE IN ACHESON A CONFIRMED 'APPEASER' OF RUSSIA MAY EXAGGERATE THE CASE AND MISREAD HIS RECORD X X X YET THE RECORD AND ACHESON'S TEMPERAMENT DO INDICATE THAT HE WILL BE READY TO EXPLOIT EVERY OPPORTUNITY TO IMPROVE RELATIONS WITH OUR FORMIDABLE EX-ALLY."

THE MEMPHIS COMMERCIAL APPEAL SAID "PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S EMPHATIC DENIAL AS TO SOFTENING TOWARD RUSSIA INDICATES THAT THE PROGNOSTICATORS WILL BE WRONG IF THEY MAKE THAT SORT OF SNAP DECISION. DEAN ACHESON IS WELL QUALIFIED FOR THE POST."

THE BOSTON GLOBE SAID ACHESON'S "APPOINTMENT WILL NOT PLEASE THE KREMLIN. IT IS REASONABLE TO BELIEVE THAT MR.ACHESON, A FORTHRIGHT AND POSITIVE MAN, WILL DIRECT AMERICAN POLICY AS REGARDS RUSSIA ALONG THE GENERAL LINES WHICH BEGAN TO APPEAR UNDER SECRETARY JAMES F.BYRNES AND WERE DEVELOPED UNDER MR.MARSHALL.

THE BOSTON HERALD SAID THE "NOMINATION X X X SHOULD BE REASSURING TO THOSE WHO HAD ANY DOUBTS AS TO CONTINUITY OF THE ADMINISTRATION'S FOREIGN POLICY. NOT ONLY IS MR.ACHESON NO STARRY-EYED NEW DEALER, HE HAS BEEN VERY CLOSE TO WALL STREET DURING HIS LEGAL CAREER."

JAN 1949

THE BOSTON TRAVELER SAID "IN PICKING ACHESON AS MARSHALL'S SUCCESSOR, THE PRESIDENT IS FOLLOWING HARD IN THE ROOSEVELT TRADITION. A CHARMING, HIGHLY INTELLIGENT MAN, WITH YEARS OF GOVERNMENT EXPERIENCE, HE IS A HIGHLY DESIRABLE MAN FOR THE JOB.

THE BOSTON POST SAID "ACHESON HAS AN ESTABLISHED REPUTATION FOR NEGOTIATION AND DEBATE AND ALSO CAN BOAST OF THE UNDYING ENMITY OF FOREIGN COMMISSAR MOLOTOV OF THE SOVIET UNION. IT IS CERTAIN THAT THEY ARE NOT THROWING THEIR HATS IN THE AIR AT THE KREMLIN TODAY."

THE DENVER POST SAID "FROM HIS APPOINTMENT WE RECEIVE ASSURANCE THAT PRESENT POLICIES WILL BE SUSTAINED-- AN ASSURANCE WHICH IS MORE THAN WELCOME AT A TIME WHEN SOME OF THE HOUNDS ARE BEGINNING TO TURN OFF THE TRACK AND 'CHASE RABBITS.'"

THE ST.LOUIS GLOBE-DEMOCRAT SAID "THAT MR.ACHESON WAS CHOSEN AND OTHERS MENTIONED WENT ON A SIDE TRACK, WAS A HAPPY MOVE BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN. X X X X WE MAY EXPECT NO DEVIATION FROM POLICIES ALREADY LAID DWN RELATING TO FOREIGN AFFAIRS, AND IT IS QUITE POSSIBLE THEY WILL BE PURSUED WITH EVEN MORE EMPHASIS AND CLARITY THAN WAS THE CASE WITH GENERAL MARSHALL."

THE ST.LOUIS POST-DISPATCH SAID "CERTAINLY IT IS NO REFLECTION ON MARSHALL TO EXPRESS GRATIFICATION THAT THE PRESIDENT HAS TURNED FROM THE MILITARY TO A CIVILIAN IN SELECTING HIS SUCCESSOR. THAT IS HOW IT ORDINARILY SHOULD BE IN A DEMOCRACY. FORTUNATELY A HIGHLY QUALIFIED CIVILIAN WAS AVAILABLE."
THE ST.LOUIS STAR-TIMES SAID "HIS (ACHESON'S) RECORD IS A CONFIDENCE-INSPIRING BALANCE BETWEEN OPPOSITION TO AGGRESSION AND SUPPORT OF INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION."
JAN 1949
THE KANSAS CITY STAR SAID "THE CHOICE OF DEAN ACHESON TO BE SECRETARY OF STATE X X X WILL BE WARMLY APPLAUDED BOTH AT HOME AND EVERYWHERE ABROAD, EXCEPT, PRESUMABLY, IN THE KREMLIN. BY THIS ACTION PRESIDENT TRUMAN NOT ONLY ASSURES THE CONTINUITY OF AMERICAN FOREIGN POLICY BUT KEEPS THE DAY-TO-DAY CONDUCT OF OUR INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS IN EXPERIENCED AND CAPABLE HANDS."
THE INDIANAPOLIS NEWS SAID "THE APPOINTMENT OFFDEAN ACHESON X X X X IN SO CRUCIAL A SPOT AT SO CRITICAL A TIME IS RECOGNITION OF THE FACT THAT HIS UNDERSTANDING OF WORLD PROBLEMS, ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL, HAS MADE HIM A TOWER OF STRENGTH TO ALL RECENT SECRETARIES AT ONE TIME OR ANOTHER."
THE OMAHA WORLD-HERALD SAID THAT IT IS IMPROBABLE THAT ACHESON, "KNOWN AS AN INNOVATOR, COMPROMISER AND CONCILIATOR," WOULD FOLLOW THE MARSHALL PATH UNSWERVINGLY.
"IN ANY EVENT," THE NEWSPAPER ADDED, "THE COUNTRY AND WORLD ARE IN FOR A PERIOD OF UNCERTAINTY WHILE THE NEW AMERICAN SECRETARY OF STATE LEARNS HIS JOB. THE PEACE OF THE WORLD MAY DEPEND ON HOW HE HANDLES IT."
THE SYRACUSE (N.Y.) HERALD-JOURNAL SAID IT WOULD TAKE "GREAT WISDOM, GREAT PATIENCE AND CAUTIOUS COURAGE AND FIRMNESS TO MANAGE OUR FOREIGN RELATIONS SATISFACTORILY AT THIS TIME. THE COUNTRY WISHES HIM LUCK BUT OBVIOUSLY ACHESON MUST PROVE HIMSELF."
JAN 1949

THE DALLAS TIMES HERALD SPECULATED THAT ACHESON, A MUCH YOUNGER MAN THAN MARSHALL, MIGHT ACT WITH MORE VIGOR. IT ADDED: "HIS FOREIGN POLICY ATTITUDE IS LIKELY TO BE SIMILAR TO THAT OF HIS PREDECESSOR, BUT, AS A MEMBER OF THE HOOVER GOVERNMENTAL REORGANIZATION COMMITTEE, HE MAY HAVE DISCOVERED STRUCTURAL WEAKNESSES IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT THAT HE WILL ENDEAVOR TO REMEDY."
THE CHATTANOOGA (TENN.) NEWS-FREE PRESS COMMENTED THAT ACHESON IS A BRILLIANT MAN WITH MUCH EXPERIENCE IN GOVERNMENT AND FOREIGN AFFAIRS. BUT, THE NEWS-FREE PRESS ADDED: "WHEN HE IS MEASURED FOR THE JOB OF HANDLING OUR FOREIGN RELATIONS AT THIS TIME OF DESPERATE STRUGGLE BETWEEN COMMUNISM AND FREEDOM, THERE ARE REGRETTABLE QUESTION MARKS IN HIS RECORD.
"X X X THE MOST SERIOUS QUESTIONS ABOUT HIS RECORD," THE PAPER CONTINUED, "ARISE FROM HIS SUPPORT OF ALGER HISS, THE EX-STATE DEPARTMENT AIDE WHO IS NOW UNDER INDICTMENT, CHARGED WITH HAVING LIED WHEN HE DENIED GIVING SECRET PAPERS TO WHITTAKER CHAMBERS, CONFESSED FORMER COURIER FOR A COMMUNIST SPY RING, AND HIS IDENTIFICATION AS AN APPEASER OF SOVIET RUSSIA."

THE RICHMOND TIMES-DISPATCH SAID "DEAN ACHESON'S APPOINTMENT IS GOOD. MR.ACHESON APPEARS TO BE THE BEST EQUIPPED OF THOSE WHO WERE PROMINENTLY MENTIONED FOR THE POST."
"DEAN ACHESON," SAID THE MINNEAPOLIS TRIBUNE, "BRINGS TO HIS JOB MORE ACQUAINTANCE WITH FOREIGN AFFAIRS AND MORE INTIMATE KNOWLEDGE OF THE DEPARTMENT THAN MOST OTHER MEN CONSIDERED FOR THE SECRETARY-SHIP."
JAN 1949
THE ST.PAUL PIONEER PRESS EDITORIALIZED:
"BY CHOOSING DEAN ACHESON, WHO HAD A PART IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE PRESENT AMERICAN FOREIGN POLICY, PRESIDENT TRUMAN BOTH APPOINTS A MAN OF OBVIOUS QUALIFICATION AND MAKES IT PLAIN THAT THERE IS NO BASIS FOR TALK ABOUT A CHANGE IN THAT POLICY."
THE MINNEAPOLIS STAR SAID: "IF AN EASIER POLICY TOWARD RUSSIA CAN HELP BUILD LASTING PEACE--WITHOUT UNDERMINING PRESENT STRATEGIC ADVANTAGES OR SACRIFICING LITTLE ALLIES AS WE SACRIFICED POLAND, HUNGARY, CZECHOSLOVAKIA ETC.--THEN MORE POWER TO MR.TRUMAN AND HIS NEW STATE DEPARTMENT STAFF."
"FOR THE SAKE OF ALL OF US," SAID THE DETROIT NEWS, "HIS (ACHESON'S COUNTRYMEN WILL HOPE THAT ONE WHO UNTIL NOW HAS ALWAYS BEEN SECOND TO A CHIEF WILL EXPAND WITH THE WIDENED OPPORTUNITY AND REVEAL A STATURE IN KEEPING WITH ITS CHALLENGE."
SAID THE NASHVILLE TENNESSEAN: "DEAN ACHESON X X X IS WELL QUALIFIED TO TAKE OVER CONDUCT OF OUR FOREIGN RELATIONS IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE WISH OF PRESIDENT TRUMAN. HIS FEET ARE ON THE GROUND AND HE HAS THE BENEFIT OF EXPERIENCE UNDER A WISE LEADER."
THE NASHVILLE BANNER SAID: "FURTHER EVIDENCE OF MR.TRUMAN'S DETERMINATION TO GO ALL OUT WITH A RESURRECTED 'NEW DEAL' IS HIS APPOINTMENT OF DEAN ACHESON TO SUCCEED GEORGE C.MARSHALL AT THE STATE DEPARTMENT HELM. X X X THE SELECTION FINALLY MADE WAS LESS OBNOXIOUS THAN SOME OF THE OTHERS WOULD HAVE BEEN."
THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE SAID PRESIDENT TRUMAN "MIGHT AS WELL HAVE NAMED ALGER HISS. X X X THEY (ACHESON AND HISS) WERE WIDELY RECOGNIZED AS LEADERS OF THE PRO-SOVIET BLOC. ACHESON WAS THE REAL FATHER OF THE MARSHALL PLAN. THE GIVEAWAY SCHEME ORIGINALLY INCLUDED GIFTS TO RUSSIA. HE HAS A LONG RECORD OF PRO-RUSSIAN CONDUCT BEFORE THEN -- CONDUCT SO PRO-RUSSIAN THAT THERE IS EVIDENCE ON WHICH TO CONSIDER IT ANTI-AMERICAN."
"X X X OUR EUROPEAN FRIENDS," SAID THE LOS ANGELES TIMES, "ARE NOT LIKELY TO FORGET THAT, AS UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE, HE (ACHESON)

WAS ONE OF THE ARCHITECTS OF RUSSIAN APPEASEMENT."

THE LOS ANGELES HERALD EXPRESS: "X X X THERE IS A STRONG BELIEF IN WASHINGTON, DESPITE PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S STATEMENT TO THE CONTRARY, THAT ACHESON'S APPOINTMENT POINTS TOWARD A NEW SOVIET APPEASEMENT POLICY."

THE LOS ANGELES MIRROR CALLED ACHESON "A WISE CHOICE. X X X HE HAS A LONG RECORD AS A LIBERAL AND A PROGRESSIVE X X X."

RU825PES

HIS FRIENDS SAY HIS BELIEF IN THE SYSTEM IS NO LESS STRONG NOW.

BUT IN ADDITION TO THE FACT THAT HE HAS REPUBLICAN CRITICS IN CONGRESS, ACHESON IS A PARTY DEMOCRAT WHO, ACCORDING TO HIS FRIENDS, CONSISTENTLY SUPPORTED MR.TRUMAN IN THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION LAST FALL.

IN THAT RESPECT, ACHESON WILL FIT MORE SNUGLY INTO THE OFFICIAL FAMILY THAN DID MARSHALL. HE HAS HAD CLOSE CONTACT WITH MR.TRUMAN AND THERE IS REPORTED TO BE A STRONG PERSONAL LIKING BETWEEN THE TWO MEN.

IT IS EXPECTED, THEREFORE, THAT THE PRESIDENT MAY RELY ON ACHESON FOR COUNSEL IN MANY FIELDS OF GENERAL ADMINISTRATION POLICY.

AS FOR FOREIGN AFFAIRS, LOVETT INDICATED TO A NEWS CONFERENCE YESTERDAY THAT HE EXPECTS ONE OF ACHESON'S FIRST TASKS WILL BE TO HELP GUIDE TO A SUCCESSFUL CONCLUSION THE CURRENT NEGOTIATIONS FOR A NORTH ATLANTIC ALLIANCE.

THE PROPOSED PACT IS EXPECTED TO BIND THE UNITED STATES, CANADA, BRITAIN, FRANCE, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG INTO A TIGHT DEFENSIVE RING AGAINST RUSSIAN EXPANSION, WITH OTHER ANTI-COMMUNIST NATIONS LIKELY TO BE INVITED IN LATER.

PARALLELING THIS IS A PROPOSAL TO GRANT U.S. MILITARY AID TO THE COOPERATING WESTERN EUROPEAN NATIONS.

AS SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON WILL HAVE TO CARRY THE BALL BEFORE CONGRESS FOR THOSE PROPOSED NEW EXTENSIONS OF THE GOVERNMENT'S STOP RUSSIA FOREIGN POLICY.

HE ALSO WILL HAVE A LEADING ROLE IN APPEALING FOR MORE BILLIONS TO FINANCE THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM FOR THE SECOND OF THE FOUR YEARS IT IS SCHEDULED TO RUN.

IT IS HERE THAT HIS RELATIONS WITH THE LAWMAKERS, MANY OF WHOM HAVE CRITICIZED HIM IN THE PAST, WILL LOOM LARGE.

ACHESON CAME UNDER HEAVY FIRE IN THE SENATE IN 1945, WHEN HE WAS NOMINATED TO BE UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE.

AT THAT TIME, SENATOR WHERRY OF NEBRASKA, NOW THE REPUBLICAN FLOOR LEADER, LED A FIGHT TO SEND THE NOMINATION BACK TO COMMITTEE ON THE GROUND THAT ACHESON HAD REBUKED GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR ABOUT OCCUPATION POLICIES IN JAPAN.

THE MOVE WAS BEATEN, 66 TO 12. FIVE OF THOSE 12, INCLUDING WHERRY, REMAIN IN THE SENATE.

ALL BUT WHERRY, HOWEVER, FINALLY VOTED FOR CONFIRMATION. THE VOTE WAS 69 TO 1.

TODAY, IN A STATEMENT ISSUED THROUGH HIS OFFICE, WHERRY SAID HE IS JUST AS MUCH OPPOSED TO ACHESON NOW AS HE WAS IN 1945. WHERRY EMPHASIZED THAT HE WAS VOICING HIS PERSONAL VIEWS. HE SAID HE NOT TALKED WITH OTHER REPUBLICANS ABOUT THE MATTER.

THIS TIME, ACHESON'S STATE DEPARTMENT RELATIONS WITH ALGER HISS SEEMED LIKELY TO COME UNDER SCRUTINY WHILE THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE IS CONSIDERING HIS CONFIRMATION.

HISS FACES A PERJURY INDICTMENT IN CONNECTION WITH THE FILCHING OF SECRET STATE DEPARTMENT DOCUMENTS, COPIES OF WHICH WERE FOUND IN A PUMPKIN ON THE FARM OF WHITTAKER CHAMBERS, ADMITTED FORMER COMMUNIST COURIER.

REP.MCDOWELL (R-PA), A MEMBER OF THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE, RECENTLY QUOTED ADOLF BERLE, FORMER STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIAL AS HAVING TESTIFIED IN CLOSED SESSION THAT ACHESON ONCE VOUCHED FOR HISS WHEN BERLE CHECKED UP ON A "RED NETWORK" REPORT HE GOT FROM CHAMBERS.

THERE WAS NO APPARENT OPPOSITION TO WEBB AS UNDERSECRETARY, EVEN THOUGH SOME SENATORS GRUMBLED PRIVATELY THAT HE MIGHT LACK EXPERIENCE IN THE INTERNATIONAL FIELD.

THE PRESIDENT'S PROMOTION OF FRANK PACE, NOW ASSISTANT, TO BUDGET DIRECTOR, GENERALLY WAS APPROVED.

JAN 1949

DESPITE THE REPUBLICAN UPRISING OVER THE DEMOCRATIC SEIZURE OF A THREE-MAN MAJORITY ON THE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE, SENATOR CONNALLY (D-TEX), NEW CHAIRMAN OF THE COMMITTEE, PREDICTED THAT ACHESON WOULD BE CONFIRMED. THIS SEEMED CERTAIN IF ONLY IN VIEW OF THE DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY.

BESIDES IT IS CUSTOMARY FOR THE SENATE TO GO ALONG WITH A PRESIDENTIAL CABINET CHOICE.

SENATOR SMITH R-NJ ALSO URGED THAT THE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE EXPLORE WITH ACHESON HIS "VIEWS ON THE PENDING CRITICAL ISSUES OF OUR FOREIGN POLICY.

SMITH CALLED ACHESON AND JAMES WEBB, NAMED AS UNDERSECRETARY, TWO DISTINGUISHED AMERICANS WITH A BACKGROUND OF WIDE EXPERIENCE AND IMPORTANT NATIONAL SERVICE.

SENATOR MUNDT R-SD, FORMER MEMBER OF THE HOUSE COMMITTEE INVESTIGATING UNAMERICAN ACTIVITIES, SUGGESTED THAT THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE HEAR TESTIMONY FROM WHITTAKER CHAMBERS, ADMITTED FORMER COMMUNIST COURIER, AND ADOLF A.BERLE,JR., FORMER ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE, ON THE ACHESON APPOINTMENT.

JAN 1949

MUNDT ALSO URGED THAT FORMER AMBASSADOR LANE BE CALLED AS A WITNESS, ADDING:

"I HAVE NO PERSONAL INFORMATION OR REASONS FOR BELIEVING THAT DEAN ACHESON WOULD NOT NOW SUPPORT AND FAVOR A PROGRAM DESIGNED TO PROTECT AMERICA AND THE FREE AREAS OF THE WORLD AGAINST FURTHER OPPRESSIVE INVASIONS BY THE COMMUNIST CONSPIRACY."

MUNDT ASSERTED THAT "LIKE MANY OTHER AMERICANS," AT ONE TIME ACHESON "APPEARED TO FAVOR AN APPEASEMENT PROGRAM TOWARD RUSSIA WHICH THE MARCH OF EVENTS AND AN ANALYSIS OF COMMUNIST OBJECTIVES DEMONSTRATED TO BE AN ATTITUDE DANGEROUS TO THE PRESERVATION OF PEACE AND THE PROTECTION OF OUR NATIONAL SECURITY."

MUNDT DID NOT EXPLAIN IN HIS STATEMENT WHY HE THOUGHT THE THREE MEN SHOULD BE CALLED.

BERLE TESTIFIED LAST AUGUST BEFORE THE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE, AND WENT INTO STATE DEPARTMENT BEHIND-THE-SCENES AFFAIRS DURING 1944 WHEN RUSSIA WAS OUR WARTIME ALLY. HE DISCLOSED THAT TWO GROUPS IN THE DEPARTMENT WERE SPLIT IN THEIR VIEWS ABOUT

RUSSIA, ONE BEING "MR.ACHESON'S GROUP." ACHESON WAS UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE.

BERLE ADHERED, HE SAID, TO A GROUP WHICH FELT THAT THE RUSSIANS WERE NOT GOING TO BE SYMPATHETIC OR COOPERATIVE, WHILE THE "ACHESON GROUP" TOOK AN OPPOSITE POSITION. ONE GROUP, HE SAID, FAVORED A STRONGER POLICY TOWARD RUSSIA, AND THE OTHER WANTED TO PLAY DOWN FRICTION BETWEEN WASHINGTON AND MOSCOW.

BERLE SAID THAT ALGER HISS BELONGED TO THE ACHESON GROUP. HISS, THEN A STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIAL, NOW IS UNDER INDICTMENT FOR PERJURY IN DENYING THAT HE GAVE CHAMBERS SECRET STATE DEPARTMENT PAPERS SOME SIX YEARS BEFORE THE POLICY SITUATION DESCRIBED BY BERLE.

ARTHUR BLISS LANE, AMBASSADOR TO POLAND IN THE PERIOD AFTER THE WAR, DECLINED TO COMMENT ON MUNDT'S SUGGESTION THAT HE BE CALLED.

LANE, IN A BOOK ON HIS EXPERIENCES, WAS CRITICAL OF STATE DEPARTMENT POLICY TOWARD THE POLISH COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT UNDER ACHESON. HE DESCRIBED THE POLICY AS "FINANCIAL APPEASEMENT" OF POLAND AND OTHER RED SATELLITE STATES.

IN JUNE, 1947, ACHESON ATTRACTED THE ANGER OF RUSSIA BY A SPEECH IN WHICH HE SAID RUSSIAN POLICY WAS RETARDING WORLD RECOVERY. HE WAS BITTERLY ASSAILED BY THE OFFICIAL COMMUNIST NEWSPAPER.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN WAS ASKED YESTERDAY WHETHER THE ACHESON APPOINTMENT PORTENDED ANY CHANGE IN THE STIFF POLICY TOWARD RUSSIA AND HE EMPHASIZED THAT IT DOES NOT.

VANDENBERG, WHO WAS CHAIRMAN OF THE COMMITTEE IN THE 80TH CONGRESS, EXPRESSED DEEP REGRET IN HIS STATEMENT AT THE RETIREMENT OF SECRETARY MARSHALL, WHOM HE CALLED "ONE OF THE GREAT AMERICANS OF ALL TIME.

THE SENATOR ALSO SAID HE WAS REGRETFUL OVER THE RETIREMENT OF UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE ROBERT LOVETT.

THE PRESIDENT'S FAILURE TO CONSULT WITH VANDENBERG IS LIKELY TO BE SEIZED UPON BY ADMINISTRATION CRITICS AS ANOTHER SIGN THAT THE BI-PARTISAN FOREIGN POLICY HAS BEEN DEALT A BLOW.

CAPEHART WAS OUTSPOKEN IN HIS CRITICISM OF THE SENATE DEMOCRATS IN VOTING THEMSELVES EIGHT OF THE 13 SEATS ON THE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE. THE RATIO IN THE REPUBLICAN CONGRESS WAS 7 TO 6.

CAPEHART, WHO HAS GONE ALONG RELUCTANTLY ON SOME FOREIGN AFFAIRS ISSUES IN THE PAST, SAID HE THINKS THE TIME HAS COME FOR REPUBLICANS TO SPEAK UP ON FOREIGN, AS WELL AS DOMESTIC, ISSUES.

"IT IS JUST AS FUNDAMENTALLY SOUND AND RIGHT TO DEBATE, ARGUE--AND POSSIBLY DISAGREE--ON FOREIGN POLICY AS ON DOMESTIC POLICY," HE DECLARED.

"IF WE ARE GOING TO BE THE WORLD'S LEADER, THEN WE MUST WORK OUT POLICIES BY DEBATING THEM FULLY AND DECIDING WHAT IS BEST TO DO. WE CAN'T JUST GO ALONG BLINDLY WITH EVERYTHING THE ADMINISTRATION PROPOSES."

THE CHANGE IN PARTY RATIOS ON THE COMMITTEE WAS VIGOROUSLY PROTESTED BY VANDENBERG AND SENATOR MORSE (R-ORE), AS WELL AS OTHER REPUBLICANS IN THE SENATE LAST WEEK.

A PREDICTION BY MORSE THAT IT WOULD PUT VANDENBERG AT A DISADVANTAGE IN ATTEMPTS TO RALLY GOP MEMBERS BEHIND NEW ADMINISTRATION PROGRAMS SEEMED TO HAVE MATURED IN CAPEHART'S STATEMENT.

VANDENBERG TOLD THE SENATE THURSDAY THE SHIFT WAS "IMPLICIT WITH HOSTILITY," INDICATING THE DEMOCRATS DIDN'T THINK REPUBLICANS WERE "TRUSTWORTHY" IN VITAL INTERNATIONAL QUESTIONS.

DEMOCRATS, LED BY SENATOR BARKLEY OF KENTUCKY, THE VICE PRESIDENT ELECT, DENIED ANY SUCH INTENT.

FRIENDS QUOTED VANDENBERG AS HAVING SAID PRIVATELY THAT HE NO LONGER CAN ACCEPT THE RESPONSIBILITY HE HAS HAD IN THE PAST IN HELPING PUSH FOREIGN PROPOSALS THROUGH CONGRESS AND IN AIDING AT INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCES.

IT IS HIS POSITION, THEY SAID, THAT WITH DEMOCRATS CERTAIN OF FOUR-YEAR CONTROL OF THE WHITE HOUSE, HE CANNOT BE EXPECTED TO BE A FRONT-RANK BURDEN BEARER AS HE HAS BEEN IN THE PAST.

JAN 1949

MORSE TOLD A REPORTER HE THINKS THE DEMOCRATS WILL FIND THE REPUBLICANS IN CONGRESS DEALING WITH THEM "AT ARMS LENGTH" AS A RESULT OF THE EIGHT TO FIVE DIVISION THEY FORCED.

SENATOR KNOWLAND, (R-CALIF) SAID HE THINKS THE DEMOCRATIC ACTION ON THE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE LINEUP WILL MAKE IT DIFFICULT FOR VANDENBERG TO ARGUE WITH SOME GOP COLLEAGUES THAT THEY OUGHT TO SUPPORT THE BIPARTISAN FOREIGN POLICY.

AGREEING, SENATOR HICKENLOOPER (R-IOWA) SAID HE DOESN'T THINK THE ACTION WILL AFFECT REPUBLICAN VOTES WITHIN THE COMMITTEE ITSELF.

"IT'S ON THE FLOOR THAT THE EFFECT WILL BECOME APPARENT," HE SAID.

SOME DEMOCRATS SAID THEY THOUGHT THE COMMITTEE CHANGE A MISTAKE. ONE OF THESE, WHO DIDN'T WANT TO BE QUOTED BY NAME FOR OBVIOUS REASONS, SAID SENATOR CONNALLY COULD HAVE DEMANDED THAT THE SEVEN TO SIX RATIO BE RETAINED, BUT DIDN'T.

LAKE SUCCESS, JAN 8-(AP)-UNITED NATIONS DELEGATES PLAN WEEKEND CONSULTATIONS IN HOPES OF FINDING A WAY OF PLACATING COUNTRIES ANGERED BY THE SECURITY COUNCIL'S HANDLING OF THE INDONESIAN QUESTION.

AFTER NEARLY THREE HOURS OF VIGOROUS CRITICISM FROM A BLOC OF PACIFIC NATIONS YESTERDAY, THE COUNCIL ADJOURNED WITHOUT TAKING ANY ACTION. IT SCHEDULED A MEETING FOR 3 P.M. (EST) TUESDAY, LEAVING MONDAY OPEN TO ALLOW TIME FOR THE DRAFTING OF NEW RESOLUTIONS ON THE CASE.

THE PACIFIC BLOC, JOINED BY EGYPT, DELIVERED A SLASHING ATTACK ON THE COUNCIL'S ACTION AND THE DUTCH ATTEMPT TO SETTLE THE INDONESIAN PROBLEM BY FORCE OF ARMS.

THE 11-NATION COUNCIL ADOPTED A RESOLUTION IN PARIS LAST MONTH CALLING UPON THE NETHERLANDS TO CEASE FIRING IN INDONESIA AND RELEASE REPUBLICAN POLITICAL LEADERS WHO WERE INTERNED.

J.H.VAN ROYEN, NETHERLANDS DELEGATE, TOLD THE COUNCIL YESTERDAY DUTCH HOSTILITIES HAD CEASED AND THAT THE POLITICAL PRISONERS WERE RELEASED FROM CUSTODY. FOUR OF THE LEADERS, PRESIDENT SOEKARNO, PREMIER MOHAMED HATTA, FORMER PREMIER SUTAN SJARIR AND FOREIGN MINISTER HADJI AGOES SALIM, STILL ARE CONFINED TO BANGKA ISLAND, OFF SUMATRA, VAN ROYEN SAID. HE ADDED THAT THEY HAD COMPLETE FREEDOM ON THE ISLAND.

BRIG. GEN. CARLOS P. ROMULO OF THE PHILIPPINES AND L.N. PALAR, INDONESIAN DELEGATE, DECLARED THE FOUR MEN WERE STILL HELD IN CUSTODY AND DEMANDED THEIR IMMEDIATE RELEASE. AN INDONESIAN SPOKESMAN SAID THE DUTCH CHOSE BANGKA ISLAND "BECAUSE IT HAS A LARGE CHINESE POPULATION AND A SMALL INDONESIAN POPULATION."

ROMULO ASSAILED THE COUNCIL FOR WHAT HE TERMED VACILLATIONS, CONTRADICTIONS, AND INDECISION IN HANDLING THE INDONESIAN QUESTION.

DELEGATES FROM INDIA, AUSTRALIA AND EGYPT JOINED ROMULO AND PALAR

IN DEMANDING IMMEDIATE COUNCIL ACTION TO FORCE THE DUTCH FULLY TO RESPECT THE COUNCIL'S RESOLUTION. THEY CRITICIZED THE COUNCIL FOR NOT ORDERING THE NETHERLANDS TO WITHDRAW HER TROOPS TO POSITIONS HELD BEFORE THE DUTCH OFFENSIVE BEGAN DEC. 19.

PALAR SAID INDONESIA WAS JUST BEGINNING TO FIGHT A GUERRILLA WAR AGAINST THE DUTCH. HE CRITICIZED A NETHERLANDS STATEMENT WHICH SAID DUTCH TROOPS MIGHT HAVE TO TAKE ACTION AGAINST "ROVING GROUPS WHO ATTEMPTS TO CAUSE UNREST." SUCH GROUPS, PALAR SAID, ARE UNITS OF THE REPUBLICAN ARMY ENGAGED IN A WAR OF SELF-DEFENSE.

THE DUTCH DELEGATE SAID IT IS HIS COUNTRY'S INTENTION TO SET UP AN INDEPENDENT UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA WHICH EVENTUALLY WOULD BECOME A FULL-FLEDGED MEMBER OF THE U.N.

BATAVIA, JAVA, JAN.8-(AP)-THE NETHERLANDS GOVERNMENT SAID TODAY REPUBLICAN PRESIDENT SOEKARNO HAS WRITTEN HIS DUTCH GUARDS THAT 95 PER CENT OF THE NETHERLANDS NATION IS JUST AS MUCH A VICTIM OF COLONIALISM AS THE INDONESIANS.

IT WAS THE FIRST WORD DIRECT FROM SOEKARNO SINCE HE AND OTHER REPUBLICAN LEADERS CAPTURED BY THE DUTCH WERE FLOWN FROM THEIR CAPITAL OF JOGJAKARTA. DUTCH OFFICIALS SAID THE LETTER WAS WRITTEN DEC.31 WHILE SOEKARNO WAS HELD AT BRASTAGI, IN SOUTHERN SUMATRA.

THE DUTCH ALSO RELEASED A STATEMENT, PURPORTEDLY SIGNED BY SOEKARNO, FOREIGN MINISTER HADJI AGUS SALIM AND FORMER PREMIER SUTAN SJAHRIR, THAT THEY WERE WELL TREATED.

SOEKARNO WAS QUOTED AS SAYING: "I DO NOT HATE NETHERLANDERS. I ONLY HATE THE COLONIAL RELATIONSHIP AND IMPERIALISM. WHY SHOULD I HATE THE NETHERLANDS PEOPLE? NINETY FIVE PER CENT OF THE NETHERLANDS IS JUST AS MUCH A VICTIM OF THIS COLONIAL RELATIONSHIP AS THE INDONESIAN PEOPLE WHO NOW ARE TRYING TO ATTAIN THEIR LIBERTY."

A UNITED NATIONS SPOKESMAN SAID U.N. TEAMS OF MILITARY OBSERVERS WILL RETURN TO OPERATIONAL AREAS IN JAVA AND SUMATRA SUNDAY.

MILITARY OBSERVERS--FROM THE UNITED STATES, CHINA, BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM AND AUSTRALIA--WERE WITHDRAWN ON DUTCH ORDERS AT THE START OF HOSTILITIES DEC.19.

A U.N. GOOD OFFICES SPOKESMAN SAID THE NETHERLANDS NOW HAS GRANTED THE TEAMS PERMISSION TO RETURN TO OUTLYING REGIONS.

BANGKOK, JAN. 8-(AP)-SIAM OFFICIALLY NOTIFIED INDIA TODAY THAT THE GOVERNMENT CAN NOT ACCEPT PRIME MINISTER NEHRU'S INVITATION TO ATTEND THE SOUTHEAST ASIA CONFERENCE IN NEW DELHI ON THE INDONESIAN QUESTION.

THE NOTIFICATION WAS GIVEN IN AN AIDE MEMOIRE HANDED THE INDIAN MINISTER. THE GOVERNMENT GAVE AS ITS REASON FOR DECLINING THE INVITATION THAT THE KINGDOM WAS PLEDGED TO THE FULL SUPPORT OF THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL IN THE MATTER.

FOREIGN MINISTER PRINCE PRIDITHEPPONG DEVAKUL SAID IN THE NOTE:

"THE SIAMESE GOVERNMENT DESIRES TO AWAIT THE OUTCOME OF FURTHER ENDEAVORS OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL WHICH IS NOW DEALING WITH THE MATTER AND WILL ABIDE BY ANY DECISION REACHED."

TO NEWSMEN THE FOREIGN MINISTER SAID SIAM WAS DEEPLY SYMPATHETIC WITH THE CAUSE OF HER NEIGHBOR BUT HESITATED TO TAKE ANY ACTION WHICH MIGHT CONTRIBUTE TOWARD UNDERMINING CONFIDENCE IN THE UNITED NATIONS.

NEW YORK, JAN. 8-(AP)-FRANCIS CARDINAL SPELLMAN DISCLOSED TODAY THAT IN 1947 HE ASKED THE WAR DEPARTMENT TO TAKE "EVERY POSSIBLE CARE" OF HUNGARY'S CROWN OF ST. STEPHEN.

THE CROWN IS AT PRESENT IN THE POSSESSION OF THE AMERICAN MILITARY GOVERNMENT IN GERMANY.

JAN 1949

LAST MONTH JOSEPH CARDINAL MIDSZENTY, PRIMATE OF HUNGARY, WAS ARRESTED BY THE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT, CHARGED, AMONG OTHER THINGS, WITH HINDERING THE RETURN OF THE CROWN TO THE HUNGARIAN GOVERNMENT.

THE CROWN IS AN HISTORIC RELIGIOUS RELIC, WORN BY HUNGARY'S FIRST KING. IT WAS TAKEN DURING THE WAR BY THE GERMANS BUT WAS RECOVERED BY THE AMERICANS.

CARDINAL SPELLMAN SAID IN A STATEMENT THAT WHEN CARDINAL MIDSZENTY WAS IN THE UNITED STATES HE EXPRESSED THE DESIRE THAT THE CROWN BE KEPT FROM THE COMMUNIST LEADERS OF HUNGARY.

THE ARCHBISHOP OF NEW YORK ALSO MADE PUBLIC A LETTER HE WROTE TO AN UNIDENTIFIED PERSON IN EUROPE IN WHICH HE SAID:

"I AM INFORMED THAT THE CROWN IS CONSIDERED TO BE THE PROPERTY OF THE HUNGARIAN PEOPLE.

"ALL THINGS BEING CONSIDERED I FEAR THAT THERE MAY BE NO LEGAL WAY IN WHICH THE UNITED STATES AUTHORITIES MAY RETAIN THE CROWN OF ST.STEPHEN AND CERTAINLY THERE IS NO WAY WHICH IS ADEQUATE UNDER THE PRESCRIPTIONS OF INTERNATIONAL LAW WHEREBY THE CROWN MIGHT BE ENTRUSTED TO THE HOLY SEE."

CARDINAL SPELLMAN SAID THAT IN 1947, AT CARDINAL MIDSZENTY'S REQUEST, HE WROTE THEN SECRETARY OF WAR PATTERSON, ASKING THAT "EVERY POSSIBLE CARE BE TAKEN OF THE SACRED CROWN OF HUNGARY X X X."

IN HIS LETTER TO SECRETARY PATTERSON, ALSO MADE PUBLIC TODAY, CARDINAL SPELLMAN SAID:

"THE CROWN IS AN OBJECT OF GREAT VENERATION AMONG THE HUNGARIAN PEOPLE AND CARDINAL MIDSZENTY ASKS THAT THE SUPREME AMERICAN MILITARY COMMAND IF POSSIBLE SAFEGUARD IT IN THIS COUNTRY OR ENTRUST IT TO THE CARE OF HIS HOLINESS, POPE PIUS XII."

CARDINAL SPELLMAN SAID HIS LETTER WAS FORWARDED TO THE STATE DEPARTMENT BUT THAT HE HAD RECEIVED NO REPLY FROM THE DEPARTMENT.

NEW YORK, JAN 8-(AP)-COMMUNISTS AS WELL AS NON-COMMUNISTS ARE DISSATISFIED WITH LIVING CONDITIONS AND THE RED REGIME IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA, A RELATIVE OF THE LATE CZECH PRESIDENT EDUARD BENES SAID TODAY.

"THE PEOPLE HAVE LESS FOOD AND MORE WORK," MRS. HANA BENES, NIECE BY MARRIAGE OF THE LATE PRESIDENT, SAID AFTER HER ARRIVAL ABOARD THE FRENCH LINER DE GRASSE.

British Mass Ships, Troops In Middle East to Back Up 'Strong Protest' to Israel

TENSION MOUNTS OVER DOWNING OF FIVE RAF PLANES

Jews File Own Complaint as British Forces Arrive in Trans-Jordan

SAY NEGEV IMPERILED

Egypt Plans to Go Ahead with Scheduled Peace Talks in Rhodes

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Britain backed with troops and warships yesterday her "strong protest" to Israel against the shooting down of five R.A.F. fighter planes.

She still, however, could induce no representative of Israel to accept the protest. An Israeli representative in Haifa declined to accept it because it was addressed to "Jewish authorities in Tel Aviv" instead of his government, which Britain refuses to recognize.

Israel's United Nations delegation declined to receive it in New York for the same reason. Britain may have to ask some third country to present it.

British Mass Fighting Power

The Israeli government, watching a growing concentration of British fighting power in the tense Mediterranean area, filed a protest of its own with the United Nations office in Haifa.

The complaint charged the landing of British troops at Oqaba in Trans-Jordan "can have no purpose but to threaten Israel' territory in the southern part of the Negev."

The Trans-Jordan government acknowledged the British troops had landed at Oqaba at the request of King Abdullah to protect the strategic Red Sea port. London sources said more Tommies would join them.

Two royal navy frigates sailed from Malta for Cyprus, near the Palestine coast. A British marine commando brigade was alerted at Malta to sail to an undisclosed Middle East base. The admiralty in London said the aircraft carrier Triumph and the cruiser Phoebe have been recalled from a Mediterranean cruise to join a British fleet at Malta.

R.A.F. airmen are under orders to "regard as hostile" any Israeli planes sighted over Egypt.

Cairo Denies Asking Aid

In Cairo the Egyptian foreign office said it has not asked Britain for help under their 1936 mutual assistance treaty. The spokesman said Egypt plans to go ahead with the scheduled peace talks in Rhodes with representatives of Israel because the Jews "have now ceased fire."

He charged that 115 persons including 89 women and children were killed when Jewish planes bombed an Arab refugee camp at Deir al Balah in Palestine a few hours after the cease-fire deadline and that Israelis mined roads in Egypt after the deadline.

Earlier Egyptian Prime Minister Abdel Hamid Pasha had received Chapman Andrews, British minister, and Jefferson Patterson, U. S. charge d'affaires, but there was no mention of what they discussed. Egyptian dispatches are subject to censorship.

Britain's undelivered protest to the Israelis express a "grave view of the x x x unprovoked attacks by Jewish aircraft over Egyptian territory." Britain contends five RAF planes were shot down in fights over Egypt. Israel says four British planes and one Egyptian plane were shot down, at least three of them over freshly-strafed Israeli soil.

Seen Blow to Peace Hopes

In Kyrenia, Cyprus, John Roderick, Associated Press middle eastern correspondent, wrote that these events have dealt a sharp blow to previously bright hopes for peace in the Holy Land.

He pointed out that the barren Negev desert, for which the Jews and Arabs are fighting, has rich oil and other mineral deposits, and that whoever controls it also controls the mineral-rich Red Sea.

Roderick disclosed that as recently as 10 days ago Trans-Jordan and Iraq refused to join Egypt in the Negev fighting.

"The plain fact is that Britain feels she cannot permit a nation she considers antagonistic to hold this sandy protective barrier (the Negev) to the Suez Canal and Trans-Jordan's port of Aqaba," he wrote. Aqaba straddles vital British land routes, one of which could carry oil if she lost control of the Suez in wartime. It is Trans-Jordan's only port.

No fighting was reported in Palestine as Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, acting U.N. mediator, left New York by plane en route to the Rhodes armistice talks.

Soldiers Sent To Aqaba When Trans-Jordan Invokes Treaty

London, Jan. 9 (AP)—Britain concentrated warships and troops in the Mediterranean area today to back up her "strong protest" to Israel against the shooting down of five Royal Air Force planes Friday.

A show of military and naval strength backing Britain's Arab allies seemed in the making.

Two Royal Navy frigates sailed from Malta for Cyprus, near the Palestine coast. A brigade of Marine commandos was alerted at Malta for shipment to an undisclosed British base in the Middle East.

Carrier And Cruiser Get Orders

An Admiralty spokesman said the aircraft carrier, Triumph, and the cruiser, Phoebe, which have been cruising in the Mediterranean, have been recalled to Malta to join other British warships concentrated there. A dispatch from Malta said shore leave for all British sailors was canceled last night.

The British Foreign Office announced yesterday that troops had been sent from the Suez Canal zone to Trans-Jordan's Red Sea port of Aqaba. A Trans-Jordan Government spokesman in Amman confirmed that the British troops had arrived in Aqaba at the request of Trans-Jordan.

London sources said more troops probably would be sent to Aqaba. By moving into Aqaba, British troops have reinforced at least a portion of Trans-Jordan's frontier with Palestine. Britain also has threatened to shoot down any Israeli planes flying over Egyptian territory.

Meanwhile, the Israeli Government protested to a United Nations official in Haifa against the landing of British troops in Aqaba, a Tel Aviv dispatch said.

Suggests "Subsequent Action"

Britain's protest concerning Friday's air clashes near the Egyptian-Palestine frontier was contained in a brief memorandum handed to a representative of the Israeli Foreign Office at Haifa, by Cyril Marriott, British Consul General.

Pointedly, the protest stated that Britain reserves all her rights "both with regard to claims for compensation and to all possible subsequent action."

The protest said the British Government took a "grave view of the . . . unprovoked attacks by Jewish aircraft over Egyptian territory."

Along with the memorandum the Israeli official also was given a copy of yesterday's Air Ministry communiqué announcing the loss of the RAF planes. The communiqué said the British fighters were on reconnaissance flights on the Egyptian side of the frontier when they were attacked.

To Be Viewed As Hostile

RAF airmen "now have been instructed to regard as hostile any Jewish aircraft encountered over Egyptian territory," the communiqué said.

An Israeli spokesman in Tel Aviv denied last night that all five British planes were shot down on the Egyptian side of the border near Rafa. At least three planes, he said, were downed on the Palestine side of the frontier.

The text of the British memorandum:

"His Majesty's Government takes a grave view of the events recorded in the attached statement issued by the Air Ministry which have resulted in the loss of five British aircraft as a result of unprovoked attacks by Jewish aircraft over Egyptian territory.

Reports Notice To Bunche

"They have informed the United Nations acting mediator (Dr. Ralph J. Bunche) of these events, and wish also to make a strong protest to the Jewish authorities in Tel Aviv and to reserve all their rights, both with regard to claims for compensation and to all possible subsequent action."

A Foreign Office spokesman said the memorandum turned over to the Israeli representative in Haifa was a copy of the note given last night to the Israeli delegation to the United Nation Security Council in New York.

News of the loss of the five RAF planes brought large headlines in the British press but only two Sunday newspapers commented editorially.

"Something Odd," Paper Says

Advising Britons to withhold judgment "until all the facts are known," the Conservative Observer said:

"There is something odd about both sides of this ugly incident. How could the Israelis mistake whole formations of British planes for attackers? But then, why were whole British formations carrying out reconnaissance flights over a battle in which they were not engaged."

The leftwing newspaper people recalled that it predicted last week the Palestine situation was "bringing Britain close to war with the Jews."

Haifa Britons Deny Report

Haifa, Palestine, Jan. 9 (AP)—Leading British residents denied tonight reports from Tel Aviv that the British consul here had advised them to leave Israel.

"This is completely unfounded and untrue," they said. "We have no intention to leave."

JEWS REJECT TWO BRITISH PROTESTS

Failure To Address Israeli Government Is Reason

Tel Aviv, Palestine, Jan. 9 (AP)—An Israeli representative in Haifa refused today to accept a British protest concerning the shooting down of five Royal Air Force planes Friday.

He did so because the memorandum was addressed to "Jewish authorities in Tel Aviv" and not to the Provisional Government of Israel.

The action was taken on instructions from the Tel Aviv Government.

It was the second such refusal by Israeli authorities in as many days. Britain does not recognize the State of Israel.

Protests Troop Landing

At the same time Israel handed a United Nations office a protest of her own against the landing of British troops at Aqaba, Trans-Jordan's port on the Red Sea.

The Israeli Government said the "presence of British troops at Aqaba can have no purpose but to threaten Israel's territory in the southern part of the Negeb."

Israel's delegation to the United Nations Security Council in New York refused last night to transmit the original British protest to Tel Aviv on the ground it was improperly addressed to "Jewish authorities in Tel Aviv."

Today, Cyril Marriott, British Consul General, handed a copy of the same protest to Harry Beilin, Israeli Foreign Office representative in Haifa. An Israeli spokesman said the same reason applied in the second refusal.

Does Not Imply Recognition

[A British Foreign Office spokesman said the handing of the memorandum to the Israeli official in Haifa did not imply that Britain was legally recognizing the Israeli Government.

[If the British Government wants the protest to reach Tel Aviv it now may be required to transmit it through a third power—such as the United States or Russia—which has diplomatic relations with both Britain and Israel.]

Egypt told the United Nations truce headquarters in Haifa that warlike activity is continuing in Egyptian territory. The complaint said Israeli forces have not yet withdrawn from positions captured yesterday in the region between the border city of Rafa and the Egyptian town of El 'Arish.

Had Agreed To Cease-Fire

Egypt and Israel have agreed to a cease-fire as prelude to armistice talks. The cease-fire deadline was fixed for last Friday afternoon.

There was no reports from United Nations observers today concerning any new activity on the Negeb front.

[An Egyptian Foreign Office spokesman in Cairo said the Israelis bombed an Arab refugee camp in Palestine and mined a road in Egyptian territory after the cease-fire deadline. He said 115 refugees, including 89 women and children, were killed by bombs dropped on the camp at Deir el Balah.]

["We ceased fire completely," the Egyptian said. "We are only defending our positions if attacked."]

Sent To Bunche's Representative

Israel's protest concerning the landing of British troops in Aqaba was contained in a letter sent by Dr. Walter Eytan, director general of the Israeli Foreign Office, to Henri Vigier, the representative in Haifa of Ralph J. Bunche, acting mediator for the United Nations.

The letter said the Israeli Government took a grave view of the Aqaba operation which it said apparently was intended "as a threat" to Israel's position in the Negeb.

The letter described the British action as "unilateral intervention in the Palestine conflict." It asked that United Nations' observers be sent to the area to see if the British make any frontier crossings into Israeli territory.

Aqaba—a key strategic point in the Middle East—is near the junction of the borders of Trans-Jordan, Palestine, Egypt and Saudi Arabia.

At Least One Over Israel

An Israeli military spokesman gave additional details today on Friday's clashes in which the British say five RAF planes were shot down inside Egyptian territory. The Jews contend at least one of the air engagements took place "over Israel."

The Jewish source said the two British pilots taken prisoner in Israeli territory had been briefed in Egypt not to cross the Israeli frontier.

Israeli officials identified the Britons as T. J. McElhaw and Frank Harvey Close. Close was said to have been slightly hurt when he bailed out southwest of Nirim, a Palestine town 4 miles from the Egyptian frontier.

Identify Slain Flyer

The flyer who was killed when his plane crashed a mile north of Nirim was identified as Pilot Officer David Crossley, of Birmingham, England.

The Israeli sources quoted McElhaw and Close as giving this account of their experience to interrogators:

At the time they were spotted by the Israeli planes they were not sure where they were. They may have lost orientation because of the ancient Roman road running southwest from Beersheba which the Israelis secretly rebuilt.

Road Has Not Been Mapped

That road has not been mapped. Israeli troops used it in their recent drive against the Egyptians—an operation which began in southern Palestine and included raids deep into Egypt's Sinai peninsula.

McElhaw and Close said they were shot down on their squadron's fourth mission in the area. On New Year's Day their mission included the photographing of Israeli defense position, they said.

McElhaw and Close decided to bail out according to instructions instead of crash landing on one of the many emergency strips in the area. They said, according to the Israeli informants, that if they crash-landed they were afraid there was considerable danger they would be "captured and murdered by the Egyptians."

Trans-Jordan Explains Invoking Defense Pact

Amman, Trans-Jordan, Jan. 9 (AP). A Government spokesman confirmed today that British troops have arrived at Aqaba in answer to a request by Trans-Jordan. The British Government announced yesterday the troops had been sent.

The spokesman told a news conference the British-Trans-Jordan treaty of March, 1948, authorizes either party to ask reinforcements of troops in case of "a threat to peace and imminence of hostilities."

The Trans-Jordan Government, he dded, found it necessary to invoke that portion of the treaty.

Port Is Touchy Spot

Aqaba is a particularly touchy spot in the Middle East. It is Trans-Jordan's only outlet to the Red Sea. It gives Egypt a direct link with Trans-Jordan. It is adjacent to the Negeb Desert of Palestine, with Israeli troops near.

Asked about proposed Israeli-Egyptian armistice talks scheduled to be held at Rhodes this week, the spokesman commented:

"The Egyptian Government decision of direct negotiation will not prompt Trans-Jordan to follow that example. The Security Council's November 16 decision (directing armistice talks) is, however, under speculation. A decision will be taken according to Trans-Jordan's specific circumstances and conforming to its aims."

Egypt Says British Help Not Asked

Cairo, Jan. 9 (AP)—A spokesman for the Egyptian Foreign Office said today Egypt has not asked Britain for assistance under the 1936 Anglo-Egyptian treaty.

He made the statement at a news conference in reply to a question.

Earlier Prime Minister Abdel Hamid Pasha received Chapman Andrews, British Minister, and Jefferson Patterson, United States Charge D'Affaires. (There was no mention of what was discussed. Egyptian dispatches are subject to censorship.)

The Foreign Office spokesman said 89 women and children were killed when Jewish planes bombed an Arab refugee camp at Deir El Balah in Palestine a few hours after the Egyptian-Israeli cease-fire order went into effect Friday afternoon. He said 26 other refugees were blown to bits and 126 persons were wounded.

Says Jews Mined Road

The spokesman charged also that the Jews mined a road in Egyptian territory after the agreed hour for the end of the fighting.

Questioned as to whether Egypt still intends to send representatives to negotiate an armistice with the Jews in view of the bombing and road mining, the spokesman replied:

"They (the Jews) have now ceased fire and we are sending representatives to the meeting scheduled under United Nations chairmanship." Armistice talks have been scheduled in Rhodes beginning Tuesday or Wedensday.

Talks To Be Limited To Negeb

The spokesman declared that so far as the Egyptians are concerned the talks will be limited to means of enforcing the United Nations Security Council's recent decisions concerning the Negeb.

He referred to the decisions ordering a cease-fire in that southern Palestine desert area and a withdrawal of troops to positions held before October 14, 1948.

Trans-Jordan Treaty Move Viewed As Shifting Role

By JOHN RODERICK

Kyrenia, Cyprus, Jan. 9. (AP)—Events of the past 48 hours have dealt a sharp blow to prospects of an early peace in Palestine.

In one stroke the little Arab kingdom of Trans-Jordan altered her role in the Palestine war by invoking her treaty with Britain which calls for military help in case she is threatened with attack.

Until that happened, Trans-Jordan was considered a strong factor for peace in the Holy Land.

Complicated By Air Clash

Her decision, and the shooting down of British planes by the Israelis, complicated the outlook for direct armistice negotiations between Arabs and the Jews.

Trans-Jordan had been at peace with Israel on all fronts since Dec. 1. Ten days ago in a secret military conference at Amman, she and her Arab ally, Iraq, actually notified Egypt they could not help her in the Negeb fighting. Reports to the contrary are in error.

Thus, when Egypt agreed to a cease-fire and armistice talks, it seemed peace at last was near.

These talks now seem doomed unless the Jews agree to withdraw completely from the Negeb.

Protective Barrier To Canal

The plain fact is that Britain feels she cannot permit a nation she considers antagonistic to hold this sandy protective barrier to the Suez Canal and Trans-Jordan's port of Aqaba.

London's announcement that British Tommies have been sent to Aqaba underlines the Empire's concern for the safety of that little Red Sea town which figures so largely in her defense plans.

Aqaba straddles vital British land routes in the Middle East. It is the terminal of the old pilgrims' road once used by pious Moslems to cross the Sinai desert to reach Mecca. This now is a militarily important road for Britain.

It also is the beginning of a road to Damascus which bypasses Palestine. In wartime, if the Suez Canal should fall into enemy hands, the road would become a life line for the overland transport of oil needed by the United States and Britain.

Rich Mineral Deposits

The Negeb's desert sands conceal rich mineral deposits—including oil, copper, chrome, magnesium and sulphur also underlie those sands.

American drilling crews, working for British interests, were sinking test wells south of Gaza, Biblical capital of the Philistines, shortly before hostilities started last May.

The British pulled out, but the Jews have not forgotten that oil is there. They hope to exploit this treasure with American backing after the war. That explains their intense interest in this barren, unfriendly looking desert.

Whoever controls the Negeb also holds the Red Sea in his hand. And there lies more potential wealth. The Red Sea is a proved reservoir of rich potash, bromide, magnesium and phosphate deposits. Experts estimate the Red Sea region could supply the world with potash for centuries.

This makes more understandable why little Aqaba and the sandy Negeb are so much in the day's news.

Needs Peace For Expansion

Trans-Jordan's King Abdullah is understandably eager for peace, because he hopes soon to expand his kingdom and embrace Arab sections of Palestine. He needs peace to make his expansionist plans work out.

Yet, he cannot afford peace at the price of losing Aqaba, his only port. Without it, he would rule a land-locked country.

That is why he agreed to invoke the British treaty. And invoking the treaty makes his country a belligerent, in the eyes of the Jews.

Dutch View On Indonesia Recovery

NFL SLIS JAN 1949

The Hague, Jan. 9 (AP)—D. U. Stikker, Foreign Minister, predicted today a steady improvement in conditions in Indonesia accompanied by a reconciliation of Dutch and American views on the handling of the Indonesian problem.

In reply to questions submitted by the Associated Press, the Foreign Minister forecast orderly conditions throughout Indonesia in a short time and early resumption of production and export in areas recently occupied by Dutch troops. He foresaw also co-operation by the Western powers in southeast Asia.

Stikker declined to speculate whether any of the present Indonesian republican leaders would be acceptable to his Government as future leaders of the country.

Wants "Capable Men"

The Dutch, he said, want Indonesia to elect capable men who can keep order and preserve democratic freedoms. "It is not for the Netherlands Government to decide" who these men shall be, he added.

To a question whether the Dutch intended to delay setting up an interim govenment of a United States of Indonesia until the republican territory can be included in it, he replied:

"All parts of Indonesia will have to be integrated as quickly as possible into the total political structure of the future United States of Indonesia under the interim government."

Regrets U.S. Opposition

The Dutch seek to unite all Indonesia into a union under the Netherlands crown. The republicans have resisted features of the plan, and were unable to agree on how to integrate the republic into the union.

Stikker said United States official opposition to Dutch military action against the Indonesian republicans "reflects a certain distrust of our aims" which "I regret."

"I am sure," he added, "that the near future will show that our aims in Indonesia do not diverge from the American view and serve the interests of southeast Asia in creating a free and sovereign Indonesian state."

Stories Of Stolen Watches Irk Reds

Berlin, Jan.9 (AP)—A Soviet Army spokesman scolded the Germans today for remembering Russian soldiers' misdeeds "and forgetting that the Russians brought the Germans freedom."

A Captain Tregubov, speaking for the army, voiced the complaint at a group discussion session in the House of Soviet Culture, a propaganda establishment in Unter Den Linden.

The captain recalled the often made complaints of Berliners that Russian combat troops were guilty of rape and looting. The Russians are especially sensitive to the Germans' bitter stories about Red soldiers who stole their watches.

"Did the Soviet soldier come to Germany as a tourist accepting a friendly invitation?" Tregubov demanded. "No. He left 1,800 miles of scorched Soviet earth behind him, had seen hundreds of thousands of dead and kidnapped, and his own family dispersed or murdered. . . .

"Then, here in Germany, he liberated at least part of a country which had been in (Nazi) slavery for twelve years.

'Worthy' Descendants Of Those Expelled May Return

Madrid, Jan. 9 (AP)—Generalissimo Francisco Franco moved today to permit the descendants of Jews expelled from Spain in 1492 to return to the fatherland.

At the same time, it became known the Government has authorized a Jewish synagogue to function in Spain for the first time since the civil war.

A decree signed by Franco authorized Sephardic Jews in Greece and Egypt to apply for Spanish citizenship. The decree, approved by the Cabinet on December 30 and published in the Official Journal for the first time today, said applicants would be selected carefully for "their love of Spain."

They Had To Recant Or Get Out

Sephardic Jews numbering about 100,000 were expelled from Spain in 1492 by King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella when they refused to recant their faith. Fifty thousand others, historians say, became Roman Catholics and remained in Spain.

Most of those expelled settled in Greece and Egypt and were under Spanish protection through an agreement in 1837 with the old Ottoman Empire, and subsequent agreements, in 1936, with Greece and Egypt. The latter expired this year, which impelled this new Spanish action.

The decree said only those who have "shown they are worthy of such mercy" will be given Spanish citizenship.

Synagogue Permitted To Open

It was learned, meanwhile, that the Government granted permission for a synagogue to open on January 2. The building was donated by a prominent Polish Jew, a resident of Spain since 1915.

The synagogue opened with a British Jew named Cuby as acting rabbi. His flock consisted of approximately 1,000 foreign Jews in Madrid. There now are believed to be about 5,000 more Jews in Spain.

The synagogue is on the same footing as Protestant churches in predominantly Catholic Spain. It cannot have anything on the building marking it as a place of worship and public ceremonies in the open air are forbidden.

SOVIET TERMINATES INDUSTRY SUBSIDY

State Moves Simultaneously to Raise Wholesale Prices and Transport Rates

COMMODITY TAX IS ENDED

JAN 1949

Economic Organ Says Support System Resulted in Failure of Output to Meet Costs

MOSCOW, Jan. 9 (AP)—The Russian Government has virtually ended wartime subsidies to industry and transport, the Soviet Journal of Economic Questions disclosed today.

At the same time the state increased wholesale prices and freight rates and eliminated from various products the basic turnover tax, backbone of Soviet revenues.

The move affects every factory and transport enterprise throughout the Soviet Union. Carrying it out has undoubtedly required much overtime work by economists, bookkeepers, accountants, plant managers and economic planners.

The journal, authoritative organ of the Economic Institute section of the Academy of Sciences of the U. S. S. R., said the "new wholesale prices will not affect the level existing for universal state retail prices of consumer goods. The (Communist) party and the Government are conducting a firm and consistent policy of lowering retail prices for commodities."

The journal article, written by P. Vladimirov, reported the subsidies had been "basically liquidated" and would be fully terminated.

"The system of state subsidies, which was necessary during the war years and under conditions of post-war conversion, became a brake on further development of the economy," the magazine said.

"It violates the basic system of economic accounting—the measurement of expenditures and the results of production, the compensation of expenditures by enterprises with their own receipts. The system of state subsidies gives rise to enterprises living on the state budget and weakens the stimulus to fight for lower cost of production and is in contradiction with the problem of strengthening the Soviet ruble."

The rise in wholesale prices will be far less than it otherwise would have been because of the simultaneous abolition of the turnover tax on a whole series of important commodities.

Lowering the tax means less revenue for the Government, but this is to be compensated for by lower Government expenditures because of the abolition of the subsidies.

The important turnover tax provided for 68 per cent of the estimated revenue in the budget adopted last year by the Supreme Soviet (Parliament). It is a unique tax, charted on a long list of specified commodities as a percentage of the sales price when these goods pass from one organization to another. It is passed on to the ultimate consumer.

Under the new move, the tax is removed from all types of fuel with the exception of oil products, from electric power, ores, metals, machinery, equipment, construction materials and the products of the chemical, timber and woodworking industries.

Abolition of the tax also compensates for certain increases in expenditures for production in light industry and food processing.

Disturbances Laid To War

The Journal said the system of state subsidies arose because the war caused disturbances in economic relationships. It added that in certain branches of industry, particularly in the labor-consuming sections of heavy industry, "wages rose significantly."

As a result, the magazine continued, essential changes took place in the structure of the cost of production in a whole series of goods, and former prices for individual goods did "not compensate for costs of production." In other words, state-fixed prices for the goods in question did not pay for the costs of production. The state, to maintain unchanged its wholesale-price system, had to subsidize given branches of industry.

Since the war, the Journal said, production costs have been lowered, and "there is taking place a convergence of prices and the cost of production." This meant that prices were nearer the costs of production, so that subsidies could be eliminated without endangering the price system.

Economy Incentive Urged

"Wholesale prices must stimulate the struggle for further introduction and mastery of new techniques for increasing profitability and for economy," the Journal said. "Therefore, new wholesale prices on metals, fuel, electric and heat energy, lumber, cement, bricks and the new railway freight rates are defined by the Government at the level of the significantly reduced planned cost of production for 1950, as provided by the postwar Stalinist five-year plan.

"The reform of wholesale prices will assist the economy in the expenditures of deficit materials; the widest use of local resources, including fuel and raw materials; and the elimination of long hauls in transport."

The journal further revealed that, as a subsidiary reform, all Soviet enterprises now would plan total production and productivity of labor at current wholesale prices instead of the prices of goods in the base years 1926-27, as formerly.

Claim Made South Korea Peasants Keep Grain

Moscow, Jan. 9 (AP)—The official Communist newspaper Pravda asserted today grain deliveries to non-Communist South Korea have broke down.

The newspaper published a Korean dispatch from the Soviet news agency Tass reporting peasants are withholding grain as a mark of resistance to "the South Korean puppet government of Lee Sin Man." Only about 800 tons, or half as much as needed, have been collected, the message said.

Pravda and other Russian newspapers in another article asserted "the traitor, Lee Sin Man," has turned over to Americans important sections of South Korea's industries. The article asserted Americans now control 30 per cent of the 860 industrial enterprises it estimated exist in South Korea.

Diplomatic Step Reported As Red Pressure On Nanking Increases

Nanking, China, Jan. 9 (AP)—China's hard-pressed Government has asked Russia to join other big powers in an attempt to mediate the civil war, nonofficial but usually reliable sources reported today.

The diplomatic effort was spurred by increasing Red military pressure on the few defense positions remaining in Government hands north of Nanking.

One press dispatch said Communist troops were almost within cannon range of the Yangtze after seizing the towns of Taishing and Huangchiao about 70 miles east of Nankink. In the north, Tientsin was under heavy assault.

Both the Chinese Foreign Office and foreign embassies maintained silence on steps taken yesterday to bring China's plight to the direct attention of the Big Four.

Mediation Plea Confirmed

Nonofficial sources said it was confirmed that the United States, France and Great Britain had been asked to study the civil war and to use their "good offices." These sources said French Ambassador Jacques Meyrier, as dean of the diplomatic corps, carried the Chinese request to Soviet Ambassador N. V. Roschin, who is ill at his residence.

A Foreign Office spokesman pleaded ignorance of what occurred in the meetings of the three powers' ambassadors with Foreign Minister Wu Te-chin.

On the military front, observers predicted the isolated armies of Gen. Tu Lin-ming north of Nanking and the northern industrial city of Tientsin would fall to the Reds within a few days, if not hours.

Tu's Army Reduced

Although the Government maintained token air drops, it generally was conceded Tu's hungry troops could not hold out much longer.

[The Communist radio, heard by the Associated Press in San Francisco, said Tu's armies had been reduced to 130,000 and were trapped in a pocket only 6 miles square. Tu's forces originally were estimated at 250,000.]

The capture of Tu's troops, with their great stocks of modern equipment, will open the way for a quick Communist march to the Yangtze unless a political settlement halts hostilities.

The Communists farther south already have opened attacks on the Hwai River defenses, 100 miles from Nanking.

Chiang Sends Appeals

While the diplomatic maneuvering continued, President Chiang Kai-shek was reported striving to keep regional leaders and warlords in line.

The independent newspaper Peoples Daily said Chiang had sent Gen. Pai Chung-Hsi, commander in Central China, a message saying that regardless of peace or war he hoped the nation would remain united.

The message was taken to Pai's headquarters at Hankow by former Premier Chang Chun. Pai has been reported restless and wanting to move his forces out of Hankow into southern territory. Chang Chun is expected to go on south to Changsha and try to keep in the fold Gen. Cheng Chien, restive Hunan Province governor.

Plan To Flee Disclaimed

Chang Chun was quoted by the Peoples Daily as saying in Hankow that Chiang had no intentions of leaving Nanking.

This was in sharp contrast to various indications in Nanking that the president shortly will fly either to Formosa or Canton.

An informed source said Shao Li-tze, a foremost proponent of peace, predicted an "important development by spring" (which in Chinese terms means January). Shao is said to have appealed to Mo Te-hui, former Manchurian leader, to abandon plans to go to Formosa and to stay in Shanghai as a possible negotiator with the Reds.

Chiang Rest Plans Denied

Nanking, China, Monday, Jan. 10 (AP)—A government spokesman said today "I'm authorized to categorically deny a report to the effect that Chiang Kai-shek will soon go to Taiwan (Formosa) to rest."

"This report is sheer rumor and entirely groundless," said the spokesman, Shen Chang-huan, in a formal statement.

He was referring to a report that China's president planned to visit the big island within three days for "a vacation," leaving Vice President Li Tsung-jen in charge of the Government during the growing civil-war crisis.

The spokesman's carefully-phrased statement did not, however, eliminate the possibility of Chiang flying to Formosa because of the possible retirement of his government or for any other reason than "rest."

Chiang's private four-engined transport plane was flown from its usual place at the main airfield several miles outside Nanking to the inner field within Nanking's walls, only a half mile from his residence.

Reds Shell Station In Tientsin And Tighten Noose On Peiping

JAN 1949

Peiping, Jan. 9 (AP)—Reports from Tientsin said there were clashes around the city today and that the East railway station was hit by more than ten Red shells.

Streets leading from the Central railway station (about 3½ miles north of the East station) were within range of light-arms fire. Several civilians were reported killed by machinegun fire.

Pro-Government reports, however, said Tientsin was relatively quiet after Saturday's heavy fighting. The Communists evidently were in possession of several outlying parts of the sprawling city, which once was possibly the most important treaty port north of the Yangtze.

8,000 Casualties Reported

Gen. Fu Tso-yi's North China headquarters claimed the Nationalists Saturday inflicted 8,000 casualties in fighting in the Tientsin area. With the number of casualties assessed against the foe the day before, that would make a theoretical 20,000 in two days.

Once again, however, censorship regulations forbid disparagement because the claim is official and therefore—so the argument runs—must be considered indisputable.

Skirmishes occurred in the northern, western and southwestern suburbs of Peiping today. Fu's headquarters assessed Red casualties during clashes through Saturday night at nearly 1,000.

Climax Expected Soon

The Reds apparently have tightened their noose around Peiping, which has been under siege since December 14. They were within half a mile of the southwestern corner of Peiping. This meant they could, if they wished, shell any part of the city itself.

There is good reason to believe the long-delayed climax to the delicate and difficult situation will come within the next seven days. Unexpected developments prevented an earlier issue or a proclamation by Gen. Fu Tso-yi, but unless all pointers are wrong, this may be expected before next Sunday.

End Of Hostilities Expected

The proclamation would change the whole picture in this part of the world, most notably by painting Peiping and other Nationalist islands a different color on the map.

[What the dispatch is saying through the curtain of censorship is that the proclamation probably will announce a cessation of hostilities with the Reds taking over Peiping Tientsin, Tientsin's port of Tangku and possibly other isolated Government points to the west.]

Shanghai Air Lift Held Up

China Suspends Flights Following Dispute Among Lines

SHANGHAI, Jan. 9 (AP).—The Chinese Civil Aviation Authority today suspended all air lifts to remove displaced persons from Shanghai as a result of a dispute among air lines.

Six international scheduled air lines—Pan American, Northwest, Chinese National, British Overseas, K. L. M. (Dutch) and Air France—protested that an exclusive contract for carrying displaced persons to refuge on Samar Island, in the Philippines, had been given to Transocean Airline, an American non-scheduled operator.

The aviation authority said it would not clear Transocean as the sole operator and suspended air lifting. The authority said the International Refugee Organization should use facilities of other lines.

LONDON, Jan. 9 (AP).—Tass said tonight that the United States has demanded that China open the Yangtze River to American shipping and convert the island of Formosa into a joint Chinese-American naval base in return for further aid against the Communists.

The Soviet official news agency, in a dispatch from Shanghai distributed here by the Soviet radio monitor, made no mention of reports that Chiang Kai-shek's government had asked Russia to join the United States, Britain and France in mediating the Chinese civil war.

Lingayen Beach Landing Marked in Philippines

LINGAYEN BEACH, Philippines, Jan. 9 (AP).—It was like a Fourth of July in January today on this beach where American troops landed and began the campaign that freed the Philippines from the Japanese.

The occasion was the dedication of a marker at the spot where four years ago today the first American soldier stepped ashore.

A Filipino band played "The Missouri Waltz." Rockets whizzed. Students with wooden guns marched. There were floats and banners in a parade, and Filipino troopers in combat boots.

In this way the freedom-loving Filipinos b ythe thousands remembered the day when the United States fulfilled a pledge to return and drive out the Japanese conquerors.

Nehru Says India Meeting Will Not Oppose U. N.

NEW DELHI, Jan. 9 (AP).—A Foreign Ministry spokesman said today an international conference will be held here Jan. 20 to consider what to do about Indonesia.

Prime Minister Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru told an All India Congress (Nationalist party) working party committee: "The broad objective of the Asian conference will be to demonstrate the sympathy of Asian countries toward Indonesia in a practical, creative way."

Nations of Asia and the Pacific area have expressed resentment at the recent Dutch action in crushing the Indonesian Republic. Mr. Nehru denied the projected conference would attempt to set up any body to compete with existing international organizations.

He said he expected most of the twenty countries which have been invited to attend the conference probably will last about three days. Acceptances already have been received from Egypt, Iran, Australia, Burma, Ceylon and Afghanistan. Acceptances from Pakistan and the Philippines are believed to be en route. [The Siamese government announced Saturday that it would not be represented.]

GOP WEIGHS PLAN TO FIGHT ACHESON

JAN 1949

Confirmation of Marshall's Successor Seen Assured, However

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9 — (AP) The Senate Republican Policy Committee may be called upon to decide whether to make an organized—if futile—attack on President Truman's choice of Dean Acheson as secretary of state.

30.24- 169

There was some sentiment—notably from G.O.P. floor leader Wherry of Nebraska—to thrash out the matter at a conference of Republican senators tomorrow. Wherry said it "undoubtedly will come up" there.

Taft Favors Committee Talk

But Senator Taft of Ohio, who is policy chairman, later told a reporter he thinks the matter should be discussed first by the policy committee at a later meeting. Wherry is on that committee which is the party's signal-calling group on important issues.

Taft said he has not made up his mind how he will vote on Acheson's confirmation. He had been quoted yesterday as saying he would vote for Acheson."

"I have not decided," the Ohioan said, "and that is not to say that I won't vote for him. I just don't want to prejudge."

Taft said he agrees with Senator Vandenberg of Michigan, ranking Republican on the Foreign Relations Committee, that there should be a full examination of Acheson's qualifications for the post to be vacated by the retirement of Secretary Marshall.

Wherry made no secret of his personal opposition to Acheson, whose nomination as undersecretary of state was opposed unsuccessfully by the Nebraskan in 1945.

Opposed By Wherry

In that and other criticisms of Acheson, Wherry expressed the belief that Acheson represented a "leftist" viewpoint.

"I haven't changed my mind about Acheson," Wherry said. "That's my personal view, but I won't know until I talk with other Republicans how they feel about it and whether they will be inclined to fight confirmation."

It seemed likely, however, that if any Republicans band together to fight the appointment, they will represent only the faction in the party most critical of administration foreign policies in the past.

Senators Vandenberg (R-Mich) and Smith (R-NJ), members of the Foreign Relations Committee indicated in week end statements that they probably will support Acheson if hearings develop nothing to change their minds.

Senator Connally (D-Tex), who steps in as new chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee this week, said that so far as he is concerned the committee will call anybody who has pertinent information about Acheson's record.

May Question Berle

Senator Mundt (R-SD) has suggested that senators hear Adolph A. Berle, Jr., former state department official, who crossed swords with Acheson in a battle over policy in 1944 when Acheson was assistant secretary.

Connally said that if Berle has any information the committee ought to have, he probably will be asked to testify.

The chairman said it will be up to the committee to decide who it wants to hear. Mundt, not a committee member, also has suggested that Whittaker Chambers, admitted former communist courier, be called.

Some other Republicans have suggested the committee look into Acheson's relations with a former state department associate, Alger Hiss, now under perjury indictment in connection with copied secret department records found on Chambers' farm.

Despite all of these moves, most of the Republicans conceded that Acheson's confirmation is likely in the end.

Bipartisan Support Expected For 2 U.S. Foreign Proposals

JAN 1949

Washington, Jan. 9 (AP)—Despite the political uproar over the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, two of the most vital foreign policy issues expected to confront the new Congress appeared certain today of bipartisan support.

Senator Capehart (R., Ind.) said yesterday that bipartisan foreign policy has broken down as a result of the Republican-Democratic row over membership of the key Senate committee. The controlling Democrats seized eight seats, leaving five to the GOP. In the Republican-bossed eightieth Congress, the GOP took seven, giving the Democrats six.

Both Administration and many congressional leaders, however, forecast strong bipartisan backing for two proposals which President Truman is due to urge upon Congress—probably beginning with his budget message tomorrow.

Two Proposals Outlined

These are:

1. A military alliance between western Europe and North America (the United States and Canada) to take the form of a "North Atlantic regional security system."

Negotiations now are nearing completion at the State Department. Talks between department officials and leaders of Congress are expected to begin within two weeks.

2. A new peacetime "lend-lease" program through which the Adminstration proposes to help rearm western Europe and possibly other countries whose military strength will contribute to United States security.

Highly secret negotiations between the American and western European military high commands have been under way several months on the "lend-lease" project. Mr. Truman probably will recommend this to Congress, not as revived "lend-lease," but as "mutual aid."

Senate Republican critics of the Administration already have made clear that they will give Mr. Truman's nomination of Dean Acheson to be Secretary of State a thorough working over. In the end his expected confirmation as successor to Secretary Marshall may be at least partially a partisan issue.

One of Acheson's first great problems after he takes office January 20, and in his relations with Senate and House Leaders before that time, will be to try to work out a new basis for bipartisan conduct of foreign policy.

This may be considerably more difficult than it was for Marshall. The army general was strictly nonpolitical; Acheson is a life-long Democrat. Marshall was working with a Republican Congress; Acheson will be working with a Congress led by his own party.

Vandenberg Not Consulted

Nevertheless diplomatic authorities predict that as in the closing years of the Roosevelt Administration, during which the basis of bipartisan policy first was laid down, Mr. Truman and his new Secretary of State will try to establish sound working relationships on all sorts of foreign policy measures with leaders of both parties.

As far as the Administration is concerned, insiders say that this will not apply to the selection of personnel. Evidently Mr. Truman has no intention of working as closely with Senator Vandenberg (R., Mich.) on personnel now as he did when Vandenberg had a virtual veto power in the Senate. Vandenberg held that power as Senate Foreign Relations Committee chairman in the last Congress.

Mr. Truman did not talk to Vandenberg about the Acheson nomination.

The basis for bipartisan co-operation on the North Atlantic pact, and to a lesser extent on the mutual-aid idea, already has been laid.

Vandenberg himself did this in the Senate last June, sponsoring a resolution which he and Administration leaders previously had worked out. That resolution put the Senate on record as supporting United States association with other countries in regional security systems.

Negotiations for North Atlantic arrangements began soon after the Senate resolution was adopted. Seven nations are involved. They are the United States and Canada and the five members of the western European union—Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

Draft About Complete

Diplomats said last week their draft of a pact is virtually complete and is now being formally studied by all the governments concerned. Two major questions yet to be answered are exactly what territory the alliance should cover against outside aggression and exactly what nations should be included in the pact beyond the original seven.

The State department's next move will be detailed consultations with Senate and House leaders.

Robert A. Lovett, Under Secretary of State, who also will retire January 20 with Marshall, always has said that leaders of both parties would be consulted and their views would be very influential in determining the kind of pact the United States eventually signs. There is no reason to suppose that Acheson will abandon this principle.

U. S. SHIPPERS ASK FOR CURB ON JAP MERCHANT SHIPS

JAN 1949

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9. — (AP) The National Federation of American Shipping today proposed the virtual exclusion of Japanese merchant vessels from world trade.

In a statement outlining the American industry's objectives for 1948, the federation said:

"The Japanese merchant marine should not be allowed to expand beyond the reasonable requirements of their own domestic and foreign commerce.

Would Curb Jap Shipping

"Japan should not be allowed through economic forces and low wages and living standards to drive other ships from their proper participation in Pacific trade.

"She should not be allowed to invade other ports and trades where international incidents may be created."

This was but one of several points detailed in the federation's program, drafted last week at a meeting of the board of directors in New York with Frazer Bailey of Washington, federation president.

The federation said the paramount objective of the American shipping movement is:

"The carriage of all of its domestic and at least one-half of American imports and exports, backed by a modern fleet of passenger steamships to serve the principal overseas routes.

"This objective is superior to the American shipping position of 1939 when we carried less than 30 per cent of our overseas commerce.

"It is not however an over-ambitious program, nor does it impose injustices upon any nation.

"In view of the United States position in world affairs, we must possess such a fleet to maintain peace and preserve our own national defense."

To achieve its aims, the federation said, economic conditions must be created under which private industry can continue to build and operate the numbers and types of ships essential for these purposes.

"We must re-establish our domestic shipping on a sound basis," the federation's statement added. "In doing so, unfair competitive practices of competing carriers should be eliminated.

"American shipping should have the full and equal opportunity to participate in the ECA (Marshall aid plan) program at rates based upon American costs of production, which is a condition enjoyed by all other American industries."

PRELATE CALLS FOR CHINA AID

Archbishop Cushing Asks For 'Honest Policy'

JAN 1949

Boston, Jan. 9 (AP)—The Most Rev. Richard J. Cushing, Catholic Archbishop of Boston, today called for an "honest policy" by free nations toward China and warned that any compromise with Communists "amounts to defeat by communism."

Speaking at a communion breakfast, Archbishop Cushing said "there are no final reasons why our policy toward China should be devious, defeatist or half-hearted. Only the friends of the Red Fascists want us to believe that a free China is no longer possible."

"So long as Red Fascism is a fact in the sixth of the globe directly subject to the Soviet," the prelate said, "America cannot afford to throw away friends in Asia by leaving the Chinese naked to their enemies and abandoned to ours.

Prophets Of Disaster Fail

"Badgered and embarrassed as the present Chinese Government may be, it is the same Government that our leaders were told would collapse first in 1937, then in 1942 and again in 1944.

"The prophets of disaster proved mistaken or malicious then. What better reason have we to believe them now?"

Archbishop Cushing warned against "the lies about China of certain 'liberals' and other friends of Red Fascism."

He said China should be given "the benefit of every possible doubt" because the "Red Fascists justify their excesses . . . by creating confusion and spreading doubts with half-truths and whole lies."

Should Voice Protests

"I think that both as Catholics and as Americans," he said, "we should lift our voices in protest," . . . demanding clear commitments, honest reports and realistic action with regard to faith and freedom in China.

"Wherever you find a Communist in a free nation you find a spy and wherever you have a spy you have a traitor. We cannot ask . . . that any nation invites known traitors and avowed spies into its government."

World State Held 'Pipe Dream'

New Haven, Conn., Jan. 9 (AP)—A Yale authority tonight said that world government in our times is "just a pipe dream."

Prof. William T. R. Fox, associate professor of political science and assistant director of the Institute of International Studies, declared:

"A world government without the Soviet Union would be no world government at all. A world government with the Soviet Union could only be created by first defeating the Soviet Union in a third world war.

"Since the whole purpose in having a world government is to prevent a third world war, we have to label the program for world government 'no solution'."

Professor Fox expressed his views in the weekly radio program, "Yale Interprets the News."

"If we could achieve any basic improvement in Soviet-American relations," speculated the speaker, "we would probably discover that the United Nations is a nearly ideal instrument for maintaining the peace."

He declared that the trouble is we have pinned "such exaggeratedly high hopes" on the United Nations and have been so ignorant of what it could and could not do that we tend to hold the United Nations responsible for the misdeeds of some of its members.

Said Fox:

"In fact, the responsible party is Russia—that member of the United Nations whose aggressive actions have prevented the complete restoration of peace."

Delegates Seek To Revise U.N. Council's Approach

Lake Success, N. Y., Jan. 9 (AP)—Big-power delegates to the United Nations Security Council hoped today to arrive at a new approach to the Indonesian question before the council resumes debate Tuesday.

One high delegation source said, however, he felt no definite plans would be made until the delegates had talked with Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton, of Canada, council president for January.

The chief aim of such consultation would be to look into possibilities for a new resolution on the Indonesian issue. A new approach is needed following attacks on the council at Friday's meeting by Australia, India, the Philippines, Egypt and Indonesia itself. In a three-hour debate these nations and Egypt criticized the council for not taking stronger action.

In Paris, the council ordered the Netherlands government to cease firing in Indonesia and to release republican political leaders its troops took into custody after the Dutch offensive began December 18.

DP ACT ASSAILED

The USNA is financed by the United Jewish Appeal. It has assisted more than 400,000 Jewish immigrants to this country in the past 10 years.

President Truman, in a message read to the gathering, said:

TRANS-JORDAN'S KING ABDULLAH IS UNDERSTANDABLY EAGER FOR PEACE, BECAUSE HE HOPES SOON TO EXPAND HIS KINGDOM AND EMBRACE ARAB SECTIONS OF PALESTINE. HE NEEDS PEACE TO MAKE HIS EXPANSIONIST PLANS WORK OUT.

YET, HE CANNOT AFFORD PEACE AT THE PRICE OF LOSING AQABA, HIS ONLY PORT. WITHOUT IT, HE WOULD RULE A LAND-LOCKED COUNTRY.

THAT IS WHY HE AGREED TO INVOKE THE BRITISH TREATY. AND INVOKING THE TREATY MAKES HIS COUNTRY A BELLIGERENT, IN THE EYES OF THE JEWS.

OBVIOUSLY THE NEXT STEP IS UP TO ISRAEL. SHE CAN DEFY BRITAIN'S MIGHT BY PUSHING INTO TRANS-JORDAN AND COMMITTING BRITAIN TO PLUNGE INTO THE PALESTINE FIGHTING.

OR SHE CAN WITHDRAW HER FORCES AND SHELVE HER AMBITIONS IN THE NEGEV.

British Put Off U.N. Appeal In Plane Loss

JAN 1949

London, Jan. 10 (AP)—Responsible British diplomatic sources said tonight Britain will not lodge a complaint with the Security Council against the shooting down of five RAF planes by Israel. Apparently the British bowed to heavy pressure from the United States.

Israel, however, plans to accuse Britain in the United Nations of violating the Palestine truce, a source close to the Israeli Government said in Tel Aviv.

The development came soon after the United States Department urged both Britain and Israel to treat the air clash only as "a regrettable incident." Earlier key British Cabinet members and defense chiefs met on the crisis arising from the shooting down of the five planes Friday over the Egyptian border.

Forces Are Massed

"The presence of our troops at Aqaba (Trans- Jordan) will be a red light for the Jews not to go any further than they have," one diplomatic official said.

He added that the massing of British land, air and sea forces within easy reach of the little Jewish state will continue, but that the British now felt that the troops already dispached served as an effecive warning o Israel.

The Cabinet members heard Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin report on the situation.

The session was called by Prime Minister Attlee, presumably to consider Britain's next move and perhaps determine how far she will go in strengthening her positions in that part of the world.

Confer With U.S.

Nothing official was disclosed about the Cabinet meeting.

A Foreign Office spokesman said there have been exchanges with Washington on some aspects of the situation since the plane incident Friday. He would not elaborate.

He called "impertinence" Israel's protest against the movement of British troops into the Trans-Jordan port of Aqaba on the Red Sea.

The spokesman said he could not confirm reports that Russia has offered to help Israel.

Red Envoy Visits

Such an offer was referred to by the Manchester Guardian in an editorial criticizing the Foreign Office as following a mid-East policy which plays into Russia's hands.

A Tel Aviv dispatch said Pavel Yershov, Soviet envoy to Israel, was among the diplomats who called on Israeli Foreign Minister Moshe Shertok in the last few days, seeking information on Palestine developments. There was no indication that he offered Russian aid to Israel, the dispatch said.

Protest Presented

The move came on the heels of Britain's "strong protest" to Israel against the shooting down of five RAF planes Friday.

Britain's protest was contained in a memorandum handed to a representative of the Israeli Foreign Office at Haifa by British Consul General Cyril Marriott.

The protest stated that Britain reserves all her rights "both with regard to claims for compensation and to all possible subsequent action."

A Tel Aviv dispatch said the Israeli representative rejected the British protest because it was addressed to "Jewish authorities in Tel Aviv" and not to the provisional Government of Israel.

British-Israel Plea By U.S.

Other news of Israel on Page 4

Washington, Jan. 10 (AP)—The United States urged Britain and Israel today to treat the shooting down of five British planes as a "regrettable incident only."

The State Department expressed hope that the incident will not interfere with Palestine truce negotiations expected to open Wednesday on the Island of Rhodes.

Sees Little Chance To Cut

The department disclosed at the same time that the United States was informed in advance but not consulted on the movement of British forces to the Trans-Jordan port of Aqaba. Michael J. McDermott, press officer, declined to say whether any American objections were raised to the move.

The five British Royal Air Force planes were shot down Friday by Israeli fighters near the Israeli-Egypt frontier. Britain has made a "strong protest" about it and has concentrated military and naval strength in the eastern Mediterranean.

Text Of Statement

The State Department's statement said:

"The department is receiving information concerning the incident from both the British and the Israelis. We have every confidence that, regrettable as it is, it will be considered as a regrettable incident only and that it will not interfere with the truce negotiations which are to take place in Rhodes later this week.

"The department has been given to understand that if there are any Israeli troops still in Egypt they are in the process of being withdrawn."

Conference Held

The American diplomatic move followed those of a week ago when the United States urged Israel and Egypt to avoid any action which might cause the Palestine situation to flame up into a new crisis.

Israel's envoy, Eliahu Epstein, conferred on the latest development today at the State Department with Joseph C. Satterwaite, chief of the Office of Near Eastern and African Affairs.

McDermott was asked whether Britain had asked the United States to take a strong stand in support of Britain on the new dispute, and also whether Britain had urged lifting the embargo on shipments of arms to Israel and the Arab states. He replied there has been no request for a stand of any kind at all. He said in response to other questions on the dispatch of British troops to Aqaba that "we knew they were moving." As to whether American officials advised against this, McDermott said "we have nothing to say publicly."

U.S. ACTS TO EASE PALESTINE CRISIS

Exerts Pressure to Prevent Clash Between Britain, Israel

JAN 1949

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10 — (AP) The United States exerted new pressure today to prevent armed conflict between Britain and Israel in Palestine.

The American move—the second in 10 days—came in a State department statement urging them to treat the shooting down of five R.A.F. planes by Israeli forces as "a regrettable incident only."

Immediate results of the U. S. peace-making effort awaited clarification:

Won't Protest to UN

1. In London, British diplomats said Britain will continue massing military forces within easy reach of Israel, but will make no protest to the United Nations.

2. The whole problem of Britain's huge interests in the Middle East were carefully reviewed by Foreign Minister Ernest Bevin at a meeting of key British cabinet members and defense chiefs.

3. In Tel Aviv, Israel was reported planning to accuse Britain before the United Nations of violating the Palestine truce. Israeli authorities were said to be preparing charges that Britain has been making large-scale arms shipments to her ally, Egypt.

4. At Lake Success, N. Y., Secretary-General Trygve Lie was engaged in other behind-the scenes efforts to ease the tension. A United Nations spokesman said Lie talked over "the gravity of the situation" with a member of the U. S. delegation. An Israeli representative called British troop movements a "repudiation of UN resolutions calling for a truce.

Dispatches from Tel Aviv quoted a Jewish military spokesman as saying there are no longer any Israeli troops within Egyptian territory. The spokesman said Israeli troops who penetrated two miles inside the Egyptian border were withdrawn last night.

U. S. Counsels Moderation

The State department formally counseled moderation until the Jews and Arabs have a chance to work out an armistice in the long bitter Middle East conflict.

Britain has military treaties with the Arab states of Egypt, Trans-Jordan and Iraq. Some officials expressed concern that Britain might give precedence to these treaties over her United Nations obligations.

The Israeli foray into Egypt at the year end caused grave concern over the possibility that Egypt might demand help from the British. Under American pressure, Israeli agreed to withdraw the raiders. The R.A.F. planes were shot down near the Palestine-Egyptian border last Friday while trying to determine whether the withdrawal had taken place.

Two days hence, Israeli and Egyptian representatives are scheduled to sit at the same table for the first time with the United Nations acting mediator, Dr. Ralph J. Bunche. What the United States is trying to do in the meantime, officials said, is stamp out any flare-up which might interfere with chances for a complete end of the Palestine fighting.

Vatican-Wall Street Accord Charged

London, Tuesday, Jan. 11 (AP)—The Moscow Radio charged today that the Vatican is "now concluding a new concordat with Wall Street." In an English language broadcast the radio said the Vatican and the United States reached an agreement last year in which "the State Department promised to give full and worldwide political support to the Catholic Church, and by which the Vatican fo rits part undertook to extend every assistance to forces of what it called 'Christian civilization' and fight against the democratic movement."

The broadcast said also "it is common knowledge that threads of many anti-democratic plots which have been uncovered lately in certain peoples democracies—Poland, Albania and Hungary—can be traced directly to leaders of Catholic reaction."

Bidault, De Gaulle Parley Is Revealed

Paris, Jan. 10 (AP)—Announcement of a secret interview of former Premier Georges Bidault with Gen. Charles de Gaulle revived today rumors that the Centrist Popular Republican Movement (MRP) has been weighing the possibility of joining forces with the de Gaullists.

However, it seemed apparent that no decision was reached. Bidault himself revealed the interview. He said last night that the meeting was held in November, shortly after de Gaulle's Rally of the French People (RPF) swept about 40 per cent of the seats in the Council of the Republic, France's advisory upper house.

Announcing the interview, Bidault emphasized that the MRP would stand firm on its own principles and that its election losses had not shaken the unity of the party.

VATICAN CHARGES HUNGARY SOUGHT TO KILL CARDINAL

JAN 1949

VATICAN CITY, Jan. 10—(AP) The Vatican radio charged today Hungary arrested Josef Cardinal Mindszenty only after giving up the idea of arranging his "accidental death."

The communist-dominated Hungarian government, the broadcast said, had orders from Moscow to "liquidate" the Roman Catholic primate before the last day of 1948.

"Embarrassed by these summary orders," the radio said, the government created a commission to study means of obeying. This group considered sending the cardinal abroad, arranging his "accidental" death, or arresting him, it continued, adding:

Decided on Arrest

"It not being possible to induce the cardinal to go abroad, and the second solution being found difficult to put in practice, the third solution was decided on, just in time to meet the Moscow deadline."

Cardinal Mindszenty was arrested Dec. 26 on charges of treason and espionage. He has been a sharp critic of many Hungarian communist policies.

The broadcast identified members of the commission which handled his case as Josef Rebai, communist theoretician; Minaly Farkas, minister of national defense; Minister of Cults Ortutay; and Jeno Karona, governmental delegate for relations with the Catholic church.

Budapest dispatches meanwhile indicated the Hungarian government has rejected the Vatican demand that Mindszenty be released as a condition to negotiations for settlement of differences between the church and state.

Rebai, in an article in the official communist newspaper Szabad Nep, said:

"Hungarian democracy wants an agreement, too, but Hungary is as sovereign as the Vatican and will never accept the condition of exception from punishment for a criminal and of the immunity of priests who aim to overthrow the republic. Never. We also desire an agreement, but we are not too anxious to obtain it."

After arresting the cardinal, the Hungarian government approached the Vatican with a suggestion for negotiations. The Vatican radio said the Holy See replied that it was difficult to reconcile Hunfary's purported desire for friendly relations with its action in the case of Mindszenty.

Cardinal's Death Urged By Russ: Vatican Radio

Vatican City, Jan. 10 (AP)—The Vatican Radio said today the recent arrest of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty took place after a Hungarian commission abandoned the possibility of an "accidental death."

The broadcast said the commission was under instructions to find means of obeying orders from Moscow to "liquidate" the Cardinal, Roman Catholic Primate of Hungary. It continued:

Moscow gave Hungary's Communist leaders direct orders to liquidate Mindszenty before the last day of 1948. The Hungarian Government, " embarrassed by these summary orders" appointed a commission to study the means The comission considered sending the Cardinal abroad, his death "by accident" or his arrest.

Third Solution

"It not being possible to induce the Cardinal to go abroad and the second solution being found difficult to put in practice, the third solution was decided on just in time to meet the Moscow deadline."

The broadcast identified members of the commission as Jozef Rebai, Communist theoretician; Mihaly Farkas, Minister of National Defense; the Minister of Cults, Ortutay; and Jeno Karona, governmental delegate for relations with the Catholic Church.

The orders from Moscow were sent to Hungary "several months ago," the Vatican radio said. Mindszenty was arrested December 26 and charged with treason, espionage and other crimes. He was a foe of some policies of the Communist-dominated Hungarian Government.

Russ Failures To Make Reds Of Germans Cited

JAN 1949

Berlin, Jan. 10—Gen. Lucius D. Clay said today the failure of Russian tactics in trying to swing the population of Berlin to communism "must be apparent even to the Soviet Government."

The United States military governor assessed the results of last month's Berlin elections in his monthly report on occupation affairs.

The report recorded two other setbacks for communism in Western Germany—in British occupation zone elections and in trade-union affairs.

Cautioning Notes

But is contained two cautioning notes: That German nationalism is developing anew in Western Germany and that German authorities in the United States occupation zone are making unwarranted complaints about costs of the occupation.

Clay declared the Socialist Unity (Communist) party in the western sectors of Berlin has "almost disintegrated."

"The defeat suffered by the Communists does not affect the Socialist Unity party alone," he said, "but also the party's ideological and political mentors, the Soviet military administration, and reflects on the tactics used by the Russian occupation power.

Failure Of Tactics

"The failure of these tactics, which were pursued with the greatest determination, must be apparent even to the Soviet Government.

"It is clear that Berlin, a city where the population had ample opportunity to observe Soviet methods at close range, has become the worst habitat for communism.

"The significance of these facts can hardly be over-emphasized since Berlin is the one place in the world today where the impact of Soviet police methods on public opinion can be distinctly measured in terms of democratic elections."

"Lift Their Heads"

Clay warned that "nationalistic groups, which had been driven underground in Germany since the overthrow of National Socialism, are again beginning to lift their heads."

Two such groups held meetings recently in the United States zone, Clay said. "Although these groups are as yet small, democratic German leaders recall with uneasiness that, until 1929, national socialism itself was a negligible movement."

The report named the groups as Otto Strasser's "infamous Black Front" and the National Democratic party (VNDP).

The report said Strasser's group was being rebuilt under "the seemingly inocuous name of League for German Revival."

Now In Canada

The report added Strasser was a Nazi leader expelled from the party in 1930 because he took its "socialistic plans too seriously." He then formed the Black Front. He went into exile after 1933. His brother, Gregor, once No. 2 Nazi, was murdered in the Hitler purge of 1934.

"Otto Strasser, now living in Canada, is reported planning to return to Germany in March," the report said, adding his followers met at Friedberg, in the American zone state of Hesse.

The report said the group had requested a military government authorization for a local license but the request was rejected on the technical grounds it had insufficient signatures.

Demands Listed

Clay's report said the leader of the National Democratic party had declared in a Stuttgart rally that his party demanded:

Re-establishment of the German Reich within its former boundaries, return of eastern German territories ceded to Poland and Russia and return of the Saar and Alsace-Lorraine from France.

SOVIET OWES $10,000,000 IN GERMAN GOODS

JAN 1949

No Hope Of Collecting It In Berlin, General Hays Asserts

Berlin, Jan. 10 (AP)—Russia owes the Western Allies more than $10,000,000 worth of eastern German goods, but there is no hope of collecting the debt in Soviet-blockaded western Berlin, Maj. Gen. George P. Hays said tonight.

The deputy American military governor explained that all attempts to sidestep the Berlin blockade by landborne imports from eastern Germany had proved fruitless. Negotiations with the Russians collapsed in September and have not been resumed.

Hays said the Western Allies proposed last summer that "reciprocal deliveries" from Russian-occupied Germany, under the Potsdam reparations agreement, be made to western Berlin.

Supplied By Airlift

This would have brought in more than $10,000,000 worth of such necessities as coal, grain, fuel oil and timber to the western sectors of the city. Western Berlin now is being supplied by the American-British airlift from western Germany.

Russia's obligations for "reciprocal deliveries" was written into the Potsdam pact in 1945. Under its terms fifteen per cent of all industrial capital equipment removed from western Germany was to go to the Soviet Union in return for an equivalent value in commodities to the Western powers from Russian-controlled stocks.

United States claims alone against the Russians amount to approximately $4,000,000. British and French claims are even higher. No reparations have been delivered to Soviet authorities from western Germany since the Berlin blockade went into effect last June.

Owes Zone 800 Railcars

Explaining the breakdown in the negotiations over eastern German goods, Hays said:

"The Russian officer who answered our letter said it was beyond his competence to fix a Berlin delivery point. He claimed it would have to be the west German frontier.

"He demanded we promise to turn back as many freight cars as we received at the frontier. We refused because eastern Germany already owed our western zones something like 800 cars.

"Another Russian proposal was that we take delivery in east German ports. We turned that down because we were reluctant to risk our ships inside the blockade."

Nationalist Revival

The American military governor, Gen. Lucius D. Clay, said German nationalistic groups which had been driven underground since the overthrow of the Nazi regime "are again beginning to lift their heads." Two such groups held meetings recently in the American zone.

In his monthly report on occupation affairs, Clay also assessed the results of last month's election in western Berlin. The failure of Russian tactics in trying to swing the population of the city to communism "must be apparent even to the Soviet Government," he said.

German nationalistic groups are small as yet, Clay said, but "Democratic German leaders recall with uneasiness that, until 1929," Nazism itself was a negligible movement.

The report named the groups as Otto Strasser's "infamous Black Front" and the National Democratic patry. Strasser's group, Clay said, is being rebuilt under "the seemingly inocuous name of the League for German Revival."

"Otto Strasser, now living in Canadà, is reported planning to return to Germany in March," Clay said. He described Strasser as a former Nazi leader who was expelled from the party in 1930 because he took its "socialistic plans too seriously." Strasser subsequently went into exile. His brother, Gregor, once No. 2 Nazi, was murdered in the Hitler purge of 1934.

Clay said the leader of the National Democratic party declared at a recent rally in Stuttgart that his party demanded:

Re-establishment of the German Reich within its former boundaries, return of eastern German territories ceded to Poland and Russia and return of the Saar and Alsace-Lorraine from France.

British Tighten Ban in Germany

BERLIN, Jan. 10 (AP)—The British tightened today their ban on the importation of Soviet-sponsored newspapers and films into the British zone of Germany. An amended order provides that British military authorities instead of the German postal officials will decide what printed matter will be exempt from the ban.

Czechs Hold 2 Soldiers

JAN 1949

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 10 (AP). Two American soldiers have been prisoners of Czechoslovakia police for more than a month, the United States Army disclosed tonight.

Efforts are being made to have them released, it was learned unofficially.

United States Army officials identified the GI's as:

RECRUIT CLARENCE R. HILL, 31, whose wife, Mrs. Mabel Hill, lives in Jackson, Miss.

RECRUIT GEORGE R. JONES, 22, whose mother, Mrs. Susan Jones, lives at Owensboro, Ky.

Both soldiers, the Army said, are members of the 1st Battalion of the 6th Armored Cavalry Regiment of the United States constabulary.

Absent Since Dec. 1

An official Army statement said the two GI's went "absent without leave" from their posts on December 1, 1948.

Twelve days later, the Army said, German border police at Furth Im Wald, on the Czechoslovakia and United States zone border, were called by a Czech border police sergeant.

The Czech, the Army statement said, announced "Czech police were detaining the two enlisted men at the city jail at Domazlice, Czechoslovakia, as they assertedly crossed the border by walking along railroad tracks on December 10 or 11."

Conflicting with this, however, was another report which Army agents received from German border police on December 14.

On that date, the Army said, Police Chief Goertfz at Furth Im Wald reported he had been informed by Czech police at Kubitz that the two Americans "were being detained in the office of the director of public safety in Pilsen."

Czech authorities on this date were said to have alleged that the GI's had been arrested while visiting hotels in Czechslovakia "accompanied by German girls," on December 8 and 9.

The Army said it knew no more about the soldiers' disappearance.

Kuhn Gets Time To Prepare Appeal

Munich, Jan. 10 (A. P.).—Fritz Kuhn, former head of the German-American Bund, was granted more time today to prepare an appeal against a ten-year hard-labor sentence. Kuhn was convicted in absentia as an active Nazi, while he was a fugitive last April. Appeal had been set for today.

On Kuhn's request, the Munich Court of Appeals tentatively set February 14 as the new trial date.

Hungarian 'Red' Answers Rome

Budapest, Jan. 10 (AP)—Hungary apparently has rejected the Vatican's demand that Josef Cardinal Mindszenty be released from jail as a condition to negotiations between the Government and the Catholic Church for a settlement of their differences.

Jozef Rebai, the Communists' top ideologist, wrote in the official Communist newspaper Szabad Nep today:

"Hungarian democracy wants an agreement, too, but Hungary is as sovereign as the Vatican and will never accept the condition of exception from punishment for a criminal and of the immunity of priests who aim to overthrow the republic. Never. We also desire an agreement, but we are not too anxious to obtain it."

Government View

Political observers said this editorial probably represents the view of the Communist-dominated Government.

The cardinal was jailed on charges of plotting against the Government and black-market currency dealings. The Vatican a week ago rejected a Hungarian offer to negotiate a settlement of differences.

["It is impossible to see how a serious desire for an accord with the Holy See can be conciliated with the treatment inflicted upon a cardinal archbishop primate, treatment that offends the Holy See," the Vatican radio quoted the rejection as saying.]

The Vatican's condition is believed to have caused delay of talks between the Government and Catholic bishops which had been scheduled to begin last Wednesday. The Government has published the charges against the cardinal, and thus there appeared to be little likelihood it would release him. The bishops, for their part, apparently will stand by the Vatican's orders.

Prague Confirms Arrest

Prague, Czechoslovakia, Jan. 10 (AP)—United States Embassy employés in Prague said tonight that they had been informed about the arrest of two American soldiers by Czechoslovak border police and had made inquiries of the Czechoslovak Government.

Aside from confirming that the men were still in custody, the embassy had no other statement to make, however.

Russia Announces Shift To Peace-Time Economy

MOSCOW, Jan. 10 (AP).—Soviet Russia has made a major shift from war to peace economy with the aim of lowering retail prices, "The Soviet Journal of Economic Questions" reported yesterday.

War-time subsidies have been virtually ended, it said. The state increased wholesale prices and freight rates, but to offset this it eliminated from a wide variety of products the huge basic turnover tax.

JAN 1949

The article, written by U. Vladimirov, explained that the system of state subsidies was made necessary by the war but in normal times was "a brake on further development of the economy" and has been "basically liquidated." This, he said, will aid the fight for lower cost of production and strengthen the ruble.

The turnover tax has provided 68 per cent of government revenue. It will be removed from all types of fuel except oil products, and from electric power, ores, metals, machinery, construction materials and products of the chemical, timber and woodworking industries.

West Forming German Troop Units, Tass Says

Moscow, Jan. 10 (AP)—A Tass dispatch from Berlin contended today that Birtain and the United States are forming German military units in their zones.

The Soviet news agency said the British are organizing units of former German soldiers under the guise of "working brigades." The dispatch said former German officers are running most of the outfits under the direction of a former British Army officer and in the United States zone former German General Halder is forming such groups under American sanction.

[Col. Gen. Franz Halder, Adolf Hitler's former chief of staff, was cleared of Nazism in Munich last September by a German court.]

There have been similar charges levied against the Russians by the Western Allies. The Soviets also have made charges like this before.

FIGHT HEAVIER NEAR TIENTSIN

JAN 1949

Some Hand-To-Hand Battles Reported Around City

Peiping, Tuesday, Jan. 11 (AP)—Heavy fighting around besieged Tientsin, some of it hand-to-hand, was reported today.

Government war planes struck back at the Chinese Communist onslaught against the western and southern suburbs of the big North-China city.

Headquarters of Gen. Fu Tso-yi, Government North China commander in Peiping, reported the fighting was still in progress and the Communists were using all available strength.

Fierce hand-to-hand fighting developed in all-night battles on the northeastern and northwestern outskirts. Headquarters claimed the Communists there were forced back and 7,000 were killed.

Bring Up Reinforcement

The Communists were reported bringing up reinforcements.

The no-man's-land of the battle seems to be near National Nankai University.

Tientsin's east arsenal was reported still in Communist hands. Three cotton mills and several other factories suspended operations.

A four-hour fight was reported on the southwestern suburbs of Peiping Monday. The situation around this ancient capital has been relatively quiet for weeks.

Headquarters also reported clashes near Tatung in northern Shansi province.

Railroads Running

Peiping entered its fifth week of siege today. The Communists thus far have not directly assaulted the city itself, which most probably would be proclaimed capital of China when they come into power.

While patiently waiting for political winds to shift so they can move in peacefully, the Communists are busy removing the ravages of war from the vast areas they have conquered.

Trustworthy reports say they now are operating rail traffic all the way from Harbin in north Manchuria to Lutai, 40 miles northeast of Tientsin.

They also are running trains between Tsing Ho, seven miles north of Peiping, and Kalgan with the exception of a stretch in Nankou pass.

Localized Peace Favored

The move for peace grows stronger every day, with the populace anxious for it to come before the Chinese new year starts January 29.

Prominent natives of Manchuria now living in Peiping came out openly in favor of a localized peace in North China. They decided to appeal to President Chiang Kai-shek to free young Marshal Chang Hsueh-liang, once overlord of Manchuria, who now is living under surveillance in Formosa.

They said the young Marshal would be an ideal man to work for peace because he enjoys a good reputation with the Communists. [Chang has been a virtual prisoner since the Communists and himself detained Chiang Kai-shek at Sian in December, 1936, as a means of forcing the Generalissimo to form a united front against Japan.]

The newspaper Ping Min Ji Pao, owned by General Fu, is urging international mediation in the civil war.

CHINA REDS PUSH TOWARD NANKING

H.K. MILKS

Crushing Island Of Resistance North Of Yangtze

Nanking, China, Jan. 10 (AP)—Chinese Communist troops today were crushing with smashing attacks a Government island of resistance north of Nanking which is delaying the Communist push to the Yangtze.

[The Communist ... said remnants of the National ... t force—which is estimated at 130,000 men the day before—was "completely wiped out" by 10 o'clock this morning, Chinese time.]

Pilots returning from the front described the fight ... as the "heaviest we have see ... any time in China." Smoke from intensive artillery fire hung over the battlefield.

Modern Equipment

These forces of Gen. Tu Li-hing numbered possibly 250,000 when they defended the former base of Suchow. They were trapped about 150 miles northwest of Nanking in a pocket 3 miles long and a mile and a half wide. Steady attrition has caused them heavy losses since encirclement.

Government planes were requested from the ground to make no more supply drops because the remnants are so tightly compressed, reports reaching Nanking said.

The capture of Tu's forces, with their great stores of munitions and modern equipment, will make powerful Communist forces available for the expected drive to the Yangtze, the last barrier before Nanking.

Chiang's Plane Moved

Meanwhile, one diplomat predicted that a negative answer would be given by the United States, France Great Britain and Russia to China's reported request for their help in ending the civil war.

President Chiang Kai-shek's luxurious private plane was moved to a small field inside Nanking within a few hundred yards of Chiang's official residence.

One source said Chiang had decided to leave Nanking, possibly for Formosa, until he changed his mind yesterday.

"It looks now like he may stay here until the Communists drive him out," the source added.

Direct Talks Urged

Former Premier Chang Chun returned to Nanking from Hankow and Changsha, where he is suposed to have urged the two regional generals there to stick by the Government.

His report to the President is expected to decide Chiang's future moves. Gen. Pai Chung-hsi, Central China commander at Hankow, and Gen. Cheng Chun, Governor of Hunan province south of Hankow, both have been reported getting restless.

"Left wing" Kuomintang (Government party) members of the national legislature demanded an immediate end of the war at an informal meeting of lawmakers remaining in Nanking.

"Let us go to Yenan (Communist capital) and Manchuria and talk directly to the Communists," declared Liu Pu-tung, who more than a month ago was called a "peace monger" by his colleagues.

Gold Sent To Hong Kong

When several Kuomingtang legislators threatened him with expulsion from the party for disloyalty, he shouted back: "What about those people who send their gold bars to Hong Kong? Is that allegiance to the party?"

Mo Ru-chu, northeastern representative, said the legislators had a legal right to discuss the problems of peace. Mo declared bodies covered the earth for miles around Suchow after the battle there and demanded: "What kind of legislators are we to be talking about a fight to the finish?"

The legislators failed to reach any agreement on a course of action.

["I will fight to the last," declared Gen. Chen Cheng, new Governor of Formosa, at a press conference at Taipei, the capital.

[The new Governor declared Formosa would be strengthened for use as a base for restoring a Nationalist China.]

JAN 1949

Legislators Join Debate

Nanking, Jan. 10 (AP)—Chinese legislators still in the capital today jointed the peace debate at an informal meeting in which several Kuomintang (Government party) members demanded immediate end of the civil war. H.K MILKS

The meeting followed reports the Nationalists had asked for Big Four mediation.

Liu Pu-tung, whose proposals to end the civil war more than a month ago won him the title of "peacemonger," demanded that members of the Legislaure go to Yenan and Manchuria to talk directly to the Communists.

They Have "Responsibilities"

Liu told the legislators they have responsibilities toward the nation and should carry them out instead of "just sitting on a sofa awaiting orders."

Threatened with expulsion from the party for disloyalty, Liu shouted: "What about those people who send their gold bars to Hong Kong? Is that allegiance to the party?"

Northeastern Representative Mo Ru-chu said the lawmakers had a legal right to discuss the problem of peace.

"We should say what the people want us to say and not just 'Yes, Yes' to the Government," he added.

Suchow Pocket Wiped Out, Red Radio Claims

JAN 1949

San Francisco, Jan. 10 (AP)—The Chinese Communist radio said today that all Government troops encircled south of Suchow "were completely wiped out by 10 o'clock this morning."

Last reports from Nationalist sources estimated the troops under Gen. Tu Li-ming at between 150,000 and 250,000 men. Red estimates a few hours ago cut the size of the force down to 130,000 troops.

[Nanking and Shanghai reports said pilots who flew supplies to the trapped National soldiers were turned back and ordered not to drop the supplies. These pilots said heavy white smoke indicated an intense artillery duel with phosphorous shells used by both sides. The pilots said the fighting in the narrow area was the heaviest they had seen in China.]

Battle Started January 6

The Communist radio said the big battle to end the long and costly Suchow struggle began at 3 P.M., on January 6. Among the units it said were wiped out were the Kuomintang 2d Army Group, the 13th Army Group and the 16th Army Group.

The radio said detailed battle results were being tabulated by the victorious Communist troops under Gen. Chen Yi.

At one time, 1,000,000 combatants were reported engaged in the Suchow struggle.

Hirohito Sees MacArthur

Emperor's Visit, His Seventh, Is Scarcely Noticed by Japanese

TOKYO, Jan. 10 (AP).—Emperor Hirohito today made his first call of the New Year on General Douglas MacArthur. The Emperor remained for a two-hour discussion of undisclosed subjects.

This was the seventh call paid General MacArthur by the Japanese Emperor. His first visit shocked the nation. Today's caused hardly a ripple.

Filipino 'Brass,' Jones Clash

Manila, Jan. 10 (AP)—Policy differences are driving a wedge between top Filipino defense leaders and their American military advisers.

The advisory group, headed by outspoken Maj. Gen. Albert M. Jones, has taken the position that the Philippines would not be an area of actual combat in the event of war and that the chief danger would lie from within.

Jones is a blunt, thorough-going campaigner with long experience in the Philippines, including Bataan's bitter days and three years of imprisonment by the Japanese. He has a reputation for not mincing words, and is advising the Filipines to build up their internal security forces.

Reported To Be Offended

The General's recommendation is reliably reported to have offended Secretary of Defense Ruperto Kangleon and the top Philippine army brass.

While advising bolstering forces to cope with dissidents in the islands, Jones suggested that less money be spent on a large standing army to repel invaders. It seems that the Filipinos interpreted this as favoring abolition of the army altogether.

Efforts were made in Washington to have Jones removed.

To See MacArthur

Thus far, these efforts have failed, but Jones is planning to fly to Tokyo about January 19 to confer with General MacArthur. He then may continue to Washington.

Rebels Harass Dutch Forces In Indonesia

JAN 1949

Jogjakarta, Indonesia, Jan. 10 (AP)—The Republican underground radio reported new guerrilla actions in central Java as the Dutch worked to restore normal conditions in Jogjakarta, captured Republican capital.

The underground report asserted there was a recent "heavy clash" between guerrillas and Dutch troops in central Java near Soerakarta, with fighting at the village of Kartasura, 6 miles west of Soerakarta.

The radio said guerrilla raiders in a separate action tore up a mile-long section of railway track, disrupting travel between Jogjakarta and Cheribon, about 60 miles away on the north Java coast.

Remnants Of Army

Other guerrilla activities were reported north of Soerakarta.

None of the radio reports was confirmed by the Dutch Army.

Indonesian Republican spokesmen say that the guerrilla groups are units of the Republican Army just beginning to fight a defensive war against the Dutch.

[The Dutch began what they termed a police-action offensive last December 18 and have since occupied major Indonesian cities. The Dutch officially ordered a cease-fire a week ago, but said they would continue activities against roving guerrilla groups.]

Three weeks after Dutch paratroopers captured the capital city, intermittent shots still were heard on the outskirts. There has been no recent flareup of open fighting, however.

Federation Studied

Batavia, Java, Jan. 10 (AP)—Executive chiefs of Indonesian states will meet tonight to consider federation.

The areas of Java and Sumatra formerly governed by the Indonesians' Republic will not be represented.

The meeting is expected to crystalize the attitude of non-Republicans on the Dutch attack, which wiped out the Soekarno administration.

Four Restricted To Island

The Dutch on Friday announced that five members of the Republican Government had been released from custody. However, four major leaders, including President Soekarno, are being restricted to the Island of Bangka, of Sumatra.

Temporary chairman of the group discussing federation will be Hamid II, Sultan of Pontianak, West Borneo.

Prime Minister William Drees of the Netherlands talked with some of the leaders privately over the week end, but it is not yet determined whether he will address them as a body.

New Pasundan Premier

The President of the West Java State of Pasundan has appointed a new Premier and Cabinet to replace Indonesian leaders who resigned in protest against the Dutch attack on the republic.

He appointed Djumhana Premier and Minister for Home Affairs. Djumhana, in turn, appointed a Dutchman as Minister of Finance and a Chinese as Minister of Communications. All other posts were filled by Indonesians.

Djumhana is believed to be sympathetic towards the Republican cause and is representing West Java at tonight's consultations.

Malaya Stiffens Penalty For Aid to Communists

SINGAPORE, Jan. 10 (AP).—The government today published stringent emergency regulations aimed at persons aiding Communist insurgents in Malaya.

The new laws authorize the arrest of all inhabitants of areas known to be aiding the Communists. Most of the "terrorists" were described as Chinese.

The government said in a statement that in certain areas the inhabitants have been acting as spies and sentries for Communist "bandits" and have been furnishing supplies. In addition, it was charged, some of the people themselves are "part-time bandits."

British and Malayan forces have been combating Communist insurgents since revolt began in the Federation of Malaya last June. More than 500 insurgents have been killed or captured.

Panama Ready for Canal Talks

PANAMA, Jan. 10 (AP)—Government spokesmen and members of the opposition said in the National Assembly today that the Republic of Panama was ready to enter negotiations with the United States to provide for the defense of the Canal. [In December, 1947, Panama refused to allow United States troops to remain at wartime bases in that country. Their withdrawal was then ordered by Washington.]

GOP LEADERS SEEK TO HALT PROPOSED FIGHT ON ACHESON

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10 (AP)—The nation's bi-partisan foreign policy appeared headed for smoother sailing today after a brief but angry squall in the senate.

Two developments pointed in that direction:

1. President Truman discussed the international situation with John Foster Dulles, Republican foreign policy expert, in a 30-minute talk at the White House.

2. Senator Vendenberg (R-Mich) was reported urging his GOP colleagues not to make an all-out fight against the President's nomination of Dean Acheson as secretary of state.

Harmony Endangered

Bi-partisan cooperation appeared to be in danger last week when the Democrats, cashing in on their election victory, took over control of the new congress. Senate Democrats promptly alloted themselves an 8-to-5 margin of the Foreign Relations Committee.

Republicans howled protest, saying when they were in power they took only seven seats and gave the six to the Democrats.

Senator Morse (R-Ore) called the Democratic move "a shocking repudiation of a bi-partisan foreign policy." And Vandenberg, slow to anger, bluntly accused the Democrats of violating the "spirit of bi-partisan cooperation."

Some Republicans saw a chance of getting back by attacking Acheson's nomination to the No. 1 diplomatic post. But Vandenberg was described by associates today as advising moderation. The Michigan senator, they said, feels that Acheson is almost certain to be confirmed and that little would be gained by challenging him at the outset of an extremely difficult job.

Senator Taft (R-Ohio) predicted that GOP senators will put off any decision on a possible organized fight against Acheson for the time being.

He said it was not discussed at today's GOP policy committee meeting, but may be taken up after the Foreign Relations Committee acts on the nomination.

AFL Backs Acheson

Meanwhile, the American Federation of Labor threw its support behind Acheson. AFL President William Green declared in a statement:

"We are impressed by Mr. Acheson's broad understanding of the basic international problems of our time and we are convinced that his views on maintaining a firm policy against Soviet aggression and aggrandizement coincide with our own."

Some Republicans had been prepared to challenge what they called Acheson's "leftist" ideas, but Acheson's friends said there is no doubt he stands for a firm policy toward Moscow. They cited his past, as undersecretary of state in helping to draft the Truman doctrine.

Dulles' call on Mr. Truman at the White House was interpreted in diplomatic circles as pointing toward a continuance of bi-partisanship.

Dulles, who was Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's chief advisor on foreign affairs before the Nov. 2 election, has been acting head of the American delegation to the United Nations during Secretary of State Marshall's absence because of ill health.

Dulles told newsmen that he talked with Mr. Truman "about the future outlook," including the critical turn of events between Britain and Israel.

"I just came in to report to him," Dulles said.

PLEA IS LOST BY COMMUNIST PARTY CHIEFS

Supreme Court Refuses To Halt Trial Of 12 Committeemen

JAN 1949

Washington, Jan. 10 (AP)—The Supreme Court refused today to halt the impending trial of twelve top Communist party officials on charges of conspiring to advocate overthrow of the Government.

The twelve men are members of the National Committee of the Communist party of the United States. They face trial beginning in New York Federal Court next Monday.

They asked the high court last Friday to step in and cancel their indictments because they declared they are to be tried before "a veritable conviction machine." They charged also that Judge Harold R. Medina, assigned to preside, is biased and prejudiced against them.

The Supreme Court, acting only three days after the appeal was filed, dismissed both contentions without comment in its routine order.

Attack On "Blue Ribbon" Jury

The party officials, in addition to asking that their indictments be voided and the trial stayed, sought to have the jury panel thrown out because they said manual workers, the unemployed, Negroes and members of low-income groups were deliberately excluded.

This was in effect an attack on New York's "blue ribbon" jury system, which the Supreme Court upheld in a 5-4 decision handed down June 23, 1947.

The party officials said this selection system resulted in a grand jury and a trial jury panel which are "the organ of a particular group or class, the rich, the propertied and the well-to-do, and do not represent an impartial cross-section of the community."

Indictments Against Twelve

No such jury-selection system

"can quality in the minds of disinterested and democratic persons as a fair system of dispensing justice, or as a system in which justice can be obtained at all," their brief argued.

One of the indictments against the Communist party officials charges them with conspiracy to organize the party, an organization allegedly advocating overthrow of the Government by force and violence.

Other indictments charged the individuals with being members of the party. All were returned by a special grand jury last July 20. All the men have pleaded innocent.

They are William Z. Foster, Eugene Dennis, John B. Williamson, Jacob Stachel, Robert G. Thompson, Benjamin J. Davis, Jr., Henry Winston, John Gates, Irving Potash, Gilbert Green, Carl Winter and Gus Hall.

Charge Of Bias Against Judge

Their charge of bias and prejudice against Judge Medina had previously been turned down by the jurist himself and by the New York Circuit Court.

The party officials based their complaint largely on comments the judge made during a preliminary proceeding. During a discussion as to whether there had been any acts of violence, the record shows he said, "They want to wait until they get everything set and then the acts will come."

Judge Medina said the comment was made "by way of purely legal argument" in which the truth of the indictments was accepted for the sake of the discussion. He denied he was prejudiced.

Foremen And Bargaining

The court declined to consider an attack on validity of a section of the Taft-Hartley Act which frees employers from a legal obligation to bargain collectively with foremen.

LIBERALIZED D.P. BILL INTRODUCED

JAN 1949

Washington, Jan. 10 (A. P.).—Two Democratic Senators proposed legislation to ease the road into the United States for 400,000 Europeans who were driven from their homes by the war.

The measure, offered by Senators McGrath of Rhode Island and Neely of West Virginia, would rewrite the so-called "displaced persons" law passed by the Republican Eightieth Congress and condemned by President Truman as discriminatory.

Under the McGrath-Neely proposal, persons who entered the American occupation zones in Europe before April 21, 1947, would be eligible for admission. The Republican-sponsored law provided for the admission of 200,000 persons but barred any who made their way into the American zones after December 22, 1945. During the presidential campaign, President Truman charged this discriminated against certain Jews and Catholics who fled from Poland and other countries in 1946 and 1947.

McGrath and Neely also proposed repeal of provisions, (1) requiring displaced persons to have jobs waiting for them, (2) making it necessary that 30 per cent of visas be issued to agricultural workers and, (3) requiring that admissions be charged against future immigration quotas of the countries involved.

McCloy Says World Bank Has Enough Loan Capital

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10 (AP).—John J. McCloy, president of the World Bank, said today he sees no need now for the bank to raise additional lending capital. He told a news conference that the $478,000,000 the bank has available for lending seems a "substantial" amount, especially since credits already extended are being used slowly.

Among new loans he described as shaping up toward action were:

One for not more than $15,000,000 to finance export of timber from Finland and Yugoslavia to Western European nations. Mr. McCloy said Czechoslovakia may come in on the loan, but Poland has dropped out.

Another, probably under $75,000,000, to finance power development in Brazil by the Brazilian Traction, Light and Power Co., a concern which is largely Canadian-owned. Mr. McCloy said the Brazilian legislature has approved the project.

Bill Asks Tighter Laws To Protect U. S. Secrets

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10 (AP).—A bill proposed by Secretary of Defense James Forrestal to tighten security laws around the nation's secret code, cipher and crytographic system was introduced today by Representative Francis E. Walter, Democrat, of Pennsylvania.

The measure would allow up to a $10,000 fine and ten years' imprisonment, or both, for intercepting government communications, publishing data about communications methods, or using restricted information regarding codes.

The proposal also would protect secret communications of foreign governments communicating with the United States. It has been approved by the Army, Navy, Air Force, State Department and the Central Intelligence Agency, Mr. Walter said.

CLAY AIDE SENT HOME FOR LOYALTY HEARING

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10 (AP)—An American civilian adviser to Gen. Lucius D. Clay, American military governor in Germany, has been ordered home, the Army reported tonight.

The man was identified by the Amy as Sam L. Wahrhaftig of Brooklyn, an assistant adviser in the civil administration division of the military government of the U. S. occupied zone.

He is to be given a hearing, the army said, under circular 100 of army regulations covering possible disloyalty. There was no amplification.

Wahrhaftig was reported enroute to the United States by plane, but temporarily weatherbound at the Azores.

The army said he had been a member of the service and later became a civilian employee.

SLAIN GI'S CHILD ARRIVES IN U. S.

JAN 1949

WESTOVER AIRFORCE BASE, Mass., Jan. 10—(AP) Little Jimmy Ybarbo, whose GI father was slain in Germany and whose mother was sentenced to 20 years for the crime, arrived from Germany today aboard an air force plane.

The youngster, who will be six next month, was crying wildly as he was carried from the plane in the arms of an officer.

Told that he would be taken to customs, little Jimmy, with tears streaming down his face, moaned: "I don't like that."

His 30-year-old bachelor uncle Charles W. Bailey, Jr., of Malden, was not at the plane when the youngster was carried from it but he was known to be somewhere on the field.

His uncle said the child would be taken to New Bedford where he will live with his maternal grandparents.

The boy's father, Sgt. John Ybarbo of Goliad, Tex., was shot to death in Germany where he was stationed with the occupation forces.

The child's mother was convicted by a U. S. Army military court.

The boy wore a green suit with hat to match and brown winter boots.

Bailey said that although an appeal would be sought to free the boy's mother, Mrs. Wilma Ybarbo, either he or an aunt, Mrs. Ruth Hunt of South Dartmouth, Mass., would meanwhile be made the child's legal guardian.

Bailey added that the child would be placed with friends "until all commotion dies down" and then would stay with the maternal grandmother, Mrs. Charles W. Bailey, Sr., of New Bedford.

ECA ALLOTS $979,000 MORE

China, Greece and Ireland Share in New Grants

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10 (AP)—The Economic Cooperation Administration earmarked an additional $979,000 in foreign aid today for Greece, Ireland and China. This brought total recovery commitments under the Marshall Plan to $4,249,158,000.

Greece received $460,000 of the new authorizations, Ireland $409,000 and China $110,000. The grants to Greece and Ireland will finance purchases of lumber and sawmill products in Newfoundland and Canada. China's grant is for American technical services.

Lodge Would Let Army Enlist 25,000 Aliens

Washington, Jan. 10 (AP)—Senator Lodge (R., Mass.) today introduced legislation to let the Army enlist up to 25,000 aliens.

A similar measure passed the Senate in the last Congress, but died in the House.

Lodge said in a statement that the measure would not set up a "foreign legion," but would make available to the Army "human talent which we can obtain in no other way."

Catholics Hear Plea for Mindszenty

Trenton, Jan. 10 (A. P.).—Priests and laity of the eight-county Roman Catholic Diocese of Trenton have been asked to urge Congress to facilitate the release from prison of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, primate of Hungary.

Efforts To Ease Tension Are Made By U.N. Official

Lake Success, N.Y., Jan. 10 (AP)—Aubrey S. Eban, Israeli representative, declared tonight that British troop movements in Trans-Jordan constitute a "repudiation of the Security Council truce resolutions."

Eban, who arrived today from Tel Aviv, said in a statement that Israel attaches great importance to the projected armistice negotiations scheduled between Israel and Egypt on Rhodes but added:

"It is obvious that these can only be prejudiced by provocative maneuvers such as those in which the British forces are now engaged."

Behind-Scene Efforts

Eban's statement came as informed quarters disclosed that Trygve Lie, United Nations secretary general, is exerting strong behind-the-scenes efforts to ease British-Israeli tension.

One source said Lie was indirectly responsible for the action of the United States in calling on Britain and Israel to consider merely as a "regrettable incident" the fight in which five RAF planes were shot down near the Egypt-Palestine border.

The British and Egyptian delegations, meanwhile, denied Tel Aviv reports that Britain had violated the United Nations truce by turning large amounts of military equipment over to the Egyptian Government. A British spokesman said Britain had turned no equipment over to any Arab country since the United Nations truce began.

A United Nations spokesman confirmed that the secretary general had talked over "the gravity of the situation" with a member of the United States delegation here.

Meets Briton And Israeli

Lie also met last night with Arthur Lourie, Israeli representative, and this morning with Sir Terence Shone, British representative.

At both meetings, a spokesman said, Lie pointed out the importance of the forthcoming armistice talks between Egypt and Israel at Rhodes. He is said to have warned them of the consequences any new complications might have.

The secretary general pointed out to both, the spokesman said, that Ralph J. Bunche, acting mediator, already had ordered a thorough investigation of the plane incident.

The talks touched on the whole general question of worsening British-Israeli relations. In addition to the shooting down of the planes, Lie also discussed the landing of British troop reinforcements at Aqaba, Trans-Jordan and British naval movements in the Middle East.

Strasser Asks Passport To Return To Germany

Bridgetown, N.S., Jan. 10 (AP)—Dr. Otto Strasser said today he has applied for a passport to return to Germany to lead a "rally of German democratic forces."

"I lead no party," he declared. "You might describe our movement as a rally of the German democratic people similar to that headed in France by General de Gaulle. We do not believe in political parties in the old sense."

Strasser broke with Hitler in 1930 and became a political exile after his brother, Gregor, was killed in the purge of 1934.

Commenting on General Clay's statement, Strasser declared: "I was not expelled by Hitler. I left Hitler of my own free will because I opposed most of his ideas and all his practices. I believe Germany has the same right to national freedom and liberty as all other peoples on the earth. My group is demanding nothing else than the same rights as others."

British - Israeli Clash Placed Before Lie

JAN 1949

Lake Success, Jan. 10 (AP)—United Nations Secretary-General Trygve Lie today conferred privately with British Representative Sir Terence Shone on the British-Israeli clash in Palestine.

Seriously disturbed over the new turn of events in the Holy Land, Lie is seeking to smooth out the dispute before it complicates further the general Palestine problem.

The secretary general conferred last night with Israeli Representative Arthur Lourie.

Trying To Prevent Flareup

Informed quarters said Lie was trying to prevent any new flareup on the eve of the armistice talks which Acting Mediator Ralph Bunche plans to open on the Island of Rhodes this week between Egypt and Israel.

One source reported efforts are under way to get the United States to intervene between Britain and Israel to settle the new issues, which include the air clash over the Negeb, the landing of British troop reinforcements at Aqaba, Trans-Jordan and reported British aid to Egypt. AP

His German Fiancee Again Decides To Wed

New York, Jan. 10 (AP)—Clayton Barber, 31, an electrician, of Mishawaka, Ind., succeeded today in persuading his German fiancee to exercise her privilege of changing her mind.

The fiancee, 19-year-old Edith George, announced that "we'll be married as soon as possible."

Barber added that "we are very happy."

Both spoke briefly to reporters as they left offices of the Immigration Service, smiling broadly. They would not say where they were going or when they would be married.

Taylor Assigned To European Post

New York, Jan. 10 (AP) — Maj. Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, 48-year-old retiring head of the United States Military Academy at West Point, has been appointed chief of staff for American forces in Europe.

Taylor, who succeeds Maj. Gen. Carter Magruder, will serve under Lieut. Gen. Ralph Huebner. He will leave for Heidelberg on January 28.

The announcement of his appointment was made by Taylor at a luncheon given in his honor today by Thomas J. Watson, president of the International Business Machines Corporation. Guests included Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, president of Columbia University, who praised Taylor's selection.

The retiring West Point superintendent led the 101st Airborne Division in its initial jump over Normandy on D-day.

Taylor, who became superintendent of the academy in 1945, will be succeeded by Maj. Gen. Bryant E. Moore, chief of the Army Public Information Division in Washington.

AMS BUDGET (600)
NIGHT LEAD PALESTINE (ROUNDUP) JAN 1949
BY ARTHUR GAVSHON

LONDON, JAN 10-(AP)-BRITAIN WILL CONTINUE MASSING MILITARY FORCES WITHIN EASY REACH OF ISRAEL BUT WILL MAKE NO PROTEST TO THE UNITED NATIONS CONCERNING THE SHOOTING DOWN OF FIVE RAF PLANES BY THE ISRAELIS, BRITISH DIPLOMATS SAID TONIGHT.

A JEWISH INFORMANT IN TEL AVIV SAID ISRAEL PLANS TO ACCUSE BRITAIN BEFORE THE U.N. OF VIOLATING THE PALESTINE TRUCE. ISRAELI AUTHORITIES ALSO WILL CHARGE THAT BRITAIN HAS MADE LARGE-SCALE ARMS SHIPMENTS TO THE EGYPTIANS, THE SOURCE SAID.

THERE WERE SIGNS THAT BOTH UNITED STATES AND UNITED NATIONS OFFICIALS WERE WORKING TO COOL OFF THE BRITISH-ISRAELI DISPUTE BEFORE IT COMPLICATED FURTHER THE GENERAL PALESTINE PROBLEM.

IN WASHINGTON THE STATE DEPARTMENT URGED BOTH SIDES TO TREAT THE SHOOTING DOWN OF THE PLANES AS A "REGRETTABLE INCIDENT ONLY." THE DEPARTMENT'S STATEMENT EXPRESSED THE HOPE THAT THE AIR CLASH WILL NOT INTERFERE WITH ISRAELI-EGYPTIAN ARMISTICE NEGOTIATIONS EXPECTED TO OPEN WEDNESDAY ON THE ISLAND OF RHODES.

KEY BRITISH CABINET MEMBERS AND DEFENSE CHIEFS MET TODAY ON THE CRISIS ARISING FROM THE SHOOTING DOWN OF THE RAF PLANES NEAR THE EGYPTIAN-PALESTINE BORDER LAST FRIDAY.

PRIME MINISTER ATTLEE CALLED THE SESSION.

THE DIPLOMATIC INFORMANTS SAID THE WHOLE PROBLEM OF THE SECURITY OF BRITAIN'S INTERESTS AND INSTALLATIONS IN THE MIDDLE EAST WAS CAREFULLY REVIEWED. FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN GAVE THE MINISTERS A DETAILED ACCOUNT OF THE SITUATION AND OUTLINES THE STEPS HE IS PLANNING TO TAKE.

THE BRITISH WERE SAID TO FEEL THEY ALREADY HAVE TAKEN EFFECTIVE WARNING ACTION AGAINST THE ISRAELIS BY SENDING TROOPS TO AQABA, A STRATEGIC RED SEA PORT ON THE TRANS-JORDAN SIDE OF THE PALESTINE BORDER. BRITISH NAVAL UNITS HAVE CONCENTRATED AT MALTA.

"THE PRESENCE OF OUR TROOPS IN AQABA WILL BE A RED LIGHT FOR THE JEWS NOT TO GO ANY FURTHER THAN THEY HAVE DONE," ONE DIPLOMATIC OFFICIAL SAID.

A2 JAN 1949

ISRAEL ALREADY HAS PROTESTED TO A U.N. REPRESENTATIVE IN HAIFA AGAINST THE BRITISH LANDING AT AQABA. THE PROTEST SAID THE PRESENCE OF BRITISH TROOPS THERE "CAN HAVE NO PURPOSE BUT TO THREATEN ISRAEL'S TERRITORY IN THE SOUTHERN PART OF THE NEGEV."

TWICE ISRAELI OFFICIALS REFUSED TO ACCEPT A BRITISH PROTEST AGAINST THE DOWNING OF THE PLANES BECAUSE IT WAS ADDRESSED TO "JEWISH AUTHORITIES IN TEL AVIV."

THE DIPLOMATIC INFORMANTS HERE SAID THE BRITISH REPRESENTATIVE IN HAIFA SINCE HAS READDRESSED THE PROTEST TO "THE PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT OF ISRAEL"--THE WAY THE JEWS WANTED IT ADDRESSED.

THEY STRESSED, HOWEVER, THAT THIS DOES NOT IMPLY ANY CHANGE IN BRITAIN'S POLICY OF NOT FORMALLY RECOGNIZING THE ISRAELI GOVERNMENT.

BRITISH AND AMERICAN EXCHANGES ON WHAT TO DO NEXT ABOUT PALESTINE CONTINUED BOTH HERE AND IN WASHINGTON. THE AMERICAN MINISTER IN LONDON, JULIUS C. HOLMES, CONFERRED WITH FOREIGN OFFICE CHIEFS. SO FAR THE TALKS HAVE NOT RESULTED IN FULL AGREEMENT, REPRESENTATIVES OF BOTH COUNTRIES SAID.

ONE AMERICAN INFORMANT SAID A BRITISH SUGGESTION THAT ARMS BE SUPPLIED TO THE ARAB COUNTRIES DID NOT MEET WITH UNITED STATES SYMPATHY. THE U.N. HAS CLAMPED AN ARMS EMBARGO ON THE MIDDLE EAST.

BRITISH OFFICIALS SAID PRIVATELY THAT IF THE U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL FAILS TO HOLD THE ISRAELIS TO THEIR OWN TERRITORY, BRITAIN WILL FEEL FREE TO MAKE "ALTERNATIVE" ARRANGEMENTS.

THIS COULD MEAN THAT THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT WOULD GIVE PRECEDENCE

LONDON--~~FIRST ADD~~ SECOND LEAD PALESTINE (A157) INSERT X X X THE SITUATION.

BRITAIN HAD PROTESTED TO "JEWISH AUTHORITIES" IN TEL AVIV IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE AIR CLASH, RESERVING RIGHTS TO CLAIM COMPENSATION AND TAKE ANY POSSIBLE FUTURE ACTION. THE JEWS TWICE REJECTED THIS PROTEST BECAUSE IT WAS NOT ADDRESSED TO THE GOVERNMENT OF ISRAEL, WHICH BRITAIN DOES NOT RECOGNIZE.

THE BRITISH REPRESENTATIVE IN HAIFA NOW HAS READDRESSED THE PROTEST TO "THE PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT OF ISRAEL," INFORMANTS SAID. THEY ADDED THIS DID NOT IMPLY ANY CHANGE IN THIS COUNTRY'S POLICY OF NOT FORMALLY RECOGNIZING THE STATE OF ISRAEL. THERE WAS NO INDICATION AT ONCE WHETHER ISRAEL ACKNOWLEDGED RECEIPT OF THE PROTEST IN THIS FORM.

DIPLOMATIC SOURCES SAID BEVIN REVIEWED THE WHOLE PICTURE OF BRITAIN'S SECURITY INTERESTS IN THE MIDDLE EAST AT THE CABINET SESSION AT WHICH PRIME MINISTER ATTLEE, DEFENSE MINISTER A. V. ALEXANDER AND THE TOP BRITISH DEFENSE LEADERS WERE PRESENT.

IF THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT WANTS THE PROTEST TO REACH TEL AVIV IT NOW MAY BE REQUIRED TO TRANSMIT IT THROUGH A THIRD POWER -- SUCH AS THE UNITED STATES OR RUSSIA -- WHICH HAS DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS WITH BOTH BRITAIN AND ISRAEL. London Cairo Israel

GOVERNMENT SOURCES SAID IT IS PROBABLE BRITAIN'S NEXT STEP WILL BE A STRONG DEMAND THAT THE U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL INSIST THAT JEWISH TROOPS KEEP WITHIN ISRAEL'S BOUNDARIES AND THAT ISRAEL PAY FOR THE LOSS OF PLANES AND PILOTS.

IF SHE FAILS TO GET EFFECTIVE SECURITY COUNCIL ACTION BRITAIN WAS REPORTED BY ONE GOVERNMENT SOURCE AS READY TO TAKE DEFINITE MEASURES OF HER OWN TO BULWARK THE ARAB STATES AGAINST POSSIBLE TERRITORIAL ENCROACHMENT BY ISRAEL.

THIS PROBABLY WOULD INCLUDE NOTICE TO THE SECURITY COUNCIL THAT BRITAIN NO LONGER FEELS BOUND BY THE EMBARGO AGAINST SHIPPING ARMS TO PARTICIPANTS IN THE ARAB JEWISH STRIFE. IT PROBABLY WOULD BE ACCOMPANIED BY AN EVEN GREATER INCREASE IN BRITISH POWER IN THE MIDEAST.

THE FOREIGN OFFICE DENIED AGAIN TODAY ALL PUBLISHED REPORTS THAT BRITAIN HAS SUPPLIED EGYPT AND OTHER ARAB STATES WITH MUNITIONS SINCE THE ARMS EMBARGO WAS LAID DOWN LAST SUMMER.

PUBLIC RESENTMENT AGAINST ISRAEL WAS BITTER, BUT BEVIN ALSO CAME IN FOR HIS SHARE OF CRITICISM.

THE INDEPENDENT-LIBERAL NEWSPAPER MANCHESTER GUARDIAN SAID THE FOREIGN SECRETARY "IS TAKING PERILOUS AND NEEDLESS RISKS IN THE MIDDLE EAST."

IT SAID IN PARTICULAR:

1. THE ACTION OF SENDING BRITISH AIRCRAFT OVER A CORNER OF THE AREA WHERE ISRAEL AND EGYPT HAVE BEEN FIGHTING WAS "INDEFENSIBLE."

2. THE DECISION TO SEND BRITISH TROOPS TO TRANS-JORDAN'S RED SEA PORT OF AQABA WAS A CASE OF BAD TIMING.

"THESE CLUMSY PROCEEDINGS HAVE GIVEN THE RUSSIANS A PERFECT OPPORTUNITY TO STEP IN AND POSE AS CHAMPIONS OF ISRAELI FREEDOM, AND THEY HAVE TAKEN THEIR CHANCE NEATLY," THE PAPER SAID.

JAN 1949

HAVE TAKEN THEIR CHANCE NEATLY," THE PAPER SAID.

MEANTIME BRITAIN HASTENED DEPLOYMENT OF HER MEDITERRANEAN FORCES.

TWO BRITISH FRIGATES SAILED EARLY YESTERDAY FROM MALTA TO CYPRUS, NEAR THE PALESTINE COAST. AN ADMIRALTY SPOKESMAN SAID THE AIRCRAFT CARRIER TRIUMPH AND THE CRUISER PHOEBE, WHICH HAVE BEEN CRUISING THE MEDITERRANEAN, HAVE BEEN RECALLED TO REJOIN OTHER BRITISH WARSHIPS CONCENTRATED THERE.

A DISPATCH FROM THE CENTRAL MEDITERRANEAN ISLAND SAID SHORE LEAVE FOR ALL BRITISH SAILORS HAS BEEN CANCELLED.

A BRIGADE OF MARINE COMMANDOS WAS ALERTED AT MALTA OVER THE WEEK-END FOR SHIPMENT TO AN UNDISCLOSED BRITISH BASE IN THE MIDDLE EAST.

JAN 1949

THE BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE ANNOUNCED SATURDAY THAT TROOPS HAD BEEN SENT FROM THE SUEZ CANAL ZONE TO TRANS-JORDAN'S RED SEA PORT OF AQABA. A TRANS-JORDAN GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN IN AMMAN CONFIRMED THAT THE BRITONS HAD ARRIVED IN AQABA AT THE REQUEST OF TRANS-JORDAN.

BRITISH SOURCES IN LONDON SAID MORE TROOPS PROBABLY WOULD BE SENT TO AQABA. BY MOVING INTO AQABA BRITISH TROOPS HAVE REINFORCED AT LEAST A PORTION OF TRANS-JORDAN'S FRONTIER WITH PALESTINE.

A TEL AVIV DISPATCH SAID THE ISRAELI GOVERNMENT HAS PROTESTED TO A UNITED NATIONS OFFICIAL IN HAIFA AGAINST THE LANDING OF BRITISH TROOP IN AQABA.

ISRAELI OFFICIALS SAID THE BRITISH OPERATION AT THE PORT APPARENTLY WAS INTENDED "AS A THREAT" TO THE YOUNG JEWISH STATE'S POSITION IN THE NEGEV AREA OF SOUTHERN PALESTINE. THEY ASKED THAT U.N. OBSERVERS BE SENT TO THE AREA TO SEE IF THE BRITISH MAKE ANY FRONTIER CROSSINGS INTO ISRAELI TERRITORY.

ARTHUR LOURIE, ACTING REPRESENTATIVE OF THE ISRAELI MISSION AT LAKE SUCCESS, CONFERRED IN NEW YORK LAST NIGHT WITH TRYGVE LIE, SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE UNITED NATIONS.

AN ISRAELI SPOKESMAN SAID LOURIE SOUGHT INFORMATION ON WHAT STEPS THE U.N. MIGHT TAKE TO "SAFEGUARD THE PEACE" IN PALESTINE IN VIEW OF THE BRITISH MILITARY MOVEMENTS IN THE MIDDLE EAST.

THE BRITISH PROTEST OVER THE PLANE INCIDENT SAID THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT TOOK A "GRAVE VIEW OF THE X X X UNPROVOKED ATTACK BY JEWISH AIRCRAFT OVER EGYPTIAN TERRITORY."

AN ISRAELI SPOKESMAN IN TEL AVIV HAS DENIED ALL FIVE BRITISH PLANES WERE SHOT DOWN ON THE EGYPTIAN SIDE OF THE BORDER. AT LEAST THREE PLANES, HE SAID, WERE DOWNED ON THE PALESTINE SIDE OF THE FRONTIER.

ISRAELI OFFICIALS REPORTED THAT ONE BRITISH PILOT BAILED OUT SOUTHWEST OF NIRIM, A PALESTINE TOWN FOUR MILES SOUTH OF TYE EGYPTIAN FRONTIER. ANOTHER CRASHED A MILE NORTH OF NIRIM, THEY SAID.

AN AIR MINISTRY COMMUNIQUE SAID RAF AIRMEN "NOW HAVE BEEN INSTRUCTED TO REGARD AS HOSTILE ANY JEWISH AIRCRAFT ENCOUNTERED OVER EGYPTIAN TERRITORY."

SOME LONDON NEWSPAPERS SPECULATED THAT THE RAF MAY ORDER AT LEAST ONE SQUADRON OF JET FIGHTERS TO STRENGTHEN BRITAIN'S AIR PATROL OF THE EGYPTIAN BORDER.

THE LIBERAL NEWS CHRONICLE, WHICH DID NOT CARRY SUCH SPECULATION SAID EXPERT OBSERVERS JUST RETURNED TO BRITAIN ESTIMATE THAT THE JEWS HAVE GREATER AIR STRENGTH THAN THE BRITISH IN THE MIDDLE EAST.

SCHUMAN WILL SPEND MOST OF HIS VISIT WITH FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN, IT WAS REPORTED.
IN PARIS, IT WAS LEARNED SCHUMAN WILL TRY TO PERSUADE THE BRITISH THAT THE NEW WEST GERMAN GOVERNMENT SHOULD BE A LOOSE FEDERATION OF STATES. FRANCE HAS OPPOSED A STRONG CENTRAL GOVERNMENT IN WESTERN GERMANY.
A FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTRY SPOKESMAN SAID THE TWO MINISTERS ALSO WILL TALK ABOUT CLOSER RELATIONS WITH THE BENELUX COUNTRIES AND THE PLANS FOR BINDING ALL FIVE TO THE UNITED STATES AND CANADA IN THE PROPOSED "ATLANTIC PACT."

(ANNOUNCING THE INTERVIEW, BIDAULT EMPHASIZED THAT THE MRP WOULD STAND FIRM ON ITS OWN PRINCIPLES AND THAT ITS ELECTION LOSSES HAD NOT SHAKEN THE UNITY OF THE PARTY. THIS SEEMED TO INDICATE CLEARLY THAT THE MRP DID NOT, AT LEAST AT THE PRESENT TIME, INTEND TO JOIN UP WITH THE RPF, WHICH IS MUCH MORE TO THE RIGHT.
SUCH A COALITION WOULD NOT HAVE ENOUGH STRENGTH TO CALL DE GAULLE TO POWER IN FRANCE. THE COMMUNISTS AND SOCIALISTS STILL ARE STRONG IN THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY.
BIDAULT, WHO LONG DIRECTED FRANCE'S FOREIGN AFFAIRS, FIRST SERVED AS FOREIGN MINISTER IN A CABINET FORMED BY DE GAULLE IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE LIBERATION OF THE COUNTRY. IN THE RECENT COUNCIL ELECTIONS, DE GAULLE'S PARTY BUILT ITS STRENGTH IN THE UPPER HOUSE AT THE EXPENSE OF THE MRP.
BIDAULT DID NOT SAY WHAT WAS THE PURPOSE OF HIS MEETING WITH DE GAULLE, NOR WOULD HE SAY OUTRIGHT WHAT WERE ITS RESULTS. IT HAS LONG BEEN RUMORED THAT SUCH A MEETING HAD BEEN HELD TO LOOK INTO THE POSSIBILITIES OF AN MRP-RPF COALITION.

FRANKFURT GERMANY, JAN. 10-(AP)-JEWISH IMMIGRATION OFFICIALS SAID TODAY MOST OF THE 115,000 JEWISH DISPLACED PERSONS REMAINING IN EUROPE WANT TO GO TO THE UNITED STATES.

ONLY ABOUT 35,000 OF THEM ARE ELIGIBLE UNDER THE NEW U.S. IMMIGRATION LAW, THEY ESTIMATED.

THESE ESTIMATES WERE MADE AT A NEWS CONFERENCE ANNOUNCING A COORDINATED PROGRAM BY TWO BIG JEWISH AGENCIES TO SPEED THE MOVEMENT OF JEWS TOWARD AMERICA.

IN MOST PREVIOUS ESTIMATES, JEWISH OFFICIALS SAID MOST DISPLACED JEWS WANTED TO GO TO PALESTINE. TODAY THEY REPORTED ABOUT 75,000 JEWS ALREADY HAVE GONE TO PALESTINE FROM EUROPEAN D.P. CAMPS SINCE THE WAR.

THE TWO AGENCIES ANNOUNCING COORDINATION OF THEIR EMIGRATION WORK ARE THE AMERICAN JOINT DISTRIBUTION COMMITTEE, WHICH WAS REPRESENTED BY CHARLES JORDAN, AND THE HEBREW IMMIGRANT AID SOCIETY, REPRESENTED BY LEWIS NEIKRUG.

THEY SAID ONLY ABOUT 2,500 DISPLACED PERSONS HAVE ACTUALLY ENTERED THE UNITED STATES UNDER THE NEW IMMIGRATION ACT SINCE IT WENT INTO EFFECT LAST JULY 1, AND LESS THAN 800 OF THEM WERE JEWS.

THE ACT AUTHORIZES ADMISSION OF 205,000 DISPLACED PERSONS TO THE U.S. BY JUNE 30, 1950. THAT MEANS THAT TO FILL THE TWO-YEAR QUOTA, IMMIGRATION MUST BE STEPPED UP TO ABOUT 14,000 A MONTH.

JORDAN AND NEIKRUG SAID THEY HAD ENOUGH ASSURANCES OF JOBS AND HOMES TO TAKE CARE OF ALL THE 35,000 DISPLACED JEWS ELIGIBLE TO GO TO AMERICA.

THEY EXPRESSED HOPE THE D.P. IMMIGRATION ACT WILL BE LIBERALZED BY THE NEW CONGRESS TO ADMIT MORE JEWS. AT PRESENT THEY MUST HAVE BEEN CERTIFIED DISPLACED PERSONS BY DEC. 22, 1945. MANY THOUSANDS HAVE FLED EASTERN EUROPE SINCE THAT DATE, THEY SAID.

WARSAW, JAN.10-(AP)-POLAND'S PARLIAMENT WAS ASKED TODAY TO APPROVE A RECORD PEACETIME BUDGET FOR 1949 CALLING FOR EXPENDITURES OF 800 BILLION ZLOTYS ($2,000,000,000).

ESTIMATES PRESENTED BY FINANCE MINISTER KONSTANTY DABROWSKI ALLOCATED 56,641,000,000 ZLOTYS ($141,602,500) FOR NATIONAL DEFENSE. EXPENSES OF THE ARMED FORCES IN 1948 WERE APPROXIMATELY 34 BILLION ZLOTYS ($65,000,000).

THERE WAS NO IMMEDIATELY AVAILABLE BREAKDOWN OF THE CONTEMPLATED MILITARY SPENDING BUT A LARGE PART OF THE BOOST IS EXPECTED TO BE USED FOR TRAINING "IN THE SERVICE OF POLAND" YOUTH BATTALIONS.

THE MOBILIZATION OF YOUTHS, AGED 16 TO 21, TO WORK ON RECONSTRUCTION PROJECTS AND FOR MILITARY TRAINING, IS EXPECTED EVENTUALLY TO EMBRACE 5,000,000 PERSONS.

THE BUDGET WAS PRESENTED TO PARLIAMENT AFTER A TWO-HOUR DISCUSSION OF INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL AFFAIRS BY PREMIER JOSEF CYRANKIEWICZ. AMONG OTHER THINGS, HE SAID:

THAT PRIVATE INDUSTRY HAS A DEFINITE ROLE TO PLAY AND, "IF HONESTLY OPERATED, IT CAN COUNT UPON A NORMAL EXISTENCE." RUMORS THAT THE GOVERNMENT INTENDS TO LIQUIDATE PRIVATE INDUSTRY HAVE BEEN "SPREAD BY ENEMIES OF THE REGIME."

THAT WHATEVER FOOD SHORTAGES EXIST ARE DUE TO FAULTY DISTRIBUTION.

THAT THE POLISH GOVERNMENT IS COMMITTED TO A POLICY OF "FREEDOM OF CONSCIENCE" IN RELIGIOUS MATTERS.

HE WARNED THE CATHOLIC CLERGY, HOWEVER, AGAINST INTERFERENCE IN STATE AFFAIRS.

"THE GOVERNMENT HAS ADOPTED FREEDOM OF CONSCIENCE AS A POLICY AND WILL NOT INTERFERE WITH INTERNAL CHURCH AFFAIRS. BUT AT THE SAME TIME, IT WILL NOT TOLERATE THE AGGRESSIVE ATTITUDE OF SOME INDIVIDUAL CLERGYMEN," THE PREMIER SAID.

"WHERE PRIESTS TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THEIR CLOTH AND PULPIT TO ENCOURAGE ANTI-STATE ACTIVITY SUCH CASES WILL BE TREATED WITH GREAT SEVERITY. THOSE PRIESTS WHO ARE GOOD PATRIOTS AND WILL NOT ALLOW THEMSELVES TO BE DRAWN INTO POLITICAL PLOTS WILL BE SUPPORTED."

ATHENS, JAN.10-(AP)-GREEK LAWMAKERS WORKED OUT A BILL TODAY TO GRANT SWEEPING POWERS TO GEN.ALEXANDER PAPAGOS IN DIRECTING THE FIGHT AGAINST COMMUNIST GUERRILLAS.

GEORGE PAPANDREOU, FORMER PRIME MINISTER WHO WILL BE SWORN IN SHORTLY AS MINISTER OF WAR, SAID PAPAGOS' AUTHORITY WILL BE FREE FROM "INTERFERENCE" BY FOREIGN MILITARY MISSIONS.

PAPANDREOU TOLD REPORTERS THAT FOREIGN MISSIONS HEREAFTER WILL SERVE ONLY IN A "CONSULTATIVE CAPACITY."

IN THE PAST, AMERICAN AND BRITISH PRESSURE HAS CAUSED REMOVAL OF NUMEROUS GREEK OFFICERS, INCLUDING GENERALS. GREECE RECEIVES AMERICAN AID IN MONEY AND SUPPLIES.

PAPAGOS, GREECE'S HERO OF THE 1941 GREEK-ITALIAN CAMPAIGN, HAD BEEN SOUGHT FOR SEVERAL MONTHS TO TAKE OVER COMMAND OF THE ARMY IN ITS LONG AND DRAWN-OUT FIGHT AGAINST THE GUERRILLAS.

HE HAS BEEN INSISTING HE WOULD TAKE THE JOB ONLY IF HE HAD FREE REIGN IN RUNNING THE GREEK ARMED FORCES.

HE ALSO DEMANDED A 40 PERCENT INCREASE IN THE ARMY. THIS REQUEST WAS NOT ACTED ON BECAUSE OF LACK OF FUNDS.

PAPAGOS RETIRED AS COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF IN APRIL, 1941. HE HAS RECENTLY BEEN SERVING AS COURT CHAMBERLAIN.

MEANWHILE, THE GOVERNMENT REPORTED, GUERRILLA ACTIVITIES CONTINUED IN NORTHERN GREECE. UNSUCCESSFUL GUERRILLA ATTACKS WERE REPORTED ON TWO VILLAGES. GREEK ARMY OFFENSIVE OPERATIONS WERE REPORTED IN THE PELOPONNESUS.

NANKING, JAN [illegible] - AP -SEYMOUR TOPPING OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS, THE FIRST AMERICAN CORRESPONDENT TO PENETRATE COMMUNIST HELD TERRITORY NORTH OF THE HWAI RIVER LINE, FOUND NO WELCOME MAT AWAITING HIM.

TEN DAYS AGO TOPPING STARTED WALKING NORTHWARD FROM PENGPU INTO THE AREA WHERE THE REDS ARE PREPARING THEIR OFFENSIVE AGAINST NANKING. HE MESSAGE CRYPTICALLY TODAY:

"ORDERED TO RETURN TO NATIONALIST TERRITORY AFTER WEEK WITH THE COMMUNISTS."

TOPPING GAVE NO DETAILS OTHER THAN THAT HE WAS EN ROUTE TO NANKING.

WHEN HE LEFT PENGPU ON DEC. 1 WITH TWO CHINESE BAGGAGE CARRIERS HE HOPED TO REACH SUCHOW, CENTER OF COMMUNIST ACTIVITY, WITHIN FOUR DAYS.

EXPECTING RED GEN. CHEN YI'S FORCES TO OCCUPY PENGPU WITHIN A FEW DAYS, TOPPING FIRST TRAVELED THERE AND WAITED MORE THAN TWO WEEKS FOR SIGNS OF THE COMMUNIST MOVE SOUTHWARD ACROSS THE HWAI RIVER.

AFTER TWICE BEING TURNED BACK BY NATIONALIST OUTPOSTS HE OBTAINED A PASS FROM THEIR PENGPU HEADQUARTERS AND ON HIS THIRD EFFORT REACHED COMMUNIST TERRITORY.

HE IS DUE BACK HERE ON WEDNESDAY.

HE SAID THAT BODIES OF WAR DEAD LITTERED THE EARTH FOR MILES AROUND SUCHOW AFTER THE GREAT BATTLE THERE, AND ASKED: "WHAT KIND OF LEGISLATORS ARE WE TO BE TALKING ABOUT A FIGHT TO THE FINISH?"

BUT THE LEGISLATORS FAILED TO REACH AGREEMENT ON UNIFIED ACTION. MANY LEGISLATORS ALREADY HAVE LEFT RED-THREATENED NANKING.

FORMER PREMIER CHANG CHUN RETURNED TO NANKING FROM CENTRAL CHINA WITH A REPORT WHICH MAY HELP CHIANG KAI-SHEK DECIDE HIS FUTURE MOVES.

CHANG CHUN VISITED GEN.PAI CHUNG-HSI AT HANKOW AND THEN FLEW TO CHANGSHA TO SEE THE GOVERNOR OF HUNAN PROVINCE. THE PURPOSE OF HIS VISIT WAS TO ENCOURAGE THE TWO REGIONAL LEADERS TO CONTINUE TO COOPERATE WITH THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT DURING THE CRISIS. IT WAS EXPECTED THAT CHANG WOULD CARRY A REPORT OF HIS MISSION TO CHIANG LATER TONIGHT.

MEANWHILE THE FOREIGN OFFICE REMAINED SILENT ON ITS REPORTED REQUEST TO THE BIG FOUR FOR TH IR HELP IN ENDING THE WAR.

THERE IS EVERY INDICATION HERE, HOWEVER, THAT NONE OF THE BIG FOUR IS INTERESTED IN A ONE-SIDED INVITATION TO MEDIATE, AND ONE DIPLOMAT PREDICTED A NEGATIVE ANSWER WOULD BE HEARD FROM ALL FOUR CAPITALS CONCERNED.

UNOFFICIAL BUT USUALLY CORRECT SOURCES SAY THAT THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN, FRANCE AND RUSSIA HAVE BEEN ASKED TO SEEK A SETTLEMENT OF THE THREE YEAR OLD WAR, WHICH THE NATIONALISTS HAVE BEEN LOSING TO THE REDS.

SOME SORT OF DIPLOMATIC MOVE WAS IN THE WIND, OBSERVERS SAID. AMBASSADORS FROM THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND FRANCE WERE CALLED TO THE FOREIGN OFFICE LATE SATURDAY AFTERNOON. THE RUSSIAN AMBASSADOR, WHO IS ILL, WAS CONTACTED LATER, THESE SOURCES SAID.

(SPENCER MOOSA, ASSOCIATED PRESS CORRESPONDENT IN PEIPING, WRITING THROUGH A WALL OF MILITARY CENSORSHIP, PREDICTED BOTH PEIPING AND TIENTSIN WOULD BE IN THE HANDS OF THE COMMUNISTS WITHIN A WEEK OR LESS. HE INTIMATED A DEAL WAS IN THE MAKING BETWEEN THE NATIONALISTS AND COMMUNISTS IN THOSE TWO CITIES.

JAN 1949

A53FX

(MOOSA SAID THE REDS REPORTEDLY HAD FOUGHT THEIR WAY INTO THE COMMERCIAL CITY OF TIENTSIN AND MIGHT EVEN BE SHELLING THE CITY'S EAST RAILWAY STATION.)

THE ARMIES OF GE,. TU LI-MING, ENCIRCLED SOUTHWEST OF SUCHOW FOR WEEKS, MAY NOT BE ABLE TO WITHSTAND VIGOROUS COMMUNIST ATTACKS MUCH LONGER.

(IN SHANGHAI, PILOTS WHO HAD BEEN DROPPING SUPPLIES TO TU'S FORCES SAID THEY RETURNED TO NANKING WITHOUT DUMPING THEIR CARGOES. THEY SAID RADIO INSTRUCTIONS FROM THE GROUND TOLD THEM NOT TO UNLOAD. THEY FLEW TO SHANGHAI FOR SERVICING OF THE PLANES.

(THE COMMUNIST RADIO, HEARD IN SAN FRANCISCO BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS, SAID TU'S FORCE OF 250,000 MEN HAD BEEN REDUCED TO 130,000.)

SURRENDER OF THESE ARMIES, THE LARGEST SINGLE MILITARY FORCE BEFORE NANKING AND THE YANGTZE MIGHT COME AT ANY TIME.

SOUTH OF TU'S FORCES, THE COMMUNISTS, PRESSING TOWARD THE YANGTZE, HAVE OPENED ATTACKS ON THE HWAI RIVER DEFENSES, 100 MILES FROM NANKING.

IN FORMOSA, MEANWHILE, THE NEW GOVERNOR, GEN. CHEN CHENG, SAID THE ISLAND WILL BE USED AS A STRONGHOLD AGAINST THE EXTENSION OF OF THE COMMUNIST SPHERE IN ASIA. IN HIS FIRST NEWS CONFERENCE AS GOVERNOR, CHE, FORMER OVERALL COMMANDER OF NATIONALISTS TROOPS, SAID HE WOULD FIGHT TO THE END AND PROCLAIMED HIMSELF A STAUNCH MEMBER OF THE KUOMINTANG (GOVERNMENT) PARTY.

(THE FORMOSA GOVERNOR SAID THE COMMUNISTS WOULD NEVER ACCEPT PEACE OFFERS AS LONG AS THEY HELD MILITARY SUPREMACY. HE SAID HE WANTED TO BUILD FORMOSA INTO A FORTRESS FOR RESTORING NATIONALIST CHINA WITH THE HELP OF FORMOSANS.)

A54FX

IN SHANGHAI MADAME SUN YAT-SEN, WIDOW OF CHINA'S FIRST PRESIDENT, ISSUED A STATEMENT SAYING THAT ANY REPORTS THAT SHE WOULD ASSUME ANY OFFICES OR RESPONSIBILITIES IN THE GOVERNMENT WERE "COMPLETELY WITHOUT FOUNDATION." SHE SAID SHE WOULD CONTINUE TO DEVOTE HER ENERGIES TO WORK OF THE CHINA WELFARE FUND OF WHICH SHE IS CHAIRMAN.

IN NANKING, O.K.YUI, WHO WAS REMOVED AND THEN REINSTATED BY PREMIER SUN FO'S CABINET AS GOVERNOR OF THE CENTRAL BANK, WAS GIVEN SICK LEAVE AFTER SUBMITTING HIS RESIGNATION TO CHIANG-KAI-SHEK. CHIANG REFUSED TO ACCEPT THE RESIGNATION BUT GRANTED THE LEAVE.

(EDITORS NOTE: ASSOCIATED PRESS CORRESPONDENT SEYMOUR TOPPING LEFT PENGPU ON THE NORTH-CENTRAL CHINESE WAR FRONT MORE THAN A WEEK AGO TO GET BEHIND THE LINES OF THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS. THEN HE VANISHED. HERE'S HIS FIRST DISPATCH SINCE THEN, FILED UPON HIS RETURN TO PENGPU.)

BY SEYMOUR TOPPING

PENGPU, CHINA, JAN. 10-(DELAYED)-(AP)-MY ASSIGNMENT TO ENTER AND REPO FROM RED CHINA ENDED HERE TODAY. THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS TERMINATED A WEEKLONG STAY BEHIND THEIR LINES WITH AN ORDER FOR MY PROMPT RETURN TO THIS NATIONALIST-HELD CITY.

THE EXPULSION PRESUMABLY CAME FROM A HIGH LEVEL COMMUNIST. IT WAS DELIVERED TO ME JAN. 7 AT A RED ARMY HEADQUARTERS OF UNDISCLOSED IDENTITY. THIS HEADQUARTERS WAS REACHED TWO DAYS PREVIOUSLY UNDER ESCORT FOLLOWING A FOUR DAY TRIP THROUGH NATIONALIST LINES AND MY INITIAL CONTACT WITH RED TROOPS AT A ROADBLOCK ABOUT 15 MILES NORTH OF PENGPU.

THE HEADQUARTERS WAS LOCATED APPROXIMATELY 10 MILES SOUTHWEST OF SUHSIEN, SOUTHERN TERMINUS OF THE COMMUNIST INTERIOR RAL NET. THIS NETWORD EXTENDS NORTH VIA TSINAN (CAPITAL OF SHANTUNG PROVINCE) TO SHIHCHIACHUANG, 160 MILES SOUTHWEST OF PEIPING, AND EAST FROM SUCHOW ON THE LUNGHAI RAILROAD TO LOYAN IN HONAN PROVINCE.

THE VITAL MILITARY SIGNIFICANCE OF THE COMMUNISTS' REOPENING OF THROUGH RAIL CONNECTIONS BETWEEN NORTH AND CENTRAL-EAST CHINA IS IMMEDIATELY APPARENT.

POWERFUL RED MANCHURIAN ARMIES ALREADY MOVING INTO THE PEIPING REGION CAN NOW BE TRANSPORTED WITH COMPARATIVE EASE. THEY MAY ALREADY BE ENROUTE TO PARTICIPATE IN AN OFFENSIVE ON NANKING AND SHANGHAI.

HINTS WERE DROPPED DURING CONVERSATIONS WITH COMMUNIST OFFICERS AND MEN THAT THE RED TIMETABLE FOR AN ATTACK ON NANKING IS WELL BEHIND THAT GENERALLY SUPPOSED IN NATIONALIST AREAS.

COMMUNIST ARMY PERSONNEL OF ALL RANKS SHOWED REMARKABLE FAMILITARITY WITH OVERALL RED MILITARY STRATEGY AND THE PROGRESS OF COMBAT OPERATIONS ON OTHER FRONTS.

JAN 1949

TALK WAS COMMON OF A COMMUNIST OCCUPATION OF NANKING BY SUMMER THROUGH ENCIRCELEMENT INSTEAD OF DIRECT ASSAULT---SOUTH UPON PENGPU AND ON TO THE NORTH BANK OFTHYGTZE JVR A RIVER CROSSING TO THE SHANGHAI-NANKING AREA.

THE OCTOBER 10TH ST

ON TO THE NORTH BANK OF THE YANGTZE FOR A RIVER CROSSING TO THE SHANGHAI-NANKING AREA.

THE OCTOBER 10TH STATEMENT OF MAO TSE TUNG (LEADER OF THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS) THAT IT WOULD TAKE ONE MORE YEAR TO COMPLETELY DEFEAT THE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT IS WIDELY QUOTED BY RED TROOPS.

ALTHOUGH GENERALLY UNFAMILIAR WITH TERMS OF THE RECENT PEACE OVERTURES BY THE NATIONAL GOVERNMENT, THE GESTURE FOR SETTLEMENT WITH THE PRESENT KUOMINTANG (GOVERNING PARTY) ADMINISTRATION IN NANKING IS DISMISSED BY RED SOLDIERS AS "FALSE."

THERE WAS EXTREME COURTESTY AND KINDNESS FOR MY PERSONAL COMFORT DURING MY ENTIRE STAY IN COMMUNIST AREAS, ALTHOUGH MY ARRIVAL AT RED ARMY HEADQUARTERS WAS GREETED WITH SUSPICION AND DISTRUST.

MY BAGGAGE WAS SEARCHED AND MY TYPEWRITER AND CAMERA WERE TAKEN AWAY FROM ME UNTIL MY DEPARTURE. DURING MY STAY, THERE WERE THREE COMMUNIST SOLDIERS -- ARMED WITH AMERICAN CARBINES -- IN CONSTANT ATTENDANCE AT A PEASANT COTTAGE, TO THE IMMEDIATE VICINITY OF WHICH I WAS RESTRICTED.

MY TWO-DAY STAY AT HEADQUARTERS WAS SOLELY A PERIOD OF WAITING FOR A REPLY TO AN ASSOCIATED PRESS REQUEST. IT SOUGHT PERMISSION FOR ME TO REMAIN IN COMMUNIST AREAS AND TRANSMIT DISPATCHES REGULARLY OVER TH RED RADIO BEAMED FOR SAN FRANCISCO.

THE REQUEST WAS MADE BY LETTER AND FORWARDED BY RED HEADQUARTERS SOUTHWEST OF SUHSIEN.

A COMMUNIST OFFICER TOLD ME IT WAS NOT KNOWN AT HEADQUARTERS WHETHER THE MATTER OF INTERVIEWING THE TOP COMMUNIST LEADER HAD BEEN REFERRED TO MAO TSE TUNG HIMSELF.

THE HAZARDOUS NATURE OF THE TRIP TO COMMUNIST CITIES IN THE INTERIOR, THROUGH THE SUCHOW WAR ZONE, WAS GIVEN AS AN EXPLANATION FOR THE POLITE BUT FIRM SUGGESTION THAT I RETURN IMMEDIATELY TO PENGPU.

IN REPLY TO A REQUEST FOR A LETTER OUTLINING IN DETAIL THE REASONS FOR MY EXPULSION, A COMMUNIST OFFICER SAID: "WE CANNOT. IT IS ENOUGH TO SAY THAT YOU HAVE ASKED AND BEEN REFUSED."

HORSES FOR THE FIRST LEG OF MY JOURNEY WERE ALREADY WAITING OUTSIDE THE COTTAGE WHEN THE ORDER FOR MY RETURN WAS GIVEN ME.

DANGERS OF AIR BOMBING AND STRAFING WERE STRESSED. THERE WAS INTENSE AIR ACTIVITY IN THAT PARTICULAR AREA. NATIONALIST TRANSPORTS PARADED OVERHEAD IN A CONSTANT STREAM ENROUTE TO DROP FOOD TO REMNANT UNITS OF THE FORMER SUCHOW GARRISON, ENCIRCLED ABOUT 25 MILES TO THE NORTHWEST.

FIGHTERS FLEW LOW OVER THE HEADQUARTERS AREA IN THEIR STRAFING RUNS ON COMMUNIST TROOPS. ONE FIGHTER STRAFED AN AREA 1, YARDS FROM THE COTTAGE IN WHICH I WAS STAYING.

TO THE SOUTH OF THE HEADQUARTERS, ON THE ROAD TO SUHSIEN, THERE WERE LARGE CRATERS -- EVIDENTLY MADE BY BOMBS FROM NATIONALIST B-24S. THIS WAS THE AREA IN WHICH THE GOVERNMENT CLAIMS THE LEADING COMMUNIST GENERAL, ONE-EYED LIU PO-CHENG, WAS KILLED DEC. 13 BY B-24 BOMBING.

THE REPORT OF LIU'S DEATH WAS RIDICULED BY COMMUNIST SOLDIERS STATIONED AT EACH OF FOUR VILLAGES WHERE I WAS BILLETED. SOLDIERS OF ONE UNIT WHO SAID THEY WERE UNDER LIU'S COMMAND, LAUGHED OFF THE REVFGUVIQURHU THXY CERTAINLY WERE NOT IN MOURNING.

ON JAN.7, AS MY RETURN TRIP BEGAN THROUGH LIGHTLY-HELD COMMUNIST TERRITORY SOUTH OF TSAO LAO CHI, THE SOUND OF ARTILLERY FIRE FROM THE NORTHWEST CEASED ABRUPTLY. TSAO LAO CHI IS A NATIONALIST OUTPOST 10 MILES NORTH OF PENGPU.

DESPITE FINE WEATHER, NATIONALIST TRANSPORTS WHICH HAD BEEN AIR-DROPPING FOOD TO ENCIRCLED GOVERNMENT TROOPS WERE NOT OBSERVABLE. I TURNED ON MY HORSE TO A SOLDIER ESCORT RIDING CLOSE BEHIND ME AND SAID:

"PERHAPS THE SUCHOW GOVERNMENT TROOPS ARE FINISHED."

"YES, ABOUT FINISHED," HE REPLIED.

KOREAN (2.0)

BY WILLIAM R.MOORE

SEOUL, JAN. 10-(AP)-A REPORT PUBLISHED IN MOSCOW'S PRAVDA CHIDING THE REPUBLIC OF KOREA FOR SLOWNESS IN COLLECTING RICE TOUCHED A SENSITIVE SPOT BUT GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS SAID THE COMMUNIST NEWSPAPER HAD ITS FIGURES WRONG.

PRAVDA SAID THE GOVERNMENT COLLECTED ONLY 800 TONS OF RICE IN SOUTH KOREA---ONLY HALF AS MUCH AS NEEDED. JAN 1949

ACTUALLY THE GOVERNMENT'S GOAL IS 1,125,000 METRIC TONS, APPROXIMATELY HALF OF THE ESTIMATED CROP. TO DATE 35 PERCENT OF THIS HAS BEEN COLLECTED, GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS SAID.

STRONGER REGULATIONS TO SPEED THE COLLECTION PROGRAM WERE FORECAST BY KOREAN OFFICIALS AT A MEETING YESTERDAY OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE CIVILIAN AND GOVERNMENT AGRICULTURE INTERESTS.

WHILE PRAVDA CONTENDED THE SLOWNESS OF COLLECTION WAS DUE TO DISCONTENT WITH THE SYNGMAN RHEE ADMINISTRATION, THE PROBLEM SEEMS MORE ECONOMIC THAN POLITICAL. THE FACT THAT THE FARMER GETS ONLY A SIXTH AS MUCH FOR RICE SOLD TO THE GOVERNMENT AS HE COULD GET ON A FREE MARKET IS A MORE IMPORTANT FACTOR THAN COMMUNIST UNDERGROUND EFFORTS TO SOW DISSATISFACTION AMONG THE FARMERS.

THE RICE COLLECTION IS ACCEPTED EVEN BY MOST FARMERS AS A "NECESSARY EVIL" TO ASSURE A RICE RATION FOR CITY DWELLERS AT CONTROLLED PRICES. EXPERIENCE HAS SHOWN THAT WITHOUT THE PROGRAM HOARDING AND SPECULATION ARE INEVITABLE WITH THE RESULTANT THREAT OF STARVATION FOR THE POORER PEOPLE.

FOR SELLING RICE TO THE GOVERNMENT FOR LESS THAN THE FREE MARKET PRICE THE FARMER RECEIVES CERTIFICATES ENTITLING HIM TO BUY VITAL FETULIZER AND SOME STAPLE COMMODITY GOODS AT PRCES WHIH ALSO ARE FAR BELOW THE FR

FERTILIZER AND SOME STAPLE COMMODITY GOODS AT RPRICES WHICH ALSO ARE BAR BELOW THE FREE MARKET.

ANOTHER CHARGE BY PRAVDA THAT AMERICANS CONTROL 30 PERCENT OF SOUTH KOREA'S INDUSTRIES WAS SAID BY SOME AMERICAN OFFICIALS TO BE A GROSS EXAGGERATION. THE RELUCTANCE OF AMERICANS TO RISK CAPITAL FOR DEVELOPMENT OF THIS TROUBLED COUNTRY HAS BEEN CONSPICIOUS--SO CONSPICIOUS THAT KOREANS SEE ONLY GRIM HUMOR IN COMMUNIST CONTROLLED NORTH KOREA'S PERSISTENT PROPAGANDA CHARGE THAT THE UNITED STATES IS "COLONIZING" SOUTH KOREA.

FIRST LEAD PALESTINE JAN 1949

BY ERIC GOTTGETREU

TEL AVIV, ISRAEL, JAN.10-(AP)-ISRAEL WILL ACCUSE BRITAIN BEFORE THE UNITED NATIONS OF VIOLATING THE U.N.TRUCE IN PALESTINE, A SOURCE CLOSE TO THE GOVERNMENT SAID TODAY.

THE CABINET DECIDED YESTERDAY TO SEND INSTRUCTIONS TO AUBREY EBAN, ITS REPRESENTATIVE AT LAKE SUCCESS, TO LODGE SUCH A CHARGE, THE INFORMANT SAID.

THE ISRAELI GOVERNMENT TWICE HAS REFUSED TO ACCEPT A BRITISH PROTEST AGAINST THE DOWNING OF FIVE RAF PLANES IN THE EGYPTIAN BORDER AREA FRIDAY, BECAUSE THE PROTEST WAS NOT ADDRESSED TO THE GOVERNMENT. BRITAIN DOES NOT RECOGNIZE ISRAEL AS A STATE.

THE GOVERNMENT WILL NOT ASK THE SECURITY COUNCIL TO DEFINE BRITAIN AS A BELLIGERENT, ALTHOUGH IT TAKES BRITAIN'S PRESENT POSITION IN THE PALESTINE CONFLICT MOST SERIOUSLY, THE INFORMANT ADDED. THE PROTEST WILL REFER TO BRITAIN'S AIR RECONNAISSANCE IN THE SOUTHERN NEGEV DESERT AREA AND THE SENDING OF BRITISH TROOPS TO AQABA, TRANS-JORDAN PORT ON THE RED SEA. IT ALSO WILL ACCUSE BRITAIN OF LARGE-SCALE ARMS SHIPMENTS TO THE EGYPTIANS, THE SOURCE SAID.

ISRAEL ALREADY HAS PROTESTED THE AQABA LANDING BY THE BRITISH.

AN ISRAELI REPRESENTATIVE IN HAIFA -- ACTING ON ORDERS FROM TEL AVIV -- REFUSED YESTERDAY TO ACCEPT THE BRITISH PROTEST BECAUSE IT WAS ADDRESSED TO "JEWISH AUTHORITIES IN TEL AVIV" AND NOT TO THE PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT OF ISRAEL.

BRITAIN DOES NOT RECOGNIZE THE STATE OF ISRAEL.

IN ITS PROTEST THE ISRAELI GOVERNMENT SAID THE "PRESENCE OF BRITISH TROOPS AT AQABA CAN HAVE NO PURPOSE BUT TO THREATEN ISRAEL'S TERRITORY IN THE SOUTHERN PART OF THE NEBEV."

ISRAEL'S PROTEST WAS CONTAINED IN A LETTER SENT BY DR.WALTER EYTAN, DIRECTOR GENERAL OF THE ISRAELI FOREIGN OFFICE, TO HENRI VIGIER, THE REPRESENTATIVE IN HAIFA OF ACTING MEDIATOR RALPH J. BUNCHE.

THE LETTER DECLARED THE BRITISH ACTION CONSTITUTED "UNILATERAL INTERVENTION IN THE PALESTINE CONFLICT." IT ASKED THAT U.N. OBSERVERS BE SENT TO THE AREA TO SEE IF THE BRITISH MAKE ANY FRONTIER JAN 1949 CROSSINGS INTO ISRAELI TERRITORY.

AQABA -- A KEY STRATEGIC POINT IN THE MIDDLE EAST -- IS NEAR THE JUNCTION OF THE BORDERS OF TRANS-JORDAN, PALESTINE, EGYPT AND SAUDI ARABIA..

ISREALI OFFICIALS DENIED THAT ALL FIVE RAF PLANES WERE SHOT DOWN INSIDE EGYPTIAN TERRITORY, AS THE BRITISH CLAIM.

AN ISRAELI MILITARY SPOKESMAN SAID TWO BRITISH PILOTS TAKEN PRISONER WERE SHOT DOWN OVER ISRAELI TERRITORY ALTHOUGH THEY HAD BEEN BRIEFED IN EGYPT NOT TO CROSS THE ISRAELI FRONTIER.

HE SAID TWO OF THE PLANES CRASHED NEAR NIRIM, A PALESTINE TOWN FOUR MILES FROM THE EGYPTIAN FRONTIER.

BRITISH RESIDENTS IN HAIFA DENIED LAST NIGHT REPORTS FROM TEL AVIV THAT THE BRITISH CONSUL THERE HAD ADVISED THEM TO LEAVE ISRAEL.

AUTHORITATIVE SOURCES IN JERUSALEM REPORT THAT J.NIEWENHUYS, BELGIAN CONSUL-GENERAL AND THIS MONTH'S CHAIRMAN OF THE UNITED NATIONS CONCILIATION COMMISSION, IS ATTEMPTING TO PROMOTE NEGOTIATION BETWEEN ISRAEL AND ARAB TRANS-JORDAN.

AN OFFICIAL TRANS-JORDAN SPOKESMAN SAID YESTERDAY HIS GOVERNMENT IS NOW CONSIDERING HER OBLIGATIONS UNDER A U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL RESOLUTION CALLING FOR ARMISTICE NEGOTIATIONS.)

AN ISRAEL GOVERNMENT SOURCE DECLARED THAT LARGE SCALE BRITISH ARMS HIPMENTS ARE BEING DELIVERED TO EGYPT. HE ALLEGED THAT NO U.N. OBSERVERS ARE STATIONED AT EGYPTIAN AIRFIELDS AND PROBABLY NO OBSERVERS IN THE PORTS."

THE JERUSALEM ZIONIST DAILY "PALESTINE POST," WHICH OFTEN REFLECTS ISRAELI GOVERNMENT VIEWS, SAID BRITAIN, "BY ITS ANNOUNCEMENT IT WILL TREAT ANY ISRAELI PLANE OVER EGYPTIAN TERRITORY AS HOSTILE, HAS MADE ITSELF AN ACTIVE BELLIGERENT."

ISRAELI UNITS WHICH OCCUPIED SEVERAL STRATEGIC HEIGHTS APPROXIMATELY TWO MILES INSIDE THE EGYPTIAN BORDER NEAR THE RAFA-EL 'AUJA CROSSROAD HAVE BEEN WITHDRAWN, THE INFORMANT SAID. THE WITHDRAWAL WAS COMPLETED LAST NIGHT.

EARLIER A SOURCE CLOSE TO THE GOVERNMENT SAID ISRAEL WILL ACCUSE BRITAIN BEFORE THE UNITED NATIONS OF VIOLATING THE TRUCE IN PALESTINE. THE CABINET DECIDED YESTERDAY TO SEND INSTRUCTIONS TO AUBREY EBAN, ITS U.N. REPRESENTATIVE, TO LODGE SUCH A CHARGE, THE INFORMANT SAID.

THE PROTEST WILL REFER TO BRITAIN'S AIR RECONNAISSANCE IN THE SOUTHERN NEGEV DESERT AREA NEAR THE EGYPTIAN-PALESTINE FRONTIER AND TO THE SENDING OF BRITISH TROOPS TO AQABA, TRANS-JORDAN'S PORT ON THE RED SEA.

IT ALSO WILL ACCUSE BRITAINOF MAKING LARGE-SCALE ARMS SHIPMENTS TO THE EGYPTIANS, THE INFORMAND SAID. HE ADDED THAT NO U.N. OBSERVERS ARE STATIONED AT EGYPTIAN AIRFIELDS AND PROBABLY THERE ARE NO OBSERVERS IN THE PORTS.

THE U.N. HAS ORDERED AN EMBARGO ON THE SHIPMENT OF ARMS TO THE MIDDLE EAST.

(IN NEW YORK THE BRITISH DELEGATION TO THE U.N. SAID NO WAR MATERIAL HAS BEEN DELIVERED BY BRITAIN TO ANY ARAB GOVERNMENT SINCE THE BEGINNING OF THE PALESTINE TRUCE.)

CYRIL MARRIOTT, BRITISH CONSUL AT HAIFA, DENIED NEWSPAPER REPORTS THAT HE HAD ADVISED BRITONS TO EVACUATE ISRAEL. HE SAID: "ALL REPORTS TO THIS EFFECT ARE COMPLETELY UNFOUNDED."

ISRAEL ALREADY HAS FILED A PROTEST WITH A U.N. OFFICIAL IN HAIFA CONCERNING THE BRITISH LANDING AT AQABA. THE PROTEST SAID THE PRESENCE OF BRITISH TROOPS THERE "CAN HAVE NO PURPOSE BUT TO THREATEN ISRAEL'S TERRITORY IN THE SOUTHERN PART OF THE NEGEV."

has agreed to join the coalition cabinet if a non-party premier is appointed, a party announcement said tonight.

The present cabinet is composed of representatives of the Saadist, Liberal-Constitutional and Nationalist Parties and certain independents. It is headed by Premier Ibrahim Abdel Hadi Pasha, a Saadist who was named after the assassination of Premier Mahmoud Fahmy Nokrashy Pasha, also a Saadist, Dec. 28.

The Wafdist Party is headed by Mustafa el Nahas Pasha, premier during World War II. Since 1944 it has been in opposition to successive Saadist and other cabinets.

THE JOGJAKARTA DISPATCH SAID THAT CITY STILL SEEMS ONLY HALF ALIVE, WITH MOST SHOPS STILL CLOSED AND THE MARKETS NEARLY EMPTY. IT DESCRIBED FOOD AS SCARCE AND EXPENSIVE, ALTHOUGH PRICES ARE DECLINING.

NEWSPAPERS STILL REMAIN CLOSED, BUT POSTOFFICE AND RAILWAY WORKERS ARE BACK AT WORK. THE STREETS STILL CARRY ONLY MILITARY VEHICLES.

THE REPUBLICAN RADIO REPORTED A "HEAVY" CLASH BETWEEN DUTCH TROOPS AND GUERRILLAS NEAR SOERAKARTA SUNDAY NIGHT. IT SAID FIGHTING ALSO OCCURRED AT THE VILLAGE OF KARTASURA SIX MILES WEST OF SOERAKARTA AND AT THE VILLAGE OF WELERI FARTHER NORTH.

A[illegible]5 [illegible]) INDONESIAN

BY HARRIS JACKSON

MACASSAR, EAST INDONESIA, JAN.1[illegible]-(AP)-THE SPRAWLING NEW STATE OF EAST INDONESIA IS WORKING SOLIDLY WITH ITS DUTCH CREATORS. BUT ITS INDONESIAN LEADERS FRANKLY ARE SYMPATHETIC TOWARD THE CONQUERED INDONESIAN REPUBLIC.

THEY FEEL, HOWEVER, THAT THEY MUST MAKE THE BEST OF THE SITUATION UNTIL THEY CAN APPRAISE DUTCH INTENTIONS BETTER.

THE STATE'S PREMIER, ANAK AGUNG, HAS MADE IT CLEAR HIS PEOPLE WILL NOT LIVE ON PROMISES OF INDEPENDENCE, AND HAS INSISTED THAT THE DUTCH RELAX THEIR HOLD ON THE AREA'S ECONOMIC LIFE.

HE WANTS THE DUTCH TO FORM SPEEDILY THE SOVEREIGN UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA WHICH THEY PROMISED WOULD UNITE ALL OF THE FORMER NETHERLANDS EAST INDIES INTO A COUNTRY HAVING EQUAL PARTNERSHIP WITH HOLLAND UNDER THE DUTCH CROWN.

EAST INDONESIA IS THE LARGEST STATE IN TH INDIES. IT CONSISTS [illegible] SEVERAL HUNDRED ISLANDS LYING EAST AND NORTHEAST OF JAVA.

THE STATE WAS FORMED UNDER DUTCH SPONSORSHIP AT DENPASAR, BALI, DEC.24, 1946. SOME 10,000,000 (M) PERSONS INHABIT THE STATE WHICH HAS ESCAPED MOST OF THE REVOLUTIONARY TURMOIL OF RECENT YEARS.

ANAK AGUNG IS FORMING A NEW GOVERNMENT. IT WILL SUCCEED THE STATE'S FIRST CABINET WHICH RESIGNED IN PROTEST AGAINST THE DUTCH OFFENSIVE IN THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC WHICH HAD CONTROLLED PARTS OF JAVANA, SUMATRA AND MADOERA.

THE PRIME MINISTER SAID THE VERY NAME OF THE REPUBLICAN MOVEMENT IS A SYMBOL TO INDONESIANS OF THEIR HOPES FOR INDEPENDENCE, BUT "WE WILL MAKE THE BEST OF IT."

HE SAID HIS PEOPLE WANT THE DUTCH TO PROCEED NOW WITH FORMING AN INTERIM GOVERNMENT FOR ALL OF THE INDIES, TO GIVE WAY TO A FREELY ELECTED PEOPLE'S GOVERNMENT AS SOON AS POSSIBLE. "SIX MONTHS, I THINK, WOULD BE A REASONABLE TIME," ANAK AGUNG SAID.

HE SAID ELECTIONS COULD BE HELD AS EARLY AS MARCH, BUT DUTCH SPOKESMEN CONTEND SEPTEMBER OR OCTOBER PROBABLY WOULD BE THE EARLIEST POSSIBLE DATE.

A DUTCH SOURCE CLOSE TO THE EAST INDONESIANS SAID SUCCESS OF THE INTERIM GOVERNMENT WILL DEPEND ON WHO THE DUTCH NAME TO REPRESENT CONQUERED JAVA, SUMATRA AND MADOERA. HE SAID THE EAST INDONESIANS WOULD SUPPORT ONLY SOME WELL KNOWN NATIONALIST FIGURE WHOM THEY TRUST.

THE PRESENT DUTCH SYSTEM GIVES EAST INDONESIA A GOVERNMENT OF INDONESIANS. BUT IT KEEPS HERE A CROWN COMMISSIONER WHOSE "CHIEFLY ADVISORY FUNCTIONS" ACTUALLY GIVE HIM GREAT AUTHORITY.

THE NETHERLANDS GOVERNMENT AT BATAVIA RESERVES CONSIDERABLE POWER IN EAST INDONESIA, RUNNING ITS DEFENSE, FOREIGN, POLITICAL, ECONOMIC, FOREIGN EXCHANGE, EXPORT, IMPORT, RAILWAY, MAIL, TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH SET UPS.

JAN 1949

EAST INDONESIANS OBJECT TO THE METHODS IN WHICH THE DUTCH HANDLE THEIR FOREIGN COMMERCE, PARTICULARLY THE COPRA TRADE. COPRA MAKES UP 80 PERCENT OF EAST INDONESIAN EXPORTS--266,000 TONS IN 1948.

ALL COPRA MUST BE SOLD TO THE DUTCH-OPERATED GOVERNMENT COPRA FUND WHICH MARKETS IT ABROAD. THE INDONESIANS COMPLAIN THEY CAN'T FIND OUT WHAT PRICE THE FUND RECEIVES ABROAD, HOW MUCH PROFIT IT MAKES, OR WHAT HAPPENS TO THE PROFITS AND THE FOREIGN EXCHANGE.

THE STATE, NOW SELF-SUSTAINING IN THE MATTER OF FOOD, EXPECTS TO SELL 150,000 TONS OF RICE A YEAR TO THE REST OF THE INDIES BY 1952 WHEN A NEW IRRIGATION SYSTEM BEGINS FUNCTIONING.

SCOTUS (120)

WASHINGTON,JAN.10-(AP)-THE SUPREME COURT TODAY REFUSED TO INTERFERE WITH THE INDICTMENT AND SCHEDULED NEW YORK TRIAL OF 12 LEADERS OF THE AMERICAN COMMUNIST PARTY.

THE 12 ASKED THE SUPREME COURT TO: CANCEL INDICTMENTS AGAINST THEM, ORDER A STAY OF THEIR TRIAL SCHEDULED TO BEGIN IN FEDERAL COURT JANUARY 17, AND THROW OUT A LIST OF PROSPECTIVE JURORS FROM WHICH THEIR TRIAL JURY MAY BE DRAWN.

THE SUPREME COURT ISSUED TWO BRIEF ORDERS ANNOUNCING ITS REFUSAL TO INTERFERE IN THE CASES AT THIS STAGE. IT GAVE NO REASON.

THE 12--ALL MEMBERS OF THE NATIONAL BOARD OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY IN THE UNITED STATES--WERE INDICTED ON CHARGES OF CONSPIRACY TO ADVOCATE THE OVERTHROW OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT BY FORCE AND VIOLENCE.

THE HIGH COURT'S USUAL MONDAY OPINION SESSION WAS CONFINED ENTIRELY TO ORDERS.

ALONG WITH REFUSING TO INTERFERE IN THE COMMUNISTS TRIAL, THE HIGH COURT:

1. DECLINED TO CONSIDER AN ATTACK ON CONSTITUTIONALITY OF THAT SECTION OF THE TAFT-HARTLEY LABOR ACT WHICH RELEASED EMPLOYERS FROM LEGAL OBLIGATION TO BARGAIN COLLECTIVELY WITH FOREMEN. THE REFUSAL HAS THE EFFECT OF UPHOLDING VALIDITY OF THE SECTION. THE FOREMAN'S ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA HAD ATTACKED IT.

2. DISMISSED A LABOR UNION APPEAL ATTACKING THE VALIDITY OF TENNESSEE'S "ANTI-CLOSED SHOP" LAW. ON LAST MONDAY, THE COURT HAD UPHELD SIMILAR LAWS IN ARIZONA, NEBRASKA AND NORTH CAROLINA.

3. AGREED TO HEAR THE APPEAL OF PFC. FREDERICK W.WADE, AN ARMY PRIVATE CONVICTED OF RAPING A GERMAN WOMAN. WADE WAS TRIED AT PFALZFELD, GERMANY, IN 1945, AND SENTENCED TO 20 YEARS IN LEAVENWORTH, KAN., PRISON.

THE COMMUNISTS' PETITION TO THE HIGH COURT TO CANCEL THEIR INDICTMENTS MADE A GENERAL ATTACK ON THE FEDERAL JURY SYSTEM IN SOUTHERN NEW YORK.

THE GROUP CHARGED THAT IT SYSTEMATICALLY AND ILLEGALLY EXCLUDES THE UNEMPLOYED, MANUAL WORKERS, NEGROES, JEWS, AND DWELLERS IN LOW RENT AREAS.

THE 12 ALSO ASKED THE SUPREME COURT TO REVIEW A REFUSAL BY THE U.S CIRCUIT COURT IN NEW YORK TO DISQUALIFY DISTRICT COURT JUDGE HAROLD R.MEDINA FROM TRYING THEIR CASE. THEY CHARGED JUDGE MEDINA WITH PERSONAL BIAS AND PREJUDICE AGAINST THEM.

THOSE INDICTED ARE WILLIAM Z.FOSTER, EUGENE DENNIS, JOHN B. WILLIAMSON, JACOB STACHEL, ROBERT G.THOMPSON, BENJAMIN J.DAVIS, JR., HENRY WINSTON, JOHN GATES, IRVING POTASH, GILBERT GREEN, CARL WINTER AND GUS HALL.

IN ADDITION TO THE GENERAL CONSPIRACY INDICTMENT, THERE ARE OTHER INDICTMENTS CHARGING THE INDIVIDUALS WITH MEMBERSHIP IN A COMMUNIST PARTY WHICH AIMS TO OVERTHROW THE GOVERNMENT.

LAKE SUCCESS, JAN. 10-(AP)-UNITED NATIONS DELEGATES WERE FACED AGAIN TODAY WITH THE PERPLEXING PROBLEMS OF PALESTINE AND INDONESIA.

THE PALESTINE POT BOILED UP AGAIN AS BRITAIN WAS REPORTED PREPARING TO DEMAND IMMEDIATE AND STRONG UNITED NATIONS ACTION AGAINST ISRAEL FOR SHOOTING DOWN FIVE R.A.F. PLANES.

ISRAEL MEANWHILE PROTESTED TO A U.N. REPRESENTATIVE IN HAIFA AGAINST THE LANDING OF BRITISH TROOPS IN AQABA, TRANS-JORDAN.

ARTHUR LOURIE, ACTING REPRESENTATIVE OF THE ISRAELI MISSION HERE, CONFERRED IN NEW YORK LAST NIGHT WITH TRYGVE LIE, U.N. SECRETARY GENERAL. AN ISRAELI SPOKESMAN SAID LOURIE SOUGHT INFORMATION ON WHAT STEPS THE U.N. MIGHT TAKE TO "SAFEGUARD THE PEACE" IN THE HOLY LAND IN VIEW OF BRITISH MILITARY MOVEMENTS IN THE MIDDLE EAST.

THE LONDON DAILY HERALD, ORGAN OF BRITAIN'S RULING LABOR PARTY, SAID TODAY BRITAIN'S REPRESENTATIVES HERE WILL BE INSTRUCTED TO ASK THE COUNCIL TO TAKE UP THE INCIDENTS CONCERNING THE PLANES TOMORROW "AS A MATTER OF URGENCY."

THE CONSERVATIVE DAILY MAIL SAID THE BRITISH DEMAND FOR A MEETING OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL ON PALESTINE WILL BE MADE SOON AFTER SIR ALEXANDER CADOGAN, BRITAIN'S COUNCIL DELEGATE, ARRIVES IN NEW YORK ON THE QUEEN MARY TODAY.

THE BRITISH AND ISRAELI COUNTERCHARGES CLOUDED OPTIMISM THAT HAD PREVAILED HERE OVER THE SCHEDULING OF ARMISTICE TALKS BETWEEN EGYPT AND ISRAEL EARLY THIS WEEK.

DR. RALPH J. BUNCHE, ACTING MEDIATOR, LEFT NEW YORK YESTERDAY FOR ENROUTE TO THE ISLAND OF RHODES, WHERE THE TALKS WILL BE HELD.

DELEGATES MEANWHILE WERE EXPECTED TO HOLD SPECIAL CONSULTATIONS TODAY OR EARLY TOMORROW TO MAP NEW STRATEGY IN THE INDONESIAN CASE.

EFFORTS TO PLAN NEW SECURITY COUNCIL ACTION WERE BELIEVED IMMINENT AS AN AFTERMATH OF VIOLENT CRITICISM ON FRIDAY OF THE COUNCIL'S PREVIOU ACTION IN THE CASE.

IN PARIS, THE 11-NATION BODY ORDERED THE NETHERLANDS GOVERNMENT TO CEASE FIRING AND TO RELEASE REPUBLICAN POLITICAL LEADERS ARRESTED DURING THE DUTCH OFFENSIVE.

DELEGATES SYMPATHETIC TO THE INDONESIAN CAUSE STRONGLY CRITICIZED THE COUNCIL ON FRIDAY FOR FAILING TO ORDER THE DUTCH TO WITHDRAW THEIR TROOPS TO POSITIONS THEY HELD BEFORE THE OFFENSIVE BEGAN ON DEC. 18.

IT WAS UNDERSTOOD THAT LEADING BIG POWER DELEGATES WOULD MEET TO DISCUSS POSSIBLE NEW ACTION BEFORE THE SCHEDULED 3 P.M. (EST) MEETING OF THE COUNCIL TOMORROW. THEY WERE EXPECTED TO CONFER WITH THE ADIAN DELEGATE, GEN. A.G.L. MCNAUGHTON, JANUARY PRESIDENT OF THE CIL.

THE BRITISH AND EGYPTIAN DELEGATIONS, MEANWHILE, DENIED TEL AVIV REPORTS THAT BRITAIN HAD VIOLATED THE U.N. TRUCE BY TURNING LARGE AMOUNTS OF MILITARY EQUIPMENT OVER TO THE EGYPTIAN GOVERNMENT.

A BRITISH SPOKESMAN SAID BRITAIN HAD TURNED NO EQUIPMENT OVER TO ANY ARAB COUNTRY SINCE THE U.N. TRUCE BEGAN.

EGYPTIAN DELEGATE MAHMOUD BEY FAWZI SAID BRITAIN HAD LARGE STOCK-PILES OF WAR MATERIALS IN EGYPT BUT, IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE TRUCE TERMS, HAD TRANSFERRED NONE TO THE EGYPTIAN GOVERNMENT.

FAWZI SAID THERE WERE CONSTANT COMPLAINTS, ON THE OTHER HAND, THAT WAR MATERIALS WERE FLOWING INTO ISRAEL, IN VIOLATION OF THE TRUCE.

ONE SOURCE SAID LIE WAS INDIRECTLY RESPONSIBLE FOR THE ACTION OF THE UNITED STATES IN CALLING ON BRITAIN AND ISRAEL TO CONSIDER MERELY AS A "REGRETTABLE INCIDENT" THE FIGHT IN WHICH FIVE RAF PLANES WERE SHOT DOWN NEAR THE EGYPT-PALESTINE BORDER.

A U.N. SPOKESMAN CONFIRMED THAT THE SECRETARY-GENERAL HAD TALKED OVER "THE GRAVITY OF THE SITUATION" WITH A MEMBER OF THE U.S. DELEGATION HERE. HE DECLINED TO SAY WHETHER LIE ACTUALLY HAD ASKED THE U.S. TO INTERVENE.

LIE ALSO MET LAST NIGHT WITH ARTHUR LOURIE, ISRAELI REPRESENTATIVE, AND THIS MORNING WITH BRITISH REPRESENTATIVE SIR TERENCE SHONE.

AT BOTH MEETINGS, A SPOKESMAN SAID, LIE POINTED OUT THE IMPORTANCE OF THE FORTHCOMING ARMISTICE TALKS BETWEEN EGYPT AND ISRAEL AT RHODES. HE IS SAID TO HAVE WARNED THEM OF THE CONSEQUENCES ANY NEW COMPLICATIONS MIGHT HAVE.

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL POINTED OUT TO BOTH PARTIES, THE SPOKESMAN SAID, THAT ACTING U.N. MEDIATOR RALPH BUNCHE ALREADY HAD ORDERED A THOROUGH INVESTIGATION OF THE PLANE INCIDENT.

THE TALKS TOUCHED ON THE WHOLE GENERAL QUESTION OF WORSENING BRITISH-ISRAELI RELATIONS. IN ADDITION TO THE SHOOTING DOWN OF THE PLANES, LIE ALSO DISCUSSED THE LANDING OF BRITISH TROOP REINFORCEMENTS AT AQABA, TRANS-JORDAN, AND BRITISH NAVAL MOVEMENTS IN THE MIDDLE EAST.

THE U.N. SPOKESMAN SAID LIE WAS SERIOUSLY CONCERNED OVER THE POSSIBILITY THAT THE BRITISH-ISRAELI DISPUTE MIGHT WRECK THE RHODES NEGOTIATIONS, SCHEDULED TO BEGIN LATER THIS WEEK.

REPORTS FROM LONDON INDICATED LIE'S EFFORTS MAY HAVE BEEN PARTIALLY SUCCESSFUL. BRITISH DIPLOMATIC SOURCES SAID BRITAIN HAD DECIDED NOT TO PRESENT A COMPLAINT TO THE SECURITY COUNCIL AT THIS TIME ON THE PLANE INCIDENT.

THERE STILL WAS NO DEFINITE WORD AS TO WHAT ISRAEL WOULD DO. ONE ISRAELI OFFICIAL HERE SAID THE LANDING OF THE BRITISH TROOPS AT AQABA CONSTITUTED A GRAVE QUESTION WHICH ISRAEL COULD NOT EASILY IGNORE.

U.N. OFFICIALS SAID LIE PROBABLY WOULD MEET TOMORROW WITH AUBREY S.EBAN, TOP ISRAELI REPRESENTATIVE AT THE U.N.

MEANWHILE, NO ARRANGEMENTS WERE BEING MADE FOR A SECURITY COUNCIL MEETING ON THE PALESTINE QUESTION UNTIL THE SITUATION WAS CLARIFIED.

THERE STILL WAS NO INDICATION WHAT ACTION WOULD BE PROPOSED IN THE INDONESIAN CASE. THE ISSUES WERE DEBATED FOR THREE HOURS LAST FRIDAY AND ADJOURNED UNTIL TOMORROW TO GIVE THE DELEGATES TIME FOR CONSULTATIONS.

Israel Blasts Britain In UN, Asks Probe Of 'Menacing Attitude'

JAN 1949

MASSING OF SHIPS, TROOPS ASSAILED BY ZION LEADERS

London Accused of Fomenting 'Artificial Crisis' on Eve of Peace Talks

FULL INQUIRY ASKED

British Say Palestine Issue 'Gravely Threatens' Peace of World

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Israel appealed to the United Nations yesterday from what she called Britain's "menacing attitude."

The Jewish state accused the British of fomenting "an artificial crisis" on the eve of the Rhodes discussions between Egypt and Israel to explore possibilities of restoring peace in the Holy Land.

Political developments stemming from the Palestine conflict boiled on many fronts, although the fighting areas along the Palestine-Egyptian border remained quiet under truce.

Bevin Under Fire

In London critics of British policy in the Middle East prepared to demand that Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin explain how it happened that five RAF planes were shot down by the Israelis near the Palestine border.

The British government in an official statement said the Palestine situation "gravely threatened" the peace of the world, but it still gave no indication of intention to appeal to the UN. She had indicated previously her strategy would be to pour naval and military strength into areas within easy reach of Israel.

Britain's air ministry asserted all five planes were attacked while flying over Egypt. The Israeli foreign office said formally the air engagements "undeniably" occurred above Israeli soil and that the blame for loss of the plane must rest with those who sent them on the mission.

Israel, in its appeal to the UN, alleged Britain has intervened in the Israeli-Egyptian fighting although neither British territories nor interests "are in any way threatened." It accused the British of having given first "clandestine" then open aid to Arabs fighting the Jews.

Ralph J. Bunche, acting UN mediator, arrived at Rhodes to start preliminary peace discussions with vanguards of the Egyptian and Israeli delegations today.

At Amman, in Trans-Jordan, a government spokesman said King Abdullah had not been officially notified of the peace talks, and said he was "very doubtful" the discussions "will attain any success."

ISRAEL CITES BRITISH ACTS

Four Complaints Listed In Plea To Security Council

Lake Success, N.Y., Jan. 11 (AP)—Israel complained to the Security Council today that Britain is menacing her with an imposing display of military and political activity.

The Tel Aviv Government urged the Council to investigate fully Britain's activity in the Middle East.

Israel charged that Britain:

1. Sent troops to Aquaba, Trans-Jordan, to threaten the southern Negeb.

2. Violated the Palestine frontier by sending over Royal Air Force planes.

3. Sent a steady stream of war materials to Egypt, Iraq and Trans-Jordan.

4. Carried out large-scale naval movements in the East Mediterranean.

Given Whole Question

Israel thus tossed to the Security Council the whole question of her relations with Britain on the eve of armistice talks on the island of Rhodes between Israel and Egypt. The Israeli note said the Tel Aviv Government wanted the armistice talks to open under the best possible auspices, but that it could not see a similar attitude in the British position.

There was no hint when the Council would consider the Israeli note.

Israel Accuses Britain, Urges U.N. Meeting

JAN 1949

Tel Aviv, Israel, Jan. 11 (AP)—Israel asked today that the United Nations Security Council be called to an urgent meeting to hear a complaint against Britain, accusing her of unilateral intervention in Palestine.

The request was forwarded to Trygve Lie, United Nations secretary general.

Aubrey Eban, Israeli representative at the United Nations, was ordered to apply for an immediate Security Council session.

Britain Is Blamed

The Jews were concerned about British troop movements in near-by Trans-Jordan, an ally of Britain.

The Israeli Government said British authorities who ordered the mission were to blame for the shooting down of five British planes by Israeli along the Palestine-Egyptian border last week.

The Foreign Office said in a formal statement that "any warplane appearing in skies above a battle zone must expect trouble."

Israel forces shot down the planes Friday near the Egyptian-Palestine border. Israeli officials later refused to accept British protests concerning the incident, because the protests were not addressed to the Government.

Loss Of Life Regretted

Britain since has indicated that she would not carry the dispute to the United Nations.

The Foreign Office statement said that while the Israeli Government "deeply regrets" the loss of life involved, "it puts the blame wholly on those, whether in London or RAF Middle East headquarters, who were responsible for sending British pilots on adventures whose motives can only have been hostile."

No Right Over Battle Area

It added that the "results might easily have been foreseen."

British planes, the statement said, "had no more right to be flying over Israeli battle positions in this border area than had aircraft of any other country."

The Foreign Office asserted that the air engagements "undeniably" took place over Israeli territory.

It said the "British Government has admitted and captured pilots confirmed that they were engaged in reconnaissance of Israeli position in a battle area where they clearly had no right to be and which they could not penetrate without realizing the risks entailed."

It added that a "sortie of this kind . . . is to all practical purposes—and certainly to Israeli ground troops—indistinguishable from belligerency."

not to cross the frontier into Palestine. Under these circumstances no question arose of informing the Jewish authorities beforehand, particularly as the Jews had announced that all their forces had left Egypt.

The pilots were also forbidden to make hostile approach to or open fire on any other aircraft, unless our aircraft were being attacked. They were, of course, free to fire in self-defense if attacked.

The object of all these flights was confined to reporting the existence and nature of any Jewish forces on Egyptian territory and in the case of the afternoon flights to searching for missing aircraft inside Egyptian territory.

Interrogation of the leaders of the RAF formations has confirmed that these instructions were strictly complied with. In particular no RAF aircraft opened fire or crossed the frontier before it was attacked nor was any ground target attacked at any time.

The capture of British pilots and aircraft by the Jews does not establish that our aircraft had crossed the frontier before being attacked since some Jewish ground forces were at least ten miles inside Egypt at the time. It is possible, however, that during the mleee after they were attacked one or two RAF aircraft may have been forced across the border.

The allegation that the Tempest was briefed to carry out photographic reconnaissance is refuted by the fact that no Tempests carried cameras. Moreover, no pilots carried any documents or maps containing instructions to take part in a photographic reconnaissance.

Egyptian border.

But a big segment of the British press—some of it pro-Government—has begun to ask why Britain now finds herself in a position apparently requiring increased military commitments in the mid-East.

Crossman To Question Policy

Some newspapers asked why Britain considered it necessary to risk planes, pilots and prestige in independent investigation of Israel troop movements rather than work with United Nations observers.

Richard Crossman, Laborite Member of Parliament and long-time critic of Bevin's policies, was flying back from Palestine, where he was the guest of Jewish authorities. He was expected to lead some Socialists in questioning Foreign Office policies.

It was certain that Crossman's opposition would find some support among the Conservative opposition.

Israel Not Advised

A Foreign Office spokesman told a news conference today that Britain had not advised Israel she was carrying out air patrols along the Palestine-Egyptian border at the time the planes were shot down.

"We did not consider it necessary," he said. "They had a perfect right to fly over Egypt."

He said the Egyptian authorities were "aware" of the flights.

British Text on Planes

LONDON, Jan. 11 (AP)—The text of a British Air Ministry statement on British-Jewish plane clashes follows:

Allegations have been made that the RAF aircraft attacked by Jewish aircraft on Jan. 7 flew into Palestine, that they opened fire on Jewish positions in the Negeb, and that documents and maps on board the Tempest which was shot down show that it was briefed to take part in a photographic reconnaissance over Palestine.

As stated in the Air Ministry communiqué of Jan. 8 the pilots of these aircraft had strict orders

Mid-East Policy Critics To Quiz Bevin

London, Jan. 11 (AP)—Critics of Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin's mid-East policies will call for a thoroughgoing explanation of British-Jewish clashes when Commons reconvenes next week.

Growing criticism of Bevin did not minimize the anger of Britain generally—the Government, the press and the public—over Israel's action in shooting down five RAF planes Friday near the Palestine-

Egypt Premier Rejects Offer Of Wafdists

JAN 1949

Cario, Egypt, Jan. 11 (AP)—Premier Abdel Hadi Pasha said today the conditions the Nationalist Wafdist party imposed for entering a coalition government amount to a rejection.

"The Wafdists did not accept my Cabinet's inviation to participate in the Government according to King Farouk's desire to create unity at a time when the country is passing through a critcial stage," he said.

The Wafdists specified that they would serve under a non-party premier and added, as another condition, that the present Chamber of Deputies "remain unchanged until the end (this summer) of its present session."

Bunche Reaches Rhodes

The decision to join a coalition cabinet under an independent premier, the party statement said, is "in compliance with King Farouk's appeal for unity. . . ."

Meanwhile, Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, acting Palestine mediator for the United Nations, arrived today on the Island of Rhodes for the scheduled start of armistice talks tomorrow between Israel and Egypt. Brig. Gen. William Riley, chief of staff of United Nations observers in Palestine, was on the same United Nations plane.

Hadi Pasha is one of the founders of the Saadist party, which is now predominant in the Chamber of Deputies. He succeeded Mahmound Fahmy Nokrashy Pasha, another Saadist, who was assassinated December 28.

Pasha Leads Wafdists

Hadi Pasha resigned from the Saadist party in 1947 to become chief of the royal Cabinet, but was listed as a member of that party in the makeup of his coalition Government. His ministers include members of the Saadist Liberal-Constitutional and National parties and Independents.

CLAY ADVISER IS RECALLED

Secrecy Masks Departure For Loyalty Test In U.S.

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 11 (AP). Army secrecy masked tonight the reasons for the sudden recall of an American political adviser on Gen. Lucius D. Clay's staff to face a United States Army loyalty board.

The adviser, Sam L. Wahrhaftig, of Brooklyn, N.Y., was whisked out of the country in an army plane bound for Westover Field, Mass. His friends said he was not granted time to marry his German sweetheart.

High Army officials refused to discuss any aspect of the case, but military government circles buzzed with speculation. Wahrhaftig himself said he had no idea why he was being investigated or who had prompted the inquiry.

Regarded As Socialist

The only official statement has been the original Army announcement that he was being recalled from his job in the political activities branch of the United States military government here.

Colleagues of Wahrhaftig expressed confidence in his loyalty. They regarded him as a Socialist, but an anti-Communist. Some of them said the circumstances of his recall indicated the action originated in Washington. His superiors here could have got rid of him if they were dissatisfied, these sources said, simply by failing to renew his contract as a civilian employé of the military government.

Some of his friends said it would be interesting to learn whether Wahrhaftig is the primary objective of the recall action, or whether it also was intended to embarrass his superiors in a round about fashion.

Branch Boiling With Rage

Some of his acquaintances said Wahrhaftig had a sharp tongue and had offended many people. Said one of them: "He was regarded as brilliant, and some people were jealous. Sometimes people regarded as insults remarks he intended in jest."

"I didn't like him, but I still say he was a good security risk," another associate said. One of his coworkers said "the whole political activities branch is practically boiling with rage."

It was understood here that he was born in Danzig Free State, went to the United States as a child, and served in the United States Army from 1942 to 1946 after becoming an American citizen.

As a civilian he served as chief of the political activities branch of the Hesse military government in 1946 and 1947, then became a political analyst attached to the United States Military Government for Germany.

His home is in Brooklyn, N.Y.

[In Washington an Army spokesman said a "full investigation" of Wahrhaftig would be made after he reaches Washington, probably Wednesday. He declined to discuss the circumstances leading to Wahrhaftig's return, but said the action was taken under a circular issued April 9 providing for an investigation when "reasonable grounds exist" for belief an employé's removal is warranted by the demands of national security. The employé has the right of appeal before the Army's security review board.]

Clay Aide Faces Loyalty Trial

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 11 (AP). A political adviser to Gen. Lucius D. Clay, American military governor, left for the United States today to face an army hearing under regulations covering possible disloyalty.

He was identified by the Army as Sam L. Warhaftig, of Brooklyn, N.Y., a civilian who was stationed at Frankfurt in the political activities branch of the United States Military Government.

Wahrhaftig boarded a Military Air Transport Service plane at the Rhein main airport bound for Westover Field, Mass.

Unaware Of Cause

Before leaving he told friends he was unaware of the reason he is being asked to face a hearing. The Army in Washington said he would be tried under Circular 100. This covers a wide range of possible activities. There was no amplification.

Colleagues of Wahrhaftig expressed astonishment at the development.

Loyalty Stressed

"The whole political-activities branch is practically boiling with rage," said one coworker. "All his friends are utterly convinced of his loyalty."

In Berlin, American civil administration officials said they had no knowledge of any investigation concerning Wahrhaftig.

There was no immediate indication of whether the hearing will be based on recent activities or those of a more distant past.

Airlift Flies Beans, Precooked, to Germans

JAN 1949

FRANKFURT, Germany, Jan. 11—(AP) The airlift has started flying pre-cooked beans to blockaded Berlin to save fuel.

The beans need only to be heated a few minutes. It would require several hours of cooking starting from scratch. About 425 tons of pre-cooked beans have been flown to Berlin and 2,000 tons are scheduled each month.

Previously, the American and British airlifts have been flying in dehydrated potatoes to save space, and quick cooking cereals and pre-cooked concentrated soups.

The Germans are writing letters saying they like the pre-cooked foods, the city food administration said.

Ex-German Soldiers Fought In Indo-China

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 11 (AP). Some former German soldiers, who have been fighting in the French Foreign Legion in Indo-China, have returned to Germany, the Frankfurt Abendpost reported today.

The Germans have founded a veterans' organization, the "Union of Ex-Legionnaires," in Baden Baden, the French-zone capital.

The newspaper estimated that "at least 40,000" former German soldiers had joined the French Foreign Legion, turning to it as a haven from food shortages and unemployment in Germany.

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 12, Wednesday (AP)—Three American flyers were killed early today in the crash of an airlift plane on its way back from a food flight to Berlin.

The plane, a C-54 Skymaster, fell about 2 miles east of Frankfurt's big Rhein-Main airport.

2 Major Generals To Be Transferred

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 11 (AP). The United States Army announced today the transfer of two major generals.

Maj. Gen. Carter B. Magruder, deputy chief of staff in the army's European command, will go to the United States early in February to serve with the civil affairs division Department of the Army.

He will be succeeded here by Maj. Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, now superintendent of the Military Academy at West Point.

Prices In Germany Begin To Decline

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 11 (AP). The high prices which provoked Germans to riot last fall are tumbling.

The new deischmark which Germans used to distrust is gaining in value. The American dollar and American cigarettes which used to yield such high black-market profits are losing their lure.

All these signs, United States Military Government officials say, point to a rapid recovery of health by the warsick German economy.

The price decline set in right after Christmas. Some German officials were skeptical at first. They thought maybe it was only because the Germans had spent all their money for Christmas presents and stores were trying to get rid of Christmas wares that had not been sold.

Hope Price Boom Broken

But prices are still dropping. Now officials are hopeful the back of the price boom may be broken.

There has been a deliberate campaign to check rising prices ever since last November when 8,000,000 German workers staged a one-day strike in protest against the cost of living.

But by Christmas the mark was so weak that an American dollar would buy more than 20 marks although a mark is supposed to be worth 30 cents. Cigarettes cost 10 marks ($3) a pack.

Now a United States dollar will get you only 12 to 15 marks in the black market, and cigarettes can be bought for 6 marks. In Switzerland's free money market, the mark made similar gains.

Legal as well as black-market prices are going down. Shoes and leather goods have dropped twenty per cent in Frankfurt, though textile prices still hang high.

Officials say there are many reasons for the improvement.

Basic reason, they hope, is a return toward normal in the German economy, with increasing production eliminating scarcities which boost prices.

Lada Counsel Attacks Jurisdiction Of Army

T.A. REDDY JAN 1949

Berlin, Jan. 11 (AP)—The case of Edward J. Lada, the blockade-busting Romeo, developed today into a challenge of the Army's right to apply its laws to an American who is not on the Army's pay roll.

This was the position taken by Lada's counsel, Robert M. Donihi, of Nashville, Tenn., appointed by a military government court to handle the defense. The trial opens Friday morning.

Charges Are Listed

The charges are illegal entry into army-occupied Germany, jail-breaking and illegal possession of American dollars, British money (9 shillings) and an expired War Department identity card.

Lada came here from Paris to see his German girl, Ruth Riecki, and their 2-year-old daughter.

U. S. Club in Berlin Will Admit Enlisted Men, Keep Army Backing

BERLIN, Jan. 11—(AP) Harnack House, biggest American club in Berlin, voted today to admit enlisted men rather than spend $175,000 in the next year.

The membership revised a previous decision and struck out of its constitution a clause prohibiting ordinary soldiers from entering the club as guests of either officers or civilians.

The issue was brought up on this basis:

(A) Vote the enlisted men in, or,

B) Set up shop as a private club without army help.

The board of governors explained to the 500 members present that the second alternative would mean an immediate outlay of $29,000 for equipment now loaned by the army and $11,000 a month for other expenses. Over a year's time the total would be slightly more than $175,000. Now the club operates with a membership of 1,200 paying $2 a month dues.

Hits Discrimination

The dispute came up before Christmas when a meeting attended by only one-fourth of the membership wrote in the prohibition on enlisted men. Maj. Gen. George Hays, deputy theater commander, called in the board and said there could be no such discrimination where federal funds were involved.

Tonight's special meeting was then called to take up the question of turning the club into a private setup. The aid the army now gives the club was explained and apparently was news to most of those present. It included the equipment; monthly rent of $1,425; utilities, $1,860; coal, $4,819; oil, $195. It also furnished 34 German employes, paid out of occupation costs.

Army officers who had led the original campaign to bar enlisted men reversed their position and proposed that the ban be lifted and action be taken unanimously "to show we are all Americans."

D. C. Demartin, Hamden, Conn., civilian employe of the military government and a board member, said the issue had developed "unfavorable publicity." He said it was out of proportion because "very few enlisted men want to come here anyway," and the few who d should be permitted.

A rising vote admitting enlisted men when accompanied by a member settled the question. Some diehards kept their seats but the vote was announced as "unanimous." In any event it was at least an 80 per cent majority.

DEFENDS ROLE AS CONDUCTOR

Furtwaengler Upholds Record Under Nazi Regime

Montreux, Switzerland, Jan. 11 (AP)—Wilhelm Furtwaengler, German conductor, struck back at his critics today and upheld his record under the Nazi regime.

Furtwaengler's proposed engagement as guest conductor of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra has evoked protests from prominent musicians and Jewish organizations in America. In a statement and interview, Furtwaengler indicated that negotiations with the Chicago orchestra were still in progress.

He declared that he had received numerous letters of "joyful expectation" from America, "which is proof enough to me that the American public on the whole does not approve methods like this boycott."

Jewish critics in Chicago based their attitude on misinformation, Furtwaengler declared. The attitude of certain artists and musicians is "quite another matter," he added.

Among the musicians "who want to keep me from America," Furtwaengler said, "I find to my surprise colleagues . . . and former friends whom I admire as great artists.

"When artists were being persecuted under the Hitler regime it was I who did my best to help them in the cause of the international solidarity of all artists and today, four years after the end of the war, it is precisely artists who are persecuting me—although I must emphasize that none of those I defended, including Bruno Walter, Otto Klemperer, Max Reinhardt and Paul Hindemith, have ever said a word against me.

U.N. BALKAN UNIT ASKS RUSSIAN-POLISH HELP

ATHENS, Greece, Jan. 11 (AP)—The United Nations Special Commission on the Balkans voted today to invite the Soviet Union and Poland again to take their seats on the commission.

The conciliatory attempt was proposed by Dr. Kwang Tsien-shih, Chinese delegate. At the Paris session of the United Nations, the Russians vigorously opposed continuation of the commission.

Dr. Tsien-shih said that, since Poland and Russia always had professed their desires to work for peace, "It seems to me the proper and logical thing for the U.S.S.R. and Poland to do now is to fill their seats on UNSCOB without further delay and participate fully in its work."

Telegrams will be dispatched to the two countries through the United Nations Secretary General. They will be similar to telegrams sent last year to the Soviet Union and Poland, which were rebuffed.

Lieut. Col. J. J. A. Keuchenius, chief Netherlands delegate, who was chairman of the meeting, said:

"Our work would be made much easier if all member states appointed by the General Assembly would take an active share in it."

He expressed the hope that "liaison representatives from the Governments of Albania, Bulgaria and Yugoslavia will be sent to cooperate with us to the same extent as the Greek liaison representatives have done throughout the past year."

Nanking Admits That 'Tientsin Is Gone'

JAN 1949 H.K. MICKS D

Nanking, Jan. 11 (AP)—Official sources today indicated that the Reds either have occupied the great northern industrial city of Tientsin or that terms have been agreed on for its surrender.

These sources conceded that "Tientsin is gone." They declined, however, to furnish details.

The northern city has been under heavy attack for several days. The last previous reports here said Red troops were fighting in Tientsin's suburbs.

Officials Speed Up Flight

On the central front, Communist troops were reported systematically mopping up the trapped Government armies on the northern approaches to Nanking. Government airmen called it "the heaviest fighting we have seen at any time in China."

With the military picture darkening, Government officials stepped up their flight from Nanking.

Officials Flee Nanking

Little more than a symbol of the Nationalist Government remains in Nanking. Officials, archives and equipment are flowing out of the capital at a fast pace.

Thousands of officials and employés have left. Many have moved south to set up emergency branches of their ministries out of reach of Red armies. Others have fled to their native homes where they hope to find obscurity.

Canton and Formosa (Taiwan) are favorite refuges of Government officials. As many as 50,000 Chinese a week are reported arriving on Formosa, which some say Chiang Kai-shek may turn into a fortress.

Factories Off To Formosa

Equipment and key personnel of four Government-owned factories have been loaded aboard ship for transfer to Formosa.

Peace rumors continued to flow from every direction. One Government official cautioned that "it's no use talking about peace until we know what the Communists want. And they are not saying."

The heaviest fighting was 150 miles northwest of the capital. Encircled Government forces there comprise the remnants of the former Suchow garrison under command of Gen. Tu Li-ming.

A Communist broadcast said yesterday that the Nationalist force had been "completely wiped out" as a fighting force. The encircled troops, originally numbering 250,000 men, had been cut to 130,000 by Communist estimate Sunday.

Airlift Called Off

The Government air force had been parachuting supplies to the encircled troops. But pilots said survivors were so tightly packed into a narrowing area that they asked the flyers to call off the airlift.

[Meanwhile, besieged Peiping, remained calm. Residents were more worried about sky-rocketing living costs than the civil war, Spencer Moose, Associated Press correspondent in that north China city, reported.

[Everyone in Peiping seemed to feel there was little chance of the city's becoming a battlefield. All expect its fate to be decided by political negotiations.

[The question was whether peace would come through negotiations with the Reds by the National Government or by Gen. Fu Tso-yi, Nationalist commande rin the north.

Tientsin Lost, Say Chinese

H.K. MICKS JAN 1949

Nanking, China, Wednesday, Jan. 12 (AP)—Official Government quarters today regarded Tientsin as lost to the Chinese Communists, but a military spokesman said some fighting continued at the great North China city.

The military spokesman denied knowledge that a cease-fire had been arranged. However, other official sources said yesterday:

"Tientsin is gone."

The military spokesman denied also that remnants of Gen. Tu Li-ming's armies, trapped in a shrinking pocket southwest of Suchow for weeks, had been wiped out—as claimed by the Communists. He insisted that Tu's troops had broken encirclement and were attempting to fight their way southward.

Frequent Denials

[In the past, the military spokesman has continued to deny Communist successes long after they are verified elsewhere in the Government.]

The words of other Government sources indicated Tuesday that Tientsin either has bee noccupied by the Communists or that surrender terms have been arranged.

Negotiation Reports

[Shanghai newspapers reported Wednesday negotiations were under way for a cease-fire in the Tientsin area. There were no reports to the Associated Press direct from Peiping, regarding the situation at Tientsin.

[The last such dispatch received in Shanghai was timed at 8 P.M. Tuesday and quoted Peiping Government headquarters as saying "fierce fighting" was resumed. However, it appeared probable that censorship had held up reports of subsequent developments.]

Fighting In Suburbs

[Earlier, Spencer Moosa, Associated Press correspondent in Peiping, said heavy fighting was reported in Tientsin's eastern and western suburbs. Communist artillery shells were bursting inside the city.

[Moosa reported only minor clashes around Peiping. He wrote that "everyone here still expects a political settlement."

[The Communist radio, however, continued to belabor Gen. Fu Tso-yi, the North China commander in Peiping. It accused him of "continuing to kill people, burn down whole villages and destroy state property."

[The broadcast, heard by the Associated Press at San Francisco, asserted Fu "is carrying on these criminal activities at the same time as his 'peace' clamors, just as Chiang Kai-shek is doing."]

Exodus Continues

With the news bad from North China, and continued attacks on the northern approaches to Nanking, the exodus of officials, archives and equipment continued at a fast pace.

The refusal of the Communists to answer President Chiang Kai-shek's peace message favorably, or to acknowledge other pleas for negotiations, was believed accelerating the departure of ministry personnel.

One official estimated that far more than half the Government's official personnel has vanished. Most of the officials are heading for Formosa or Canton in South China. Others simply go back home.

Technically, all ministries remain, because the great seals for stamping all official documents are here. Actually, only the most important functions of Government are continuing.

Transfer To Formosa

A reliable source said the Ministry of Health would be transferred en masse to Canton today.

The equipment of four Government-owned factories, as well as key personnel, were loaded aboard a special steamship for transfer to Formosa.

Many minor employés will stay in Nanking. As one employé put it: "If whatever power takes over doesn't want me, I'll go back to my native home. But I'll not become a a political refugee from my own country."

The air still was full of peace rumors. But one Government official remarked: "There's no use talking about peace until we know what the Communists want—and they're not saying."

Flying Tiger Revival

[In Shanghai, Maj. Gen. Claire L. Chennault said he still was ready to revive his famous wartime Flying Tigers, and thought they could be effective.

[Chennault said in an interview he informed Chiang that many of his former pilots had volunteered. He has received no reply.

[Chennault, who operates an air line in China, said he did not regard the fighting as civil war but a "fight of communism against everything that isn't communistic."

[The General said he thought the Communists "have the advantage of foreign advisers (obviously Russian) down to army level, possibly to division level."]

Chinese Reds Like U.S. Gadgets, Resent Planes

JAN 1949 D

Seymour Topping spent a week behind Chinese Communist lines. He was not allowed to remain longer nor send any dispatches while there. Here is a delayed dispatch written in Communist territory and fled on his return to Government-held Pengpu.

By Seymour Topping

A Communist Army headquarters north of the Hwai River, China, Jan. 8 (Delayed)—(AP)—Chinese Communist soldiers are confidently singing victory songs and talking of the day China will enjoy American mechanical wonders.

Their admiration for things American is summed up in the words of one Communist officer. He told me:

"Twenty years after all China is Communist, we shall have automat restaurants."

Enjoy Camera, Typewriter

Enthusiastic about the automat, he described its wonders to me from pictures he had seen.

Communist soldiers showed equally great admiration for American gadgets. They had me repeatedly exhibit my camera and baggage and give half a dozen demonstrations on my typewriter. [The camera and typewriter were taken from Topping but returned when he was ordered to leave the Red area.]

Resent U.S. Planes

On the other hand there was deep resentment indicated for American assistance given the National Government. This was particularly true for American-built planes flying overhead. Judging by Communist reactions, the planes are an important morale factor, if not a great combat asset, in favor on the Nationalists.

No noticeable hostility to me as an individual American was ever demonstrated.

Cite Jim Crow Laws

The Red soldiers showed great curiosity about the United States and the life of its people. Several quoted from their propaganda instruction about the poor in the United States and Jim Crow practices in the South. The Communist soldiers believe American workers solidly support them. One read to me from a Communist newspaper of a worker demonstration in Washington against aid to Chiang Kai-shek.

The commanding officer of the last Communist unit I visited wrote in my notebook as a farewell memento, "we would like to fight to the end with our American friends for democracy, freedom and happiness." He signed his name Tien Wu Chang, without indication of his rank.

As I left he said, "good-by, I will see you in Nanking."

Flushed With Confidence

The victory-flushed Communist soldiers on this front, where 250,000 Nationalist troops have been eliminated in the last two months, are filled with confidence. But the date they expect to reach the Nationalist capital is far later than the time predicted by most observers in Nanking itself.

Only a few of the Red troops spoke of occupation of Nanking and Nationalist surrender as early as this spring.

Soldiers talk of the Red strategy of encirclement. They believe this will give them Nanking, Shanghai and Hankow without much actual fighting, as was the case in other cities like Mukden, Kaifeng and Kalgan.

New Drive Indicated

In the area just to the north there seems little doubt that Communist troops are regrouping and being resupplied. Activity in the vicinity of their main railhead at Suchow further indicates they are preparing to resume their offensive and sweep across the Hwai River line north of Nanking.

In dozens of villages dotting these flatlands, Communist soldiers signal the dawn and the beginning of drill sessions by singing in chorus, "On to Nanking and Strike Down Chiang Kai-shek." In leisure hours while they stomp about fires warming themselves, they sing verses in praise of Communist China and the Soviet Union. ADD veterans of the United States 14th Air Force to return to China and fight again. Chennault commanded the 14th. He now operates his own civil air service in China.

Chennault first communicated the veterans' offer to Chiang in November.

The airman was asked to comment on criticism that an efficient, hard-hitting foreign unit like his "Flying Tigers" would have no opposition in China's civil war and would therefore be "unopposed butchery."

Chennault replied: "War is kill or be killed. People who make war have to expect to be killed."

"Fight Of Communists"

"It's a fight of Communists against everything that isn't communistic," Chennault said.

Chennault said he would have no hope of continuing his civil airline in a Communist China.

In reply to a question as to whether he thought the Communists were outgeneraling the Nationalists, Chennault said, "I think the Red armies have the advantage of foreign advisers down to the army level, possibly to the division level."

'GHOST' RATION CARDS BRING JAP WARNINGS

TOKYO, Jan. 11—(AP) General MacArthur's headquarters told the Japanese government today to get rid of all those 1,000,000 "ghost" ration card holders.

A recent government survey revealed there were 1,000,000 more cards than Japanese. It turned out the cards had been issued for persons deceased or for fictitious Japanese.

The orders for a cleanup are part of the economic stabilization program announced recently by MacArthur.

cow that his Government gave Americans control of 30 per cent of South Korea's industry.

"We in the South tolerate no traitors to serve as a puppet nor is there any foreign power so undemocratic as to create a puppet government here," Rhee said.

"Quislings" Doomed

"The time is drawing near when our people in the North will set the traitors before the firing squad. The days of the Korean Quislings are numbered."

A high American official in Seoul said the "obviously false statement" published by Pravda, official Communist newspaper in Moscow, was calculated to draw attention away from Russia's economic penetration in North Korea. ADD

Jap Admiral Sentenced To 6 Years For Crimes

Honolulu, Jan. 11 (AP)—The Navy reported today that a war crimes commission on Guam sentenced Vice Admiral Chuichi Hara, wartime Japanese commander of the Marshall Islands, to six years imprisonment.

Hara was convicted yesterday of responsibility for his subordinates slaying American prisoners of war and civilian residents in the Marshalls.

British Round Up Kajang 'Red' Aides

Singapore, Jan. 11 (AP)—Several companies of British troops today started to round up squatters suspected of aiding Communist insurgents in Central Malaya.

The troops cordoned off two large squatter areas around Kajang, 200 miles northwest of Singapore. They went into action a few hours after the Government announced new sweeping emergency powers aimed at persons helping terrorists.

The Government said a large number of the squatters undoubtedly would be repatriated to China.

Dutch Reject U.N. Request To Visit

Batavia, Java, Jan. 11 (AP)—A United Nations request for permission to visit Indonesian Republican leaders held by the Dutch has been turned down temporarily by Dutch authorities.

The request and answer were made known today as the United Nations Good Offices Committee included them in its latest report to the Security Council.

Reply Ignores Hatta

The Dutch reply also revealed that the Republican officials were not being held on the island of Bangka as Dutch United Nations Delegate J. H. Van Royen announced to the Security Council last Friday. ADD

Another item which aroused interest here was the fact that the Dutch reply referred to President Soekarno of the republic, Foreign Minister Hadji Agus Salim and former Premier Sutan Sjahrir, but not to Premier Mohamed Hatta.

Dutch Refuse To Let U.N. See Soekarno

Batavia, Java, Jan. 11 (AP)—Dutch authorities have refused to permit United Nations representatives to visit captured Indonesian Republican leaders at this time.

The Dutch reply to the United Nations Good Offices Committee, which requested the interview, was made public today. It asked for "the forbearance of the committee for a few days."

The correspondence disclosed that Republican President Soekarno and two of his top leaders whom the Dutch interned are not held on the island of Bangka, as the United Nations Security Council was told Friday by J. H. van Royen, Netherlands delegate.

Soekarno, Hadji Agus Salim, Foreign Minister, and Sutan Sjahrir, former Premier, preferred their present "residence" at Prabat on Lake Toba in the mountains of North Sumatra, the Dutch said, and are held there. Republican Premier Mohamed Hatta is held at Bangka, a spokesman added.

Official Word Awaited

Washington, Jan. 11 (AP)—American officials expressed keen interest today in reports that Panama is ready to co-operate with the United States in defense of the canal.

However, they said they knew of no move through diplomatic channels in line with statements made in the Panamanian Assembly yesterday. David Samudio, a Government representative, and Victor Navas, of the opposition, both told the Assembly that the Panamanian Government is ready to co-operate with the United States.

Efforts to reach an agreement for temporary United States lease of some twelve defense bases in Panama collapsed a year ago. At that time, the National Assembly unanimously rejected an agreement between the two governments.

Up To Panama

Since then the United States has taken this position:

It is up to Panama to make the first proposal for any new agreement.

Under Secretary of State Lovett reiterated this view recently. He said that if and when the Panamanian Government makes some new offer, the United States will be glad to listen to it.

American officials said this policy statement still stands.

Panama Is Held Ready To Help Guard Canal

JAN 1949

Panama, Panama, Jan. 11 (AP)—The republic of Panama is now ready to co-operate with the United States in the defense of the Panama Canal.

David Samudio, a Government member speaking in the National Assembly, said yesterday the attitude of Panamanians had changed. A year ago United States troops were pulled out from their wartime bases because of Panamanian objections.

Samudio said the new policy resulted because the Panama people "face certain new doctrines and world imperialist ambitions which try to dominate the action and thought of citizens of weak countries."

"Ready For Understanding"

Opposition Member Victor Navas supported the Government statement which declared the republic is "ready to arrive at an understanding with the North Americans on the basis of mutual advantages."

The United States is surveying four sea-level canal routes in Central America.

European Colonization End In America Sought

Havana, Jan. 11 (AP)—A Cuban State Department spokesman announced today a conference of American nations, designed to put an end to colonies of European nations in the Western Hemisphere, will meet in Havana February 15.

The question was raised at the Bogota conference on American states last year. The conference resolved that "it is a just aspiration of the American republics that colonialism and the occupation of American territories by extra-continental countries should be brought to an end." A resolution provided for the Havana meeting.

Countries with colonies and occupied areas in the America region are England, France and the Netherlands.

The United States position with respect to the conference has not been announced.

Chennault Offers Chinese New 'Flying Tigers' Group

JAN 1949

Shanghai, Jan. 11 (AP)—Claire L. Chennault, who created and led the "Flying Tigers" against the Japanese, expressed willingness today to lead a new American volunteer group for China.

This time it would be against Chinese Communists. The retired American major general expressed belief such an air group could still be effective. But he emphasized it would have to be "properly constituted" and supplied, and coordinated with the Chinese Air Force, which he helped create.

Chennault said President Chiang Kai-shek has not asked for such help. In fact, he said, Chiang has not replied to an offer of some

Foreign Review Holds Up Acheson Hearing Date

Washington, Jan. 11 (AP) — The tangled foreign situation, with emphasis on Russia, engaged the Senate Foreign Relations Committee today and held up a decision on when to start hearings on Dean Acheson's appointment as Secretary of State.

Senator Connally (D., Texas), committee chairman, said a decision would be reached during the afternoon on when to start hearings "and who will be witnesses."

The committee met for two and a half hours to hear a review of the foreign situation from Under Secretary of State Robert A. Lovett. Members adjourned for lunch but arranged to return and hear further from Lovett.

Lovett Tells Of Politburo

"We didn't have time to finish all the matters we wished to discuss," Connally told reporters.

He added there was "no significance to any particular foreign situation" in the meeting of the committee—its first since the organization of the new Congress.

Other senators said Lovett described the Russian Politburo as a fourteen-member group dominated by one man—Stalin.

They quoted Lovett as saying that, in his opinion, the Politburo will take any course necessary to retain power, including war.

"War If They See Victory"

Within the Politburo, Lovett is reported to have said, war is regarded as an instrument to perpetuate communism, a method to be used whenever the members agree that fighting is necessary to gain their ends, and that they can win.

No mention was made, committee members said, of President Truman's recent statement that some Russian leaders favor an agreement with the United States which would bring peace.

The committee engaged in a 45-minute discussion of the legal aspects of American occupation of a portion of Berlin.

No Hope Of Early Accord

Members said Lovett held out no specific hope of any early settlement of the differences with Russia there. He was said to have reported that the American airlift will make it possible for this country to remain in Berlin indefinitely.

Connally said Lovett's discussion covered the foreign situation in general, but did not touch on China. Lovett was expected to talk on China this afternoon.

Connally said the committee probably would take up the question of a North Atlantic defense alliance later in the day.

Lacks Formal Bid For Hearing

In referring to the Acheson appointment, Connally said the committee has received no formal request for hearings. He added the group will be willing to hear any reputable witness who might ask to be heard.

Meanwhile, Republicans laid aside criticism of Acheson's appointment until the committee can act.

Under Secretary Gives Senators Report On World

JAN 1949

Washington, Jan. 11 (AP)—Robert A. Lovett, Under Secretary of State, was quoted as saying today that Soviet leaders would go to war whenever they deemed it necessary to attain their communistic ends—and whenever they felt they could win.

Lovett, who has resigned, effective January 20, reported on the general world situation to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. Members quoted him as emphasizing that Premier Stalin dominates the fourteen-man Politburo which determines Russian actions at home and abroad.

Anything To Keep Power

Further, they said Lovett expressed the belief that the Politburo will take any course necessary to retain power and perpetuate communism, including war. He said this contrasts with this country's policy of doing all possible to avoid a resort to arms as a means of settling international difficulties.

The committee had called in Lovett for an up-to-date estimate of world conditions on which to base legislative plans looking toward settlement of problems barring the way to universal peace.

Lovett has been supervising the months-long negotiations with representatives of Canada and the five-nation Western European Union for a North Atlantic defense alliance. He was expected to give the Foreign Relations Committee a fill-in on the proposed pact since that group must pass on any such treaty. The latest word is that the agreement may be ready for Senate action by February 1.

Doubts Blockade Agreement

In his global summary today committee members said Lovett saw small chance of an early agreement with Russia on the Berlin blockade. He told them, however, that the airlift will enable United States occupation forces to remain in the German capital indefinitely.

Lovett was reported to have held out little hope of any rift among Soviet leaders that would ease this country's difficulties in reaching an understanding with Russia.

It was in this connection that members said he gave his interpretation of how Soviet leaders view war, with Stalin holding the key hand in the final decisions of the Politburo.

Acheson Views Quoted

Dean Acheson, President Truman's choice to succeed Gen. George C. Marshall as Secretary of State, said in a speech last September that Stalin was the one who held the whip hand in Russia. He said that the Russian ruler had boldly outlined the course of Soviet expansion in a speech delivered in January, 1946. But, Acheson said, Stallin's forthright disclosure of future conquest plains had been disgarded by the democracies.

At the same time, Acheson said last fall that the "tide had turned" against the Communists and that at every critical spot they were then contained within the areas which they controlled at war's end through force of arms.

Since that time there have been critical leaks in the anti-Communist dikes which this country has helped erect around the world. The Chinese Communists, for example, have all but breached the lines held by Nationalist forces.

Air Force Shifts Funds To B-36 Bombers

Washington, Jan. 11 (AP)—The Air Force today cancelled $300,000,000 of orders for smaller and experimental-type planes in order to spend the money building up its long-range heavy bomber force.

The move was announced on the heels of disclosure in President Truman's budget message that he has put a brake on Air Force expansion plans. Mr. Truman's hold-back order already had stirred protests in Congress.

Conforming To Budget

The Air Forc said it canceled the orders in conformity with the budget and in order to achieve a more effective Air Force in the shortest possible time.

No reduction in Air Force spending is involved.

The orders canceled covered some 240 planes, including 119 F-93 jet fighters and 30 eight-engine jet "Flying Wing" bombers.

Shifting To B-36 And B-50

The Air Force said the $300,000,000 made available by the cancellations will be spent in acquiring "a substantial additional number" of B-36 bombers and in modernizing its present B-36 and B-50 bombers.

The B-36 weighs approximately 150 tons and is rated as having a 10,000-mile range. The B-50 is a development of the wartime B-29 which carried out long-range bombing attacks on Japan.

Vinson Disagrees

Mr. Truman recommended a minimum 48-combat-group Air Force in his budget message yesterday. Representative Vinson (D., Ga.), prospective chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, immediately disagreed.

"I am thoroughly convinced an overwhelming majority of Congress will vote the funds to put into being a 70-group Air Force over a period of three or four years," Vinson said. "It is the minimum we must have for security."

Tydings Sets Close Study

Senator Tydings (D., Md.), chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, said he didn't think the President's recommendations "ruled out" an ultimate 70-group force but intended to study the matter very closely.

Air Force Secretary Symington, in a report issued over the week end, reiterated air force hopes for 70 groups. The last Congress authorized 66 groups and the Air Force now has reached 60-group strength.

Plane Total Cut Back

The Air Force also set a goal of 10,297 first and second line planes by June 30. The President said this would be cut back to 9,197 by eliminating 700 trainers and 400 planes of the types used in support of the ground forces.

The President divided his $14,268,000,000 defense budget almost evenly among the three services.

Senator Gurney (R., S.D.), minority spokesman on the Armed Services Committee and former chairman, noted this would not permit 70 groups in the 1950 fiscal year, starting next July 1.

U.S. May Get South African Manganese

JAN 1949

Washington, Jan. 11 (AP)—A plan intended to help the United States get more manganese from South Africa for its strategic materials stock pile will go into effect next month, the Commerce Department announced today.

Russia is now this country's principal source of supply of manganese. The metal is necessary for high-grade steel used in shells and other war equipment.

There have been reports recently in trade circles that Russia expects to cut down on shipments of manganese to the United States, but officials here say they have no information to substantiate them.

Will Build Cars

The new plan provides for a set-aside of 2,576 tons of steel monthly, from February until September at least, for use in making cars to transport manganese ore from South African mines to tidewater.

The cars are to be made by the Canadian Car and Foundry Company, Ltd., Montreal, and used by the Union of South African Railways.

The United States Munitions Board, which handles this Government's war materials stockpiling, has said the plan may make it possible to get half of all stock-pile manganese from South Africa.

May Boost Output

The board has never disclosed the amount of manganese it wants to stockpile, but it has suggested the steel-guarantee plan might enable South Africa to increase its yearly manganese production by 250,000 to 300,000 tons.

The Canadian car factory has undertaken to deliver the cars to the South African Railways in the fourth quarter of this year.

The Commerce Department said another new steel-guarantee program to go into effect February 1 will provide 26,400 tons for production of mining machinery and repair parts in this country.

Eight Programs Listed

Simultaneously, it said final steps have been taken under an agreement with the steel industry to earmark steel voluntarily until September at least for these eight programs:

Armed forces requirements, 102,295 tons monthly; Atomic Energy Commission, 16,414; National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics, 2,926; manufacture of oil-field tank and production equipment, 16,530; construction and repair of oil tankers, 40,380; construction and repair of merchant ships, 15,415; construction, conversion and repair of domestic freight-carrying barges and towing vessels, 25,000; construction of freight cars, 250,000 tons.

Reds Vow Return Of U.S. Cruiser

Washington, Jan. 11 (AP)—Russia has promised to return the American cruiser Milwaukee to the United States before March 1, diplomatic officials said today.

A Russian crew will sail the 26-year-old warship to Lewes, Del., when Italy hands over to Russia the cruiser Duca d'Aosta as part of Italian war reparations.

Under a wartime agreement, Russia must return the Milwaukee and twelve warships borrowed from Britain as soon as it gets 35 Italian war vessels awarded to the Soviets under the Italian peace treaty.

To Retire Cruiser

Moscow already has notified Britain it will begin returning the British warships on January 15. Included is the battleship Royal Sovereign.

The 8,030-ton Milwaukee was turned over to the Russians in 1944 by the Navy to help guard the sea lanes to Murmansk.

Navy Department officials have said the Milwaukee will be retired from active service once it is returned because of its age.

The exact date of the arrival of the Milwaukee at Lewes will be worked out by the Four-Power Naval Commission in Rome arranging the transfer.

Wait Italian Action

Government officials said they will not be surprised if the Russians wait until the Duca D'Acosta is in their hands before permitting the Milwaukee to sail here. The Russians may take this precaution because some Italian admirals have vowed to sink their ships rather than turn them over to the Russians.

The Soviet Government also has promised to return three large American icebreakers and 28 frigates it borrowed from the American Navy.

U.S. Ship Coming Home From Russia

Washington, Jan. 11 (AP)—The United States cruiser Milwaukee, which patrolled the famed Murmansk run under Russian colors, is coming home at last.

Diplomatic authorities said today the Soviets have agreed to return the 26-year-old warship when the Italians hand over to them the cruiser Duca D'Aosta as part of Rome's naval reparations to the Soviet Union.

The Milwaukee was loaned to Rusia under a naval agreement of April 20, 1944. At the same time Britain turned over a dozen other warships to bolster the Red Fleet.

To Go Off Active List

Return of the American and British vessels has been held up pending final disposition of the Italian fleet. The Russians were awarded 35 vessels under the Italian peace treaty of 1947, but the Americans and British renounced their share.

The exact date of the Milwaukee's return will be determined by the four-power naval commission in Rome. A Russian crew then will sail the 8,030-ton cruiser to Lewes, Del., where it is expected to be taken off the Navy's active lists because of its age.

The Russians also promised to return 3 large icebreakers and 28 frigates they borrowed from the Navy during the war. No dates were set, however.

No Date For Foreign Policy Message Set

Washington, Jan. 11 (AP)—The White House said today that no date has been set for President Truman's foreign-policy message to go to Congress.

Presidential Press Secretary Charles G. Ross said he did not believe the President would send any additional messages to Congress this week, but that he would probably send some nominations for public office to the Senate on Thursday.

No Date For Another

He told a news conference no date has been fixed for Mr. Truman's message on proposed expansion of the Social Security System.

Ross was asked about a published report that John Foster Dulles may get the ailing Warren Austin's job as United States representative of the United Nations.

Ross said he could not discuss the report, that it was "purely speculative."

Ships Convertible To War Use Included In Maritime Program

JAN 1949

Washington, Jan. 11 (AP)—The Maritime Commission said today an approximately $95,000,000 program of new merchant ship construction will be started about July 1 if Congress votes needed subsidy funds.

With an eye to the nation's need for shipping in the event of war, the commission said top priority will be given to the construction of two new "prototype" ships, which would be the counterpart of the thousands of "Liberty" and "Victory" ships mass-produced during the war.

A commission spokesman said the program also calls for the immediate construction of seventeen high-speed passenger-cargo ships and tankers. All would have so-called "national defense features" making them easily convertible to wartime uses.

$95,000,000 Entire Cost

This official said the entire program, embracing other ships as well, is estimated to cost about $95,000,000. Private companies, for whom the ships would be built, would pay the major share of the cost.

The request for Government subsidy funds was included in President Truman's budget message, sent to Congress yesterday.

Among the ships planned under the program are:

Two 17,000-ton passenger-cargo liners with an estimated cost of $30,000,000 each, to be operated by the Grace Lines, Inc., on the United States-Caribbean run.

Ten tankers of varying sizes costing an average of $23,000,000 each. They would be built for different companies, and would have 20-knot speed.

20,000-Ton Ship Planned

One 20,000-ton passenger-cargo ship, costing an estimated $14,000,000, to be built for the Mississippi Shipping Company, New Orleans. It would have luxury accommodations for at least 234 persons.

Two cargo ships of about 10,000 tons for Standard Fruit and Steamship Company, New Orleans. They would cost about $9,000,000 and would be used for Latin American runs.

All the ships except the new prototypes would be privately operated. The prototypes, as now planned, would weigh about 10,000 tons deadweight and have a top speed of twenty knots.

The Government pays subsidies on new ship construction to offset higher building costs in the United States, as compared with foreign countries.

U.S. Army To Retain Custody Of Crown Of St. Stephen

Washington, Jan. 11 (AP)—The State Department said today it has "no immediate plans" for returning the historic crown of St. Stephen to the Communist-led Hungarian Government.

Press Officer Michael McDermott said the 950-year-old Roman Catholic relic will remain in the custody of American military authorities in Germany.

The crown has been treasured by the Hungarian people since the year 1000, when Pope Sylvester I presented it to Stephen in bestowing the title Apostolic King of Hungary.

Hidden In Salt Mine

American Army troops found the crown in 1945 in an Austrian salt mine where it had been hidden by Nazi forces.

McDermott's statement in effect means the United States has refused a request for its surrender by the Hungarian Government.

$1,161,603 Spent By China For Arms

Washington, Jan. 11 (AP)—China spent $1,161,603 for arms and military supplies in the United States last week, the State Department reported today.

This amount was paid by the Treasury from the $125,000,000 provided by Congress last year. Thus far, $120,244,633 has been paid.

The department reported also that 82 Americans are in the Tientsin district, where Communist [illegible]es are reported closing in.

General Riley Commended by Lie

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11 (AP)—Trygve Lie, Secretary General of the United Nations, has commended Brig. Gen. William E. Riley, for his help in the Palestine peace negotiations. General Riley is on temporary duty as chief of staff of the United Nations Palestine Mission. The commendation was made public today by the Marine Corps Commandant.

LANDON HITS 'TOP BRASS'

He Scores Them on Unification, Advises Dropping of Quarrelers

TOPEKA, Kan., Jan. 11 (AP)—Alf M. Landon said today that "the squabble between top brass" over unification of armed forced was scandalous and those responsible should be dropped.

The 1936 Republican Presidential nominee told a meeting of the Washburn University Bar Association that Congress should pass "a real unification act for the sake of already overburdened taxpayers and national defense."

Declaring the real crisis we face is in our defense program, Mr. Landon said that the "Secretaries for the Army, Air and Navy and their under-secretaries and assistant secretaries should be immediately abolished. We should have but one Secretary for Defense with one under-secretary and assistant secretaries. We should have one Chief of Staff for all armed services."

"I am convinced," he added, "that the Russian dictator of half the world is waiting for us to knock ourselves out through our own financial excesses."

WAY TO AVOID NEW WAR TOLD

JAN 1949

Psychiatrists Urge Check On Emotions Of Greed, Fear

Washington, Jan. 11 (AP)—Psychiatrists today offered this prescription to avoid World War III:

Check emotions of fear and greed among peoples of all nations before they are cultivated to unhealthy degrees.

The first step in carrying out this prescription, the American Psychiatric Association said, is for leaders in all countries to build up mutual confidence among themselves.

Mutual Honesty Urged

These leaders, the association said, should convey to their followers this mutual confidence which should be "combined with mutual honesty, mutual forbearance, and mutual support—positive health attitudes."

This then, the organization continued, "should lead to a higher, better and healthier civilization than any we have known in the past."

The A.P.A. views were given in a statement which said the organization "is seriously concerned about the unfortunate psychological features which are part of the present international tensions."

For Leaders And Public

It said the statement was prepared for "the attention of national leaders in all countries and for the general public."

The A.P.A. described itself as the leading society for psychiatrists in the United States and Canada with 4,500 members.

It said that national leaders "largely guide the feeling, thinking and behavior of the general public in their respective nations."

"There are only minor differences between the citizens of various countries," the statement said. Nearly all the people in civilized nations share a friendly kindness, willingness to work for the common good, love of children and homes, dilligence and self-sacrifice, it added.

Says Fear Can Be Built

The organization said the common man can be made to fear loss of these necessary values through "actual or threatened aggression from without, or by unfair propaganda from within by unprincipled leaders."

These fears and anxieties, it said, may develop incorrect beliefs about common people in other countries, and, unless such fears and sense of insecurity are overcome actual warfare may result.

Can Lead To War

"Basically," the statement said, "antagonisms are due to the activity of self-preservative tendencies and their accompanying emotions of fear and greed.

"As psychiatric public health officers, we are compelled to point out that emotions of fear and greed, cultivated to unhealthy degrees, can lead only to delusions of persecution, to hostile aggression (defensive and offensive) and ultimately to World War III. . . ."

Air Force to Build Fleet Of Huge 150-Ton Bombers

Cancels $300,000,000 in Orders for Smaller Type Planes

JAN 1949

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11 — (AP) The air force put new emphasis on long-range heavy bombers today, cancelling $300,000,000 in orders for smaller type planes to build up a global striking weapon.

The money will be used largely to buy "a substantial number" of huge 150-ton B-36 bombers with a rated cruising range of 10,000 miles. They are by far the world's biggest known bombers.

Experts say these sky giants will be capable of hitting any target anywhere in the world from American bases.

In a recent test, a B-36 flew from Fort Worth, Tex., to Hawaii, dropped a bomb in the ocean, and returned to its Texas base on a non-stop 8,400-mile flight without refueling.

Orders Cancelled

The air force, in paving the way for a reinforced assault force, announced it has cancelled orders for 240 other aircraft, including 119 North American F-93 jet fighters, a modification of the F-86 plane which holds the world's speed record of 670 M.P.H. with full armament.

Also cancelled were 51 North American B-45 jet light bombers, designed for tactical support of ground troops; 30 Northrop RB-49 jet "flying wing" reconnaissance bombers; 30 Northrop C-125 'raider" assault transports, and 10 helicopters.

The air force said it cancelled the orders to achieve a more effective air force in the shortest possible time. No reduction in air force expenditures, set at roughly $4,500,000,000 in President Truman's budget, is involved.

The announcement came within 24 hours after Mr. Truman's budgetary disclosure that he thinks the brakes should be applied to the 70-group air force program which has been the goal of air force leaders in this country since 1944.

Airforce Cut Protested

Mr. Truman's hold-back order, in which he recommended only 48 groups, has already drawn sharp protests in both the senate and house.

Senator Ferguson (R-Mich), a member of the senate appropriations committee, commented:

30.24- 201

"It looks to me as though the president is going to compel congress to lift the budget for air, as it did last year."

Senator McCarthy (D-Wisc) said that in planning for America's aerial defenses, the administration should "look ahead at a possible World War III and not back at World War I, as President Truman seems to be doing."

Rep. Vinson (D-Ga), chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, told a reporter he is thoroughly convinced that "an overwhelming majority of congress" will vote to carry out the 70-group program within the next three or four years.

In addition to buying more B-36s, funds gained by today's cancellation will be used to modernize some of the air force's present B-36 and B-50 bombers. The latter is a development of the B-29 which heaped long-range devastation upon Japan during World War II.

Refugees To Be Given Haven In Philippines

Washington, Jan. 11 (AP)—Some of the 13,000 European war refugees stranded in Shanghai will be given a temporary haven in the Philippines, the International Refugee Organization said today.

They are being evacuated from the Chinese port city because of the advances of Chinese Communist forces.

The IRO has accepted the Philippine Republic's offer to shelter 6,000 of them for four months. They will be quartered in former United States Navy installations on the island of Samar.

4,500 White Russians

Two IRO-chartered ships already have sailed with 1,800 refugees for western Europe. The steamship Hwalein will carry 500 White Russians from Shanghai in the first evacuation to the Philippines.

The IRO said 4,500 stateless White Russians are among the 13,000 and most of the others "are Jewish refugees from Hitlerite Germany." Some of the Russians have been there since the Bolshevik revlution in Russia.

Koo Sees Wide Repercussions If China Falls To Communists

New York, Jan. 11 (AP)—Dr. V. K. Wellington Koo, Chinese Ambassador to the United States, said tonight "if China falls entirely under Communist control, it is certain that the repercussions in Asia will be far-reaching."

Dr. Koo spoke at the annual Alexander Hamilton dinner sponsored by the Columbia College Alumni Association at the Hotel Biltmore at which he received the 1949 Alexander Hamilton medal. The award is given annually to a Columbia alumnus or faculty member "for distinguished service and accomplishment in any field of human endeavor."

Pickets Protest Event

Thirty pickets, who a spokesman said were college students, paraded before the hotel protesting presentation of the award to Dr. Koo. The pickets carried posters and shouted such protests as "stop the murder of Chinese students" and "hands off China."

Dr. Koo, urging a world-wide anti-Communist front, said "today Communist activities are rampant in Malaya and Indo-China. Tomorrow Burma, Indonesia and the Philippines may face the same crisis.

"With China lost to militant communism and Asia enslaved, the danger of a like fate to the free peoples throughout the world whether in Europe, in America or elsewhere will become infinitely greater and their struggle to preserve their freedom will undoubtedly be more difficult."

China Seen As Key

Dr. Koo said China "is the key to Asia." He added "in the interest of the maintenance of world peace and the promotion of international co-operation, it is highly desirable that the effort of the Chinese Government to bring about a peaceful settlement of the conflict in China should be fruitful."

Dr. Koo said if the Chinese Communists "are really solicitous of the welfare of the Chinese people, then they cannot turn a completely deaf ear to the peace proposals. If they do, they cannot disclaim full responsibility for the continuance of the war in China."

Dr. Koo declared "indeed, the restoration of peace in China will contribute to the stability and the confidence in Eastern Asia and improve the general prospect of world peace."

Cause Of World Unrest

The basic cause of the world unrest today, Dr. Koo said, "will be found to lie in the avowed purpose of international communism to bring about a world revolution and create a communist world.

"Taking advantage of the havoc and disorganization caused by the war and feeling flush of common victory, communism has started to quicken its pace in its attempt to bring about a communist world revolution.

"With this fixed objective in mind, it seeks to attain it by unscrupulous methods and with a relentless spirit. . . It resorts to deceit, infiltration, terrorism and subversion; it foments social disorder, economic chaos, military revolt and armed rebellion against organized governments and established institutions."

Should Communism Succeed

Dr. Koo said "if international communism achieves its avowed purpose, the freedom of peoples and the democratic way of life will have been completely destroyed."

Declaring "the peril of Asia is indeed far greater than Europe," Dr. Koo said "in the global struggle with aggressive communism China today is the principal theater of war."

Jessup Attacks Policies After Truman Parley

JAN 1949

Lake Success, N.Y., Jan. 11 (AP). The United States blamed the Netherlands and Russia today for obstructing a peaceful settlement of the Indonesian case.

Russia countered that the United States and Britain were covering up for the Dutch in the Indonesian problem.

Dr. Philip C. Jessup, United States deputy on the United Nations Security Council, made a strong attack in the Council on the policies of the Netherlands and Russia toward Indonesia. He spoke a short time after returning from Washington, where he conferred with President Truman.

Calls For Election Date

Jessup laid down these demands for settlement of the problem:

1. The fixing of a definite date for election throughout all Indonesia to establish the foundations of the United States of Indonesia.

2. The fixing of a firm date of the transfer of sovereignty from the Netherlands to the United States of Indonesia.

He said the Dutch should begin withdrawing troops at the earliest possible moment and the occupation must be ended before an effective transfer of sovereignty take place.

Jessup declared the Dutch defied the Security Council by continuing military action in the face of a Council resolution last month calling for a cease-fire and for release of the Indonesian Republic leaders.

Russia Creates Obstacles

He said the United States Government can find no adequate justification for the military action taken by the Netherlands in Indonesia.

Jessup said Russia created obstacles in the Indonesia affair just as, he said, Russia has in many parts of the world sought to obstruct the successful operation of the United Nations.

The American delegate said the Russian Government through its mouthpiece, the Communist party, has sought to undermine and overthrow the Government of the Republic of Indonesia.

The Soviet Government, Jessup said, is following "its familiar tactics which it has used in Korea, in Greece, and Berlin and again now in Indonesia, and which have been described in the speeches of many delegates in the last session of the General Assembly, namely, seeking to overthrow a lawful democratic government and to undermine its authority."

Wants Communist Control

"The Soviet Union does not want an independent Indonesia," Jessup said. "It wants an Indonesia under the domination and control of a Communist minority taking its orders from Moscow. Anywhere in the world when a Communist government climbs in through the window independence is kicked out of the door."

Dr. T. F. Tsiang, China, and Finn Moe, Norway, joined the attack on the Dutch for taking military action. Moe urged the Indonesians and Dutch to resume negotiations.

Jakob A. Malik, Soviet delegote, replied that the United States and Britain had defeated Russian attempts to force a withdrawal of Dutch troops. He said those two powers used their voting mechanism in the Security Council to beat down the Russian and Ukranian demands.

SPY PROBERS HEAR WIFE OF G-E CO. ENGINEER

NEW YORK, Jan. 11 — (AP) A new woman witness made a brief appearance today before the federal grand jury investigating espionage.

"I'm sure I don't now why I'm here," said the witness, Mrs. Elizabeth Alice Rynders Inslerman, 33, after she had testified.

She is the wife of Felix August Inslerman, 38, an engineer for the General Electric company, at Schenectady, N. Y. Her husband, who appeared before the grand jury for a fourth time last week, did not testify today.

Mrs. Inslerman said she was a native of New Yor city and once was a student at City College. She declined to give an indication of her testimony, but said she had answered all questions put to her. She said she would appear again tomorrow.

JAN 1949

She refused to answer when asked whether she knew Whittaker Chambers, confessed former courier for a Communist spy ring, or Alger Hiss, who is under indictment on charges of perjury.

Max Bedacht, 65, Frenchtown, N. J., chicken farmer, was questioned by the grand jury for about two hours today. He said that after answering all questions "with the exception of one" he was excused.

Bedacht said last week after his first appearance before the grand jury that he was one of the founders of the Communist party in the United States, but was expelled from the party last Oct. 17.

NIGHT LEAD PALESTINE (350 UP) JAN 1949

LONDON, JAN. 11-(AP)-THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT DECLARED IN A PREPARED STATEMENT TONIGHT THAT WORLD PEACE IS "GRAVELY THREATENED" BY PALESTINE DEVELOPMENTS.

MEANWHILE, SOURCES CLOSE TO THE ISRAELI GOVERNMENT WERE QUOTED IN TEL AVIV DISPATCHES AS REPORTING THAT FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN HAD OFFERED TO RESIGN YESTERDAY BECAUSE OF HIS PALESTINE POLICY. THE DISPATCH QUOTED THESE SOURCES AS SAYING PPRIME MINISTER ATTLEE REFUSED TO ACCEPT THE RESIGNATION.

THE BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE DENIED FLATLY THAT BEVIN HAD OFFERED HIS RESIGNATION.

THESE DEVELOPMENTS CAME AS ISRAEL FORMALLY FILED WITH THE U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL AT LAKE SUCCESS A COMPLAINT THAT BRITAIN WAS FOMENTING AN "ARTIFICIAL CRISIS" OVER PALESTINE BY TROOP MOVEMENTS AND VARIOUS ACTIONS JUST AS ARMISTICE NEGOTIATIONS WERE ABOUT TO OPEN WITH EGYPT.

THE BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE STATEMENT WARNED THAT THE SECURITY COUNCIL HAS "BEEN LOSING CONTROL OF EVENTS" AND SAID IT HAD REASON TO FEAR NEW JEWISH VIOLATIONS OF U.N. CEASE-FIRE ORDERS IN THE HOLY LAND AREA.

THE STATEMENT SAID THESE VIOLATIONS "MIGHT BE CONTEMPLATED IN JERUSALEM OR ELSEWHERE AGAINST TRANS-JORDAN OR IRAQI FORCES."

"IT IS OF PARAMOUNT IMPORTANCE THAT THIS (SECURITY COUNCIL) AUTHORITY SHOULD BE RE-ESTABLISHED WITHOUT DELAY AND MAINTAINED UNTIL A FINAL SETTLEMENT IS REACHED," THE STATEMENT SAID.

THE FOREIGN OFFICE DECLINED IMMEDIATE COMMENT ON THE JEWISH CHARGE TO THE SECURITY COUNCIL THAT BRITAIN IS DISPLAYING A "MENACING ATTITUDE" TOWARD THE JEWISH STATE.

IT DECLARED, HOWEVER, THAT BRITAIN PROPOSED TO USE THE GREATEST RESTRAINT TO AVOID ENDANGERING THE SUCCESS OF THE IMPENDING EGYPTIAN-ISRAELI ARMISTICE TALKS AT RHODES.

DR.RALPH J.BUNCHE, ACTING U.N.MEDIATOR, ARRIVED AT RHODES TODAY FOR PRELIMINARY ISRAELI-EGYPTIAN TALKS SCHEDULED TO BEGIN TOMORROW. WITH HIM WAS U.S.BRIG.GEN.WILLIAM E.RILEY, CHIEF OF THE U.N.OBSERVER STAFF IN PALESTINE.

FULL DELEGATES OF THE TWO GOVERNMENTS WERE NOT EXPECTED TO MEET UNTIL THURSDAY.

ISRAELI SPOKESMEN IN TEL AVIV SAID ALL ISRAELI FORCES HAD BEEN WITHDRAWN FROM EGYPTIAN TERRITORY AND THERE WAS NO REASON TO DELAY THE ARMISTICE TALKS.

IN AMMAN, TRANS-JORDAN CAPITAL, AN OFFICIAL SPOKESMAN SAID IT WAS "VERY DOUBTFUL THE RHODES NEGOTIATIONS WILL ATTAIN ANY SUCCESS." HE SAID TRANS-JORDAN HAD NOT BEEN GIVEN ADVANCE NOTICE OF THE SEPARATE ARMISTICE NEGOTIATIONS BY EGYPT.

THE ISRAELI COMPLAINT TO THE U.N.CHARGED A THREE-FOLD VIOLATION OF THE PALESTINE TRUCE BY SENDING TROOPS TO AQABA IN TRANS-JORDAN, SENDING RECONNAISSANCE PLANES OVER THE BATTLE AREA IN THE NEGEV ON THE DAY A TRUCE WAS GOING INTO EFFECT AND BY WIDELY REPORTED BRITISH TROOP MOVEMENTS FROM CYPRUS, MALTA AND ON EGYPT'S SINAI BORDER WITH PALESTINE.

A FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN SAID BRITAIN WAS READY TO GO ALONG WITH THE SUGGESTION OF THE UNITED STATES AND REGARD THE SHOOTING DOWN OF FIVE BRITISH PLANES LAST FRIDAY AS A "REGRETTABLE INCIDENT."

THE AIR MINISTRY PUT OUT A COMMUNIQUE REITERATING THAT ALL FIVE BRITISH PLANES SHOT DOWN WERE ATTACKED BY THE ISRAELIS WHILE OVER EGYPTIAN TERRITORY. THE MINISTRY REJECTED JEWISH ACCOUNTS THAT AT LEAST SOME OF THE AIRCRAFT HAD ATTACKED JEWISH POSITIONS ALONG THE EGYPTIAN BORDER. BUT THE MINISTRY CONCEDED THAT ONE OR TWO OF THE RAF AIRCRAFT MIGHT HAVE BEEN DRIVEN OVER THE BORDER INTO PALESTINE WHILE UNDER ATTACK.

THE OBJECT OF THE FLIGHT, THE MINISTRY SAID, WAS TO REPORT "THE EXISTENCE AND NATURE OF ANY JEWISH FORCES ON EGYPTIAN TERRITORY."

ON THE OTHER HAND AN ISRAELI PRESS STATEMENT GIVEN OUT IN TEL AVIV TODAY SAID THE ENGAGEMENTS "TOOK PLACE UNDENIABLY OVER ISRAELI TERRITORY."

THE STATEMENT SAID "ANY WAR PLANE APPEARING IN SKIES ABOVE A BATTLE ZONE MUST EXPECT TROUBLE."

EGYPTIAN INTERPRETIVE (320)

BY ARTHUR GAVSHON

LONDON, JAN.11-(AP)-POPULAR UNREST THREATENS IN EGYPT WHEN THE PEOPLE LEARN HOW BADLY THEIR ARMY HAS BEEN DEFEATED IN THE PALESTINE WAR.

SHUT OFF FROM THE NEWS BY CENSORSHIP, THE EGYPTIAN PEOPLE NEVER HAVE BEEN TOLD HOW BADLY THINGS WENT FOR THEM IN THE FIGHTING WITH ISRAEL.

NOW, ON THE EVE OF SCHEDULED EGYPTIAN-ISRAELI ARMISTICE TALKS ON THE ISLAND OF RHODES, THE CAIRO GOVERNMENT MUST TELL SOME OF THE WITHHELD FACTS TO A ZEALOUSLY ANTI-ZIONIST POPULATION.

EGYPT HAS VOWED MANY TIMES IT WOULD NOT NEGOTIATE WITH THE JEWS.

KING FAROUK'S RECENT PLEA FOR UNITY APPARENTLY WAS INTENDED TO SPREAD RESPONSIBILITY FOR ANY SETTLEMENT AS WIDELY AS POSSIBLE AMONG THE COUNTRY'S POLITICAL LEADERS.

DIPLOMATIC INFORMANTS BELIEVE THIS EXPLAINS EGYPT'S MOVE FOR AN ALL-PARTY COALITION GOVERNMENT, WHICH RAN INTO A SNAG TODAY.

THE NATIONALIST WAFDIST PARTY, REPLYING TO THE UNITY CALL, ANNOUNCED LAST NIGHT IT IS WILLING TO JOIN A COALITION REGIME UNDER AN INDEPENDENT PREMIER.

IN A SWIFT REJOINDER PRIME MINISTER HADI PASHA TOLD NEWSMEN TODAY THIS CONDITIONAL ACCEPTANCE AMOUNTED TO REJECTION.

STRONGLY NATIONALIST BUT LESS ANTI-BRITISH THAN MOST OTHER EGYPTIAN PARTIES, THE WAFDISTS HAVE BEEN OUT OF THE CAIRO GOVERNMENT AND PARLIAMENT SINCE BOYCOTTING THE 1944 ELECTIONS. NEVERTHELESS THEY ARE RATED AS THE STRONGEST SINGLE PARTY IN EGYPT.

SHOULD HADI PASHA AND THE WAFDISTS STILL COME TO TERMS AND JOIN THE GOVERNMENT, ARAB AND BRITISH DIPLOMATS HERE BELIEVE THE JEWS WOULD FIND IT HARDER TO REACH A FAVORABLE ARMISTICE AGREEMENT.

WITH A COUNTRY MORE NEARLY UNITED, THE EGYPTIAN GOVERNMENT WOULD FEEL MORE CAPABLE OF REJECTING ISRAELI TERMS WHICH IT CONSIDERED TOO TOUGH.

ARAB INFORMANTS RECALLED THAT A MAIN REASON FOR FORMING THE SEVEN-NATION ARAB LEAGUE IN 1944 WAS TO RESIST THE ZIONIST OBJECTIVE OF SETTING UP A JEWISH STATE IN PALESTINE.

THEY CONCEDED FRANKLY THAT THE LEAGUE HAS FAILED TO STOP THE JEWS. THIS, THEY SAID, FORESHADOWS THE VIRTUAL COLLAPSE OF THE LEAGUE, ALTHOUGH THEY EXPECT A SUCCESSOR GROUP WILL BE FORMED.

THE ARAB INFORMANTS BLAMED THE LEAGUE'S FAILURE TO LIVE UP TO ITS COMMITMENTS AND MEMBERS' REFUSAL TO MEET OBLIGATIONS AS LARGE FACTORS IN THE PRESENT CRISIS IN EGYPT.

LONDON, JAN. 11-(AP)-PRIME MINISTER CLEMENT ATTLEE, CAMPAIGNING FOR REELECTION TO PARLIAMENT, WAS ASKED AT AN UNRULY MEETING TONIGHT:
"WHAT ABOUT BRITISH TROOPS IN PALESTINE?"
THE MEETING WAS MARKED BY SHOUTS, BOOS AND SCUFFLING. THE MEETING WAS IN THE WEST WALTHAMSTOW PART OF LONDON, WHERE ATTLEE WILL RUN IN THE NEXT ELECTION -- AT A DATE NOT YET SET.
ATTLEE HAD JUST TOLD THE AUDIENCE THAT "WHILE WE WANT COOPERATION WE ARE MET WITH ABUSE AND ATTACKS ALL THE TIME FROM COMMUNIST PARTIES EVERYWHERE," WHEN THE HECKLERS BEGAN TO SHOUT.
HE WAS THE FIRST GOVERNMENT LEADER TO BE HECKLED ON THE GOVERNMENT'S PALESTINE POLICY SINCE BRITISH-ISRAELI TENSION WAS HEIGHTENED BY THE SHOOTING DOWN OF FIVE RAF PLANES IN THE EGYPTIAN-PALESTINE BORDER AREA.
ATTLEE ALSO WAS HECKLED ON HIS PARTY'S DOMESTIC RECORD. BUT HE WAS CHEERED, TOO.
LABOR PARTY OFFICIALS SAID SOME COMMUNISTS WERE IN THE AUDIENCE AND ALSO A FEW FASCISTS.

HE COMMENTED AT A NEWS CONFERENCE ON NEWS REPORTS THAT STRASSER, NOW IN BRIDGETOWN, NOVA SCOTIA, HOPED TO RETURN TO GERMANY TO LEAD A "LEAGUE FOR GERMAN REVIVAL" WHICH HE HAS BEEN ATTEMPTING TO PROMOTE BY MAIL.
STRASSER BROKE WITH HITLER IN 1933, FLED INTO EXILE IN SWITZERLAND, AND FROM THERE ATTEMPTED TO SET UP A REBEL NAZI BLACK FRONT IN GERMANY.
TO A QUESTION ON WHY STRASSER IS BANNED FROM THE BRITISH ZONE, THE FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN SAID:
"HIS LONG AND LEADING ASSOCIATION WITH THE NAZI PARTY IS ONE SUFFICIENT REASON."
HE SAID BRITISH AUTHORITIES ARE "KEEPING AN EYE" ON STRASSER'S MAIL CAMPAIGN, THAT ONLY A FEW OF HIS LETTERS HAVE REACHED GERMANY, AND THAT THEY COULD BE INTERCEPTED IF NECESSARY.

london, jan. 11--(ap)--the text of the british foreign office statement on palestine follows: (about 750) JAN 1949 recent events constitute a grave threat to the [redacted] stability of peace of the whole mid-east.

his majesty's government take an extremely serious view of the dangers of the situation and feel a supreme effort must be made to achieve peace and settlement in accordance with the resolutions of the security council.

they fully reserve their position and future action, but meanwhile exercising great restraint and avoiding any action which might jeopaddize hopes for a successful conclusion of negotiations at rhodes under the auspices of the acting mediator (ralph bunche).

the reports of the acting mediator leave no room for doubt that the prese t crisis is the outcome of jewish aggression.

since the beginning of october the jews have launched three military operations in violation of the truce--in the negev, beginnin oct. 15, in northern galilee, beginning later in october and in the negev beginning dec. 22. JAN 1949 they have so far failed to comply with the security council's resolutions of nov. 4 and dec. 29. these have been accepted by the arabs. the jews have made an incursion into egyptian territory and are still occupying lebanese territory.

the british government had anticipated these attacks would take place and they did in fact take place. the possibility cannot be excluded of further jewish attacks in violation of the truce in jewsalem or elsewhere against forces of trans-jordan or iraq.

one of the great dangers in the situation lies in the fact that the security council has been losing control over the events. it is of paramount importance that this authority should be re-established without delay and maintained until a final settlement is reached.

his majesty's government feel the honest thing for both sides to do is to accept the security council's decisions. from that point, with the conciliation commission, let them negotiate a peac settlement. JAN 1949 the british government has never taken any step to prevent a negotiated settlement. the united nations records show we continually reiterated that we thought a final settlement would have to be something reasonably acceptable to the jews and arabs.

THE FRENCH ATTITUDE TOWARD ISRAEL HAS BEEN CONSIDERABLY MORE FAVORABLE THAN THE BRITISH.
LAST WEEK THERE WERE WIDESPREAD REPORTS HERE THAT FRANCE WAS ABOUT TO RECOGNIZE THE ISRAEL GOVERNMENT AS THE ACTUAL, IF NOT THE LEGAL, RULER OF ITS AREA.
THIS IS THE TYPE OF RECOGNITION EXTENDED BY THE U.S., BUT NOT YET BY BRITAIN OR FRANCE. FORCE WAS ADDED TO THE REPORTS WHEN A FOREIGN MINISTRY SPOKESMAN ASKED CORRESPONDENTS ON THURSDAY NOT TO PUT ANY QUESTIONS ON THE POINT. HE HAD SPECIFIC ORDERS NOT TO SAY ANYTHING.
THE NEXT DAY, IT WAS LEARNED THAT ISRAELI FORCES HAD SHOT DOWN FIVE BRITISH PLANES. BECAUSE OF THE CLOSE TIES BETWEEN FRANCE AND BRITAIN, IT WAS DECIDED HERE THAT THIS WOULD BE THE WRONG TIME TO DO ANYTHING ABOUT RECOGNITION.

BELGRADE, YUGOSLAVIA, JAN.11-(AP)-THE COMMUNIST NEWSPAPER BORBA SAID TODAY LOCAL GOVERNMENTS ARE BEING PURGED THROUGHOUT YUGOSLAVIA TO SHARPEN THE CLASS STRUGGLE AGAINST CAPITALISTS, RICH PEASANTS AND SPECULATORS.

THE PURGE APPARENTLY HAS BEEN GOING ON SOME TIME. SEVERAL SECRETARIES GENERAL OF VILLAGES AND DISTRICT COMMITTEES HAVE BEEN EXPELLED. BORBA ASSERTED THESE WERE INCITING PEASANTS TO COMPLAIN AGAINST AUTHORITIES AND TO CREATE DISCORD. BORBA DID NOT SAY WHETHER THOSE EXPELLED WERE ARRESTED.

KYRENIA, CYS, JAN.11-(AP)-PALESTINIAN ARABS, DISILLUSIONED AND EMBITTERED, AR PING FOR A SPEEDY END TO THE WAR WHICH HAS CUT UP THE HOLY LAND DRIVEN MANY OF THEM FROM THEIR HOMES.

IT WAS IN T MOOD THAT SOME INVITED KING ABDULLAH OF TRANS-JORDAN LAST MO TO TAKE OVER THE RULE OF PALESTINE.

WHY HAS ABD AH TAKEN SO LONG TO ANSWER?

HE IS SEEKI FORMULA WHICH WOULD MAKE THE MERGER PALATABLE TO THE OUTSIDE WO

THROUGH TWO RS OF ARAB AREAS, IN WHICH HE WAS MET WITH WHAT CERTAINLY APPE TO BE A GENUINE WELCOME, HE HOPED TO PROVE TO THE BIG POWERS AS AS TO HIS ARAB ALLIES THAT UNITY WITH TRANS-JORDAN

IS PALESTINE'S OWN CHOICE.
HIS NEXT STEP IS EXPECTED TO BE AN EFFORT TO MOLLIFY THE UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA, WHO COULD NOT BE EXPECTED TO RECOGNIZE HIM AS KING OF PALESTINE SO LONG AS A LARGE PART IS PATENTLY OCCUPIED BY THE JEWISH STATE OF ISRAEL.
TO GET AROUND THIS DIFFICULTY, HE MAY SEEK TO ANNEX THE ARAB TERRITORY AND PROCLAIM HIMSELF KING OF AN ENLARGED HASHIMITE KINGDOM OF JORDAN. THAT WOULD AVOID ANY REFERENCE TO JEWISH-HELD PALESTINE.
ABDULLAH MADE IT PLAIN IN HIS MOST RECENT TOUR THAT HE IS MAKING NO PROMISES. PALESTINIAN ARABS VAGUELY HOPE, HOWEVER, THAT HE WILL RECOVER CITIES AND TOWNS LOST TO ISRAELI FORCES AND RESTORE PEACE AND ORDER.
THOUSANDS OF UNEMPLOYED CLERKS, GOVERNMENT WORKERS AND PEASANTS ASK NOTHING MORE THAN A CHANCE TO RESUME THEIR OLD WAY OF LIFE. MANY RECALL THE BRITISH MANDATE WITH A SIGH THAT IT ENDED.

A74 JAN 1949
THEIR FEELING IS, IN ASKING ABDULLAH TO SET THEIR HOUSE IN ORDER, THAT THE BRITISH WILL BE SOMEWHERE IN THE BACKGROUND. TRANS-JORDAN'S INVOCATION OF HER MUTUAL DEFENSE TREATY WITH BRITAIN THE OTHER DAY GAVE SUPPORT TO THIS BELIEF.
IN ANY EVENT, ABDULLAH'S ARAB LEGION HAS CONTROLLED MOST OF ARAB PALESTINE SINCE AUGUST. THROUGH A MILITARY GOVERNMENT, HE HAS GIVEN PALESTINIAN ARABS SERVICES FOR EDUCATION, HEALTH, TRANSPORTATION, COMMUNICATION AND PASSPORTS.
GRADUALLY BUT FIRMLY HE HAS TAKEN OVER SOME AREAS WHERE THE EGYPTIANS FORMERLY WERE MASTERS.
ALL THAT REMAINS IS ACQUISITION OF THE NEGEV AREA IN THE SOUTH. BUT THAT PROMISES TO BE DIFFICULT. SO FAR NEITHER ISRAEL NOR EGYPT HAVE DEMONSTRATED ANY HASTE TO TURN IT OVER TO A THIRD PARTY.

COMMUNISTS ARE DOING THEIRSTALKING WITH GUNS ON THE APPROACHES TO NANKING AND IN THE NORTHERN CITY OF TIENTSIN.
THE HEAVIEST FIGHTING WAS 150 MILES NORTHWEST OF THE CAPITWL. ENCIRCLED GOVERNMENT FORCES THERE COMPRISE THE REMNANTS OF THE FORMER SUCHOW GARRISON UNDER COMMAND OF GEN: TU LI-MING.

CHENNAULT IS OPERATING HIS OWN CIVIL AIR LINE IN CHINA.
IN ISOLATED NORTH CHINA COMMUNISTS WERE REPORTED PRESSING INTO TIENTSIN. ASSOCIATED PRESS CORRESPONDENT SPENCER MOOSA REPORTED THAT TELEPHONE REPORTS RECEIVED IN PEIPING SAID HEAVY FIRING COULD BE HEARD THROUGHOUT THE DAY IN THE EASTERN AND WESTERN SUBURBS OF TIENTSIN. THE GOVERNMENT GARRISON HAS IMPOSED A 24-HOUR CURFEW. EVEN THE MOVEMENT OF PERSONS WITH PASSES HAS BEEN RESTRICTED.

TOKYO, JAN 11-(AP)-KYODO NEWS AGECCY SAID TODAY THE JAPANESE GOVERNMENT HAS RELEASED THE IMPOUNDED PROPERTIES OF SEVEN CONVICTED MAJOR WAR LEADERS, INCLUDING THOSE OF THE LATE HIDEKI TOJO, RECENTLY HANGED.
PROPERTIES OF THE FORMER PREMIER WERE VALUED AT 300,000 YEN. THE ASSETS WERE FROZEN WHEN THE DEFENDANTS WERE JAILED IN 1945.
(AT THE DEPRECIATED UNOFFICIAL RATE OF 350 YEN TO $1, U.S., TOJO'S PROPERTIES WOULD HAVE A CASH VALUE OF ONLY $857. THAT, HOWEVER, IS UNREALISTIC.
(OBVIOUSLY, THE GOVERNMENT DID NOT RATE THE PROPERTIES--WHOSE VALUE WOULD GO UP WITH INFLATION--IN TERMS OF THE INFLATED YEN. THIS IS OBVIOUS BECAUSE THERE IS NO OFFICIAL QUOTATION FOR THE YEN. POSSIBLY IN IMPOUNDING THE PROPERTIES IN 1945 IT USED THE PREWAR RATE OF 4 TO $1. THAT WOULD MAKE TOJO'S ESTATE WORTH $75,000.)
THE RICHEST OF THE SEVEN WERE MARQUIS KOICHI KIDO, THE EMPEROR'S FORMER ADVISER, AND KIICHIRO HIRANUMA, FORMER PREMIER, BOTH UNDER LIFE SENTENCE. EACH HAD PROPERTY VALUED AT 1,000,000 (M) YEN.

(370) DISPLACED PERSONS JAN 1949

WASHINGTON,JAN.11-(AP)-DEMOCRATS AND REPUBLICANS WERE ABOUT READY TODAY TO BURY THE HATCHET ON ONE OF LAST YEAR'S CAMPAIGN ISSUES--THE ADMISSION OF EUROPEAN DISPLACED PERSONS TO THIS COUNTRY.

SENATOR MCGRATH OF RHODE ISLAND, THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CHAIRMAN, INVITED REPUBLICANS TO JOIN IN SPONSORING A BILL TO ADMIT 400,000 PERSONS BY JUNE 25, 1952--INCLUDING THOSE WHO HAVE ENTERED UNDER A MEASURE PASSED LAST YEAR.

THE REPUBLICAN-CONTROLLED 80TH CONGRESS PASSED A BILL TO ADMIT 205,000 PERSONS IN TWO YEARS WITH SUCH RESTRICTIONS THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN CALLED IT AN "ANTI-SEMETIC, ANTI-CATHOLIC LAW."

MCGRATH TOLD A REPORTER HE THINKS MEMBERS OF THE SENATE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE CAN AGREE ON A MEASURE WHICH DEMOCRATS AND REPUBLICANS CAN SUPPORT.

SENATOR FERGUSON (R-MICH), A MINORITY MEMBER OF THE COMMITTEE, SAID HE SEES NO REASON WHY THE REPUBLICANS AND DEMOCRATS CAN'T GET TOGETHER, DESPITE WHAT WAS SAID IN THE CAMPAIGN.

"THIS ISN'T A PARTISAN ISSUE," FERGUSON SAID. "WE ALL WANT TO DO SOMETHING FOR THESE DISPLACED PERSONS AND IT'S ONLY A QUESTION OF WORKING OUT A SUITABLE BILL."

MCGRATH SAID A MEASURE HE AND SENATOR NEELY (D-WVA) OFFERED YESTERDAY WAS PROPOSED AS A SORT OF "WORKING PAPER" FOR THE COMMITTEE.

"I'M NOT WEDDED TO IT," HE SAID. "IF THE COMMITTEE WANTS TO CHANGE IT, THAT WILL BE ALL RIGHT."

NEELY WAS THE VICTOR IN THE NOVEMBER ELECTIONS OVER FORMER SENATOR REVERCOMB (R-WVA), WHO HELD OUT LAST SUMMER AGAINST ANY CHANGES IN THE LAW DESPITE A PERSONAL PLEA FOR REVISIONS BY GOV.THOMAS E.DEWEY, THE REPUBLICAN PRESIDENTIAL NOMINEE.

FERGUSON TOLD A REPORTER HE FAVORED "LIBERALIZING" THE LAW AT THAT TIME. BUT HE SAID THAT SINCE REVERCOMB HEADED THE SUBCOMMITTEE IN CHARGE OF PROPOSED AMENDMENTS AND WOULD NOT ACT, "OUR HANDS WERE TIED."

CHAIRMAN MCCARRAN (D-NEV) SAID HE WILL CALL THE NEW JUDICIARY COMMITTEE TOGETHER NEXT MONDAY TO ORGANIZE. HE SAID THE MCGRATH-NEELY PROPOSAL, AS WELL AS AMENDMENTS PREVIOUSLY OFFERED BY FERGUSON, PROBABLY WILL BE TURNED OVER TO A SUBCOMMITTEE.

A CHANGE PROPOSED BY MCGRATH AND NEELY WOULD ADMIT DISPLACED PERSONS WHO MADE THEIR WAY INTO AMERICAN OCCUPATION ZONES BEFORE APRIL 21, 1947.

THE PRESENT LAW SETS THE CUT-OFF DATE AT DEC. 22, 1945. CRITICS CHARGED THIS OPERATED AGAINST MANY JEWS AND CATHOLICS WHO FLED FROM POLAND AND OTHER COUNTRIES TO ESCAPE PERSECUTION AFTER THOSE NATIONS FELL UNDER COMMUNIST DOMINATION.

THE MCGRATH-NEELY BILL ALSO WOULD ELIMINATE A PROVISION GIVING BALTS PREFERENCE IN ADMISSIONS AND WOULD KNOCK OUT A SECTION GIVING 30 PER CENT OF THE ENTRANCE VISAS TO FARM WORKERS.

UNDER THIS PROPOSAL, IT WOULD NOT BE NECESSARY FOR A DISPLACED PERSON TO HAVE HOUSING AND A JOB WAITING BEFORE HE COULD BE ADMITTED.

REMINGTON, WHO UNTIL HIS SUSPENSION LATE IN JUNE WAS COMMERCE DEPARTMENT OFFICIAL DRAWING APPROXIMATELY $10,000 A YEAR, DENIED THE ASSERTIONS. HE ALSO SAID HE WAS NEVER A MEMBER OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY, AS MISS BENTLEY TESTIFIED.

RICHARDSON SAID THE LOYALTY REVIEW BOARD HELD UP ITS DECISION IN THE REMINGTON CASE NEARLY TWO MONTHS TRYING TO ARRANGE FOR MISS BENTLEY'S APPEARANCE.

THE FOURTH REGIONAL LOYALTY BOARD HERE RULED AGAINST REMINGTON LAST SEPTEMBER. IF ITS DECISION IS UPHELD BY THE LOYALTY REVIEW BOARD, REMINGTON WOULD BE BARRED FROM FUTURE FEDERAL EMPLOYMENT.

RICHARDSON SAID MISS BENTLEY TOLD HIM SOME TIME AGO THAT SHE REGARDS HER TESTIMONY BEFORE CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEES AS "SUFFICIENT," AND THAT SHE SEES NO NEED TO REPEAT IT.

FOLLOWING HER APPEARANCE ON A TELEVISION PROGRAM LAST FALL, REMINGTON FILED A $100,000 SLANDER SUIT AGAINST MISS BENTLEY. AFTER A 12-WEEK SEARCH, PAPERS IN THE SUIT WERE SERVED NOV. 22.

MISS BENTLEY IS REPORTED TO HAVE BEEN AT A CATHOLIC RETREAT IN NEW YORK SINCE HER CONVERSION TO CATHOLICISM EARLY IN NOVEMBER.

WASHINGTON,JAN.11-(AP)-REP.CASE (R-SD) TODAY DESCRIBED AS "FANTASTIC" THE DISMANTLING OF GERMAN STEEL PLANTS WHILE A STEEL SHORTAGE EXISTS IN THE UNITED STATES.

CASE'S REMARKS, MADE IN CRITICISM OF PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S SUGGESTION THAT FEDERAL FUNDS MIGHT BE USED IN ERECTING PLANTS TO HELP MEET THE STEEL SHORTAGE, WERE INSERTED IN THE CONGRESSIONAL RECORD.

THE FUND-RAISING ORGANIZATION SAID IT WOULD DEVOTE ITS ATTENTION TO "THE PROBLEM OF TRANSFERRING SOME 200,000 HOMELESS JEWS FROM EUROPE TO ISRAEL DURING 1949."

AT A COMMITTEE MEETING PRECEDING THE 10TH ANNIVERSARY NATIONAL UJA CONFERENCE, RABBI JONAH B. WISE OF NEW YORK SAID MORE THAN 350,000 JEWS HAVE BEEN SETTLED IN PALESTINE SINCE 1939.

BEHIND THE SCENES OF THE CONFERENCE, WHICH OPENS TOMORROW, UJA LEADERS ARE MAKING AN EFFORT TO HAVE FORMER SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY HENRY MORGENTHAU, JR., ACCEPT THE ORGANIZATION'S GENERAL CHAIRMANSHIP FOR A THIRD YEAR. MORGENTHAU'S TERM ENDED DEC. 31.

A SPOKESMAN FOR THE UJA, WHO REFUSED USE OF HIS NAME, SAID MORGENTHUAU'S ACCEPTANCE DEPENDED ON WHETHER HENRY MONTOR OF NEW YORK WOULD BE ASKED TO ACT AGAIN AS AN EXECUTIVE VICE CHAIRMAN. MONTOR RESIGNED LAST YEAR.

THE SPOKESMAN SAID MONTOR IS OF THE OPINION THE UJA FALLS SHORT OF REPRESENTING THE WHOLE OF AMERICAN JEWRY. A DOMINANT INFLUENCE IN JEWISH ACTION UNDER THE UJA BANNER HAS BEEN THE AMERICAN ZIONIST ORGANIZATION, WHICH CLAIMS A MEMBERSHIP OF 500,000 PERSONS. THERE ARE APPROXIMATELY 5,000,000 (M) JEWS IN THE UNITED STATES.

RABBI WISE, WILLIAM ROSENWALD, AND HERMAN L. WEISMAN, NATIONAL CHAIRMEN OF THE UJA, REPORTED MORE THAN $503,000,000 (M) HAS BEEN RAISED BY THE ORGANIZATION SINCE 1939.

THEY SAID THE 1948 CAMPAIGN BROUGHT $150,000,000 (M) INTO UJA COFFERS, THE LARGEST SUM EVER RAISED THROUGH VOLUNTARY GIVING IN THIS COUNTRY. THE SUM WAS $100,000,000 (M) SHORT OF THE GOAL SET AT LAST YEAR'S CONFERENCE, BUT WAS $30,000,000 (M) MORE THAN WAS CONTRIBUTED IN 1947.

BY MAX HARRELSON

LAKE SUCCESS, JAN.11-(AP)-ISRAEL FORMALLY DEMANDED TODAY THAT THE U.N. INVESTIGATE WHAT IT CALLED THE "MENACING ATTITUDE ADOPTED BY THE UNITED KINGDOM TOWARD THE STATE OF ISRAEL."

THE ISRAELI DEMAND WAS MADE IN A COMPLAINT FILED WITH THE SECURITY COUNCIL BY AUBREY S. EBAN, ISRAELI REPRESENTATIVE.

EBAN TOLD THE COUNCIL THE ARRIVAL OF BRITISH TROOP REINFORCEMENTS AT AQABA, TRANS-JORDAN, "CAN ONLY BE INTERPRETED AS BEING DESIGNED TO THREATEN THE REGION OF ISRAEL LYING IN THE SOUTHERN NEGEV."

HE CHARGED FURTHER THAT RECENT BRITISH MOVES IN THE MIDDLE EAST ARE FOMENTING "AN ARTIFICIAL CRISIS" ON THE EVE OF ISRAELI-EGYPTIAN ARMISTICE NEGOTIATIONS RECENTLY ARRANGED BY ACTING U.N. MEDIATOR RALPH J. BUNCHE.

THE CHARGES LISTED IN THE ISRAELI DOCUMENT COMPLAINED THAT BRITAIN SENT TROOPS TO TRANS-JORDAN, CARRIED OUT AIR RECONNAISSANCE OVER ISRAEL, CARRIED OUT LARGE-SCALE NAVAL MOVEMENTS IN THE EASTERN MEDITERRANEAN AND SUPPLIED ARMS AND MILITARY EQUIPMENT TO EGYPT.

"SINCE NO BRITISH TERRITORIES OR INTERESTS IN THE EAST MEDITERRANEAN ARE IN ANY WAY THREATENED," THE COMPLAINT SAID, "IT IS DIFFICULT TO ASSUME THAT THESE (NAVAL) MOVEMENTS ARE DESIGNED EXCLUSIVELY FOR DEFENSIVE PURPOSES."

THE COMPLAINT SAID "THE INCIDENTS REFERRED TO ABOVE MARK A CLIMAX OF A SUSTAINED EFFORT BY THE UNITED KINGDOM TO RENDER ASSISTANCE TO THE ARAB STATES IN THEIR DISPUTE WITH ISRAEL. UNTIL RECENTLY, THIS AID WAS CLANDESTINE AND CONSISTED OF A STEADY SUPPLY OF WAR MATERIAL OF ALL KINDS TO EGYPT, IRAQ AND TRANS-JORDAN."

"EVIDENCE OF THIS ARMED SUPPLY IS IN THE POSSESSION OF THE PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT OF ISRAEL AND WILL FORM THE SUBJECT OF A COMMUNICATION TO THE UNITED NATIONS MEDIATOR," IT ADDED.

THE ISRAELI GOVERNMENT DECLARED IT ATTACHES GREAT IMPORTANCE TO THE ARMISTICE NEGOTIATIONS SCHEDULED TO BEGIN ON RHODES TOMORROW AND "WISHES ARDENTLY FOR THEIR SUCCESS."

"THE GOVERNMENT OF ISRAEL, THEREFORE, DEEPLY DEPLORES THE FOMENTING OF AN ARTIFICIAL CRISIS AT THE PRECISE MOMENT WHEN THESE NEGOTIATIONS ARE ABOUT TO OPEN UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE UNITED NATIONS MEDIATOR.

"THE GOVERNMENT OF ISRAEL DESIRES NO CONFLICT WITH THE UNITED KINGDOM, NOR DOES IT IN ANY WAY THREATEN THE POLITICAL OR TERRITORIAL INTEGRITY OF ANY OF THE ARAB STATES WITH WHICH THE UNITED KINGDOM HAS TREATY RELATIONSHIP.

"ACCORDINGLY, THE GOVERNMENT OF ISRAEL WILL DO EVERYTHING TO INSURE THAT THE FORTHCOMING ARMISTICE NEGOTIATIONS SHALL OPEN UNDER THE BEST POSSIBLE AUSPICES. IT IS DIFFICULT, HOWEVER, TO SEE SIGNS OF A SIMILAR CONCERN IN THE ATTITUDE OF THE UNITED KINGDOM."

LEAD DAY U.N.- INDONESIA

LAKE SUCCESS, JAN.11-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES SAID TODAY RUSSIA MUST SHARE THE BLAME WITH THE NETHERLANDS FOR THE PRESENT SITUATION IN INDONESIA.

U.S.DELEGATE PHILIP C.JESSUP TOLD THE U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL THE COMMUNISTS WERE USING THE SAME TACTICS IN INDONESIA THEY HAVE USED IN KOREA, BERLIN AND OTHER PLACES.

"ANYWHERE IN THE WORLD WHERE A COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT CLIBS IN THE WINDOW," JESSUP SAID, "INDEPENDENCE IS KICKED OUT THE DOOR."

JESSUP SPOKE A FEW HOURS AFTER HE HAD RETURNED FROM TALKS IN WASHINGTON WITH PRESIDENT TRUMAN AND TOP STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS.

HE SAID THE RUSSIANS WERE DEMANDING THE RELEASE OF PRESIDENT SOEKARNO OF THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC AND AT THE SAME TIME THE COMMUNISTS WERE ACCUSING SOEKARNO OF BEING A TRAITOR TO HIS GOVERNMENT.

JESSUP STRONGLY ATTACKED THE DUTCH FOR THEIR RECENT "POLICE ACTION" IN INDONESIA. HE SAID THE NETHERLANDS, FAR FROM ESTABLISHING LAW AND ORDER IN THE FAR EAST, MAY LET LOOSE MORE DISORDERS AND THE "ONLY VICTOR MAY BE THE FORCES OF ANARCHY."

JESSUP CALLED FOR A DEFINITE DATE FOR THE HOLDING OF ELECTIONS IN INDONESIA, WITH THE PURPOSE OF SETTING UP A UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA. HE ALSO DEMANDED THAT A DEFINITE DATE BE SET FOR THE TRANSFER OF CONTROL FROM THE NETHERLANDS TO THE PROJECTED FEDERATED GOVERNMENT.

HE URGED THE WITHDRAWAL OF DUTCH ARMIES FROM INDONESIA AT THE EARLIEST POSSIBLE DATE AFTER THE NEW COUNTRY IS ESTABLISHED AS AN EQUAL PARTNER UNDER THE NETHERLANDS CROWN.

JESSUP SAID THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT "CAN FIND NO ADEQUATE JUSTIFICATION FOR THE MILITARY ACTION UNDERTAKEN BY THE NETHERLANDS" AGAINST THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC.

"IN OUR VIEW," JESSUP DECLARED, "THE NETHERLANDS MILITARY ACTION IS IN CONFLICT WITH THE SECURITY COUNCIL RESOLUTIONS AND THE RENVILLE AGREEMENT."

HE REFERRED TO THE SEVERAL CEASE-FIRE ORDERS ISSUED BY THE SECURITY COUNCIL AND THE TRUCE AGREEMENT REACHED BETWEEN DUTCH AND INDONESIAN REPUBLICAN LEADERS A YEAR AGO ON THE U.S.S. RENVILLE.

JESSUP SAID THE NETHERLANDS HAD ASSURED THE COUNCIL IT HAD COMPLIED WITH THE MOST RECENT CEASE-FIRE AND HAD RELEASED ARRESTED REPUBLICAN LEADERS AS DEMANDED BY THE COUNCIL. JAN 1949

"THE COMMITTEE OF GOOD OFFICES AND MY GOVERNMENT NEITHER AGREE THAT THIS HAS BEEN DONE," HE SAID.

THE DELEGATES HAD HEARD SIMILAR ATTACKS ON THE NETHERLANDS LAST FRIDAY FROM REPRESENTATIVES OF THE PHILIPPINES, INDIA, AUSTRALIA AND EGYPT.

JESSUP SAID THE CONTINUANCE OF DUTCH MILITARY ACTION AFTER THE SECURITY COUNCIL RESOLUTION ADOPTED IN PARIS LAST MONTH WAS "VLEARLY AN ACT OF DEFIANCE ON THE PART OF THE DUTCH."

"NO EXCUSES CAN FAIL TO COVER THIS DEFIANCE," JESSUP SAID.

"THE NETHERLANDS HAS VIOLATED THE CHARTER OF THE UNITED NATIONS."
THE CLEAREST DISREGARD OF THE COUNCIL'S ORDERS, HE SAID, IS TO BE FOUND IN THE DUTCH REFUSAL TO RELEASE PRESIDENT SOEKARNO, PREMIER MOHAMMED HATTA AND OTHER TOP PRISONERS WHO ARE NOW CONFINED TO THE ISLAND OF BANGKA, OFF SUMATRA.
"THE SECURITY COUNCIL CANNOT ACCEPT THE VIEW OF THE DUTCH THAT THEY HAVE BEEN GIVEN THEIR LIBERTY BY BEING GIVEN THE FREEDOM OF THE ISLAND OF BANGKA," JESSUP SAID.
HE SAID THE REPUBLICAN LEADERS SHOULD BE ALLOWED TO RETURN TO THEIR CAPITAL AND TO CARRY ON THEIR CONTACTS WITH OTHER OFFICIALS.
"THE QUICK MILITARY SUCCESSES OF THE NETHERLANDS CANNOT EFFECT A SOLUTION," HE WENT ON. "THE UNITED STATES WILL NOT ASSOCIATE ITSELF WITH ANY USE OF FORCE. THE PROBLEM REMAINS ONE FOR THE SECURITY COUNCIL TO DEAL WITH."

IT WAS A STRONG U.S.STATEMENT. SOME DELEGATES NOTED WITH INTEREST THAT JESSUP DELIVERED IT AFTER A VISIT YESTERDAY TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN, WHO HAS INSISTED THERE IS NO LET-UP IN THE STRONG U.S.LINE TOWARD RUSSIA.
DR.JESSUP SAID THE DUTCH HAD DEFIED THE SECURITY COUNCIL BY TAKING MILITARY ACTION AGAINST THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC. HE CALLED FOR THE DUTCH TO RELEASE INDONESIAN OFFICIALS CAPTURED LAST MONTH, FOR ELECTIONS IN INDONESIA, AND WITHDRAWAL OF DUTCH TROOPS WHEN THE UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA IS SET UP.
DR.JESSUP ACCUSED RUSSIA OF FOMENTING TROUBLE THROUGH THE COMMUNIST PARTY IN INDONESIA. HE SAID THE COMMUNIST MOVES THERE FOLLOWED THE PATTERN MADE FAMILIAR IN KOREA, BERLIN AND OTHER TROUBLE SPOTS IN THE WORLD. HE SAID WHEN THE COMMUNISTS COME IN THE WINDOW INDEPENDENCE IS KICKED OUT THE DOOR.

THE ISRAELI NOTE COMPLAINED ESPECIALLY AGAINST THE DISPATCH OF BRITISH MILITARY, NAVAL AND AIR FORCES TO AQABA. IT SAID THIS VIOLATED THE SECURITY COUNCIL'S CEASE FIRE RESOLUTION APPROVED LAST MAY 29, WHICH ORDERED THAT NO GOVERNMENT INTRODUCE FIGHTING PERSONNEL INTO PALESTINE OR ANY ARAB STATE DURING THE CEASE FIRE.
ISRAEL CHARGED THAT BRITISH PLANES BASED IN EGYPT MADE UNAUTHORIZED FLIGHTS OVER ISRAEL AND THE BATTLE FRONT NEAR THE BORDER TOWN OF RAFA LAST FRIDAY. THE NOTE SAID BRITISH PLANES WERE SHOT DOWN AND THAT DETAILED INFORMATION WILL BE SENT TO THE U.N.MEDIATOR ON THE INCIDENT.
AFTER NOTING THE LAND, AIR AND NAVAL MOVES LISTED IN THE DOCUMENT, THE ISRAELI NOTE SAID THE TEL AVIV GOVERNMENT "DEEPLY DEPLORES THE FOMENTING OF AN ARTIFICIAL CRISIS AT THE PRECISE MOMENT WHEN THESE NEGOTIATIONS ARE ABOUT TO OPEN UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE UNITED NATIONS MEDIATOR."

LAKE SUCCESS, JAN. 11-(AP)-ISRAEL WAS REPORTED TODAY TO BE PREPARING A NEW BLAST AT BRITAIN DESPITE EFFORTS OF WASHINGTON AND UNITED NATIONS OFFICIALS TO EASE THE GROWING PALESTINE TENSION.
THERE STILL WAS NO OFFICIAL WORD HERE WHETHER OR NOT ISRAEL WOULD ABANDON HER PLAN TO FILE A FORMAL COMPLAINT IN THE SECURITY COUNCIL AGAINST BRITAIN ON ANY OF THE SEVERAL ISSUES OVER WHICH THE TWO COUNTRIES ARE ARGUING.
ISRAELI REPRESENTATIVE AUBREY S. EBAN, HOWEVER, ARRANGED A NEWS CONFERENCE FOR 2 P.M. (EST) AND THIS TOUCHED OFF RUMORS A NEW ATTACK ON BRITAIN WAS ON THE WAY.
THESE RUMORS WERE STRENGTHENED TO SOME EXTENT BY A SHARP STATEMENT ISSUED BY EBAN LAST NIGHT ON HIS ARRIVAL IN NEW YORK AFTER A ROUND OF CONFERENCES IN TEL AVIV.
EBAN DECLARED BRITISH TROOP MOVEMENTS IN TRANS-JORDAN CONSTITUTE A "REPUDIATION OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL TRUCE RESOLUTIONS." HE SAID BRITAIN'S ACTION IS CAUSING "GRAVE CONCERN" IN ISRAEL.
EBAN'S STATEMENT WAS REGARDED AS SIGNIFICANT SINCE IT CAME AFTER THE STATE DEPARTMENT AND U. N. SECRETARY-GENERAL TRYGVE LIE APPEALED TO BRITAIN AND ISRAEL TO FORGET THEIR DIFFERENCES FOR THE MOMENT IN THE INTEREST OF THE FORTHCOMING ARMISTICE TALKS ON THE ISLAND OF RHODES BETWEEN EGYPT AND ISRAEL.
THE ISRAELI REPRESENTATIVE SAID HIS GOVERNMENT ATTACHES GREAT IMPORTANCE TO THE PROJECTED ARMISTICE NEGOTIATIONS BUT DECLARED THE TALKS "CAN ONLY BE PREJUDICED BY PROVOCATIVE MANEUVERS SUCH AS THOSE IN WHICH THE BRITISH FORCES ARE NOW ENGAGED.
BRITISH DIPLOMATIC SOURCES IN LONDON HAD SAID EARLIER THAT BRITAIN WOULD NOT PRESENT A COMPLAINT TO THE SECURITY COUNCIL CHARGING ISRAEL WITH SHOOTING DOWN FIVE RAF PLANES NEAR THE EGYPTIAN-PALESTINE BORDER LAST WEEK.
REPORTS FROM TEL AVIV SAID YESTERDAY THAT ISRAEL WOULD FILE A COUNTER-COMPLAINT AGAINST BRITAIN, BUT THE ISRAELI DELEGATION SAID LAST NIGHT THE QUESTION STILL WAS UNDER CONSIDERATION.
EBAN'S NEWS CONFERENCE WAS EXPECTED TO END JUST BEFORE THE SECURITY COUNCIL MET AT 3 P.M. (EST) ON THE INDONESIAN QUESTION. THIS MADE IT UNLIKELY THAT THE COUNCIL WOULD TAKE UP THE PALESTINE ISSUE TODAY EVEN IF ONE OF THE PARTIES FILES A FORMAL COMPLAINT.
U.S. DELEGATE PHILIP C. JESSUP WAS EXPECTED TO RETURN THIS MORNING FROM WASHINGTON WHERE HE TOOK PART YESTERDAY IN STATE DEPARTMENT DISCUSSIONS ON THE INDONESIAN QUESTION.

London Informed of America's Deep Concern Over Situation, Lovett Says

BEVIN GETS SUPPORT

No Change in Britain's Middle East Policy Indicated After Cabinet Session

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Britain's cabinet apparently endorsed the Palestine policy of foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin yesterday as the United States displayed concern over British troop movements near the Israel border.

For four hours Bevin explained to the cabinet why British war planes in Egypt and Trans-Jordan patrol Israel's borders, and why troops were sent to Aqaba in Trans-Jordan. A high government source said later the policy would stand without change.

A British RAF pilot, one of those shot down by the Israelis last week, told newsmen at a hospital near Tel Aviv he was in a flight above Israeli soil when he was shot down.

Story Permits Quick Huddle

His story sent high level authorities in London into a quick huddle, after which the British air ministry insisted the "true facts" were that all of the planes were flying above Egyptian soil when they were attacked by the Jews.

In Washington, Undersecretary of State Robert A. Lovett said the United States has expressed concern to Britain over British troop movements in the Palestine area. He said such movements prior to Israeli-Egyptian armistice negotiations at Rhodes caused apprehension in the U. S.

Dr. Ralph Bunche, acting U. N. mediator, got the peace talks under way informally at Rhodes. He called separate meetings with the Egyptian and Israeli delegations, and planned first formal armistice talks today.

Bevin Outlines Israel Crisis To Cabinet

London, Jan. 12 (AP) — Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin told the Cabinet today about latest Palestine developments which the Foreign Office calls a grave threat to peace in the Middle East.

The meeting lasted more than three hours. There was on immediate announcement of action.

The Foreign Office denied Israel's assertion that Britain has sent military supplies to her Arab allies in violation of the United Nations arms embargo.

Israel Is Blamed

A spokesman said Israel itself broke the embargo by importing supplies from Communist Czechoslovakia "on a massive scale." He said 90 per cent of Israel's supplies came from eastern Europe. He said American dollars, but no United States Government dollars, make possible the purchases.

The Cabinet meeting was the first since the destruction of five RAF planes near the Palestine-Egyptian frontier last Friday. Israeli forces shot down the planes, described as armed reconnaissance craft.

A Foreign Office statement, issued after Israel complained about British activities to the Security Council at Lake Success yesterday, defined Britain's current stand on the Palestine problem:

To exercise restraint, back up the United Nations and reserve her rights as to future action.

Re-Establish U.N. Control

"One of the great dangers in the situation lies in the fact that the Security Council has been losing control over the events," the statement said. "It is of paramount importance that this authority should be re-established without delay and maintained until a final settlement is reached."

Israel charged in a note to the Security Council that Britain is menacing her with both military and political activity. Tel Aviv urged the Council to investigate British troop and naval movements. It declared RAF planes violated the Palestine frontier and that British arms have gone to Egypt, Iraq and Trans-Jordan.

No Date Given

The Council gave no indication when it would consider the note.

The Foreign Office statement declared Israel has repeatedly violated United Nations truce orders, still occupies some Lebanese territory and "the possibility cannot be excluded of further Jewish attacks in violation of the truce, in Jerusalem or elsewhere, against forces of Trans-Jordan or Iraq." It said "the reports of the acting mediator leave no room for doubt that the present crisis is the outcome of Jewish aggression."

Eden attacks RAF flights over Israel as 'purposeless'

LONDON (AP) — The full British cabinet apparently gave its complete support yesterday to Foreign Secretary Bevin's Palestine policy.

A high government source said there would be no change in Britain's Middle East course. This was after the cabinet met for four hours. It heard Bevin report on why Britain has sent troops to Aqaba in Trans-Jordan, instituted armed air patrols along Palestine's Trans-Jordan and Egyptian frontiers, and warned Middle Eastern peace is threatened unless the UN Security Council's authority is re-established.

Bevin and his policy came in for questioning and criticism in some British newspapers when five RAF planes were shot down last Friday while engaged in an armed reconnaissance over the Israeli-Egyptian battle area.

RAPPED BY EDEN

Anthony Eden, No. 2 man in the Conservative Party, last night denounced RAF flights over the area as "entirely purposeless and deplorable."

In a political talk at Warwick, Eden called the Friday attack on British planes by Israelis "an unwarranted and aggressive act." Then he asked, "Why were our aircraft sent to carry out a reconnaissance over a battle area in such conditions? What useful British purpose could be served?"

He criticized the handling of affairs in the Middle East as "confused" and endangering British-American friendship.

OVER PALESTINE

Tel Aviv dispatches yesterday quoted one of the RAF fliers as saying in an interview his Spitfire had crossed into Palestine territory before it was shot down Friday by Jewish riflemen. The interview was with the Associated Press, the French Press Agency and the London Daily Telegraph.

The flier, Pilot Frank Harvey Close, was quoted as saying he was familiar with road landmarks in the area and knew his flighter leader led the formation over the frontier. He could not say whether the flight leader knew it, however.

This story sent authorities "at a very high level" in London into a huddle. Eventually the Air Ministry stuck by its story. It said last night the "true facts" were as given by it previously, that the pilots had strict orders to stay on the Egyptian side, and were in fact victims of an unprovoked attack while over Egyptian territory.

U. S. CONCERNED

The British-Israeli situation also had repercussions in Washington and Lake Success.

In Washington Undersecretary of State Lovett said the United States had expressed concern to Britain over British troop movements in the Palestine area. He said any such development prior to Israeli-Egyption armistice talks opening in Rhodes was a source of apprehension to the United States.

At Lake Success, UN Secretary General Trygve Lie told a news conference he hopes "all parties will be helpful" so that the acting UN mediator, Dr. Ralph Bunche, may have a success in the Rhodes negotiations. Lie was understood to have urged the Israelis not to press for a council meeting now to air their complaint of Tuesday that the British are menacing Israel by military movements.

BUNCHE DISAPPOINTED

Meanwhile, Bunche's hopes of getting the Rhodes conference off to a formal start yesterday were disappointed. This apparently was due to the reluctance of both sides to divulge the rank of their delegation members before learning the level of the other side.

The Egyptian delegation of three colonels and three Foreign Office officials finally arrived in Rhodes in the early afternoon. An Israeli delegation of Foreign Office officials and army representatives arrived in the late evening.

A high government source said Bevin would give the House of Commons a full accounting of Middle Eastern affairs soon after it reconvenes next Tuesday.

Russians Told Britain Plans Palestine War

Moscow, Jan. 12 (AP)—The Russian public was told today Britain is getting ready to go to war in the Middle East.

A dispatch by the official Soviet news agency Tass from Beirut, Lebanon, said newspapers there reported in bold headlines British naval preparations for a blockade of Israel.

Tass said dispatches from Cairo told of British armies near the Suez Canal being readied for battle. Tass also said the Arab Legion had gone under British command, that the British had commandeered all Trans-Jordan's transport for moving its armies and that British soldiers packed the streets of Amman, Trans-Jordan's capital.

Nordic group debates own alliance

JAN 1949

LONDON (AP)—Scandinavians debated a choice last night between a Nordic alliance of Sweden, Norway and Denmark and a link with Western powers in the proposed North Atlantic pact.

In Stockholm, the Swedish capital, a high diplomatic source said Sweden had offered the other two Scandinavian nations an iron-clad alliance on the understanding it would be an alternative to the North Atlantic pact.

'NEW SITUATION'

A Danish Foreign Office spokesman in Copenhagen said his country is most likely to choose the full military alliance with Sweden rather than participate in the Atlantic pact with the United States, Canada, Britain, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg.

"By her determined action Sweden has created a completely new situation and her offer may even make Norway change her attitude," the Danish spokesman was quoted as saying.

This was after qualified Scandinavian diplomats in London had reported that Sweden apparently had failed in conversations now ending at Oslo to woo Norway and Denmark to a completely neutral Scandinavian defense alliance in which they would look to Sweden alone for protection.

TRADITIONALLY ALOOF

Sweden's policy traditionally is one of aloofness from big power entanglements.

The Swedish government at Stockholm announced it has called its ambassadors home from Washington, London, Paris and Moscow for talks, the reason for this was not disclosed.

Sweden is by far the strongest of the three Scandinavian countries with an air force ranking third in strength to those of Russia and Britain in Europe. Norway and Denmark spend only a tenth as much as Sweden for defense purposes.

The Scandinavians informants here said Norway and Denmark almost certainly will join the Western powers in the proposed North Atlantic defense pact. They said the two countries would be invited to join it within the next few weeks.

OPPOSES NEW PAY RISE, FRENCH PREMIER SAYS

PARIS, Jan. 12—(AP) Premier Henri Queuille said after a cabinet meeting today he was opposed to any new wage boosts for French workers.

At the same time he said he had decided to freeze prices at the Dec. 31 level and force some down.

Industry and commerce must absorb rising costs rather than pass them on to consumers, a communique said.

The fate of Queuille's coalition cabinet is involved in how labor and the many political parties react to these decisions in the next few weeks. The communist-led general Confederation of Labor, for example, has been demanding a 25 per cent increase in wages.

Prices of items like textiles, fruits, vegetables, some meats, fish and wine will be forced down by decrees, the communique said.

FLASH! SUPER COMICS GET U. N. BRICKBAT

Paris, Jan. 12 (A. P.)—The director-general of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization today criticized comics dealing with super-human powers.

They give children false ideas and should be discouraged, said Dr. Jaime Torres Bodet, former Mexican Foreign Minister.

Menuhin Backs Furtwaengler

Rome, Jan. 12 (AP)—Yehudi Menuhin, Jewish violinist, spoke up today in defense of German Conductor Wilhelm Furtwaengler's record under the Nazis.

Several top-flight American musicians—Isaac Stern and Nathan Milstein, violinists: Artur Rubinstein and Vladimir Horowitz, pianists, and Lily Pons, singer, among them—have announced they will refuse to appear under Furtwaengler if the Chicago Symphony hires him as a conductor.

Talks Still On

Furtwaengler indicated in Montreux, Switzerland, yesterday his negotiations with the Chicago Orchestra are still in progress.

Menuhin, who plays at Rome's Argentina theater tonight, said he was considering telegraphing his views to Chicago. He said the criticism of the German was unjust and "against the facts."

"I may have to deny myself the joy and pleasure of playing with the Chicago Symphony until this matter is straightened out," he said.

Looked Into Record

Right after the war, Menuhin—as much at home in Europe as in America by virtue of concert engagements that began in 1927—looked into Furtwaengler's record during the Hitler years. He said he convinced himself that Furtwaengler behaved well, said so publicly and played under the German's baton.

Recently, he recorded the Beethoven violin concerto with Furtwaengler and the Lucerne Festival Orchestra.

"Of all German musicians," Menuhin said, "Furtwaengler put up the most resistance to the Nazi. He kept as many Jews as possible in the Berlin Philharmonic. He never went on Nazi propaganda trips. He was never a member of the party.

Cleared By Court

"Altogether he behaved well—as well as could be expected of a man who is entirely German, who is a good German in the best sense of the word. There is no reason for him to suffer. The man has been cleared (by a German denazification court). If he is cleared by those most interested, then it is not our business to judge further."

Actually, Menuhin said, most American musicians are not hostile to Furtwaengler. He said many members of the New York Philharmonic whom he helped leave Germany will testify that he saved their lives.

Norway, Russia Set On Goods Exchange

Oslo, Norway, Jan. 12 (AP)—Norway and the Soviet Union have agreed upon the volume of goods to be exchanged between the two countries in 1949, it was announced today.

Norway will import 100,000 tons of wheat, 50,000 tons of rye and 25,000 tons of maize from Russia plus 40,000 tons of crude phosphate, 10,000 tons of manganese ore and other raw materials.

Norway will export to Russia 25,000 tons of sulphur pyrite, 25,000 tons of fats, 33,000 tons of salted herrings and other products.

The Norwegian Foreign Office also announced that a Norse-Polish trade agreement for 1949 was signed in Warsaw on January 8. The goods exchange between the two nations will amount to 140,000,000 Norwegian kroner ($28,000,000).

Norway will import coal and coke, iron and steel, chemicals sugar and textiles from Poland, and will export salted herrings, cod liver oil, fats and iron ore in return.

American Cited As Nazi Aide Is Seized Again

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 12 (AP). A former State Department employé accused of treasonous wartime collaboration with the Nazis has been rearrested in Germany on orders from the United States Department of Justice.

United States Army officials said today Herbert John Burgman, 52, a native of Hokah, Minn., was arrested November 22. He had been working a short time before as an interpreter for military police and had been living with his German-born wife and 24-year-old son in Rumpenheim, a suburb of Frankfurt. He is held in an army prison here, the provost marshal said.

The arrest was the second for Burgman, who worked in the American Embassy in Berlin for twenty years as a clerk and statistician.

Was Freed After 19 Months

He was first seized soon after the war and accused of making wartime radio broadcasts for the Nazis. After nineteen months in prison he was released in December, 1946, on instructions from the Justice Department, which originally ordered him held.

Since his release he has been living in Germany under orders to report regularly to army intelligence officers.

[In Washington, department officials said that since the war he has shifted from one job to another in postwar Germany.]

Linked To Nazi Radio

At the same time he was freed in 1946, the Justice Department also turned loose Mildred Gillars and Donald Day, two other Americans accused of broadcasting for Hitler. The Gillars woman since has been re-arrested and charged with treason in the United States. She was charged with being the "Axis Sally" who broadcast Nazi propaganda to American troops during the war.

Army officials said Burgman reportedly broadcast over the Nazi radio during the war under the alias "Joseph Scanlon Burgman." His broadcasts, known as "Station Debunk" and "The Voice of Free Americans," were heard widely in the United States.

Refused To Be Repatriated

Army records showed Burgman became a clerk in the American Embassy after serving in the United States Army of Occupation after the first world war.

In Washington, the Justice Department said Burgman refused to be repatriated at the start of the last war and took a job with the German short-wave radio. The department said it planned to fly him back to the United States later this month, when a treason charge against him will be presented to a grand jury at his point of landing.

EX-U. S. AIDE FACES TREASON CHARGES

FRANKFURT, Germany, Jan. 12 (AP)—U. S. Army officials held a former State department employe here to face treason charges in America.

The 52-year-old one-time embassy clerk, Herbert John Burgman, is accused of having delivered propaganda broadcasts for the Nazis in World War II as a colleague of "Axis Sally."

Burgman, a native of Hokah, Minn., worked in the U. S. Embassy in Berlin 20 years. He refused repatriation when America entered the war in 1941.

Army officials said Burgman was arrested Nov. 22 for the second time at request of the Justice department in Washington. First seized after the end of the war he was released after 19 months but was required to report regularly to U.S. military police. For a time before his second arrest the MP's employed him as an interpreter. He has a German wife and a 24-year-old son.

In Washington the Justice department said he would be flown to America and held for grand jury action at the point of landing, which was not announced.

The government accuses him of having served as a sort of American "Lord Haw Haw," broadcasting from Nazi "Radio Station Debunk" propaganda beamed to America. This propaganda also was broadcast as "The Voice of Free Americans" and under the name of "Joseph Scanlon Burgman."

He has refused to talk to reporters.

Corridor 'Chute Practice Set By Russ

JAN 1949

Berlin, Jan. 12 (AP)—The Russians posted warning today that they plan parachute jumping practice over Brandenburg, in a corridor used by the Allied airlift to Berlin.

Meanwhile, the blockade-busting airlift, speeded up, with supply planes arriving and departing at five-minute intervals.

The parachute drills, first the Soviets have announced in many weeks, featured a long list of Russian aerial activity posted at the four-power Berlin air-safety center. The Soviets said they also planned "local flying" drills at ten airfields in the corridors.

Lift Plane Crashes

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 12 (AP). An American airlift plane returning from Berlin crashed near here today, killing all three crewmen.

The big four-engined C-54 Skymaster cut a swath 100 yards long through a forest two miles east of the Rhine-Main airport, bowling over foot-thick trees like tenpins.

Most of the fuselage remained intact, but the wings and landing wheels were knocked off and the cockpit crushed. The landing gear was down, indicating the pilot was about to land.

Snow Falling

Cause of the crash was not determined. A light snow was falling at the time, but airport officials said visibility was fairly good.

Names of the victims were withheld pending notification of next of kin.

The accident raised the death toll on the airlift to 26 Americans since the operation to supply Russian-blockaded Berlin began last June.

Seven British airmen also have been killed in airlift accidents.

Austria Pig Iron To Japan

Vienna, Jan. 12 (AP)—The first shipload of Austrian pig iron has left Trieste for Japan, The United Austrian Steel and Iron Works announced today. The shipment marked the beginning of a number of substantial deliveries of pig iron contracted for Japan to American buyers, the management said.

Arrest Of 2 In Finland Protested By Russia

Helsinki, Jan. 12 (AP)—The Finnish Foreign Office said today that a second note has been received from Moscow protesting the arrest of two Soviet citizens late in November.

Dispatch of the note was reported earlier by the Communist paper Tyokansan Sanomat.

Russia protested first on December 3 against the arrest of two Soviet citizens at a circus performance in Helsinki. The contents of Finland's reply to the first note have not been published.

There was a difference of opinion on what occurred at the circus. Witnesses said the two Russians were drunk. Soviet authorities said two policemen mistreated the Russians and demanded the policemen be punished.

Greeks Still Trying To Pacify Papagos

JAN 1949

Athens, Jan. 12 (AP)—Gen. Alexander Papagos's insistence on abolishing the Supreme Defense Council, which includes heads of Allied military missions, today blocked his expected appointment as generalissimo of the Greek armed forces.

Papagos, it was learned, argues that the council slows up prompt and energetic Greek action against the Communist-backed guerrilla forces.

He demands a free hand, with entire responsibility for decisions.

Hero Of 1941 Battle

Earlier it was reported that Government officials had reached an agreement with Papagos, granting him sweeping military powers.

War Minister Constantine Rentis continued talks with Papagos, Greece's hero of the 1941 Greek-Italian campaign, in an attempt to persuade him to withdraw his demand.

Constantin Tsaldaris, Vice Premier and Foreign Minister, had a long talk with United States Ambassador Henry F. Grady on the subject. Grady is a member of the council.

Held Political Error

The Government in reluctant to agree to abolition of the council. Some leaders say it would be a political mistake.

Greece is getting $350,000,000 in American aid in the year ending June 30. Grady has estimated about $400,000,000 will be needed next year.

President Truman commented last month that the Greek drive against guerrilla forces had slowed down after a brisk start. He said the Greek Army failed to make a "determined effort" against the guerrillas last summer.

Battle rages in Greece

ATHENS (AP)—The general staff said a battle has been in progress all day with a large force of guerrillas attacking Naoussa, 90 miles west of Salonika.

Strong reinforcements, including tanks and armored cars, were sent from Florina. Heavy fighting still was going on at nightfall, especially at the north and south approaches to the town.

Two to three brigades of rebels were estimated to have started the battle during the early morning hours. Insurgents attacked the town three weeks ago and were reported repelled with heavy losses.

Tientsin Troops Turn Down Red Terms: Report

H.K. MILKS

Life in Red-captured villages around Suchow is described by correspondent. [Page 22.]

Nanking, Jan. 12 (AP)—Radio reports from Tientsin tonight said the Tientsin Nationalist garrison had rejected a three-point proposal for the surrender of that North China city to the Communists.

The reports said the Nationalist force of 60,000 troops had agreed to give up the city of 3,000,000 if they were permitted to be evacuated "with light arms" through the port of Tangku, 27 miles from Tientsin.

Some sixteen ships were reported waiting off Tangku anticipating the removal of the troops if the Reds accepted the proposal.

Situation Still Confused

The radio added that the Communists originally offered to accept the surrender on these terms: That Nationalists lay down their arms within the city; all military supplies and equipment be protected for handing over to the Communists, and the lives of all Nationalist soldiers who obey these terms will be protected.

The exact situation in Tientsin was still confused here, but it appeared that the eventual surrender was being arranged under the pressure of the people's demands.

May Set National Pattern

The peace move by the people themselves at Tientsin may set the pattern for settlement of China's civil war on a national basis.

It is obvious to observers here that the Government is not making any progress toward a negotiated end of hostilities.

It is equally apparent that the Big Four—reportedly asked last Saturday by Foreign Minister Wu Te-chen to help bring about a meeting between the Nationalists and Communists—will shy away from participation in a squabble whch has brought only extreme unhappiness to outsiders who interfered.

Loyalty Now A Factor

On the basis of those facts, it is certain that it will take some new force to halt the fighting before it engulfs Nanking as it has other cities farther north.

During the past month, possible end of the war with the Reds has depended principally on the decision of President Chiang Kai-shek.

Today, a new factor has entered the situation—the question of the continued loyalty of his subordinates, especially his military commanders in the field.

May Act Despite Chiang

Should these subordinates decide the time has come to act for themselves it is possible that they are ready to do so with or without Chiang's approval.

If the Tientsin experiment ends successfully, other regions may seek a similar solution.

CHIANG IS URGED TO HALT WARFARE

China's Yuan Calls for Cease-Fire, Launching of Peace Talks

JAN 1949

NANKING (Thursday,) Jan. 13 (AP)—The Chinese government's control Yuan, today urged an immediate cease-fire in China's civil war.

The Yuan (corresponding to a budget bureau, and not a policy-making body) voted to send messages to President Chiang Kai-shek and Mao Tze-tung, top communist leader, calling for a halt in the fighting and for peace negotiations.

"The real victory should attempt to meet the real desires of the people and the achievement of peace," said the Yuan's statement.

(The dispatch did not mention any reaction by Chiang, who already has offered to negotiate with the Chinese reds—for peace on his own terms. The communist radio flatly rejected Chiang's offer.)

(Meanwhile, a dispatch direct from communist-besieged Tientsin described fighting on three sides of the big North China industrial city. The dispatch made no mention of a truce there, or any arrangements for the city's surrender.

(Reports of a peace move by Tientsin's citizens circulated widely in Nanking and Shanghai Wednesday. Some observers expressed belief that such a move would set a pattern for an end to the civil war.)

Reds Bring A Changed Life To China Villages

Seymour Topping walked in and out of Communist territory in the battle zone north of the Hwai River. He spent a week with Communist troops. Herewith he sets forth his account of what life is like in the freshly captured national villages and hints at a large loss of life in the area around Suchow.

By Seymour Topping

JAN 1949

Occupied Village North of the Hwai River, Jan. 7 [Delayed—AP]. The sound of artillery fire ceased here today.

It signaled the end of two months of savage fighting. And Red-captured villagers took up the task of rebuilding homes and life disrupted by war and a complete change in their mode of living.

Normal quiet also has been restored to this Anhwei province village.

An occasional National plane flies to the northwest where the last remnant of the Government's former Suchow garrison is encircled.

Peasants Rebuild Homes

Outside the village, barking dogs and cawing crows compete as scavengers for hundreds of unburied dead on the battlefield where a quarter of a million National troops were knocked out. Dogs often bring human bones into the village.

Slit trenches and foxholes are everywhere. Trees, once carefully husbanded near each cluster of huts, were cut down to clear the field of fire.

Peasants are fashioning mud bricks to rebuild walls and thatch new roofs on smashed homes.

Refugees Walk Railroad

Refugees and released wounded Nationalist soldiers walk south along the destroyed tracks of the Tientsin-Pukow railroad. Many are railway or other Government employés whom the Communists have given the choice of working in this area or returning to National territory.

They usualy travel without baggage, except for bedding, because bandits are active between Kuchen and Tsaolaochi, the last National outpost 10 miles north of Pengpu.

The centuries-old stream of life in the villages is now entering an abrupt period of reorganization.

Billeted With Families

Communist soldiers are billeted with families. They are unmistakenly accepted as an onerous burden, but with characteristic good Chinese humor and with a hospitality that is often reciprocated with almost family-like cooperation.

The people are undergoing new regimentation. As I traveled under a Communist soldier escort from village to village, peasants would act as guides, but almost invariably under a mild protest. A frequent complaint was that they had a meeting to attend.

Red Currency Offered

Communist currency is freely exchanged for National Government gold yuan at a rate pegged to the black-market value of the silver dollar current in the adjoining Nationalist area.

My gold yuan was exchanged from Communist currency of the Farmers' Bank of Chung-chou at the rate of 200 yuan for 1 silver dollar.

A Communist officer said American dollars were accepted for exchange at Communist banks in interior cities.

French Reports 250 Viet-Namese Killed

Saigon, Indochina, Jan. 12 (AP)—The French Army said today Vietnam forces have lost 250 men in fighting with the French since the beginning of the year.

The communique said new stocks of ammunition have been captured during the week from the nationalists in the Phuly region, about 30 miles south of Hanoi. This included 16,000 grenades, 2,500 shells, four munitions shops, a steam power station and an iron foundry, the communique said.

The Viet-Minh radio of the nationalist forces said in the two years of fighting against French colonial power, Viet-Namese have sabotaged 5,000,000 rubber trees, ten per cent of the entire stand in Indochina.

...viction Of U.S. Man In Japan Upheld

Tokyo, Jan. 12 (AP)—The United States Army Review Board in Washington has upheld a military court conviction of Roger A. Johnson, Rock Island, Ill., a civilian employé of the Army, occupation headquarters announced today.

A general court martial convicted Johnson November 8 of embezzling military payment certificates and of being absent without leave. The court sentenced him to one year at hard labor and levied a fine of $1,000.

Johnson formerly was attached to the motor battalion of the headquarters and service group of general headquarters.

3 GIs named as slayers of girl on Guam

GUAM (AP)—Three U. S. servicemen are under arrest and "are being charged" with the rape-slaying of pretty Ruth Farnsworth, former Wac, the American governor of Guam announced today.

Quoting "admissions" by two of the men, the governor said the trio carried her off into a jungle Dec. 11 and raped her after one man beat her into unconsciousness.

The case was broken by discovery of the smock of Miss Farnsworth, 27-year-old San Francisco woman, in a car driven by one of the trio. A lie detector brought over from the United States by a Berkeley, Calif., officer also was given credit for "pointing the suspicion at the men now accused of the crime."

Miss Farnsworth was seized in a jade shop where she worked part time. She was found the next day in the jungle, unconscious and her clothing torn. She died Dec. 13.

Rear Adm. Charles A. Pownall, governor of Guam, announced:

"The following persons have been placed under arrest and are being charged with the kidnapping, rape and murder of the late Ruth Farnsworth:

"Pvt. Calvin Dennis, 26, Frederick, Md., Pvt. Herman T. Dennis, 20, Indianapolis, Ind., and Staff Sgt.

Robert W. Burns, 32, Spokane, Wash.

"The arrests were made possible by admissions obtained from Calvin and Herman Dennis, brothers, by the Guam police." SEE INSERT

Lt. Comdr. James T. Hackett, assistant police chief, said a factor in obtaining the admission and corroborative evidence was discovery of a smock belonging to Miss Farnsworth.

"It was found in a car of which Calvin Dennis was the driver," Hackett said.

"The use of the lie detector by Inspector A. Riedel of the Berkeley (Calif.) police force, was largely instrumental in narrowing the previous list of suspects and pointing the suspicion at the men now accused of the crime."

The first real break in the case, following the arrival of Riedel, was announced two days ago. Officials, without naming the suspect, said he admitted being present in the jade shop and watching two others beat Miss Farnsworth and carry her off into the jungle.

"The best reconstruction possible at this time indicates that the three men visited the jade shop on the evening of Dec. 11," Adm. Pownall said.

CARRIED INTO JUNGLE

"Finding her alone, one man struck her down and another went to the generator in the rear of the shop to extinguish the lights by disconnecting a wire.

"The man who had extinguished the lights came back into the shop, picked her up and, accompanied by the other two men, carried her outside the shop into the wooded jungle area in the rear. Miss Farnsworth at this time was in an unsconscious condition from the blow she had received.

"She was carried along a jungle trail and through an overgrown clearing where she was assaulted. After assaulting Miss Farnsworth the men returned individually to their barracks."

Calvin Dennis is attached to the 606th Engineer Aviation Squadron. Herman Dennis and Burns are attached to the 12th Air Ammunition Squadron.

FIANCE AT BEDSIDE

Miss Farnsworth died without regaining consciousness, 12 hours after she was found by soldiers and marines. As she died, her fiance, Marine Staff Sgt. Sterling McGinnis of Bell Center, Ohio, watched by her side at an Army hospital. They had planned to be married in April.

McGinnis, veteran of three Pacific campaigns, accompanied the body to San Francisco for burial last week .

Friends described Miss Farnsworth as "intensely religious." She was a member of the Latter Day Saints (Mormon) Church. She had worked two years a as Navy civil service employe on Guam, sending part of her earnings back to America to support a younger brother as a missionary in Mexico.

She had clerked in the jade shop of evenings for several months in order to save money for her trousseau. ADD

British Flyer Shot Down in Negeb Admits Being Over Israeli Soil

R. A. F. Spitfire Pilot Tells Reporters He Had Crossed From Egyptian Territory —Flight Ordered to Take Photos.

JAN 1949

Tel Aviv, Jan. 12 (A. P.).—One of four British R. A. F. pilots shot down last week over the R. A. F. battle zone in the Negeb Desert area told reporters today that his Spitfire had crossed from Egypt into Israeli territory when it was hit and set ablaze by the rifle fire of ground troops.

He is Pilot Frank Harvey Close, 27, of London, attached to an R. A. F. reconnaissance wing at a Suez Canal base.

He was interviewed by three correspondents — one American, one French, one English—in an Israeli hospital near Tel Aviv. He is recovering from injuries to his face and head suffered in a parachute landing from a low altitude bail-out.

Close said he knew that his flight had crossed the border because he was familiar with road landmarks in the area—but he could not say whether his flight leader knew they had gone onto the Israeli side of the frontier.

Four In Flight.

"We had received information suggesting that Israeli forces had crossed into Egypt," he said. "We were instructed to photograph their advanced positions. There were four of us on the flight.

"We arrived at the front without seeing any troops at all, whereupon we crossed the frontier. I know the area. Whether our flight leader had instructions about crossing the border, I don't know."

"There I saw a lot of troops," the pilot said. "Our leader took photographs. There was some small arms fire from the ground. The leader was flying at 500 feet. I was number two, and was flying right 'on the deck,' because it was safer from ground fire. I assume it was then that the odd bullet got my engine. I pulled up and the plane caught fire immediately. I jumped."

Close said that up to that time his flight had encountered neither anti-aircraft fire nor hostile planes. He said that he and others had instructions that if they ran into trouble, they were under no circumstances to fire on ground targets, even in reply to ground fire, and were to "shoot their way out" against hostile planes only as a last resort, if trapped and out-maneuvered. He said that otherwise if they were engaged by aircraft they were ordered to evade action and get away. ADD

Dutch Disclose Indonese Plan To Resist

JAN 1949

Batavia, Java, Jan. 12 (AP)—The Indonesian Republican leaders' program for a continued struggle against the Dutch, written just before they were captured, was made public here today.

While the Dutch were attacking their capital, Jogjakarta, on December 19, President Soekarno and Prime Minister Mohamed Hatta called a Cabinet meeting and prepared the program of resistance.

Sought Noncooperation

It called on all Indonesians to:

1. Obstruct and sabotage efforts to consolidate the Netherlands Government through noncooperation of civil servants.
2. Prevent economic consolidation by hindering the production of goods the Dutch need for foreign exchange.
3. Prevent the formation of a "puppet regime" through noncooperation politically.

The Republican leaders prepared radio addresses but before they could reach a microphone, Dutch paratroopers raced from the Jogjakarta airport and captured them.

"Can't Smash Our Spirit"

Soekarno's prepared speech, made public in Batavia, said the Republican Government knew the Dutch "will not be able to smash our fighting spirit to erase or decrease the independence of the people of Indonesia."

He added the Government was convinced the entire population would stand together to oppose Dutch action with "every mental and physical force."

Documents Quoted

The Hatta document, as made public here, said:

"Our fight is the fight for freedom and we must not stop before freedom is acquired, for we fight with the conviction that our struggle is righteous and just. The Government shall continue to execute its duties, whatever be its fate."

Mohammed Natsir, Minister of Information, was reported to have written: "The fall of Jogjakarta, which the Dutch assume will be the end of their troubles, is essentially the beginning of every conceivable trouble for the Dutch, the end of which lies far in the future." ADD our fighting spirit or erase or decrease the independence of the people."

Mr. Soekarno's three-point program of resistance called on Indonesians to sabotage efforts to consolidate Dutch rule through non-co-operation by civil employees; to obstruct the production of goods the Dutch need for foreign trade, and to block any puppet government by refusal to co-operate with it.

Dutch Confirm Report of Raid On Jogjakarta

Say Most of Attackers Were Destroyed, Damage to Power Lines Is Repaired

BATAVIA, Java, Jan. 12 (AP).—The Dutch conquerors of the Republic of Indonesia today confirmed reports that guerrillas made a damaging attack on Jogjakarta, the Republic's fallen capital, Monday night, but said the raiders paid heavily in casualties.

The guerrillas plunged Jogjakarta into darkness by destroying a transformer station and cut telephone lines and attempted to set fires, the Dutch Army said. It added that main power lines were "untouched and the damage has already been repaired."

This first Dutch admission of trouble in the former Republican capital said the attacking force was destroyed "for the greater part" and only two Dutch soldiers were wounded.

The guerrillas' underground "Hillside radio" reported today that one band has "annihilated" a Dutch occupation force at the town of Randudongkal, fifty miles northwest of Jogjakarta, and still holds it. The radio said other raiding bands swept out of the hills in the same area attacking other towns, and waged harassing sorties in West Java.

It was disclosed that even as the Dutch were seizing Jogjakarta the night of Dec. 19, Republican President Soekarno and other leaders were writing a plan to fight back by means of sabotage. Racing through the city, Dutch paratroopers captured Mr. Soekarno and other leaders before the President could deliver a prepared radio speech telling his people to fight the Dutch with "every mental and physical force." The text declared Holland could never "smash

Rhodes Delegates Head For Parley

Rhodes, Jan. 12 (AP)—Hope for a top-level Egyptian-Israeli armistice parley were set back today when Egypt notified acting United Nations Mediator Ralph Bunche its delegation is composed of three colonels and a legal adviser.

Bunche had hoped the conference would get under way at a high government level. Thus far, the personnel of the Jewish delegation, also due here today, is not known.

Naming Is Delayed

Both Egypt and Israel were reluctant to reveal the level of their delegation chiefs until they knew at what level the other would approach the meeting. It was reliably reported Egyptian Foreign Minister Dessouki Abaza Pasha would attend if the Israelis sent Foreign Minister Moshe Shertok.

The initial delegations still might be broadened to include officials empowered to sign agreements, such as the Foreign Ministers.

Staff Officers Sent

[Tel Aviv reported the Israeli delegation included general staff officers and representatives of the Israeli Ministry of Foreign Affairs. The delegation, which was not further identified, left for Rhodes in a United Nations plane.]

The fact that the Egyptian representatives arriving today were predominantly military men indicated the Egyptians would insist on settlement of military questions before general armistice terms are taken up.

Withdrawal Seen As Issue

The Egyptians may insist on a complete Jewish withdrawal from the Negeb desert, the scene of the most recent attacks and advances by Israeli forces.

One of the ticklish issues will be the passage of an Egyptian brigade trapped at Faluja since the first Israeli offensive in southern Palestine last October.

The names of the Egyptian delegates, as released by the United Nations, included Col. Mohamed Igrahim Seil el Dine, Col. Mohamed Kamel el Kahman and Col. Humail Sherine. The legal adviser is Dr. Ahmed Mousse.

BURMESE FORCES MOVE AGAINST REBEL BANDS

RANGOON, Burma, Jan. 12 (AP) —Strong naval and military forces moved today against two guerrilla bands on islands off the coast.

Troops and gunboats headed for Bilugyun island, off the Southern coast, which Mon and Karen tribal rebels fighting for independence seized yesterday after a 24 hour battle.

Other troops were sent by the harried government to drive out communist guerrilla forces which were attempting to seize the large island of Ramree, just off Akyab on the West coast.

The government communique said other forces were being deployed to protect coastal islands generally. It reported five federal soldiers killed in two sharp fights yesterday with communists who suffered "heavy casualties."

There is no relationship between the Mon and Karen uprising and the communists' fight, which is intended to overthrow the government.

Burmese Invading Island

Seeking to Recapture Bilugyun From Mon and Karen Tribes

RANGOON, Jan. 12 (AP).—Burmese Army and Navy forces put out from Rangoon today on an expedition to recapture Bilugyun Island off the Burma coast from separatist forces.

The island fell yesterday, it was learned officially, to Mon and Karen rebels after a twenty-four-hour assault. The Mon and Karen tribes demand a separate state.

Widespread violence erupted after Christmas Eve incidents when, Karen spokesmen said, 200 of their members were massacred by government police while attending midnight church services.

tary missions "anywhere in the world."

If the request is granted, it would revive a wartime authority.

Members of the Senate Armed Services Committee, who received Forrestal's views in a report, said the missions would serve to bolster the defenses of democratic countries against the spread of Moscow-dictated communism.

The defense chief made no specific request at this time for arms to re-equip the nations of western Europe, but that is expected to come later in a message from President Truman. Forrestal has declared publicly the United States must supply "a generous measure of equipment" to non-Communist European countries for their "common defense."

SEVERAL NOW OPERATING

American military missions now are operating in Greece, Turkey China and some South American countries. They include officers technicians and experts, but no combat troops.

Forrestal's report noted that permanent legislation exists for sending U. S. military and naval missions to the South American republics and the Philippines, and he wrote:

"Such legislation should be extended to permit such missions to be sent, in the discretion of the President, to countries which request advisory missions to assist them in their military planning.

Under broad, general headings on which details were lacking—Forrestal called for three types of missions:

1. To aid in carrying out American "global interests."

2. General military assistance.

3. An inter-American cooperation plan "which, in effect, would be a military assistance bill for the American republics."

While senators considered this request in a closed-door session, Forrestal's legislative liaison aides were busy on the other side of the Capitol in an hour-long conference with members of the House Armed Services Committee.

GENERAL PROGRAM

Chairman Vinson (D.-Ga.) of the House group said they discussed only "general" legislative matters.

But Vinson told newsmen he will challenge the finality of President Truman's budget recommendations for the three armed services—Army, Navy and Air—in which Mr. Truman proposed a virtually even split of about $4,500,000,000 each out of a total $14,268,000,000 military outlay.

Vinson indicated that committee members, Democrats and Republicans alike, may balk at approving Mr. Truman's proposal for junking or at least curbing the 70-group Air Force program. The President has suggested 48 groups.

Vinson said top men of the services will be called in to make their own bids for funds. He promised that advocates of the 7-group air program will get a full hearing.

Vinson's call for a direct-question examination of military chiefs seemed almost certain to rekindle old fires of controversy. While Congress has insisted upon its right to quiz government witnesses, some high administration officials have politely but firmly kept a tight rein over the utterances of their lieutenants.

Lovett Discloses Demarche Even Before Aqaba Was Reinforced.

APPREHENSIONS OVER TRUCE

Washington Desires Effective Armistice in Palestine—Rhodes Talks Begin.

Washington, Jan. 12 (A. P.). — Under-Secretary of State Lovett said today that the United States had expressed concern to the British Government over troop movements in the Palestine area before British reinforcement of the port of Aqaba.

Lovett told a news conference that any development in Palestine preliminary to the truce talks now opening at Rhodes was a source of apprehension for the United States. American policy, he declared, is directed toward putting across an effective armistice in the Israeli-Arab fighting, the American Government simply trying to exercise a calming influence.

American Appeals.

Lovett said it was for such reasons that the United States, as previously announced, had appealed to Israel, Britain and Egypt to treat the Israeli downing of five British fighter planes on Friday as a regrettable incident only. It was about that time also that the British sent troops to the Transjordan port of Aqaba, on the Red Sea, a move which London described as aimed at preventing any deeper British involvement in the Middle East.

Told that London reports speak of deterioration in Anglo-American relations, Lovett said he did not know what reports the reporter was talking about. When asked if the United States was continuing to try to maintain a common understanding with Britain, he declared that American co-operation with all the countries involved in the Palestine situation had been close and frank, and he could see no reason why it shouldn't continue that way.

British Troop Moves In Egypt Worry U. S.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12 — (AP) The United States displayed official concern today that British troop reenforcements on the borders of Palestine might upset prospects for early peace in Jewish-Arab fighting in the Holy Land.

Undersecretary of State Lovett said that this government's concern had been expressed to the British government before British troops moved into the Trans-Jordan port of Aqaba a few days ago.

Lovett told a news conference he felt the prospects were promising for success in truce talks which were scheduled to open today under United Nations direction at Rhodes.

Rhodes Meeting Opens

Press dispatches from Rhodes said the peace meeting had suffered a setback before it began due to the decision of the Israeli and Egyptian governments not to send top level diplomatic officials to meet with Dr. Ralph Bunche, the U. N. negotiator.

Lovett said he believed the State department was informed by the British before their troops moved into Aqaba. At any rate, he said, American officials felt that any change in the situation in the Palestine area should be carefully considered with a view to determining whether it would upset the Rhodes conference, and the British were told so before their troops landed at Aqaba.

Asked whether he had any comment on London press reports which referred to a deterioration in British-American relations, Lovett said that he did not know what they were talking about. American cooperation with all the countries involved in the Palestine situation has been close and frank, Lovett declared, and he could see no reason why they should not continue that way.

Map Sales To Russ 'Were Approved'

Washington, Jan. 12 (AP)—American maps and charts were sold to a Russian buying agency by the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey only after the armed forces and the State Department gave their approval, a survey official said today.

He so reported in reply to questions about a published report that official United States maps were falling into the hands of the Russians.

The Coast and Geodetic Survey made some sales to the Four Continent Book Corporation, of New York, but, Commander I. E. Rittenburg said, neither those maps nor any others sold by the survey contained information important to national security.

Aerial Views Included

The Four Continent Book Corporation—which has been registered with the Justice Department for over five years as an agent of the Soviet Union—said in New York it has been buying United States maps since 1947 for the Moscow Public Library.

Rittenburg said the survey, a Commerce Department agency, has been selling nonrestricted nautical and aeronautical charts and maps of the United States and its possessions for years as a safeguard to flying and shipping.

Anyone may buy these maps for prices ranging from 5 cents to 75 cents, he said.

Cleared By Air Force

The survey also distributes for the Air Force nonclassified aerial maps of European, Asiatic and other areas, Rittenburg said. These can be obtained with no difficulty by any United States citizen, but sales to any noncitizens are first cleared with the Air Force.

The official said orders from the Russian agency were not large.

While the survey does handle some restricted maps for the Army and Navy, these are not available to anyone else.

Two other Commerce Department agencies—the United States Patent Office and the Office of Technical Services — have occasionally filled Russian orders, but officials have pointed out that American law requires that patents be sold to anyone, without restriction.

U.S. to Bury Mexican G.I., Spurned by Texas Home

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12 (AP).—An American of Mexican ancestry who has been denied reburial facilities in his home town of Three Rivers, Texas, will be buried with full military honors in Arlington National Cemetery.

Senator Lyndon B. Johnson, Democrat, of Texas, said today that he arranged for the reburial after he was advised by the American G-I Forum in Corpus Christi, Texas, that a Three Rivers funeral home had refused to handle the soldier's remains "solely because of his Mexican ancestry." The soldier, Felix Longoria, died in action on Luzon in the Philippines.

The Senator said Dr. Hector Garcia, president of the forum, told him in a telegram that the funeral home refused service because "other white people might object the use of the funeral home by people of Mexican origin."

The Texas Good Neighbor Commission, a state agency, said in Austin that the funeral home director reported he did not refuse to handle the reburial although he did discourage it.

Senator Johnson wired Dr. Garcia that he has arranged for the reburial without cost either in Arlington or, if his family wanted it nearer home, in Fort Sam Houston National Military Cemetery at San Antonio. The body is to arrive by Army transport at San Francisco tomorrow.

U. S. GETS SECRET REPORT ON CHINA

Washington, Jan. 12 (A. P.).—The United States has received a secret communication on the China crisis from the Nationalist government in Nanking, Under-Secretary of State Lovett disclosed today. Lovett told a news conference he could not comment further because the Chinese requested that the contents not be made public.

News reports from Nanking and other points have told of possible efforts by the United States and other Powers to settle the Chinese civil war. Lovett's disclosure was in response to a request for information on the progress of these efforts. He did not confirm that the United States had a hand in any peace negotiations.

San Francisco, Jan 12 (A. P.).—The Communist radio said today that Gen. Tu Li-ming, commander of the East China armies trapped while trying to escape from Suchow, has been captured.

Total of 24 Indicted

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12 (AP).—The Justice Department said today that twenty-four persons have been indicted for treason to the United States in World War II—twelve of them for enemy propaganda broadcasts.

From these indictments, fourteen convictions have been obtained. Two of the accused persons died in Germany, prior to arrest; three cases were dropped for lack of evidence, and other await trial.

One defendant, Ezra Pound, the poet, alleged to have broadcast for the Italian government, is in a mental hospital here following a Federal Court finding that he was incompetent to stand trial.

Out of all the cases tried, one death penalty has been assessed—that against Tomoye Kawakita, a Japanese-American who was charged with operating a wartime factory in Japan and mistreating American prisoners employed there. Tried at Los Angeles, he is now appealing.

Facing trial this month, besides Miss Gillars, is Martin James Monti, former second lieutenant in the Army Air Forces, who is accused of flying an Army plane across the German lines, applying for membership in Hitler's S. S. (Elite Guard) and broadcasting over the Nazi radio. His trial in Brooklyn is scheduled for Jan. 17.

Bikini Fish Life Appears Unchanged By Atomic Blast

JAN 1949

Washington, Jan. 12 (AP)—The Bikini atomic explosion left the fish life in that area "going on essentially as if nothing had happened," a Government scientist said today.

Dr. Leonard P. Schultz, curator of fishes of the United States National Museum, said "the same species of fish and other marine organisms were found in about the same abundance as before. There apeared to be no change in ways of life or any noticeable decline in vigor."

Schultz's views were quoted by the Smithsonian Institution from its annual report.

The scientist said "doubtless many millions of individuals (in the Bikini fish life) were killed, but there was slight, if any, effect on races." However, he added, the effect might be greater on higher forms of animal life—such as man.

He also said that "there may have been profound genetic effects on the surviving organisms. These, however, would not make their appearance for several generations in sufficient degree to be measured."

ARMY DENIES PLAN TO CUT MANPOWER

No Intention of Releasing Draftees to Keep Within Limits, General Says

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12—(AP) The Army today denied a report it is considering release of some draftees on a voluntary basis as a means of staying inside manpower limits.

Maj. Gen. Edwin H. Brooks, director of personnel and administration, said in a statement:

"The report has no basis in fact. No studies of this nature have been made by the Department of the Army.

"The Army's announcement of last Saturday to the effect that the draft calls for February and March have been cancelled has not been amended since then."

The first tip on the reported plan came from an Army officer who asked not to be named. It was checked with an Army public relations officer who was understood to say the idea was one of several under consideration.

After Brooks' denial was issued, the public relations officer said what he had reported was that the voluntary release plan "was a very remote possibility."

The officer who first told of the reported plan said it might be used only if current enlistments remained high. Even in that case, he said, other plans might be used to keep total strength from going over the 677,000 figure established in the President's budget message.

'NO RED,' CLAY'S AIDE SAYS ON RETURN TO U.S.

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, O., Jan. 12 (AP)—The wily red fox was no match for Nancy Adams, 10 years old.

Her mother, Mrs. Michael Adams, told today how a fox jumped out of some bushes and chased Nancy when she was on an errand. When he caught up, the child grabbed the fox by the snout and kept his jaws clamped while shouting for help.

Mrs. Adams was first to the rescue. She kicked at the fox. Then a brother of Nancy killed the animal with a hoe.

SAYS JEWS FLEE AFRICAN GHETTOS

Atlantic City, Jan. 12 (A. P.).—Thousands of Jews living in North African ghettos have begun to migrate to Israel by way of an underground, a United Jewish Appeal official said today.

Dr. Joseph J. Schwartz of New Jork, chairman of the European Executive Council of the joint Distribution Committee, said that the emergency phase of relief work for Europe's Jews is practically completed and that relief emphasis now should be placed on alleviating living conditions for Jews in Morocco, Algiers and Tunisia.

"In North Africa hundreds of thousands of Jewish men, women and children live amidst hunger, tuberculosis, trachoma, favus, illiteracy and idleness."

He reported there are only 120,000 Jews left in European displaced persons camps and that they are leaving at the rate of 7,000 a month.

"If we can maintain this rate, we can empty the camps for all practical purposes within a year or less," Schwartz said.

SECOND LEAD PALESTINE (220)
BY ALEX H.SINGLETON JAN 1949

LONDON, JAN. 12-(AP)-FOREIGN SECRETARY BEVIN APPARENTLY WON FROM THE FULL BRITISH CABINET TODAY APPROVAL FOR HIS GET-TOUGH POLICY AGAINST ISRAEL.

A HIGH GOVERNMENT SOURCE REPORTED THERE WOULD BE NO CHANGE IN BRITISH MIDDLE EAST POLICIES. HE SAID BEVIN WILL GIVE PARLIAMENT AN ACCOUNT OF AFFAIRS THERE SOON AFTER IT CONVENES TUESDAY.

BEVIN GAVE THE CABINET A REPORT ON THE MID-EAST CRISIS, WHICH THE FOREIGN OFFICE CALLS A GRAVE THREAT TO PEACE. THE CABINET MET FOR FOUR HOURS AT 10 DOWNING STREET, PRIME MINISTER ATTLEE'S RESIDENCE.

THE REPORT INCLUDED THE REASONS BEHIND THE DECISIONS TO ESTABLISH RAF PATROLS ALONG THE EGYPTIAN-PALESTINE BORDER. IT WAS NEAR THERE THAT FIVE RAF PLANES WERE SHOT DOWN BY ISRAEL LAST FRIDAY. THE BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE AND AIR MINISTRY HAVE CALLED THE ATTACKS "UNPROVOKED."

ISRAEL FILED A COMPLAINT AGAINST BRITAIN YESTERDAY WITH THE UNITED NATIONS AT LAKE SUCCESS, BUT SECRETARY GENERAL TRYGVE LIE IS UNDERSTOOD TO HAVE URGED THE ISRAELIS NOT TO PRESS THEIR CHARGES. IN ITS LETTER TO THE U.N. ISRAEL ACCUSED BRITAIN OF VIOLATING THE PALESTINE FRONTIER BY SENDING OVER THE BRITISH PLANES.

THIS CHARGE HAD BEEN DENIED EARLIER BY BRITISH AUTHORITIES, BUT ONE OF THE BRITISH FLIERS SHOT DOWN BY ISRAEL GUNNERS CONFIRMED TODAY IN ISRAEL THAT HE WAS FLYING OVER ISRAELI TERRITORY.

LIE SAID AT LAKE SUCCESS THAT HE IS COUNTING ON ARMISTICE NEGOTIATIONS STARTING THIS WEEK ON RHODES.

DEBATE MAY ALSO SPRING UP WITHIN THE LABOR PARTY. RICHARD CROSSMAN, A LEFTIST MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT WHO HAS JUST COMPLETED AN INSPECTION TOUR OF PALESTINE AS THE GUEST OF JEWISH AUTHORITIES, MAY LEAD THIS OPPOSITION INSIDE THE PARTY.

THE FOREIGN OFFICE DENIED AN ISRAELI CHARGE THAT BRITAIN HAS BEEN SENDING A FLOW OF MILITARY SUPPLIES TO ARAB STATES IN VIOLATION OF A U.N. EMBARGO.

"IF THERE IS A THREAT TO PEACE" IN PALESTINE IT COMES "FROM THE PERSISTENT VIOLATION OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL'S TRUCE BY ISRAEL," SAID THE FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN. HE SAID THE JEWS THEMSELVES HAD BROKEN THE EMBARGO BY IMPORTING A LARGE AMOUNT OF WAR MATERIEL FROM CZECHOSLOVAKIA AND EASTERN EUROPE.

THE CHANGE WAS ASKED BY THE GENERAL CONGRESS OF THE ROMANIAN WORKERS (COMMUNIST) PARTY IN FEBRUARY, 1948. THE BILL WAS INTRODUCED BY TEOHARI GEORGESCU, COMMUNIST MINISTER OF THE INTERIOR.

UNDER THE LAW, LOCAL POWER IS TRANSMITTED FROM VILLAGE LOCAL COUNCILS UPWARD THROUGH DISTRICTS AND COUNTIES, WITH THE GRAND NATIONAL ASSEMBLY SUPREME.

EACH COUNCIL IS SUBORDINATED TO THE POWER OF ITS SUPERIOR COUNCIL ON THE PRINCIPLE THAT THE LATTER DRAWS ITS POWER FROM LARGE MASSES.

ALL COUNCILS ARE ELECTED BY SECRET, DIRECT BALLOT.

Bucharest, Romania, Jan. 12-(ap)-Scanteia, official newspaper of the romanian workers party, said in an editorial today israel owes her independence to "the firm and decisive support of the soviet union and the popular democracies in the united nations."

("popular democracy" is the term used for communist governments east of the iron curtain.)

the editorial told israel her future lies in her working masses and the communist party. it added:

"In the struggle to defend the independence of the national sovereignty against the aggressive policies of enslavement which are carried out by british-american imperialist policy, israel is assured of the powerful support of the soviet union and the countries of the popular democracies."

the appearance of the editorial coincided with the presentation of his accreditation by israel's minister to romania, I. rubin.

SOFIA, BELGRADE, JAN.12-(AP)-A GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN SAID TODAY THE ARMY HAS DETAINED SOME EVANGELICAL MINISTERS.

THE ARRESTS, HE ASSERTED, WERE "NOT IN CONNECTION WITH THEIR RELIGIOUS ACTIVITY BUT FOR INFRINGEMENT OF OTHER LAWS." THE SPOKESMAN DID NOT SAY WHAT LAWS WERE BROKEN OR HOW MANY CHURCHMEN WERE HELD.

HE INSISTED THAT "THERE IS COMPLETE RELIGIOUS TOLERANCE WHICH IS A FUNDAMENTAL QUESTION INCORPORATED IN OUR CONSTITUTION." THE SPOKESMAN SAID THE EVANGELICAL CHURCHES IN (COMMUNIST) BULGARIA ARE CARRYING ON FREELY THEIR SERVICES. YY1

BUDAPEST, HUNGARY, JAN.12-(AP)-ROMAN CATHOLIC BISHOPS OF HUNGARY HAVE INFORMED THE GOVERNMENT THEY CANNOT CONTINUE NEGOTIATIONS TO RECONCILE CHURCH AND STATE DIFFERENCES, A HIGH GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL SAID TODAY.

THIS OFFICIAL SAID THE BISHOPS MADE THEIR STAND KNOWN IN A LETTER TO PREMIER ISTVAN DOBI. THE LETTER WAS NOT MADE PUBLIC.

OBSERVERS SAID THERE IS LITTLE DOUBT THAT THE BISHOPS ACTED ON INSTRUCTIONS FROM THE VATICAN.

THE VATICAN MORE THAN A WEEK AGO REJECTED A HUNGARIAN OFFER TO NEGOTIATE WITH THE COMMUNIST-CONTROLLED GOVERNMENT. IT SAID THEN THAT HUNGARIAN EXPRESSIONS OF DESIRE FOR AN ACCORD WITH THE HOLY SEE CONTRADICTED THE GOVERNMENT'S ACTION IN JAILING JOSEF CARDINAL MINDSZENTY, CATHOLIC PRIMATE OF HUNGARY.

THE CARDINAL WAS JAILED SEVERAL WEEKS AGO ON CHARGES OF PLOTTING AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT AND BLACK MARKET CURRENCY DEALINGS. HE HAS BEEN HELD INCOMMUNICADO SINCE. OTHER CHURCH LEADERS ALSO WERE ARRESTED.

THE VATICAN DEMANDED THAT MINDSZENTY BE RELEASED BEFORE ANY NEGOTIATIONS STARTED.

TALKS BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT AND BISHOPS ORIGINALLY WERE SCHEDULED TO BEGIN LAST WEEK.

BULLETIN
SHANGHAI, THURSDAY, JAN 13-(AP)-AP CORRESPONDENT SPENCER MOOSA
HINTED BROADLY TODAY IN A CENSORED DISPATCH THAT PEIPING
-- ANCIENT CAPITAL IN NORTH CHINA -- IS UNDER COMMUNIST SHELLFIRE.
THWARTED BY CENSORS IN WHAT APPEARED TO BE REPEATED EFFORTS TO GET OUT A STRAIGHTFORWARD DISPATCH, MOOSA FILED THE FOLLOWING MESSAGE:
"NEW, SUDDEN GRIMNESS DEVELOPED AT PEIPING, NOW IN ITS 30TH DAY
OF SIEGE, BUT THE FORM IT TOOK CANNOT BE DIVULGED. THE CENSOR IS OBDURATE. EVERY ARGUMENT IS USELESS. HE IS CONVINCED THAT THE FACTS HE IS TRYING TO CONCEAL FROM THE OUTSIDE WORLD WILL SOONER OR LATER LEAK OUT, AND MOST PROBABLY BE MUCH MAGNIFIED.

"LET THE CENSOR EXPLAIN WHY YOU CANNOT SAY A SHELL EXPLODED ABOUT 100 FEET FROM THE OFFICE WHERE TWO AMERICANS WERE WORKING, JAMES D. VAN PUTTEN OF CARLINVILLE,ILL., AND RICHARD MCCARTHY OF WEBSTER CITY, IOWA."

"LET HIM EXPLAIN WHY YOU CANNOT SAY OTHER SHELLS EXPLODED. LET HIM LOOK AT THE MESSAGES HE HAD BLUE PENCILLED WHEN HE READS ACCOUNTS IN THE SHANGHAI PRESS OF EXPERIENCES OF A PLANE-LOAD OF PASSENGERS FROM PEIPING AND THEIR PILOTS, JOHN BUTLER, LONGVIEW, WASH., AND RALPH JOHNSON OF WILMETTE, ILL.

"WHEN HE READS THEIR STORIES, LET HIM REPENT AND RELENT.

"LET HIM WEEP INTO HIS BEER OR HIS TEA, WHATEVER HE DRINKS, FOR THE EXASPERATION AND HEARTBREAK HE CAUSES CORRESPONDENTS.

"THEY EXPLODE TOO, JUST AS SHELLS DO, BUT THEIR IS PATHETIC WRATH BECAUSE ALL ITS FURY CANNOT MOVE A CENSOR AS A SHELL COULD."

JAN 1949

A2KX (WEST OUT)

(MOOSA'S DISPATCH IS PERHAPS THE MOST EXTRAORDINARY OF A NUMBER OF SHREWD ONES HE HAS SENT DURING THE CHINESE CIVIL WAR. HE HAD REPEATEDLY SUCCEEDED IN CIRCUMVENTING CENSORSHIP BY CLEVERLY FRAMING THE WORDING OF HIS DISPATCHES.

"FINALLY, LET THE CENSOR ANSWER THIS QUESTION," MOOSA'S CABLE CONTINUED. "IF THE REDS SHELL A CITY, DO THEY OR DON'T THEY KNOW IT?

"AND IF YOU SAY THEY HAVE DONE SO, WHAT INFORMATION ARE YOU GIVING THEM THEY DON'T ALREADY POSSESS?"

EFFORTS TO LOCATE THE TWO PILOTS MOOSA MENTIONED WERE UNSUCCESSFUL IN SHANGHAI UP UNTIL MIDDAY. IT IS PRESUMED THE PLANE MAY HAVE GONE TO TSINGTAO, WHERE A CHECK ALSO IS BEING MADE.

THE VAN PUTTEN MENTIONED IN THE DISPATCH IS A UNITED STATES INFORMATION SERVICE REPRESENTATIVE. THE U.S.I.S. OFFICE IN PEIPING IS NEAR THE TEHSHENGMEN GATE OF VICTORIOUS PEACE, WHERE THE ATTACK TOOK PLACE.

CHINA (SUBS FOR NANKING IN BUDGET)

BY SPENCER MOOSA

JAN 1949

PEIPING, JAN. 12-(AP)-TRUSTWORTHY REPORTS FROM TIENTSIN TODAY SAID COMMUNIST BESIEGERS HAD REFUSED TO DISCUSS A COMPROMISE AND DEMANDED COMPLETE SURRENDER OF THE NORTH CHINA INDUSTRIAL CITY.

(EARLIER REPORTS FROM NANKING SAID OFFICIAL QUARTERS IN THE CAPITAL HAD WRITTEN OFF TIENTSIN AS LOST.

THE TIENTSIN SOURCES SAID FOUR MEMBERS OF THE CITY COUNCIL ASKED THE REDS FOR A CEASE FIRE ORDER. THE COMMUNISTS SENT THEM BACK WITH A DEMAND FOR COMPLETE SURRENDER OF NATIONALIST FORCES IN THE TIENTSIN AREA, THESE SOURCES SAID.

THE RED ULTIMATUM REPORTEDLY INDICATED THEY WERE NOT DISPOSED TO BARGAIN, AND WANTED A CLEAR CUT "YES" OR "NO" FROM THE NATIONALIST FORCES WITHIN 24 HOURS.

OTHER REPORTS HERE SAID THE REDS SHELLED THE CITY TUESDAY NIGHT, AFTER THE SURRENDER ULTIMATUM WAS GIVEN, AND "QUITE A FEW CASUALTIES" RESULTED. NO ESTIMATE WAS GIVEN ON THE NUMBER.

THE SHELLING SUGGESTED TO OBSERVERS HERE, 90 MI

ES NORTHWEST OF TIENTSIN, THAT THE COMMUNISTS FOUND THE NATIONALISTS' REACTION TO THEIR DEMAND UNSATISFACTORY.

IT WAS PRESUMED THAT THE TIENTSIN COUNCIL DELEGATES ON A REPORTED SECOND TRIP INTO COMMUNIST TERRITORY TRIED TO BARGAIN INSTEAD OF AGREEING TO OUTRIGHT SURRENDER OF THE CITY, SWOLLEN BY WAR REFUGEES TO 3,000,000 (M) PERSONS.

ALL INDICATIONS, ACCORDING TO THE BEST INFORMATION HERE, ARE THAT THE COMMUNISTS WILL NOT MODIFY THEIR CONDITIONS -- COMPLETE SURRENDER OF THE CITY AND ITS DEFENDERS.

A45FX

THE PEIPING NEWSPAPER PING MIN JIH PAO, OWNED BY NORTH CHINA NATIONALIST COMMANDER, GEN. FU TSO-YI, SAID THE REDS DURING THE FIRST VISIT OF THE DELEGATES AGREED TO SUSPEND THEIR ATTACKS FOR 24 HOURS STARTING AT 6 P.M. (CHINESE TIME) TUESDAY. IT SAID THAT DESPITE THIS AGREEMENT THE REDS ASSAILED THE NATIONALIST POSITION IN THE WESTERN SUBURBS OF TIENTSIN AND THE FIGHTING LASTED ALL LAST NIGHT.

THE NEWSPAPER QUOTED THE NATIONALIST COMMANDER AT TIENTSIN, GEN. CHEN CHANG-CHIEH, AS SAYING THE RED ATTACKERS WERE WIPED OUT.

THE PEIPING DAILY NEWS SAID THAT CHEN CONFERRED WITH THE FOUR COUNCILMEN BEFORE THEY MADE A SECOND VISIT TO THE COMMUNISTS. THE NEWSPAPER SAID THAT AFTER THE MEETING CHEN TOLD NEWSMEN THERE WAS A 50-50 CHANCE FOR A PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT AT TIENTSIN.

(SHANGHAI REPORTED THAT PRESSURE FOR PEACE WAS MOUNTING IN CHINA BUT THAT THE PRESSURE WAS ON PRESIDENT CHIANG KAI-SHEK AND NOT HIS RED ENEMIES.

(THE PRESSURE TIGHTENED IN THE LAST 24 HOURS AS TIENTSIN GROANED IN A RED NUTCRACKER, SHANGHAI REPORTS SAID.

(SHANGHAI DESCRIBED GEN. FU TSO-YI'S FORCES IN PEIPING AS TIED UP LIKE A PACKAGE IN RED RIBBON. SO FAR, SAID SHANGHAI, FU HAS MADE NO SEPARATE PEACE DEAL WITH THE REDS. THE WORD THERE IS THAT HE HAS WAITED FOR NANKING TO MAKE PEACE BUT IS NOT DISPOSED TO WAIT MUCH LONGER, PARTICULARLY SINCE HE FEE

S THE MILITARY SITUATION IS BEYOND REPAIR.)

PEIPING

BY SPENCER MOOSA

PEIPING, THURSDAY, JAN. 13-(AP)-THE NATIONALISTS PREPARED TODAY TO MEET A POSSIBLE CHINESE COMMUNIST ASSAULT ON PEIPING FROM THE NORTH.

TROOPS POURED IN A CONSTANT STREAM THROUGH TEHSHENGMEN, THE GATE OF "VICTORIOUS PEACE" -- ONE OF TWO OPENINGS IN THE MASSIVE NORTHERN WALL OF THIS ANCIENT CITY.

A VISIT TO THAT AREA SUGGESTED ALL THE POTENTIALITIES OF A LIVE FRONT. THE HOPEI PRISON, ABOUT 100 YARDS FROM THE GATE, HAS BEEN TURNED INTO A FORTRESS.

THE PEOPLE OF PEIPING DO NOT THINK THE CITY WILL BE A BATTLEFIELD, BUT THE REDS APPEAR TO BE GETTING TIRED OF FU TSO-YI'S STALLING. IT IS CONSIDERED POSSIBLE THAT, ONCE THEY TAKE TIENTSIN, THEY MIGHT GIVE HIM AN ULTIMATUM TO SURRENDER WITH A CLEAR TIME LIMIT.

(GEN. FU TSO-YI, THE GOVERNMENT'S NORTH CHINA COMMANDER WITH HEADQUARTERS IN PEIPING, HAS FOR WEEKS BEEN REPORTED DICKERING WITH THE COMMUNISTS. MOOSA REPORTED PREVIOUSLY THAT FU WAS EXPECTED TO ISSUE A PROCLAMATION "CHANGING THE COLOR" OF THE MAP IN THAT PART OF THE WORLD).

A RECENT BROADCAST, DIRECTED TO FU BY LIN PIAO--THE RED COMMANDER --DEMANDED HIS SURRENDER, BUT SET NO DEADLINE.
THE REDS COULD SHELL ANY PART OF PEIPING, BUT THEY HAVE REFRAINED.
NANKING CONTINUES ITS PRESSURE ON FU NOT TO MAKE A SEPARATE PEACE. THE LATEST EMISSARY HERE IS THE FORMER MAYOR OF PEIPING, HO SZE-YUAN, WHO WAS GOVERNOR OF SHANTUNG PROVINCE DURING THE SINO-JAPANESE WAR. HO WAS REPORTED TO HAVE COME TO PEIPING IN BEHALF OF VICE PRESIDENT LI SUNG-JEN.
MEANWHILE, BRITISH CONSUL MARTIN BUXTON WARNED HIS COUNTRYMEN AGAINST MAKING FURTHER TRIPS BETWEEN PEIPING AND THE COMMUNIST-HELD UNIVERSITY DISTRICT ON THE NORTHWESTERN SUBURBS. JAN 1949
BUXTON SAID THERE IS "INCREASING DANGER."
FJ1031PCS

(MOOSA MESSAGED SHANGHAI ALSO THAT "CENSORSHIP COMPLETELY BLOTTED OUT IMPORTANT DEVELOPMENTS OF PEIPING, GOING FAR BEYOND THE NEEDS OF SECURITY."
(GEN. FU TSO-YI IS THE GOVERNMENT'S NORTH CHINA COMMANDER, WITH HEADQUARTERS IN PEIPING.)
(MOOSA REPORTED EARLIER THAT TRUSTWORTHY REPORTS HAD IT THAT THE REDS REFUSED TOCOMPROMISE ON THE SURRENDER OF TIENTSIN).

REPORTS REACHING NANKING BY RADIO FROM TIENTSIN SAID THE COMMUNISTS SENT THESE TERMS INTO THE CITY:
ALL TROOPS TO DOWN ARMS; ALL MILITARY SUPPLIES AND EQUIPMENT TO BE PROTECTED AND TURNED OVER TO THE REDS; ALL SOLDIERS TO BE PROTECTED IF THEY OBEY THESE TERMS.
IN REPLY, THE GARRISON OF 60,000 MEN IS SAID TO HAVE AGREED TO GIVE UP THE CITY IF THE REDS WOULD LET IT KEEP ITS SMALL ARMS AND SAIL BACK TO NATIONALIST CHINA FROM THE NEARBY PORT OF TANGKU.
(MOOSA SAID THE NEGOTIATIONS WERE BEING CARRIED ON BY FOUR TIENTSIN CITY COUNCILMEN. THESE COUNCILMEN IN TURN CONSULTED WITH GEN.CHEN CHANG-CHIEH, TIENTSIN GARRISON COMMANDER.
(GENERAL CHEN WAS QUOTED IN THE PEIPING DAILY NEWS AS TELLING TIENTSIN REPORTERS THERE WAS A 50-50 CHANCE FOR A PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT.
(MOOSA REPORTED THAT "ALL INDICATIONS ARE THE REDS WON'T MODIFY THEIR STAND." HE SAID THE NEXT 48 HOURS "ARE EXPECTED TO BE DECISIVE.")
IF THE TIENTSIN EXPERIMENT IS A SUCCESS, OTHER REGIONS MAY SEEK A SIMILAR SOLUTION.
IN THE PAST MONTH THE POSSIBILITY OF ENDING THE WAR HAS DEPENDED MAINLY ON PRESIDENT CHIANG KAI-SHEK. NOW THE CONTINUED LOYALTY TO CHIANG OF HIS SUBORDINATES MAY BE THE FACTOR.
GEN.FU TSO-YI, THE NORTH CHINA COMMANDER STATIONED AT PEIPING, ONLY 90 MILES FROM TIENTSIN, OFTEN HAS BEEN REPORTED SEALING WITH THE REDS.
THERE ARE SEVEN STRONGER INDICATIONS THAT GEN.PAI CHUNG-HSI, THE CENTRAL CHINA COMMANDER AT HANKOW, IS URGING PEACE THROUGH NEGOTIATIONS.
FORMER PREMIER CHANG CHUN HAS JUST RETURNED FROM HANKOW WITH PAI'S ANSWER TO CHIANG'S PLEA FOR UNITY.
THE NEWSPAPER TA KANG PAO INDICATES CHANG'S MISSION WAS NOT TO SUCCESSFUL. WITHOUT INDICATING THE SOURCE IT SAYS CHANG WILL MAKE ANOTHER VISIT TO HANKOW TO TRY TO PERSUADE PAI TO REMAIN LOYAL TO THE PRESIDENT.
JAN 1949
A2KX
(PAI IS AN OLD FRIEND OF VICE PRESIDENT LI TSUNG-GEN, OFTEN MENTIONED AS THE MAN TO TAKE OVER AND TRY TO NEGOTIATE A PEACE SHOULD CHIANG RESIGN.)
ON HIS FIRST VISIT, THE FORMER PREMIER ALSO CARRIED THE SAME UNITY MESSAGE TO GEN.CHENG CHIAN, GOVERNOR OF HUNAN PROVINCE WITH HEADQUARTERS AT CHANGSHA, SOUTH OF HANKOW. GENERAL CHENG IS ANOTHER WHO IS BELIEVED TO BE GETTING RESTLESS.
THERE WAS A POSSIBILITY THE NATIONAL LEGISLATURE WOULD BE CALLED INTO SESSION TO CONSIDER A PUSH FOR PEACE ON ITS OWN.
CHANG CHIEN-HUA, LEGISLATOR FROM MANCHURIA, SAID HE IS CONFIDENT THE NECESSARY ONE-FOURTH OF THE LAWMAKERS WILL APPROVE THE CALLING OF THE YUAN AT AN INFORMAL MEETING FRIDAY. HE HEADS THE "PEOPLES PEACE MOVEMENT" IN NANKING.
IT SEEMS APPARENT THE UNITED STATES, FRANCE, BRITAIN AND RUSSIA WILL SHY AWAY FROM FOREIGN MINISTER WU TE-CHEN'S REQUEST FOR HELP IN BRINGING THE NATIONALISTS AND COMMUNISTS TOGETHER. WU REPORTEDLY TOLD THE CABINET HE STILL IS AWAITING A REPLY FROM THE BIG FOUR.

TIENTSIN,CHINA,THURSDAY,JAN.13-(AP)-HEAVY ARTILLERY AND MACHINEGUN FIRE MARKED THE FIGHTING FOR THIS BIG NORTH CHINA INDUSTRIAL CITY WEDNESDAY NIGHT IN ITS WEST, SOUTHWEST AND NORTHWEST SUBURBS.
GOVERNMENT BOMBERS WERE OVER CHINESE COMMUNIST POSITIONS ON THE WESTERN OUTSKIRTS,USING FLARES TO SPOT RED POSITIONS IN THE DARKNESS.
LARGE SHELLS FROM THE PALITAI SECTION PUMPED INTO THE WEST PORTION OF THE CITY. LIU PU-CHI, CHIEF ENGINEER OF THE TIENTSIN WATERWORKS, REPORTED A WATER MAIN WAS BROKEN BY SHELLFIRE AT NANTATAO, OUTSIDE THE CHIEHYUAN PUMPING STATION.
(THIS DISPATCH, RELAYED BY SHANGHAI,WAS THE FIRST RECEIVED DIRECTLY FROM BESIEGED TIENTSIN SINCE THE REDS DREW A RING OF STEEL AROUND THE CITY SEVERAL WEEKS AGO. IN NANKING, IT WAS REPORTED THE TIENTSIN GARRISON HAD REJECTED RED SURRENDER TERMS.)
THE ENGINEER REPORTED THE HSIHO PUMPING STATION,TWO MILES OUTSIDE TIENTSIN'S DEFENSES, STOPPED WORKING ALTHOUGH WORKERS THERE HAVE STUCK TO THEIR POSTS UNDER FIRE SINCE JAN.4.

I VISITED THE CHIEHYUEN PUMPING STATION, DODGING SHELLS AS I WENT. I NOTED SHELL HOLES IN THE TEMPLE OF "A THOUSAND BUDDHAS" AND THAT BUDDHA ITSELF WAS TOPPLED OVER.

REFUGEES CONTINUE TO CONGEST ROADS LEADING INTO TIENTSIN.

ELECTRICITY IS BEING MAINTAINED, EXCEPT IN SECTIONS WHERE SOME POWER LINES HAVE BEEN KNOCKED DOWN BY PLANES AIR-DROPPING SUPPLIES TO NATIONALIST ARMIES.

GOVERNMENT PLANES PARACHUTED SUPPLIES INTO MINYUAN FIELD. SOME NEARBY HOMES WERE DAMAGED BY THE DROPS AND SOME PEDESTRIANS WERE HURT.

SMALL CEMETERIES ARE BEGINNING TO APPEAR IN TIENTSIN VACANT LOTS. (MISS CHANG, APPARENTLY UNABLE TO MENTION SHELLING CASUALTIES BECAUSE OF CENSORSHIP, THIS IMPLIES CIVILIAN LOSSES IN THE SIEGE.)

AN EMERGENCY CURFEW WAS PUT INTO EFFECT AT 3 P.M., WEDNESDAY.

JAN 1949

RHODES, JAN. 12-(AP)-THE PRELIMINARIES TO DIRECT ISRAELI-EGYPTIAN TALKS AIMED AT A SEPARATE ARMISTICE AND PERHAPS A HOLY LAND PEACE GOT UNDER WAY ON THIS GREEK ISLAND TODAY.

THE HOPES OF DR.RALPH BUNCHE, ACTING U.N.MEDIATOR, OF EMBARKING ON THE FORMAL NEGOTIATIONS WENT AWRY WHEN EACH SIDE APPARENTLY STALLED IN AN EFFORT TO LEARN THE RANK OF ITS OPPONENT'S DELEGATES BEFORE SENDING ITS OWN.

THS ISRAELI DELEGATION SHOWED UP LATE THIS EVENING WITH ITS SECOND HIGHEST RANKING FOREIGN SERVICE OFFICIAL WHO DIPLOMATICALLY

OUT-RANKS THE PREDOMINANTLY MILITARY REPRESENTATION SENT BY EGYPT.
BUNCHE LOST NO TIME GETTING THE MACHINERY IN MOTION. TWO HOURS AFTER THE EGYPTIANS GOT ON THE SCENE EARLY IN THE AFTERNOON HE HELD HIS FIRST CONFERENCE WITH THEM. HE SCHEDULED A SIMILAR MEETING WITH THE JEWS ALMOST AS SOON AS THEY ARRIVED. HE TOLD THE ISRAELI DELEGATION THE FIRST FORMAL GET-TOGETHER WOULD BE TOMORROW AT 11 A.M.

AT THAT TIME IT WAS NOT DETERMINED, HOWEVER, WHETHER THE EGYPTIANS WOULD ACTUALLY SIT FACE TO FACE WITH THE JEWS FOR THE FIRST TIME.

ISRAEL'S DELEGATION IS HEADED BY WALTER EYTAN, DIRECTOR GENERAL OF THE FOREIGN MINISTRY. OTHER DIPLOMATIC REPRESENTATIVES INCLUDED ELIAS SASSON, SENIOR OFFICIAL OF THE MINISTRY'S MIDDLE EAST DEPARTMENT. DR.REUVEN SHILOAH, ISRAELI REPRESENTATIVE AT HAIFA, AND SHAVAN ROSEN, FOREIGN OFFICE LEGAL ADVISOR.

IN ADDITION, COL.YEGAL YADIN, IS RAELI CHIEF OF STAFF WHO CONCEIVED AND DIRECTED RECENT JEWISH VICTORIES OVER EGYPTIAN FORCES IN THE NEGEV DESERT, HEADED FOUR MILITARY REPRESENTATIVES.

THE EGYPTIAN DELEGATION OF THREE FOREIGN OFFICE OFFICIALS AND THREE COLONES WAS HEADED BY COL.MOHAMED IBRAHIM SEIF EDDINE, EGYPTIAN CHIEF OF STAFF. OTHERS INCLUDED COL.MOHAMED KAMEL EL KAHMAN, COL. HUMAIL SHERINE, AND DR.AHMED MOUSSE, LEGAL ADVISER.

SOME OBSERVERS SAID BOTH DELEGATIONS MIGHT BE EXPANDED LATER BY THE ARRIVAL OF HIGHER OFFICIALS.

JAN 1949

THE MILITARY CHARACTER OF THE EGYPTIAN DELEGATION SUGGESTED THAT THE EGYPTIANS INTENDED TO INSIST ON SETTLEMENT FIRST OF MILITARY QUESTIONS SUCH AS JEWISH WITHDRAWAL FROM NEGEV DESERT AREAS AND LIFTING OF THE SIEGE OF THE EGYPTIAN BRIGADE AT FALUJA.

THE EGYPTIANS WERE ACCOMPANIED BY PABLO AZCARATE, SPANISH DIPLOMAT AND U.N.REPRESENTATIVE IN CAIRO, HENRI VIGIER, FRENCH REPRESENTATIVE OF THE MEDIATOR AT TEL AVIV, ALSO IS PRESENT FOR THE NEGOTIATIONS, ALONG WITH U.S.BRIG.GEN.WILLIAM E.RILEY, CHIEF OF THE U.N.OBSERVERS STAFF.

AUJA, EGYPT-ISRAEL FRONTIER, JAN 12-(AP)-A FEW NEWSMEN WERE SHOWN FOR THE FIRST TIME YESTERDAY AN ALMOST FORGOTTEN ROMAN ROAD WHICH TWO WEEKS AGO LED THE ISRAELI ARMY TO A DESERT VICTORY.

THE OPERATION "ROMAN ROAD" MADE POSSIBLE A HUGE PINCERS MOVEMENT OUTFLANKING EGYPTIAN FORCES STATIONED AT BIR ASLUJ AND EAST OF IT.

THE ROAD IS IN FULL SIGHT OF MOUNT SINAI WHERE THE JEWISH LAW WAS GIVEN 3500 YEARS AGO. IT STARTS NEAR BEERSHEBA AND CONTINUES TO THE EGYPTIAN FRONTIER WHERE ISRAEL AND EGYPTIAN TROOPS NOW FACE EACH OTHER.

IT WAS IN THIS BEERSHEBA REGION THAT LARGE UNITS OF ISRAEL'S ARMY CONCENTRATED CHRISTMAS NIGHT. ENDLESS COLUMNS OF TROOPS, CARRIERS, ARMORED CARS AND TANKS PUSHED FORWARD TO AN UNNAMED AIRFIELD ABOUT 50 MILES SOUTHWEST OF AUJA, THE JEWISH FRONTIER POST.

THE OUTFLANKING MOVEMENT WAS COMPLETELY SUCCESSFUL, ISRAELI ARMY MEN SAID. MANY EGYPTIANS WERE CAPTURED IN THE MOONLESS NIGHT. BIR ASLUJ HAS BEEN DESTROYED DURING THE LONG NEGEV WAR. IT CHANGED HANDS REPEATEDLY. ONLY THE MOSLEM MOSQUE REMAINS.

TODAY THE FIRST CLASS MACADAM HIGHWAY BETWEEN BEERSHEBA AND AUJA--WELL KNOWN TO CAIRO-JERUSALEM MOTOR TRAVELLERS--IS UNDER JEWISH CONTROL. THE OLD ROMAN ROAD, HAVING SERVED ITS PURPOSE, HAS SUNK BACK INTO HISTORY ONCE MORE.

(panama, panama) jan. 11--(ap)-- president domingo diaz today endorsed statements made in the national assembly that the republic of panama is ready to cooperate with the united states on panama canal defense bases.

u.s. troops were pulled out of panama wartime bases a year ago because of panamanian objections.

diaz indicated the negotiations on defense bases might follow after a civil aviation agreement now being discussed between the two countries is settled.

there was no hint in the president's statement at a news conference, however, regarding which nation would take the first step.

both the united states and panama have held it is up to the other to take the initiative in negotiations since defense talks broke off early last year.

JAN 1949

diaz said the panamanian government believes a settlement can be reached satisfactory to both countries on canal zone defense.

majority and minority members of the national assembly said earlier this week the nation is ready to cooperate with the united states on these defense questions.

TREASON CHARGE

BY JACK ADAMS

(ADVANCE FOR USE AT 7 A.M. EASTERN STANDARD TIME TODAY, WEDNESDAY JAN. 12)

(ADVANCE)-WASHINGTON,JAN.12-(AP)-THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT TODAY ANNOUNCED THE ARREST IN GERMANY OF A FORMER STATE DEPARTMENT EMPLOYE ACCUSED OF TREASONOUS WARTIME COLLABORATION WITH THE NAZIS.

HE IS HERBERT JOHN BURGMAN, 52, A NATIVE OF HOKAH,MINN., WHO WORKED FOR 20 YEARS IN THE U.S. EMBASSY IN BERLIN AS A CLERK AND ECONOMIC STATISTICIAN.

THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT SAID THAT WHEN THE UNITED STATES WENT TO WAR WITH GERMANY IN 1941, BURGMAN REFUSED THE OPPORTUNITY TO BE REPATRIATED TO THIS COUNTRY AND TOOK A JOB WITH THE GERMAN SHORT-WAVE RADIO, BROADCASTING IN ENGLISH TO AMERICAN ARMED FORCES.

DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS SAID THAT SINCE THE WAR, HE HAS SHIFTED FROM ONE JOB TO ANOTHER IN POSTWAR GERMANY. UNDER SURVEILLANCE FOR SOME TIME WHILE HIS CASE WAS BEING INVESTIGATED, HE HAS NOW BEEN PICKED UP BY AMERICAN OCCUPATION FORCES. THE DEPARTMENT PLANS TO FLY HIM BACK TO THIS COUNTRY LATER THIS MONTH WHEN A TREASON CHARGE AGAINST HIM WILL BE PRESENTED TO A GRAND JURY AT HIS POINT OF LANDING.

THERE ARE ABOUT A SCORE OF STILL-CONTINUING INVESTIGATIONS INTO ALLEGED TREASONOUS BROADCASTING FOR THE ENEMY BY AMERICANS DURING THE WAR.

TO DATE, 24 PERSONS HAVE BEEN INDICTED FOR TREASON TO THE U.S. IN WORLD WAR II--12 OF THEM FOR ENEMY PROPAGANDA BROADCASTS.

FROM THESE INDICTMENTS, 14 CONVICTIONS HAVE BEEN OBTAINED. TWO OF THE ACCUSED PERSONS DIED IN GERMANY, PRIOR TO ARREST; THREE CASES WERE DROPPED FOR LACK OF EVIDENCE, AND OTHERS AWAIT TRIAL. ONE DEFENDANT, EZRA POUND, THE ONE-TIME NOTED POET, ALLEGED TO HAVE BROADCAST FOR THE ITALIAN GOVERNMENT, IS IN A MENTAL HOSPITAL HERE FOLLOWING A FEDERAL COURT FINDING THAT HE WAS INCOMPETENT TO STAND TRIAL.

MARSHALL PLAN

WASHINGTON,JAN. 12-(AP)-EUROPE DEFINITELY EXPECTS AMERICAN AID TO HALT IN MID-1952 ALTHOUGH EUROPE'S TROUBLES THEN WILL BE FAR FROM OVER, ROBERT MARJOLIN, SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE COUNCIL OF MARSHALL PLAN COUNTRIES, SAID TODAY.

A TRADE DEFICIT OF $3,000,000,000 (B) IS IN PROSPECT FOR THE YEAR FOLLOWING, MARJOLIN TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE. BUT ONLY REDOUBLED RECOVERY EFFORTS BY THE 19 COUNTRIES THEMSELVES CAN HELP, HE SAID.

"IT DOESN'T MEAN THAT EUROPE EXPECTS THE UNITED STATES TO PROVIDE ANOTHER $3,000,000,000 (B)," HE SAID.

JAN 1949

A15WX.

LARGER OUTLAYS BY THE UNITED STATES IN THE REMAINING THREE YEARS OF THE MARSHALL PLAN WOULD BE OF LIMITED VALUE BECAUSE WORLD SHORTAGES OF MATERIALS GOVERN THE SPEED WITH WHICH EUROPEAN PRODUCTION CAN BE BOOSTED, SAID MARJOLIN'S COLLEAGUE, SIR EDMUND HALL-PATCH.

"OBVIOUSLY, INSOFAR AS MATERIALS ARE AVAILABLE, THE MORE MONEY YOU HAVE THE MORE QUICKLY YOU CAN GET ON YOUR FEET," SAID SIR EDMUND, WHO IS CHAIRMAN OF COUNCIL'S EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

"BUT THERE IS AN ACUTE LACK OF MANY SUPPLIES THROUGHOUT THE WORLD. SO WHILE MORE (AMERICAN) HELP NOW MIGHT HELP US, THERE IS A DEFINITE LIMITATION OF SUPPLY."

IT IS THE "BASIC ASSUMPTION" OF THE COUNCIL THAT THE FOUR-YEAR RECOVERY PROGRAM WILL END ON SCHEDULE IN MID-1952, MARJOLIN SAID-- "THE ASSUMPTION ON WHICH ALL OUR WORK IS BASED."

BUT THE COUNCIL'S REPORT ISSUED IN PARIS LAST WEEK, WHICH ANALYZES THE RECOVERY PROGRAMS OF THE 19 PARTICIPATING COUNTRIES, INDICATES THAT EUROPEAN EXPORTS WILL FALL $3,000,000,000 (B) SHORT OF IMPORTS IN THE FIRST TWELVEMONTH AFTER AMERICA STEPS OUT.

THIS MEANS THAT UNLESS PROMPT CORRECTIVE STEPS ARE TAKEN, "THE EUROPEAN COUNTRIES WILL BE OBLIGED TO FOREGO $3,000,000,000 (B) IN IMPORTS--OR ABOUT 25 PER CENT OF THE IMPORTS THEY WERE COUNTING ON."

IMPORTS FROM THE NORTH AMERICAN NATIONS WOULD BE EVEN HARDER HIT; THEY MIGHT DROP 40 PER CENT, MARJOLIN SAID. BUT HE POINTED TO A GRAVER RESULT:

"IT WOULD MEAN A COMPLETE DISRUPTION OF THE ECONOMIC SYSTEMS OF EUROPE--A POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC CRISIS."

THE "GREAT EFFORT" ALREADY MADE THEREFORE IS "FAR FROM SUFFICIENT," SAID MARJOLIN, A FRENCHMAN. THESE STEPS MUST BE TAKEN PROMPTLY BY THE COUNTRIES, HE SAID:

1. STABILIZE THEIR CURRENCIES--A "MUST."
2. LOWER PRICES BY INCREASING PRODUCTIVITY, IMPROVING WORLD SALES TECHNIQUES, DEVELOPING AN ADVERTISING SYSTEM
3. CREATE NEW SOURCES OF SUPPLY IN THE COLONIES, SO THEY WILL SHIP MORE GOODS TO COUNTRIES SELLING TO EUROPE. JAN 1949
4. DEVELOP GREATER TRADE WITHIN EUROPE.
5. CUT IMPORTS MORE THAN THEY HAVE SO FAR BEEN REDUCED.

"IF THESE EFFORTS ARE MADE, NORTH AMERICAN EXPORTS (TO EUROPE) IN 1952 MAY BE REDUCED BY 10 OR 15 PERCENT INSTEAD OF PERHAPS 40 PERCENT," MARJOLIN SAID.

"THEY WILL NOT MEAN A CUT IN EUROPEAN STANDARDS OF LIVING, BUT A SLOWER RISE. THEY WILL MAKE IT POSSIBLE FOR EUROPE TO AFFORD AFTER 1952 THE THINGS IT CANNOT AFFORD BEFORE 1952.

"BEING AN INTERNATIONAL OFFICIAL, I CAN SAY THAT IT IS UP TO THE GOVERNMENTS IN EUROPE TO TAKE THESE STEPS THAT ARE NECESSARY."

MARJOLIN, HALL-PATCH AND OTHER OFFICIALS OF THE EUROPEAN COUNCIL ARE IN WASHINGTON AT THE INVITATION OF THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION TO AID ECA IN PREPARING FOR CONGRESS THE SECOND ANNUAL MARSHALL PLAN PROGRAM.

WASHINGTON,JAN. 12-(AP)-THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE WILL GIVE DEAN ACHESON A CHANCE TOMORROW TO STATE PUBLICLY HIS ATTITUDE TOWARD COMMUNIST RUSSIA.
SENATOR GEORGE (D-GA) SAID TODAY THIS IS ONE OF THE REASONS WHY THE COMMITTEE CALLED FOR OPEN HEARINGS ON ACHESON'S NOMINATION TO SUCCEED GEN.GEORGE C.MARSHALL AS SECRETARY OF STATE. GEORGE SAID IT WAS ONLY FAIR TO GIVE ACHESON A CHANCE TO ANSWER "RUMORS AND CHARGES" THAT HE ONCE FAVORED A "SOFT" POLICY TOWARD RUSSIA.
ACHESON WILL BE THE FIRST WITNESS WHEN THE HEARINGS OPEN AT 10:30 A.M. (E.S.T.) IN THE LARGE CAUCUS ROOM OF THE SENATE OFFICE BUILDING.
SENATOR CONNALLY (D-TEX), COMMITTEE CHAIRMAN, SAID HE HAS TWO OTHER WITNESSES WHO WILL TESTIFY. HE DECLINED TO DISCLOSE THEIR NAMES IN ADVANCE BUT IT WAS UNDERSTOOD THAT A.A.BERLE, JR., FORMER STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIAL, WILL BE A WITNESS.
CONNALLY INVITED THE ENTIRE SENATE MEMBERSHIP TO ATTEND THE HEARINGS. BUT HE SAID THEY WILL NOT HAVE THE PRIVILEGE OF QUESTIONING ACHESON EXCEPT THROUGH HIM.
"IF ANYBODY HAS ANY QUESTIONS TO ASK ACHESON," CONNALLY SAID, "I WANT TO KNOW WHAT THEY ARE. WE CAN'T THROW THIS HEARING OPEN TO ALL COMERS."
THE TEXAN INDICATED YESTERDAY THE HEARINGS PROBABLY WILL LAST TWO DAYS, WITH A COMMITTEE REPORT READY FOR SENATE ACTION EARLY NEXT WEEK. HE SAID THE COMMITTEE WILL NOT TAKE UP JAMES E.WEBB'S NOMINATION TO SUCCEED UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE ROBERT LOVETT UNTIL AFTER THE ACHESON HEARINGS ARE CONCLUDED.
PRESIDENT TRUMAN ANNOUNCED THE APPOINTMENTS LAST FRIDAY. ACHESON AND WEBB ARE DUE TO ASSUME THEIR NEW DUTIES JANUARY 20, PROVIDING THEY WIN SENATE APPROVAL AS IS EXPECTED.
GEORGE SAID HE AND OTHER COMMITTEE MEMBERS HAVE RECEIVED LETTERS QUESTIONING ACHESON'S CONFIRMATION BY THE SENATE UNTIL HIS ATTITUDE TOWARD COMMUNISM IS MADE CLEAR.
"I'VE RECEIVED AN AVERAGE OF ABOUT 10 LETTERS A DAY CONCERNING THE ACHESON APPOINTMENT," GEORGE SAID. "THESE LETTERS WERE NOT OPPOSING HIS APPOINTMENT. THE WRITERS WERE SIMPLY DISTURBED ABOUT HIS CONFIRMATION UNTIL HIS VIEWS ARE KNOWN AND APPROVED."

JAN 1949

GEORGE SAID HE UNDERSTANDS SOME SENATORS ALSO WANT TO QUESTION ACHESON ABOUT HIS RELATIONSHIP WITH ALGER HISS, WHO WORKED IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT DURING ACHESON'S PREVIOUS SERVICE THERE.
HISS IS UNDER AN INDICTMENT CHARGING THAT HE FALSELY SWORE HE NEVER GAVE STATE DEPARTMENT SECRETS TO WHITTAKER CHAMBERS, ACKNOWLEDGED FORMER MEMBER OF A SOVIET SPY RING.

ONE COMMITTEE MEMBER SAID:
"BERLE SAID HE MERELY WAS STATING A FACT THAT SUCH A DIVISION OF OPINION EXISTED. BUT HE WAS WILLING TO TESTIFY ON ACHESON'S SIDE IF THE COMMITTEE WISHED."
THERE WERE NO SIGNS OF ANY ORGANIZED REPUBLICAN OPPOSITION TO ACHESON. SENATOR WHERRY (R-NEB), HIS MOST PERSISTENT CRITIC, SAID HE HAD NOT CHANGED HIS VIEWS IN OPPOSITION TO ACHESON. HE ADDED HE WILL DO NOTHING UNTIL THE COMMITTEE HEARING IS ENDED.

(ADVANCE)..CHICAGO, JAN.13-(AP)-UNITED STATES CITIES ARE NOT YET PREPARED TO COPE WITH AN ATOMIC BOMB ATTACK, THREE ATOMIC SCIENTISTS SAID TODAY.

THEY ADDED THAT ATOMIC BOMBS OF THE FUTURE WILL BE BIGGER THAN THOSE OF THE PAST AND THAT RADIOISOTOPES USED AS WEAPONS ARE "AS FRIGHTENING AS BACTERIOLOGICAL WARFARE."

WRITING IN THE JOURNAL OF THE AMERICAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, THE SCIENTISTS SAID:

"AT THIS PARTICULAR MOMENT, IN SPITE OF THE FACT THAT THE ATOMIC BOMB WAS DEVELOPED IN THIS COUNTRY AND THAT GREAT STRIDES HAVE ALREADY BEEN MADE IN TERMS OF BETTER UNDERSTANDING OF THE BIOLOGIC EFFECTS OF RADIATION, WE WOULD HARDLY BE MUCH BETTER OFF TO COPE WITH AN ATOMIC BOMB ATTACK ON ONE OF OUR MAJOR CITIES THAN THE JAPANESE WERE AT NAGASAKI."

THE SCIENTISTS SAID THE GOVERNMENT AND UNIVERSITIES ARE SPENDING MILLIONS OF DOLLARS ON RESEARCH FOR DIAGNOSING, TREATING AND PREVENTING RADIATION INJURY.

ONE OF THE PROBLEMS RAISED BY AN ATOMIC BOMB EXPLOSION, THEY SAID, WOULD BE THAT OF SEPARATING FOR TREATMENT THE THOUSANDS OF INJURED WHO MIGHT RECOVER FROM THOSE WHO WERE INEVITABLY DOOMED BY AN OVERDOSE OF RADIATION.

"IF, IN SUCH AN EMERGENCY STATE, AS PHYSICIANS WE ACCEPT THE CALCULATIONS OF THE PHYSICISTS, HEALTH PHYSICISTS AND OTHER EXPERTS WHO PRESUMABLY WILL BE ON THE SCENE AND ARBITRARILY ACCEPT NO CASUALTIES FROM A CERTAIN DETERMINED AREA OF THE BOMBED CITY, THEN PART OF THIS PROBLEM AT LEAST WILL BE ANSWERED FOR US," THEY SAID.

(THE AMOUNT OF RADIATION A VICTIM HAS ABSORBED CAN BE CALCULATED BY THE DISTANCE OF THE EXPLOSION.)

THEY ESTIMATED ONE THIRD OF A CITY'S POPULATION WOULD BE KILLED IN AN EXPLOSION OR DIE LATER REGARDLESS OF MEDICAL CARE. ANOTHER THIRD WOULD SURVIVE WITH PROPER MEDICAL CARE AND THE REMAINDER PROBABLY WOULD SURVIVE WITHOUT MEDICAL CARE.

TWO SPONSORING STUDENT GROUPS ANNOUNCED CANCELLATION OF THE SCHEDULED TALK AFTER CHANCELLOR ROBERT B.HOUSE ANNOUNCED THAT UNIVERSITY BUILDINGS COULD NOT BE USED FOR SUCH AN ADDRESS.

POINTING OUT THAT GATES IS "ONE OF 12 PERSONS UNDER INDICTMENT IN NEW YORK IN THE U.S. COURT, CHARGED WITH SUBVERSIVE ACTIVITIES,", CHANCELLOR HOUSE BASED HIS DECISION ON A NORTH CAROLINA GENERAL STATUTE WHICH PROHIBITS THE USE OF ANY BUILDING BELONGING TO THE UNIVERSITY FOR ANY OF THE PURPOSES DENOUNCED IN THE STATUTE.

THE STATUTE HOLDS THAT "IT SHALL BE UNLAWFUL FOR ANY PUBLIC BUILDING IN THE STATE, OWNED BY THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA X X X TO BE USED BY ANY PERSON FOR THE PURPOSE OF ADVOCATING ADVISING OR TEACHING A DOCTRINE THAT THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES, THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA OR ANY POLITICAL SUBDIVISION THEREOF SHOULD BE OVERTHROWN BY FORCE, VIOLENCE OR ANY OTHER UNLAWFUL MEANS."

GATES' TWO STREET TALKS, INTERRUPTED FREQUENTLY BY JEERS FROM THE CROWD, WERE DEVOTED CHIEFLY TO THE FACT THAT HE WAS DENIED HIS RIGHTS BY NOT BEING ALLOWED TO DELIVER THE ADDRESS IN MEMORIAL HALL.

UNIVERSITY OFFICIALS ESTIMATED THAT THE CROWD NUMBERED ABOUT 500 PERSONS. NO VIOLENCE WAS REPORTED.

GEORGE V.ALLEN, ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE FOR PUBLIC AFFAIRS, SAID AT A NEWS CONFERENCE THAT THE BROADCASTS REACH MANY RUSSIAN PEOPLE DESPITE THE JAMMING ATTEMPTS.

AMBASSADOR WALTER BEDELL SMITH RECENTLY ESTIMATED THAT "PERHAPS 8,000,000 (M) RUSSIANS HAVE ACCESS TO NEWS FROM THE VOICE OF AMERICA ONE WAY OR ANOTHER," ALLEN SAID.

HE CITED NEWS OF THE LEAP OF MRS.OKSANA KASENKINA FROM THE SOVIET CONSULATE HERE AS AN EXAMPLE OF THE IMPACT OF THE BROADCASTS IN RUSSIA.

A VOICE PROGRAM WAS DEVOTED TO THE JUMP OF THE RUSSIAN TEACHER A HALF HOUR AFTER IT HAPPENED AND "WITHIN THREE HOURS THAT STORY WAS ALL OVER MOSCOW," THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY SAID. "THE ONLY WAY THE RUSSIANS COULD HAVE KNOWN ABOUT IT WAS THROUGH THE VOICE."

ALLEN SAID RUSSIA AND OTHER "IRON CURTAIN" COUNTRIES HAVE NOT MADE IT ILLEGAL TO LISTEN TO THE BROADCASTS BUT THAT REGULATIONS IN SOME SATELLITE STATES ARE SO STRICT THAT LISTENING "IS TANTAMOUNT TO BEING ILLEGAL."

(ADVANCE)-NEW YORK, JAN. 12-(AP)-FREDERICK H.OSBORN, UNITED STATES ATOMIC ENERGY DELEGATE, SAID TONIGHT THE UNITED NATIONS ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION'S PLAN FOR ATOMIC CONTROLS CALLS FOR WORLD COOPERATION RATHER THAN WORLD GOVERNMENT.

OSBORN SAID IN A PREPARED ADDRESS IT IS A FALLACY TO BELIEVE THAT THE EFFORT TO CONTROL ATOMIC ENERGY FOR PEACEFUL PURPOSES ONLY REQUIRES SOME SORT OF WORLD GOVERNMENT OR IS A STEP TO WORLD GOVERNMENT.

HE SPOKE AT THE FIRST OF A SERIES OF PUBLIC LECTURES ON INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS AT NEW YORK UNIVERSITY, SPONSORED BY THE UNIVERSITY'S GRADUATE SCHOOL OF ARTS AND SCIENCE.

OSBORN, UNITED STATES DEPUTY DELEGATE ON THE U.N.ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION, SAID THE CONCEPTION OF THE COMMISSION "IS OF AN INTERNATIONAL AGENCY WHICH WOULD BE, IN EFFECT, A WORLD COOPERATIVE, OF WHICH ALL NATIONS WOULD BE MEMBERS AND FROM WHICH ALL NATIONS WOULD DERIVE THEIR EQUITABLE AND PREDETERMINED PROPORTION OF BENEFIT."

"IT IS A PLAN," HE SAID, "FOR COOPERATION AMONG NATIONAL STATES, NOT FOR COERCION FROM A SUPRA-NATIONAL AUTHORITY."

THE MAJORITY OF THE ATOMIC COMMISSION FAVORS A PLAN FOR AN INTERNATIONAL ATOMIC ENERGY CONTROL COMMISSION WITH FULL POWERS OVER DEVELOPMENT OF ATOMIC ENERGY. THE MAJORITY ALSO OBJECTS TO ANY VETO ON PUNISHMENTS OF VIOLATIONS OF A WORLD ATOMIC CONTROL PACT. RUSSIA AND THE SOVIET UKRAINE OPPOSE THE MAJORITY VIEW, INSISTING THAT THE ATOMIC CONTROL MACHINERY MUST BE WITHIN THE FINAL FRAMEWORK OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL, WHERE THE VETO EXISTS.

OSBORN SAID IT IS POSSIBLE TO DEVELOP AN ATOMIC PLAN WHICH WOULD DO AWAY WITH NATIONAL RIVALRIES IN THAT FIELD. HE SAID 20 OR MORE GOVERNMENTS HAVE SET UP ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSIONS. HE ADDED THAT THESE ACTIVITIES ARE, IN MOST COUNTRIES, AS MUCH RELATED TO THE PREPARATION OF ATOMIC WEAPONS AS TO THE DEVELOPMENT OF ATOMIC POWER. DELEGATES TO THE COMMISSION ARE WORKING IN AN EFFORT TO REMOVE OBSTACLES TO MUTUAL CONFIDENCE, OSBORN SAID.

British, French Open Alliance Conference

London, Jan. 13 (AP)—Britain and France began a conference today on how to achieve western European unity for a stand against Communism.

British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin met with French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman 90 minutes after the latter arrived from Paris. Top aides of both were present.

The North Atlantic alliance proposal undoubtedly is under discussion in this conference, which will last three days. In the background is Sweden's apparent reluctance to enter into a pact with the Western powers and desert her traditional position of neutrality in big-power squabbles.

Sweden's Alternative

Sweden is reported to have offered a Scandinavian alliance to Norway and Denmark as an alternative to links with the western European union.

Denmark, perched on the crest of Europe's heartland between the East and West, is most likely to choose the full military alliance with her Scandinavian neighbors, a Danish Foreign Office spokesman said yesterday.

Norway is under heavy Soviet pressure to avoid involving herself in military commitments with the West. Only yesterday the Literary Gazette, Moscow's journalistic lash, gave Norway another thinly veiled warning on the subject of the North Atlantic alliance. It said the Soviet public could not overlook the attitude of Norwegian Foreign Minister Halvard Lange and others in Norway who strove "to advance the Atlantic war bloc to the northern boundaries of the Soviet Union."

British, French Differ

The differences between Britain and France on the North Atlantic pact center chiefly on the question of which nations should be invited to join.

At the outset, Bevin had advocated developing a sound nucleus of nations for the pact, without broadening the base by inviting other nations. The nations now participating in the negotiations are the United States, Canada, Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

Other Expected Questions

The two Foreign Ministers also are expected to take up the various differences over Gearmany's future, the status of the state of Israel; co-ordination of colonial policies, and aspects of political unity in western Europe.

On the question of Israel, France may urge joint action in following the United States lead by recognizing the new nation. Bevin, however, is likely to call for postponement of any decision on this until the conclusion of the Israeli-Egyptian peace talks at Rhodes, particularly in view of current British-Israeli tension.

BRITAIN, FRANCE OPEN PARLEY ON EUROPEAN UNITY

LONDON, Jan. 13—(AP) The foreign ministers of Britain and France attempted to reach a common policy today on combatting communism and promoting western European unity.

Britain's Ernest Bevin and France's Robert Schuman met with their key advisors around a conference table piled high with mutual problems. These included: Germany's future, a common defense, Italy's pre-war colonies, and their own colonial problems around the world.

Upon their successful solution may depend the realization of a diplomatic dream each has cherished since the war's end:

Seek Western Bloc

Construction of a western European bloc as a third great world force with strength to speak on equal terms with Russia and the United States.

The conference, which opened today, will continue for two more days behind closed doors.

Not until tomorrow night—at the earliest—will there be an official communique on the issues discussed and the decisions reached.

And, even then, it may be nothing more than a bare announcement on the general nature of the conference with the details to be worked out by technical experts later.

No official agenda was disclosed. But the problems—and the pressing difference between Britain and France—were well known.

German Issue Tops List

At the top of the list was Germany. The western nations want to utilize Germany's industrial capacity for general European recovery. But at the same time France is fearful Germany may be made powerful enough to wage war again.

The conference will attempt to settle how the Western European Alliance—Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands, and Luxembourg—should go about developing European political unity.

This is expected to take the form of a compromise. It would set up an executive council as advocated by Bevin. Simultaneously, it would provide for a deliberative assembly of the participating countries, as urged by France and Belgium, but with carefully defined and limited powers.

The question of recognition of Israel was tagged originally for discussion. This however, may be laid aside in view of the possible impact any decision might have on the Israeli-Egyptian armistice conference now proceeding at Rhodes.

London Reports Concern Over U.S. Links

London, Jan. 13 (AP)—A Foreign Office spokesman today said British leaders are concerned at British and American differences over Palestine.

He said Britain seems to approach the problem from the viewpoint of its "interests," while the United States appears to be influenced more by its "sympathies."

The present crisis arose following the shooting down of five British planes by Israel near the Egyptian-Palestine border last Friday.

Consultation Reported

The Foreign Office said Britain had consulted with the United States on the need for determining the extent of Israeli "incursions" into Egypt before establishing aerial patrols along the border.

A statement by the Foreign Office said:

"The British authorities undertook the air reconnaissance on their own responsibility.

"In conversations on the situation which took place at the State Department at the end of the year, however, the urgent need for precise information as to the fact and extent of the Israeli incursions into Egypt was clear to both sides.

Unobtainable From U.N.

"As such information was unobtainable from United Nations sources, owing to the exclusion of United Nations observers by the Israeli authorities, the British authorities had recourse to the only other means available of obtaining such information, namely, air reconnaissance."

Israel, shortly before the plane incident, announced it had penetrated 35 miles into Egypt in a three-day stab, and then withdrew after killing and capturing a number of Egyptian troops, damaging airfields and destroying war matériel.

Tolerance Is Cited

A Foreign Office spokesman said Britain very much wants better relations with Israel. He said Britain "is freer than any other country of any proneness to racial theories from which the Jews have suffered so much in the past" and "has a record of hospitality to Jewish victims of Nazi tyranny."

The Negeb desert of Palestine, focal point of recent Israeli-Egyptian fighting, juts down like an arrowhead toward the Red Sea between Egypt's Sinai Desert and Trans-Jordan. The Negeb, which the United Nations partition plan assigned to the Jews, is believed to have oil possibilities.

U. S. Denies Any Role In RAF Patrol Flights

LONDON, Jan. 13 (AP)—British and American officials gave conflicting accounts today whether the United States had any part in suggesting reconnaissance flights by RAF planes along the Palestine-Egyptian frontier.

A formal statement by the British Foreign Office said the flights were undertaken on Britain's own responsibility. The statement added, however, that "the urgent need for precise information as to the fact and extent of Israel incursions into Egypt was clear" to both the United States and Britain.

Other British officials, going beyond the foreign office statement, sought to pin the responsibility for the flights on the United States. These informants, who declined to be quoted by name, said the British government assigned RAF planes to the job as a result of an American call for proof of the Israel invasion of Egypt.

The State Department in Washington disclaimed any responsibility for the flights. Michael J. McDermott, the department press officer, said allegations from sources other than the foreign office that the "flights were made at the request of the American government are entirely untrue."

McDermott said the United States had not sought any information from other than the Israelis and the Egyptians.

Informed of McDermott's statement a foreign office spokesman here said: "We stick to what we said before. Otherwise no comment."

Subsequently President Truman said it was not true American authorities had requested the British reconnaissance. The President denied that British-American relations are strained as a result of the Palestine crisis.

London, Jan. 13 (A. P.).—The Soviet news agency Tass said tonight that a trade and payments pact between Hungary and Israel had been signed in Budapest.

British Miners' Union 'Spanks' Its Secretary

London, Friday, Jan. 14 (AP)—Arthur Horner, Communist general secretary of the National Union of Mineworkers, got a verbal spanking tonight for mixing politics with business.

A special union subcommittee accused him of "slander without foundation" for saying the Labor Government and Right-wing labor leaders are preparing for war.

"We shall strongly resist every attempt to treat the British mineworkers as tools of the Cominform," the NUM committee's report said.

The subcommittee made no recommendation about Horner's future as one of the top leaders of 700,000 British coal miners.

Vatican Radio Is Extended

Vatican City, Jan. 13 (AP)—The Vatican radio has expanded its programs in an effort to reach more of the 50,000,000 Catholics living behind the Iron Curtain.

The expansion has occurred within the past few months, Vatican sources said, as the fight between the Catholic Church and communism grew more bitter in eastern Europe.

Six languages have been added to the broadcasts at the request of the people speaking those languages. They are: Hungarian, Czech, Slovak, Romanian, Lithuanian and Slovene. In all the Vatican radio broadcasts in eighteen languages to Europe, North and South America, Asia and Africa.

World-Wide Collection

Utmost care now is being given to broadcasts to Soviet-dominated countries. Many of the Catholic dioceses in those countries have been stripped of religious leadership, and Catholics are being pressured to join "national groups" or the Orthodox Church, Vatican sources said.

This year a world-wide collection will be made by Catholics to increase the Vatican radio's range. This is being done in connection with the golden jubilee of the consecration of Pope Pius XII as a priest.

In sending words of encouragement to the Catholics of eastern Europe the Vatican radio bases the number of broadcasts on the number of Catholics in each country or region.

Christmas Message Sent

The 20,000,000 Catholics in Poland form 96 per cent of that country's population. Thus Poland receives twelve broadcasts weekly. Romania, with 2,800,000 Catholics, gets two weekly and Bulgaria, where there are only 40,000 Catholics, none.

The Christmas message of the Pope, in which the Pontiff praised the "sublime heroism" of those who refuse "to bend the knee before the Baal of force and power" was transmitted by the Vatican radio in all eighteen languages.

Judge Refuses To Set Bail For Lada

Berlin, Jan. 13 (AP)—An American court refused to free Edward J. Lada on bail today. It ruled the former paratrooper who broke through the Soviet blockade and broke out of an army jail couldn't be trusted.

Judge Roy S. Wood rejected the application. Lada's attorney, Robert M. Donohi, of Nashville, Tenn., announced an appeal to the highest Military Government Court in Nuernberg.

At the same time, the court granted a defense request to postpone Lada's trial, set for tomorrow, until January 25. The Newark (N.J.) war veteran is charged with illegal entry, jailbreak and illegal possession of currency.

To See His Girl

Lada hitchhiked to Berlin from Paris to see his German girl and their 2-year-old baby. He was arrested and jailed, escaped from the army stockade the week before Christmas and was caught again three days later. The girl, her mother and two other Germans were convicted of harboring a fugitive.

Judge Wood refused at first to even hear the application for bail, saying he was already "prejudiced" in the case. He agreed to weigh the arguments after it was pointed out that no other court here was available.

The judge said Lada was in his court before. He said in his ruling that he "knew that Lada left Berlin before under a cloud after there was a shortage in his post exchange funds. He failed to obey orders and return to the United States for dismissal from the army exchange system and stayed in Berlin illegally.

Lada was deported then. He obtained a passport, returned to France and once more came to Berlin. The jailbreak was common knowledge and not disputed by Lada's attorney.

Reich Court Holds 'Putzi' Is No Nazi

Munich, Germany, Jan. 13 (AP)—A German de-Nazification court in Weilheim, Bavaria, today freed Dr. Ernst Hanfstaengl, Hitler's former foreign press chief, of all charges of having been a Nazi.

The court stated that Hanfstaengl, known as "Putzi," who was one of the Führer's first followers and joined the Nazi party in 1931, was put aside by Dr. Josef Goebbels, Hitler's propaganda chief, after the party seized power in January, 1933.

In 1936, Hanfstaengl fled to Switzerland and then went to the United States via England.

ROMANIA AUTHORIZES DEATH FOR TREASON

BUCHAREST, Romania, Jan. 13—(AP)—Death for persons guilty of plotting against the state or of certain types of sabotage was authorized by the grand national assembly tonight.

Romania has never had the death penalty except under martial law during the first and second world wars.

Dr. Petru Groza, head of the communist government, said existing laws were not sufficient to punish the "enemies of the state."

U.S., SPANISH AIRMEN MEET

Two High Ranking Generals on Good-Will Visits

FRANKFORT, Germany, Jan. 13 (AP)—High-ranking Spanish and American airmen are exchanging visits in an unexplained burst of good-will.

A Spanish party including Lieut. Gen. Apolinar Saenz de Buruaga, Spanish Under-Secretary for Aviation, was en route by air tonight to Wiesbaden, United States Air Force headquarters in Europe.

This follows by only a few days a visit to Madrid by Maj. Gen. William H. Tunner, chief of the Berlin airlift.

Officials insisted that there was no political significance in the exchange.

Yugoslavia Sentences Priest

BELGRADE, Jan. 13 (AP).—A Yugoslav court sentenced the Rev. Alois Kovacic today to twelve years in prison on charges of heading a "group of terrorists" known as the Crusader Band. The court charged the priest was one of a group of fifteen captured near the port town of Sisak, near Rijeka (Fiume).

Army Aide Quits German Post

HEIDELBERG, Germany, Jan. 13 (AP)—Dr. William Haber announced today that he is returning to the University of Michigan after a year as advisor on Jewish affairs to the United States Army in Germany. His successor has not yet been announced.

Papagos Rejects Greek Army Post

Athens, Jan. 13 (AP)—Gen. Alexander Papagos has rejected the job of generalissimo of Greek armed forces. He and the Government could not agree on the role of the Supreme Defense Council, an authoritative source said today.

Papagos, credited with defeating the Italians in their invasion of Greece in 1940-41, requested he be given complete authority and responsibility in waging war against Communist guerrillas.

He wanted the 36-man Supreme Defense Council, which includes Henry F. Grady, United States Ambassador, and the heads of the British and American military missions, cut to a small war council to speed up its work. He was willing to have Grady included in the smaller council.

The Government could not agree to his terms. Friends of the general said the question of his appointment was now definitely closed, even, if the Government were to make a further concession.

An army communiqué said operations in the Peloponnesus were continuing successfully. It said 43 guerrillas were killed and fifteen taken prisoner 30 miles west of Cornith. Guerrilla brigades attacked at Naoussa, west of Salonika, the communiqué said and fighting went on all night. No casualty figures were given.

China Reds Give 5 Terms For Talks: Report

Peiping, Jan. 13 (AP)—Chinese Communists have laid down specific conditions for the beginning of national peace talks, a source here said today.

He listed them as:

1. Removal of Chiang Kai-shek and Vice President Li Tsung-jen from office.
2. Scrapping of the Chinese constitutiion.
3. A mutual cease-fire order with both sides holding their present positions.
4. Examination and punishment of "war criminals." Chiang heads the Communists' list.
5. Establishment of a coalition government with a five, three, four ratio—five Communist members, three Kuomintang and four representing all other Chinese political parties.

The Communists, according to this source, apparently did not specify whether the Kuomintang referred to was the present party or the "Kuomintang revolutionaries," as the Reds classify Marshal Li Chi-sen and other Kuomintang dissidents.

Chiang May Quit Tomorrow

This naturally would be an important point for Nanking.

This same source predicted that Chiang would issue another statement in which he would resign the presidency and go to Formosa. He said this statement might be issued tomorrow.

Observers say that Nanking's efforts against localized agreements with the Reds obviously are aimed at giving the Government better bargaining power. A localized peace here, another there, could strip the Government of almost all of its remaining authority.

Fighting Continues

Meanwhile, fighting continues here and at Tientsin, 90 miles to the southeast.

The headquarters of Gen. Fu Tso-yi, National commander here, admitted that 600 Communists attacked Tehshengmen (Gate of Victorious Peace) yesterday and got within 300 yards of it before they were beaten back.

The gate controls one of the important entrances to this ancient city of culture and beauty.

During the attack, several Red shells exploded inside the wall, one within 100 feet of the United States Information Service Office.

Landmark Torn Down

Fu's headquarters said 200 Reds were killed in the attack. The battle was heard throughout the city.

Already one of the city's famous landmarks, the archways spanning the Street of Eternal Peace, has been sacrificed to the war. It is being torn down to clear a new airfield on the northern side of the legation quarter, where palatial homes are now occupied largely by foreign business men.

Fu's headquarters also said the situation around Tatung in northern Shansi province is becoming critical again. The Chinese Air Force is trying to fly out dependents of National Army personnel at the big coal center.

Siege Began October 4

If Tatung is lost, Taiyuan will be the only city in the whole of Shansi province still held by Nationalists. It has been under siege since October 4.

Pro-Government reports from Tientsin said the Reds encircling that industrial city were standing pat on their demand for unconditional surrender of the city.

Ping Min Jih Pao, Peiping newspaper owned by General Fu, said four Tientsin City Council delegates brought back this reply yesterday from a second visit to the Red area. Other newspapers carried the same report.

Big Guns Shell Tientsin

[Earlier, Betty Chang, 25, an American nurse from Eugene, Ore., who married a Chinese business man, said in a dispatch from Tientsin that heavy artillery and machinegun fire marked the fighting there.

(Harold Milks, Associated Press correspondent at Nanking, in a dispatch filed after Spencer Moosa's last Associated Press cable from Peiping, said Red gunners shelling Peiping's new inner city airfields had dropped a number of heavy mortar charges into the heart of Peiping.

[Milks said reports reaching Nanking said twenty or more shells had fallen on the new Temple of Heaven Airfield, causing damage which will require at least two days to repair.

Aiming At Airfields

[The Communists, Milks said, are not shelling Peiping indiscriminately, but are attempting to disrupt the use of the airfields by the National air force.

[In the same dispatch, Milks said Nanking had received reports that a number of shells had fallen within a few hundred yards of the Belgian-owned Leopold Building in downtown Tientsin. The Leopold structure, about ten stories high, is on Victoria road and is the building where American and other foreign consular offices are housed.

[One Tientsin source said 105 and 155 millimeter shells were being dropped with regularity behind the Astor House, Tientsin's main foreign-owned hotel a few blocks down Victoria road from the Leopold Building. The hotel is operated by a staff of Canadians.]

them.

Appeal Made To Big 4

In Nanking, Associated Press Correspondent Harold K. Milks reported the government was known to have request the United States Britian, France and Russia to act either jointly or individually to try to bring the two sides together for a peace effort. The requests were stated not to go so far as to ask arbitration, but only "good offices" of the Big Four.

No one with any understanding of the situation, however, believed there was a chance of the reds considering any peace plea until Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek and many of his closest lieutenants have stepped out.

In Peiping, a source claiming to be "in the know" gave Associated Press Correspondent Spencer Moosa what he described as actual conditions offered by the communists.

Peace Conditions Reported

(These unconfirmed conditions would amount to outright surrender by the government.)

The terms were said to include. Ouster of Chiang and Vice President Li Tsung-jen; abandonment of the government constitution; a cease-fire at present positions; punishment of "war criminals"; and establishment of a "coalition government."

The coalition would be in the ratio of five communists to three kuomintang representatives and four members from all other factions.

The kuomintang is the government party, but these asserted red terms might refer not to Chiang's crowd but to the socalled kuomintang revolutionaries led by the anti-Chiang Marshal Li Chi-shen.

This same Peiping source predicted Chiang Kai-shek would issue a statement of resignation and go to Formosa, possibly within a day.

If peace was in the air, however, the communists gave no sign of it.

Reports from communist-beseiged Tientsin said the reds had rejected a second plea by the Tientsin city council and reiterated demands for unconditional surrender.

Both Tientsin and Peiping were under continuing shelling.

Word from Peiping was that communists were dropping heavy mortar shells on the emergency airstrips inside Peiping's walls. Both fields were reported damaged.

Pinpointing Airfields

Indications were that the communists were not indiscriminately shelling the ancient northern cap-

Captured Chinese Leader Faces War Criminal Fate

SHANGHAI, Jan. 13—(AP)—The Chinese communists announced tonight they would punish the captured Gen. Tu Li-ming as a war criminal.

Maintaining their artillery-supported sieges of Peiping and Tientsin, the communists called on the government commanders to surrender those great northern cities or face fates similar to Tu's.

Assorted peace plans continued to preoccupy most of nationalist China, but there was no indication the reds were interested in any of ital, but were attempting to pinpoint the airfields beside the temple of heaven and on the polo grounds.

The communist radio again urged Gen. Fu Tso-yi, North China commander inside Peiping, to surrender everything intact or be treated like Tu Li-ming.

Tu was commander of the 250,000 man force which the communists claim to have finally annihilated this week near Suchow in central China.

The government military spokesman in Nanking insisted some units of Tu's army were intact, but government planes bombed the area during the day, indicating the communist report was likely correct. The spokesman acknowledged that it was "quite possible" Tu had been captured.

In announcing unspecified but "severe punishment" for Tu, the communist radio said he "not only refused to surrender but used poison gas into the bargain." (This is an old charge, bandied back and forth throughout three years of war but never confirmed.)

No further action was reported on the fronts before Nanking, but Nanking dispatches described the government as steadily drawing near to collapse through military and financial bankruptcy without direct attack.

Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, who still holds the final decision on whatever desperate action the government may try, remained in endless consultations with a stream of advisors in Nanking.

U.S. Edict Saved Hirohito From Going on Trial

Joint Chiefs of Staff in '46 Ordered MacArthur Not to Prosecute Ruler

TOKYO, Jan. 13 (AP).—Emperor Hirohito escaped prosecution as a war criminal on orders of the United States Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Copies of the order are available here. It was issued in January, 1946, as a part of the directive to General Douglas MacArthur to set up the International Tribunal which convicted Hideki Tojo and twenty-four other Japanese war leaders.

At first it was classed as "top secret." Later it was down-graded to allow defense attorneys for the twenty-five Class A Japanese war criminals to use it in their appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States.

Specifically, it prohibited prosecution of the emperor "pending receipt of a further directive." Reliable sources said no such further directive ever was received by General MacArthur.

These sources said the decision not to prosecute Hirohito, who was commander in chief of Japan's armed forces, came from a United States "governmental level," which was not further identified. The chiefs of staff then issued the order. At that time the Far Eastern Commission had not been formed as an advisory body on policy for the occupation.

One of the many copies of the order which are circulating in Tokyo was airmailed to defense attorneys in New York, who included it as Appendix D in the brief filed with the Supreme Court.

However, after the order had been printed in New York and taken to Washington, Army Department authorities noted that the policy regarding the emperor was contained on the last page of the directive, No. 1512, from the Joint Chiefs of Staff. Army authorities in Washington ordered the last portion deleted. Since the point was not an issue in the appeals, defense attorneys tore the final page from 100 copies of the printed brief. This left page 52 of the brief ending in mid-sentence.

The order resulted in some delicate legal tightrope-walking acts by the prosecution in the war criminals trial. The prosecutor could not state publicly that the emperor had been granted amnesty. At the same time, almost every avenue of evidence concerning military plans led directly up the chain of command to the emperor.

Trial evidence showed that Hirohito in the early fall of 1941 became worried as to whether his admirals and generals, then preparing and rehearsing the Pearl Harbor sneak attack, had enough resources to carry out war. They reassured him.

The International Tribunal president, Sir William Webb, of Australia, noted the many trails of evidence leading to Hirohito which were never followed up by the prosecution. He pointedly called Chief Prosecutor Joseph B. Keenan's attention to the fact that command responsibility rested with the emperor. Mr. Keenan answered that it was the prosecution's theory that the emperor had been held in the power of "gangsters."

Sir William remained dissatisfied, and since his return to Australia has stated publicly that he though Hirohito should have been prosecuted as a war criminal.

JAN 1949

Hirohito Escaped Prosecution On U. S. Chiefs of Staff Order

TOKYO, Jan. 13—(AP) Documentary evidence available in Tokyo today showed that Emperor Hirohito escaped prosecution as a war criminal because of an order transmitted to General MacArthur through the United States joint chiefs of staff.

The order, in January, 1946, was part of the directive to the occupational commander to set up the international military tribunal which subsequently convicted 25 Japanese. Seven of those convicted, including former Premier Hideki Tojo, were hanged Dec. 23.

Reliable sources said General MacArthur was not consulted prior to issuance of the order, which specifically prohibited prosecution of the emperor. MacArthur never has commented publicly on the matter.

The same sources said the decision not to prosecute came from "a government level" and that the American joint chiefs of staff were merely the transmitting agents.

(Washington records show that members of the joint chiefs of staff in January, 1946, were Admirals William D. Leahy and Chester Nimitz and General Dwight D. Eisenhower and H. H. Arnold. General Eisenhower and Admiral Nimitz declined official comment on the Tokyo story, and General Arnold said, "it was never discussed when I was a member of the joint chiefs of staff.")

The order originally was classified as "top secret" but was downgraded to permit defense attorneys for the convicted Japanese to use it in their appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court last December.

Several scores of copies were mimeographed and distributed in Tokyo to both Americans and Japanese. They now are circulating in Tokyo without any restriction of any kind appearing on them.

The order was printed in the 100 copies of the appeal brief but was deleted on orders of army authorities in Washington. Since the point was not an issue in the appeal, counsel apparently did not object. The deletion left page 52 of the brief ending in a mid-sentence, but this aroused no comment.

The hands-off-Hirohito order resulted in a delicate situation during the protracted war crimes trial. Since it was then secret, the prosecution could not state that the emperor had been granted amnesty. At the same time, evidence repeatedly led up the chain of command toward Hirohito, who was head of the armed forces.

The presiding justice, Sir William Webb of Australia, pointed this out during the trial, and was told by Chief Prosecutor Joseph B. Keenan the prosecution was working on the theory the emperor had been in the power of "gangsters."

Since his return to Australia, Webb has said he still believes Hirohito should have been prosecuted.

Hirohito remains on the throne, and it is probable during the trial he did not know he had been given immunity from prosecution.

Reds Broadcast to Japan

Election Propaganda Assails U. S. Occupation Costs

TOKYO, Jan. 13 (AP).—The Moscow radio is taking an active interest in the Japanese Diet election campaign. Daily broadcasts in the Japanese language assail Right-wing political leaders. Sandwiched between are attacks upon the American occupation of Japan.

Japanese radios easily pick up the broadcasts. Occupation officials report increasing inquiry from Japanese as to the truth of charges leveled by Moscow propagandists.

The broadcasts picture Americans as living in luxury while the Japanese economy is being sacrificed to support them.

3 Accused in Guam Slaying

Air Force Men Charged in Ex-Wac's Murder —Lie Detector Helped Break Case.

Guam, Jan. 13 (A. P.).—Three Negro United States Air Force men were charged today with raping Ruth Farnsworth, 27, former Wac from San Francisco last December, and leaving her unconscious in the jungle to die. A lie detector and a recovered smock broke the month-old mystery.

The American Governor of Guam identified the accused as Pvt. Calvin Dennis, 26, of Frederick, Md. Pvt. Herman Dennis, 20, Indianapolis (a relative said the suspect enlisted from there but actually lived at Belton, Tex.) and Staff Sergt. Robert W. Burns, 32, of Spokane, Wash.

Calvin and Herman are brothers. The three are accused of kidnaping, rape and murder.

A searching party of soldiers and Marines found Miss Farnsworth twelve hours after the attack. She died December 13 without recovering consciousness.

Confession Reported.

Lieut.-Commander James T. Hackett, assistant chief of Guam police, said the brothers confessed their part in the crime after a lie detector trapped Herman. Then, Hackett said, Miss Farnsworth's frock was found in a weapons carrier of which Calvin Dennis was the driver. The torn garment was under the seat.

Gives Summary.

Rear-Admiral Charles A. Pownall, Guam Governor, gave this summary of the crime:

"The best reconstruction possible at this time indicates that the three men visited the jade shop on the evening of December 11. Finding Miss Farnsworth alone, one man struck her down and another went to the generator in the rear of the shop to extinguish the lights by disconnecting a wire.

"The man who had extinguished the lights came back into the shop, picked her up and, accompanied by the other men, carried her outside the shop into the wooded jungle area in the rear. Miss Farnsworth at this time was in an unconscious condition from the blow she had received.

"She was carried along a jungle trail and through an overgrown clearing, where she was assaulted.

After assaulting Miss Farnsworth, the men returned individually to their barracks."

Officials said Burns had attended Columbia University for three years.

In New York, however, Columbia University officials said they could find no record that Burns ever had attended there.

Israel, Egypt Meet At Conference Table

Rhodes, Jan. 13 (AP)—Israelis and Egyptians sat down at a conference table today for the first time since the start of the Palestine war and began face-to-face talks on an armistice.

The meeting lasted 30 minutes. A member of the Israeli delegation told reporters, "the first meeting was intended to be short."

Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, the United Nations mediator, urged speedy negotiations for an armistice in southern Palestine as a first and indispensable step toward full peace in the Holy Land.

Appeal For Caution

Bunche also appealed to all governments, including those not directly involved in the Palestine conflict, not to take any action which might jeopardize the talks. No name was mentioned, but it appeared likely he meant Britain in particular.

The mediator expressed hope that these talks would set an "excellent example" to the other parties to the Palestine quarrel.

He was implying that if Egypt and Israel reached an armistice, the other warring Arab nations might fall in line and the end of the Palestine war might then be in sight.

"Not A Peace Parley"

"We are not holding a peace conference here," Bunche said. "We are not expecting to settle the complicated political issues which bedevil this problem and to which the Conciliation Commission will soon direct its attention; but in seeking an armistice we are engaged in a peaceful endeavor and unquestionably charting the road to peace."

The Conciliation Commission, formed by the United Nations, consists of representatives of the United States, France and Turkey.

Bunche told the Israelis and Egyptians the significance of the United Nations Security Council's call for an armistice was clear.

What It Means

"It means the end of the existing truce which served to stop for six months a widespread conflict in Palestine, although it has occasionally failed to check serious fighting in local sectors," he said. "It means in practical fact the liquidation of the conflict on the military level; the dissipation of present tenseness by elimination of the threat of an offensive action by either side. It is not a final peace settlement but it is certainly an indispensable condition for such a settlement."

Bunche conferred separately with the Egyptian and Israeli delegation chiefs in the morning.

Rank Of Representatives

Israel seemed in the better position because of the presence here of ranking Israeli diplomatic officials and the military chief of staff. Egypt, represented by three colonels, faced the problem of negotiating diplomatically with a nation she does not recognize.

A member of Bunche's staff said that if a face-saving compromise is not found, the preliminary stages will be difficult.

The chief of Israel's delegation, Walter Eytan, is director general of the Israeli Foreign Ministry.

erations. When war and lives are at stake time becomes a factor of tremendous magnitude.

"The peace of the near east hangs in balance while you meet. x x xYou cannot afford to fail. You must succeed."

The first meeting was short, lasting only 30 minutes, and the Jews said it was intended to be that way.

Before the formal opening, Bunche conferred separately with Walter Eytan, head of the Israeli delegation, and Col. Mohamed Ibrahim Seif Eddine, head of the Egyptian delegation.

Discussing the ineq[illegible] of the levels of the two delegations—Israel is represented by her No. 2 man in the foreign ministry while Egypt is represented by three colonels—one of the Israelis said "the Egyptians can increase the stature of their delegation or we can reduce ours."

He said Moshe Shertok, Israeli foreign minister, was prepared to come to the conference.

Armistice Is Goal

In his preliminary statement Bunche declared the negotiations, subject to the wishes of the delegates, would be confined to "means of implementing the security council resolution of Nov. 16."

This called for "immediate establishment of an armistice, delineation of permanent armistice lines and such withdrawal and reduction of armed forces as will insure maintenance of the armistice during the transition to permanent peace," Bunche said.

He made it clear "we are not holding a peace conference" which would settle all Palestine's complicated political problems. But he said he hoped it would "chart the road to peace" by easing tension, liquidating the conflict on the military level, and leading other parties to the dispute to follow this "excellent example."

The conference, therefore, he said was "deadly serious."

Representatives of King Abdullah of Trans-Jordan and Israel were reported to have met frequently in secret from October to December in an effort to find a basis for armistice negotiations. In addition certain local Arab and Israeli commanders have met from time to time to patch up various truce breaches. But this was the first open conference on a national level since the Jews proclaimed their provisional government eight months ago.

Jews, Arabs Open Parley Seeking Palestine Truce

Truman Denies U. S.-Britain Rift Over Holy Land Developments

RHODES, Jan. 13 (AP)—Representatives of the Jewish and an Arab government sat down together for the first time in open conference today to negotiate an armistice in southern Palestine.

The Israelis and Egyptians opened the crucial negotiations for peace after Dr. Ralph Bunche, acting UN mediator, urged "all governments" not directly involved to keep hands off in order not to jeopardize the conference.

Although Bunche named no government his statement was accepted as a reference to Britain and the RAF patrol along the Egyptian border from which five planes were shot down last Friday.

"I have in mind not only the governments directly involved but those as well whose interests impel them to keep close surveillance on developments in the area," he said.

Bunche Urges Speed

Bunche appealed to the negotiators to hurry.

"I trust," he said in a statement issued shortly before the conference began, "you will not lose sight of the urgency of time in your delib-

1 Killed, 16 Hurt In Cairo Blast

Cairo, Egypt, Jan. 13 (AP)—One or two persons were killed and at least sixteen were injured by the explosion of a bomb in a Cairo square today.

A cigarette seller was killed in the blast.

A report circulated that a policeman also was fatally injured, but the report lacked confirmation.

Five Wounded Seriously

Sixteen persons were treated at the Government hospital in the Kasr el Aini district. Hospital attendants said five of these were wounded seriously.

Police announced at least ten of the injured were policemen.

Windows in Government offices were smashed.

Bomb In Bag

Officers said the bomb was in a bag taken to the square for official scrutiny after it was dropped in a corridor leading to the National Court of Appeal. It was dropped by a man once arrested in connection with the discovery of a jeep loaded with arms and ammunition.

Police identified him as Shafik Ibrahim Anass, an employé of the Ministry of Agriculture. They said he tried to flee, but was arrested.

Offices of the public prosecutor, in the National Court Building, are investigating the assassination of Premier Mahmoud Fahmy Nokrashy Pasha December 28 and the Court of Assizes there is trying a number of youths for blasts set off in Cairo in 1946.

Probing Assassination

The prosecutor now is investigating the assassination of Premier Mahmoud Fahmy Nokrashy Pasha on December 28.

Police officials have accused a member of the outlawed Moslem Brotherhood, an ardent nationalist organization, of killing Nokrashy Pasha. The court of assizes also is trying a number of youths charged with setting off a series of earlier explosions in Cairo.

Authorities identified the youth arrested in connection with today's blast as Shafik Ibrahim Anass, an employé of the Ministry of Agriculture.

Mustafa Marei Bey, Minister of State, said Anass had been detained only a few days ago and later released. Police said the youth had been picked up in connection with the discovery of a jeep loaded with arms and ammunition.

Marei Bey's statement was in reply to "rumors spread by malevolent people that a great number of students are kept[illegible] prison." He added 45 students [illegible] are detained, all on "legal charg[illegible]

Blast At Prosecutor's Office Follows Seizure

Cairo, Jan. 13 (AP)—A bystander was killed today when a bomb exploded just after police had removed it from the entrance to the public prosecutor's office. At least sixteen persons, including ten policemen, were injured.

Police said a youth dropped a bag containing the bomb in the Egyptian national court building when an officer stopped him. The youth tried to flee, but was arrested.

At the time of the blast the building was crowded with judges, attorneys and Government employés.

Asian Parley To Send Recommendation

New Delhi, India, Jan. 13 (AP)—Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru said today recommendations of the Asian conference on Indonesia next week will be forwarded to the United Nations Security Council.

Thirteen nations have accepted Nehru's invitation to meet at Allahabad January 20 to consider what to do about Dutch military action against the Indonesian Republic. Nineteen were invited. Turkey and Siam declined to attend.

Nehru in addressing the Calcutta Journalists Association said the representatives would not be asked to commit their governments to specific actions.

No Bloc Considered

"It is not for me or my Government to say what the Asian conference will do," he was reported by the Government radio as telling the journalists. "But I can assure you there is no idea of forming any Asian bloc against Europe or America."

"The idea behind the conference is to strengthen the hands of the United Nations and tell the Security Council what Asia thinks should be done on such occasions."

Sumatra Damage Listed

SINGAPORE, Jan. 13 (AP)—The Indonesian Republican office here said today the Sumatra emergency goverement had broadcast details of extensive scorched-earth tactics against the Dutch.

Dr. Mohammed Isa, Civil Governor of South Sumatra, radioed that Dutch soldiers had arrived to find rail cars in ravines, bridges blasted or blocked by fallen trees and more than 1,000 warehouses aflame. He said, "What remains of territory for the Dutch to exploit are charred goods and ashes."

Dr. Isa was quoted as saying that the Tabapingin Red Palm estate, capable of producing 200 tons of palm oil a month, was set afire. He added that scattered oilfields between Palembang and Djambi were ablaze, with buildings and refineries destroyed.

The Governor added that buildings in Lampung were on fire and that the central power station at Lubuklinggau had been destroyed.

Dr. Isa declared that many laborers had joined the guerrilla forces.

Guam Rape Death Laid To 3 GI's

Guam, Jan. 13 (AP)—Three colored United States Air Force men were charged today with raping Ruth Farnsworth, former WAC, and leaving her unconscious in the jungle to die.

A lie detector and a recovered smock broke the month-old mystery.

The American Governor of Guam identified the accused as:

PRIVATE HERMAN DENNIS, 20, of Indianapolis (a relative at that address said Dennis enlisted from there but actually lived at Belton, Texas).

STAFF SERGEANT ROBERT W. BURNS, 32, Spokane, Wash.

Triple Charges

Calvin and Herman are brothers. The three are accused of kidnapping, rape and murder.

Miss Farnsworth, 27, of San Francisco, was seized last December 11 in a jade shop where she was working part time so she could buy a trousseau for her marriage next April to a Marine.

Acheson Denounces 'Appeaser' Charge; Vows to Oust Any Reds in State Dept.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13—(AP) Dean Acheson scornfully rejected descriptions of himself as an "appeaser" toward Russia today and promised to root any reds out of the State department.

Acheson is President Truman's choice as the new secretary of state.

Testifying before the Senate Foreign Relations committee, Acheson volunteered the comment that he is still "friends" with Alger Hiss, indicted former State department official and key figure in the 1948 spy investigations.

He suggested, by implication, that judgment on Hiss' guilt or innocence should await the outcome of his perjury trial.

Berle Denies Opposition

As the jam-packed hearing went on, a heralded possible source of opposition to Acheson's confirmation failed to develop. Former Assistant Secretary of State Adolf A. Berle, Jr., telegraphed the Senate committee "I do not oppose his (Acheson's) confirmation and no implications to that effect are warranted."

Berle said it was true that in the fall of 1944 he and Acheson differed on Russian policy. He said he had no confidence that Russian expansion could be halted by a policy of wide concessions, while "Mr. Acheson like other men in the government at that time felt otherwise x x x."

"As I have repeatedly stated, the matter was one on which honest men could differ, and I have never felt that divergence on this question reflected on the competence or loyalty of men who went along with the policy then adopted."

Berle did not say precisely that he supports Acheson's nomination, but said he feels strongly that the secretary of state should take office under conditions giving him the best possible chance of complete success "for which he has my best wishes."

Blasts "Appease" Charges

Acheson told the senate group that accusations labelling him an "appeaser" are "so incredible it is difficult for me to believe that even disinterested malevolence could think them up."

And he said "of course" he is interested in rooting out any disloyal employes in the State department.

"No step will be left untaken in order to secure the State department in its conduct of foreign affairs," the tall, well-groomed diplomat said.

Spectators crowded a big Senate caucus room to overflowing for the dramatic hearing as Acheson, smartly dressed in a gray double-breasted suit with a maroon-and-blue striped tie, testified for one hour and 54 minutes in defense of his nomination by President Truman.

He described himself as a firm believer in "steadiness and continuity" in foreign policy.

If confirmed, as most senators expected he will be, Acheson will succeed the ailing Gen. George C. Marshall in the No. 1 diplomatic post on Jan. 20.

Praised By Stettinius

Rallying to Acheson's support, former Secretary of State Edward R. Stettinius, Jr., told the senate group that President Truman made "a wise selection" in choosing Acheson.

Stettinius testified that the late President Roosevelt had "very great confidence" in Acheson and had made up his mind to appoint him to "one of the highest posts of this government."

Highlights in Acheson's testimony included these points:

1. He has been and "remains friends" with Alger Hiss, one of the central figures in the famed Chambers-Hiss spy investigation.

Hiss is under indictment by a New York federal grand jury on perjury charges in connection with his denial that he ever gave secret State department data to Whittaker Chamber, confessed ex-communist and Soviet espionage courier.

2. Acheson's law firm represented the communist-controlled Polish government in 1946 when the State department approved a $90,000,000 loan to Poland.

But Acheson denied that his firm—in which he is still a member—exerted any influence in getting the loan. He was acting secretary of state at the time the loan was obtained.

Senator Tydings (D-Md) asked Acheson if it was not true that his later action in suspending the Polish loan was "advserse to the interests" of his firm.

"Yes," Acheson replied.

The witness testified that the firm retained his name even though he had severed all connection with it while he was in government service.

Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) suggested there might be a "misunderstanding" if his name continues in the firm's title while he is secretary of state. To this, Acheson replied that he wants no misunderstanding—he will ask that his name be dropped from the firm's roster of officers. The firm is Covinton, Burling, Rublee, Acheson and Shorb.

To Follow Marshall's Example

Acheson told the committee that one thing should be "utterly clear:" that nobody can take the place of retiring Secretary Marshall. But he said that "someone who has served under him can do his best to follow General Marshall's example."

Because of the vital importance of Acheson's future role, committee members gingerly skirted any questions about present and future U. S. relations with Russia.

However, Vandenberg poised a general question which gave Acheson full opportunity to explain his personal attitude toward communism, and he took advantage of it.

Mildly, but with pointed emphasis, he reminded the senators that he had been the target of angry protest from Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov himself. That was in February, 1947 when he told a congressional committee that Russia was carrying out an "aggressive and expansive" policy.

Molotov countered with a formal protest, blasting Acheson's "inadmissible behavior" and "rude, slanderous statements."

Acheson told the committee that Marshall sent a reply defending the propriety of his remarks.

Truman Sees Franks On Israel Policy

Other news of Palestine on Page 4

Washington, Jan. 13 (AP)—British Ambassador Sir Oliver Franks discussed the Jewish-Arab crisis with President Truman in a 30-minute White House conference today. Diplomats believe he urged United States pressure on Israel to come to terms with its Arab neighbors.

Franks later said only that he had "submitted the views of my Government" to President Truman. Without defining what those views are, he said that he had covered the same ground with Under Secretary of State Lovett at the State Department yesterday.

Delivered No Note

The British envoy added that he had not delivered any note, but had quite literally talked with the President.

Frank's unusual call on the Chief Executive to repeat something he had just told the top State Department official, is understood to have been made on direct instructions from British Foreign Minister Ernest Bevin.

Bevin, whose "tough," arms-backed policy in the Middle East is in controversy in England, is reported to feel that a most critical point has been reached in the whole Middle Eastern situation. He is said to feel, too, that the first essential to avert disaster and move toward peace is complete British-American policy co-ordination.

Asks Pressure On Jews

Mainly for this reason, diplomatic authorities said, Bevin is using every available device to get the United States Government to bring strong pressure on the Government of Israel for agreement with the Arabs on a Palestine settlement.

Britain's official position is that Jewish forces have been guilty of the first shots in recent truce violations and that only if Israel lives up to United Nations Security Council orders to stop fighting can there be any chance of peace.

The United States, on the other hand, has been urging all sides alike and even urging the British themselves simply to refrain from any action which would upset the peace negotiations under United Nations sponsorship at Rhodes.

Concerned Over Troops

Further, Lovett revealed yesterday that the United States had specifically expressed concern to Britain over British dispatch of troops to Aqaba.

Both British and Americans said here today there is at the moment no real split between London and Washington over Middle Eastern policy—that both governments are working toward a Jewish-Arab peace, and that the only questions concern how to achieve the common end.

Two Reasons Seen

The fact that Franks went to see President Truman was attributed both to Bevin's determination to use every method of assuring British-American co-operation and to British experience with America's Palestine policy in the past.

On some previous occasions, Mr. Truman has not followed the line of his State Department advisers but has given American 'policy a pro-Israel turn—as for instance when he recognized the state of Israel immediately after its creation.

Such moves by Mr. Truman have usually caused an uproar of protest in London. Bevin, in the present already troubled situation, may have wanted to make certain that nothing like that would happen this time.

TRUMAN DENIES STRAIN ON TIES WITH BRITAIN

Also Denies U. S. Asked for R. A. F. Reports About Negeb Forces.

SO DOES STATE DEPARTMENT

President Sees British Envoy for Half-hour Talk at White House.

Washington, Jan. 13 (A. P.).—President Truman denied today that British-American relations were strained as a result of the Palestine crisis.

The denial was in response to questions at a news conference. Reporters had sought to draw him out on a conference he had earlier in the day with the British Ambassador, Sir Oliver Franks. Mr. Truman would not discuss his talk with the British envoy.

The President also denied what one reporter said was a published report that the five British reconnaissance planes shot down by Israeli forces were over Israel at the request of American authorities. A denial of that report had been made earlier by the State Department.

Cites Jessup's Statement.

Mr. Truman said that the American position on Israel and the Palestine controversy was made clear in a statement by Dr. Philip Jessup to the United Nations General Assembly in Paris last November 20. He said that position had not changed.

In issuing a strongly worded denial, the State Department placed itself somewhat in opposition to the British position. The Foreign Office had stressed in a statement in London today that both Britain and the United States had recognized an "urgent need for precise information" about the presence of troops in Egypt.

Michael J. McDermott, State Department press officer, said that the whole thing started today when the Daily Telegraph published in London a story under "wild headlines" implying that the United States had asked British authorities to send reconnaissance planes from Egypt over Israel. McDermott read to his news conference this statement on behalf of the State Department:

"You have no doubt seen the statement issued today by the British Foreign Office. The statement that the British authorities undertook the air reconnaissance on their own responsibility is correct.

"Allegations from other sources to the effect that these flights were made at the request of the American Government are entirely untrue."

McDermott added that the United States never asked for additional information from any source other than the Israelis and the Egyptians.

Confer at White House.

Franks discussed the Israeli-Arab crisis with President Truman in a thirty-minute White House conference. Diplomats believe that he urged American pressure on Israel to come to terms with Arab neighbors.

Franks would tell reporters only that he had "submitted the views of my Government" to President Truman. Without defining what those views are, he said that he had covered the ground gone over with Under-

Secretary of State Lovett at the State Department yesterday.

The British envoy added that he had not delivered any note but quite literally had talked with the President. From highly placed diplomatic informants it was learned that Franks's unusual call on the Chief Executive to repeat something he had just told the top State Department official was made on direct instructions from Ernest Bevin, British Foreign Minister. Bevin is reported to feel that a most critical point has been reached in the whole Middle Eastern situation, and to feel, too, that the first essential to avert disaster and move toward peace is complete Anglo-American coordination of policy.

Mainly for this reason, diplomatic authorities said, Bevin is using every available device to try to get the United States Government to bring strong pressure on the Government of Israel for agreement with the Arabs on a Palestine settlement. He is reported to feel that the United States has not been giving this sufficiently strong support at a time when he had, in the British view, brought pressure to bear on the Arab States to get together with Israel.

Just Drop

Washington, Jan. 14 (A. P.).—President Truman stirred thoughts of "what next?" today after an unheralded flight to North Carolina for a chat with Gen. George C. Marshall.

To reporters who greeted him upon his landing last night at Washington, he explained simply: "I needed to see the Secretary of State, so I went to see him. I'm glad I went because we rehashed a lot of stories to our mutual satisfaction."

Tough on Reporters.

There was nothing significant in the visit in so far as foreign policy is concerned, he said. It was "just a personal visit, and a pleasant one."

Normally, newspaper men fly in a chartered commercial plane to cover the President's out-of-town movements. Or they ride a train with him.

They long ago resigned themselves to a difficult task trying to keep pace with his trips about town. On an impulse, he may drop in at the Capitol, at the home of an old pal, stroll over to watch a sandlot ball game or walk to church on a Sunday morning. Sometimes, he'll shoot out of the White House to visit a sick friend at a hospital.

Charles G. Ross, presidential secretary, who was in the small party that flew with Mr. Truman to North Carolina, said that when the President walked into the Marshall cottage at Pinehurst, the General was "flabbergasted."

"My goodness! Where did you come from?" Ross quoted Marshall as saying.

Marshall is recuperating from an operation for removal of a kidney. He has resigned as Secretary of State, effective January 20. Mr. Truman said on his return that Marshall was "looking better than I have seen him for a month."

Koo Sees Lovett; Says Nationals Seek Peace

Washington, Jan. 13 (AP)—Chinese Ambassador Wellington Koo said today that the Nationalist Government will keep on trying for peace with the Chinese Communists as long as there appears a chance of getting it.

He made the statement after a 30-minute conference with Under Secretary of State Lovett.

Koo noted that his Government had made "peace overtures" through statements of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek and other Government leaders.

"To Pursue Peace Policy".

"The Government will continue to pursue this peace policy," he said, "until it is clearly proved that the Communists do not in any way care for the sentiments of the Chinese people for peace."

Asked whether he discussed with Lovett a reported request by China for "mediation" by the United States and other big powers, Koo replied:

"It is not in the nature of mediation that we have asked."

He declined to amplify, but Government officials have indicated that China has asked advice as a possible step toward mediation. United States is reported to be consulting with Britain and France on the matter.

No Direct Suggestion

The Chinese evidently have not directly suggested mediation but have opened the way either to suggest it or to have some nation or group of nations volunteer "good offices."

Some answer may be sent to Nanking by the State Department in a few days, but indications are that no step will be taken by Washington without careful checking with London and Paris.

Diplomats consider it a speculative possibility that Moscow's opinion on the China situation is also beng sought by the United States and possibly by the other Western powers.

Soviet Plans Eyed

It seems likely that none of the Western nations would want to make a move in China which would conflict with any pending Soviet move there.

United States officials apparently do not intend to put this Government in the position of taking responsibility for any future action by Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, whether directed toward making peace or continuing the war.

The situation is further complicated by the fact that Chiang's appeal for peace has been rejected by the Communists. Authorities in the Western capitals are reported uncertain whether there is in fact any basis for outside mediation or whether efforts along that line would have any chance of success.

U.S. Denies Role In RAF Case

Washington, Jan. 14 (AP) — The United States today disclaimed any responsibility for British air reconnaissance flights over Israeli forces in Egypt. The British lost five planes during the operations.

In issuing a strongly worded denial, the State Department placed itself somewhat in opposition to the position of the British Foreign Office.

The Foreign Office had stressed in a statement earlier today that both Britain and the United States had recognized an "urgent need for precise information" about the presence of Jewish troops in Egypt.

British Statement Read

Michael J. McDermott, State Department press officer, said the whole thing started today when the London Daily Telegraph published an article under "wild headlines" implying that the United States had asked British authorities to send reconnaissance planes from Egypt over Israel.

McDermott read to his news conference a statement which he said the British Foreign Office had issued declaring that British authorities ordered the air reconnaissance "on their own responsibility" but also stating:

"In conversations on the situation which took place in the State Department at the end of the year, however, the urgent need for precise information as to the fact and extent of the Israeli incursions into Egypt was clear to both sides."

"Entirely Untrue"

McDermott then made this statement on behalf of the State Department:

"You have no doubt seen the statement issued today by the British Foreign Office. The statement that the British authorities undertook the air reconnaissance on their own responsibility is correct.

"Allegations from other sources to the effect that these flights were made at the request of the American Government are entirely untrue.

"The Department of State was naturally concerned over reports of incursions into Egyptian territory by Israeli forces (about December 29-30).

SPY PROBE BOARD FLAYED IN HOUSE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13 (AP)—Representative Davenport (D-Pa) accused the House Un-American Activities Committee today of being responsible, directly or indirectly, for "either murder or suicide x x x broken homes, broken lives, and shattered reputations."

In a statement inserted in the congressional record, Davenport said the committee had engaged in "shocking examples of totalitarian tactics" and should be abolished.

Would Abolish Board

He urged the house to approve his resolution to do away with the spy probe group, and shift its activities to the House Judiciary Committee.

Davenport said communists should be watched, spies and saboteurs should be routed, and government employes should be 100 per cent loyal to America and beholden to no foreign power of foreign ideology."

But, he said, all this should be approached "in the American way, under the American Constitution and American concept of fair play."

Davenport defeated a Republican member of the committee—former Rep. McDowell—to gain his house seat.

In his statement, he said: "the voters in my district have shown by their vote x x x what they thought of the Un-American Activities committee.

"The people of the whole country are sick and tired of the silly antics of that committee."

Hits Smear Tactics

The Pennsylvanian declared that Dr. E. U. Condon, director of the National Bureau of Standards, who was described by the committee as one of the weakest links in this country's atomic security chain, is "not the only eminent scientist to feel the smear of the Un-American Activities Committee."

He continued.

"Scores of prominent educators, scientists, writers and liberals have been smeared, maligned, slandered and scored by the headline-hunting committee. And none of them was given a chance to present their stories.

"The Un-American Activities Committee flouted the fundamental for either murder or spicide. It is directly or indirectly responsible for either murder or suicide. It is to blame for broken homes, broken lives and shattered reputations.

Davenport said that "no matter how well meaning" the new members of the committee will fail to recapture the public confidence and respect."

FORRESTAL DENIES HE SEEKS POWER FOR WAR-MAKING

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13 — (AP) Secretary of Defense Forrestal denied today that he or the administration seeks power to make war without consulting Congress.

And apparently he has scratched from his "top priority" list a proposal for athuority to send military missions anywhere in the world.

Defense officials said tonight that it has been decided not to "bear down" on the suggestion that Congress pass such a law. They said other defense subjects are more pressing at this time.

Only two weeks ago Forrestal had ranked it in the highest category of programs for Congress' attention. He proposed that the President be given discretion to honor requests for military missions from any country. Present laws apply only to specific areas.

Cain Makes Data Public

Forrestal's denial that he wants war-making powers was made public by Senator Cain (R.-Wash.) to whom it was written in a letter.

Cain put it in the Senate record. He explained that he had received an "avalanche of mail which severely criticized Mr. Forrestal for demanding dictatorial and militaristic powers."

Forrestal's letter protested a radio broadcast he did not identify which contended the administration was seeking power to "throw the country into war without even notifying the Congress."

Last week, in a written public statement, President James G. Patton of the National Farmers Union said that Forrestal had asked for laws which would give the military "the power to make war."

Patton cited the request for authority to send the advisory military missions anywhere. He also mentioned a request for legislation by which the United States could provide military assistance to other countries.

Forrestal's letter, which did not mention Patton, said that Mr. Truman has promised to ask Congress for authority "under circumstances directly involving the national security, to furnish military supplies to other countries."

Forrestal Raps Critics

Forrestal told Cain that the criticism "appears to be an attempt to discredit the foreign policy of this government."

Reports that Forrestal had abandoned the idea of military missions—which would give non-communist countries the benefit of their expert knowledge—were denied by officials of his department. But they indicated that other matters, such as the North Atlantic military alliance and overall defense matters, were considered more pressing. They added that the mission proposal might not be pusned at this session at all.

Clerks of the Senate Armed Services committee said today that it had been deleted by Forrestal in a revision of his annual report.

Yesterday, senators on the committee examined a long list of legislation the secretary had asked. As given out to a reporter later by committee clerks, this list contained the military missions request. However, the clerks said today that it was an old list, prepared last November, and that the missions request had now being deleted.

2-YEAR ENLISTEES BANNED BY ARMY

Draft Also Stalled In Move To Stay Under Ceiling

Washington, Jan. 13 (AP)—The Army moved to slow down voluntary enlistments today even as draft machinery came to a virtual standstill.

An official said the Army has decided to end two-year enlistments, effective tomorrow. Thereafter, only three-year volunteers will be accepted, he said, except for 18-year-olds.

Under the Draft Act, these youngsters may enlist for one year. Any men drafted in the future will serve 21 months.

Reaches 677,000 Limit

The Army's decision to end two-year enlistments resulted from a lowered ceiling in army manpower and the high rate of voluntary enlistments and re-enlistments, averaging 35,000 a month.

Although it was not long ago that the Army was begging for a draft law to meet its manpower needs, officials said Army strength has already reached the new ceiling of 677,000 officers and men. This was the limit recommended by President Truman for the fiscal year starting July 1. Previously, the Army had authority to increase its strength to 937,000 men.

Meanwhile, further draft calls were "frozen."

1-A Classification Halted

Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, Selective Service director, sent out these orders to state directors, with word to pass them along to local boards:

1. Quit sending men to the Army for physical examination.

2. Stop classifying men as A-1 and A-10 (available for immediate induction and conscientious objectors, respectively).

Until further notice, about all the local draft boards will have to do is to put registrants into deferred classifications and register youths turning 18.

Truman Still Ready To Receive Stalin

Repeats Willingness to Talk to Him—in U. S.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13 (AP).—President Truman repeated once more today that he is willing to talk with Premier Stalin if the Soviet leader should come to the United States.

He said so at a conference after a reporter asked about a new "Soviet peace offensive." Mr. Truman said he knew nothing of a "peace offensive."

Then, asked if he were still willing to meet with Mr. Stalin in the United States, the President said he was.

It has been Mr. Truman's long-standing position that he will not leave this country for another Big Three meeting—that is, a talk with heads of the Russian and British governments. But he has said often in the past that he would be glad to talk with Mr. Stalin if Mr. Stalin wants to come to this country.

U.N. Considering Three-Point Program For Indonesian Peace

Lake Success, N.Y., Jan. 13 (AP)—A three-point program for settling the Indonesian conflict was reported under study today by several Security Council delegations.

Informed sources said the delegations were working on a resolution containing these major points:

1. Immediate freedom for Indonesian Republican leaders held by the Dutch.

2. A free election under United Nations supervision.

3. Withdrawal of Dutch troops to previous lines held before the Netherlands began military action last month.

Resolution Expected

These sources said they expected a resolution would be ready for the Security Council when it takes up the Indonesian case again tomorrow at 3 P.M.

The case involves a long conflict between the Netherlands and the Republic of Indonesia. It flared up last month when Dutch troops captured republican leaders and moved into republican territory.

The question of Dutch troop withdrawals was reported to be receiving extremely serious consideration.

Some delegates, speaking privately, said it would be useless for the Council merely to approve a resolution ordering withdrawal of forces and have the Netherlands ignore it.

More Authority For Committee

These delegates said they were considering a plan for the Council to set up a schedule for a graduated withdrawal, with the Council's Committee of Good Offices asked to see that it is carried out.

A spokesman for the Netherlands delegation reiterated his country's opposition to any demand by the Council that Dutch troops retire from Indonesian Republican territory. He said the Netherlands never would carry out such an order from the Council.

Dr. T. F. Tsiang, Chinese delegate, was reported pressing for favorable consideration for his suggestion to give the Committee of Good Offices more authority. An authoritative source said the United States is showing interest in the suggestion. The United States objected to such an idea last summer.

Compared To League Case

Tsiang told the Council Tuesday that the delegates could not remain "negative or dilatory" in the Indonesian problem.

"Failure in the Indonesian question would be as fatal to the United Nations as failure in the Abyssinian (Ethiopian) and Manchurian questions was fatal to the League of Nations," Dr. Tsiang said at that meeting.

Alberto Inocente Alvarez, of Cuba, was reported working on a resolution following roughly the same lines of the three-point plan considered by other delegations. Some delegates indicated an effort would be made to agree before the Council met on one joint proposal.

The Security Council turned briefly this afternoon to a formal session on the Kashmir case. Before the Council was a report from its Kashmir commission on terms for a plebiscite on the political future of the princely state.

Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton, of Canada, Council president, hailed the Kashmir developments as a "most important and encouraging event in the history of the United Nations."

Representatives of India and Pakistan and of several members of the Council indorsed the work of the commission. They expressed the hope that a final settlement would come out of the forthcoming plebiscite under United Nations auspices.

India and Pakistan have been disputing the fate of Kashmir. The commission finally obtained agreement of the two dominions to a plebiscite for the residents of Kashmir to determine their future.

BEDELL SMITH MAY STAY

President Says Need Will Rule on Ambassador's Continuing

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13 (AP)—President Truman said today he thought Lieut. Gen. Walter Bedell Smith would continue as Ambassador to Russia, if necessary; but the President declined to say whether he would insist on General Smith's returning to Moscow.

General Smith, the President said, does not want to remain as Ambassador for reasons of health and other personal reasons. However, the President told his news conference he could not comment on what would be the next step.

'Truth About Yalta' Penned By Stettinius

Washington, Jan. 13 (AP)—Edward R. Stettinius, Jr., former Secretary of State, said today he is about to tell "the truth" about the international commitments made by President Roosevelt at the Yalta Conference.

Asserting that "much untruth has been said about Yalta and certain actions of President Roosevelt there," Stettinius told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee he has "written the record of Yalta."

He said it will be published as soon as it is cleared by the State Department.

Stettinius attended the Yalta conference.

Scientist Says A-Bomb Core Is About the Size of Soft-Ball

MEADVILLE, Pa., Jan. 13—(AP) The explosive heart of an atom-bomb weighs 20 to 30 pounds, and is about the size of a soft-ball, says Prof. J. A. Campbell of Oberlin college.

He made the estimate in a speech tonight to the Erie section of the American Chemical Society.

"In spite of all the supposed secrecy about the bomb, it is easy to show that the explosive charge weighs in the neighborhood of 20 to 30 pounds and occupies a sphere of three or four inches in diameter—about the size of an indoor baseball," Prof Campbell said.

"There's enough uranium and thorium to make 10,000 atom bombs," he added.

This is on the basis of known deposits throughout the world, he said.

"New mines are being discovered monthly throughout the world. Any country with a considerable land aera is bound to have available to it sufficient stocks of fissionable material at least for bomb production."

Campbell did not give the source of his information.

UN GROUPS STUDY 3-POINT PLAN IN INDONESIAN CRISIS

LAKE SUCCESS, Jan. 13—(AP) A three-point program for settling the Indonesian conflict was reported under study today by several security council delegations.

Informed sources said the delegations were working on a resolution containing these major points:

1. Immediate freedom for Indonesian Republican leaders held by the Dutch.

2. A free election under United Nations supervision.

3. Withdrawal of Dutch troops to previous lines held before the Netherlands began military action last month.

These sources said they expected a resolution would be ready for the Security Council when it takes up the Inodnesian case again tomorrow at 3 p.m., E.S.T.

The case involves a long conflict between the Netherlands and the Republic of Indonesia. It flared up last month when Dutch troops captured Republican leaders and moved into Republican territory.

The question of Dutch troop withdrawals was reported to be receiving extremely serious consideration.

British Accused Of Freeing 6,000 Nazis To Fight Jews

Lake Success, N.Y., Jan. 13. (AP). Freda Kirchwey, president of The Nation Associates, today handed the United Nations a document saying Britain has released 6,000 Nazi war prisoners to fight against Israel.

The document, described by Miss Kirchwey as a French intelligence report, was dated December 8, 1948. Copies were sent to Trygve Lie, United Nations secretary general; President Truman and members of the Security Council.

Sir Alexander Cadogan, the British delegate, said he is convinced the charge is unfounded.

"Improbable," Says Frenchman

The French delegate, Guy de la Tournelle, said he could not say if the document was a French intelligence report but that it was "quite improbable."

The report said:

1. The British had offered Nazi prisoners in Egypt 100 pounds ($400) each to volunteer for training to fight against Israel and up to the present 6,000 had been recruited.

2. Former Nazi generals had been flown from the British zone in Germany to the Middle East in British military planes. Three of these generals were attached to the Iraqi-Trans-Jordan command in Palestine, the Syrian high command and the Lebanese high command, the report said.

Asks Probe By Truman

Miss Kirchwey asked President Truman to make a direct investigation of the charges. She asked Mr. Truman and Lie to see that Britain and Egypt "be denied the opportunity of using their privileged positions as members of the Security Council to sabotage decisions of the United Nations and peace in the Middle East."

The Nation Associates is a membership organization which publishes the Nation magazine. Dr. Frank P. Graham, president of the University of North Carolina, is chairman of the board. Other members include Thurmond W. Arnold, Representative Helen Gahagan Douglas (D., Cal.), Philip Murray, president of the CIO, and Eugene O'Neill.

Cadogan said he had not heard of a single Nazi war prisoner being released for use against Israel.

"I should be extraordinarily surprised if anything of that kind had happened," he said. "In fact, I am quite convinced it has not."

FIRST LEAD PALESTINE
BY ARTHUR GAVSHON

LONDON, JAN.13-(AP)-THE FOREIGN OFFICE ANNOUNCED BRITISH AMBASSADOR SIR OLIVER FRANKS WILL SEE PRESIDENT TRUMAN THIS AFTERNOON IN A MEETING APPARENTLY AIMED AT PATCHING UP DEEPENING BRITISH-AMERICAN DIFFERENCES OVER PALESTINE.

A FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN SAID FRANKS WILL SEEK TO "MAKE PLAIN THE ATTITUDE OF HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT, AND TO LEARN FURTHER THE ATTITUDE OF THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT, IN THE HOPE THAT THE TWO COUNTRIES CAN COOPERATE" IN SETTLING THE HOLY LAND CONFLICT.

AN INFORMED DIPLOMATIC SOURCE SAID FRANKS HAS RECEIVED INSTRUCTIONS FROM FOREIGN SECRETARY BEVIN SINCE YESTERDAY'S FOUR-HOUR-LONG BRITISH CABINET SESSION TELLING HIM MAKE THESE POINTS TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN:

1. BRITAIN REGARDS THE JEWS AS THE AGGRESSORS IN THE PRESENT PHASE OF THE PALESTINE WAR.

2. BRITAIN FEELS THAT UNLESS JEWS AND ARABS GET A SETTLEMENT THE "SECURITY, TRANQUILLITY, PEACE" OF THE MIDDLE EAST WILL REMAIN UPSET, WITH RESULTS THAT CAN ONLY BENEFIT COMMUNISM.

3. BRITISH WILL REGARD A JEWISH ATTACK ON THE RED SEA PORT OF AQABA, OR ON ANY OTHER PART OF TRANS-JORDAN, AS AN ATTACK ON ITSELF NOW THAT KING ABDULLAH HAS INVOKED THE BRITISH-TRANS-JORDAN MUTUAL DEFENSE TREATY.

4. BRITAIN DOES NOT INTEND TO SUSPEND THE PRECAUTIONARY MEASURES IT HAS TAKEN IN THE CONFLICT AREA. (THIS INCLUDES ALERTING OF NAVAL UNITS IN EAST MEDITERRANEAN BASES; DISPATCH OF BRITISH TROOPS TO AQABA; PLACING OF RAF AIRFIELDS IN THE SUEZ CANAL ZONE OF EGYPT ON A WAR-PREPAREDNESS BASIS).

A FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN SAID BRITISH GOVERNMENT LEADERS ARE CONCERNED AT BRITISH AND AMERICAN DIFFERENCES OVER THE PALESTINE SITUATION.

HE SAID BRITAIN SEEMS TO APPROACH THE PROBLEM FROM THE VIEWPOINT OF ITS "INTERESTS" WHILE THE UNITED STATES APPEARS TO BE INFLUENCED MORE BY ITS "SYMPATHIES."

LONDON, JAN.13-(AP)-THE ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY, DR.GEOFFREY FISHER, CONDEMNED TODAY THE ARREST BY THE COMMUNISTS IN HUNGARY OF JOSEF CARDINAL MINDSZENTY AND BISHOP LAJOS ORDAS, LUTHERAN BISHOP OF BUDAPEST.

HE CHARGED THAT COMMUNISM IS USING "INSIDIOUS MEANS" TO FRUSTRATE ACTIVITIES OF THE CHURCH.

ADDRESSING CHURCH OF ENGLAND CLERGYMEN ATTENDING THE ANNUAL CONVOCATION OF CANTERBURY, THE ARCHBISHOP SAID THE ARRESTS "GRAVELY AFFECTED BOTH THE PROTESTANT AND THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCHES ON THE CONTINENT."

THE ARRESTS, HE ADDED, "GRIEVOUSLY INCREASE OUR SENSE OF THE DANGERS TO WHICH THE WESTERN CHURCHES ARE EXPOSED IN A LARGE PART OF EASTERN EUROPE."

CARDINAL MINDSZENTY WAS ARRESTED IN DECEMBER ON CHARGES OF HIGH TREASON AND ALLEGED BREACHES OF THE CURRENCY LAWS. (BISHOP ORDAS WAS SENTENCED IN OCTOBER TO TWO YEARS IMPRISONMENT FOR ALLEGED OFFENSES AGAINST THE CURRENCY LAWS.)

"WE ARE WITNESSING A DEADLY STRUGGLE BETWEEN THE CHRISTIAN FAITH AND THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH ON THE ONE SIDE, AND ON THE OTHER A COMMUNISM WHICH WILL NOT TOLERATE ANY FORM OF THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH UNLESS IT BE SUBSERVIENT TO ITSELF," SAID DR. FISHER.

"AS WE KNOW FROM MUCH EVIDENCE, EVEN WHEN IT TOLERATES IT, COMMUNISM ONLY TOO OFTEN TAKES CARE BY INSIDIOUS MEANS TO FRUSTRATE ITS ACTIVITIES, TO SAP ITS LIFE, AND TO CUT IT OFF FROM ITS BOYS AND GIRLS AS THEY GROW UP."

PALESTINE CRISIS: London Adds Air Crisis

ISRAELI FORCES SHOT DOWN FIVE BRITISH PLANES LAST FRIDAY. THE ENCOUNTER NEAR THE BORDER FURTHER COMPLICATED THE TOUCHY PALESTINE PROBLEM.

DURING THE DAY BRITISH AMBASSADOR SIR OLIVER FRANKS WENT TO CALL ON MR.TRUMAN. THE VISIT WAS VIEWED HERE AS AN ATTEMPT TO EASE AMERICAN-BRITISH DIFFERENCES OVER PALESTINE SAID TO BE CAUSING CONCERN TO BRITISH GOVERNMENT LEADERS.

A24

ACCORDING TO A FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN FRANKS WAS EXPECTED TO MAKE CLEAR THAT:

1. BRITAIN REGARDS THE JEWS AS THE AGGRESSORS IN THE PRESENT PHASE OF THE PALESTINE WAR.

2. THE BRITISH WILL REGARD A JEWISH ATTACK ON THE RED SEA PORT OF AQABA, OR ANY OTHER PART OF TRANS-JORDAN, AS AN ATTACK ON BRITAIN HERSELF. KING ABDULLAH HAS INVOKED THE BRITISH-TRANS-JORDAN MUTUAL DEFENSE TREATY AND BRITISH TROOPS HAVE LANDED IN AQABA.

3. BRITAIN DOES NOT INTEND TO SUSPEND THE PRECAUTIONARY MEASURES SHE HAS TAKEN IN THE MIDDLE EAST. IN ADDITION TO THE AQABA LANDING THESE INCLUDE THE ALERTING OF NAVAL UNITS IN EASTERN MEDITERRANEAN BASES AND THE PLACING OF RAF AIRFIELDS IN THE SUEZ CANAL ZONE OF EGYPT ON A PREPAREDNESS BASIS.

4. BRITAIN FEELS THAT UNLESS THE JEWS AND ARABS GET A SETTLEMENT THE MIDDLE EAST WILL REMAIN UPSET WITH RESULTS THAT CAN ONLY BENEFIT COMMUNISM. ISRAELI AND EGYPTIAN DELEGATIONS ARE AT RHODES

FOR ARMISTICE TALKS BEING CONDUCTED BY ACTING UNITED NATIONS MEDIATOR RALPH J.BUNCHE.

THE FOREIGN OFFICE STATEMENT SAID:

"THE BRITISH AUTHORITIES UNDERTOOK THE AIR RECONNAISSANCE ON THEIR OWN RESPONSIBILITY.

"IN CONVERSATIONS ON THE SITUATION WHICH TOOK PLACE AT THE STATE DEPARTMENT AT THE END OF THE YEAR, HOWEVER, THE URGENT NEED FOR PRECISE INFORMATION AS TO THE FACT AND EXTENT OF THE ISRAELI INCURSIONS INTO EGYPT WAS CLEAR TO BOTH SIDES.

"AS SUCH INFORMATION WAS UNOBTAINABLE FROM UNITED NATIONS SOURCES, OWING TO THE EXCLUSION OF UNITED NATIONS OBSERVERS BY THE ISRAELI AUTHORITIES, THE BRITISH AUTHORITIES HAD RECOURSE TO THE ONLY OTHER MEANS AVAILABLE OF OBTAINING SUCH INFORMATION, NAMELY, AIR RECONNAISSANCE."

BERLIN, JAN. 13-(AP)-THE RUSSIANS TODAY INTENSIFIED THEIR LITTLE COLD WAR AGAINST MARSHAL TITO'S YUGOSLAV MILITARY MISSION HERE BY PUBLISHING ALLEGATIONS ACCUSING IT OF "ANTI-SOVIET SLANDER."

THE ALLEGATIONS WERE ATTRIBUTED TO ONE VITOMIR NEDIC, DESCRIBED AS FORMER BERLIN CORRESPONDENT FOR THE OFFICIAL YUGOSLAV NEWS AGENCY TANJUG, AND WERE DISTRIBUTED BY THE RUSSIAN-CONTROLLED GERMAN NEWS AGENCY ADN.

A WEEK AGO THE SOVIET COMMAND HERE CHARGED THAT MEMBERS OF THE YUGOSLAV MISSION WERE ENGAGED IN LARGE-SCALE BLACKMARKETING AND DEMANDED THAT THE MISSION STAFF BE REDUCED BY 90 PER CENT.

YUGOSLAV SPOKESMEN DENIED THOSE CHARGES AND ASSERTED THE PERSONS NAMED BY THE SOVIETS WERE NOT OFFICIAL PERSONNEL BUT YUGOSLAV DISPLACED PERSONS. THEY CLAIMED THE RUSSIANS NEVER PRESENTED THE CHARGES OFFICIALLY BUT ONLY THROUGH THEIR CONTROLLED RESS.

THE NEW BLAST AT THE YUGOSLAV MISSION--WHICH HAS BEEN INCREASINGLY IN THE SOVIET DOGHOUSE SINCE TITO'S BREAK WITH THE COMINFORM--ALSO WAS PUBLISHED IN THE SOVIET OFFICIAL PRESS TODAY.

YUGOSLAV SPOKESMEN DECLINED COMMENT WHEN ASKED ABOUT THE NEW ASSAULT.

NEDIC SAID HIS WORK AS JOURNALIST IN BERLIN HAD GIVEN HIM OPPORTUNITY TO WITNESS HOW THE "CRIMINAL" POLICIES OF THE "TRAITOROUS TITO CLIQUE" WERE BEING EXECUTED BY THE YUGOSLAV MISSION HERE. AS A RESULT HE DECIDED TO BREAK WITH "THESE ENEMIES OF THE YUGOSLAV PEOPLE," HE WROTE IN AN OPEN LETTER PUBLISHED BY THE SOVIET-CONTROLLED NEWSPAPERS.

MEANWHILE, THE BIG COLD WAR HERE BETWEEN THE COMMUNISTS AND THE WEST CONTINUED NON-STOP.

PRESS REPORTS SAID THE RUSSIANS HAD TAKEN DIRECT CONTROL OF TRAFFIC INSPECTION MEASURES WITHIN THE CITY TO PLUG LOOPHOLES IN THEIR BLOCKADE AGAINST WESTERN BERLIN. HENCEFORTH, THESE PUBLISHED REPORTS SAID, CERTAIN MATERIALS MAY NOT BE TRANSPORTED ACROSS OCCUPATION SECTOR BORDERS WITHOUT STAMPED ORDERS FROM SOVIET HEADQUARTERS.

JAN 1949

HERETOFORE SUCH AUTHORITY HAD GENERALLY BEEN INVESTED IN THE SOVIET-CONTROLLED GERMAN POLICE. ANTI-COMMUNIST NEWSPAPERS SAID THE RUSSIANS DECIDED TO TAKE OVER DIRECT CONTROL AFTER THEY FOUND SOME GERMAN POLICE WERE ACCEPTING BRIBES TO PERMIT CARGOES OF FOODSTUFFS AND OTHER MATERIALS TO SLIP THROUGH THE BLOCKADE.

BERLIN, JAN. 13-(AP)-THE AMERICAN-LICENSED DENA NEWS AGENCY CLAIMED TODAY THE RUSSIANS WERE CONDUCTING "A THIRD WAVE" OF FACTORY DISMANTLINGS IN THEIR ZONE OF GERMANY.

AMONG THE INDUSTRIES BEING DISMANTLED FOR SHIPMENT TO RUSSIA, THE AGENCY REPORTED, WAS THE AMERICAN-OWNED SINGER SEWING MACHINE FACTORY AT ZWICKAU, IN SAXONY.

SOME RUSSIAN DISMANTLINGS OF AMERICAN-OWNED PLANTS IN EASTERN GERMANY HAVE PREVIOUSLY BEEN CONFIRMED BY U.S. MILITARY GOVERNMENT SOURCES, BUT NO CONFIRMATION OF TODAY'S REPORT COULD IMMEDIATELY BE OBTAINED FROM AVAILABLE SOURCES HERE.

DENA CLAIMED THE NEW SOVIET DISMANTLING LIST COMPRISED 205 PLANTS, INCLUDING 162 TO WHICH THE RUSSIANS HAD SEIZED TITLE FOR REPARATIONS BUT WHICH THEY HAD UNTIL NOW OPERATED IN GERMANY WITH GERMAN LADOR.

ABOUT A YEAR AGO SOVIET OCCUPATION AUTHORITIES PUBLICLY ASSURED THE GERMANS THEY HAD FINISHED REMOVING FACTORIES.

BY TOM REEDY

JAN

BERLIN, JAN. 13 -(AP)- BRITISH OCCUPATION AUTHORITIES ANNOUNCED TONIGHT MAX REIMANN, WESTERN GERMAN COMMUNIST PARTY LEADER, WILL BE TRIED NEXT TUESDAY ON CHARGES OF OBSTRUCTING THE RUHR STATUTE, allied control of

A COMMUNIST PARTY STATEMENT, AUTHORIZED BY REIMANN, SAID THE BRITISH CHARGE WAS ONE AGAINST "THE ONLY PARTY IN GERMANY WHICH FIGHTS THE RUHR STATUTE WITHOUT ANY COMPROMISES."

REIMANN WAS SUMMONED TO APPEAR BEFORE A MILITARY COURT AT DUESSELDORF UNDER ORDINANCE NUMBER EIGHT OF THE BRITISH OCCUPATION LAW. THE RUHR STATUTE PUTS THE IMPORTANT COAL AND STEEL CENTER UNDER STRICT CONTROL OF THE WESTERN ALLIES TO PREVENT IT BECOMING AGAIN A WAR POTENTIAL OF GERMANY. JAN 1949

REIMANN IS ALLEGED TO HAVE SAID AT A PUBLIC MEETING, JAN. 2:

"GERMAN POLITICIANS WHO ARE PREPARED TO WORK UNDER THE RUHR STATUTE SHOULD NOT BE SURPRISED IF THEY ARE REGARDED BY THE GERMAN NATION AS QUISLINGS. THE TIME WILL COME WHEN THEY WILL HAVE TO ACCOUNT WITH REPRISALS."

Reimann said at Bonn that he was NOT surprised by the charges but by the "arguments presented in the charge."

The suave communist chief declared the accusation confirmed "communist charges against those german politicians that their work helps the military government. their political activity supports the military government in carryng through its political aims in western germany."

Reimann said the ruhr statute was designed to prevent a german peace treaty, perpetuate the occupation and "incorporate western germany into a western european military alliance."

JAN 1949

shortly after he was served with the british summons at bonn communist leaders in Duesseldorf said they had postponed the start of their "information campaign on the ruhr statute." Communist chieftains scheduled an emergency meeting at Duesseldorf Friday and said ruhr campaign pamphlets would NOT be distributed at present.

ORDINANCE NUMBER EIGHT DOES NOT PROVIDE SPECIFIC PENALTIES FOR VIOLATIONS BUT PERMITS THE JUDGE TO FIX THE EXTENT OF PUBISHMENT.

A BRITISH OFFICIAL SAID IF REIMANN IS CONVICTED THE PENALTY WOULD NOT BE "VERY STIFF".

"IT WOULD SERVE NO PARTICULAR PURPOSE TO SEND HIM UP FOR FIVE YEARS OR SOMETHING LIKE THIS" SAID THIS INFORMANT WHO WOULD NOT BE QUOTED BY NAME [redacted] "BUT HE MUST UNDERSTAND HE CAN'T WANDER AROUND THE BRITISH ZONE MAKING REMARKS LIKE THAT."

REIMANN JUMPED IN TO CRITICIZE THE RUHR STATUTE AS SOON AS

IT WAS ANNOUNCED. THE COMMUNISTS LINE IS THAT, UNDER THE PROPOSED PLAN,

THE RUHR WOULD BE HARNESSED TO "WESTERN MONOPOLY CAPITALISM". IN

ONE SPEECH REIMANN SAID THE UNITED STATES WAS ANNEXING THE RUHR

THROUGH THE STATUTE. HE CARRIED HIS OBJECTION TO THE WESTERN GERMAN

PARLIAMENT AT BONN WHERE A CONSTITUTION IS BEING WRITTEN.

JAN 1949

ANOTHER WAVE OF DISMANTLING GERMAN INDUSTRIES BY THE RUSSIANS WAS REPORTED TODAY BY THE AMERICAN-LICENSED DENA NEWS AGENCY.

IT SAID THAT AMONG THE INDUSTRIES BEING DISMANTLED FOR

CARTING HOME TO RUSSIA WAS THE AMERICAN-OWNED SINGER SEWING MACHINE

FACTORY AT ZWICKAU, IN SAXONY.

THERE WAS NO CONFIRMATION OF THIS BY U.S. MILITARY GOVERNMENT

SOURCES.

THE RUSSIANS USED THE SOVIET-LICENSED GERMAN NEWS AGENCY ADN XB FOR ANOTHER BLAST AT THE JUGOSLAV BERLIN MISSION TODAY. IT PUBLISHED A STATEMENT BY VITOMIR NEDIC, DESCRIBED AS A FORMER BERLIN CORRESPONDENT FOR A YUGOSLAV NEW AGENCY. THIS JOURNALIST CONTRIBUTED TO RUSSIA'S LITTLE COLD WAR AGAINST THE YUGOSLAV REGIME BY REFERRING TO THE "CRIMINAL" POLICIES OF "THE TRAITOROUS TITO CLIQUE " BEING EXECUTED BY THE YUGOSLAV MISSION IN BERLIN.

JAN 1948

LAST WEEK THE SOVIET COMMAND HERE CHARGED THE MEMBERS XD OF THE JUGOSLAV DIPLOMATIC AND MILITARY MISSION IN BERLIN WITH ENGAGING IN LARGE-SCALE BLACKMARKETING AND DEMANDED 90 PER CENT OF ITS PERSONNEL BE RECALLED.

Berlin, Jan 13-(AP)-The British today formally accused Max Reimann, western German communist leader, of public criticism of the Ruhr occupation statute. He was summoned to a trial Tuesday in Duesseldorf.

Specifically, Reimann is charged with having "encouraged discrimination against persons who have given or may hereafter give aid and assistance to the military government of the allied forces."

The British control commission said Reimann did this is a public meeting at Duesseldorf Jan. 2. The communist party leader was reported to have told an audience:

"German politicians who are prepared to work under the Ruhr statute should not be surprised if they are regarded by the German nation as quislings. The time will come when they will have to account with reprisals."

Reimann led an attack on the Ruhr statute from the time is was announced. The plan of the western allies calls for strict control of the Ruhr coal and steel area. The communists contend that the plan harnesses the Ruhr to what they call "western monopoly capitalism." #

NANKING, JAN. 13-(AP)-CHINA'S NATIONAL GOVERNMENT IS APPROACHING BOTH MILITARY AND FINANCIAL BANKRUPTCY AT A SPEED WHICH MAY CAUSE ITS COLLAPSE WITHOUT DIRECT COMMUNIST ATTACK ON THE CAPITAL.
THIS SITUATION WAS ACCURATELY FORECAST THREE YEARS AGO BY GEN. GEORGE C. MARSHALL WHEN HE TOLD NATIONAL LEADERS DURING HIS EFFORTS TO BRING PEACE THAT "YOU MUST QUIT FIGHTING AND DISBAND YOUR ARMIES OR FACE BANKRUPTCY."
THE LACK OF READY FUNDS IS AFFECTING NOT ONLY ATTEMPTS TO REMOVE OFFICIALS AND PROPERTY TO PLACES OF GREATER SAFETY BUT IS PREVENTING A CONTINUANCE OF THE NORMAL PROCESSES OF GOVERNMENT.
ACTUAL GOVERNMENTAL FUNCTIONS ARE RAPIDLY BEING SHIFTED FROM NANKING TO PROVINCIAL AND HSIEN (COUNTY) LEADERS WHOSE ABILITY TO COLLECT TAXES AND CONTROL TERRITORIES IS GROWING AS THE STRENGTH OF CHIANG KAI-SHEK EBBS.
THE LOSS OF TU LI-MING'S WELL EQUIPPED ARMIES IN THE ENCIRCLEMENT NEAR SUCHOW IS CONSIDERED THE FINAL BLOW TO THE GOVERNMENT'S ABILITY TO HANG ON NORTH OF THE YANGTZE RIVER. THERE ARE MANY OBSERVERS HERE WHO SAY THE DEFENSE OF NANKING ITSELF IS IMPOSSIBLE IN VIEW OF THE DETERIORATION OF THE GOVERNMENT'S UNITY, STRENGTH AND POWER.
THE NORMAL SYSTEM BY WHICH THE NATIONAL INCOME IS GATHERED AND THEN DISTRIBUTED HAS BEEN DEFINITELY SMASHED BY CIVIL WAR DEVELOPMENTS.
TODAY IT WAS LEARNED FROM RELIABLE CHINESE SOURCES THAT NOT EVEN THE PERSONAL ORDER OF CHIANG KAI-SHEK IS CERTAIN TO PRODUCE MONEY FROM THE CENTRAL BANK BECAUSE IN THEIR WORDS "THERE JUST ISN'T ANY MONEY."
MINISTRIES IN MANY CASES HAVE EXHAUSTED MONEY GIVEN TO THEM FOR EXPENSES BECAUSE OF THE RAPID DROP IN THE VALUE OF THE GOLD YUAN. THEY ARE NOW SEEKING FRANTICALLY FUNDS WITH WHICH TO CONTINUE OPERATIONS ON EVEN A SKELETON BASIS.
ONE OF THE GOVERNMENT'S MOST IMPORTANT MINISTRIES, IT WAS LEARNED, HAS A GRANT OF ONLY 20,000 GOLD YUAN (AT EXISTING BLACKMARKET RATES LESS THAN $73) A MONTH FOR EXPENSES OF ITS PERSONNEL.

TOKYO,FRIDAY, JAN. 14-(AP)-GENERAL MACARTHUR TODAY LOOSENED THE STRINGS ON FOREIGN BUSINESS ACTIVITIES IN JAPAN IN ORDER TO ATTRACT MORE INTERNATIONAL TRADE.
HE ISSUED A DIRECTIVE TO THE JAPANESE GOVERNMENT RELAXING RESTRICTIONS TO PERMIT FOREIGN TRADERS TO MAKE LIMITED INVESTMENTS AND ACQUIRE BUSINESS PROPERTIES IN JAPAN.
IN ORDER TO MAKE JAPAN MORE ATTRACTIVE FOR FOREIGN CAPITAL, HE ALSO TOLD THE GOVERNMENT TO ELIMINATE DISCRIMINATORY LEGISLATION AND TO REVISE CORPORATION TAXES, WHICH NOW ARE AS HIGH AS 56 PER CENT.
ALL THIS TIES IN WITH THE RECENTLY TOUGHENED U. S. POLICY OF PUSHING THE JAPANESE TOWARD GREATER SELF SUFFICIENCY.

RHODES, JAN. 13-(AP)-EGYPT'S PROBLEM OF NEGOTIATING DIPLOMATICALLY WITH A NATION SHE DOES NOT RECOGNIZE APPEARS TO BE A RETARDING FACTOR IN ISRAELI-EGYPTIAN ARMISTICE TALKS.
THE FIRST FORMAL GET-TOGETHER WAS SCHEDULED FOR TODAY.
A MEMBER OF THE STAFF OF DR. RALPH J. BUNCHE, ACTING UNITED NATIONS MEDIATOR FOR PALESTINE, SAID THAT IF A FACE SAVING COMPROMISE IS NOT FOUND, THE PRELIMINARY STAGES WILL BE DIFFICULT.
HE SAID BUNCHE IS EAGER FOR THE EGYPTIANS TO SEND A HIGH RANKING FOREIGN MINISTRY OFFICIAL ON THE LEVEL WITH THE CHIEF OF ISRAEL'S DELEGATION, WALTER EYTAN. EYTAN IS DIRECTOR GENERAL OF THE ISRAELI FOREIGN MINISTRY.
EGYPT'S CHIEF DELEGATE IS COL. MOHAMED IBRAHIM SEIF EDDINE, CHIEF

OF STAFF. HE IS AIDED BY TWO COLONELS AND THREE FOREIGN OFFICE MEN.
IN COMMON WITH HER ARAB ALLIES, EGYPT HAS NOT OFFICIALLY ACKNOWLEDGED THE EXISTENCE OF ISRAEL. EGYPTIANS GENERALLY REFER TO THE TEL AVIV GOVERNMENT AND ITS FORCES AS "ZIONISTS."

COMPETENT OBSERVERS SAID ISRAEL'S DECISION TO SEND HIGH DIPLOMATIC OFFICIALS TO THE PARLEY GAVE HER AN EARLY ADVANTAGE IN THE NEGOTIATIONS, WHICH STARTED ON THIS GREEK ISLAND YESTERDAY.

BECAUSE OF THE NATURE OF THE EGYPTIAN DELEGATES, IT IS BELIEVED THEY ARE PREPARED TO DISCUSS ONLY MILITARY PHASES OF THE DISPUTE, WHICH IS UNLIKELY TO SATISFY THE ISRAELIS. MILITARY QUESTIONS INCLUDE THE SECURITY COUNCIL ORDER FOR WITHDRAWAL OF ISRAELI TROOPS FROM NEGEV AREAS THEY HAVE WON SINCE MID-OCTOBER AND LIFTING OF THE JEWISH SIEGE OF AN EGYPTIAN BRIGADE AT FALUJA.

ISRAELI SOURCES INDICATED THEY WERE WILLING TO EXPLORE THE JAN 1949
DISPUTE FROM THE MILITARY PHASES THROUGH TO DIPLOMATIC CONCLUSIONS.

SEVERAL THOUSAND EGYPTIAN TROOPS HAVE BEEN CUT OFF BY THE ISRAELIS AT FALUJA. THE COUNCIL RESOLUTIONS DEAL WITH WITHDRAWAL OF FORCES IN THE NEGEV, OR SOUTHERN PALESTINE DESERT.

IT WAS AGREED ALSO TO DISCUSS THE DRAFTING AND INITIATING OF AN ARMISTICE AGREEMENT.

AT THE HALF HOUR MEETING BOTH EYTAN AND COL.SEIF EXPRESSED HOPES FOR PEACE.

EYTAN SAID ISRAEL IS "PROFOUNDLY CONSCIOUS OF THE HISTORIC QUALITY OF THIS OCCASION. THIS IS THE FIRST OFFICIAL MEETING BETWEEN REPRESENTATIVES OF TWO STATES WHICH FOR THE PAST EIGHT MONTHS HAVE BEEN LOCKED IN CONFLICT, BUT WHICH HAVE NO NATURAL CAUSE FOR ENTERTAINING FEELINGS OF HOSTILITY.

"WE SEE IN THIS FIRST MEETING A GREAT STEP FORWARD ON THE ROAD WE HAVE SOUGHT TO TRAVEL FROM THE FIRST."

COL.SEIF SAID HE SHARED WITH BUNCHE "HOPES THAT OUR DISCUSSIONS WILL RESULT IN THE ESTABLISHMENT OF AN ARMISTICE."

EGYPT, WHICH HE DESCRIBED AS BEING "IMPLICATED" IN THE PALESTINE FIGHTING AFTER FOUR UNSUCCESSFUL EFFORTS FOR PEACE, CAME TO THE PARLEY WITH A "SPIRIT OF COOPERATION AND CONCILIATION AND A SINCERE DESIRE TO RESTORE PEACE IN PALESTINE," HE SAID.

NIGHT LEAD PALESTINE(650)

BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON,JAN.13-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN ENDORSED EMPHATICALLY TODAY A DETAILED AMERICAN POLICY STATEMENT FOR BRINGING PEACE AND STABILITY TO PALESTINE AND THE MIDDLE EAST.

AND HE DENIED THAT RELATIONS BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN ARE STRAINED BECAUSE OF THE SITUATION.

THE POLICY DECLARATION TO WHICH MR.TRUMAN GAVE HIS UNQUALIFIED SUPPORT AT A NEWS CONFERENCE WAS MADE TO A UNITED NATIONS MEETING IN PARIS LAST NOV.20. IT SETS FORTH THREE OBJECTIVES AND A SEVEN-POINT PROGRAM FOR UNITED NATIONS ACTION--ALL AIMED AT PERMANENTLY ENDING THE JEWISH-ARAB WAR AND CREATING POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC STABILITY THROUGHOUT THE MIDDLE EAST.

PRESUMABLY MR.TRUMAN TOLD SIR OLIVER FRANKS, BRITISH AMBASSADOR, SUBSTANTIALLY THE SAME THING. HE RECEIVED FRANKS EARLIER IN THE DAY AT A CONFERENCE WHICH THE AMBASSADOR URGENTLY REQUESTED ON INSTRUCTIONS FROM BRITISH FOREIGN MINISTER BEVIN.

FRANKS WAS REPORTED TO HAVE HAD TWO OBJECTIVES IN HIS TALK WITH THE PRESIDENT:

1. TO SET FORTH BRITAIN'S NEW AND TOUGHER POLICIES IN THE MIDDLE EAST INCLUDING TROOP DISPOSITIONS IN TRANSJORDAN.

2. TO OBTAIN DIRECTLY FROM THE AMERICAN CHIEF EXECUTIVE A CLARIFICATION OF AMERICAN POLICY.

IN ADDITION FRANKS IS BELIEVED TO HAVE URGED UPON MR.TRUMAN THE CLOSEST POSSIBLE ANGLO-AMERICAN COOPERATION THROUGH FIRM MEASURES IN TRYING TO RESTORE PEACE AND HOLD DOWN A POTENTIALLY EXPLOSIVE SITUATION.

SHORTLY BEFORE THE TRUMAN NEWS CONFERENCE, THREE INCIDENTS IN QUICK SUCCESSION SEEMED TO HIGHLIGHT DIFFICULTIES BETWEEN THIS COUNTRY AND BRITAIN OVER PALESTINE ISSUES:

1. SENATOR MORSE (R-ORE) ACCUSED BRITAIN IN THE SENATE OF A "DELIBERATE AND PROVOCATIVE ACT" IN SENDING PLANES OVER THE EGYPTIAN-PALESTINE BORDER AREA LAST FRIDAY. FIVE BRITISH RECONNAISSANCE PLANES WERE SHOT DOWN. MORSE SAID THE UNITED STATES MUST MAKE IT CLEAR TO BRITISH PREMIER BEVIN THAT "THIS GOVERNMENT WILL NOT IGNORE WHAT HAS HAPPENED." MORSE CALLED IT "A DELIBERATE BRITISH ATTEMPT TO FORCE ITS WAY" INTO ISRAEL TERRITORY.

2. THE STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALLY DISCLAIMED ANY RESPONSIBILITY FOR BRITAIN'S ACTION IN OPERATING PLANES IN THE AREA.(SO DID MR.TRUMAN) PRESS OFFICER MICHAEL J.MC DERMOTT SAID THE UNITED STATES HAD BEEN TOLD BY BRITAIN THAT ISRAELI TROOPS HAD ENTERED EGYPT, BUT THAT AMERICAN CONFIRMATION WAS OBTAINED FROM ISRAELIS AND EGYPTIANS AND THAT NO SUGGESTION WAS MADE THAT THE BRITISH THEMSELVES OBTAIN CONFIRMATION.

3. SENATOR BREWSTER (R-ME), REFERRING TO REPORTS OF BRITISH MILITARY AND DIPLOMATIC ACTIVITY IN THE PALESTINIAN SITUATION, SAID IN THE SENATE THAT "IF BRITAIN IS SHOWN TO BE ABLE TO SPEND LARGE AMOUNTS OF MONEY ON CAPRICIOUS MILITARY AND DIPLOMATIC ADVENTURES, THIS CAN BE TAKE AS PRIMA FACIE PROOF THAT ITS NEED FOR HELP (UNDER THE MARSHALL PLAN) MUST BE EXAGGERATED."

A56WX

THE AMERICAN STATEMENT ON PALESTINE TO WHICH MR.TRUMAN REFERRED HAD BEEN PREPARED AT THE STATE DEPARTMENT AND WAS PRESENTED TO A UNITED NATIONS GENERAL ASSEMBLY COMMITTEE BY DR.PHILLIP C.JESSUP, AN AMERICAN DELEGATE.

THE THREE OBJECTIVES IN THE STATEMENT MR.TRUMAN ENDORSED WERE DECLARED TO BE (1) ESTABLISHMENT AND MAINTENANCE OF PEACE IN THE PALESTINE AREA,(2) ATTAINMENT OF A POLITICAL SETTLEMENT CONTRIBUTING TO THE STABILITY AND ECONOMIC WELL BEING OF THE MIDDLE EAST, AND (3) RECONCILIATION OF ARAB AND JEWISH COMMUNITIES "IN MATTERS AFFECTING PALESTINE."

THE SEVEN POINTS FOR ACTION COVERED (1) USE BY THE UNITED NATIONS OF "EVERY FEASIBLE MEASURE" IN BEHALF OF AN ARAB-JEWISH PEACE AND HARMONIOUS RELATIONS BETWEEN THE TWO PEOPLES (2) ADMISSION ISRAEL TO THE UNITED NATIONS, (3) DETERMINATION OF ISRAEL'S BOUNDARIES, (4) BOUNDARY ADJUSTMENTS DESIGNED TO PROVIDE "GEOGRAPHICAL HOMOGENIETY" FOR ARAB AND JEWISH TERRITORIES, (5) "SPECIAL TREATMENT" FOR JERUSALEM BECAUSE OF ITS RELIGIOUS AND INTERNATIONAL SIGNIFICANCE, (6) REPATRIATION OF PALESTINE REFUGEES, AND (7) POSSIBLE U.N. GUARANTEES FOR BOUNDAIRES AND THE MAINTENANCE OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN PALESTINE.

JESSUP'S DECLARATION AS HE ORIGINALLY PRESENTED IT REPRESENTED A WORKING STATEMENT OF THE AMERICAN POSITION AS OF LAST NOVEMBER; MR.TRUMAN'S ENDORSEMENT RAISED THE STATEMENT TO THE IMPORTANCE OF A POLICY PAPER.

THE QUESTION OF STRAINED RELATIONS BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN CAME UP WHEN A REPORTER TOLD THE PRESIDENT THERE HAD BEEN PRESS REPORTS FROM LONDON THAT RELATIONS BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES WERE STRAINED. THE PRESIDENT ANSWERED IMMEDIATELY THAT THEY ARE NOT.

IT WAS IN CONNECTION WITH HIS DISCLAIMER OF UNITED STATES RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE ACTION OF THE BRITISH PLANES THAT MR.TRUMAN UNEXPECTEDLY BROUGHT UP THE QUESTION OF AMERICAN POLICY.

DIPLOMATIC AUTHORITIES SPECULATED THAT THIS ISSUE WAS FRESH IN HIS MIND BECAUSE OF HIS CONFERENCE WITH BRITISH AMBASSADOR FRANKS.

MR.TRUMAN VOLUNTEERED TO THE REPORTERS THAT WHAT HE CALLED THE AMERICAN POSITION ON THE PALESTINE SITUATION WAS STATED ON NOV.20 BY DR.JESSUP AT THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

WASHINGTON,JAN.13-(AP)-REP.DAVENPORT (D-PA) ACCUSED THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE TODAY OF BEING RESPONSIBLE, DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY, FOR "EITHER MURDER OR SUICIDE X X X BROKEN HOMES, BROKEN LIVES AND SHATTERED REPUTATIONS."

IN A STATEMENT INSERTED IN THE CONGRESSIONAL RECORD, DAVENPORT SAID THE COMMITTEE HAD ENGAGED IN "SHOCKING EXAMPLES OF TOTALITARIAN TACTICS" AND SHOULD BE ABOLISHED.

HE URGED THE HOUSE TO APPROVE HIS RESOLUTION TO DO AWAY WITH THE SPY PROBE GROUP, AND SHIFT ITS ACTIVITIES TO THE HOUSE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE.

DAVENPORT SAID COMMUNISTS SHOULD BE WATCHED, SPIES AND SABOTEURS SHOULD BE ROUTED, AND GOVERNMENT EMPLOYES SHOULD BE 100 PER CENT LOYAL TO AMERICA AND BEHOLDEN TO NO FOREIGN POWER OF FOREIGN IDEOLOGY."

BUT, HE SAID, ALL THIS SHOULD BE APPROACHED "IN THE AMERICAN WAY, UNDER THE AMERICAN CONSTITUTION AND AMERICAN CONCEPT OF FAIR PLAY."

DAVENPORT DEFEATED A REPUBLICAN MEMBER OF THE COMMITTEE--FORMER REP.MCDOWELL--TO GAIN HIS HOUSE SEAT.

IN HIS STATEMENT, HE SAID: "THE VOTERS IN MY DISTRICT HAVE SHOWN BY THEIR VOTE X X X WHAT THEY THOUGHT OF THE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES

COMMITTEE.
"THE PEOPLE OF THE WHOLE COUNTRY ARE SICK AND TIRED OF THE SILLY ANTICS OF THAT COMMITTEE."
THE PENNSYLVANIAN DECLARED THAT DR.E.U.CONDON, DIRECTOR OF THE NATIONAL BUREAU OF STANDARDS, WHO WAS DESCRIBED BY THE COMMITTEE AS ONE OF THE WEAKEST LINKS IN THIS COUNTRY'S ATOMIC SECURITY CHAIN, IS "NOT THE ONLY EMINENT SCIENTIST TO FEEL THE SMEAR OF THE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE."
HE CONTINUED:
"SCORES OF PROMINENT EDUCATORS, SCIENTISTS, WRITERS AND LIBERALS HAVE BEEN SMEARED, MALIGNED, SLANDERED AND SCORED BY THE HEADLINE-HUNTING COMMITTEE. AND NONE OF THEM WAS GIVEN A CHANCE TO PRESENT THEIR STORIES.
"THE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE FLOUTED THE FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS OF MANY OF OUR CITIZENS. IT IS DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY RESPONSIBLE FOR EITHER MURDER OR SUICIDE. IT IS TO BLAME FOR BROKEN HOMES, BROKEN LIVES AND SHATTERED REPUTATIONS.
DAVENPORT SAID THAT "NO MATTER HOW WELL MEANING" THE NEW MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE MAY BE, THE COMMITTEE "WILL FAIL TO RECAPTURE THE PUBLIC CONFIDENCE AND RESPECT."

MARSHALL PLAN (300)

WASHINGTON,JAN 13-(AP)-EUROPEAN MARSHALL PLAN OFFICIALS HAVE EXPRESSED FEAR THAT A "POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC" CRISIS LOOMS FOR EUROPE WHEN AMERICAN RECOVERY HELP ENDS.

ROBERT MARJOLIN, SECRETARY-GENERAL OF THE ORGANIZATION FOR EUROPEAN ECONOMIC COOPERATION (OEEC) IN PARIS, SAID THE 19 MARSHALL PLAN NATIONS EXPECT NO FURTHER U.S. AID AFTER THE PROGRAM ENDS IN MID-1952. BUT, HE ADDED, AN EXPECTED $3,000,000,000 (B) ANNUAL TRADE DEFICIT WILL FORCE EUROPE'S GOVERNMENTS TO MAKE "UNPLEASANT DECISIONS."

HE TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE LATE YESTERDAY THAT UNLESS THESE GOVERNMENTS AGREE ON FIVE MAJOR POLICY COURSES THEIR TOTAL IMPORTS IN 1952-53 MUST BE CUT 25 PERCENT UNDER THE LEVEL NOW SCHEDULED AND IMPORTS FROM NORTH AMERICA MUST DROP 40 PERCENT TO SAVE SCARCE DOLLARS.

"IT WOULD MEAN A COMPLETE DISRUPTION OF ECONOMIC SYSTEMS IN EUROPE--A POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC CRISIS," HE SAID.

MARJOLIN, A FRENCHMAN, SAID THE MARSHALL PLAN GOVERNMENTS MIGHT AVOID THAT BY:

1. STABILIZING CURRENCIES--WHICH, IN MOST CASES, MEANS TAKING ANTI-INFLATIONARY STEPS.
2. LOWERING PRICES, SO EUROPE CAN SELL MORE ABROAD.
3. CREATING NEW SOURCES OF SUPPLY IN THE COLONIES, SO THEY CAN EARN MORE DOLLARS FOR THEMSELVES AND THE MOTHER COUNTRIES.
4. EXPANDING TRADE AMONG THEMSELVES TO MAKE EUROPE LESS DEPENDENT ON OVERSEAS SOURCES.
5. CUTTING IMPORTS EVEN BELOW THE "AUSTERITY" LEVELS WHICH NOW PREVAIL IN MANY COUNTRIES.

MARJOLIN IS ONE OF A GROUP OF OEEC OFFICIALS NOW IN WASHINGTON ON THE INVITATION OF THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION, TO ASSIST IN PREPARING THE SECOND-YEAR MARSHALL PLAN PROGRAM FOR PRESENTATION TO CONGRESS.

ANOTHER MEMBER, SIR EDMUND HALL-PATCH, CHAIRMAN OF THE OEEC EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE, SAID EVEN A BOOST IN AMERICAN FINANCIAL AID IN THE THREE REMAINING YEARS OF THE MARSHALL PLAN WOULD NOT ENABLE EUROPE TO WIPE OUT THE ENTIRE EXPECTED TRADE DEFICIT.

THE SPEED OF RECOVERY IS LIMITED IN SEVERAL FIELDS, HE EXPLAINED, BY WORLD-WIDE SUPPLY SHORTAGES.

WASHINGTON,JAN.13-(AP)-A SIDNEY, OHIO, FARMER TODAY ASKED TWO MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE TO AID A NATIONWIDE "GRASS ROOTS" PROGRAM FOR THE SENDING OF 10,000 FOOD PACKAGES TO NEEDY EUROPEANS.

THE FORMER, LOUIS F.WARBINGTON, CONFERRED WITH CHAIRMAN BLOOM (D-NY) AND REP.VORYS (R-OHIO) OF THE COMMITTEE, ESPECIALLY SEEKING THEIR HELP TOWARD HAVING THE GOVERNMENT TAKE PART.

WARBINGTON TOLD BLOOM HE HAD SUCCESSFULLY CARRIED OUT SUCH A PROGRAM IN SHELBY COUNTY, OHIO, WHERE 256,000 POUNDS OF FOOD WORTH $50,000 WAS COLLECTED FROM FARMERS AND OTHERS AND SHIPPED TO NEEDY PEOPLE IN GERMANY.

HE SAID HE WOULD LIKE TO SEE THE PLAN EXTENDED TO 500 COUNTIES THROUGHOUT THE NATION.

HE ADDED, HOWEVER, THAT GOVERNMENT AID WOULD BE NECESSARY TO DEFRAY ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSE.

BLOOM PROPOSED THAT THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION BE ASKED TO ALLOT $1,000,000 FOR THAT PURPOSE.

HE SAID IF THE VARIOUS COUNTIES THAT MIGHT BE BROUGHT INTO THE PROGRAM RAISED THE MONEY FOR ACTUAL FOOD PURCHASES, HE DID NOT SEE HOW ECA WOULD LOSE ANYTHING BY TAKING PART IN THE PLAN.

BLOOM SUGGESTED, HOWEVER, THAT WARBINGTON AND HIS FELLOW WORKERS FOCUS FIRST ON OHIO'S 88 COUNTIES BEFORE TRYING TO EXPAND THE PROGRAM TO A NATIONWIDE FOOTING.

ADVISING WARBINGTON TO DEVELOP THE PLAN IN GREATER DETAIL, BLOOM PROMISED THAT AT A LATER DATE HE WOULD ARRANGE A MEETING FOR THE FARMER WITH PAUL G.HOFFMAN, ECA ADMINISTRATOR.

WARBINGTON TOLD BLOOM AND VORYS HE BELIEVES PERHAPS 10 MEN SHOULD BE SENT TO EUROPE TO SEE CONDITIONS FIRST HAND SO THEY WOULD BE BETTER ABLE TO DEVELOP THE PROGRAM IN THE UNITED STATES.

WARBINGTON HIMSELF SERVED FOUR MONTHS IN GERMANY IN THE ARMY'S CIVIL AFFAIRS SECTION, AND CREDITS HIS INTEREST IN THE PROGRAM TO THIS EXPERIENCE.

BLOOM VOICED DOUBT THAT SUCH AN EDUCATIONAL PRELUDE WOULD BE NECESSARY.
"YOU SHOULD BE ABLE TO GET THE IDEA ACROSS TO THE OTHERS THAT WILL HAVE TO BE TRAINED," BLOOM SAID.
"I DON'T THINK ONE MAN CAN TRANSMIT THE FEELING PROPERLY," REPLIED WARBINGTON.
"WHY NOT?" ASKED BLOOM. "TRUMAN DID IT (IN THE CAMPAIGN)."
VORYS EXPRESSED CONCERN LEST THE PERSONAL TOUCH BE LOST BY DRAWING ECA INTO THE PLAN.
WARBINGTON STRESSED THAT EACH FOOD PACKAGE SENT FROM SHELBY COUNTY CONTAINED A LETTER FROM THE DONOR TO THE RECIPIENT.
HE SAID 90 PERCENT OF THE DONORS HAD RECEIVED REPLIES OF THANKS.
"YOU DON'T WANT TO LOSE THAT PART OF IT," SAID VORYS. "THAT'S THE BEAUTY OF THE IDEA."
WARBINGTON PROMISED TO IRON OUT DETAILS OF THE PLAN AND REPORT BACK TO BLOOM AND VORYS IN THE NEAR FUTURE.

UNDER SECRETARY OF STATE LOVETT TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE YESTERDAY THAT A COMMUNICATION HAD BEEN RECEIVED FROM CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S GOVERNMENT BUT DECLINED TO SAY WHAT IT WAS ABOUT.
HOWEVER, PRESS DISPATCHES FROM NANKING HAVE REPORTED THAT CHINA WAS RAISING THE QUESTION OF POSSIBLE ACTION BY ONE OR MORE OF THE BIG FOUR NATIONS--BRITAIN, FRANCE, AMERICA AND RUSSIA--TO TRY TO END THE LONG CONFLICT BETWEEN CHINESE GOVERNMENT AND COMMUNIST FORCES.
THESE REPORTS ARE IN LINE WITH INFORMATION FROM DIPLOMATIC SOURCES HERE. THE CHINESE EVIDENTLY HAVE NOT DIRECTLY SUGGESTED MEDIATION BUT HAVE OPENED THE WAY EITHER TO SUGGEST IT OR TO HAVE SOME NATION OR GROUP OF NATIONS VOLUNTEER "GOOD OFFICES," BY INQUIRING AS TO THE ATTITUDE OF EACH OF THE BIG FOUR ON THE POSSIBILITIES OF A PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT IN CHINA.
SOME ANSWER MAY BE SENT TO NANKING BY THE STATE DEPARTMENT IN A FEW DAYS, BUT INDICATIONS ARE THAT NO STEP WILL BE TAKEN BY WASHINGTON WITHOUT CAREFUL CHECKING WITH LONDON AND PARIS.
DIPLOMATS CONSIDER IT A SPECULATIVE POSSIBILITY THAT MOSCOW'S OPINION ON THE CHINA SITUATION IS ALSO BEING SOUGHT BY THE UNITED STATES AND POSSIBLY BY THE OTHER WESTERN POWERS.
IT SEEMS LIKELY THAT NONE OF THE WESTERN NATIONS WOULD WANT TO MAKE A MOVE IN CHINA WHICH WOULD BRING IT INTO DIRECT CONFLICT WITH ANY PENDING SOVIET MOVE THERE.
AS FAR AS THE UNITED STATES IS CONCERNED, OFFICIALS APPARENTLY DO NOT INTEND TO PUT THIS GOVERNMENT IN POSITION OF TAKING RESPONSIBILITY FOR ANY FUTURE ACTION OF GENERALISSIMO CHIANG, WHETHER DIRECTED TOWARD MAKING PEACE OR CONTINUING THE WAR.
AMERICAN POLICY IN RECENT MONTHS HAS BEEN HANDS OFF AND OFFICIALS HERE INSIST THAT NEITHER IN WASHINGTON NOR NANKING HAVE AMERICAN AUTHORITIES URGED ANY PARTICULAR COURSE OF ACTION UPON CHIANG.
THE SITUATION IS FURTHER COMPLICATED BY THE FACT THAT CHIANG'S NEW YEAR'S APPEAL FOR PEACE HAS BEEN REJECTED BY THE COMMUNISTS AND AUTHORITIES IN THE WESTERN CAPITALS ARE REPORTED UNCERTAIN WHETHER THERE IS IN FACT ANY BASIS FOR OUTSIDE MEDIATION OR WHETHER EFFORTS ALONG THAT LINE WOULD HAVE ANY CHANCE OF SUCCESS.
THE U.S. SOUNDING OUT OF BRITISH AND FRENCH OPINION ON CHIANG'S LATEST MEDIATION MANEUVER EVIDENTLY OCCURS AS PART OF A LARGER PICTURE OF INFORMAL TALKS AMONG THE WESTERN POWERS ABOUT THE WHOLE PROBLEM OF COMMUNISM IN ASIA.
THE IMMEDIATE AIM OF THESE DISCUSSIONS, INVOLVING PRINCIPALLY LONDON AND WASHINGTON, IS TO TRY TO FIND SOME WAY OF BLOCKING THE SPREAD OF COMMUNISM IN OTHER AREAS IN ASIA IF THE COMMUNISTS SUCCEED IN TAKING OVER ALL CHINA.

THE UJA GAVE NO BREAKDOWN ON HOW MUCH OF THE $250,000,000 WOULD BE ALLOCATED TO EACH OF THE AGENCIES, THE UPA, THE JOINT DISTRIBUTION COMMITTEE AND THE UNITED SERVICE FOR NEW AMERICANS. THE JDC HANDLES JEWISH RELIEF PROBLEMS IN EUROPE. THIS YEAR IT ALSO PLANS AID FOR NEEDY JEWS IN NORTH AFRICA. THE USNA ASSISTS JEWS ENTERING THE UNITED STATES UNDER THE DISPLACED PERSONS ACT.

UNDATED PALESTINE

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

BRITAIN TRIED TODAY TO PATCH UP DIFFERENCES WITH THE UNITED STATES OVER DIVERGING VIEWS ON PALESTINE. HER AMBASSADOR, SIR OLIVER FRANKS, MADE AN APPOINTMENT WITH PRESIDENT TRUMAN, THE BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE ANNOUNCED, TO "MAKE PLAIN" THE BRITISH LABOR GOVERNMENT'S ATTITUDE TOWARD ISRAEL.

FOREIGN SECRETARY BEVIN WAS SAID TO HAVE SUMMED UP BRITISH POLICY THUS: BRITAIN REGARDS THE JEWS AS AGGRESSORS IN PALESTINE; UNLESS THE ARABS AND JEWS SETTLE THEIR WAY, COMMUNISM ONLY WILL BENEFIT IN THE MIDDLE EAST; ANY JEWISH ATTACK ON TRANS-JORDAN WOULD BRING INTO PLAY BRITAIN'S MUTUAL ASSISTANCE TREATY WITH THAT ARAB STATE; AND BRITAIN DOES NOT INTEND TO SUSPEND SECURITY MEASURES SHE HAS TAKEN IN THE AREA.

EGYPT AND ISRAEL WERE TO BEGIN ARMISTICE TALKS AT RHODES UNDER UNITED NATIONS AUSPICES. THE EGYPTIANS HAVE BEEN KICKED AROUND RATHER SUBSTANTIALLY BY THE JEWISH ARMY IN SOUTHERN PALESTINE.

UNREST IN EGYPT LED TO ANOTHER EXPLOSION IN A CAIRO SQUARE IN WHICH ONE OR TWO PERSONS WERE KILLED AND 16 INJURIED. THE EGYPTIAN PREMIER, MAHMOUD FAHMY NOHRASHY PASHA, WAS ASSASSINATED LATE LAST MONTH.

ANTHONY EDEN, AN OPPOSITION SPOKESMAN, ACCUSED HIS SUCCESSOR, FOREIGN SECRETARY BEVIN, OF CONFUSED HANDLING OF AFFAIRS IN PALESTINE. HE EXPRESSED FEAR OF A BREAK WITH THE UNITED STATES, WHICH HAS POURED TENS OF BILLIONS OF DOLLARS INTO BRITAIN THIS DECADE IN LEND-LEASE, MARSHALL PLAN AID, ETC.

EDEN SAID BOTH THE BRITISH LABOR PARTY AND THE U.S. ARE TO BLAME FOR THE PALESTINE TROUBLE "FOR FAILURE EITHER TO DECLARE A FIRM POLICY OR TAKE A FIRM LINE."

"SURELY THE TIME HAS NOW COME WHEN A SUPREME EFFORT MUST BE MADE TO AGREE ON AN ANGLO-AMERICAN POLICY AND CARRY IT OUT," HE SAID.

BRITISH RELATIONS WITH ISRAEL, WHICH SHE DOES NOT RECOGNIZE, BECAME TENSE LAST FRIDAY WHEN THE SMALL JEWISH STATE SHOT DOWN FIVE BRITISH PLANES NEAR THE PALESTINE-EGYPTIAN FRONTIER. THE JEWS EXPRESSED CONCERN BECAUSE THE BRITISH UNDER THEIR TREATY WITH TRANS-JORDAN SENT TROOPS TO THE RED SEA PORT OF AQBA, THE ONLY SEA OUTLET TRANS-JORDAN HAS.

THE UNITED STATES HAS SOUGHT TO EASE OFF THE TENSION AND SOME OFFICIALS HAVE EXPRESSED ANNOYANCE AT THE WAY THE BRITISH HANDLED THE SITUATION.

Capture of Tientsin By Reds Reported; 'Peace Terms' Given

INDUSTRY CENTER IN NORTHERN CHINA HELD MAJOR PRIZE

Peace Proposals Amount to Outright Surrender of Chiang's Regime

TERMS ARE SEVERE

Reds Demand Punishment of Generalissimo as War Criminal

FRED HAMPSON

SHANGHAI, (Saturday), Jan. 15 —(AP) Reports reaching here today said Chinese communists have occupied Tientsin.

(The source of the reports was not given in this brief dispatch).

These accounts said red soldiers moved through the streets, firing their rifles into the air, and shouting for the nationalists troops to come out of hiding and surrender.

Earlier, the communists had been reported shelling the big northern industrial city, cutting all communications with the outside.

The communist radio had announced an all-out attack on the city.

Tientsin Major Prize

(If true, Tientsin's capture hands the reds one of their greatest prizes of the civil war. It is a modern city of factories, largely built up by western capital after the First World War).

The assault on Tientsin coincided with a Chinese communicat broadcast of "peace terms" which amount to outright surrender of Chiang Kai-shek's government.

A long broadcast yesterday quoted communist Chairman Mao Tse-tung as saying a few more heavy military blows would crumble Chiang's regime "into dust and extinction." The reds seemed to be dealing the blows in the north.

Spencer Moosa, Associated Press correspondent in Peiping, said all communications were cut off with Tientsin. He quoted an official source as saying the Communications Building there was hit by shells. All communications between Tientsin and Shanghai also were out.

Claim Tientsin Entry

The Communists preceded their broadcast of peace conditions with an announcement their troops had smashed into Tientsin at noon yesterday and an all-out assault is in progress.

Moosa's dispatch said Gen. Lin Piao, commanding the assault, had thrown four of his best columns (about 60,000 men) into Tientsin in an attempt to cut the city in two.

Gen. Fu Tso-yi, commander in North China, identified them as "the pick of Lin Piao's army." His headquarters said "in Manchuria they had the reputation of being ever victorious."

A headquarters spokesman asserted the four columns were smashed, losing two thirds of their strength (a probable exaggeration), while the defenders lost 5,000 men.

'Human Sea' Tactics

The spokesman said the Communists were using "human sea" tactics, by which a defense is overwhelmed by wave on wave of attackers.

The spokesman asserted the attacks had spent their force by 10 P.M. Thursday. The Communist broadcast, however, said attacks continued yesterday.

Abrogate Constitution

The statement by Mao, broadcast from Yenan headquarters in both Chinese and English, listed these terms:

"1. Punish war criminals." [This would include Chiang Kai-shek, who heads the Communist list of Government leaders so designated.]

"2. Abrogate the bogus constitution." [Adopted in 1946 without Communist participation.]

"3. Abolish the Kuomintang's 'legitimacy of traditional institutions.' [The Communist version of this point called for "calendar years to be counted from Anno Domini, not the republic's founding." This insistence on the Christian calendar apparently was one of the means intended to wipe out the tradition of the republic founded in 1911.]

U.S. Bitterly Assailed

"4. Remold all reactionary armies in accordance with democratic principles.

"5. Confiscate bureaucratic capital.

"6. Reform the agrarian (land) system.

"7. Abrogate treaties of national betrayal. [Other portions of the text made clear that this referred to the United States, which was bitterly assailed.]

"8. Convoke a political consulative conference without the participation of reactionary elements, establish a democratic coalition government, take over all power from the Nanking Kuomintang reactionary Government and its lower levels of Government."

(These terms closely parallel those listed by AP Correspondent Spencer Moosa Jan. 13 in a dispatch quoting sources in red-besieged Peiping).

In a review covering the two and one-half years since the American-sponsored truce broke down, Mao Tse-tung elaborated most of his terms.

"During these two and one-half years of war," he said, "the Nanking reactionary government in violation of the will of the people convened a bogus national assembly, promulgated a bogus constitution, elected a bogus president (Chiang Kai-shek), promulgated a so called order of mobilization for suppression of rebellion.'

"It betrayed national rights wholesale to the American government, and obtained several billions of American dollars in foreign loans from the American government.

"It brought in the American government's naval and air forces to occupy China's territory and territorial seas and encroach on her air sovereignty, concluded many treaties of national betrayal with the American government, accepted the American military advisory group's participation in China's civil war.

"It obtained from the American government large quantities of planes, tanks, heavy and light artillery, machine guns, rifles, shells, ammunition and other military materials for the slaughter of the Chinese people."

(In Washington a State department spokesman said the only treaties between the United States and China were those of friendship and commerce, made last year, and American renunciation of extra-territorial privileges, concluded in 1943. There are also understood to be a number of agreements covering economic cooperation).

Mao charged that the Chiang government started the civil war because it was "lured by the glitter of American weapons" and "thought that assistance from the American government would be powerful and limitless."

Chinese Reds Demand Cut In U.S. Ties

Other foreign news, Page 20

Shanghai, Jan. 14 (AP)—Mao Tze-tung, Chinese Communist leader, today demanded abrogation of treaties between China and the United States as one of eight prerequisites of peace.

The Red leader, in a Chinese-language broadcast heard here, also demanded trial of "war criminals," presumably to follow any peace move.

Conditions Cited

Mao, accusing Chiang Kai-shek of warring against the Communists because he was lured by the glitter of American weapons, called upon the Nationalist leader to show the sincerity of his desire for peace by accepting Mao's conditions.

Mao said China was depending on United States support against the people's will. He added that Red soldiers will liberate them.

Eight peace conditions (which may be modified by an English-language broadcast) were given:

1. Trial of all "war criminals." Chiang heads the Red list of "war criminals," followed by Madame Chiang, who is now in the United States.
2. Cancellation of the constitution.
3. Calendar years to be counted from Anno Domini and not from the Republic of China's founding.
4. Elimination of "reactionaries" from the Government and Army.
5. Confiscation of "bureaucratic" capital.
6. Land reforms.
7. Cancellation of "treacherous" treaties with imperialist nations.
8. Formation of a state council to include all Chinese elements, except reactionaries.

Tientsin Assault Opens

Meanwhile several big buildings in downtown Tientsin were reported hit by artillery shells in a stepped-up shelling of the besieged city.

[The Communist radio in a broadcast heard by the Associated Press in San Francisco announced an all-out assault to take Tientsin was started by Red troops at 10 A.M. Chinese time. The radio added that many troops had entered the city and were "exploiting their successes."

[The radio said the attack followed a 24-hour cease-fire order, which had not been reported previously by any other source. The Tientsin Red commander, Gen. Liu Ya-lou, gave National troops that period in which to lay down their arms, the radio said.

Reds Give Warning

[The broadcast said the cease-fire order was given to a four-man commission from the Tientsin City Council. The Red commander, it continued, told the Tientsin mission that the Communists did not want to destroy North China's first industrial city and guaranteed life and property to all soldiers of the Government who stopped fighting.

[The Communist general warned that if the Reds were forced to take the city the National leaders would bear responsibility for damage to Tientsin, the radio said.]

News Agency Hit

Reuter, the British news agency, received word in Shanghai late in the day that its office in Tientsin had been hit by a Communist shell and was being abandoned by the staff.

Other reports reaching Shanghai said that several streets in the city had been roped off because of unexploded shells.

Several Government buildings in the North China city were reported hit by shells.

Shell Burst In Peiping

Casualties were said to be mounting and hospitals were reported jammed by wounded.

A Nanking report said the Communists had begun to drop both artillery and anti-aircraft shells into Peiping. At least one person was reported killed and several wounded when one shell exploded near the east gate of Peiping's forbidden city. Anti-aircraft shells fired at Government planes caused other casualties in the city, the Nanking reports said.

In Nanking, legislators met to discuss peace measures. Their demands called for revision of the Chinese constitution, a convention of the National Assembly and the election of a new president and vice president.

Ask Chiang To Act

The demands were made by Huang Tung, elder North China representative, in a speech before an informal meeting of the lawmakers.

His proposals, which followed closely some of the suggestions from the Reds themselves, found little support among the legislators, who termed them "premature at this time."

Another Northern legislator, Li Feng, asked that the National Government issue a cease-fire order immediately. Li, saying that the Government had taken "no offensive action against the Communists" in two years, suggested that Chiang designate a high-ranking representative to go into the Communist areas to seek a negotiated peace.

Specific Plan Sought

At the same time, he suggested that the legislative and control Yuans make direct appeals to similar Communist bodies for peace.

There was almost frantic sentiment among the Nanking legislators present for an end of the war at all cost.

Kuomintang legislator Chang Tao-fan, who previously had urged a "figth to the finish" argued, however, that "we can obtain nothing by just talking—what we need is to draw up a definite plan and then follow it."

Peace Talks Widen

The legislators argued for several hours without reaching a decision on whether to insist upon a regular session of the full body.

One report of the broadened scope of peace talks in North China came from Spencer Moosa, Associated Press correspondent in Peiping.

Moosa said his report came from besieged Tientsin, 90 miles southeast of Peiping. He had talked by telephone with a foreign source here.

BEVIN TO FACE SEVERE TEST ON PALESTINE ISSUE

A. GAVSHON

LONDON, Jan. 14 (AP)—Ernest Bevin faces one of the biggest tests of his career as foreign secretary over the developing Palestine crisis.

Some members of his own Labor Party and the conservative opposition led by Winston Churchill will assail his handling of the Holy Land situation soon after the House of Commons re-assembles next week.

Many laborites said privately today they intend to call for quick British recognition of Israel so that the conservatives will not be able to use the issue in the 1950 general election campaign.

Attacked by Press

British newspapers, ranging from extreme right to extreme left, have accused Bevin of fouling up British-American relations by his attitude toward Israel.

One conservative legislator said Churchill intends personally to lead his party's attack on Bevin and probably will call for a debate on the issue just as soon as the house meets Tuesday.

Leaders of the conservative, liberal and communist parties have come out flatly for British recognition of the young Jewish state. Dissatisfaction in parliament over aspects of Britain's Middle East policies was brought to a head last Friday when five low-flying British reconnaissanve planes were shot down near the Palestine-Egyptian border.

Speculation that the Palestine issue might compel Bevin to resign is not borne out by informed officials in touch with members of the cabinet. They say Bevin has the backing of a powerful group of ministers including Prime Minister Attlee. However, there are persistent reports in British papers that the cabinet is divided on its attitude toward Bevin.

German Frontier Changes

LONDON, Jan. 14 (AP)—The British Foreign Office said today agreement has been reached among the Western powers on minor changes in Germany's frontier. A spokesman declined to specify at a news conference the location and extent of the changes, and emphasized they are provisional—subject to a final German peace settlement. The agreements were reached in Paris at talks attended by representatives of the United States, Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxemburg.

Lord Winster Flying Back To Cyprus Post

London, Saturday, Jan. 15 (AP)—Lord Winster, Governor of Cyprus, is returning today by air to the British island colony in the eastern Mediterranean, the Colonial Office announced.

He came to London in early November on what was officially described as "leave" and for conferences with Arthur Creech Jones, Colonial Secretary.

Later, the Colonial Office announced Winster had resigned but that he would continue in office for the time being.

A Colonial Office spokesman said the date for leaving his post has not been set.

30 of 90 B-29s Training In Britain Called Home

LONDON, Jan. 14 (AP).—The American force of ninety B-29 bombers, training in Britain since last summer, will soon be reduced temporarily to sixty.

A United States Air Force spokesman said today that the thirty Superfortresses of the 301st Bomb Group will start returning to Salina, Kan., Jan. 17. Replacement by a new group "is being deferred for a few months," he said.

The 301st was the first of three groups to arrive last July when the U. S. A. F. assigned the 3d Air Division for training in England with approval of the British government. Replacement is being deferred for "administrative and training convenience," the spokesman said.

The thirty Superfortresses, carrying between 800 and 900 crewmen and maintenance personnel, will make overnight stops in the Azores and at McDill Field, Tampa, Fla., on the way to Salina.

Six Germans Are Hanged For War-Crime Atrocities

Munich, Germany, Jan. 14 (AP)—Six German war criminals were hanged today in a resumption of executions at Landsberg Prison.

Four of them were involved in the slaying of unarmed American service men and two in the killing of concentration-camp inmates.

Five of those sent to the gallows had been recommended for clemency by a special commission headed by Texas Supreme Court Judge Gordon Simpson. Their death sentences were reaffirmed, however, by Gen. Lucius D. Clay, American military governor.

Given Reprieve

One war criminal, scheduled to hang today, was given a last minute reprieve. He is Franz Weiss, 48, German Army sergeant, accused of shooting a wounded GI at Stattmatten, France.

The Army said Weiss' case will be reviewed by Clay.

Today's hangings raised to 97 the number of war criminals executed at Landsberg since October 15. The executions, which were held eight consecutive Fridays, were stopped December 3, and not resumed until today.

Names Of Executed

Those executed today were:

HANS ENGELNIEDERHAMMER, 43, German railway official, accused of helping a crowd fatally beat an American flyer who landed near Munich.

JOSEF EHLEN, 35, and AUGUST VIEHL, 49, Nenterhausen labor camp officials, accused of participating in the death of four parachuted United States airmen.

HANS SCHNEIDER, 30, medical sergeant accused of shooting a wounded American soldier at Stattmatten, France.

ENGEN ZIEHMER, 43, Flossenburg concentration camp "trusty" charged with beating one inmate with a sledge hammer and killing others by forcing a water hose into their mouths.

HANS MERBACH, 38, SS lieutenant, who shot inmates on a death march from Buchenwald to Dachau concentration camp. Some 5,000 began the trip and only 1,100 arrived.

The Simpson commission on a visit to Europe last summer recommended that the sentences of all except Merbach be commuted to life.

6 NAZIS HANGED FOR WAR CRIMES

MUNICH, Germany, Jan. 14 (AP)—Six Germans were executed today at Landsberg Prison raising to 97 the number of war criminals hanged there since Oct. 15.

A seventh man, Franz Weiss, was given a last minute reprieve. Weiss, 48-year-old German army sergeant, is accused of shooting a wounded American soldier at Stattmatten, France. His case will be reviewed by Gen. Lucius D. Clay, American military governor.

Five of those sent to the gallows had been recommended for clemency by a special commission headed by Texas Supreme Court Judge Gordon Simpson. Clay re-affirmed their death sentences, however. Those executed were:

Hans Engelniederhammer, 43, German railway official; Joseph Ehlen, 35, and August Viehl, 49, Nenterhausen labor camp officials; Hans Schneider, 30, medical sergeant; Eugen Ziehmer, 43, Flossenburg concentration camp trusty, and Hans Merbach, 38, SS (elite guard) lieutenant.

The Simpson commission had recommended that the sentences of all except Merbach be commuted to life. He was convicted of killing concentration camp inmates on a death march from Buchenwald to Dachau. Some 5,000 began the trip and only 1,100 arrived.

Ziehmer also was convicted of killing concentration camp inmates. The others executed were involved in the slaying of unarmed American service men.

Berlin's 'Little Vittles' Organizer Steps Down

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 14 (AP). Lieut. Gail S. Halvorsen is being transferred back to the United States, but his "Little Vittles" project will continue.

The Garland (Utah) flyer originated the airlift sideline of dropping handkerchief parachutes with candy bars for Berlin children. He figured today that he and his flying buddies so far have sent 90,000 of the miniature parachutes fluttering down over the Russian-blockaded city.

Will Keep In Touch

Halvorsen has turned the project over to Lieut. Lawrence L. Casky, of Enid, Okla.

But he expects to keep in contact with the operation. He believes his next assignment will be flying giant C-74 Globemasters, which support the lift by flying supplies from the United States. The tall, sandy-haired flyer is still amazed at the attention "Little Vittles" has attracted.

He received 1,400 Christmas cards from people in the United States. Berliners have sent him 4,000 letters of gratitude.

Single "Grouch" Letter

He has received only one "grouch" letter. That was from an American who said Halvorsen was wasting his time.

He has received two marriage proposals, both from the United States.

His most pressing problem is how to thank thousands of persons who have contributed candy and parachutes.

Halvorsen's most faithful contributor is Miss Dorothy Groeger, of Hillside, N.J., an invalid. From her telephone she has organized her community into a "Little Vittles" center. She has been responsible for sending more than 500 pounds of candy, neatly attached to tiny parachutes.

Christmas Candy

Some of Halvorsens candy bars have landed in the Russian sector of Berlin. He got a letter from a woman there, saying she was waiting for a streetcar when two parachutes with candy landed at her feet, "just in time for my children's Christmas."

Halvorsen made about 125 airlift flights. His most memorable was on a day when Berlin was "socked in" by fog, and the airlift planes had to return to Frankfurt. Halvorsen determined his position over Berlin by radio fixes and sent 500 "candychutes" down through the fog.

Air Lift Aids Refugees

194 White Russians Flown Out of Berlin to Escape Reds

BERLIN, Jan. 14 (AP).—The American air lift today completed evacuation of 194 White (anti-Soviet) Russian refugees from Berlin to Western Germany to get them out of reach of the Communists.

The evacuation, which began Dec. 15, was disclosed today by the American Military Government's displaced persons branch. It had been kept secret to prevent any interference by the Communists.

A military government statement said the White Russians had requested that their departure from blockaded Berlin be hastened because "their proximity to Soviet-occupied territory made their situation insecure." Most of them are eventually scheduled for emigration to Argentina after processing in displaced persons camps in the American occupation zone.

Clay Aide In Germany Returns To D.C. Post

Berlin, Jan. 14 (AP)—The United States Military Government announced the return to the United States of its financial advisor, Jack Bennett, of Macon, Ga., to resume his duties with the Treasury Department.

Bennett is one of Gen. Lucius D. Clay's oldest advisors in point of service. He played a leading part in arranging western Germany's currency reform. Bennett is leaving at his own request.

"In all my experience in government, I have never worked with a man whom I considered of higher character or more devoted to his work than Mr. Bennett," General Clay commented. "Military Government has lost one of its ablest leaders."

U.S. Ships Leave Gibraltar

Concentration Breaks Up as Replaced Vessels Sail for Home

GIBRALTAR, Jan. 14 (AP).—A concentration of thirty-seven American naval vessels broke up today as Admiral Richard L. Conolly sailed for Malta. The ships gathered here were relieving and replacing ships of the Eastern Atlantic and Mediterranean forces which the admiral commands. They were three large aircraft carriers, six cruisers, sixteen destroyers, four submarines and eight supply and store ships.

Ships returning to the United States sailed today, but most of the relief units will remain here until Jan. 17. Admiral Conolly sailed on his flagship, the cruiser Columbus.

Italian Reds Organize War Against Joblessness

ROME, Jan. 14 (AP).—Italy's Communists declared today that Italian workers from north to south are organized for a major battle against unemployment and lay-offs.

Labor unrest has built up steadily through the last weeks as winter emphasized the woes of the idle. Simultaneously, industry edged forward with a program to clear factories of an estimated 150,000 workers whom employers call superfluous. Most of these workers have been kept on pay rolls during the last eighteen months by Communist strike threats whenever lay-offs were suggested.

A government agency called the Committee for Industrial Reconstruction added to tension two days ago by deciding to liquidate two companies. Although the companies are to be reorganized, the C. I. R.'s decision would mean at least temporary unemployment for several thousand industrial laborers.

JAN 1949

Naoussa's Capture Admitted

NIGHT

Athens, Jan. 14 (AP)—Communist guerrillas have captured the biggest part of Naoussa, 90 miles west of Salonika, from its garrison of 400, a Greek communiqué announced today.

Slipping out of the mountains in misty weather, two to three guerrilla brigades two days ago attacked the highly industrial town which had a prewar population of 12,000. It was the twenty-first attack on Naoussa since the beginning of the guerrilla war.

The garrison put up desperate resistance but was driven to the eastern edge of the town and to a mountain, one mile north, the communiqué said. Heavy fighting was said to be going on for possession of the mountain and for another height south of Naoussa.

The height to the south dominates the road along which Government reinforcements, including armor, were due. The weather cleared somewhat today and the Greek Air Force began attacking with machine-gun and rocket fire.

Demanded Free Hand

Press reports said casualties among the population were heavy and that large numbers had been abducted by the guerrillas. The town was said to have suffered heavily from fires, looting and demolition.

Tonight aged Premier Themistokles Sophoulis threatened to resign in the Cabinet dispute now raging over the naming of a generalissimo to take complete command of the war against the guerrillas.

King Paul immediately said he would call on the 88-year-old Prime Minister tomorrow at 10 A.M. to discuss the situation. The King will take this unusual step rather than summon Sophoulis to him because of the Premier's ill-health.

Earlier this week the appointment of Gen. Alexander Papagos as supreme commander of the Greek forces was announced by the War Ministry. The appointment was held up when Papagos demanded a free hand independent of the American and British military missions. The General demanded that the Supreme Defense Council, which has American and British members, be abolished.

Immediate Necessity

In a statement reviewing recent political developments and negotiations for Cabinet changes, Sophoulis underlined what he called the necessity for the immediate appointment of a generalissimo. He also called for "the suppression of the privileges of the political-economic obligarchy and of plutocratic exploitation, the crushing of corruption and the sanitation of the administration."

He concluded that "if I am not given a chance to form a government in the above light" he would resign.

Sophoulis, Liberal party leader, heads a Liberal-Populist coalition which took over the Government in November. A previous Liberal-Populist Cabinet resigned under fire for failing to suppress Communist-backed guerrillas.

Wider Representation Urged

Second man in the Cabinet is Constantin Tsaldaris, Vice Premier and Foreign Minister, who is head of the Populist (royalist) party.

Widening of party representation in the Cabinet was recommended this week by United States representatives in Greece. The United States is spending $350,000,000 in Greece in the year ending June 30 to help fight Greek guerrillas.

Before Sophoulis's statement tonight, George Papandreou, Social Democratic leader, and Panayotis Kanellopoulis, leader of the National Unionists, said talks leading to representation in the Cabinet for their parties had gotten nowhere.

GREEKS IN RETREAT

Athens, Jan. 14 (A. P.).—The Greek General Staff reported today that Government forces had been forced to retreat in heavy fighting with guerrillas attacking the town of Naoussa, ninety miles west of Salonika.

After at least three days of fighting, most of the town was reported in the hands of the Communist-led guerrillas. The General Staff communique said: "Our forces inside the town were to a large extent withdrawn to the eastern edge." Other informants said bitter hand-to-hand fighting was reported on a height south of Naoussa dominating the road by which Government reinforcements were expected to arrive.

The General Staff said on Wednesday that tanks and armored cars had been sent to Naoussa. from Philopina

Markos Puts Loss At 720

Paris, Jan. 14 (AP)—Greek Government forces lost 720 men killed or wounded in today's fighting around Nauossa, a communiqué from Markos Vafiades, Communist chieftain, said tonight.

The communiqué was broadcast by the Markos radio and heard here by the French Press Agency.

Markos forces claimed that "the large number of prisoners included the colonel commanding the battalion." Eighty-one trucks and four tanks were listed as destroyed and three tanks and two guns captured.

Greek Gift Armlet Being Returned

Athens, Jan. 14 (AP)—The jeweled bracelet which the Greek Government gave to the wife of Eugene Clay, former economic adviser to the American mission here, will be returned, an authoritative American source said today.

This source said Clay had made arrangements to return the $7,000 bracelet through the Greek Embassy in Washington.

Clay is a nephew of Gen. Lucius D. Clay, American military governor in Germany. He served more than a year and a half with the American mission to aid Greece.

Although there was no announcement from the Greek Government why its present to Clay's British wife was being returned, it is believed Clay's decision was provoked by the sharp criticism of the Government's action in the Greek press and in private circles.

The conservative newspaper Estia said at the time "it was strange" that the Greek Government could make the gift "but was not able to give 15,000,000 drachmai ($1,500) to disabled veterans."

Magyar General Flees to Austria

Vienna, Jan. 14 (A. P.).—Gen. Albert Bartha, former Hungarian Minister of Defense, has escaped into Austria the American-sponsored Wiener Kurier reported today. Bartha had been warned by friends that the political police were about to arrest him, the paper said.

Czech Reds Purging Opposition Elements

Prague, Jan. 14 (AP)—The Communists are cleaning house in Czechoslovakia.

First to come under the broom were Czech resistance members who have opposed the regime of Communist President Klement Gottwald.

Seven members of the group were sentenced yesterday to one to seven years' hard labor. They were charged with being followers of Blazej Vilim—militant Social Democratic party leader who escaped to England. A. J. GOLDBERG

Accused In Plot

Vilim is one of a number of members of the pre-Communist Czech Parliament who formed a "shadow parliament" in London last May. They declared the Gottwald Government illegal.

The seven were charged with issuing an illegal newspaper and plotting against the republic.

The "National Front" Government itself appeared in for a purge.

Communist Justice Minister Alexej Cepika warned a National Front meeting yesterday that "some elements" were not pulling their weight.

Deadline Set

Cepika—a son-in-law of Gottwald—said Front leaders would be given eight days to submit a work program for 1949.

The Front is a coalition of all Czech political parties which came into being after the liberation in 1945. When the Communists took over power last February they permitted a semblance of the Front to continue.

Others also came under the purge.

Two members of the Czech police force, charged with trying to get out of the country with secret-service material, were sentenced to thirteen to fifteen years, respectively, on charges of treason.

Pastor Sentenced

A military court has sentenced Major Robert Bednarik, an army pastor, to 29 years' hard labor on charges he was collecting secret information "for a spy of a foreign power."

Some observers said the house cleaning might result in obliterating some of the weaker political parties in the National Front.

The Social Democrats already have been swallowed up by the Communists. The Slovak Democratic party in Slovakia—bitter foes of communism—have been run out of existence with charges of sabotage plotting.

Speculation is now growing whether the National Socialist party and the Catholic People's party also may be slated for oblivion.

Britain And Poland Sign Pact

Warsaw, Poland, Jan. 14 (AP)—Britain and Poland today signed a $1,000,000,000 five-year trade pact.

In doing so Britain chartered a new policy for trading with countries within the Soviet sphere. They must pay their prewar debts and settle for the British properties they nationalize.

The trade pact calls for a minimum exchange of goods totaling $520,000,000 from each side. Some Polish sources said it might reach a value of $600,000,000.

This may be the biggest deal Poland has concluded with any country. Russia has a five-year pact with Poland calling for a total exchange of goods valued at $1,000,000,000.

To Release Assets

Reginald J. W. Stacy, chairman of the British trade mission which negotiated the pact, said the agreement would stand as a "model" for any future British negotiations with eastern European nations.

"One of our main objects was to get the Poles to recognize they have to do something about their prewar debts and provide compensation for nationalized properties," he added.

"Under this agreement, they do undertake to partially meet this problem. But it will take until September to iron it out completely."

Under the pact the Poles agreed to start talks next month on payment of pre-war debts and settlement for nationalized holdings. The British agreed to release Polish assets in Britain which were frozen during the Nazi occupation. These are estimated at 500,000 pounds ($2,000,000).

The Poles agreed to put these assets in a special fund in the Bank of England toward liquidation of their debts to Britons. In addition they will use 3 3-4 per cent of their exports to Britain between 1951 and 1953 to settle their debts and pay for nationalized British property.

Poland nationalized foreign properties in January, 1946, promising compensation. But she took no concrete steps to adjust British claims of 25,000,000 to 35,000,000 pounds ($100,000,000 to $140,000,000) until today. She has taken no steps to pay for American properties valued at $100,000,000.

The British appeared to have driven a good bargain. Nevertheless, the Poles appeared satisfied. They will get raw materials and machinery to push national reconstruction, while the flow of Polish bacon, eggs and other foodstuffs to Britain will help that nation stabilize its economy.

A new Polish agreement with Yugoslavia is expected shortly. Reliable sources said Poland will go along with Russia in slashing trade with Marshal Tito. Russia's new pact with Yugoslavia reduced trade by seven-eighths.

Poland, Britain Sign 5-Year Trade Pact

Warsaw, Jan. 14 (AP)—Poland and Britain today signed a five-year trade agreement calling for an exchange of goods worth $520,000,000.

It was the largest trade deal between countries of eastern and western Europe since the war. The British agreed to release all Polish assets, amounting to about $2,000,000,000, frozen during the German occupation. The Poles agreed to use these resources by paying them into a special Bank of England account toward liquidation of prewar debts to British creditors.

Pattern Fixed

Members of the British trade mission said the accord fixed a pattern for deals with other eastern European nations. The figure for the trade was described as a "conservative minimum."

Reginald Stacy, under secretary of the British Board of Trade, said Britain will get mostly foodstuffs and timber from Poland and send her wool, rubber, crude oil, tires, tractors, farm tools, machinery and other capital-investment goods.

Held Precedent

Stacy said payments for British properties nationalized by Poland were embraced in the Polish agreement to pay prewar creditors. The nationalized British properties here are estimated to be worth from $100,000,000 to $140,000,000.

The British success in getting an agreement to pay for seized industries was viewed as a precedent for dealings with other Eastern European countries.

Tracy said the Poles are to pay from 1951 through 1953 3¾ per cent of the export revenue toward retiring debts in the United Kingdom.

Negotiations began in October. Both sides were reported well pleased.

The agreement calls for large Polish exports of eggs, bacon, lard, butter and poultry. Stacy purchased 50,000 tons of rye for the British-American zone of Germany during his stay.

One Of Biggest Suppliers

London, Jan. 14 (AP)—Poland, mainstay of Russia's satellite bloc, will become one of Britain's biggest European suppliers under the pact.

The agreement will rank Poland with Sweden, France, Denmark and Holland as a British food source by 1953.

PEACE TALKS RECEIVE HELP

No New Drives To Be Started During Parley On Holy Land

Rhodes, Jan. 14 (AP)—Jews and Egyptians took their first definite step toward peace today by agreeing to keep their military forces in check while negotiations for an armistice are on.

At their second formal session lasting fifteen minutes the delegates approved the text of a conference preamble which pledged each side to start no new military offensives and to respect the national security of the other while the armistice conference is in progress.

A spokesman for the acting United Nations mediator, who is sponsoring the conference, said the agreement was an important step since any armistice must be based on voluntary assurances that no aggressive action is contemplated by either side.

Cease Fire Now In Effect

A cease-fire ordered by the United Nations Security Council is now in effect in the Negeb where Jewish and Egyptian forces face each other.

The point on no military offensives was No. 1 in an explosive-laden agenda which the representatives of Israel and Egypt had agreed to discuss.

The second point is implementation of the United Nations Security Council resolutions of November 4 and November 16 calling for a withdrawal of forces to positions held October 14 and negotiation of an armistice.

Sub-points include the question of the Faluja pocket where an Egyptian brigade of about 3,000 men has been under siege since mid-October, delineation of armistice lines, and reduction of forces. These are points on which it has been impossible to get agreement before.

Full Powers To Sign Armistice

The next two points apparently look toward positive conclusions. They include the drafting of an armistice agreement, and the initialing of an agreement.

One member of the staff of mediator Dr. Ralph Bunche said he believed the entire conference would be finished by next week.

The Jews have come with full powers to sign an armistice.

The Egyptians, however, have power only to initial an agreement which would have to be submitted back to the Cairo Government before it is signed.

The Israelis today imported complete radio receiver and transmitter equipment in order to keep in close touch with their Government.

Rhodes Parley's Peace Hopes Increase

Rhodes, Jan. 14 (AP)—Swift adoption of a four-point agenda emphasized hopes for peace held by both Israeli and Egyptian spokesmen at the Rhodes armistice talks.

The program, approved unanimously at the opening conference late yesterday, dodges no major military issue between the Cairo and Tel Aviv governments.

[Tel Aviv, however, said the Israeli Foreign Office fears little more than a redrawing of truce lines may result. Jewish hopes for broadening of the negotiations to include other Arab nations are said to have been hit hard by recent British activity. The Government was pictured as believing Britain has pressed Egypt to resist peace overtures and pressed Trans-Jordan not to resume informal parleys with Israel.]

Four Topics Listed

These are the topics Egyptian and Israeli delegates will discuss:

1. Assurances as regards military offensives and national security.
2. Implementation of Security Council resolutions of November 4 and 16, including: (a) the Faluja pocket (where Israelis have penned up an Egyptian brigade); (b) delineation of an armistice line; (c) withdrawal of forces; (d) reduction of forces.
3. Drafting of an armistice agreement.
4. Initiating of the armistice agreement.

Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, the United Nations' acting Palestine mediator, urged the negotiations to hurry.

"You cannot afford to fail," he said. "You must succeed."

Head Delegates Agree

Bunche was chosen as chairman for the sessions.

His expressions of hope for success in the discussions was echoed by the chiefs of the two national delegations, Egyptian Col. Mohamed Ibrahim Seif Eddine and Israeli Walter Eytan.

Eytan said Egypt and Israel have no natural cause for enmity and "we see in this first meeting a great step forward on the road we have sought to travel from the start."

"We are not in a vacuum," Eytan said. "We are surrounded by powerful factors working for peace, some possibly working against it. We do not imagine our task is easy—the transition from war to peace never is. But we shall certainly leave nothing undone to achieve it."

Colonel Seif said Egypt came to the parley with a "spirit of cooperation and conciliation and a sincere desire to restore peace in Palestine."

"We shall not mention the evils or the merits of the past," he said.

Turkish Cabinet Falls In Fight Over Prices

Ankara, Turkey, Jan. 14 (AP)—Premier Hasan Saka's government collapsed today under violent attack at Turkey's steadily mounting cost of living.

The Premier submitted his resignation to President Ismet Inonu during a two-hour conference this morning.

Speculation on a successor centered on Hilmi Uran, vice chairman of the ruling People's party and virtual dictator of its policies. He was Minister of Interior in the Cabinet of former Premier Recep Peker, Saka's predecessor.

Deserted By Party

Saka was reported virtually deserted by his party, including his Cabinet members. One deputy, who resigned from the People's party to join the opposition Democrats in protest against Saka, declared yesterday it was time for Turkish opposition to join forces so "we might prove our ability to produce a decent and able administration."

The crisis broke yesterday when the National Assembly returned to the budget commission a revised tax law on which the Government has insisted.

Formed New Cabinet

Saka became Premier in September, 1947, succeeding Peker. His government collapsed last June under mounting criticism over domestic economic policies. However, Inonu immediately asked him to form a new cabinet.

The Republican People's party is dominant in Turkey. President Inonu and Saka are among its leaders.

Extremists in the party, however, expressed dislike for Saka from the start and complained over his inability to fulfill a promise to cut the cost of living. They contended that this damaged Turkey's prestige.

Foreign Policy Unchanged

The discontent grew to such an extent that fifteen members of the party ignored party discipline and spoke openly against Saka's legislative program in debate yesterday.

Foreign policy was not an issue. Any new government certainly would continue unchanged Turkey's present course in foreign affairs, which is pegged to support of the United Nations.

Turkey is a recipient of United States aid under the Truman doctrine.

Turkish Government Falls After Party Quits Premier

Ankara, Jan. 14 (AP)—Premier Hasan Saka's Government fell today after he virtually was deserted by his own Republican People's party in a dispute over mounting living costs. E. S. GREENWALD

There was speculation that Hilmi Uran, vice chairman of the People's party and virtual dictator of its policies, will be asked to form a new government. He was Minister of Interior in the Cabinet of former Premier Recep Peker, Saka's predecessor.

Saka submitted his resignation to President Ismet Inonu during a two-hour conference this morning. No official announcement was made immediately. The Government collapsed after a heated debate in Parliament yesterday on Saka's legislative program.

Receives U.S. Aid

Foreign policy is not an issue. Turkey, one of the last barriers between communism and all the Middle East and Africa, has for more than a year been a recipient of United States aid under the Truman doctrine. Up to November 30 the United States had shipped arms and supplies costing $59,499,181 to Turkey.

The only criticism here toward the American aid program involves Turkey's economic structure which has been badly shaken by nine years of full mobilization. Some Turks long for an aid program that would bolster Turkey economically rather than militarily.

Opponents in Saka's own party had expressed a dislike for him for some time. They contended his inability to cut the cost of living had damaged Turkey's prestige.

In the end Saka was under violent opposition from all sides. Even some of his Cabinet ministers deserted him.

Tax Increase Refused

The final blow came yesterday when the National Assembly refused to accept a bill calling for income tax increases. Fifteen members of the People's party ignored party discipline and spoke against the Government's program.

One Deputy, who resigned from the People's party and joined the opposition Democrats, declared it was time for the opposition to join forces so "we might prove our ability to produce a decent and able administration."

Might Drop 2 Liberals

Observers thought the new Government might discard Kasim Gulek, Communications Minister, and Nihat Erim, Public Works Minister, both of whom are regarded as having liberal views.

But all thought that Necmeddin Sadak, Foreign Minister, also a liberal, would be asked to continue in his post.

Saka first became Premier in September, 1947. His original Cabinet collapsed last June under mounting criticism over domestic economic policies. He immediately formed a new government then.

Ethiopia Will Attend

New Delhi, India, Jan. 14 (AP)—The Indian Foreign Ministry announced today that Ethiopia had accepted an invitation to the conference on Indonesia sponsored by India.

Siam and Turkey rejected bids to the conference. Acceptances now have been received from sixteen nations—the Philippines, Australia, Burma, Ceylon, Pakistan, Iran, Afghanistan, Iraq, Saudi Arabia, Yemen, Syria, Lebanon, Egypt, Ethiopia, New Zealand and China. The last two are sending observers, the remainder delegates.

Burmese Army Begins Drive on Karen Rebels

RANGOON, Jan. 14 (AP).—The Burmese government said today its army had begun large-scale operations against Karen rebels in the Irrawaddy River delta.

Government forces shelled rebel-held villages and burned several rebel strongholds, a communique said. It announced the recapture of Chaungzon, main town on Bilugyun Island off the southeast coast. The island was seized Wednesday by Karen and Mon insurgents, who fled after looting the town, the government said.

Government forces advancing on the mainland to Thanbyuzayat—starting point of the war-time Burma-Siam Railway—were ambushed by rebels, who fled after a half-hour fight.

An unofficial report said armed Karens and Burmese military police fought a six-hour battle yesterday at Twante, twenty-seven miles upriver from Rangoon. No casualty figures were given.

Malaya Reds Rout Gurkhas

SINGAPORE, Jan. 14 (AP).—The British announced today security forces had clashed with a large Communist force in northern Malaya and "our casualties are thought to be considerable."

A patrol of thirty-five Gurkhas and seven police under one British and one Gurkha officer encountered the Communists in the Kedah area yesterday. Eight members of the patrol returned to their base, with two seriously wounded. The two officers were reported killed.

In other patrol actions, five Communists were slain in central Malaya.

Korean Rightist Slain

TOKYO, Jan. 14 (AP).—Hyon Hikosof, thirty-nine, vice-chairman of the Rightist young men's federation, Founders of Korea was shot to death last night by an unidentified assailant in front of his hotel while entering his automobile. His assailant was wearing riding breeches and a jacket. Mr. Hyon was publisher of "Taikan Min Po," a Korean newspaper.

30 to 40 Rebels Slain in Korea

Seoul, Jan. 14 (A. P.).—Thirty or forty rebels and four civilian guards were reported killed yesterday in a clash in a village in the Worak Mountains, seventy miles southeast of Seoul.

A flying squad of 160 trained police was sent from Seoul to try to rout the rebels from the mountains. A band estimated at 300 is operating there.

U. N. Observers Say Sabotage Is Growing in Java

Report Dutch Unable to Stamp Out Guerrillas; Netherlands Denies It

BATAVIA, Java, Jan. 14 (AP).—United Nations military observers said today that Dutch troops have been unable to stamp out the guerrilla activities of the Indonesian Republicans.

A report relayed to the Security Council by observer teams said the destruction throughout north-central Java has been "on a much greater scale" than the Dutch bargained for. Netherlands troops are proving insufficient to stem the sabotage or even maintain order in the towns, the observers added.

[A Dutch government spokesman at The Hague said the observers' report was completely contrary to military accounts received in the Netherlands. Connections between the main cities in north-central Java are not yet fuly safe, but there is no question of any great insecurity in areas under Dutch control, the informant declared.]

The report gave the first comprehensive account of what is going on in outlying regions since Dutch troops swept over Republican areas of Java and Sumatra last month. Underground Republican broadcasts have told of guerrilla strikes, but Dutch communiques have been silent for the last week about any disorders, except a week-end raid at Jogjakarta.

Guerrilla units have caused the greatest destruction around the important Java naval base of Soerabaja, the observers said. They added:

"Hundreds of bridges have been destroyed, including many important ones. All railroads are completely blocked, owing to the destruction of bridges and railroad property. Many roads in central Java still are not open, and on those which are travel is possible only in convoy.

"In the former Netherlands demilitarized zone it was observed that nearly all the bridges have been destroyed and a number of gampongs (native settlements) are destroyed, mainly by fire, and most are deserted."

The U. N. Good Offices Committee prepared to fly to Bangka Island tomorrow to confer with some of the captured Republican leaders the Dutch are keeping there.

A Netherlands communique said about 600 Japanese, remnants of Japan's war-time occupation force, had joined the Republican Army before the Dutch launched their operations in December. The bulletin based its information on what it said was the report of one Japanese who surrendered.

Guerrilla Havoc In Java Held 'Extensive'

Batavia, Java, Jan. 14 (AP)—United Nations military observers said today Indonesian guerrillas are wreaking havoc throughout north central Java "on a much greater scale" than the Dutch bargained for.

The observers added that Netherlands troops are proving insufficient to stem the sabotage or even maintain order in the towns.

Eyewitness Reports

This information was relayed to the Security Council today by the United Nations good-offices committee. It was based on eyewitness reports from field teams of the sixteen-nation committee.

The report said "destruction of roads, bridges and property has been and still is taking place on a much greater scale than was anticipated by Netherlands military authorities."

Most of the destruction, the report said, is around the Java naval base of Soerabaja.

Few Roads Now Open

"Hundreds of bridges have been destroyed, including many important ones. All railroads are completely blocked, owing to the destruction of bridges and railroad property. Many main roads in central Java still are not open and on those which are, travel is only possible in convoy."

"In the former Netherlands demilitarized zone, it was observed that nearly all the bridges have been destroyed and a number of kampongs (native settlements) are destroyed, mainly by fire, and most are deserted.

Practically Uninhabited

"The towns of Lamongan and Bodjonegro are reported badly damaged by fire and demolition and are practically uninhabited by the local population or troops."

The report is the first official word of what actually is happening in the outlying areas of Java or Sumatra, except from Dutch Army communiqués, which have been silent for the past week about any disorders except a week-end raid at Jogjakarta.

Dutch Concerns In Indonesia Fear Economic Sanctions

Manila, Jan. 14 (AP)—Dutch business men in Indonesia fear economic sanctions may be voted by an Asian Conference opening Sunday at New Delhi, a United States trader said today on his return from the East Indies.

The American, Norman Arkin, of San Francisco, was stranded in Jogjakarta last month when the Netherlands launched their "police action" against the Republic of Indonesia.

Arkin said Dutch business men believe any sanctions voted by the Asian Conference, called by Premier Jawaharlal Nehru of India, would deal them a heavy blow.

The action of India in limiting flights over its territory of K.L.M. (Dutch) planes was felt at once in Indonesia, he added.

Fear U.S. Will Desert Them

Arkin said the Indonesians consider Nehru their strongest champion and fear that the United States will desert them.

Arkin was in Jogjakarta, the republic's capital, when Dutch planes strafed the streets during the landing of parachute troops. A bolt of cloth he brought along in his stock of merchandise was used for bandages.

Arkin said the Dutch ordered him to leave. They said he had entered Indonesia illegally because he had flown to Republican territory without Dutch permission.

ACHESON IS GIVEN FULL APPROVAL OF SENATE GROUP

Action Taken After He Indicts Communism as 'Fatal' to Freedom

QUIZZED IN SECRET

Speedy Confirmation of New Secretary Expected Next Tuesday

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14 — (AP) The nomination of Dean Acheson to be secretary of state won unanimous approval of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee today after he indicted communism as "fatal" to freedom.

An excerpt from Acheson's secret testimony, released by committee Chairman Connally (D-Tex), declared:

"It is my view that communism as a doctrine is economically fatal to a free society and to human rights and fundamental freedoms.

"Communism as an aggressive factor in world conquest is fatal to independent governments and free peoples."

Thus Acheson capped his public testimony yesterday in which he scornfully rejected the label of "appeaser" in his views toward Russia and pledged himself to clean out any disloyal persons in the state department.

Unanimous Vote

Chairman Connally announced that all 13 members of the senate committee—eight Democrats and five Republicans—voted solidly for Acheson.

Swift and virtually unopposed confirmation is expected in the senate, probably next Tuesday.

Committee members questioned Acheson in a closed-door session lasting two hours and 15 minutes. All members were sworn to secrecy, except for the single excerpt of his testimony given to newsmen.

All that Connally would say was that Acheson discussed "intimate and delicate" questions of policy. Other members told reporters before they went into the long executive session that they expected to find out just exactly where Acheson stands on the question of a mild or firm stand against the Soviets.

In general, the assumption was that Acheson gave the senators a comprehensive outline of his views on world problems—views which he will translate into action in taking over the No. 1 diplomatic post. He is slated to succeed the ailing Gen. George C. Marshall on Jan. 20, the day President Truman is inaugurated.

Hits "Appeaser" Charge

If there were any misgivings as to Acheson's outlook on Russia, the tall, brushy-moustached diplomat repeatedly sought to dispel them yesterday in his testimony before a packed senate caucus room.

With emphasis, he disowned any "appeasement" leanings.

He cited his early advocacy of Marshall Plan aid for western European nations in their struggle against communism.

And with a reminder that Mr. Truman himself has said there will be no change in U. S. foreign policy, Acheson told the senators he will carry out the president's decisions unswervingly.

Earlier senate opposition to Acheson appeared to be dwindling rapidly. Senator Smith (R-NJ), a foreign relations committee member who had been doubtful about the appointment, told newsmen he was "favorably impressed" by Acheson's testimony.

Senator Capehart (R-Ind), who recently accused the administration of "killing" the bi-partisan foreign policy, commented:

"I don't see any chance of beating him (Acheson). I haven't seen any documentary evidence against him."

SENDS BILL TO SENATE AND HOUSE

Attorney General Wants To Lift Statute Of Limitations

Washington, Jan. 14 (AP)—Tom C. Clark, Attorney General, formally proposed tonight a broad-scale tightening of the espionage laws and asked that wire-tapping be legalized "in the interest of national security."

Clark said he had sent a bill embodying his proposals to Speaker Sam Rayburn (D., Texas) and Senator McCarran (D., Nev.), chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee.

High among his recommendations was a plan for eliminating the Statute of Limitations as far as espionage cases are concerned. The bill sent to Capitol Hill would provide that a person accused of violating these statutes might be indicted at any time after the offense.

Three Years Now Is Limit

As the law now stands, the indictment must be returned within three years, if the offense occurred in peacetime.

Clark also asked that the laws be changed to cover the passing on of information relating to the national defense "which could be used to the injury of the United States or to the advantage of any foreign nation."

The present law simply covers the dissemination of information "with intent or reason to believe it is to be used to the injury of the United States."

Other proposals include a ban upon unauthorized possession of security information, and provision for a $10,000 fine or ten years imprisonment, or both, for any failure to report the theft, loss, abstraction or destruction of national-defense material.

Would Permit Use Of Evidence

The Attorney General's proposed bill would authorize the FBI, the Army, Air Force and Navy intelligence to use wire-tapping in investigations affecting the national security, "under regulations prescribed by the Attorney General."

It would further permit the use of evidence thus obtained in any court proceeding in which the Government is a party. Unauthorized use of wire-tapped material would be punished by $10,000 fine and two years' imprisonment.

The law now prohibits the use of information obtained by wire-tapping as evidence in court.

"The entire proposed bill has been drafted to serve the needs of the departments of the Army, the Air Force, the Navy and Justice in the successful discharge of their responsibility to protect and improve the internal security of the nation," Clark said in his letter of transmittal.

Vigilance Viewed As Need

"The swift and more devastating weapons of modern warfare, coupled with the treacherous operations of those who would weaken our country internally, preliminary to and in conjunction with external attack, have made it imperative that we strengthen and maintain an alert and effective peacetime vigilance."

The Attorney General's recommendations on the Statute of Limitations come on the heels of a lengthy investigation by the House Un-American Activities Committee and other congressional groups on the leakage of confidential documents from the State Department.

The committee's 1948 spy hunt had centered about the loss of documents from the State Department during the late 1930's. Officials have said some of the alleged offenses could not be prosecuted because of the lapse of time.

Hiss Accused Of Perjury

Alger Hiss, former State Department official accused of passing secret Government documents to a Communist spy ring, was not indicted on that charge but on a perjury charge. He was accused of falsely swearing in a recent appearance before a New York grand jury that he did not give out any documents.

The Hiss indictment followed a long running fight between the Justice Department and the House committee. The committee accused the department of lethargy in prosecuting cases, and the department accused the committee of interfering with the orderly processes of justice.

Wartime Law Favored

Other proposals advanced in the Clark bill are:

A requirement that persons trained in espionage or sabotage by a foreign country must register under the foreign-agents registration act. Failure to register would be a continuing offense, thus removing it from any statute of limitations.

Re-enactment of the wartime law providing a $5,000 fine and one-year imprisonment for violation of any regulations or orders issued by the Secretary of the Navy for the protection or security of vessels, harbors and water-front facilities. A similar fine would be provided for violating regulations of the Secretary of Defense for the protection of aircraft and airfields.

"This is deemed advisable in order to continue the additional protection from both accidental deliberate danger which the statute afforded such vital facilities," Mr. Clark said.

House Probers May Not Make Final Report

Washington, Jan. 14 (AP)—The House Un-American Activities Committee may not even get out a final report on what it has been doing the last two years.

For one thing, there is some argument over what the report should say. One member is insisting that some parts come out or else he will blast his own committee in a separate report.

Then, too, there is some doubt whether the committee has any right to file the report or the House to receive one. That's because it would be a report from the committee as it operated in the Eightieth Congress.

Committee Tangle

That committee went out of business when the new Eighty-first Congress began. And the report wasn't distributed to the Eightieth Congress committee members for approval until after that time.

So if it were submitted to the House now, it would have the signatures of two men who aren't even in Congress and another who now is a senator.

That would be John McDowell, of Pennsylvania, and Richard B. Vail, of Illinois, a pair of defeated Republicans, and Senator Karl Mundt (R., S.D.).

The man who defeated McDowell, Representative Davenport (D., Pa.), accused the committee yesterday of being responsible, directly or indirectly, for "either murder or suicide. . . . broken homes, broken lives and shattered reputations." He said its tactics were "shocking."

Among Things Reviewed

As it was drafted, the committee report reviewed all its operations in the last Congress—things like the Red spy hunt and the investigation of alleged Communist influence in the movies.

It included names of people mentioned by Miss Elizabeth T. Bentley, a self-described courier for wartime Red espionage networks operating in the government. It mentioned again the case of Dr. Edward U. Condon, director of the Federal Bureau of Standards.

Representative Hebert (D., La.), a committee member, didn't like that. He threatened to complain in a separate report unless there were some changes made.

That would be on grounds the committee has no business dragging into a report persons Miss Bentley named because there is only her unsupported testimony that most of them were linked to Red spying.

Condon Never Given Hearing

And Hebert thinks the report practically would write off the Condon case as closed, without giving Condon a hearing.

A subcommittee accused Condon nearly a year ago of being one of the weakest links in atomic security and of associating with suspected Soviet espionage agents. Condon denied it and said there ought to be a hearing to let him clear himself. The committee said it was willing but never got around to holding the hearing.

The committee is having other troubles, too. Particularly among Democrats, there is no rush to get on it and fill the membership vacancies. House leaders may have to draft some members. Speaker Rayburn said yesterday there hasn't been a single bid for a Democratic place on the committee.

Security Leak Regretted

Dr. Compton Says Talk About Dr. Graham Is "Improper"

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14 (AP).—Dr. Karl T. Compton said today it was "very improper" that "anything got out" about recommendations of the Atomic Security Board headed by Owen J. Roberts, former Associate Justice of the Supreme Court.

Dr. Compton, a member of the board, made this assertion when he was asked if the board had objected to clearance of Dr. Frank P. Graham, president of the University of North Carolina, to handle confidential atomic data. He was questioned after a White House call. President Truman vigorously defended Dr. Graham at a news conference yesterday and said he had complete confidence in him. The North Carolina educator had received clearance in an order from the Atomic Energy Commission.

Dr. Compton, former president of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, called to invite President Truman to attend and speak at a M. I. T. convocation March 31-April 1. The ceremonies will accompany formal inauguration of Dr. James Rhyne Killian as Dr. Compton's successor April 2.

Fulton Lewis Jr., radio commentator, had reported that the Atomic Energy Commission cleared Graham to work with secret documents as head of the Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Study despite the objections of the commission's own security officials.

But Mr. Truman said that was wrong. He told his news conference yesterday that he has the utmost confidence in Graham.

The Atomic Commission, on December 20, cleared Graham to see certain secret documents even though it said he had associated "at times with individuals or organizations influenced by motives or views of Communist derivation."

Cleared by Report.

It added at the time: "It is clear in Dr. Graham's case that such associations have neither impaired his integrity and independence nor aroused in him the slightest sympathy for Communism or other anti-democratic or subversive doctrines."

In Chapel Hill, N. C., Graham said in a telegram to Lewis that he has "always been against Communism and totalitarian dictatorships."

He made public his reply to Lewis on his return from Lake Success and New York where he served as adviser on the Indonesian situation.

The Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear study is a non-profit group that has representatives from several southern universities. It was formed to promote regional participation in atomic studies at Oak Ridge, Tenn., site of an atomic energy plant.

U. S. BARS ARMING OF NEUTRAL LANDS

Warns Nations That Fail to Cooperate with West in Cold War

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14—(AP) The United States gave notice today that countries remaining neutral in the cold war will get no American arms or defense supplies.

Michael McDermott, state department press officer, told about this new policy shortly after the department charged that Russia "obstruction" has "seriously hampered" activities of the United Nations."

McDermott told a news conference the American government does not have enough arms to supply nations which are unwilling to associate themselves in collective defense arrangements with the United States.

Answers Swedish Reports

Government officials said McDermott's remarks were intended to "correct" Swedish press reports claiming that Sweden could get American military help even if she refused to enter into the North Atlantic Defense Alliance now being actively planned.

Meanwhile, the state department struck out anew at Russia in a statement accusing Moscow of "gravely endangering the peace" with the blockade of Berlin.

The department's view was made public in a foreign policy outline distributed at a human rights meeting of 250 private groups and government agencies.

It said:

"Instead of the great power teamwork so devotly sought by the people of the world, the obstruction of one country and its willing or unwilling associates has seriously hampered the activities of the United Nations.

"The end result, if not the aim, of the Soviet program has been to weaken the effectiveness of the UN and to shake the confidence of many people in it as an instrument of peace."

As a result, it continued, "forward-looking governments" have begun to seek additional means of preserving the peace in keeping with the principles of the UN charter.

The "Antidote to Fear"

"The only satisfactory antidote to fear," the department said, is collective action by the democracies in order to "confront a potential aggressor with preponderant power together with economic recovery and political stability."

In his news conference, McDermott listed the countries with whom the United States "has or will have" defense arrangements making them eligible for American military help. They are:

(1) The western European countries now negotiating a North Atlantic defence agreement with the United States and Canada. These include Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg. In addition there are prospects that Portugal, Ireland, Iceland, Italy, Norway and Denmark will join later.

(2) Latin American republics which have entered into the hemispheric pact for the defense of the the Americas.

(3) Greece, Turkey, Korea and China which the American government "has special commitments" approved by congress.

Answering questions, McDermott said "it is natural that such supplies as may be available should go to countries associated with us in collective defense arrangements."

He said he was sure the president had this in mind when he told congress in his budget message Monday he would ask later for funds to buy arms for friendly democracies whose defense is essential to American security.

Government officials have estimated that President Truman will ask congress for $1,000,000,000 to arm western Europe.

ALL JAP FOES BACK HIROHITO IMMUNITY

Agree On Exempting Emperor From Prosecution

Washington, Jan. 14 (AP)—The State Department said today that all eleven of Japan's wartime foes, including Russia, agreed to exempt Japanese Emperor Hirohito from war-crimes prosecution.

The decision, which was kept secret for three years, was taken in line with a course which American experts on Japanese affairs had urged on President Roosevelt and then President Truman.

American Order Discovered

The experts advised that treating the Emperor on the same basis as Japanese Government leaders would make a surrender impossible and multiply difficulties of the occupation.

Since the eleven-nation decision was reached, Gen. Douglas MacArthur, allied occupation commander, has dealt with the Emperor as the recognized and respected leader of the Japanese people.

An American order, dated 1946, directing General MacArthur to grant the Emperor immunity was discovered in Tokyo following the recent execution of Premier Tojo and others convicted of leading Japan into aggressive war.

Backing Of All Pacific Allies

To make it plain that the United States had the backing of all the Pacific Allies, the State Department said:

1. The original order to MacArthur, dispatched by the joint chiefs of staff in January, 1946, was approved in advance at the top administration level by the State, War and Navy Co-ordinating Committee.

2. It was followed by a second order on April 23, 1946, which told MacArthur:

"You will take no action against the Emperor as a war criminal pending receipt of a special directive concerning his treatment."

3. The second directive said this policy toward Hirohito was stated on "express instructions from the Far Eastern Commission." All Pacific Allies are represented on this eleven-nation group, which drafts overall policies for the occupation of Japan.

Officials said the commission's immunity decision was adopted unanimously on April 3, 1946, but was never made public.

Soviet Russia, while carrying on a critical propaganda campaign against MacArthur, has steered clear of attacks on the Emperor, in keeping with its 1946 vote.

Zionists Call Conference In N.Y.

New York, Jan. 14 (AP)—A conference of Jewish leaders to consider "current British preparations for military intervention against Israel" has been called here next Tuesday.

Invitations to the conferences were sent yesterday by the American Zionist Emergency Council to heads of 80 national Jewish groups in the country, the council announced.

The council said reported British moves in the Middle East "pose a grave problem for all Jews in America interested in the course of peace and eager to help Israel defend its rights."

U.S. AUTHORITIES SEIZE BOMBER

Plane Believed Headed For Egypt With British Crew

Newark, N.J., Jan. 14 (AP)—United States authorities today seized a B-25 bomber plane which they said was manned by a crew of four British subjects and was believed headed illegally for Egypt.

The plane was taken over by Government agents at the near-by Teterboro airport on a Federal court order obtained by United States District Attorney A. E. Modarelli.

The United States attorney said the former Air Force bomber was listed as owned now by a Leonard La Bella, of New Rochelle, N.Y., who had asked for customs approval to take the plane out of the country on a temporary permit.

No Charges Against Crew

Modarelli said he had reason to believe that the plane was intended to be flown instead to Egypt in violation of a Government ban on the shipment of arms to the Middle East.

Modarelli reported customs agents have watched the plane since December 29 when, he said, an attempt was made to export it without authorization.

No charges were placed against the crew of four men taken with the plane, Modarelli said, but all will be subpoenaed to testify before a Federal grand jury here next Tuesday.

Modarelli identified the four crew members as David Bond, Ivan Thomas, Alfred Clarke and Julian Angers. He said his records showed no addresses for the group but that all four were listed as British subjects.

No Link To Seizures

Five other military planes, all of them still in crates, were seized by Modarelli eight days ago. Those were described by the United States Government as an illegal arms shipment believed bound for Egypt.

Modarelli said he had no definite information linking today's plane seizure to last week's incident but that he would ask the Federal grand jury next Tuesday to look into both cases.

The five planes seized last week were advanced trainers used by the Air Force in the instruction of fighter pilots. An Air Force spokesman said the planes could readily be converted for use as fighters.

Mrs. FDR Raps Soviet Refusal To Release Brides of Americans

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14—(AP) Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt said today that "never again" will she accept a compromise in the United Nations merely to win Soviet support for a measure.

Mrs. Roosevelt, who is chairman of the U.N. human rights commission, said in a talk at the State department:

"I don't think I will ever compromise again even on words. The Soviets look on this as evidence of weakness rather than as a gesture of goodwill."

The widow of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt said she had learned during her U.N. work that it was necessary to meet Soviet attacks on the United States. She said it is American policy to admit mistakes, but she commented:

"I have yet to hear a Russian say everything is not perfect in the Soviet union."

Addressing a group of government officials and civilians interested in U.N. work on human rights, Mrs. Roosevelt said she has sent dozens of appeals to the Russian government urging release of G. I. brides from the U.S.S.R.

Except for one curt acknowledgement that one of her many letters had been received, she said, all of her appeals were ignored by the Soviets.

Mrs. Roosevelt said that when the U.N. human rights declaration was under discussion prior to its passage in Paris last year, the Russians tried to amend it to require nations to guarantee various human rights to their people. The Soviets were voted down.

She said she told the Soviet representative, Pablov, that he had been asking for the impossible in trying to insist that nations conform to a formula of principles.

Mrs. Roosevelt said she cited the Russian law which for many months has barred Soviet girls who married American, British and other soldiers stationed in Russia during the war, from leaving Russia to join their husbands abroad.

She said she asked Pablov how the Soviets could reconcile this obstacle to freedom of movement in Russia with their demand for a U.N. requirement to guarantee freedom of movement as a human right. Mrs. Roosevelt said she asked Pablov whether the Soviet Union did not see a conflict there.

Pablov, she said, replied "not at all"—that it was just a regulation like any other regulation.

AIR FORCE SPENDS LAST 109 MILLION FOR NEW PLANES

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14 — (AP) The air force spent the last $109,000,000 of its available funds for new planes today, ordering 158 jet all-weather or night fighters and an unstated number of light trainers.

The Navy also used up most of its remaining money today in spending $80,000,000 for planes. Navy spokesmen said President Truman had approved the new orders, but declined to tell immediately how the orders are distributed.

Buys Night Fighters

The air force purchased 48 Northrop F-89 two-engine night fighters and 110 Lockheed F-94 night fighters. It said the decision on the light trainer had not been made. The likeiest choice is the Fairchild T-31, developed originally for the Navy.

Last Tuesday, the air force canceleld $300,000,000 in orders for fighters and other comparatively small type planes and devoted the money largely to the purchase of huge 150-ton B-36's, the world's biggest know bombers. This was intepreted at the time as putting new emphasis on a long-range striking force.

Officials said there was no conflict between today's orders for fighters and Tuesday's announcement. They said the air force has to have fighters, and that the funds allotted today had been earmarked for fighters for months.

Originally, these funds were to have been devoted to 88 Curtiss-Wright F-87 Blackhawks, a four-engine all-weather fighter, and to the Republic F-84 Thunderjet program. Last October plans to buy the 88 Blackhawks were cancelled, and sometime later it was decided to cut 100 planes off the F-84 Thunderjet program.

This left the funds available for the planes ordered today. They presumably will be available in quantity sooner than the cancelled Blackhawk, which was to have been modified extensively from the original model.

The F-94 night fighter, one of the planes ordered today, is a modification of a jet trainer now in production, which itself was developed from a jet fighter.

The Navy is understood to have sought presidential approval to spend $84,900,000 for new planes, but was cutback $4,900,000. A formal announcement of the types purchased is expected Monday.

The proposal sent to the White House—al lwarplane purchases must have presidential approval—was reported to include Grumman F9F Panther jet fighters, Chance Vought F7U cutlass jet fighters, Douglas A2D skraiders, Lockheed P2V Neptune land based patrol planes, Chance Vought F4U-5 Corsair propeller fighters and Lockheed TO's (the trainer version of the F-80 Shooting Star.)

ARMY BUYS IN ARGENTINE

Purchase of 2,500 Tons of Meat Is 50% Below U. S. Price

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14 (AP)—The U. S. Army said today it bought 5,000,000 pounds of meat from Argentina for overseas troop feeding because the price was 50 per cent under the cost in this country. The Army said it is authorized to do so under the 1949 Appropriations Act, in commenting on a public complaint by Floyd Forbes, president and general manager of the Western States Meatpackers Association.

Mr. Forbes said in Oakland, Calif., the Army should be prohibited from buying Argentine meat for overseas troop feeding because Western cattle raisers and meat packers are in dire need of Army business." The Army spokesman said the Department received a protest from the Western States Meatpackers Association and in reply explained the price advantage in Argentina.

Freedom Train Scroll Presented To Truman

Washington, Jan. 14 (AP)—President Truman was presented today with the "freedom scroll" signed by more than 3,500,000 visitors to the Freedom Train.

The train made a journey to 324 cities to give the people a look at historical documents and other American treasures.

Thomas D'Arcy Brophy, president, and J. Edward Shugrue, national director of the American Heritage Foundation, presented the scroll at the White House. Mr. Truman in turn presented it to Luther H. Evans, head of the Library of Congress, and Wayne C. Crover, archivist of the United States. The document becomes a permanent archive of the Government.

The Freedom Train makes its final public appearance in Washington during inauguration week.

Bomb-Charge Size Likened To A Softball

Meadville, Pa., Jan. 14 (AP)—The explosive charge of an atom bomb is no bigger than an indoor baseball, says Prof. J. A. Campbell, of Oberlin College.

Campbell, speaking last night at a meeting of the Erie section of the American Chemical Society, said:

"In spite of all the supposed secrecy about the bomb, it is easy to show that the explosive charge weights in the neighborhood of 20 to 30 pounds and occupies a sphere of 3 or 4 inches in diameter—about the size of an indoor baseball."

Campbell, who did not give the source of his information, said that new uranium and thorium sources are being discovered monthly throughout the world.

"Any country with a considerable land area," he said, "is bound to have available to it sufficient stocks of fissionable material at least for bomb production."

U.S. Reported Favoring U.N. Independent Indonesia Action

Lake Success, N.Y., Jan. 14 (AP)—The United States was reported today to be favoring United Nations action calling for establishment of an independent United States of Indonesia by April 1, 1950.

Creation of the new federation would be preceded by progressive withdrawal of all Dutch military forces from Indonesia.

At the time the American views were being privately disclosed, the Netherlands Government informed the United Nations Security Council it would not agree to any Council order for withdrawal of its troops because of the alleged danger of new disorders.

U.S. Terms Listed

The Dutch delegate to the Security Council, Dr. J. H. van Royen, also repeated previous announcements his Government would not release any political prisoners whose release "might at this moment still endanger public safety." He proposed instead a Dutch time table for independence of Indonesia as a federated government under the Netherlands Government.

The United States was reported authoritatively to favor adoption by the Council of a resolution providing:

1. The Netherlands discontinue military action in Indonesia immediately and the republic instruct its forces to co-operate in restoring peace.

2. The Netherlands release immediately all political prisoners arrested since December 17, when the latest Dutch "police action" began, the Dutch also permit officials of the republic to return at once to their capital, Jogjakarta.

Elections By Oct. 1

3. Negotiations be undertaken as soon as possible under a United Nations commission for a settlement based on Council decision and the Renville and Linggadjat agreements.

Under the United States time table, an interim federal government would be established in Indonesia not later than March 15. Elections would be held for an Indonesian constituent assembly by October 1, and the Netherlands would transfer sovereignty to the United States of Indonesia not later than April 1, 1950.

In his statement to the Council van Royen said his Government "trusts that the federal interim government will be instituted within one month," or approximately a month earlier than the reported United States proposal suggests.

Van Royen said his Government will start at once preparations for holding free general election in Indonesia, under United Nations observation, and would "exert all possible efforts in order that the elections may take place in the third quarter of this year." This could apparently be reconciled with the October 1 deadline in the American plan.

Australia Disappointed

The Dutch are apparently willing to move ahead of the reported United States timetable for transfer of sovereignty. Van Royen said his Government would "like to see this transfer effected on January 1, 1950." This is three months ahead of the American plan.

However, van Royen added that "taking a realistic view," his Government believes "it can do no more than declare it will do all within its power to achieve the transfer of sovereignty in the course of the year 1950."

John D. L. Hood, of Australia, expressed disappointment over the Dutch statement.

"I find nothing new," he declared, "except a vague indication of some dates. It does not attempt to meet the desires of the Council."

The Security Council debate on the question will be continued Monday.

Dutch Due To Shun U.N. Directive

Lake Success, N.Y., Jan. 14 (AP)—The Netherlands was reported ready today to inform the United Nations the Dutch will ignore any orders to retire from territory recently occupied in Indonesia.

This was indicated by a Dutch spokesman as the Security Council was called to continue debate on the Indonesian question.

The spokesman said the Netherlands "will never comply" with any resolution which calls on the Dutch to withdraw to the lines they held before their December attack put them in possession of territory formerly held by the Indonesian Republic.

Reply Expected

Netherlands Delegate J. H. Van Royen was understood to be ready to inform the Council. He was expected to reply in detail to the sharp attacks which have been leveled at the Netherlands by Australia, India, Egypt, the Philippines, China, the United States and others.

Meanwhile, Council members continued consultations on a resolution to straighten out the situation.

The United States is opposed to any further efforts to order a Dutch troop withdrawal from republican territory, American sources said. United States Delegate Philip C. Jessup, it was explained, does not want the Council to face another rebuff.

Elections Sought

The United States and some other delegations were understood to be primarily interested in getting the Council to make sure elections would be held in Indonesia in the near future and in getting the Dutch to transfer control to the projected United States of Indonesia at a definite time.

In this connection, informed quarters said, van Royen probably will reaffirm the Dutch pledges to grant independence to Indonesia and may even give a definite indication as to a timetable to which the Netherlands will adhere.

Program Prepared

There was no indication when a resolution would be submitted. A three-point program, however, was reported under study by several delegations. Informed quarters said these major points were being considered:

1. Immediate freedom for Indonesian Republican leaders held as political prisoners.
2. A free election under United Nations supervision.
3. Withdrawal of Dutch troops from Indonesia as soon as possible after a United States of Indonesia is set up.

British Troop Moves Worry Israel, U.N. Told

Lake Success, N.Y., Jan. 14 (AP)—Israel told three Security Council delegates separately today she is worried about British troop movements in the Middle East.

Israel was reported to feel that the landing of British troops at Aqaba, Trans-Jordan, was a prime danger. F. W. CARPENTER

Aubrey S. Eban, Israeli representative at the United Nations, talked with Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton, of Canada, president of the Council, Alexandre Parodi, of France, and Finn Moe, of Norway. He saw each delegate alone.

Will See Other Delegates

Eban already has talked with Jacob A. Malik, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister, and Robert Lovett, United States Under Secretary of State.

An Israeli spokesman said Eban plans to see other delegates until he has completed the roll. He plans to see at least ten delegates. The eleventh is Mahmoud Bey Fawzi, of Egypt, a bitter opponent of the Israeli regime.

"Attaching great hopes to the current armistice negotiations at Rhodes, the Israeli Government is most concerned lest the British Government prejudice these negotiations by military action or diplomatic pressure," the spokesman said.

He added that Eban has not yet asked for a Security Council meeting on Palestine.

REPLYING TO CHIANG'S NEW YEAR'S BID FOR PEACE ON HIS OWN TERMS, THE COMMUNIST LEADER SAID:

"THIS PROPOSAL IS SHEER HYPOCRISY. THIS IS BECAUSE CHIANG RAISED CONDITIONS WITH WHICH THE PEOPLE OF CHINA CANNOT AGREE AS THE BASIS FOR PEACE NEGOTIATIONS:

"PRESERVATION OF THE BOGUS CONSTITUTION, PRESERVATION OF THE KUOMINTANG'S 'LEGITIMACY OF TRADITIONAL INSTITUTIONS,' PRESERVATION OF THE REACTIONARY ARMIES, ET CETERA.

"THESE ARE CONDITIONS FOR CONTINUED WAR, NOT CONDITIONS FOR PEACE."

BETTY CHANG, TIENTSIN RESIDENT FORMERLY OF EUGENE, ORE., REPORTED IN A DISPATCH TO THE AP THAT LOSS OF LIFE "APPEARED HEAVY, BUT NO ACCURATE COUNT IS POSSIBLE."

SHE DESCRIBED NUMEROUS HITS THROUGHOUT TIENTSIN IN A RED BARRAGE THAT SWEPT FROM WEST TO EAST, BUT SAID NO FOREIGN CASUALTIES HAD YET BEEN REPORTED. HER DISPATCH WAS FILED MORE THAN FOUR HOURS AFTER THE COMMUNISTS SAID THEY HAD SMASHED INTO TIENTSIN, BUT DID NOT MENTION SUCH A DEVELOPMENT. (POSSIBLY DUE TO CENSORSHIP.)

NO NEW ACTIVITY WAS REPORTED ON THE FRONTS JUST NORTH OF NANKING.

MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATIVE YUAN IN NANKING DISCUSSED VARIOUS PEACE SCHEMES FOR SEVERAL HOURS WITHOUT RESULT.

NANKING, SATURDAY, JAN. 15-(AP)-THE COMMUNIST BROADCAST OF PEACE TERMS CALLING FOR VIRTUAL SURRENDER OF CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S GOVERNMENT WAS INTERPRETED IN THIS CAPITAL TODAY AS A PLAIN INVITATION TO CHIANG'S SUBORDINATES TO DEAL INDEPENDENTLY WITH THE REDS.

HIGH GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS HAD NO IMMEDIATE COMMENT.

MOST OBSERVERS, HOWEVER, INTERPRETED THE GOVERNMENT'S ALTERNATIVES AS BEING EITHER ACQUIESCENCE TO THE SURRENDER TERMS OR CONTINUATION OF THE STRUGGLE WITH ESTABLISHMENT OF A TOKEN--AND PROBABLY TEMPORARY --REGIME IN SOME SOUTHERN RETREAT SUCH AS CANTON OR THE ISLAND OF FORMOSA.

THIS VIEW WAS BOLSTERED BY AUTHORITATIVE INFORMATION THAT THE UNITED STATES HAD DECLINED A CHINESE GOVERNMENT PLEA TO ATTEMPT A MEDIATION ROLE.

SIMILAR PLEAS WERE SENT TO BRITAIN, FRANCE AND RUSSIA. THE FIRST TWO WERE EXPECTED TO FOLLOW THE AMERICAN LEAD, WHILE IT WAS CONSIDERED UNLIKELY THE SOVIET UNION WOULD OFFER ITS GOOD OFFICES FOR AN EFFORT TO SALVAGE SOMETHING FOR THE CHIANG GOVERNMENT.

AMONG CHIANG'S SUBORDINATES, A NUMBER, ESPECIALLY IN THE WESTERN PROVINCES, HAVE BEEN LONG REPORTED READY TO BREAK WITH HIM WHENEVER THEY CONSIDER IT TO THEIR ADVANTAGE.

EVEN IF SUCH DESERTIONS DO NOT OCCUR, ALL NEUTRAL MILITARY OBSERVERS REGARD THE MILITARY POSITION OF THE DISINTEGRATING CHIANG GOVERNMENT AS HOPELESS.

THE CONQUEST OF NORTH CHINA IS PRACTICALLY COMPLETE AND THE RED ARMIES ARE POISED IN CENTRAL CHINA IN STRENGTH SUFFICIENT TO OVERWHELM THE YANGTZE RIVER VALLEY ALMOST AT WILL.

AT THE TIME THE REDS BEGAN THEIR ATTACK ON TIENTSIN ITS POPULATION, SWOLLEN BY REFUGEES, WAS ESTIMATED AT 3,000,000.

IT LONG HAS BEEN CONSIDERED THE GREATEST COMMERCIAL CITY OF ALL NORTH CHINA.

CHINA (400)
(ADVANCE) NEW YORK, JAN. 14-(AP)-DR. T.F.TSIANG, CHINESE DELEGATE TO THE UNITED NATIONS, DECLARED TONIGHT GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK HAS DEFINITE ADVANTAGES OVER THE COMMUNISTS IN THE GROWING BATTLE FOR THE YANGTZE RIVER.
HE PREDICTED, HOWEVER, A LONG STRUGGLE AGAINST COMMUNISM IF CHINA "IS TO SURVIVE AS AN INDEPENDENT AND FREE COUNTRY."
DR. TSIANG TOLD THE REPUBLICAN CLUB OF THE NINTH ASSEMBLY DISTRICT IN NEW YORK THAT MILITARY DEVELOPMENTS IN CHINA HAVE REACHED THE STAGE WHERE THE NEXT BIG EFFORT ON THE PART OF THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT WOULD BE THE DEFENSE OF THE YANGTZE RIVER.
"IN THIS PHASE OF THE STRUGGLE, THE GOVERNMENT HAS DEFINITE ADVANTAGES," DR. TSIANG SAID. "IN THE FIRST PLACE, THE GOVERNMENT CONTROLS ALL THE SHIPPING. SECONDLY, THE GOVERNMENT HAS SUPERIORITY IN THE AIR. IN THE THIRD PLACE, I BELIEVE, IN A DUEL OF GUNFIRE ACROSS THE RIVER, THE GOVERNMENT IS MORE THAN A MATCH FOR THE COMMUNISTS.
"MASS CONCENTRATION OF COMMUNIST TROOPS ON THE NORTH BANK OF THE RIVER COULD BE EASILY DETECTED. CONSTRUCTION OR CONCENTRATION OF SHIPS BY THE COMMUNISTS IN PREPARATION FOR CROSSING THE RIVER COULD BE EASILY DETECTED AND DESTROYED. IN SPITE OF THE FACT THAT THE YANGTZE IS A VERY LONG RIVER, THE DEFENSE OF WHICH WOULD REQUIRE CONSTANT VIGILANCE, I ANTICIPATE THAT THE GOVERNMENT COULD AND WOULD DO BETTER IN THIS PHASE OF THE STRUGGLE THAN IN MANCHURIA OR IN NORTHERN CHINA."
THE CHINESE DELEGATE SAID THAT THE CHINESE COMMUNIST ARMY BEGAN BY STAGING A MUTINY AGAINST GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK.
"THE PRESENT COMMUNIST MILITARY LEADERS WERE ALL AT ONE TIME SUBORDINATES OF THE GENERALISSIMO," HE SAID. "SUCH OTHER LEADERS WHO ARE NOT COMMUNIST AND WHO HAVE ANNOUNCED THEIR READINESS TO COOPERATE WITH THE COMMUNISTS WERE AT ONE TIME ALL RIVALS OR IMPORTANT SUBORDINATES OF THE GENERALISSIMO."
"IF THE MOVEMENT FOR THE UNIFICATION OF CHINA HAD NOT SUCCEEDED SO FAR AS IT DID," HE ADDED, "MORE ROOM WOULD HAVE BEEN LEFT TO THE AMBITIOUS RIVALS OF THE GENERALISSIMO. TODAY, IN A SENSE, PRESIDENT CHIANG KAI-SHEK IS PAYING THE PRICE FOR HIS SUCCESS."
DR. TSIANG SAID THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT WISHED CHINA TO BE INDEPENDENT AND NOT A SATELLITE OF ANY OTHER COUNTRY.
"WILL THE COMMUNISTS BE ABLE OR WILLING TO OPPOSE THE DIRECTIONS FROM MOSCOW?" HE ASKED. "THIS WILL BE ONE OF THE ACID TEST OF COMMUNIST RULE."
HE SAID THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS HAVE EXERCISED POWER MAINLY IN THE RURAL PARTS OF CHINA. HE SAID IF THEY FOLLOWED THEIR IDEOLOGY SLAVISHLY, THEY WILL INFLICT ON THE POPULATION OF CHINA DISASTERS COMPARABLE TO THOSE WHICH THE SOVIETS HAVE INFLICTED ON THE RUSSIAN PEOPLE.
"PERSONALLY," DR. TSIANG CONCLUDED, "I AM DEEPLY CONVINCED THAT THE CHINESE PEOPLE MUST BE PREPARED FOR THE SACRIFICES OF A LONG-DRAWN STRUGGLE AGAINST COMMUNISM IF CHINA IS TO SURVIVE AS AN INDEPENDENT AND FREE COUNTRY."

THE OFFICIAL STATEMENT ON A TWO-DAY CONFERENCE BETWEEN BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN AND FRANCE'S FOREIGN MINISTER ROBERT SCHUMAN REVEALED NO CONCRETE DECISIONS. THEIR MEETINGS WERE HELD IN STRICT SECRECY.
THE TWO MINISTERS AIMED PRIMARILY AT REMOVING DIFFERENCES BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES ON SUCH ISSUES AS GERMANY'S FUTURE AND EUROPEAN UNITY.
THEY COVERED THE FIELD OF INTERNATIONAL PROBLEMS AS DISTANT AS THE FAR EAST--AND INCLUDING PALESTINE.

FIRST LEAD FIRE (A79) (290)

LONDON, JAN 14-(AP)-A SMALL FIRE AT THE SOVIET CONSULATE THREATENED TO FLARE UP TODAY INTO A FULL-FLEDGED DIPLOMATIC INCIDENT. BOTH THE RUSSIAN EMBASSY AND SCOTLAND YARD ISSUED A STATEMENT ON THE CASE.
ALA (CQ) ABRANOVA, FOUR-YEAR-OLD (CQ) DAUGHTER OF A CONSULATE OFFICIAL, WAS BURNED FATALLY IN THE BLAZE.
THE SOVIET EMBASSY ISSUED AN OFFICIAL STATEMENT TONIGHT ABOUT THE FIRE. THE RUSSIANS SAID LONDON NEWSPAPERS "DISTORTED THE ACTUAL FACTS."
THE STATEMENT CHARGED THE NEWSPAPER REPORTS WERE UNTRUE IN SAYING MISS JEAN ROUGIER-WATKINS, A BRITISH AIR LINES HOSTESS WHO WAS PASSING BY THE CONSULATE, CARRIED THE ABRANOVA CHILD FROM THE BUILDING.
"THE CHILD WAS CARRIED OUT FROM THE BLAZING ROOM BY ITS MOTHER," THE RUSSIANS SAID. THE STATEMENT ADDED THEY WERE "GRATEFUL TO MISS ROUGIER-WATKINS" FOR HER HELP IN "OFFERING HER SERVICES IN TAKING THE CHILD TO THE HOSPITAL."
THE STATEMENT DENIED, TOO, THAT CONSULAR AIDES INTERFERED WITH ACCESS OF FIREMEN AND POLICE TO THE BUILDING.
MISS ROUGIER-WATKINS TOLD NEWSPAPERMEN THAT WHEN SHE ARRIVED AT THE SCENE OF THE FIRE LAST NIGHT "IT APPEARED TO ME THAT TWO OR THREE RUSSIANS WERE PREVENTING THE POLICE FROM ENTERING THE BUILDING."
CONTRARY TO ASSERTIONS MADE BY "CERTAIN PAPERS," THE EMBASSY SAID, CONSULAR EMPLOYES "DID NOT INTERFERE WITH THE ACCESS OF FIREMEN X X X AND OFFERED NO OBSTACLES TO THE WORK OF THE FIRE BRIGADE. THE REPORT THAT POLICE WERE ALLOWED TO ENTER THE BUILDING 'ACCOMPANIED BY RUSSIAN SOLDIERS' IS A FANTASTIC INVENTION."
AN OFFICIAL STATEMENT FROM SCOTLAND YARD ALSO SAID "POLICE WERE NOT OBSTRUCTED OR IMPEDED IN ANY WAY BY RUSSIAN OFFICIALS."
THE NEWSPAPER REPORTS, THE EMBASSY SAID, WERE "YNICALLY USING THAT UNHAPPY INCIDENT FOR POLITICAL PROPAGANDA PURPOSES. X X X APPARENTLY MISS ROUGIER-WATKINS HAS FALLEN A VICTIM TO SENSATIONALISM BEHIND WHICH IS CONCEALED UNSAVORY POLITICAL MOTIVES."
TOLD LATER OF THE EMBASSY ACCOUNT, MISS ROUGIER-WATKINS SAID: "I AM SPEECHLESS. WHAT I SAID WAS THE TRUTH. PEOPLE STANDING AROUND SAW WHAT HAPPENED."
"IF THEY ARE NOT GRATEFUL," SHE ADDED, "THEN TO HELL WITH THEM."

FRANKFURT, GERMANY, JAN. 14-(AP)-GEN.LUCIUS D.CLAY, AMERICAN MILITARY GOVERNOR, SAID TONIGHT THE RUSSIANS HAVE THREATENED TO CUT OFF ELECTRICAL POWER INTO BAVARIA FROM THE RUSSIAN ZONE, BEGINNING TOMORROW.

HE SAID THE RUSSIANS DEMANDED THAT POWER SUPPLIED BY THEM BE PAID FOR IN EQUIPMENT RATHER THAN IN MONEY, AND THAT UNLESS THEIR REQUEST WAS MET THE POWER INFLOW WOULD BE CUT.

THERE IS AN EMBARGO ON SHIPMENT OF GOODS INTO THE RUSSIAN ZONE, AND GEN.CLAY STATED AT A NEWS CONFERENCE, "WE ARE NOT WILLING TO LIFT THE EMBARGO."

HE SAID AN INVESTIGATION WOULD BE MADE TO DETERMINE IF ANY ELECTRICAL POWER IS GOING INTO THE RUSSIAN ZONE FROM BAVARIA AND IF IT IS, IT WOULD BE CUT OFF.

AT PRESENT RUSSIAN ZONE FACILITIES PROVIDE BAVARIA WITH 10 PER CENT OF ITS TOTAL ELECTRICAL POWER.

UNDER NORMAL CIRCUMSTANCES POWER WOULD BE FLOWING OUT OF BAVARIA, BUT WAR DAMAGE CRIPPLED PLANTS IN THE AREA.

GEN.CLAY SAID THE RUSSIANS WANTED PAYMENT IN GOODS, "MOSTLY IN POWER EQUIPMENT."

"IS THAT AN INDICATION THAT THE COUNTER-BLOCKADE IS HURTING THEM?" HE WAS ASKED.

"I HOPE SO," HE REPLIED WITH A GRIN.

"WE ARE DOING THE BEST WE CAN," HE CONTINUED, BUT WE CANNOT FULLY REPLACE POWER. A CUT WILL AFFECT BAVARIAN INDUSTRY."

CLAY SAID SMUGGLING IS THE GREATEST SINGLE THREAT TO GERMAN ECONOMIC RECOVERY AND U.S. AUTHORITIES ARE GOING TO TIGHTEN UP BORDER CONTROLS TO STOP IT.

HE ESTIMATED THE ILLEGAL TRADE AT $200,000,000 A YEAR AND SAID ARTICLES COMING INTO GERMANY CONSISTED MOSTLY OF "THINGS WE DON'T NEED" SUCH AS "CAMERAS, PHOTOGRAPHIC EQUIPMENT AND OTHER ARTICLES EASILY SMUGGLED."

HE SAID IT WAS POSSIBLE, HOWEVER, THAT SMALL QUANTITIES OF BALL BEARINGS WERE BEING SMUGGLED OUT, AND THAT THE TOTAL SMUGGLED OUT WAS PROBABLY ABOUT 25 PER CENT OF THE COUNTRY'S CONTROLLED EXPORTS.

FIRST LEAD PALESTINE (170)

BY L. S. CHAKALES

RHODES, JAN 14-(AP)-ISRAELIS AND EGYPTIANS TOPPED THE FIRST BIG HURDLE TODAY IN THEIR ROAD TO AN ARMISTICE.

THEY AGREED ON A CONFERENCE PREAMBLE WHICH RULES OUT MILITARY OFFENSIVES BY EITHER SIDE AND ASSURES MUTUAL RESPECT OF NATIONAL SECURITY WHILE NEGOTIATIONS GO ON FOR AN AGREEMENT.

A SPOKESMAN FOR THE UNITED NATIONS MEDIATOR, RALPH J. BUNCHE, ANNOUNCED THIS AND HAILED IT AS AN IMPORTANT AID TO THE ULTIMATE SUCCESS OF THIS CONFERENCE TO END WAR BETWEEN EGYPT AND ISRAEL IN PALESTINE.

THE APPROVAL OF THE CONFERENCE PREAMBLE WAS REACHED IN THE SECOND PLENARY MEETING OF THE ISRAELI AND EGYPTIAN REPRESENTATIVES HERE. THE MEETING LASTED ONLY 15 MINUTES.

OPTIMISM PREVAILED HERE, DESPITE AN AGENDA LOADED WITH EXPLOSIVE ISSUES. AS THE TALKS, THE FIRST FACE-TO-FACE MEETINGS OF THE EGYPTIANS AND JEWS SINCE THE OUTBREAK OF THE PALESTINE WAR, AGAIN GOT UNDER WAY, A MEMBER OF THE MEDIATOR'S STAFF EXPRESSED BELIEF THE ENTIRE JOB OF THE CONFERENCE WOULD BE COMPLETED BY NEXT WEEK. BOTH JEWISH AND EGYPTIAN SPOKESMEN WERE EXPRESSED HOPE THAT PEACE WOULD BE ACHIEVED.

BY JAMES M. LONG

TEL AVIV, ISRAEL, JAN.14(-AP)-THE HIGH ENTHUSIASM WITH WHICH ISRAEL ~~AGREED~~ TO ARMISTICE TALKS WITH EGYPT WAS SAID BY A HIGH AUTHORITY TODAY TO HAVE BEEN DIMMED.

BLAME FOR THE LESSENING OF OPTIMISM IS PLACED HERE ON BRITAIN.

THERE HAD BEEN HOPE THAT THE RHODES TALKS MIGHT LEAD TO FORMAL PEACE WITH EGYPT AND PERHAPS BE BROADENED INTO NEGOTIATIONS WITH ALL THE ARAB STATES, WITH THE U.N. TRUCE COMMISSION AS A GO-BETWEEN.

(ACTING MEDIATOR RALPH BUNCHE, AT YESTERDAY'S RHODES SESSION) EXPRESSED HOPE THE EGYPT-ISRAEL TALKS WOULD SET AN EXAMPLE FOR OTHER PARTIES TO THE HOLY LAND CONFLICT.)

NOW, HOWEVER, THE ISRAELI FOREIGN OFFICE FEARS THAT LITTLE MORE THAN A REDRAWING OF TRUCE LINES MAY RESULT FROM THE TALKS.

THE GOVERNMENT HAS BEEN WARNED AGAINST THE OPTIMISM PREVIOUSLY REGARDED AS JUSTIFIED. AND THE PRESS IS COOLING DOWN THE JEWISH PUBLIC.

THIS DEVELOPMENT IS PICTURED HERE AS A DIRECT RESULT OF BRITAIN'S ATTITUDE OF THE PAST WEEK, WHICH WAS REFLECTED IN STRENGTHENING OF TROOP AND NAVAL FORCES IN THE AREA AND BRITISH CABINET BACKING OF FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN'S POLICIES.

THERE HAVE BEEN DETAILED REPORTS TO CLOSED SESSIONS OF GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS HERE WITHIN THE PAST 48 HOURS ON THIS DETERIORATED OUTLOOK. THESE SESSIONS HAVE BEEN KEPT SECRET TO AVOID PREJUDICING WHATEVER HOPES THE ARMISTICE TALKS STILL HOLD.

BUT IT IS KNOWN THE GOVERNMENT FEARS BRITAIN HAS BROUGHT SUBSTANTIAL NEW PRESSURE ON EGYPT TO RESIST CLEAR-CUT PEACE OVERTURES AND UPON TRANS-JORDAN NOT TO COME INTO ANY FURTHER NEGOTIATIONS AT THIS TIME.

(THE INFLUENTIAL BRITISH LIBERAL WEEKLY ECONOMIST SAID TODAY BRITAIN LATELY SEEMS TO BE INVITING HER ARAB ALLIES "TO SUMMON ITS ARMED FORCES TO THEIR SIDE" ON PALESTINE'S BORDERS. THE WEEKLY SAID BRITAIN HAS GIVEN AMERICAN ZIONISTS "STRONG GROUND" TO COMPLAIN SHE IS TRYING TO CRUSH ISRAEL.

(THE ECONOMIST DECLARED THE "SPOKESMAN OF ISRAEL HAVE BEEN PROVIDED WITH AN ADMIRABLE TARGET ONTO WHICH TO DIVERT ATTENTION WHICH WOULD OTHERWISE BE EXAMINING THE RECKLESS FOLLY OF THEIR OWN MILITARY EXTREMISTS.")

JAN 1949

A58

THE RHODES TALKS HAD BEEN REGARDED HERETOFORE AS OPENING THE DOOR TO MUCH WIDER PEACE NEGOTIATIONS.

THE FEELING HERE HAD BEEN THAT KING ABDULLAH OF TRANS-JORDAN HAD MORE TO GAIN BY PEACE THAN ANY OTHER ARAB RULER AND WAS READY TO NEGOTIATE.

BECAUSE OF THE QUESTION OF PRESTIGE WITHIN THE ARAB LEAGUE, HE DID NOT WANT TO BE THE FIRST TO SIT DOWN AT THE CONFERENCE TABLE WITH THE JEWS.

ONCE THE EGYPTIANS DID, HOWEVER, HE COULD FOLLOW SUIT. SO COULD LEBANON, WHICH HAS BEEN AS GOOD AS OUT OF THE WAR SINCE IT STARTED LAST SPRING.

THERE HAVE BEEN PRELIMINARY ISRAELI TALKS WITH BOTH TRANS-JORDAN AND LEBANON. IT WAS EXPECTED AND HOPED BY THE ISRAELI FOREIGN OFFICE THAT AS SOON AS THE EGYPTIANS SAT DOWN WITH THE JEWS AT RHODES THESE PRELIMINARY TALKS COULD BE HARDENED INTO ACTUAL PEACE NEGOTIATIONS.

AN AUTHORITY CLOSE TO THE ISRAELI GOVERNMENT SAID THOSE HOPES HAD BEEN HIT HARD IN THE PAST WEEK. THE TALKS ARE NOT CONTINUING. AND THERE IS NO IMMEDIATE INDICATION THEY WILL BE RENEWED, DESPITE THE PRECEDENT SET BY THE EGYPTIANS AT RHODES.

WASHINGTON,JAN.14-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN WERE REPORTED TODAY TO HAVE REACHED A BETTER UNDERSTANDING ON THE EXPLOSIVE PALESTINE SITUATION.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN FRESHLY EMPHASIZED TO HIS NEWS CONFERENCE YESTERDAY THAT AMERICAN POLICY IS AIMED AT CREATING PEACE AND STABILITY IN THE MIDDLE EAST.
BUT WHILE HE DENIED THAT RELATIONS WITH BRITAIN HAVE BECOME STRAINED OVER THE PALESTINE SITUATION, THIS BASIC SPLIT APPARENTLY REMAINS IN THE ATTITUDES OF THE TWO NATIONS:
WHILE THE WEIGHT OF AMERICAN SUPPORT OVER MANY MONTHS HAS FALLEN ON THE SIDE OF THE NEW JEWISH STATE OF ISRAEL, THE BRITISH ARE BOUND TO THE ARAB STATES BY VARIOUS TREATIES OF ALLIANCE.
IF BRITAIN AT ANY TIME FEELS COMPELLED TO GO TO THE DEFENSE OF ITS MIDDLE EASTERN ALLIES, AUTHORITIES HERE FEAR GRAVE HARM MIGHT BE DONE TO RELATIONS BETWEEN THIS COUNTRY AND THE UNITED KINGDOM.
STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS ALREADY HAVE INDICATED CONSIDERABLE CONCERN BECAUSE BRITAIN MOVED TROOPS TO THE TRANS-JORDAN CITY OF AQABA AND PUT AERIAL RECONNAISSANCE OVER THE EGYPTIAN-PALESTINE BORDER AREA. FIVE BRITISH PLANES WERE SHOT DOWN THERE LAST FRIDAY.
BRITISH AUTHORITIES, ON THE OTHER HAND, REPORTEDLY FEEL THAT THE UNITED STATES HAS NOT PUT ENOUGH PRESSURE ON ISRAEL TO COME TO TERMS WITH THE ARAB STATES. BRITISH SPOKESMEN IN LONDON CLAIM JEWISH FORCES HAVE BEEN RESPONSIBLE FOR RECENT TRUCE VIOLATIONS.
ACTING ON URGENT INSTRUCTIONS FROM FOREIGN MINISTER BEVIN, BRITISH AMBASSADOR SIR OLIVER FRANKS CONFERRED WITH MR.TRUMAN ON THE SITUATION YESTERDAY FOLLOWING A SIMILAR MEETING WITH UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE LOVETT WEDNESDAY.
WHILE NO ONE WOULD SAY EXACTLY WHAT WAS DISCUSSED AT EITHER MEETING, MR.TRUMAN TOLD HIS NEWS CONFERENCE AFTER FRANKS' VISIT THAT THE POLICY STATEMENT MADE BY AMERICAN DELEGATE DR.PHILLIP C.JESSUP BEFORE A UNITED NATIONS MEETING AT PARIS NOVEMBER 20 HAS HIS STRONG ENDORSEMENT. HE PRESUMABLY TOLD FRANKS MUCH THE SAME THING. more

THE JESSUP STATEMENT OUTLINED THESE THREE BASIC OBJECTIVES TOWARD WHICH THE UNITED STATES HAS "EXERTED ITSELF" REGARDING PALESTINE:

"(1) THE ESTABLISHMENT AND MAINTENANCE OF PEACE IN THAT AREA,

"(2) THE EARLY ATTAINMENT OF A CONSTRUCTIVE POLITICAL SETTLEMENT WHICH WILL ITSELF CONTRIBUTE TO STABILITY AND TO ECONOMIC WELL-BEING THROUGHOUT THE MIDDLE EAST,

"(3) RECONCILIATION BETWEEN THE ARAB AND JEWISH COMMUNITIES IN MATTERS AFFECTING PALESTINE."

IN ADDITION, JESSUP LISTED SEVEN LINES OF ACTION--TOPPED BY THE USE OF "EVERY PEACEABLE MEASURE" TO ESTABLISH PEACE BETWEEN ARABS AND JEWS.

OTHER POINTS IN THIS PROGRAM CALL FOR UNITED NATIONS RECOGNITION OF ISRAEL IN THE NEAR FUTURE, DETERMINATION OF ISRAELI BOUNDARIES, TERRITORIAL ADJUSTMENTS BETWEEN JEWS AND ARABS INSIDE PALESTINE, AND REPATRIATION OF REFUGEES.

ATLANTIC PACT (250)

WASHINGTON, JAN 14-(AP)-THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID TODAY THAT SOVIET "OBSTRUCTION" IN THE UNITED NATIONS MADE NECESSARY THE PROJECTED NORTH ATLANTIC SECURITY PACT.

A DETAILED OUTLINE OF THE POSTWAR DIFFICULTIES BETWEEN THE WEST AND RUSSIA LEADING UP TO THE ATLANTIC SECURITY PROPOSAL CHARGED THAT SOVIET BLOC TACTICS HAVE "SERIOUSLY HAMPERED THE ACTIVITIES OF THE UNITED NATIONS." IT ADDED:

"THE END RESULT, IF NOT THE AIM, OF THE SOVIET PROGRAM HAS BEEN TO WEAKEN THE EFFECTIVENESS OF THE UN AND TO SHAKE THE CONFIDENCE OF MANY PEOPLE IN IT AS AN INSTRUMENT OF PEACE.

"THE RESULTANT WIDESPREAD FEAR AND UNCERTAINTY HAVE CREATED A SITUATION IN WHICH FORWARD-LOOKING GOVERNMENTS HAVE BEGUN TO SEEK ADDITIONAL MEANS OF PRESERVING THE PEACE IN KEEPING WITH THE PRINCIPLES OF THE UNITED NATIONS CHARTER. X X X

"IF WORLD RECOVERY IS TO PROGRESS, THE SENSE OF SECURITY MUST BE RESTORED. SINCE THE THREAT OF ARMED AGGRESSION IS AT THE ROOT OF INSECURITY, COLLECTIVE ACTION WHICH WILL ENABLE FREE NATIONS TO CONFRONT A POTENTIAL AGGRESSOR WITH PREPONDERANT POWER, TOGETHER WITH ECONOMIC RECOVERY AND POLITICAL STABILITY, PROVIDES THE ONLY SATISFACTORY ANTIDOTE TO FEAR."

THE STATE DEPARTMENT PUBLICATION WAS ISSUED AS BACKGROUND ON THE SECURITY PACT WHICH PROMISES TO BECOME A MAJOR ISSUE IN THE SENATE.

"IT SEEMS CLEAR THAT THE UNITED STATES MUST SUPPLY MUCH OF THE MILITARY EQUIPMENT WHICH THE COUNTRIES WORKING FOR RECOVERY CAN NOT PRODUCE THEMSELVES," THE DEPARTMENT SAID.

THE AMERICAN ADVENTISTS, LIKE THE PRESBYTERIANS, ARE "PAYING ESPECIAL ATTENTION TO RECRUITING MEMBERS," SAID MOSCOW.

DEFENSE OFFICIALS SAID YESTERDAY THAT BECAUSE OTHER MATTERS NOW APPEAR MORE IMPORTANT IT HAS BEEN DECIDED NOT TO "BEAR DOWN" ON THE MISSIONS REQUEST WHICH FORRESTAL DESCRIBED IN A REPORT TWO WEEKS AGO AS A "PROGRAM OF TOP PRIORITY" FOR CONGRESS' ATTENTION.

THE REQUEST WAS ONE OF TWO CRITICIZED LAST WEEK BY PRESIDENT JAMES G.PATTON OF THE NATIONAL FARMERS UNION. THE OTHER ASKED LEGISLATION PERMITTING THE UNITED STATES TO SEND MILITARY AID TO OTHER NATIONS. PATTON SAID FORRESTAL WAS ASKING "THE POWER TO MAKE WAR."

BUT FORRESTAL DENIED ANY SUCH INTENTION IN A LETTER WHICH SENATOR CAIN (R-WASH) MADE PUBLIC YESTERDAY. WITHOUT MENTIONING PATTON BY NAME THE SECRETARY LABELED THE CRITICISM AN APPARENT "ATTEMPT TO DISCREDIT THE FOREIGN POLICY OF THIS GOVERNMENT."

SECOND LEAD DAY U.N.-INDONESIA
BY MAX HARRELSON
LAKE SUCCESS, JAN. 14-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES WAS REPORTED TODAY PROPOSING CREATION OF AN INDEPENDENT UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA BY APRIL 1, 1950 PRECEDED BY THE PROGRESSIVE WITHDRAWAL OF ALL DUTCH FORCES FROM INDONESIA.

THE VIEWS OF THE UNITED STATES WERE AUTHORITATIVELY STATED AS THE NETHERLANDS FORMALLY TOLD THE SECURITY COUNCIL IT WOULD NOT COMPLY WITH ANY U.N. ORDER TO WITHDRAW FROM REPUBLICAN TERRITORY OR TO RELEASE INDONESIAN POLITICAL PRISONERS.

THE NETHERLANDS DECLARATION WAS MADE BY J.H.VAN ROYEN, DUTCH REPRESENTATIVE, AS THE COUNCIL RESUMED DEBATE ON THE INDONESIAN QUESTION.

THE UNITED STATES WAS SAID TO FAVOR BROADENING THE PRESENT INDONESIAN GOOD OFFICE COMMITTEE INTO A SECURITY COUNCIL COMMISSION ON INDONESIA, MADE UP OF THE UNITED STATES, BELGIUM AND AUSTRALIA, TO SUPERVISE THE TRANSFER OF SOVEREIGNTY FROM THE NETHERLANDS TO THE U.S. OF INDONESIA AND THE WITHDRAWAL OF DUTCH FORCES.

THE U.S. WAS SAID TO BELIEVE THAT THE COUNCIL SHOULD APPROVE A RESOLUTION PROVIDING:

1. THE NETHERLANDS DISCONTINUE IMMEDIATELY MILITARY OPERATIONS IN INDONESIA AND THAT THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA INSTRUCT ITS FORCES TO COOPERATE IN RESTORING PEACE.

2. THAT THE NETHERLANDS SHALL RELEASE IMMEDIATELY ALL POLITICAL PRISONERS ARRESTED SINCE DEC. 17 AND THAT THE NETHERLANDS SHALL PERMIT OFFICIALS OF THE GOVERNMENT OF INDONESIA TO RETURN AT ONCE TO JOGJAKARTA IN ORDER TO COMPLY WITH THIS RESOLUTION AND TO EXERCISE THEIR APPROPRIATE FUNCTIONS IN FULL FREEDOM.

JAN 1949

B9

3. THAT IN THE INTERESTS OF CARRYING OUT THE EXPRESSED OBJECTIVES AND DESIRES OF BOTH PARTIES, NEGOTIATIONS SHALL BE UNDERTAKEN AS SOON AS POSSIBLE BY THE REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NETHERLANDS AND THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA UNDER THE COMMISSION BASED ON COUNCIL DECISIONS, AND THE RENVILLE AND JOGJAKARTA AGREEMENTS;

(A) THAT THE INTERIM FEDERAL GOVERNMENT IN THE UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA SHALL BE ESTABLISHED NOT LATER THAN MARCH 15, 1949;

(B) THAT ELECTIONS TO BE HELD FOR THE PURPOSE OF SETTING UP THE INDONESIAN CONSTITUENT ASSEMBLY SHALL BE COMPLETED BY OCT. 1, 1949;

(C) THAT THE TRANSFER OF SOVEREIGNTY BY THE NETHERLANDS TO THE UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA SHALL BE NOT LATER THAN APRIL 1, 1950.

4. THAT THE COUNCIL SUSPENDS TEMPORARILY THE ACTIVITIES OF THE CONSULAR COMMITTEE AND TRANSFERS ALL OF ITS FUNCTIONS AND SERVICES OF ITS MILITARY ASSISTANTS TO THE COMMITTEE OF GOOD OFFICES, WHICH NOW IS TO BE KNOWN AS THE U.N. COMMISSION FOR INDONESIA.

(THE CONSULAR COMMITTEE WAS FORMED FIRST AND WAS MADE UP OF THE CONSULA RESIDING IN BATAVIA.)

(A) THE COMMISSION SHALL ACT AS THE REPRESENTATIVE OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL AND SHALL TAKE ITS DECISIONS BY MAJORITY VOTE.

(B) THE COMMISSION IS AUTHORIZED TO OBSERVE THE ELECTIONS AND TO MAKE RECOMMENDATIONS REGARDING CONDITIONS TO INSURE THAT SUCH ELECTIONS ARE FREE AND DEMOCRATIC AND TO GUARANTEE FREEDOM OF ASSEMBLY AND OF SPEECH.

(C) THE COMMISSION SHALL DETERMINE THE EXTENT TO WHICH, CONSISTENT WITH THE REASONABLE REQUIREMENTS OF PUBLIC SECURITY, AREAS IN JAVA, ~~SUMATRA AND MADOERA OUTSIDE OF JOGJAKARAT SHALL BE~~ PROGRESSIVELY RETURNED TO THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA AND SHALL SUPERVISE SUCH TRANSFER. THE COMMISSION SHALL DETERMINE WHICH, IF ANY, NETHERLANDS FORCES SHALL BE RETAINED TEMPORARILY IN ANY AREA TO ASSIST IN MAINTAINING LAW AND ORDER.

VAN ROYEN LAID BEFORE THE COUNCIL A PROPOSED DUTCH TIME TABLE ON STEPS INTENDED TO LEAD TO THE INDEPENDENCE OF INDONESIA AS A FEDERATED GOVERNMENT UNDER THE NETHERLANDS CROWN.

HE PROPOSED:

1. THAT A FEDERAL INTERIM GOVERNMENT IN INDONESIA BE CREATED WITHIN ONE MONTH FROM NOW.

2. THAT ELECTIONS, UNDER U.N. SUPERVISION, BE HELD DURING THE THIRD QUARTER OF 1949.

3. THAT CONTROL WOULD BE TRANSFERRED FROM THE NETHERLANDS GOVERNMENT TO THE UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA SOMETIME BEFORE THE END OF 1950.

VAN ROYEN VIGOROUSLY ATTACKED RUSSIA, THE UNITED STATES AND INDIA FOR THEIR DECLARATIONS AT EARLIER COUNCIL MEETINGS ON THE INDONESIAN QUESTION.

HE SAID BOTH RUSSIA AND INDIA HAD DEFIED U.N. DECISIONS ON NUMEROUS OCCASIONS.

"HOW MANY LEADERS OF A POLITICAL OPPOSITION ARE ALLOWED TO RETAIN THEIR FREEDOM, EVEN IN TIMES OF PEACE, IN THE SOVIET UNION?" HE ASKED. "AND WHAT, MAY I ASK HAS BECOME OF THE NIZAM OF HYDERABAD?"

VAN ROYEN CALLED A SPEECH BY U.S. DELEGATE PHILIP C.JESSUP LAST TUESDAY "A ONE-SIDED PRESENTATION OF FACTS." HE ALSO SAID JESSUP'S SPEECH SHOWED "A MARKED LACK OF IMPARTIALITY."

BRITISH DELEGATE SIR ALEXANDER CADOGAN SAID HE WAS SOMEWHAT REASSURED BY VAN ROYEN'S SPEECH. HE ADDED, HOWEVER, THAT HE STILL DID NOT KNOW THE EXTENT OF DUTCH COMPLIANCE WITH THE COUNCIL'S RESOLUTIONS.

CADOGAN SAID THE COUNCIL MUST HAVE THE ANSWER TO SEVERAL POINTS BEFORE IT CAN BE CONTENT.

REPRESENTATIVES OF THE UNITED NATIONS, HE SAID, MUST HAVE FULL FACILITIES FOR DETERMINING WHAT HAS BEEN DONE. REPUBLICAN LEADERS MUST HAVE A CHANCE TO TAKE PART IN THE VARIOUS STEPS TO SET UP THE PROJECTED GOVERNMENT, AND DEFINITE DATES MUST BE FIXED FOR THE TRANSFER OF SOVEREIGNTY.

CADOGAN QUESTIONED THE ADVISABILITY OF COMPLETE AND IMMEDIATE WITHDRAWAL OF DUTCH TROOPS, UNLESS SOMETHING IS DONE TO REPLACE THEM.

CUBAN DELEGATE ALBERTO INOCENTE ALVAREZ SAID IT WAS ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY FOR THE COUNCIL TO ADOPT A RESOLUTION PROVIDING:

1. THE ARMED FORCES OF THE NETHERLANDS BE WITHDRAWN TO POSITIONS HELD UNDER THE RENVILLE AGREEMENT, EXCEPT TO PRESERVE ORDER.
2. ALL POLITICAL PRISONERS BE RELEASED.
3. ELECTIONS BE CARRIED OUT UNDER SUPERVISION OF THE GOOD OFFICES COMMITTEE BEFORE JULY 1, 1949, FOR A CONSTITUENT ASSEMBLY.
4. WITHDRAWAL OF DUTCH ARMED FORCES FROM THE REPUBLIC TO BEGIN ON THE DATE WHEN THE ELECTION IS CALLED AND TO BE COMPLETED 15 DAYS BEFORE THE ELECTION IS HELD.

THE REPRESENTATIVE OF BURMA, SO-NYUN, SAID HIS HOPES HAD BEEN RAISED BY THE SPEECHES OF AMERICAN, CHINESE AND NORWEGIAN REPRESENTATIVES BUT HAD BEEN DASHED TODAY BY VAN ROYEN'S DECLARATION.

"WE FEEL STRONGLY," HE SAID, "THAT IF THE SITUATION IN INDONESIA IS NOT CHANGED IT WILL DISTURB THE PEACE OF THE EAST AND THE WHOLE WORLD."

HE SAID NO RIGHT-MINDED PERSON CAN SEE ANY REASON FOR "THE DUTCH AGGRESSION."

"NO PEOPLE IN THIS 20TH CENTURY CAN HOPE TO RULE A PEOPLE AGAINST THEIR WILL," SO-NYUN DECLARED.

HE PLEADED WITH THE COUNCIL NOT TO CONDONE ANY FURTHER "SUCH ACTS AS THE DUTCH HAVE COMMITTED.

JOHN D.L.HOOD OF AUSTRALIA SAID THE NETHERLANDS STATEMENT WAS DISAPPOINTING.

"I FIND NOTHING NEW," HE SAID, "EXCEPT A VAGUE INDICATION OF SOME DATES. IT DOES NOT ATTEMPT TO MEET THE DESIRES OF THE COUNCIL."

Tientsin Falls, All Americans In City Secure

Nanking Weighing Peace Conditions

U. S., Britain Refuse to Mediate, Government Offices Flee to South

NANKING, Jan. 15 (AP).—The Chinese Communists captured Tientsin today, sharpening the urgency of the government alternatives to yield to harsh peace terms or flee.

The cabinet and other government bodies were holding tense conferences, and the policy-making executive Yuan scheduled an emergency session Sunday to discuss the Red conditions.

Those conditions, broadcast Friday night by the Communist radio, amounted to a demand for unconditional surrender of the Chiang Kai-shek government. Nanking hopes that they might be eased went glimmering as the fall of Tientsin demonstrated the Reds' dominant military position.

Deepening the government gloom was authoritative word that both the United States and Britain had declined to use their good offices to seek peace talks. There appeared no reason to believe that France or Russia would heed similar pleas. "Conquest of Tientsin after a month of siege and a day of artillery bombardment cost the government another 60,000 of its dwindling troops and freed an estimated 150,000 Reds for new operations.

The Communist radio stressed the obvious fact that the capture cleared a rail route all the way from Manchuria down to the Yangtze River front before Nanking.

FLIGHT CONTINUE

This hurried the continuing flight of government offices from this dejected capital.

It was learned authoritatively that the bulk of government gold and foreign currency already had been moved to the island of Formosa, more than 500 miles by air southeast of Nanking. Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek was reported also to have sent many of his personal possessions there.

The national defense ministry planned to start moving its personnel Sunday to Hengyang, more than 500 miles southwest of Nanking. The foreign office was studying quick removal plans.

ULTIMATE REFUGE

Semi-official Chinese sources said Foochow, more than 400 miles by air south of Nanking, had been chosen as a temporary capital when Nanking should become untenable. Formosa is being saved as an ultimate refuge if the government finds itself unable to stay on the mainland, these sources reported.

Antipathy of the residents plus a well-developed Red guerrilla movement were said to have forced abandonment of plans to move to the great southern center of Canton. T. V. Soong, governor of Canton's Kwangtung Province, was scheduled to confer in Nanking Sunday with his brother-in-law, the Generalissimo.

CLAMOR INCREASES

Every indication pointed to Formosa as the final retreat of Chiang. It was believed that, with the protection of army, navy and air units already being sent there, he hoped to wait for future world events to provide him with the necessary support for a comeback.

Public clamor for peace at any price was increasing, however, and even in official circles there was a feeling that Communist conditions were not unreasonable in view of the military situation.

The universal reaction was that the Red terms left no room for bargaining. Broadcast by the Red radio last night, they included punishment of "war criminals," destruction of "reactionary elements," and abandonment of the constitution.

OFFICIALS SILENT

Shao Li-tze, elder statesman and former Ambassador to Moscow who has been a leading peace advocate, said, "the government will have to consider these terms. It does not mean the door to peace is closed."

The war criminal angle led most officials to shy away from comment, even privately. As one put it, "I have to think of my own skin."

Radio reports from Tientsin indicated the Communist seizure at noon Saturday was practically bloodless, but it followed a day of heavy shelling that damaged many of the city's large buildings and took an unknown but high number of civilian lives.

U. S. Consul General Robert L. Smyth radioed that all Americans (numbering more than 80) were safe, and the British consulate reported similarly. The U. S. Consulate windows were broken by shell concussion. (AP)

Loss Of Tientsin Dims Nanking Peace Hopes

Nanking, Jan. 15 (AP)—The Communist conquest of Tientsin today blunted the Chinese Government's hopes for a negotiated peace on terms other than virtually complete surrender, as demanded last night by Red leader Mao Tze-tung.

Loss of the great northern commercial city with its garrison of approximately 60,000 will release some 150,000 Reds for action elsewhere.

British Won't Intervene

Nationalist aspirations suffered another setback with the British refusal to help arrange peace talks. The British action followed the lead of the United States.

The Chinese peace offensive faltered as officials studied Mao's statement. Their "harsh character" inspired many officials to declare the terms impossible to accept.

One complained, "They intend to punish all war criminals and we have almost all been termed war criminals. Well, who is going to negotiate?"

Only two leading members of the Government, Chang Chieh-chung and Shao Li-tze, have not been named war criminals by the official Communist news agency.

The only note of Government optimism regarding the Red statement was that at least some reply has now been made to Government overtures. The Communists may be prepared to compromise.

Public clamor for peace at any price is increasing. Even official circles feel that the Red terms are not unreasonable in view of the powerful Communist military position.

Defense Ministry Moving

Evacuation of Government offices from Nanking is continuing. The Ministry of National Defense tomorrow will begin moving its personnel by rail to Hengyang in Hunan province. Plans for the removal south of the Foreign Office now is under consideration.

It has been learned authoritatively that the National Government has transferred the bulk of its gold bullion, foreign currency and other hard specie holdings to Formosa.

North China City Gives Up After Heavy Shelling

Shanghai, Jan. 15 (AP)—The great commercial city of Tientsin, battered by Communist shells and afire in several places, fell to Chinese Reds today.

Victorious troops of Red Gen. Lin Piao, conqueror of Manchuria, seized the city after an artillery barrage had wrecked many buildings. The "Gateway to North China" had a population of 3,000,000.

Hospitals Are Filled

Many civilians were killed. Hospitals were jammed with wounded.

Robert Smyth, of Berkeley, Cal., United States consul general, radioed that his staff was safe.

"So far as can be ascertained all other Americans (about 80 in number) are safe," Smyth radioed.

On Victoria road, which runs through the former British concession, the Reds stopped in front of the United States Consulate to fire their rifles into the air.

Americans Watch Parade

Before the United States Information Service office in the former French concession, a few blocks away, they again fired their rifles into the air as Americans watched from the roof.

Confirmation of Tientsin's fall came in messages received in Nanking, where the blow to the Nationalist cause is certain to have terrific repercussions.

Peiping, 90 miles northeast of Tientsin and headquarters of Gen. Fu Tso-yi, Nationalist North China commander, reported only that the Reds had entered Tientsin.

Tangku May Be Next

Victory at Tientsin frees Lin's troops for an assault on Tangku and Taku, 27 miles down the Hai River.

Peiping may be the next big city attacked by the Reds, whose leader, Mao Tze-tung, yesterday laid down an eight-point peace program and boasted that more military victories would bring Chiang's government to its knees.

The reaction of officialdom in Nanking to his "peace terms," according to James D. White, Associated Press correspondent there, was to vanish into meetings, including one of the Cabinet.

Terms "Very Fierce"

The meetings, said White, had been scheduled previously but took on an emergency air as Nationalist officials discussed the Red demands. Unofficial Chinese reaction was that Mao's terms were "very fierce" and left no room for bargaining.

Chang Chien-hua, Manchurian legislator who has been promoting his own peace program, said:

"The Red demands are too high—just like Chiang Kai-shek's. However, as long as they express interest in peace there is still hope, but if they really want peace they will have to soften their demands to some extent. For instance, their demands that war criminals be prosecuted are ambiguous; they could include anybody. Therefore they are out of the question. This may freeze peace moves for the time being, but they will continue."

"Door Is Not Closed"

Shao Li-tze, Nanking elder statesman who has been advocating peace and refused a post in the present Chinese Cabinet, said:

"The Government will have to consider these terms. It does not mean the door to peace is closed."

The Communist radio Friday broadcast the terms for peace—punishment of "war criminals," including President Chiang Kai-shek, suspension of the Constitution, end of the Kuomintang (Chiang's party), a splitup of the army, and organization of a Red-dominated government.

Reds Take Over Tientsin

Tientsin was without water and power as fires raged in several sections of the city. Within a few hours after Nationalist resistance collapsed, the Reds extended their control over all of the city.

Full details of the capture were hidden by a complete breakdown of communications with the city late in the day.

Communications officials here were unable to say whether Communist shellfire or the arrival of Red troops severed the radio link with the city. There had been heavy firing for more than a day before the 50,000 Nationalist troops dropped their arms.

The situation in Tientsin underwent a rapid change on Friday. Almost at the same hour that Fu's headquarters in Peiping jubilantly proclaimed Lin's army had suffered 40,000 casualties, the Reds started their victory march toward Victoria road.

The piercing cold caused suffering among the despairing and unhappy citizens as a result of the shattering of windows in hundreds of homes Friday when a shell exploded in the Shell Oil Company's gasoline-storage tanks.

The people sought to improvise emergency coverings with blankets, rugs or anything able to keep out the cold until the Communists could get them fuel.

Safety Is "Guaranteed"

One report from Tientsin, before the communications failed, said no Communist official had yet appeared at the consulates, but one sent word that the security and safety of foreign residents would be guaranteed as soon as mopping up operations against the remnants of the National garrison were completed. There was nothing from Tientsin to indicate the Red occupation of the city was any less disciplined and orderly than in the case of other Chinese municipalities, once the shelling and fighting had stopped.

A projected airdrop of medical supplies at Tientsin from Peiping was abandoned.

A shell exploded outside the American Mission Board headquarters in Tientsin, but no one was injured. Sam Yates, of Detroit, in charge of the United States Information Service, and a Chinese girl employé of the United States Consulate were slightly injured by flying glass when the explosion at the Shell Oil plant shattered windows.

FAR EASTERN ANTI-RUSSIAN PACT IS SEEN

9 Nations Are Possible Members; Way Open For 3 Others

London, Jan. 15 (AP)—A regional pact to ward off Communist expansion in the Far East may be the next Western move in the cold war with Russia, it was reliably reported today.

Although there is no official confirmation, the plan apparently has progressed to the point of consultations between possible members.

These, at the outset, might include the United States, Britain, Canada, Australia, France, Holland, New Zealand, China and India. Membership might be held open for Indo-China, Indonesia and Malaya if they establish stable governments.

Basis Of Discussions

The proposal was the basis of discussions between Ernest Bevin, British Foreign Secretary, and Robert Schuman, French Foreign Minister, this week on mutual problems in the Far East.

Although those discussions were secret, it was learned that Bevin hammered home the point that Britain thinks national independence movements in that area should be encouraged by the democratic powers.

He stipulated that he means "national movements" not provoked by Russian-directed Communists.

Creation of a Far Eastern defensive pact would be in line with Bevin's recent declaration in the House of Commons that regional pacts must be developed to assure security.

Co-Operation To Be Extended

The United States has taken the same line—as evidenced by its participation in current talks with Canada and the western European countries to write a North Atlantic defense pact.

This thinking was, perhaps, the chief reason behind the British-French conference. A communique at the end of those talks yesterday emphasized that the co-operation between those two countries in Europe would be extended to the East.

A Foreign Office spokesman said an announcement on Anglo-French policy in the Far East could be expected soon.

He refused to answer any questions as to its nature.

BEVIN TO FACE HOUSE DEBATE

Criticism Of Palestine Policy Growing In 3 Parties

London, Jan. 15 (AP)—Criticism of Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin's Palestine policy mounted among Laborites, Liberals and Conservatives today.

Questions listed for next Wednesday's session of the House of Commons indicated the Foreign Secretary would be in for a hot time. Parliament returns from a month-long Christmas holiday Tuesday.

Raymond Blackburn, a Labor member of Parliament, said he would demand a public investigation into the death of Pilot Officer David Crossley Tattersfield, one of the five RAF pilots shot down a week ago Friday over the Israeli-Egyptian battle area. The question may open a bitter parliamentary argument over Britain's action in sending armed air reconnaissance patrols along Israel's frontier.

Flyer Instructions Sought

Two other members listed parliamentary questions for the debate on Palestine. A. V. Harvey, a Conservative who formerly was an RAF commodore, said he wanted to know the exact instructions given the fighter patrols before they were sent into the battle zone.

W. T. Scott-Elliott, a Labor member, said he intended to ask Bevin if he knows how many aircraft have been supplied to Israeli by Czechoslovakia in defiance of the United Nations embargo on arms shipments.

Sir Andrew MacFadyean, president-elect of the Liberal party, told a Palestine protest meeting in London tonight "the evidence suggests that at times Bevin has been activated, if not by hatred, at any rate by intense dislike" of the Jews.

War Believed Possible

He said Britain's relations with the Arabs had distorted British official judgment of the Middle East situation.

Clement Davies, parliamentary leader of the Liberal party, told the meeting: "We were dealing with a situation so tense that anything might happen—including war." The Labor Government's policy, he said, was in line "with a whole series of other actions, the effect of which has been to foment trouble and fan the flames of war."

Harold MacMillan, Conservative wartime British resident commissioner at Allied Mediterranean headquarters, told another political meeting at Bromley the "Middle East muddle is really intolerable."

"Suspected By Arabs"

"We find ourselves," he said, "after 30 years of generous effort on their behalf, bitterly hated by the Jews. We are suspected by the Arabs, we have failed to win the sympathy or the co-operation of the Americans and we are being maneuvered by the Russians."

He said Conservatives previously had supported Bevin in Parliament "because we have felt that even if his head was muddled his heart was in the right place."

Winston Churchill, the Conservative leader, just returned from a holiday in France, is likely to lead a sharply critical attack on Bevin. He previously has assailed the Government for sending a Mosquito plane over the Jewish capital, an action that was revealed when the plane was shot down a month ago.

Labor Revolt Important

Anthony Eden, No. 2 Conservative, already has voiced criticism of Bevin's policy on Israel.

Bevin's position depends primarily, however, upon the extent of the revolt within the Labor party. Left-wing members of the party have rebelled before over foreign policy and defense measures without shaking him. Laborites have called a private caucus for next Wednesday to put him on the carpet. Unless Bevin is able to satisfy them, they may carry the fight to the floor of the House.

Bevin Hails Pact With French

London, Jan. 15 (AP)—Foreign Secretary Bevin said today Britain and France have reached an agreement providing hope for the world.

He had conferred here for two days with French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman.

"We achieved a great agreement which augurs well not only for France and Britain, but for Europe and the world," Bevin declared after saying farewell to Schuman at Victoria Station.

There was no announcement of the specific details of the agreement. Schuman said last night, however, that he and Bevin had covered the whole range of world problems common to the two nations.

He said also Bevin revealed "a happy fact" about Indonesia. He declined to say what this fact was. There was speculation here he meant a new American plan—later reported from Lake Success—to settle the trouble between the Netherlands and the Indonesian Republic.

Eire Gets Wheat-Parley Bid

DUBLIN, Jan. 15 (AP).—Eire today was invited to take part in an International Wheat Conference at Washington on Jan. 25.

Budapest Foes Form European Unity Group

Paris, Jan. 15 (AP)—A group of Hungarian exiles opposed to the present Budapest regime formed a Committee for European Unity today and named Paul Auer, former Hungarian minister here, as president.

Auer was one of the Hungarian diplomats who resigned in 1947 to protest the overthrow of the previous Hungarian Government by the Communists. In a brief statement, Auer said the Hungarian people desired to participate in the formation of a European federation.

"The Hungarian people," he said, "hope that western Europe will not abandon the oppressed European nations which also want to live in an independent and democratic Europe."

Reds 'Disavow' Atomic Chief

Paris, Jan. 15 (AP)—Frederic Joliot-Curie, chief of the French atomic energy project, has been disavowed by the Communist party, the newspaper France-Soir declared today. Joliot-Curie is a party member.

Both Communist headquarters and Joliot-Curie's own office refused to deny or confirm the report. The paper's editor in charge of the story, however, said:

"The story will stand up."

Gave Secrecy Pledge

Joliot-Curie told the Anglo-American Press Association January 5 that he would leave the party if it ordered him to give secret information to a foreign country.

"If the Communist party did that," he replied to a question, "it would no longer be my party."

His statement was not printed in the Communist press.

Joliot-Curie recently announced that the first French atomic pile has begun operation. It is not to be directed toward the making of bombs, he emphasized, but to peaceful uses.

Draws Line At Treason

At the luncheon Joliot-Curie told the newsmen:

"A French Communist or any other citizen, who comes by secret information in a government job, has no right to give it to any foreign power. It does not belong to him. That would be dishonest. That would be treason."

The France-Soir article said these statements were a deviation from the Communist line. The article, professing to quote from an official statement of the party's political bureau, adds:

"Indeed, M. Joliot-Curie has committed the error of including the U.S.S.R., the fatherland of all workers, in the phrase 'any foreign power.' A French Communist should have no secrets from the U.S.S.R.'

France-Soir lists itself as independent in politics.

3d Top Red Seized In Ruhr Protest

Duesseldorf, Germany, Jan. 15 (AP)—British authorities announced today the arrest of a third top Communist in connection with a Communist rally protesting against the Ruhr statute.

A British announcement said a summons was served yesterday on Paul Salemka, Communist party secretary in the Ruhr, on charges of "organizing a public political meeting without permission of the military government."

Two Going On Trial Tuesday

The announcement said this also was the charge against Hugo Paul, party chairman in the Ruhr, who disclosed last night that a summons had been served on him.

The rally was held January 2.

The two are to be brought to trial before a control commission court in Duesseldorf Tuesday.

The court also will try Max Reimann, western German Communist leader, arrested two days ago on a charge of threatening German politicians who co-operate with the Western Allies under the Ruhr statute.

This statute provides for control of the iron and coal producing center by the Western Allies and Germany.

Russian Power Cut Off To U. S. Zone in Bavaria

NUERNBERG, Jan. 15 (AP).—The Russians apparently made good tonight their threat to cut off East-Zone power to Bavaria.

Officials at the Ludersheim power station, near Nuernberg, said shortly before 9 p. m. that the customary flow of power from the Russian occupation zone was not coming through. They said they had no official word from the Russians.

Russian authorities threatened this week to cut off power for Bavaria, which is in the American occupation zone unless it was paid for in equipment rather than money. General Lucius D. Clay, American Military Governor, said at a news conference that the United States would not lift the embargo on goods for the Soviet zone.

The Russian plants supply 10 per cent of Bavaria's power. General Clay said Bavarian industries would be affected by a power reduction.

Power Is Still Flowing From Russ Zone

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 15 (AP). Electric power still flowed this morning from the Soviet to the American zone of Germany.

A cut-off of power by the Russians is, however, expected soon, possibly later today.

The Soviet zone supplies the United States zone State of Bavaria with almost ten per cent of its power.

The Russians have threatened to cut off this supply unless the American zone pays for it in goods instead of cash. This demand was refused yesterday by Gen. Lucius D. Clay, United States Military Governor.

Why He Refused

Clay refused because it would mean breaking the Western Allies' counterblockade of eastern Germany.

American zone border power stations reported at noon that power still was flowing over the grid system into Bavaria.

"Preparations, however, have been made to meet any possible cutoff," a high-ranking Bavarian official said.

Cut Off Of Power

One step is likely to be the cutoff of a small amount of power moving in the other direction—from the United States to the Soviet zone.

Another step is a reduction in power consumption in Bavaria. The state is already hard hit by its relatively low power production. Some industries, which might be producing for European recovery, have been slowed in recent months by the low water level at hydroelectric plants. To offset the loss of power from the Soviet zone, additional power may be directed into Bavaria from other American-zone states.

Non-Reds Told To Shun Italian Slow-Up Strikes

Christian Democrats See Communist Strategy as Political 'Sabotage'

ROME, Jan. 15 (AP).—Christian Democratic workers rebelled today against Communist-dictated strike orders.

Their action threatened to sap the strength of a well-planned Communist-led labor war against government and industry. This struggle invaded sixty of Italy's biggest industrial factories in the Milan area today in the form of "non-collaboration," or slowdowns.

Non-Communist labor leaders quickly called on their followers to stick to their jobs. They called the slowdown "sabotage" with political motives.

In Palermo, Sicily, two-thirds of the city's transit workers ignored a Communist strike call for higher pay. With police riding trucks and buses, the Christian Democrat workers kept public transportation rolling.

The chief challenge to Communism's hold on organized Italian workers came from the Free Confederation of Labor (L. C. G. I. L.) organized last year by Christian Democrats opposed to Communist strikes.

Giulio Pastore, secretary of the union, told reporters that the Milan slowdown would have only one result—"creation of new conditions of inferiority for Italian industrial products in foreign markets." He appealed for patriotism among workers in the face of what he termed propaganda by the Communist-controlled General Confederation of Labor (C.G.I.L.).

The C.G.I.L., which asserts it has a majority of workers in the industrial north, began its "non-collaboration" program in Milan factories today, but cautioned members against sabotaging equipment. One Communist leader was quoted as saying the slowdown would cut metals output by 35 per cent.

The slowdown was called in protest against the planned shutdown of the Caproni and Safar industrial plants, which employ some 8,000 workers. Management has said it cannot maintain present production in the two plants without continued financial loss.

The slowdown is not expected to spread to the textile plants which employ a large number of anti-Communist women. Its effect in chemical, printing and other industries will not be known until next week, as most Italian factories reduce operations over the week end.

AUSTRIA ASKS POWER LOAN

Seeks $212,000,000 to Build Hydroelectric Plants

GENEVA, Jan. 15 (AP)—Austria has applied to the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development for financial aid in the construction of two hydroelectric stations estimated to cost $212,000,000, the Economic Commission for Europe announced today.

The projects are to be built on the Luenersee Lake and in the Oetztal Valley of Western Austria. They are ultimately expected to produce more than 2,000,000,000 kilowatt hours of electricity a year, of which two-thirds is to be exported to the Anglo-American zone of Germany.

The remaining third of the power produced is to be devoted to Austria's international use, as well as to power export to Italy and Switzerland.

Recent discussions between an Austrian delegation and a representative of the International Bank in Geneva were attended also by an observer of the Yugoslav Government. It was understood that a similar application for a loan for hydroelectric development may soon be made to the International Bank by Yugoslavia.

Montgomery at The Hague

Expected to Discuss Financing of West's Military Power

THE HAGUE, Jan. 15 (AP).—Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery, chief of the Western European Union defense team, arrived today. He will spend three days here, probably in discussing the financing of the alliance's military power.

He has an engagement for Monday with Finance Minister Pieter Lieftinck, who is said to have reservations about Holland's ability to provide the necessary funds to finance its part of the program.

Proposals under study were reported to include an extension of the term of military service in Holland to two years. This would make necessary more barracks, equipment and provisions.

PREMIER QUITS POST IN GREECE

King Paul Calls Party Leaders To Meet With Him Today

Athens, Jan. 15 (AP)—The ailing Premier Themistokles Sophoulis resigned today.

Alexander Diomedes, who like Sophoulis is a Liberal, expressed willingness to form a new government but under conditions which made it unlikely that party leaders would agree. Diomedes, former governor of the National Bank, made it clear he will serve only if he can be a real head of government having broad powers.

King Paul, accepting the aged Sophoulis's resignation, called party leaders to meet with him tomorrow to consider this new emergency in his country.

The resignation followed a general staff announcement that Greek national troops finally had driven Communist guerrillas from the battered industrial town of Naoussa, 90 miles west of Salonika.

Shambles Of Wrecked Buildings

The newspaper Vradyni reported a correspondent flying over the Naoussa area saw smoke billowing 3,500 feet from the burning city, which it called a shambles of destroyed buildings with dead in the streets.

The army admitted yesterday the guerrillas had captured most of the city but said reinforcements were being sent.

Greece is the second country receiving American dollars to fight communism to lose its Government in two days. Turkey's Government collapsed yesterday in a fight over the high cost of living.

Sophoulis, 88, resigned after demanding a free hand, regardless of party lines to make a wholesale housecleaning of the Government and suppression of what he calls the political-economic oligarchy. The naming of a supreme commander to lead Nationalists against the Communist rebels was another of his demands.

Naoussa Casualties Heavy

Sophoulis, enfeebled by heart attacks, said he may submit a memorandum to the King on conditions as he sees them in Greece.

His resignation had been expected and talks already were under way in an effort to bring together all Liberal parties in a united front government.

Press dispatch said casualties were heavy in the Naoussa fighting, but there has been no official estimate. The rebels' radio reported 720 Nationalist troops killed. The newspaper said the guerrillas killed or wounded many inhabitants and took many hostages before they were driven away.

The general staff said Nationalist forces pursued them.

Rebels At Naoussa Routed By Greeks

Athens, Jan. 15 (AP)—A general staff spokesman announced today Greek national troops have dislodged guerrillas from Naoussa and are pursuing them.

Guerrillas captured the biggest part of Naoussa, an industrial town 90 miles west of Salonika, from a 400-man garrison yesterday. A general staff communiqué earlier today said fighting continued in the area.

Rebels Take Hostages

Press reports said most of the town was laid waste after looting and that the guerrillas killed, wounded or took as hostage a large number of the inhabitants.

Political as well as military events drew attention in Athens.

King Paul and Premier Themistokles Sophoulis planned to talk over late today a Sophoulis threat to resign.

The Premier, 88 and ailing, announced last night he is "determined and prepared to quit office" unless there is a quick settlement of the Cabinet dispute over social measures and the naming of a generalissimo to take full command of the anti-guerrilla campaign.

King To Visit Premier

King Paul said he would visit Sophoulis to discuss the situation. Ordinarily the Premier would call on the King, but Sophoulis has been enfeebled by heart attacks.

Sophoulis, a Liberal party leader, advocates suppression of the privileges of what he calls the political-economic oligarchy and of plutocratic exploitation, crushing of corruption and cleaner administration.

Papagos Declines Post

Gen. Alexander Papagos has declined a War Ministry appointment as supreme commander of the Greek armed forces while the Supreme Defense Council exists, saying he wants a free hand.

Britain and the United States are represented on the defense council, which has had overall direction of Greek military activity.

Russ Assail Remarks By U.S. Jurist

Moscow, Jan. 15 (AP)—The Soviet press today quoted a United States judge as calling for "physical force against persons who criticize the United States and praise the Soviet Union."

The papers printed a dispatch from Scranton, Pa., on remarks made by Federal Judge Albert L. Watson, while swearing in 34 persons as American citizens. They headlined it: "Fascist Speech by American Judge."

Judge Watson swore in 34 new citizens — former residents of eleven foreign nations—at Scranton on Wednesday. During the ceremonies, he said:

"If anyone ever says to you that there is something wrong with your Government, and that the Government which exists—if it does exist—in Russia today is the type of government which will guide you to happiness and liberty and comfort, get rid of that person just as quickly as you can—and I recommend physical force."

Reds Honor Plane Designer

Give Order of Lenin to Tupolev, Who Designed War Craft

MOSCOW, Jan. 15 (AP).—Moscow newspapers today headlined an award of the Order of Lenin to Lieutenant General A. N. Tupolev, noted Soviet airplane designer.

General Tupolev received the citation on his sixtieth birthday. A specialist in multi-engined aircraft, he designed planes used in World War II and also the planes which flew over the North Pole to the United States before the war.

Cairo Blast 'Dead' Now Total None

Cario, Jan. 15 (AP)—Officials scaled down to zero today the number of dead in Thursday's explosion at the Natioanal Law Courts.

First reports said two were killed in the blast. Police later said only one man, a cigarette vendor, had perished. When relatives called to get his body, they found he also was alive.

JAN 1949

Israel Peace Delegates Sent To Lebanon Border For Talks

Tel Aviv, Palestine, Jan. 15 (AP)—Israel sent official delegates north tonight for a frontier armistice meeting with the representatives of Lebanon, it was reported reliably here.

The Arab front against negotiating with Israel, already cracked by Egypt's delegation at Rhodes, appeared to be breaking.

If a substantial accord is reached at the meeting somewhere on the Lebanese border, it is expected here that Lebanon will be invited by Dr. Ralph Bunche, acting United Nations mediator, to join broader armistice negotiations at Rhodes.

Lebanon long has been regarded as eager to settle the quarrel. Her forces have not been active from the first.

For the border meeting, the Jews called back from Rhodes two of their representatives. They were Col. Yigal Yadin, chief of staff of the Army, and Elias Sassoon, No. 2 diplomat on the delegation and expert on Jewish-Arab affairs.

It was likely that both went to the frontier. If this was the case it was expected that Yadin would come back to Tel Aviv tomorrow and go on to Rhodes as quickly as possible for continuing talks with the Egyptians.

TALKS ON RHODES IN CRITICAL STAGE

Sweeping Armistice Proposal Is Offered By Bunche

Rhodes, Jan. 15 (AP)—The Israeli-Egyptian armistice conference today moved into the rough ground where it may come to wreck or success.

Dr. Ralph Bunche, acting United Nations mediator, was said by a reliable source to have attempted a bold stroke by submitting a draft proposal to each delegation covering all military and boundary phases of the Negeb dispute.

If he succeeded in having it adopted, the conference, for all practical purposes, would be over. All that would remain would be the actual drafting and initaling of a permanent armistice agreement which probably would end the eight-month war over the Holy Land.

But the points on which Bunche sought agreement were those on which all cease-fires and temporary truces since October have been wrecked.

Lifting Of Siege Asked

Included were the questions of Israel's lifting the siege of the Egyptian garrison of about 3,000 men at Faluja, the delineation of armistice lines to which the opposing forces would withdraw and the reduction of forces by both sides.

At stake were the probable frontiers of Israel in the coveted Negeb desert, which she seeks to make fertile and populous with settlers. Until now, at least, the Jews and Egyptians have held widely differing ideas on this subject.

The Jews were expected to accept after much argument the proposal to lift their three-month siege of Faluja, 30 miles southeast of Tel Aviv, to the extent of letting the Egyptians march away—but only on the condition that such an agreement would not be implemented until decisions have been reached on the other points.

Separate Sessions Held

Negotiations on each of the succeeding points promised to become progressively more difficult and complex.

Spokesmen for Bunche said it was unlikely any agreement on any one item would be announced until work on the whole agenda has been completed. It was likely, however, that a call for a formal session of the conference would signal agreement on some item.

Bunche's proposals were submitted today at separate meetings with each of the delegation leaders and their selected aides. This was the same pattern as yesterday, when Bunche saw them separately and obtained their agreement to the first article of the agenda, a pledge for each to refrain from new offensives while negotiations are in progress and to respect the national security of the other side.

Israeli Officials Recalled

After agreement had thus been secured in private, a formal session lasting but fifteen minutes was held to ratify the accord.

Although thus meeting the Israeli leaders face to face for the first time in an official conference between the two governments, the Egyptians so far have refused to have their photographs taken at the same table with the Jews.

Col. Vigal Yadin, Israeli chief of staff, and Elias Sassoon, a senior Foreign Office official, were recalled to Tel Aviv today. The reason for their departure was not learned, but it was reported they might return.

Freeing Troops At Faluja Is Discussed

Rhodes, Jan. 15 (AP)—Egyptians began negotiations today for the release of an estimated 3,000 Egyptian troops trapped by Israeli forces at Faluja, in Palestine's Negeb Desert.

This was the second major item on the agenda for armistice negotiations aimed at ending Israeli-Egyptian warfare and bringing full peace to the Holy Land.

Both sides agreed yesterday, in conferences under the eye of Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, the United Nations acting Palestine mediator, to halt all offensive military operations during the talks and to respect each other's national security.

Preamble Adopted

Spokesmen said details of the armistice preamble adopted yesterday would not be made public until the discussions end—perhaps next week.

The Egyptians were trapped at Faluja, northeast of Gaza, in October during the first Israeli campaign in the Negeb.

Today's talks followed yesterday's pattern. Bunche saw the heads of each delegation and selected Egyptians and Israelis to hammer out terms of the armistice in top-secret meetings. The official full sessions are merely formalities and take little time.

Difficulties Rise

Yesterday the negotiators quickly agreed on respect for national security and an end of aggressive action. Each point on the agenda is successively more difficult, however.

The Jews are expected to agree to free the Egyptians at Faluja but insist that the accord not be put into effect until decisions are reached on demarcation lines and withdrawal of forces—the next two points on the agenda. Observers say the conference will succeed or fail on these points. Egypt and Israeli have been widely at odds over borders in the desert.

Both Claim Negeb

A complicating factor is the recommendation of Count Folke Bernadotte, the mediator killed by the Jews, that the Negeb be taken from the Jews and given to the Arabs and that western Galilee be taken from the Arabs and given to Israel as compensation.

Both sides claim the Negeb. The Jews presently control it except for a narrow coastal strip to Gaza. The United Nations partition decision of November, 1947, gave most of it to the Jews, some to the Arabs.

A usually reliable source said Bunche submitted a draft proposal to both delegations covering all military and boundary phases of the Negeb dispute.

May End Conference

This includes the Faluja pocket, armistice demarcation lines, withdrawal and reduction of forces. The Security Council ordered withdrawals last November and December.

If the bold stroke by Bunche succeeds, observers say the conference in effect would be over. All that would remain would be the actual drafting and signing of the terms.

Elias Sasson, senior foreign office official, and Col. Yigal Yadin were recalled to Tel Aviv for undisclosed reasons. They may return. Several other persons were reported coming from Haifa to attach themselves to the Israeli delegation, it was learned.

Point No. 2 of the agenda calls for implementation of the Security Council resolution of November 4 and November 16, which ordered both Jews and Arabs to withdraw to positions held October 14 and to negotiate for peace.

India-Pakistan Parley Agrees on Kashmir Plan

NEW DELHI, Jan. 15 (AP).—The Defense Ministry announced the India-Pakistan military conference agreed today on recommendations to follow up the cease-fire order in the princely state of Kashmir.

The cease-fire, brought into informal force Jan. 1, was confirmed, a ministry communique said. It said the representatives agreed on recommendations to be made to the respective governments regarding withdrawal of Pakistanis serving with Kashmir forces opposing India, exchange of prisoners and minor changes in local dispositions of troops.

A Defense Ministry spokesman said the conference also agreed on a formula for posting forty United Nations observers on the various fronts. Fighting developed in Kashmir, whose population is mostly Moslem, after the Hindu ruler assigned the state to India.

Under a U. N.-sponsored agreement, the people of Kashmir are to decide later whether they want to stay with India or join Moslem Pakistan.

Burma Rebels Reported Menacing British Mines

Rangoon, Burma, Jan. 15 (AP)—Newspapers reported today that 2,000 armed Karen tribe rebels are menacing the British Mawchi mines in Karenni state. The Karens were said to have moved up from the Central Burma district of Toungoo.

Some 600 Chin troops moved toward Moulmein to fight against Karen and Mon rebels who earlier in the week occupied Bilugyun Island.

The anti-Fascist Peoples Freedom League, the dominant political movement in Burma, announced it will stage a mass rally "to consider the Karen insurrection against the Burma Union Government." The Karens are demanding a separate state.

U.S. Observers Sent To Kashmir

Tokyo, Jan. 15 (AP)—The United States Army Department has instructed the Far East Command to send about 20 officers to India to assist the United Nations Commission in observing the cease-fire in Kashmir between India and Pakistan.

Japan-Germany Phone Service

TOKIO, Jan. 15 (AP).—Two-way radio telephone service between Japan and Germany started today, giving the two former Axis countries direct communications for the first time since the war.

11th Airborne Unit Leaving Japan

Yokohama, Jan. 15 (AP) — Maj. Gen. William M. Miley and 40 officers and enlisted men's dependents, today sailed aboard the army transport General Buckner as the advance detachment of the 11th Airborne Division which is moving from Japan to Camp Campbell, Ky.

Units of the veteran Pacific War division, which has been stationed in northern Japan, will begin moving next month. They will be replaced by the 7th Infantry Division which has been withdrawn from South Korea.

BIAS BY U.N. UNIT CHARGED BY DUTCH

Report That Troops Can't Keep Order Is Attacked

Batavia, Java, Jan. 15 (AP)—The Dutch conquerors of the Republic of Indonesia today accused the United Nations Good Offices Committee here of being biased and badly informed.

An army communiqué lashed at the committee's report to the United Nations yesterday that Holland's forces can't even preserve order, let alone stop widespread sabotage by Republican guerrillas. The committee's observers reported hundreds of bridges destroyed and much destruction by guerrillas, particularly around Soerabaja.

The Dutch reply came as the guerrillas' underground radio reported new victories against the Dutch, and said insurgents had knifed into the Dutch-held communications network around Cheribon.

Anger Clear In Retort

Anger was clear in the Dutch retort to the Good Offices Committee. It said that "for months on end" the Dutch told the committee about "the looting, murder, destruction and vexation of the population" caused by guerrillas.

"If the observers think all this has taken place during the past few weeks as a result of the Netherlands' action (its conquest of the republic in the attack which started December 19), they give evidence of being extremely badly informed," the communiqué said.

It accused the committee of having "devoted every attention to destructive phenomena," and saying nothing about areas where conditions have become normal. Much of the committee's report consists of "hearsay," the reply added.

Insurgent Gains Reported

Bitterly, the Dutch demanded to know "upon whom the committee thinks to bestow good offices by this form of information."

These new developments came as native leaders of Dutch-sponsored Federal Indonesian states were meeting here to discuss their role in Holland's plan for a United States of Indonesia. The Republicans resisted many features of the plan, which promises to form all of the Netherlands East Indies into a country having equal partnership with Holland under the Dutch crown.

Java Guerrillas Claim Dutch Meet Reverses

Batavia, Java, Jan. 15 (AP)—An underground broadcast today said Indonesian Republican guerrillas have slashed into the communications network around Cheribon and have driven the Dutch from Patjitan on Java's south coast.

The Republican radio's claim was not confirmed by official Dutch sources. It was made a day after United Nations military observers reported Netherlands troops were proving insufficient to stem sabotage by guerrillas in North Central Java or even to maintain order in the towns.

Four-Hour Fight Rages

According to the Republican broadcast, the guerrilla forces which captured Patjitan, 55 miles southeast of Soerakarta, engaged the Dutch in heavy fighting for four hours.

Other guerrilla units, operating along the north coast in West-Central Java, gained control of Djatibarang, a rail junction city 20 miles northwest of Cheribon, the broadcast said. Tjikidjing, 15 miles south of Cheribon, also was reported in Republican hands. Farther south the guerrillas took Malangbong west of Tasikmalaja.

Rebels Repulsed

Republican forces in extreme western Java suffered a defeat, the broadcast said. They attacked Pandeglang, 41 miles southwest of Batavia, but were repulsed.

Native leaders of the Dutch-sponsored Federal Indonesian States, gathered in Batavia to discuss their political future, are voicing regret over the Dutch conquest of the Indonesian Republic. They seem willing, however, to throw in their lot with the Netherlands.

These leaders are conferring with Netherlands Premier William Drees concerning their role in the Dutch plan for a United States of Indonesia. They are saying privately that the fallen republic should have some representation in any such federation or interim government preceding it.

One Approves Plan

Only one Federal leader has voiced open approval of the Dutch conquest. He is Teungka Mansoer of East Sumatra—long an avowed foe of the republic. Sultan Hamid II of Pontianak, powerful Borneo leader, is also reported to side with the Dutch.

Heads of the oldest and largest Federal state—East Indonesia—are pursuing a middle ground.

Premier Anak Agung and other leaders have decried the Dutch use of force, but say they are willing to make the best of it, if speedy formation of an interim government follows.

Insist On Haste

Anak Agung says he is willing to see his state join such a government then let the interim group negotiate directly with Republican leaders.

The State's Premier has made it clear his people will insist that the Dutch waste no time in making good their promise to unite all of the East Indies into a sovereign United States of Indonesia having equal partnership with Holland under the Dutch crown.

Anak Agung and his Cabinet resigned in protest against the Dutch offensive and he has been forming a new government.

Regret Dutch Action

Dutch-supported leaders in other federal states — South Sumatra, Madoera, East Java and Pasundan in West Java—are saying little.

Their position is much more difficult. Their states were part of the republic's original territory, until the first Dutch police action in July, 1947. Their borders touch the defunct republic. Their populations include many Republican sympathizers. Their areas are accessible to Republican guerrillas now harassing the Dutch in Java.

Belgian, American and Australian members of the United Nations Good Offices Committee flew today to the island of Bangka, off Sumatra, to confer with Republican Premier Mohamed Hatta, whom the Dutch captured at Jogjakarta.

Mohammed Rum, chairman of the republican delegation to Batavia, has been held with Hatta on the island.

CLARK BACKED IN APPEAL FOR NEW SPY LAW

Rayburn, Martin Favor Study Of Plan For Legal Wire-Tapping

Washington, Jan. 15 (AP)—Speaker Rayburn and House Republican Leader Martin (Mass.) threw bipartisan weight today behind the idea of hunting ways to tighten the laws against spying.

They showed an inclination to swing along with Attorney General Tom C. Clark on the general theme that Congress should explore the possibility of giving the Government greater peacetime powers to combat espionage. But Clark's specific proposals, particularly to legalize wire tapping, probably will be approached cautiously.

Rayburn said: "I wouldn't be surprised if a search were made of what might be done." Martin said: "I think it's worth a careful study to see if we can do anything."

Warns Of Excessive Action

Martin did not wish to take a position on wire tapping in spy cases without thinking it over more. He said he would "want to be sure we don't overstep ourselves" in trying to check spying.

But the Speaker said:

"I'm sure Congress would look favorably on a reasonable bill that would allow the Department of Justice to do wire tapping under the proper restrictions.

"I don't think anyone wants to deny that a man's home is his castle. But if the Government has a lead indicating that someone was jeopardizing the national defense, it should be allowed to pursue it."

Clark made his recommendations for tougher anti-spy laws in letters last night to Rayburn and Chairman McCarran (D., Nev.) of the Senate Judiciary Committee.

Opposes Limitations Statute

He said Congress should end the Statute of Limitations in spy cases, so the Government could prosecute regardless of how long ago the offenses were committed. He said Congress should make it legal for the FBI, and for Army, Navy and Air Force intelligence officers to tap wires in spy cases so the evidence could be used in court. Clark said the tapping should be done under rules drawn up by his office.

The Attorney General had several other suggestions, such as making it a felony to possess restricted Government papers without permission, and requiring registration as foreign agents of all people in America who have received spy training from a foreign government or political party.

Representative Wood (D., Ga.), due to become chairman of the House Un-American Activities Committee next week, said he is for "strengthening the espionage laws to any extent required, bearing in mind the protection of the rights of the people." But he, too, said he would want to study the wire-tapping proposal further.

New Peacetime Espionage Law Is Proposed

Washington, Jan. 15 (AP)—A sweeping revision of the espionage laws has been proposed by Attorney General Clark as protection against "the treacherous operations of those who would weaken our nation internally."

He asked Congress for unprecedented peacetime power to press spy charges no matter how long ago the offense occurred, and said law officers should have the legal right to tap wires for evidence in such cases.

The bill Clark sent last night to House Speaker Rayburn (D., Texas) and Senator McCarran (D., Nev.), chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee, embodied the unanimous recommendations of an interdepartmental committee made up of FBI, Army and Navy intelligence experts.

Result Of Investigations

Their submission to Congress follows an eighteen-month investigation by a special Federal grand jury in New York city into alleged foreign spying in this country, and a lengthy and sensational inquiry into the same subject by the House Un-American Activities Committee.

The New York grand jury returned no indictments for espionage, and Justice Department officials asserted that it was hampered because existing laws place a limit on the time for prosecuting suspected spies.

The grand jurors did indict Alger Hiss, former State Department official, on charges that he lied when he told them he never gave secret state papers to unauthorized persons in 1938.

Aimed At Future Filching

Whittaker Chambers, an admitted former member of a Soviet espionage ring, had testified before both the grand jury and the House committee that he received important documents from Hiss for delivery to Russian agents.

Clark made no specific reference to the 1948 spy hunt in his recommendations to Congress. But his proposals placed heavy emphasis on measures designed to prevent any future filching of Government information.

Besides the request for power to get evidence by tapping wires and by-pass the Statute of Limitations in spy cases, he asked changes in the espionage laws to:

1. Make the unauthorized possession of restricted Government documents a felony.

2. Require the surrender of such documents to proper authorities without demand.

3. Make illegal the unauthorized handling of national-defense information which could be used "to the advantage of any foreign

...ion"—instead of requiring intent to injure the United States, as at present.

4. Punish failure to report the loss, theft, "abstraction, destruction or unlawful transmission" of restricted information.

5. Punish conspiracies involved in the gathering, transmission or loss of defense information.

6. Require the registration as foreign agents of all persons in this country who ever received instructions or training in espionage and sabotage under a foreign government "or foreign political party."

7. Make the failure to so register a continuing offense—to remove any possibility an offender could fall back on the three-year Statute of Limitations.

8. Require the surrender of radio, telegraph and other communications records to authorized agents of the Government in connection with investigations involving the national security.

9. Make permanent the wartime laws providing $5,000 fine and one-year imprisonment for violating military orders aimed at protecting the nation's aircraft, airfields, ships, harbors, ports or other water-front facilities.

CIVIL-RIGHTS 'CRUSADE' SET

Congressman Warns Of, Group Promises, Demonstration

Washington, Jan. 15 (AP)—A pre-inaugural "freedom crusade" here was announced today by the Civil Rights Congress. It predicted 3,500 would take part. A member of the House Un-American Activities Committee declared that the demonstration might resort to "violence and riot."

Representative John S. Wood (D., Ga.), expected to be chairman of the Un-American Activities Committee, told fellow members of Congress in a letter that the "crusade" was being organized.

He said the purpose will be to intimidate the Government and Congress "in efforts to curb the activities of the Communist party and to prosecute its leaders."

"Red-Herring Probes"

The Civil Rights Congress said in a statement that the "crusade" will be made to demand an end to "red-herring probes and Government-condoned terror against racial, religious and political minorities."

Wood said "proper precautions have been undertaken to guard against" any possibility of violence.

The Civil Rights Congress said that one of the features of the affair will be "the largest gathering of the 'victims of the Eightieth Congress' comprising many of those who have been indicted or convicted by the House Un-American Committee, the Department of Justice or victimized by the Federal 'loyalty order.'"

Twice Listed As Subversive

William L. Patterson, national executive secretary of the Civil Rights Congress, said President Truman and the Eighty-first Congress "will be emphatically reminded of election promises regarding civil liberties" by the "crusade" delegates.

In his letter to fellow House members, Representative Wood noted that the Civil Rights Congress had been listed by the Justice Department in December, 1947, as a subversive organization and that it had been similarly described in September, 1947, by a report of the Un-American Activities Committee.

Legislative Parley Tomorrow

The Washington office of the group said a reply to Wood will be made tomorrow.

Patterson said that a civil-rights legislative conference on Monday will be attended by 500 representatives of churches, civic, veteran, labor and other groups, to "map plans for enactment of civil-rights legislation."

Hoey Sets Policy Of Helpfulness For Probe

Washington, Jan. 15 (AP)—The Senate Investigating Committee which carried on a running fight with the Truman Administration last year will operate in the Democratic Eighty-first Congress "in a spirit of helpfulness."

That was the word today from Senator Hoey (D., N.C.), who is due to take over the reins dropped by Senator Ferguson (R., Mich.).

Ferguson centered his investigations in 1948 on possible Communist influence in the Government. In doing so, he was constantly at odds with Attorney General Clark.

Plans New Approach

Hoey, commenting that there is "nothing to carry over" from last year, indicated that things will be a little different in 1949.

"Our approach will be in a spirit of helpfulness in an effort to bring to light needed changes in policy that will help to secure more efficiency and economy," he said, adding:

"Of course we will not hesitate to hold public hearings if something needs to be ventilated."

The frock-coated Senator said he feels the group can be most effective by making quiet investigations and calling the attention of department "to things that have gone wrong."

Cites Very Broad Powers

The investigating subcommittee is a unit of the committee on expenditures in the executive department. As Hoey observed, it has "very broad powers" to investigate Government activities.

Senator McClellan (D., Ark.), chairman of the full committee, said yesterday that he intends to name Hoey chairman of the investigating group. It has carried on the work of the old Senate War Investigating Committee formerly headed by President Truman.

To Organize Next Week

Hoey, who said his subcommittee will organize next week, is assured a fresh start on personnel. The full committee called yesterday for all 17 staff members to resign within 30 days.

Some of the staff employés "unquestionably will be retained," the 70-year-old North Carolina lawmaker said, adding that under Ferguson the group rendered "valuable service" in improving Government operations.

Western Europe's Output Gains ~~With~~ Marshall Aid

Washington, Jan. 15 (AP)—"Encouraging" progress in western Europe has boosted factory production and exports close to prewar volume, the Economic Co-Operation Administration announced today.

The report was issued as ECA, aided by a score of staff officials from the Marshall plan council in Paris, pushed preparations to ask Congress for a second-year program of $4,500,000,000.

The ECA reported that almost all the seventeen actively participating countries also have met "some success" in fighting the inflation which has disrupted their postwar trade and investment.

10 Per Cent Above 1947

The total output of mines and factories last fall was ten per cent above 1947 and "nearly equal to the 1938 rate"—the last year of peace in Europe. Exports, excluding shattered Germany, are at about the prewar, or 1938, level.

The report also contained a sober note. Nathaniel Knowles, ECA statistical chief who analyzed the European country-by-country figures, said the nations "still have many difficulties to overcome before a satisfactory balancing of international accounts is achieved."

This paralleled the warning given the European nations earlier this week by Robert Marjolin, secretary general of the Organization for European Economic Co-operation, the Paris council. Marjolin is here with the Paris group advising ECA on the 1950 program.

A $3,000,000,000 annual deficit in foreign trade will confront Europe when the Marshall plan ends in mid-1952, Marjolin said, unless the governments themselves stabilize their currency, curb imports further, increase productivity and wage a vigorous campaign to broaden their overseas markets.

Notes Reduction Of Gap

The ECA's own study reported a reduction of the gap between European exports and imports, including a narrowing of "the very large trade deficit with the United States." But the slow expansion of European trade within Europe and commerce with other nations remains "a major obstacle to recovery," ECA said.

Based on European figures up to date as of October 1, ECA's recovery barometer showed:

Steel production, excluding western Germany, "well above the 1938 rate and equaling the prewar high of 1937."

Cement output, a basic factor in industrial construction, ahead of prewar—"far ahead," if Germany and italy are excepted.

Electric power output well above prewar. The gain is 50 per cent, excluding Germany.

Farm Crops Increase

Farm crop yields estimated at twenty per cent above 1947, though still about five per cent below prewar in calorie content.

Railway freight traffic, again excepting Germany, one third above prewar.

"Improvements in living conditions, transportation, and supplies of materials and fuels are permitting increased output per worker, although productivity has not generally regained prewar levels," the ECA report said.

"The wartime dislocation of the labor force has been largely overcome but scattered labor shortages hinder the expansion in production.

"On the other hand, unemployment is serious in Italy and Greece and among displaced persons."

The position of the consumer has not improved as much as these figures might indicate, ECA noted. A greater part of Europe's resources now are being thrown into plants, railroads, machinery and equipment; the outlays therefore do not show an immediate return in increased supplies of consumer goods.

Below Prewar Supply

"The supply for food and clothing, while greater than last year, remains below prewar," the report said.

Europe's export showing was boosted by the fact that exports from Britain expanded rapidly in the last year to a reported level 40 per cent above prewar by October. Imports have been held 18 per cent under the prewar volume.

"In other countries, however, exports have increased less or actually declined, and the total remains considerably smaller than before the war," ECA said.

"Imports of these countries have generally been falling off over the past year, but are still above prewar levels."

DEFENSE PRICE INCREASING, SAYS SULLIVAN

Navy Head Cites Costs Of New And More Efficient Armaments

Washington, Jan. 15 (AP)—The Navy does not expect present international controversies to lead to war, Secretary John L. Sullivan said today, but believes a powerful defense is the price of peace.

"Literally speaking, that price is rising," Sullivan said in his annual report for 1947-48.

Following within a week President Truman's request for $14,000,000,000 for the armed services—the largest peacetime military budget in the nation's history—Sullivan declared future navy budgets "inescapably" will be even higher.

Cost Inescapably Larger

"Maintaining an effective navy has required large appropriations in recent years," he said. "To maintain an equally effective navy in the future, the cost inescapably will be still larger."

The reasons he listed—inflation, more complex war machines and exhaustion of wartime stockpiles—presumably would apply with equal force to Army and Air Force money needs.

"It is felt that the international controversies developing since World War II are susceptible to eventual resolution," Sullivan commented, adding:

"In any event, a strong defense is the greatest deterrent to attack, and is therefore a powerful influence for peace. The Navy's plans and condition of readiness are geared to provide the influence..."

Radical Changes Noted

"Radical" changes in anti-aircraft guns, heavier and faster planes, faster submarines, faster ships and better detection and destruction methods are being developed against the major threats of "fast deep-diving submarines, high-speed planes and guided missiles and atomic weapons," he said.

As to the future, Sullivan said remote "push-button" warfare is far from realization and "may not fully materialize in our time."

30. 24 - 309

At the same time, he added, improvements in weapons are proceeding swiftly and any future war would find radical alteration in traditional methods of naval warfare.

Expectations Exceeded

Recent developments in the field of guided missiles "have exceeded expectations," he said, listing such milestones as the launching of a German V-2 rocket from a carrier, the firing of a smaller V-1 rocket from a submarine and the development of the ram-jet engine.

Greatly improved anti-aircraft guns are expected to punch down attacking aircraft at much greater ranges, now and in the immediate future, Sullivan said.

He noted the trend toward automatic control of aircraft "which may mean eventually the end of piloted military aircraft as they are known today."

Manual Control May End

At another point in his report, he said, "it is anticipated that speeds may be reached soon where manual control of an airplane as we now know it may no longer be possible."

And to avoid the mass damage of atomic bombs, Sullivan said the huge fleet of laid-up ships is scattered at twenty points on the East, West and Gulf coasts and decentralization of shore stations and bases is being weighed as a protective measure.

Two "radically different" aircraft guns to increase "materially" navy plane firepower are under development, a navy official said in amplification of the report.

Stronger Rockets Designed

Rockets with double the wallop and performance of wartime rockets are in the design stage, as well as more accurate fire-control systems, he added.

Sullivan said the 20-millimeter cannon soon will replace the .50 caliber machine gun in almost all new aircraft.

Although the Navy has been reaching back into the storerooms and partly living on wartime supplies, Sullivan warned that the cupboard is getting empty.

Billion Deficit Foreseen

He said that this year (1948-49) the actual cost of operating the Navy will exceed by more than $1,000,000,000 the cash voted by Congress.

"Inevitably this . . . will necessitate increases in future appropriations if the present size and scope of naval operations is to be supported."

Because of the pinch of funds, Sullivan said, the Navy has put off considerable painting, patching and repairing in the shore establishments. But the roof can be propped up only so long, he warned, and the deferred maintenance which now totals $150,000,000 must be paid for some day.

Senate Approval Seen Assured For Acheson

Washington, Jan. 15 (AP)—Critics of Dean Acheson scraped the bottom of the barrel today in search of Senate votes against his confirmation as Secretary of State.

Senator Capehart (R., Ind.), often critical of Administration foreign policy, said he doesn't know anyone who is going to fight the nomination actively.

Capehart wouldn't say how he will vote, however. Neither would Senator Brewster (R., Maine), whose friends said he might be among the few who would not go along with President Truman's choice for the top Cabinet job.

Taft To Poll Committee

Senator Taft of Ohio said that while he will poll the Senate Republican Policy Committee to see if any members want to make an issue of the Cabinet choice, he doesn't know of any opposition now.

The 13-to-0 count by which the Senate Foreign Relations Committee approved Acheson's appointment yesterday formally lined up Senator Vandenberg of Michigan, chief Republican exponent of the bipartisan foreign policy, behind the nominee.

Vandenberg said he is preparing a brief speech of approval for Tuesday, when Senator Connally (D., Texas), committee chairman, said the matter will be brought before the Senate.

Vandenberg Satisfied

Vandenberg apparently was satisfied with Acheson's expression of views on world questions at yesterday's closed committee sessions.

But there seemed little likelihood that his relations with Acheson will approach for some time the intimate basis on which the Michigan Senator and Secretary of State Marshall dealt in handling international problems.

Acheson put himself squarely on record against the doctrine of communism in a statement which the committee made public.

"Communism Is Fatal"

The prospective new secretary said:

"It is my view that communism as a doctrine is economically fatal to a free society and to human rights and fundamental freedoms. Communism as an aggressive factor in world conquest is fatal to independent governments and to free peoples."

Committee members saw this as fitting in closely with the Administration's present firm policy with Russia.

Democrats Pleased

But some of them said it was not to be taken as an indication that Acheson is committing himself in advance to any set course in a world where conditions can change quickly.

Democrats generally were pleased at the impression Acheson made in public hearings and at yesterday's closed session.

Senator McGrath, of Rhode Island, the Democratic national chairman, said he thinks Acheson acquitted himself well and will benefit in his new post by having aired his views on Capitol Hill.

U.S. Plane Funds Nearly Spent

Washington, Jan. 15 (AP)—The Air Force and the Navy have about finished shopping for planes for a while.

Both branches received presidential approval yesterday to contract for more aircraft. That used up all available air force funds and left the Navy only about $31,000,000 for new planes.

Their total plane purchases during the year which began last July 1 amount to around $2,400,000,000, counting $300,000,000 set aside by the Air Force for bombers but not yet approved by the White House.

Jets On Order

The Air Force announced yesterday that it had ordered $109,000,000 worth of jet night fighters and light trainers.

Navy officials meanwhile said the President had approved $80,000,000 to be spent for combat aircraft.

The Air Force bought 48 Northrop F-89 two-jet all-weather or night fighters and 110 Lockheed F-94 single-jet night fighters. It also will buy an undetermined number of small trainers.

Orders Canceled

The money was made available through cancellation of plans last fall to buy 88 Curtis-Wright F-87 Blackhawk jet all-weather fighters and 100 Republic F-84 jet day fighters.

Last Tuesday the Air Force canceled $300,000,000 in orders for jet medium and light bombers, jet fighters, small transports and helicopters. It said the money will be used to buy a "substantial" number of giant B-36 bombers and to modify present B-36 and B-50 planes.

Americans Can Use Six German Video Patents

Washington, Jan. 15 (AP)—Tom C. Clark, Attorney General, said today that six patents relating to television tubes and image projection, formerly German owned, are now available to American business generally.

The patents were seized during the war from Manfred von Ardenne, the German owner, and vested by the Office of Alien Property.

The announcement said they become available for general licensing on a royalty-free basis, as a result of "waiver by an American national of its alleged claim of interest" in the patents.

U.S. Tour of German Art Yielded $190,000 Relief

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15 (AP).—Paintings by the old masters of Europe have brought in a fund of about $190,000 for the benefit of children in the United States zone of Germany, Secretary of the Army Kenneth C. Royall announced today.

The fund has come from the tour through the United States of part of the famous paintings which were brought here in 1945 for safekeeping after being discovered in a salt mine by advancing American forces. More than 200 works of such masters as Rembrandt, Rubens and Botticelli were shipped to the National Gallery of Art here, to be returned when German facilities are ready to receive them back. The National Gallery decided to pick some of those substantial enough for long rail trips and send them on a nation-wide tour.

ARMY REFUSES PURGE OF DYING GI'S RECORD

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15 (AP)—The Army held today that the record of James H. Schaffner, dishonorably discharged World War II veteran, "must ride as it is" unless new evidence was presented.

The attorney for the 25-year-old Cheektowaga, N. Y., veteran whose physician expects him to die of tuberculosis within five months, had appealed to the public for clemency Tuesday in a "petition of right."

The petition held that Schaffner was convicted illegally of being absent without leave while with the Air Corps in England and contracted the disease while confined at the Loire disciplinary training station, near Paris, "amid filthy and loathsome surroundings."

Capt. Vernon Gilpin of the Army's public relations staff said last nigth that "the record shows that Schaffner was given every opportunity to clear his military record—more than other prisoners received—but that he failed to take advantage of it."

He said that after five months at the prison camp Schaffner's sentence and dishonorable discharge were suspended and he was sent to a new station. Captain Gilpin said Schaffner returned a week later and said he could not locate the station, then was sent to another and was picked up in civilian clothes in Paris a month later.

"After being apprehended, he escaped confinement again," the captain said. "Because of this misbehavior on the part of Schaffner, his superior officers believed he could not be rehabilitated."

Lilienthal Praises U.S. Atom Progress

Is 'Less Apprehensive' of 'Catastrophe'

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Jan. 15 (AP).—David E. Lilienthal, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, said today the United States was "now better organized to make headway in every aspect of atomic energy" than ever before.

The A. E. C. chairman inspected the atomic energy projects at the University of Rochester Medical School and the university's new 130-inch cyclotron.

Tomorrow he will address a public meeting sponsored by Temple B'rith Kodesh as part of its centennial celebration.

Mr. Lilienthal said he felt "more hopeful of human betterment as a result of atomic energy and less apprehensive of atomic warfare and the catastrophe it would bring than at any time since I have had anything to do with the Atomic Energy Commission."

He praised the University of Rochester's work in seeking to minimize the effects of atomic radiation on personnel. He said that in the future "millions of people will feel complete safety and ease of mind as a result of the techniques" in which the university medical school "pioneered" to safeguard atomic energy personnel.

Nelson Rockefeller Calls Capitalism a World Aid

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 15 (AP).—Nelson A. Rockefeller said today that the United States has stirred up "a freedom of conscience throughout the world."

The former Assistant Secretary of State added: "Now we must follow that up with a form of economic co-operation and capitalistic investment, based not so much on the profit motive as on an opportunity to do the most good."

Mr. Rockefeller was the principal speaker at Founder's Day exercises at the University of Pennsylvania. Nearly 1,000 alumni attended.

"The best interests of democracy and of free society, including all of labor, are tied up with capitalism," he said. "There has been an evolution in our financial thinking, especially notable since the war. It is that capitalism is now concerned with production and distribution that will benefit all peoples."

Harold E. Stassen, president of the university, said: "In this country we have seen capitalism develop remarkable productive capacity that has dividends for all."

SECOND NIGHT LEAD CHINESE

NANKING, SUNDAY, JAN. 16-(AP)-PENGPU, ON THE HUAI RIVER DEFENSE LINE JUST 100 MILES NORTHWEST OF NANKING, WAS ABANDONED OVERNIGHT TO THE COMMUNISTS, THE DEFENSE MINISTRY ANNOUNCED TODAY.

LOSS OF PENGPU FOLLOWED BY ONLY 24 HOURS COMMUNIST CAPTURE OF TIENTSIN, COMMERCIAL HUB OF NORTH CHINA.

PENGPU'S CAPTURE WAS NO LONGER CONSIDERED IMPORTANT, STRATEGICALLY, BECAUSE COMMUNIST FORCES ALREADY HAD INFILTRATED CLOSER TO THIS CAPITAL ON BOTH SIDES OF THE RAILWAY. HOWEVER IT NO DOUBT WILL REFLECT SEVERELY ON THE NATIONAL GOVERNMENT'S SAGGING MORALE.

JAN 1949

PLANS TO EVACUATE THE CITY HAD BEEN LAID FOR SOME TIME, WITH A POSSIBLE STAND PLANNED AT CHUHSIEN, 30 MILES NORTHWEST OF NANKING.

CAPTURE OF TIENTSIN AND PENGPU SHARPENED THE URGENCY OF THE GOVERNMENT ALTERNATIVES TO YIELD TO HARSH PEACE TERMS OR FLEE.

PENGPU, 105 MILES NORTHWEST OF NANKING, HAD BEEN THE ANCHOR FOR THE HWAI (CORRECT) RIVER DEFENSE LINE WHICH WAS THROWN UP HASTILY AFTER GOVERNMENT REVERSES TO THE NORTH IN NOVEMBER AND DECEMBER.

COMMUNIST RAIDS, CUTTING THE RAIL LINE BETWEEN PENGPU AND PUKOW -- ACROSS THE YANGTZE FROM NANKING, WERE FOLLOWED BY REMOVAL OF NATIONALIST ARMY HEADQUARTERS FROM PENGPU TO CHUHSIEN DEC. 17.

COMMUNIST TROOPS A

ONG THE PENGPU FRONT WERE REPORTED REGROUPING DEC. 28, PRESUMABLY FOR AN OFFENSIVE ON THE APPROACHES TO NANKING.

THE GOVERNMENT'S HEADQUARTERS AT CHUHSIEN ARE UNDER THE COMMAND OF GEN. LI SHIH. HE RETURNED TO NANKING SATURDAY. IT WAS REPORTED LIKELY THAT LI WILL BE GIVEN ANOTHER POST AND HIS TROOPS INTEGRATED WITH GEN. TAN GEN-PO'S NANKING-SHANGHAI DEFENSE COMMAND.

NANKING, JAN 15 (AP)-THE EXECUTIVE YUAN, TOP POLICY BODY OF THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT, SCHEDULED A MEETING FOR SUNDAY MORNING TO CONSIDER THE COMMUNISTS' PEACE TERMS.

THE 8-POINT PROGRAM BROADCAST BY THE COMMUNISTS FRIDAY NIGHT CALLED FOR VIRTUALLY COMPLETE SURRENDER OF THE GOVERNMENT.

NANKING HOPES FOR A COMPROMISE SETTLEMENT WERE FURTHER BLUNTED BY THE COMMUNIST CONQUEST OF TIENTSIN.

PEIPING, SUNDAY, JAN. 16-(AP)-WITH TIENTSIN CAPTURED BY THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS, THE MOVEMENT FOR A LOCALIZED PEACE IN PEIPING IS GAINING GROUND RAPIDLY.

A GROUP OF INFLUENTIAL PEIPING RESIDENTS, SOME OF THEM RETIRED WARLORDS, SAID THEY FAVORED SUCH A STEP IMMEDIATELY. SO DID LU FU, ACTING PRESIDENT OF CHINA COLLEGE. HE IS A MEMBER OF CHINA'S LEGISLATIVE YUAN.

EVEN A NEWSPAPER OWNED BY THE GOVERNMENT'S NORTH CHINA COMMANDER, GEN. FU TSO-YI, LENT ITS VOICE TO THE GROWING CLAMOR.

JAN 1949

THE NEWSPAPER, PING MIN [illegible]PAO--IN AN EDITORIAL REGARDED AS SIGNIFICANT--SAID THE DIVIDED VIEWS IN NANKING ON THE QUESTION OF PEACE GAVE NOT ONLY THE COMMUNISTS BUT THE PEOPLE AS A WHOLE THE IMPRESSION THE GOVERNMENT IS NOT SINCERE IN ITS AVOWED DESIRE FR PEACE."

"THE OUTLOOK FOR PEACE IS VERY GLOOMY AND THE PEOPLE ARE BITTERLY DISAPPOINTED," SAID FU'S NEWSPAPER. "IT IS TIME TO NEGOTIATE DIRECTLY WITH THE COMMUNISTS, BUT THE FIRST REQUISITE IS A UNANIMOUS FRONT SO THE COMMUNISTS WILL NOT DOUBT OUR SINCERITY."

THE NEWSPAPER ADDED THAT ANY MOVE FOR A LOCALIZED PEACE IN THE PEIPING AREA COULD NOT BE TERMED SURRENDER TO THE COMMUNISTS OR REVOLT AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT, AS IT WOULD BE DESIGNED TO PRESERVE THIS ANCIENT CAPITAL FROM DESTRUCTION AND TO AVOID UNNECESSARY SACRIFICE OF LIFE IN THE LAST HOURS OF THE CIVIL WAR.

(MOOSA'S DISPATCH DID NOT CLARIFY WHETHER THE PHRASE, "LAST HOURS OF THE CIVIL WAR" IS A QUOTATION FROM FU'S NEWSPAPER.)

THE NEWSPAPER SAID THE ATTAINMENT OF A LOCALIZED PEACE WAS NOT AN EASY MATTER. IT SUGGESTED:

1) A CEASE FIRE UNTIL PEACE TERMS COULD BE REACHED, AND

2) AN ARRANGEMENT FOR ENOUGH FOOD AND OTHER NECESSITIES TO REACH PEIPING.

JAN 1949

FU'S PAPER ARGUED THE COMMUNISTS SHOULD ACCEPT THIS PROPOSAL.

"THE COMMUNISTS ARE ALREADY VICTORIOUS," SAID THE PAPER. "THERE IS NO NEED TO KILL MORE PEOPLE. THE PEOPLE ARE NOT THEIR ENEMY NOR ARE THE ARMY OFFICERS AND MEN WHO ARE SIMPLY CARRYING OUT ORDERS.

"IF THE COMMUNISTS ARE WISE, THEY WILL NOT BE STUPID ENOUGH TO DESTROY CITIES AND MAKE THE PEOPLE LIVING IN THEM SUFFER."

THE FIRST OFFICIAL ADMISSION OF THE FALL OF TIENTSIN CAME TODAY FROM A SPOKESMAN FOR GEN. FU TSO-YI, THE GOVERNMENT'S NORTH CHINA COMMANDER. HE IRRITABLY DESCRIBED TIENTSIN AS "LOST" AND HINTED THAT "AN IMPORTANT STATEMENT MIGHT BE ISSUED SOON."

HE REFUSED TO ELABORATE. ONLY YESTERDAY HE HAD CLAIMED A "GREAT NATIONALIST VICTORY AT TIENTSIN AND PREDICTED THE CITY WOULD NOT BE LOST."

SEVERAL COMMUNIST SHELLS LANDED IN DIFFERENT PARTS OF PEIPING SATURDAY, BUT CAUSED ONLY A FEW CASUALTIES, THESE AMONG THE CHINESE.

THE MILITARY SPOKESMAN SAID THE REDS APPARENTLY HAD THREE ARTILLERY OBJECTIVES -- THE TEMPLE OF HEAVEN, LEGATION QUARTER AIRFIELDS AND GENERAL FU'S HEADQUARTERS.

BULLETIN

SHANGHAI, JAN.15-(AP)-GOVERNMENT TROOPS CEASED ALL ORGANIZED RESISTANCE TO RED ATTACKERS AT TIENTSIN TODAY, REPORTS REACHING HERE SAID.

(SHANGHAI DID NOT GIVE THE SOURCE OF ITS REPORTS ON THE CAPTURE OF THE CITY. PRESUMABLY THE AMERICAN CONSUL GENERAL'S RADIO THERE, HOWEVER, IS STILL WORKING.)

THESE REPORTS SAID THAT EXCEPT FOR SMALL ARMS AND CANNON FIRE, CHINA'S NORTHERN INDUSTRIAL COMMERCIAL CENTER FELL INTO COMPARATIVE SILENCE AS THE COMMUNISTS MOVED IN TO COMPLETE OCCUPATION OF THE CITY.

REPORTS REACHING HERE AT 1 P.M. SHANGHAI TIME (MIDNIGHT FRIDAY, EST) SAID THE REDS WHO SHELLED TIENTSIN INTO SUBMISSION WERE OCCUPYING LARGE PORTIONS OF THE CITY INCLUDING BOTH THE FORMER BRITISH AND FRENCH CONCESSIONS.

IT APPEARED THAT MOST GOVERNMENT TROOPS, FOLLOWING A PATTERN SET IN PREVIOUS BATTLES, LAID DOWN THEIR ARMS WHEN THE COMMUNISTS APPROACHED. NATIONAL TROOPS POSSIBLY SURRENDERED OR TRIED TO ESCAPE DISGUISED AS CIVILIANS.

U.S. CONSUL GENERAL ROBERT SMYTH OF BERKELEY, CALIF. REPORTED ALL MEMBERS OF HIS STAFF WERE SAFE DESPITE SHELL BURSTS WHICH DAMAGED WINDOWS AND DOORS OF THE CONSULAR BUILDING.

"SO FAR AS CAN BE ASCERTAINED ALL OTHER AMERICANS (TOTALLING MORE THAN 80 PERSONS) ARE SAFE," SMYTH MESSAGED.

FROM PEIPING, SPENCER MOOSA, ASSOCIATED PRESS CORRESPONDENT, REPORTED THE REDS ENTERED VARIOUS PARTS OF TIENTSIN, INCLUDING THE OLD CITY OUTSIDE OF THE CONCESSION AREA, MARCHING "IN GOOD ORDER."

SEVERAL LARGE FIRES WERE REPORTED RAGING IN THE CITY OF 3,000,000 (?) POPULATION. THE CITY WAS WITHOUT WATER AND ELECTRICAL POWER.

STREETS AROUND THE AMERICAN CONSULATE, USUALLY JAMMED WITH FOOT AND VEHICULAR TRAFFIC, WERE DESERTED WHEN THE REDS MARCHED IN, MOOSA WROTE.

(MOOSA MADE NO MENTION OF REACTION TO TIENTSIN'S FALL IN PEIPING, 90 MILES TO THE NORTHWEST AND ITSELF SURROUNDED AND UNDER RED ATTACK. IT WAS PRESUMED THAT GOVERNMENT CENSORSHIP WAS HOLDING UP ANY SUCH MESSAGE.)

NANKING SOURCES ESTIMATED THAT 50,000 GOVERNMENT TROOPS FELL INTO RED HANDS AT TIENTSIN.

THEIR COLLAPSE FREED THE BULK OF RED GEN. LIN PIAO'S VETERAN REDS FOR ASSAULTS ON THE STUBBORNLY HELD PORT OF TANGKU, 27 MILES DOWN THE HAI RIVER FROM TIENTSIN, AND PEIPING. EVENTUALLY, THESE TROOPS MAY BE MOVED SOUTHWARD TO JOIN IN THE EXPECTED DRIVE AGAINST THE NATIONAL YANGTZE RIVER LINE.

FROM NANKING, JAMES D.WHITE, ASSOCIATE PRESS CORREDPONDENT, SAID RED TROOPS MARCHED DOWN WIDE VICTORIA ROAD IN TIENTSIN, FIRING THEIR RIFLES INTO THE AIR. THEN, HE SAID, THEY CONTINUED INTO THE FORMER FRENCH CONCESSION, WHERE THE STAFF OF THE UNITED STATES INFORMATION SERVICE WAS TREATED TO ANOTHER BURST OF FIRING INTO THE AIR AS THE REDS SOUGHT LURKING NATIONALISTS AND FORCED THEM TO SURRENDER.

FROM TIENTSIN ITSELF THERE WAS ONLY SILENCE AT THIS HOUR. IT WAS PRESUMED IN SHANGHAI THAT FACILITIES OVER WHICH BETTY CHANG, AN AMERICAN NURSE, REPORTED THE CITY'S LAST DAYS FOR THE ASSOCIATED PRESS EITHER HAD BEEN DESTROYED OR HAD FALLEN INTO RED HANDS.

SAN FRANCISCO, JAN 15-(AP)-THE CHINESE COMMUNIST RADIO TODAY CLAIMED GEN. CHEN CHANG-CHIEH, TIENTSIN NATIONAL COMMANDER, HAD BEEN CAPTURED WITH THE FALL OF THE GREAT NORTH CHINA CITY.

THE RADIO SAID ALL DEFENDING TROOPS HAD BEEN "ANNIHILATED." (THE CHINESE USE THE TERM "ANNIHILATED" TO COVER THE CAPTURE OF ENEMY TROOPS. MOST OF THEIR CLAIMS ARE EXAGGERATED.)
